Little Obstacles A Beginning

Those little obstacles meant meeting the new roommate or possibly roommates, the issue of where things were going to go, the RA, finding where all your classes were, the elusive parking place, and so on. But they also marked the beginning of a new way of life and another direction on life's path. Move-In and Registration Day was hectic, problem-filled, but most of all the start of our lives at BU.

First, the immediate problems included on-campus move-in and with all those parents, parking problems for commuters. Meet the roommate, lug the stuff up three, possibly four flights or heaven forbid, seven, meet the RA, buy books, get groceries, and then figure out where things are going to go before sending Mom and Dad back to where ever home is. Then figure out where the bathroom is, who lives next door, where are the best parties, what is the best music station, where are classes, where is the laundry. . .

But with all the hassles came new friends, instant second families, and a burst of freedom like we'd never known before. Living on a floor with some forty or more people meant always having someone to talk to and do stuff with. For those of us who were only children it was like having Electro Shock Therapy. You never knew who was going to walk into the room. Mom and Dad weren't there to yell when we came home late from a party, when the guy from downstairs stayed the night, or when the homework wasn't done. However, they weren't there to cook, play nursemaid when you got sick, do laundry, make the bed, clean the room or make sure you got to school on time. But then, just wait til we move off-campus and on to other things in life.

Fair Breaks the Fall

Every year at the end of September, thousands of people find their way to Bloomsburg. And no, they aren't new freshmen. They come to see the Bloomsburg Fair.

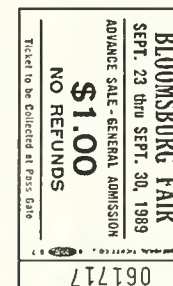

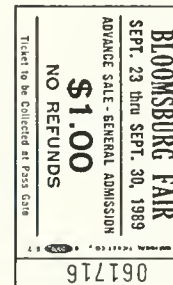

The entertainment is diverse with at least one show by a different performer every night. In previous years, Tiffany, Alabama, Chicago, the Beach Boys, Barbara Mandrell and Randy Travis brought crowds each night.

The rides are fast, looping and loud. But for those running with a younger crowd, there were slides, planes, merry-go-rounds and bumper cars. And for those not young, but young at heart, the ferris wheel with its wonderful view of the fairgrounds could provide some entertainment.

After walking and riding and looking, the smells of the Midway beckoned. Who could resist the french fries, cotton candy, hot sausage, pierogies, ice cream, funnel cakes and candy apples? And, of course, when it ends, who can't wait for next year?

Parents' Weekend Brings Family to BU

Some 2,000 parents and family members of Bloomsburg University students arrived to attend activities at the school's 19th annual "Parents' Weekend," October 13-15. Parents were permitted to attend classes with sons and daughters on Friday the 13th with pre-registration for the weekend's activities at 7 that evening. Saturday morning brought the opportunity for parents to meet with faculty and administrators in Kehr Union's multi-purpose rooms to discuss topics including academic programs, student life and career opportunities. The afternoon proceeded with a pre-game Pennsylvania Dutch

Luncheon, a BU vs. Pace soccer game and the football game with Cheyney at Redman Stadium. "My Fair Lady" provided the Saturday evening entertainment at Mitrani Hall. Those who were unable to attend could go to "Friedhoffer — The Mad Man of Magic" and later CHEERS. Sunday afternoon wrapped the weekend up with a "Student Showcase" including student performing groups, Husky Singers, Women's Choral Ensemble, the Madrigal Singers, the Bloomsburg Players and others. Or a final showing of "Mississippi Burning."

150 Years: A Celebration

In the past year, Bloomsburg University has been celebrating its Sesquicentennial, a hundred and fifty years in existence, to the theme of A LEGACY OF LEARNING.

In the spring of 1989, the celebration began with Rudolph Nureyev and George Carlin's performances. Over the course of the year, there were parties, special guests and special events to remember a past filled with pride.

The fall of 1989, BU began to wrap up the events with a tree-planting in memory of Mrs. Louise Mitrani, a benefactor who passed away during 1989, an environmental symposium, a cake decorating contest (shown here) and the traditional homecoming festivities.

Biggest BU Day of the Year

Homecoming Weekend a Sunny Change

The celebration began Friday night October 27, with the pep rally/bonfire on the steps of Waller Administration building. The Homecoming Committee, chaired by Lisa Markel, announced the five sweetheart finalists: Lucy DiBetta, sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon; Corinne Rogers, Pi Kappa Phi; Susan Schwab, Lambda Chi Alpha; Michele Strobeck, Alpha Sigma Tau; Michele Webster, Theta Chi; and freshman sweetheart Jill Seipe. The theme that spearheaded the homecoming festivities, "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow — A Legacy of Learning", also reflected the end of the yearlong Sesquicentennial Celebration. Saturday morning awoke to the homecoming parade, a student-alumni mixer and one of the most beautiful days in recent history for homecoming. The streets of Bloomsburg and the steps of Carver Hall were crowded that morning as BU alumni representing classes as far back as 1915 marched down Main Street between the bands, floats, motorcycles, cheerleaders, cars filled with sweethearts and other curiosities.

Tau Kappa Epsilon and Chi Theta Pi created the winning float which featured students dressed up in costumes representing different time periods in Bloomsburg University's history. Michele Webster was crowned the 1989 Homecoming Sweetheart during the half-time festivities at Saturday afternoon's football game. The junior psychology major was sponsored by Theta Chi and is a member of Phi Iota Chi. After the half-time ceremonies, the Bloomsburg Husky football team proceeded to bury Millersville in a 33-22 victory which upped the Huskies record to 3-6.

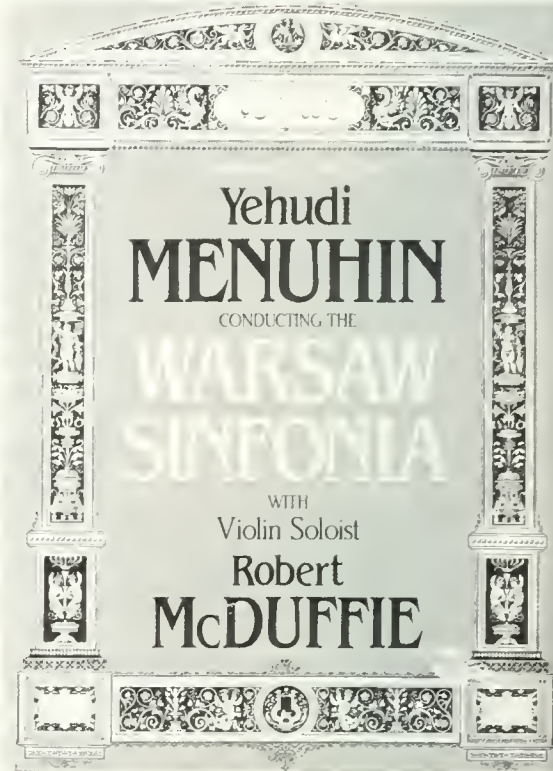

Celebrity Artists Bring Culture

Warsaw Sinfonia, the Hungarian Dance Ensemble and the Northeastern Philharmonic were among the many artists who visited BU during the 1989-90 school year.

What to do at BU?

Bloomsburg offered us a variety of activities once here. The weekend brought parties, concerts, clubs, trips, shopping in the downtown, but something.

BU had concerts, movies, parties, clubs, sports. You name it, it's somewhere or someone at Bloomsburg. If you had the urge to not sit in your room and be a couch potato, you could find it at BU.

In search of study time? The library has weekend and long weekly hours. For those adventurous types, QUEST provides ski trips, rockclimbing, and white water rafting.

