Pride

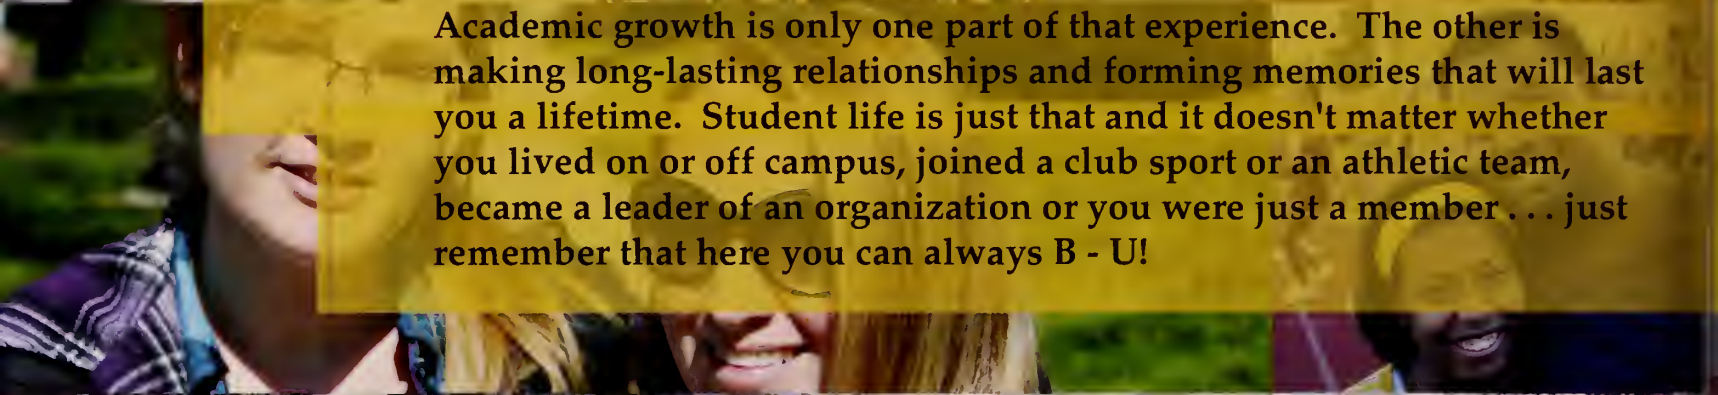

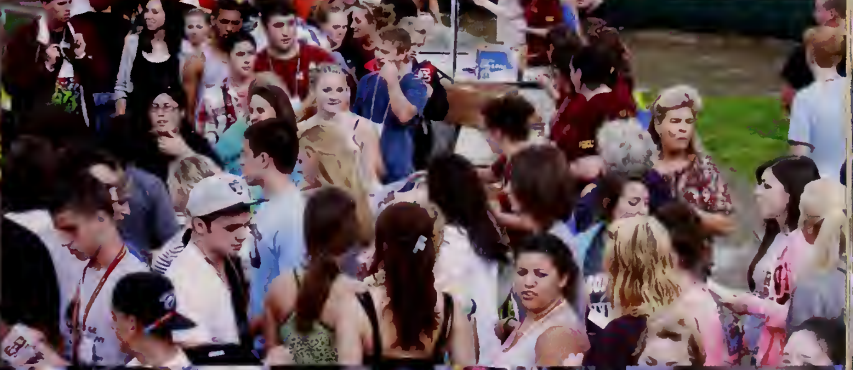

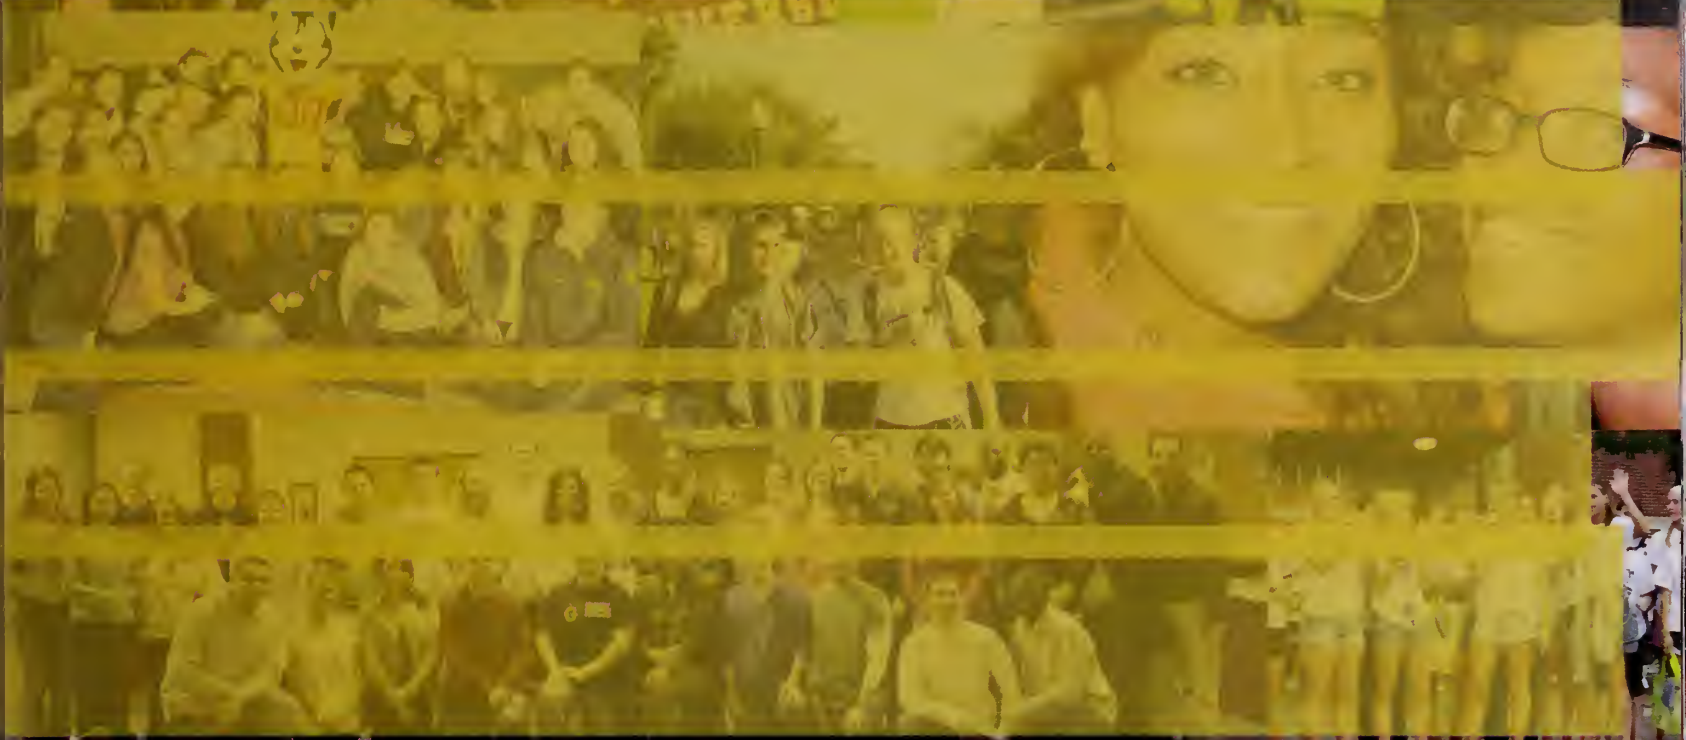

Student Life & Friends . . .

B - U! Whether you experience activities and events by yourself, in a small group or through a membership of any one of the 200 plus campus organizations, your "Bloomsburg Pride" will remain with you for generations.

Academic growth is only one part of that experience. The other is making long-lasting relationships and forming memories that will last you a lifetime. Student life is just that and it doesn't matter whether you lived on or off campus, joined a club sport or an athletic team, became a leader of an organization or you were just a member . . . just remember that here you can always B - U!

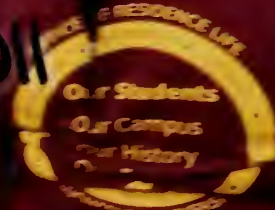

Prep rally was the kick-off for the New Freshman Welcome Weekend! So much was going on, including DJ'd events, give-a-ways and even marching band performances! Some freebies to be had were: pizzas, soft drinks, tote bags, cups and more. OWLs, Roongo and the BU Cheerleaders threw out BU gear for those who cheered the LOUDEST! In addition, freshmen athletes from each sport were recognized.

