One never reaches home. But where paths that have affinity for each other intersect the whole world looks like home, for a time.

Why love? . . . her nose breathes in the air of a world that I know; therefore I love that nose. Her ears hear music I might sing half the night through; therefore I love her ears. Her eyes delight in seasons of the land; and so I love those eyes. Her tongue knows quince, peach, chokeberry, mint and lime; I love to hear it speaking. Because her flesh knows heat, cold, affliction, I know fire, snow, and pain.

THE J. GEILS BAND and MALO A new experience for the students . . . the first time that the field house will be used for a concert . . . it could well be the last time . . . there cannot be any cigarette smoking inside . . . a cigarette will disintegrate the track . . . a plastic cover will be put down . . . but this is virtually useless . . . a cigarette will burn through the plastic cover . . . security is ready for the concert . . . but the show was a 'whammer jammer' and without incident . . .

"NO PLACE TO BE SOMEBODY."

And they came . . . of their own will . . .
with a purpose . . . Black Week 1973 . . .

Why must we have a black week . . . asked some of the uncomfortable . . . Maybe 'cause its been white week for the last two hundred years . . .

How long will their friends stay on campus . . . commented those who were afraid of human beings . . .

And what can Bloomsburg do for a handful of blacks . . . and what can 'they' do for us . . . Maybe just a handful can show us . . . that not all of momma's chillen' like shortnin-shortnin . . . least not the way white America cooks it up . . .

Black Week . . . like prime-time t.v.
for guilty liberals . . . and just another night's entertainment for most . . . but for some . . . maybe just a handful more than the blacks themselves . . . who really understood . . . it was a black experience . . .

POLYURETHANE ENVIRONMENTAL FOAM PHENOMENON

Robbie Jones

The instant I'd finished, I heard a ga-Zump!
I looked. I saw something pop out of the stump
Of the tree I chopped down. It was sort of a man.
Describe him? . . . that's hard. I don't know if I can.
He was shortish. And oldish. And brownish. And mossy.
And he spoke with a voice that was sharpish and bossy.
"Mister!" he said with a sawdusty sneeze,
"I am the Lorax. I speak for the trees.
"I speak for the trees, for the trees have no tongues.
"And I'm asking you, sir, at the top of my lungs—"
He was very upset as he shouted and puffed—
"What's that thing that you've made out of my Truffula tuft?"
He snapped, "I'm the Lorax who speaks for the trees
Which you seem to be chopping as fast as you please."
And at that very moment, we heard a loud whack!
From outside in the fields came a sickening smack
Of an axe on a tree. Then we heard the tree fall.
The very last Truffula Tree of them all!
No more trees. No more Thneeds. No more work to be done.
So, in no time, my uncles and aunts, every one,
All waved me good-bye. They jumped into my cars
And drove away under the smoke-smuggered stars.
Now all that was left 'neath the bad-smelling sky
Was my big empty factory . . .
The Lorax . . . and I.

A Word of Explanation

The enormity of running an informal faculty section can cause weird things to happen . . . Like entire departments dropping from sight. We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the existence of a Math Department, a Special Education Department, and a much larger H.P.E. and Philosophy Department. These people exist. Their pictures do not. We are very sorry about that.

The campus has finished another year. Charles Carlson served quietly as a gentleman. Never confuse politeness with morality. What events of this year will influence the coming semesters at B.S.C.? Has anything of significance actually happened? For the masses it has been a quiet year, and for the few, a tumultous time. The outer layers of the campus were content with hypnotists, sexuality programs, field house concerts, and student union activities. With a flair for emptiness, the campus carried on with business as usual. Towards the end of the political war staged by those sides who simultaneously perceived themselves as all that is good, the campus began hoping for a break. During this rest, the few honest souls would recuperate and those who thought of themselves as imbued with mission would wait only long enough to regroup.