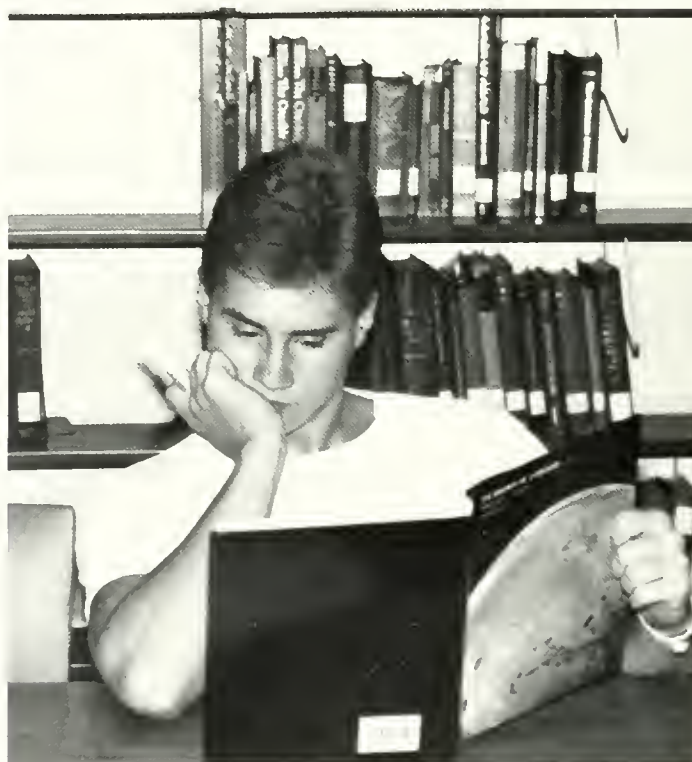

Looking for a quieter activity?

The VOICE, the OBITER, SPECTRUM, and the PILOT might be what you are looking for. Maybe not that quiet? Try WBUQ.

Maybe you'd rather get physical? BU has a several gym facilities including a pool, bikes, aerobics, dance classes and weights.

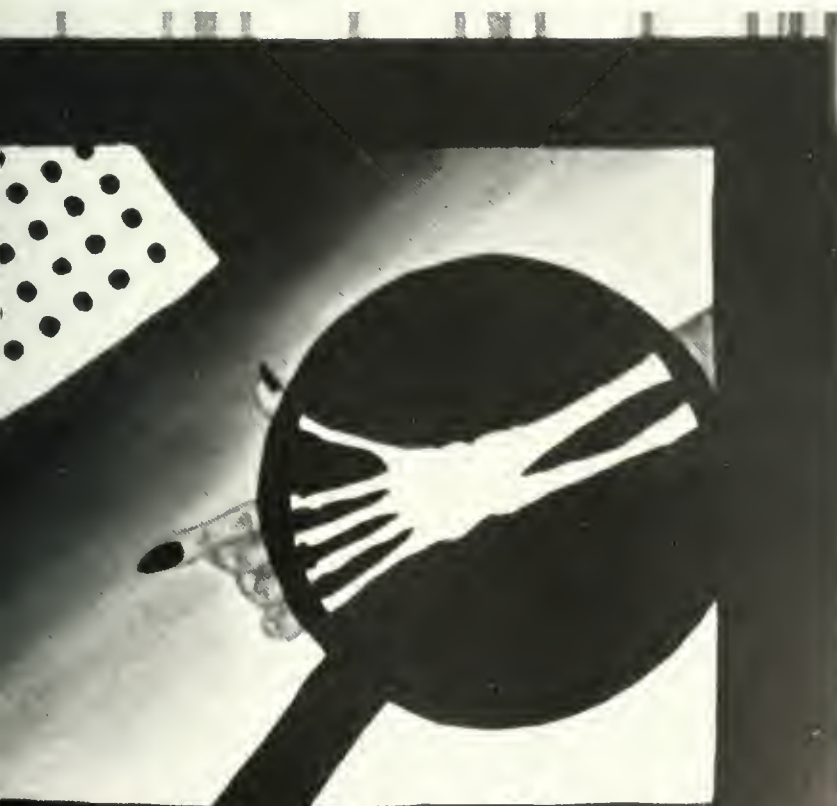

Maybe you're looking for a challenge of the mind? A test of eye-hand coordination? The games room might fit the bill.

Or you could always do laundry, find out who's dating who in your dorm, what the best soaps are to watch or which restaurant in town has the best food. Either way, it's hard to get bored at BU.

.38 Special Rocks BU

Bloomsburg University Concert Committee presented .38 Special in concert with Tangier on Thursday, October 19, in Nelson Fieldhouse.

Since their start in the mid-70's .38 Special has produced seven hit albums. The group has earned its spot on rock's top charts with hit singles including "Hold On Loosely," "Back Where You Belong," and "Caught Up In You."

The group was on tour promoting their eighth album, "Rock and Roll Strategy." The LP reaffirms .38 Special's hard rocking musical roots and includes the title cut "Second Chance."

Original members of the group include Jeff Carlisi, Donnie Van Zant, Jack Grondin, and Larry Junstrom. Joining the group a year ago were Max Carl and Danny Chauncey.

BSCC Presents Steven Wright

Bloomsburg University's Student Concert Committee sponsored a performance by comedian Steven Wright at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 15, in BU's Carver Auditorium.

Since his 1986 debut album, "I Have A Pony," won him a Grammy nomination, Wright has expanded his career to include video, film and television appearances. He has been featured in several HBO video showcases including his own special, "On Location: Steven Wright." He took part in the "Young Comedian's Special" with Robin Williams, Richard Belzer, Harry Anderson, and Howie Mandel, and won an Academy Award for writing and starring in the short film, "The Appointments of Dennis Jennings." Wright also made film appearances in "Desperately Seeking Susan" and the Columbia Pictures' film, "Stars & Bars."

Wright has repeatedly been featured on late night television shows including "Saturday Night Live," "Late Night with David Letterman," and Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show."

Academics

Members of Bloomsburg University's council of trustees unanimously announced their endorsement of President Harry Ausprich and recommended to the board of governors of the State System of Higher Education that his contract be extended through June 1993 in March of 1990.

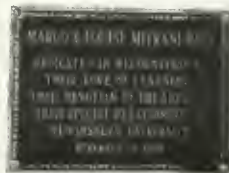

According to chairman Stanley G. Rakowsky of Clearfield, the trustees conducted Ausprich's formal evaluation in compliance with Act 188 (1982) and the board of governors Operating Policy on Terms and Conditions of Employment of Senior Policy Executives document.

"The trustees have completed a formal evaluation of Dr. Ausprich's presidential leadership at Bloomsburg University," Rakowsky said. "We highly commend and heartily endorse the president's performance and will recommend that his contract be extended through June 1993."