Greek Life

Meet The Greeks

As your student prepares to attend Bloomsburg University, they have many options to become involved in campus life. Becoming a member of the largest campus community is one of them! The Office of Greek Affairs works with 28 organizations made up of almost 1000 students. Chances are there is a fraternity or sorority that is right for you!

Faces

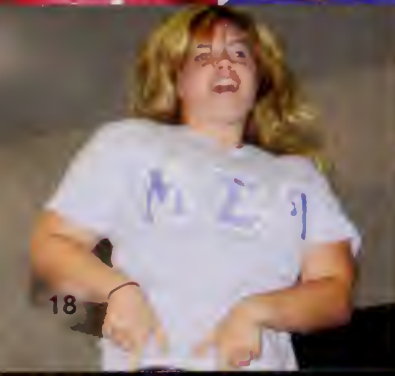

Summer . . .

The months of June, July and August that one would most often describe as calm, but not here at Bloomsburg! There is always a lot of activity happening here on campus.

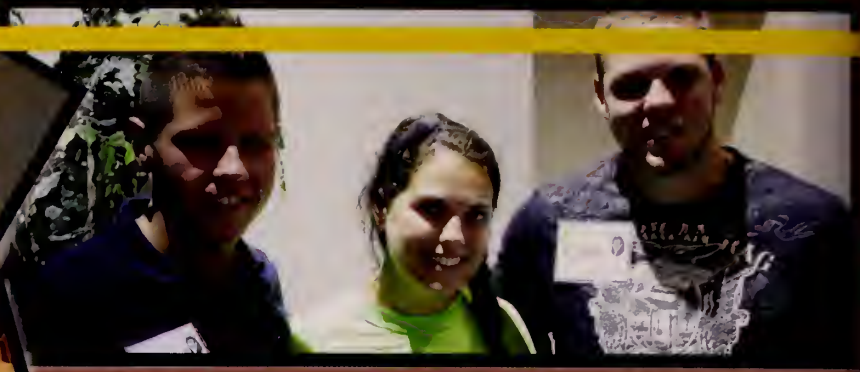

Throughout the summer months students are still taking classes that they may need to graduate, settling in as a new freshman or maybe just getting a jump start on a fall course load...either way they are keeping busy!

Whether your attending an Activity Fair, climbing a mountain, feeling an earthquake or just soaking in the sun on a warm day there are a lot of ways for you to, B - U!

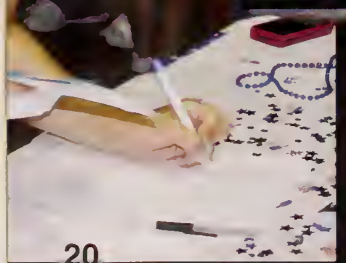

Summer

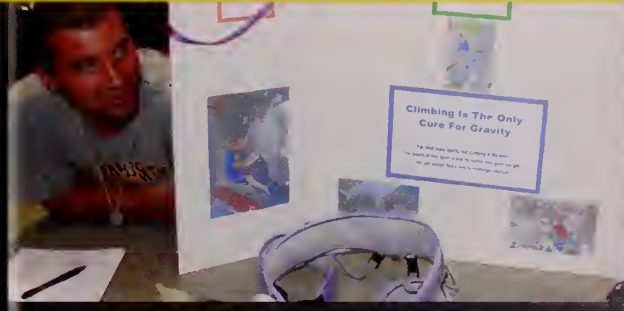

Each year the Program Board and Orientation Office sponsor an Activities Fair open to all recognized student organizations. The Activities Fair is designed to give student clubs an opportunity to recruit students to their clubs. Organizations can target incoming freshmen easily and speak directly to new and existing students to tell them more about the group and themselves!

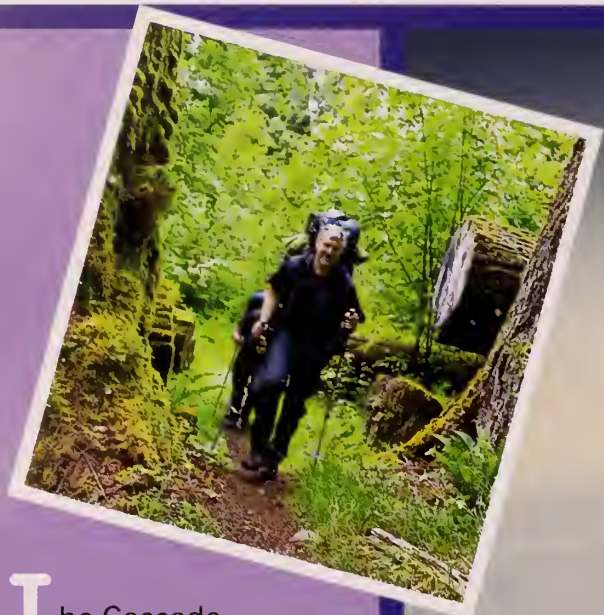

This year's fair was on Sunday, August 28th, 2011 from 3:00 PM - 5:00 PM.