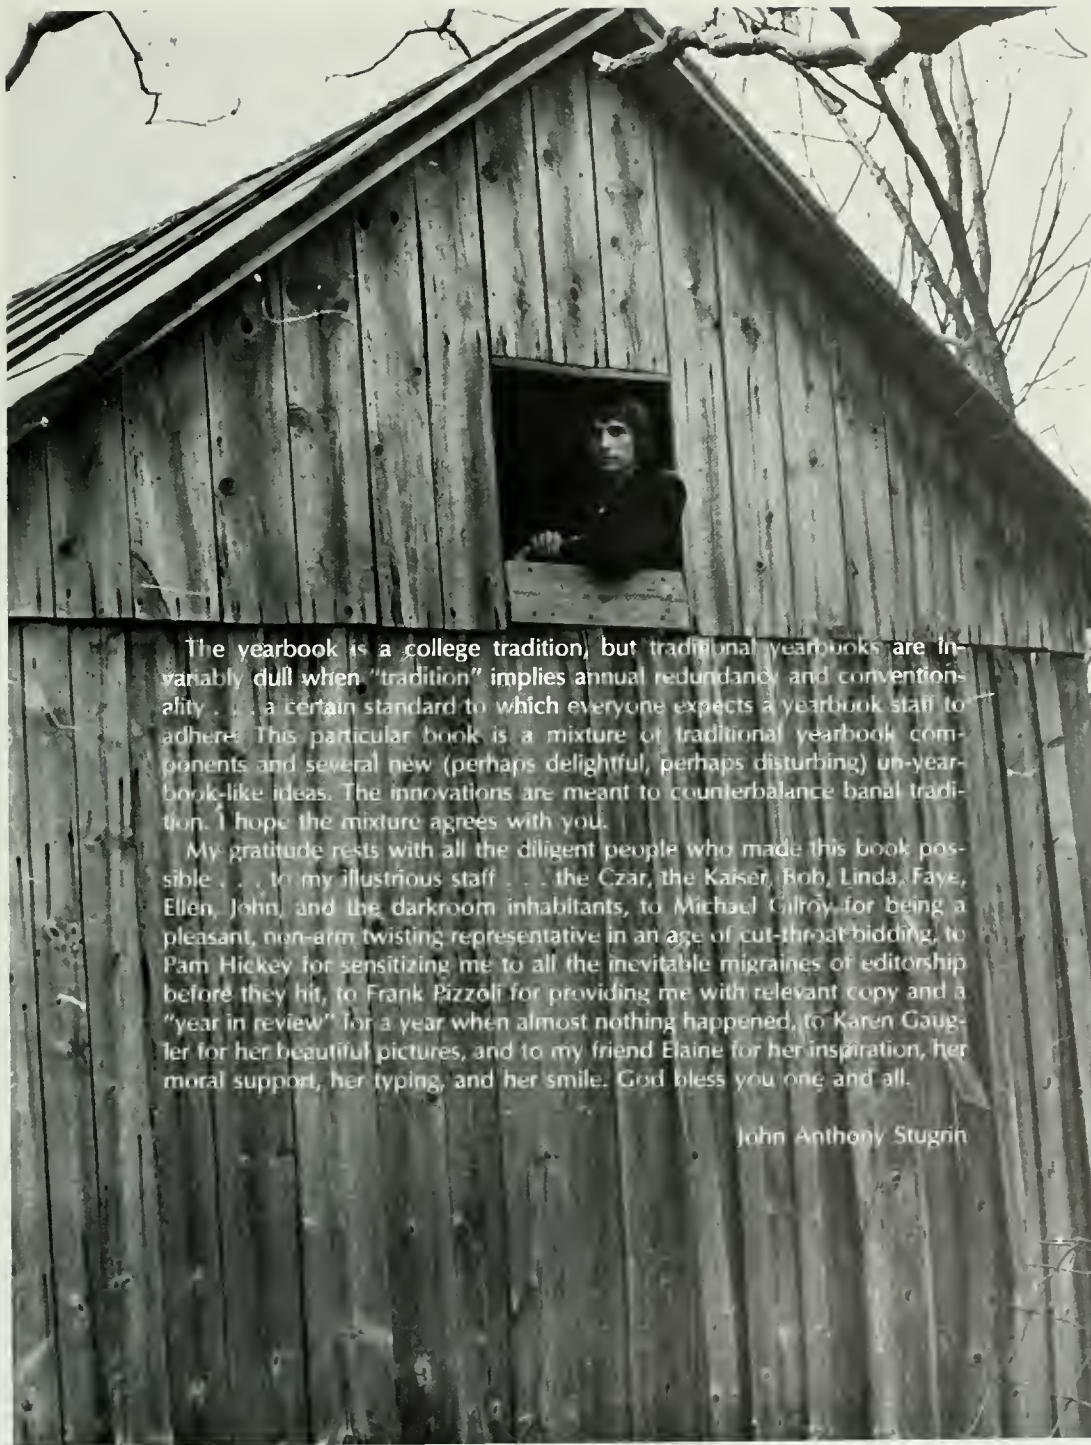

In a somewhat secretive manner, the Board of Trustees has honored the process of choosing a president. From the perspective of the more politically astute, it seems fair to say that the candidate from Shippensburg State College had it in the bag. McCormick, we wish you luck. I would suggest that future student bodies watch the new president carefully, whomever he may be. As the new executive enters office and things start happening, you'll begin to see what was sacrificed on his part so he could get the job. It doesn't happen any other way.

With the death, or should I say killing, of the Great Society on a national level we also see the demise of B.S.C.'s academic society. Retrenchment is a bureaucracy pulling its belt one notch tighter. Money is scarce and anyone dropped from the ranks will not be replaced. In effect, when all the chopping away is completed, B.S.C. will have a faculty that will be the same in twenty years. Only those with tenure survive, not the strong.

What feeling is in the air after this last year? A handpicked president and a secure bunch of tenured faculty. With this, B.S.C. enters the mid-seventies, and with this she'll leave the seventies.

The yearbook is a college tradition, but traditional yearbooks are invariably dull when "tradition" implies annual redundancy and conventionality . . . a certain standard to which everyone expects a yearbook staff to adhere. This particular book is a mixture of traditional yearbook components and several new (perhaps delightful, perhaps disturbing) un-yearbook-like ideas. The innovations are meant to counterbalance banal tradition. I hope the mixture agrees with you.

My gratitude rests with all the diligent people who made this book possible . . . to my illustrious staff . . . the Czar, the Kaiser, Bob, Linda, Faye, Ellen, John, and the darkroom inhabitants, to Michael Gilroy for being a pleasant, non-arm twisting representative in an age of cut-throat bidding, to Pam Hickey for sensitizing me to all the inevitable migraines of editorship before they hit, to Frank Pizzoli for providing me with relevant copy and a "year in review" for a year when almost nothing happened, to Karen Gaugler for her beautiful pictures, and to my friend Elaine for her inspiration, her moral support, her typing, and her smile. God bless you one and all.