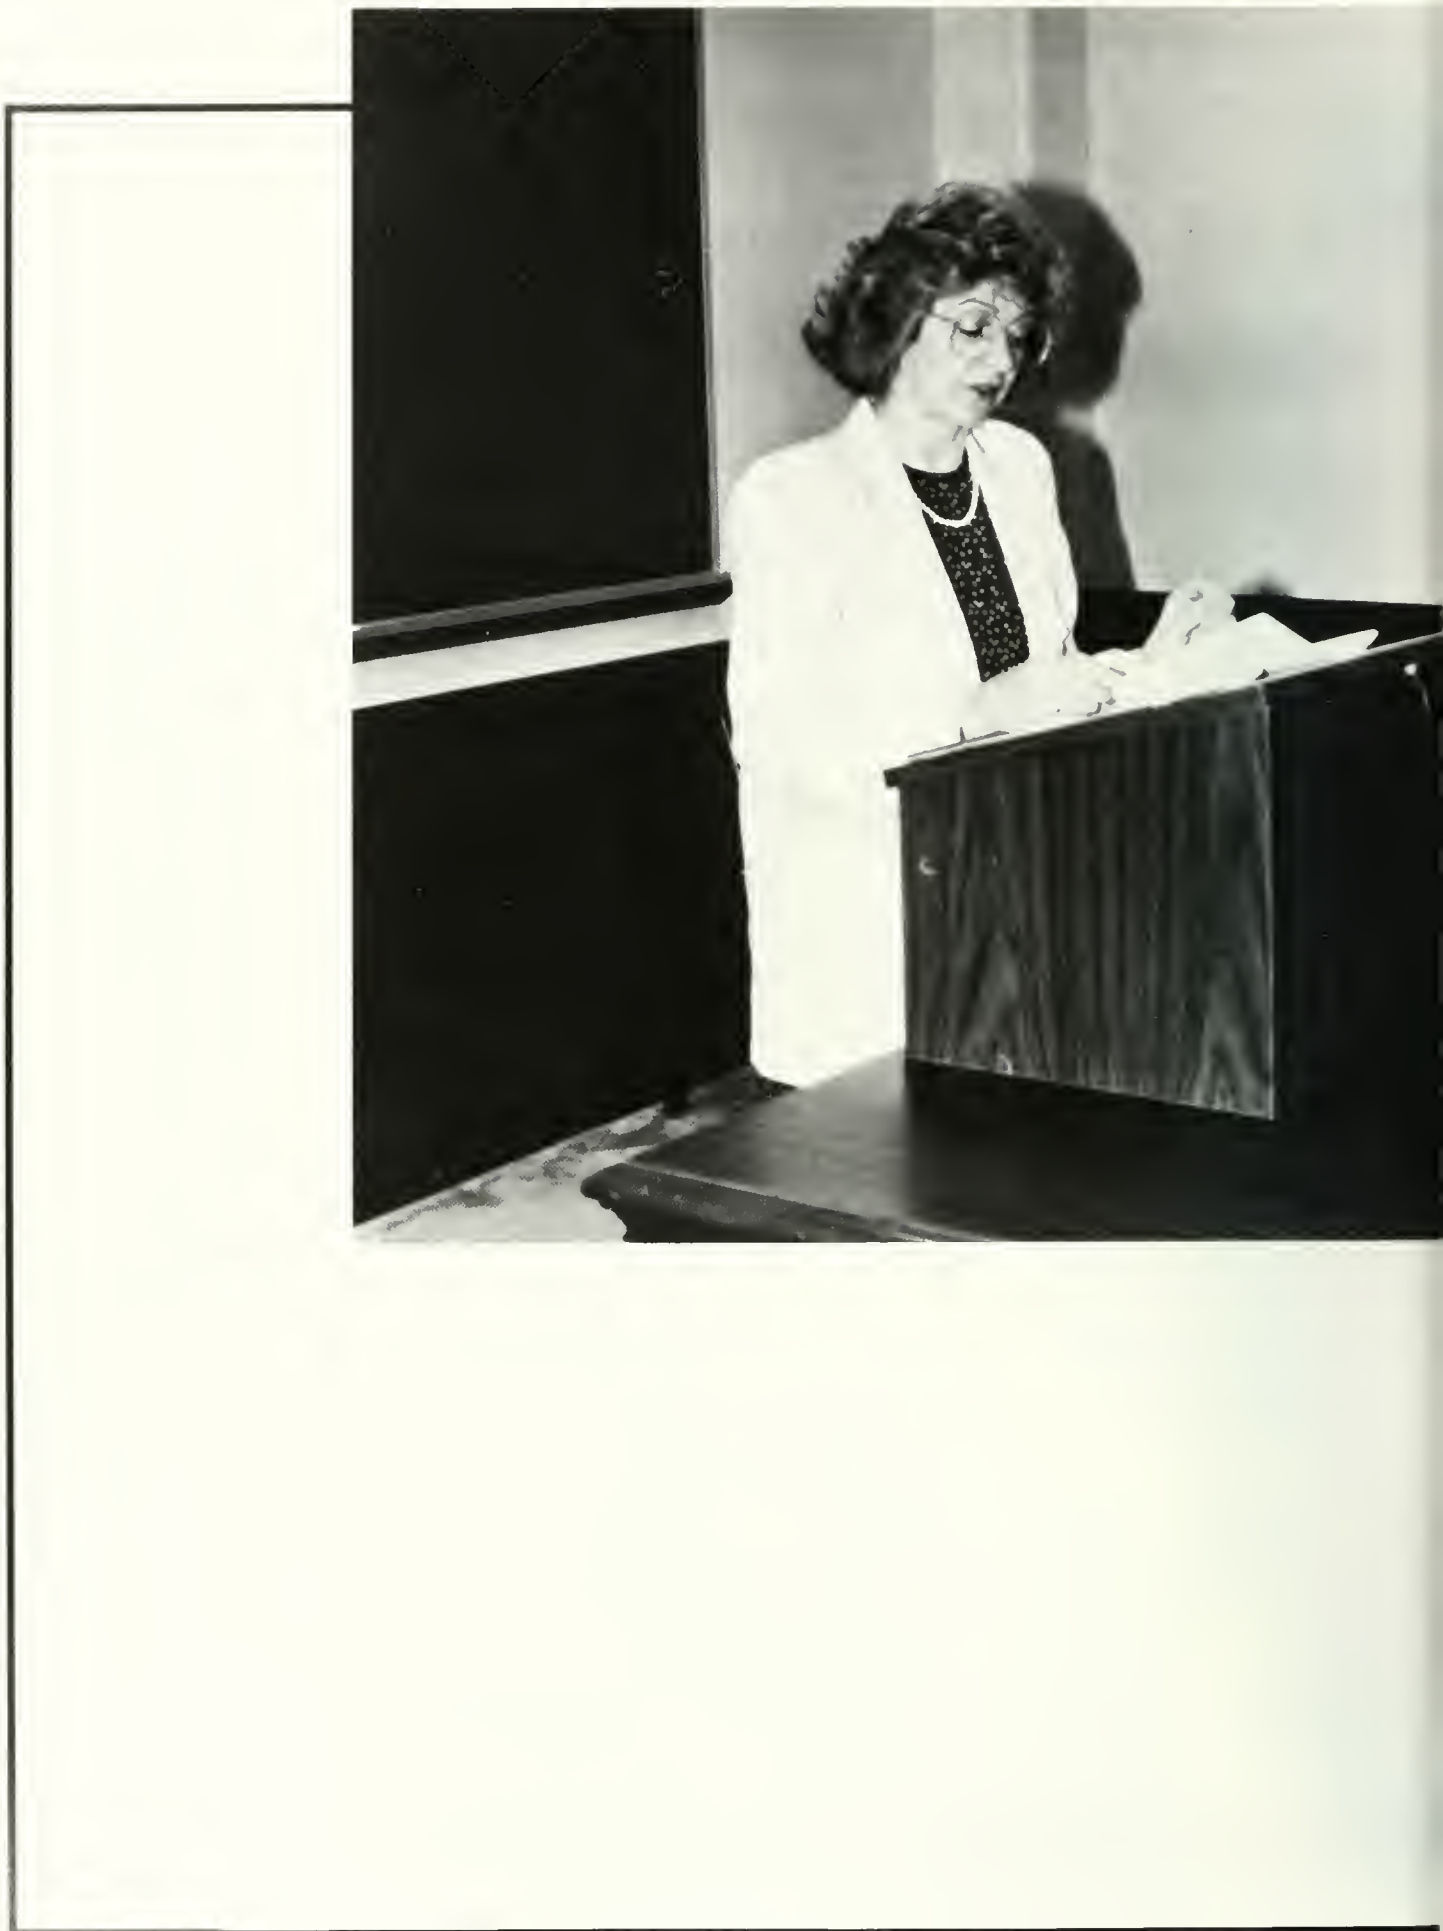

Act 188 requires that trustees of SSHE universities conduct an annual review of presidential leadership at their designated institution. This year's process at BU was guided by the Trustee Review Committee that included Gerald Malinkowski of Mount Carmel, who chaired the group, Ramona Alley of Berwick, Richard Wesner of Danville, and Rakowsky.