The Cascade Mountains trip was full of nature's beauty. Everything from hiking in Olympic National Park (above) to ascending on Mt. Hood with a picturesque Mt. Jefferson in the background (at right). (Below) Todd Butler takes a minute to make a few adjustments and the group continues on their trek.

The "Three Peaks of the Cascades Trip" took place from July 9, 2011 to July 17, 2011. The trip was led by Brett Simpson (Quest Executive Director) and Jeremy Quant (BU Alum and Quest staff member). For this trip, Quest returned to Washington state for their major objective, Mt. Olympus in the Olympic range of Washington.

The team "warmed-up" with Mt. Hood and then tackled Mt. Olympus. A wide variety of terrain was covered from rain forest to high alpine meadows to massive glaciers!

Virginia earthquake rattles the East Coast

On August 23, 2011 a very strong earthquake in Virginia sent out seismic waves felt by people from Georgia to New England! Phones were ringing off the hook and by Tuesday evening, three aftershocks of the earthquake had been reported...

WHERE WERE YOU?

Fall . . .

The months of September, October and November when the leaves fall off the trees and the autumn breeze blows students back to campus. Everything begins to pick up around campus, as students begin to move back to Bloomsburg.

There is a little something for everyone! Whether you take in a CAS show, start with you athletic team, join the homecoming committee, volunteer to help others or just go to a concert put on by the BSCC you're bound to have fun for today, make memories for tomorrow and find new ways to express yourself and truly B - U!

Coach: The Untold Story of College Basketball Legend Al McGuire

Renowned sportscaster, Emmy winner and playwright Dick Enberg's Coach is an accurate portrayal of Al McGuire's outsized personality, career and life.

McGuire led the Marquette basketball team to win the NCAA Championship in 1977, then continued his career as a witty and entertaining sportscaster for NBC and CBS where he partnered with Enberg. He died in 2001 of leukemia.

Enberg will give a video welcome and introduction to the BU audience.

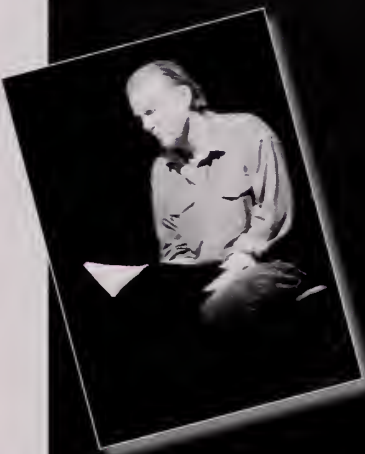

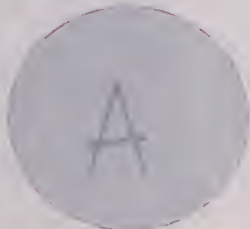

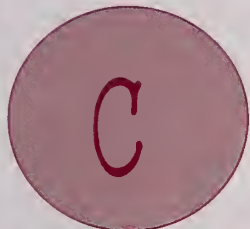

Last Fall's Shows Included...