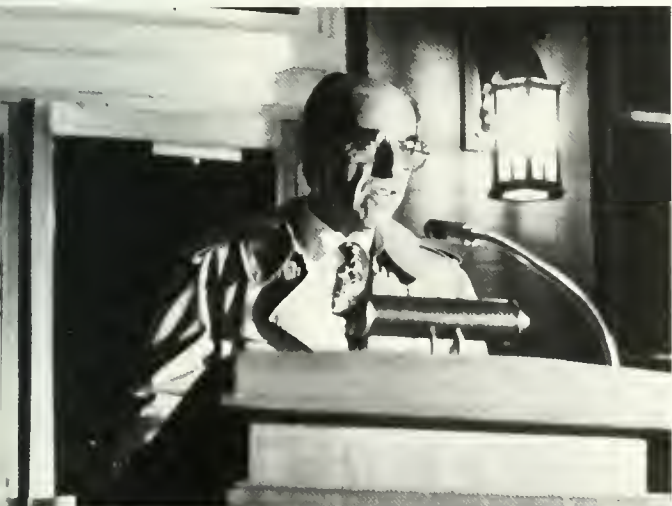

Assigned by SSHE to serve as a consultant to the Trustee Review Committee was Charles Graham, associate to the chancellor of the Minnesota State University System.

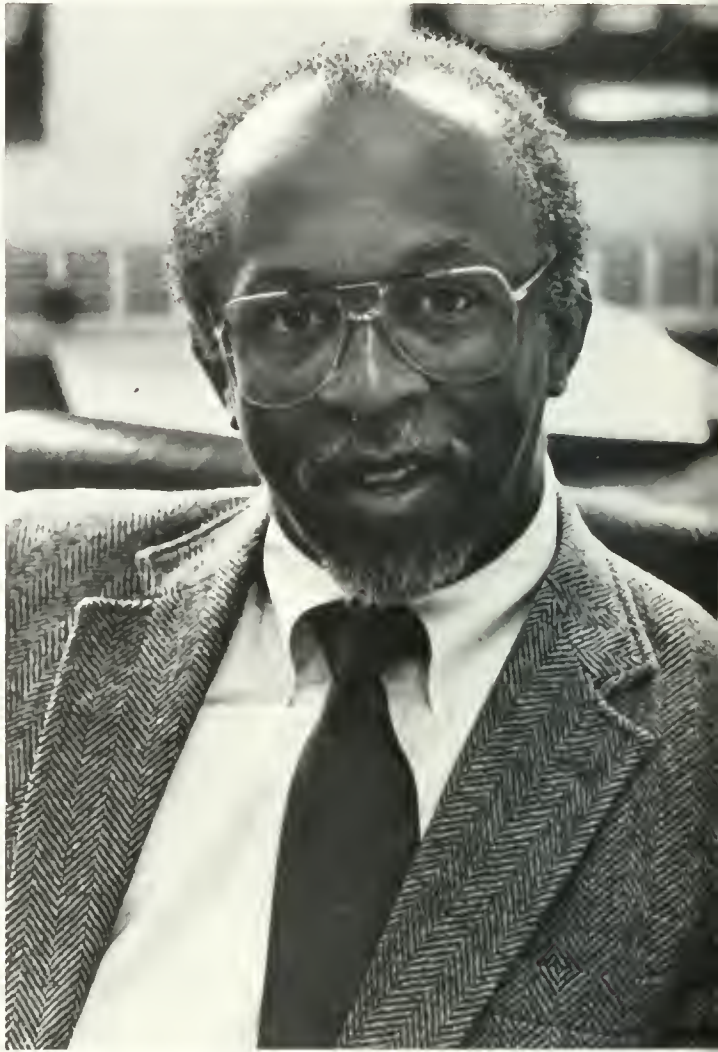

Assisting in the review process this year were six constituency representatives from the university including Veto Talanca, president of AFSCME; Oliver Larmi, president of APSCUF; M. Ruhul Amin, chair of BU's "University Forum"; Jane Gittler, chair of the BU Foundation; Anne O'Brien, president of CGA; and Mary Anne Klemkosky, president of BU's Alumni Association.

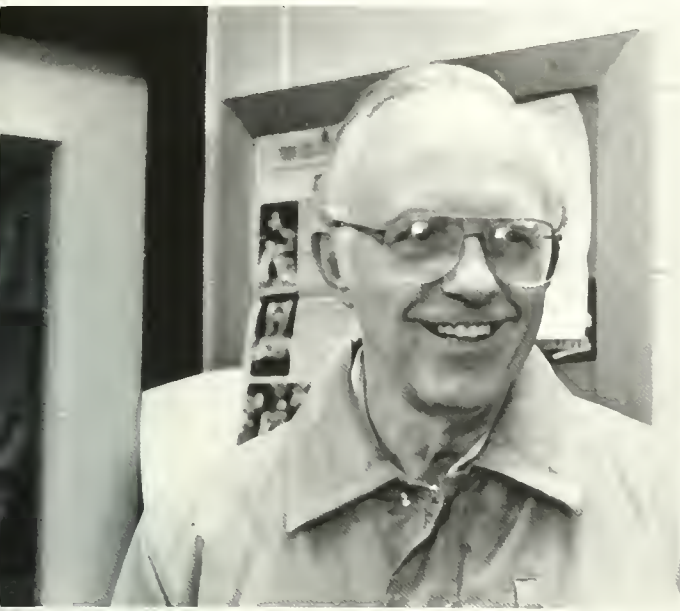

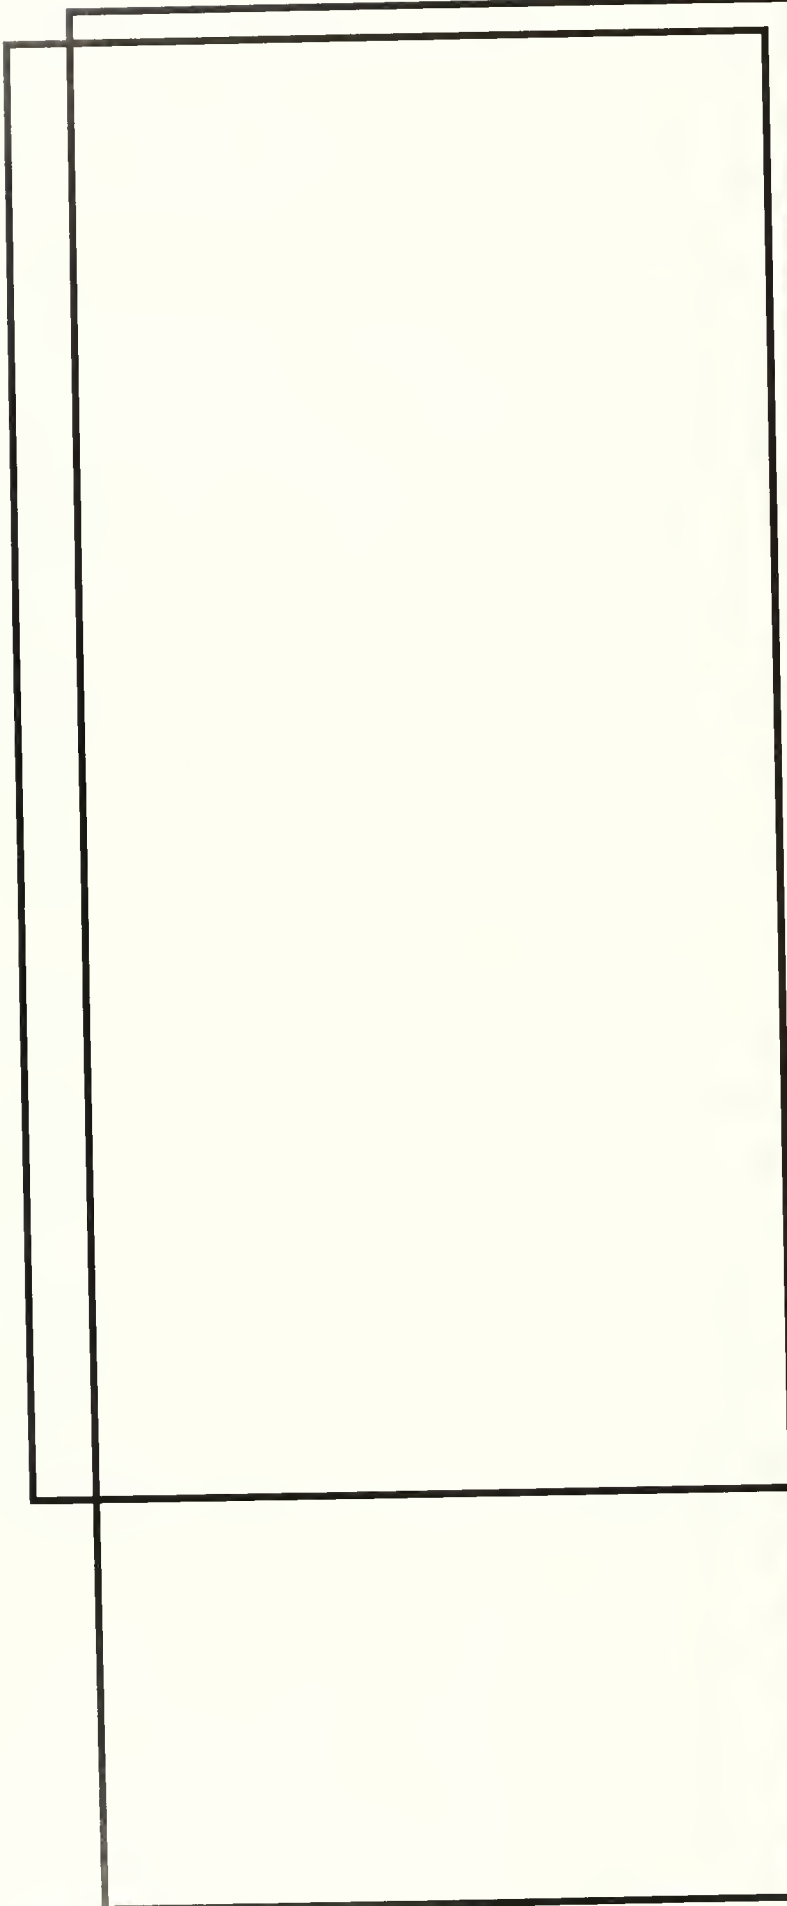

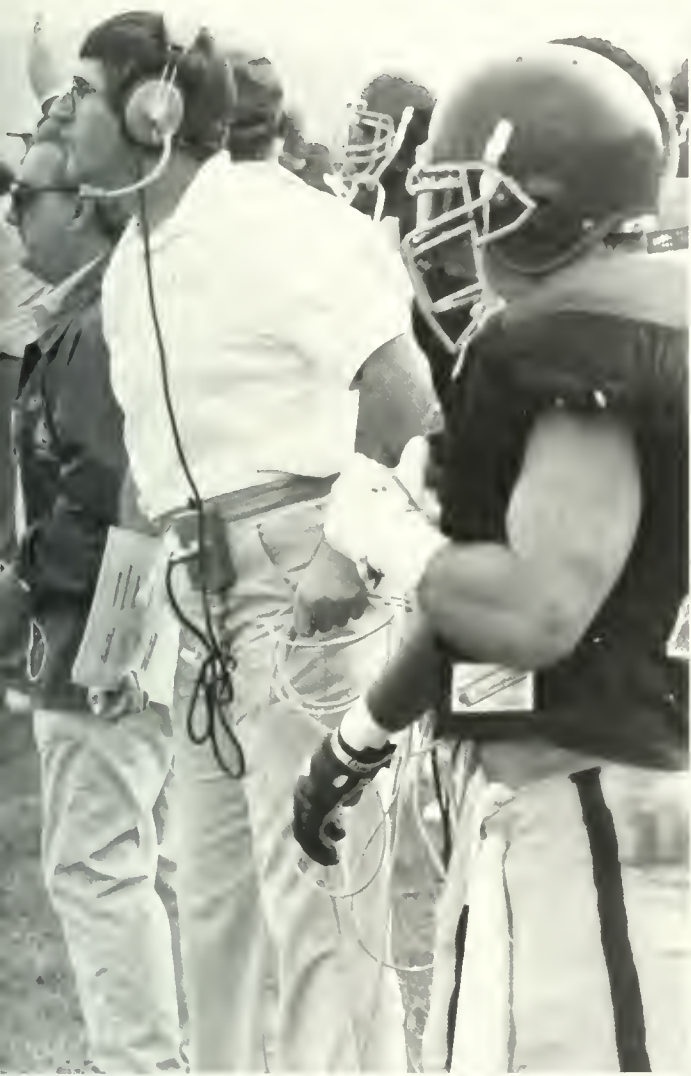

“Why I Teach”

Huskies Wrap Up Schedule

The outstanding quarterback/wide receiver combination of Alan Eck and Stef Kern helped the Huskies win for the third time in nine outings with outstanding efforts against Millersville in the annual Homecoming game. Eck, who has made constant improvement in his first season, had his finest game of the year completing 13 of 25 passes for 321 yards and four touchdowns. Kern was on the receiving end of six passes for 204 yards, and three of the scores.

Kern was the club's scoring leader with nine touchdowns, all via the pass, and is the second leading receiver with 31 receptions for 607 yards. Lonergan has the lead in that department with 42 catches for 466 yards and four touchdowns. The other wide receiver, Jeff Sparks, is third with 29 catches for 400 yards and two touchdowns. The Huskies passed for an average of 194.1 yards per game while rushing for 94.4 per contest.

Jerry Marks was the leading rusher averaging 44.6 yards per game on 91 carries for 401 yards and 1 touchdown. He is one of four backs to see considerable action with John Cannon running 53 times for 222 yards and four touchdowns; Sal Brown has 47 rushes for 174 yards, and Craig Harris has run the ball 25 times for 111 yards and one score.

Hockey Enters 10th Tourney

For the 10th consecutive season, the BU field hockey team received an invitation to the national tournament. Coach Jan Hutchinson's club took a 16-2-1 record into the national tourney after finishing third in PC Championships. The Huskies dropped a 1-0 semi-final decision to Millersville before rebounding to down East Stroudsburg 3-0 in the consolation game.

The squad has won four national crowns since 1981 as well as finishing second on three other occasions. The 16 victories this season mark the ninth-straight year that the team has won at least that many games and during that time period, the Huskies have amassed an outstanding record of 170-21-8.

The Huskies have not been out-shot in a game all season and hold a huge 777-170 advantage over their 19 opponents. The strong offensive play has been complimented by a solid defensive effort led by senior Betsy Warmerdam and sophomore Gisela Smith. The unit has stymied the opposition forcing first-year goalie Tracy Nilles to make only 94 saves. The senior, who never played the position before, has been credited with 10.5 shutouts and has a goals against average of .35.