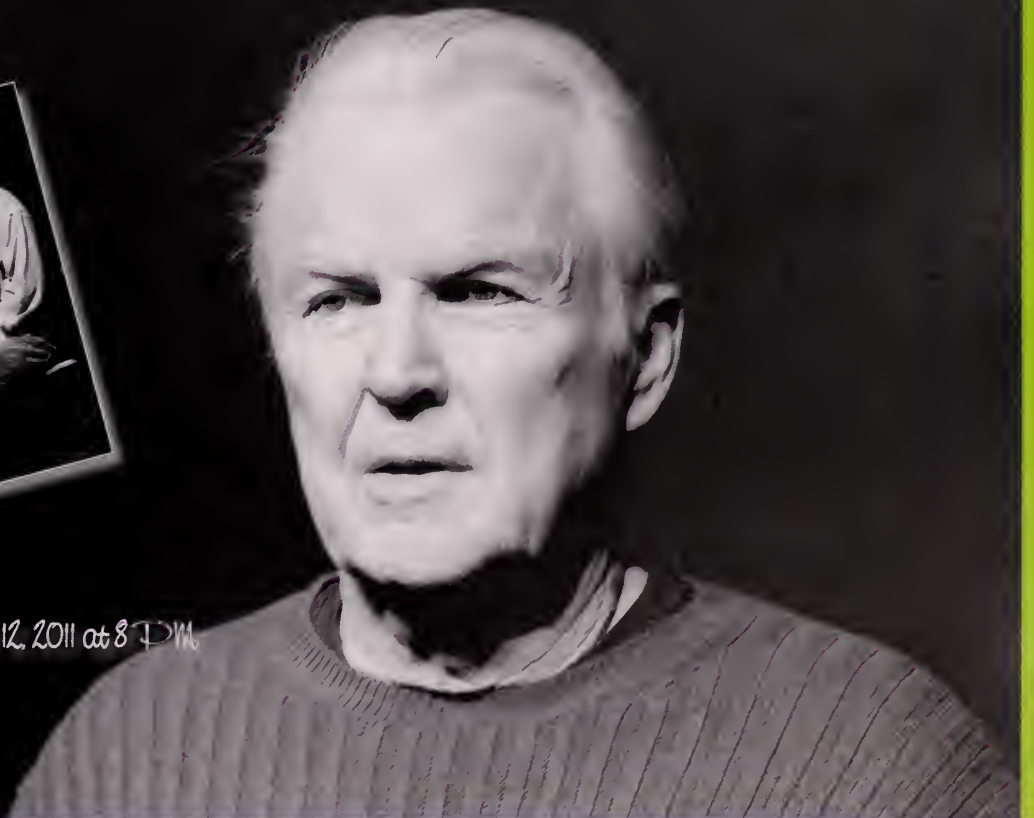

Anthony Zerbe, the emmy award winning actor with a resume spanning more than four decades, provides joyous insight into the art and energy of one of America's most beloved poets, E.E. Cummings. Through his blend of brilliant acting and extraordinary poetry, Zerbe moves through a parade of characters, accents and dazzling wordplay perfectly capturing Cummings' favorite subjects.

Remembering Agnes of 1972 ...

From September 7 - 9, 2011 Tropical Storm Lee swept through Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania and crippled the town of Bloomsburg and surrounding areas. Some say that Lee hit harder than Hurricane Agnes did in 1972, sending creeks and rivers to record levels and forcing thousands out of homes. Many residents voiced that they may just cut their losses and salvage what they can from the diaster and move away.

On September 14, members of the Bloomsburg University football team got involved and started to help remove debris from affected homes. With each day more and more members of campus and the community got involved and the town is slowly overcoming this natural disaster, "we are one, we are Bloomsburg".

ROCK 'N ROLL

Legends

The parade included both Bloomsburg University and Bloomsburg High School, as they both were celebrating homecoming. The grand marshals were Ed and Nancy Edwards. Following the parade, everyone was rockin' out at Roongo's Rock 'n' Roll Tent Party! Music provided by Paradox, raffles, food, contests and even a Guitar Hero competition was just some of the fun to be had.

Philadelphia Virtuosi

Music director and conductor Daniel Spalding had a vision when he founded PVCO in 1991: to combine the great European chamber orchestra tradition with the extraordinary virtuosity of some of the finest musicians from the Philadelphia area and the East Coast.

He brings to the podium a versatile and complex musical profile, performing popular masterworks, unusual and lesser known repertoire and newly commissioned works for PVCO, whose mission is to redefine the 21st century classical music experience for audiences!

The men had a great conference meet to end the indoor season on a high note. We scored some points in a few events that surprised me and left a few points on the track. Our nationally ranked 4x400 had a relay leg get hurt, so they weren't able to capitalize on their opportunity. Despite that hiccup, we couldn't have asked for a whole lot more. I am very proud of how our team has competed this year, breaking 8 school records during this indoor season.

The women had an exciting conference championship to end the indoor season. Our women performed super. It's nice to have as many PR's and school records as we did, but it is even more satisfying to have those performances materialize into team points. We have made some big strides since last year at this time (9 school records broken during the Indoor season this year) and with so many underclassmen scoring points, it gets me excited for the future of Bloomsburg University Track and Field!

Spring . . .