Men's Team Faces Challenge

Bloomsburg's men's team didn't have a hard time explaining the importance of that February night game with visiting Cheyney to his team. It was as simple as a win and the Huskies would make their second-consecutive appearance in the Pennsylvania Conference Championships; a loss meant Bloomsburg ends the 1989-90 season.

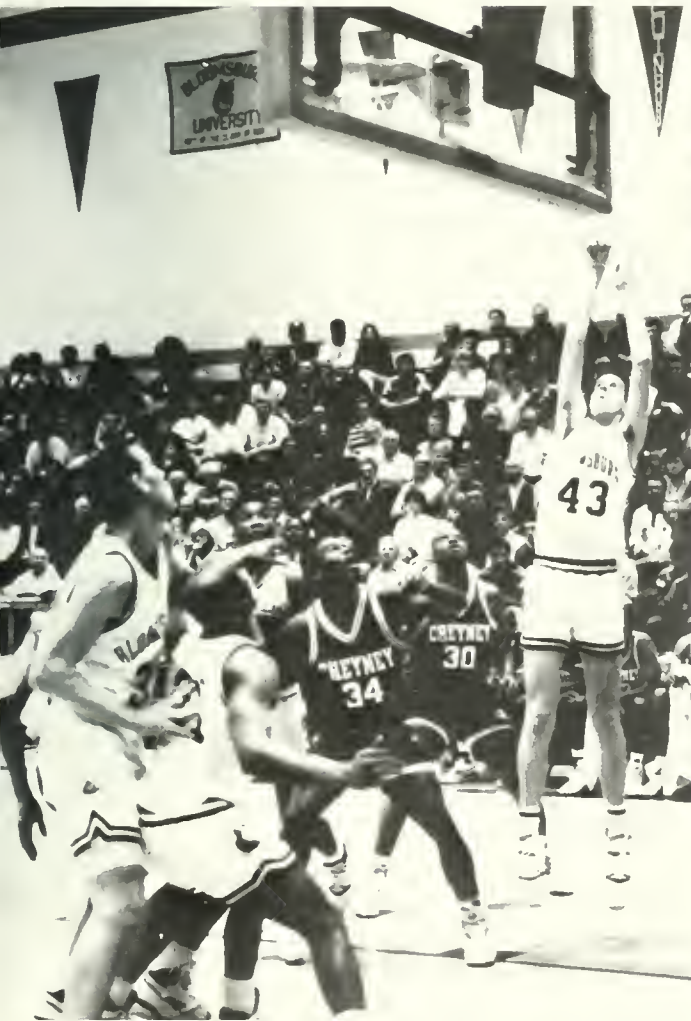

Entering the previous weekend's game with East Stroudsburg, the Huskies needed only one win in its final two games to secure second place in the PC East. The Warriors, however, scored a 67-63 victory to put Bloomsburg in a must-win situation with Cheyney.

At the time, the Huskies had a 19-7 overall mark and 7-4 in the PC East. A victory over Cheyney would eliminate them and put the Huskies in a tie for the division's runnerup position with East Stroudsburg behind Millersville. Then a tie-breaker would have to be played with East Stroudsburg. The winner of that game, along with Millersville, would represent the Eastern Divisions in the conference semifinals in Slippery Rock in March.

However, a championship was not to be and the Huskies would lose to East Stroudsburg in the tie-breaking game.

Huskies in Second NCAA Tourney

The Lady Huskies went fourth-seeded into the NCAA Division II Eastern Regionals. With a record of 22-6, the team looked forward to their opening game with PC champion Edinboro (26-2).

Sophomore Michelle Simons led the club in scoring averaging 15.8 points per game. She was also the Huskies' second-leading rebounder with an average of 6.8 per contest. Junior Barb Hall joins her in double figures at 14.1 p.p.g. and leads the rebounding category averaging 10.0 per game. Sophomore Kathy Maguire is the third Bloomsburg player scoring double digits with a 13.7 p.p.g. average.

The Huskies have built their fine record with a strong defensive effort that has limited opponents to an average of 55.3 p.p.g. Lock Haven was only the sixth team to score more than 60 points against the Huskies this season. In addition, Bloomsburg has forced the opposition into an average of 23.8 turnovers per game.

HUSKIES

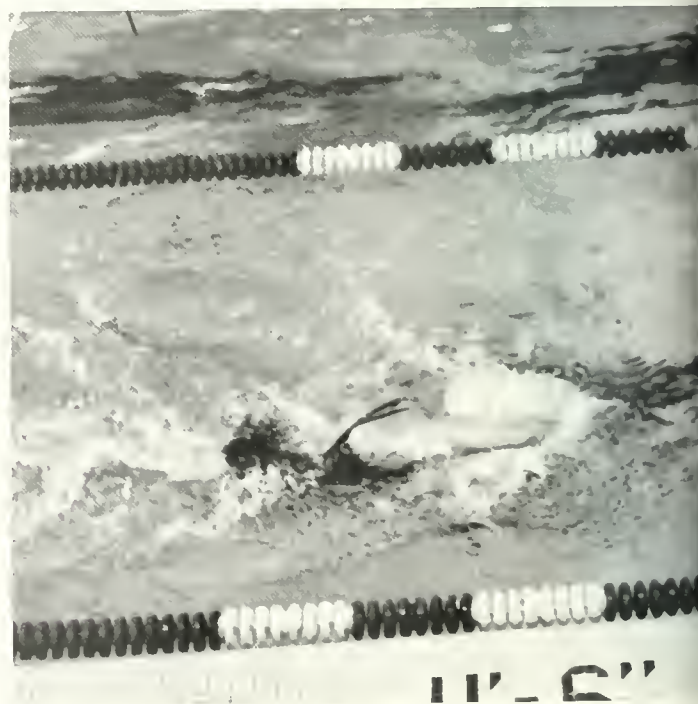

Huskies' to Nationals

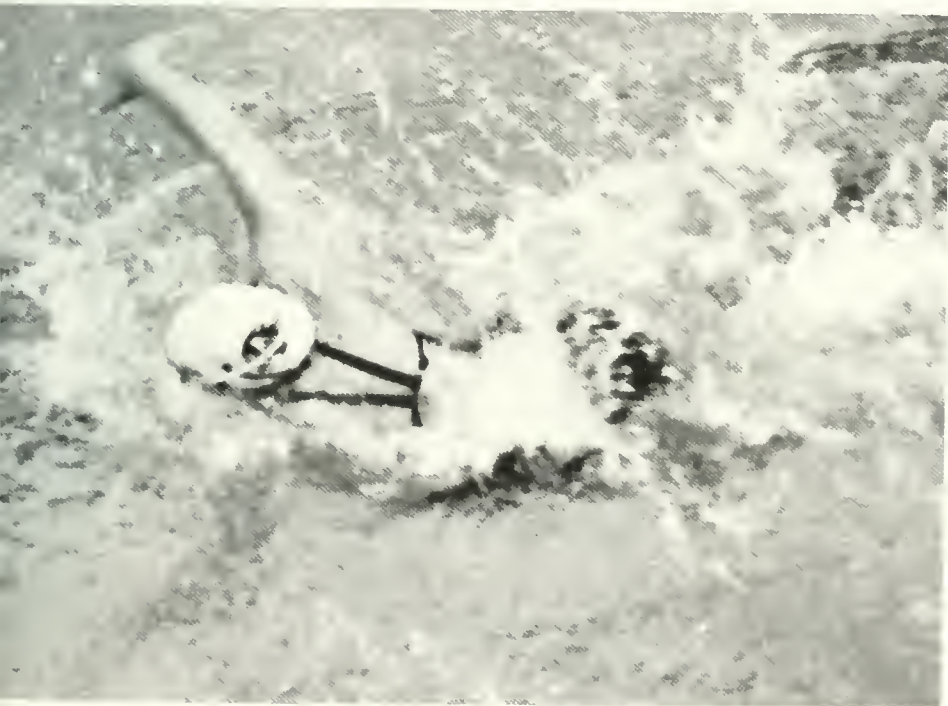

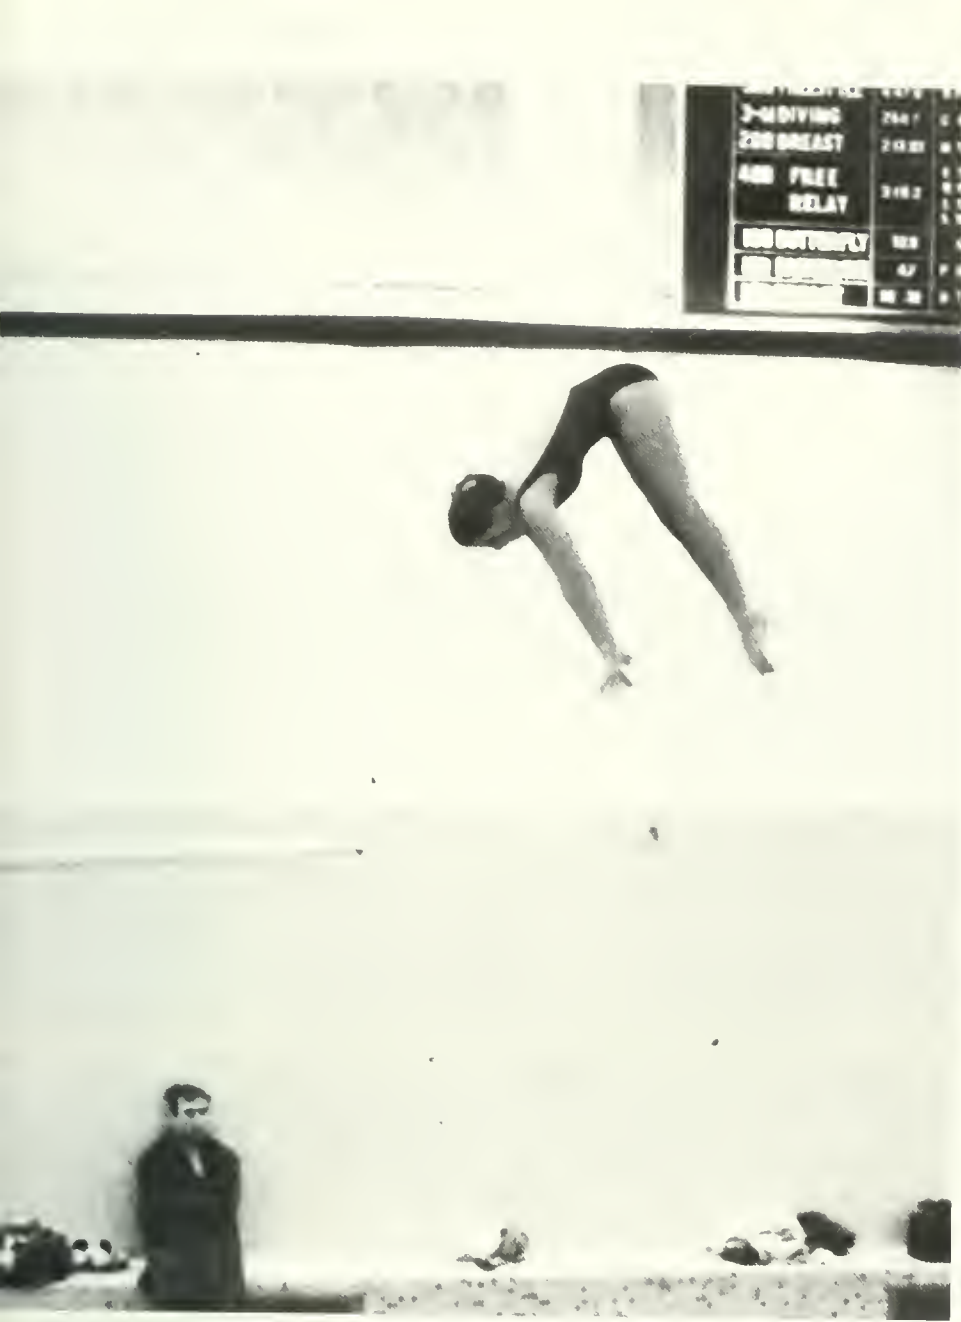

The largest contingent ever to represent the highly successful Bloomsburg University's women's swim team went on to compete in the NCAA Division II Championships. Coach Dave Rider's group of 11 qualifiers for the event will compete for national honors in Alumni Arena on the campus of SUNY-Buffalo in Buffalo, N.Y.

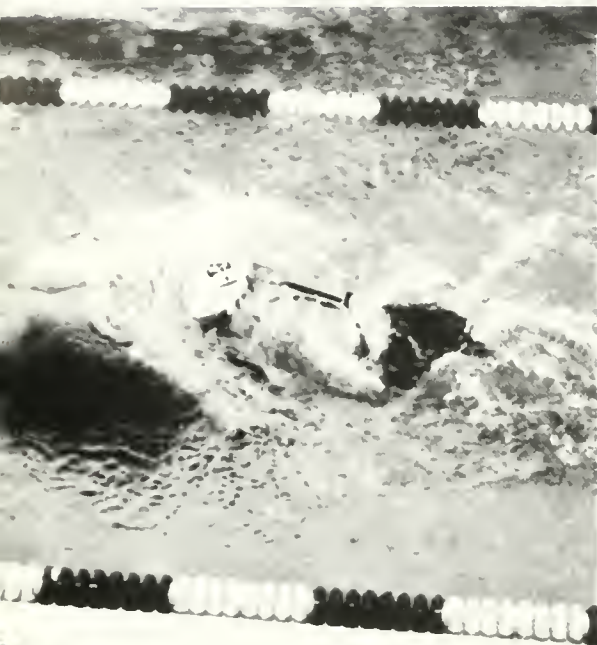

The Huskies prepared for the national meet by posting their 10th-consecutive runnerup showing in the PC Championships and completing their 14th straight winning dual-meet season with a record of 7-4. In the conference event, Bloomsburg crowned five individual champions as well as two relay units winning titles and finished closer to 15-time champion Clarion than in any other season.

Bloomsburg was ranked as high as tenth during the season in the NCAA Division II ratings.

Shown on these pages are the people who made your yearbook possible. Through hours of hardwork we raised money to offset the office maintenance costs and publishing costs. We also spent hours taking pictures, developing those pictures and then throwing out those pictures it was not possible to use. Then we spent time typing in copy. Not to mention the time researching that copy, writing that copy and making sure everyone's names were spelled properly. But we are not using this space to complain. NO WAY!!!!!! For many of us this was a labor of love, or one of credit, or possibly one of stupidity, but we did it anyway. We are grateful for one and all's help. This one is for you.

Husky Ambassadors Endure Cold Night

by Dawn D'Aries
Contributing Editor

There are three million homeless people in the United States. Researchers predict that within the next decade the number will increase to 19 million. There are 60,000 reported homeless in Pennsylvania.

In response to these facts, about 60 people braved the cold and participated in November 31st's on-campus demonstration to support the homeless.

The demonstration was sponsored by the Husky Ambassadors, a campus organization which works to promote relations between the university and the community.

"We're not here to become homeless; we're here to create some kind of awareness and support for the homeless," event organizer John Blowers said.

The demonstration began with an opening address and prayer by Father Chet Snyder of the CCM.

Northeast Pennsylvania Director for the Housing Coalition, Gregg Knapp, told demonstrators that homelessness is not just a problem in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Knapp said many of the homeless in this area sleep in cars and tents.

Wayne Scott, a Williamsport minister, said the homeless need understanding and support. He stressed that there has to be an acceptance and sensitivity towards the homeless.

"They have no one who listens to them or to complain for them. Groups like this (the demonstrators) can have an effect. It's a beginning," Scott said.

Procrastination in 16 Easy Steps

- (1) Hit snooze button on alarm clock.
- (2) Hit snooze button again.
- (3) Hit it again.
- (4) Throw clock out window.
- (5) Clean up window you thought was open.
- (6) Go to class.
- (7) Receive assignment due in 1 week.
- (8) Wednesday: Why think about it? You have a whole week.
- (9) Thursday: Can't do work. Hess' is calling.
- (10) Friday: Convince yourself you need a break after a long, hard week of procrastinating. Besides Hess' is calling.
- (11) Saturday: decide that only geeks do work on Saturday.
- (12) Sunday: wonder how the weekend went by so fast.
- (13) Monday: figure it's time to call everyone you know long distance.
- (14) Tuesday: complain to all your friends about this assignment you have due tomorrow and you haven't started it yet. But then decide the apartment needs cleaning.
- (15) Due Date: cry to your professor that your roommate exploded and you were too busy making funeral arrangements and shoveling to finish the assignment. Then ask for an extension.
- (16) Repeat.

Senior Survey:

What is the one thing you've been dying to know, but were afraid to ask?

How do they know Gravy Train gravy tastes like real gravy?

Why do girls always go to the ladies' room in groups?

Which resume did CDC give my interviewer?

How do they build tunnels under water?

How do you get a 4.0?

Why is it called Bloomsburg?

Why do girls only want to be my friend?

Will I get a job?

What's the matter with having the desire to make enough money to continue to live in a style to which I've become accustomed?

Why?

For the first time, the OBITER staff decided that since we traditionally gave organizations the chance to say their special goodbyes to seniors, that the parents also deserved the same chance. Over 1100 letters were mailed in April to parents of graduating seniors in May, August and December. They were given a character limit and all we asked for was a minimum $5.00 donation. The response was overwhelming for the first time around. We'd like to thank the parents who responded with such enthusiasm. It is with genuine pleasure that we list you and bring back a parent patron section to the 1990 OBITER. The patrons are listed as they came in, not in any particular order. - Editor.

Another year down. Only this time, I am alone and it is three days after graduation . . . typing in senior names, directories, and my goodbyes to people who have meant so much to me for the past four years.

Leaving this place brings both sadness and great joy for me. I look forward to my life ahead, but I realize that I am leaving a great deal go away from my life. It is why I will not say goodbye . . . but, until we meet again.

Thank you . . . to Kehr Union employees (both the high and lows) for caring about me and sticking with me on those nights when I didn't leave the building until close to two especially Mr. Hill, Mrs. B, Linda and Mike . . .

. . . to my staff . . . what a way to go, guys. I'll never forget your unflinching support even when the photographer quit and I thought we had lost all hope of having senior portraits. Or when Chris went into the hospital. Or when I argued with my parents. Or when I bugged CGA. You've taught me a lot about people and what not to do in the real world.

. . . to my exec board . . . too bad we couldn't all be at one meeting until I took you out to dinner. Thank you for making this the best year yet. I have no regrets about doing this for a third year and for taking all of you along for the trip. Maybe we'll meet again, if not, you are in my heart where ever I go . . .

. . . to Ed and Paul, everybody at Taylor and Varden . . . God Bless you. I hope everything goes well for you and thanks for being there for me.

. . . to my friends and fellow graduating seniors . . . Sue, Meg, Maria, Debbie, Michelle, Kelly, Sean, Jill, Karen — next meeting the Hilltop, Donnita, Allison, Sauter, Sue Gill, Bonnie, Tony, Joe, Rich, Kevin, Ralph, Mike — yes, you Morrissey, Jim — Pilla and Shevlin, Darryl, Doug, Raquel, Beth, Deb — and everybody else at BUQ, Deb, Stacey — and the rest of the crew in Recent American, Phil, Brian, Stacey, Chris and Kris — and all those poor seniors in Archery — and the couple in Golf, too) . . . May life bring you every happiness and every success only joy. Thank you for being a part of my life while at Bloomsburg. You have made a difference. You taught me that there is no greater measure of success than the love and friendship of the people around you. No matter what happens I will carry the memories of you in my senior year away from here - if nothing else besides my diploma and a yearbook.

. . . to my friends that aren't graduating.. I'll be back, no doubt about that. Meanwhile, enjoy life to its fullest; let no one put you down; and remember that every cloud has a silver lining — even when its over a publication.

. . . Jake, Ms. Youse . . . I love you two. And thank you so much for loving me.

. . . Mom and Dad . . . well, I finally did it. I couldn't have done it without you. Thank you for being understanding and letting go when it was time. I love you.

. . . to the rest of you . . . I tried. Comments and Suggestions are welcome in the yearbook office . . . 389-4454, or Box 17 Kehr Union, Bloomsburg University, Bloomsburg, PA 17815.

The 1990 OBITER is dedicated to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Marco Mitrani. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitrani passed away prior to the start of the 1989-90 school year. However, Mr. and Mrs. Mitrani were responsible for the scholarship that brought me to Bloomsburg four years ago. Without their monetary support, I would have gone elsewhere to school and I might not have found the wonderful friends and family I have at Bloomsburg. Their contributions to the university and community have directly influenced the course that my life took. Without their unfailing desire to continue learning throughout their lives as an example, I would not be so anxious to continue my own education. Their support does not, however, only include me. My freshman year there were 11 other Mitrani scholars and so there has been for each year since. It is with great pride and love that I dedicate this book to them. Thank you. — Editor.

Alumni Association

Bloomsburg University, Bloomsburg, PA 17815, (717) 389-4058

Dear Graduate:

WELCOME to the Bloomsburg University Alumni Association!

With Commencement, you have moved from one important part of the Bloomsburg University family — the student body — to another: the Alumni Association. You have joined over 31,000 other alumni who are making significant contributions to society in every state and more than two dozen foreign countries.

Wherever you go, please remember this: The staff of the Alumni Office stands ready to serve you, whether it is next month or in 20 years. That's why we are here, to serve as your liaison with the University. If ever you encounter a problem or need information, please contact us first. We will do everything we can to expedite a solution or a response.

In the meantime, we would like you to know what else you can expect from your Alumni Office. In a word, it is SERVICE. Here are some examples:

- * Publishing The Alumni Quarterly. Please feel free to send news about significant events in your life for the "Class Notes" section — the most popular part of The Quarterly. All alumni receive one issue each year; alumni who contribute to the University Annual Fund (in any amount) receive all four issues.
- * Planning class reunions at five-year intervals on either Alumni Weekend in the spring or on Homecoming in the fall.
- * Arranging regional alumni meetings throughout Pennsylvania and other parts of the United States. Be sure to tell us when you move, so we can let you know when a meeting is planned in your area.
- * Providing opportunities for alumni to return to campus to share their experiences with current students. These opportunities include the Alumni Fellow in Residence program each semester and the Alumni-Student Mixer on the afternoon before Homecoming.
- * Informing you of ways in which you can serve your Alma Mater, either through financial contributions to the University Annual Fund or by contributions of your time and talent.

Above all, please remember that your Alumni Association will be better if you take an active role in its projects and programs!

Sincerely,

Doug Hippenstiel
Director of Alumni Affairs

After reviewing our final year as a class, it is with great pride that I tell you how much you will be missed. Bloomsburg University is a better place because of you. We leave behind a scholarship for future generations. And many happy memories of the homecomings, parties, roommates, friends, fraternities and sororities, renaissances, fairs, and our graduation. Congratulations and until we meet again.