The months of March, April and May when the flowers start to bloom, the birds begin to chirp and the campus starts to buzz. Whether you see a show, attend a sports game or even participate in "The Big Event" there's a lot happening in Spring.

For some, it's the end of the academic year and nothing more, but for others it's the end of their entire college experience. For those students, spring marks the beginning of a new chapter in their journey. Graduation may bring some tears, but they will subside as the graduates go out into the world and truly experience what it means to B - U!

Complexions Ballet

Under the artistic direction of Dwight Rhoden and Desmond Richardson, Complexions has been reinventing dance since its debut in 1994. Featured on So You Think You Can Dance in the U.S. and Australia, the group's foremost innovation is that dance should be about removing, not reinforcing, boundaries. Rhoden and Richardson's creative vision shaped the unmistakable level of athleticism and choreography in ballet their dancers bring to the stage.

Big Event Makes History...

Bloomsburg University hosts Ryan Leckey and the "Leckey Live" segment from WNEP Channel 16.

Big Event Prep Rally

Couldn't have done it without you!

We would like to give a special thanks to C.G.A. Treasurer Matt Feldstein for his hard work and dedication and for organizing this major event for the first ever prep rally for The Big Event!

Thanks Matt!

What is The Big Event?

The Big Event provides the students of Bloomsburg University with the opportunity to say "Thank You" to the community for their continued support throughout the years. This past year over 1,200 students volunteered to complete almost 120 jobs, performing tasks that ranged from painting, to yard work and cleaning. Already the largest one-day, student-run service project in the nation, The Big Event has expanded to 75 other schools across the nation. The Community Government Association is responsible for planning and organizing all events surrounding this day, allowing students to work with residents in their community.

It's all in our HANDS!

How did you lend a HAND?

"A Helping Hand" by Ray Hansell

Make a difference. Each day you live,
Open your heart. Learn to give.
Life for many. Is so unkind.
Giving people. Are hard to find.

So open your heart. Give what you can.
We're all responsible. For our fellow man.
It's so easy to look. The other way.
But the tables could turn. On any given day.

So help if you can.
For one day you may be.
The one whors down and out.
The one no one will see.

Parent Recognitions . . .

It is with parents, that everything begins and usually ends. They have given each of us the foundation that leads us to what we will become. Carl Sandburg probably said it best, "Nothing happens unless first a dream."

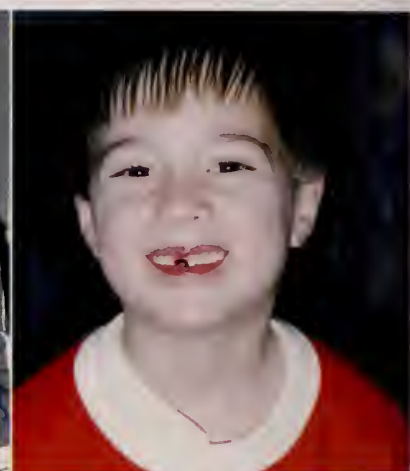

A dream of a child . . . a dream of a graduate . . . a dream of a college graduate . . . but if nothing else, a dream of a child growing from young to old having the strength and support to always be himself or herself . . . to always B - U!

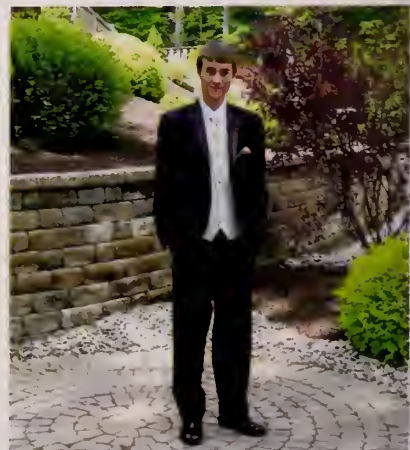

Robert A. Roos

CONGRATULATIONS
BOBBY ROOS

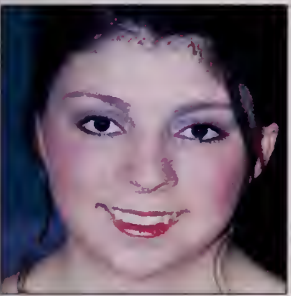

Remember when? And now look at you ~ all grown up! We are so proud of the man you grew to be. We have no doubt you will be a success in all you do as another phase of your life is about to begin. Fly high, fly safe, beware of the bumps in the clouds, but know you will always land safely. After all, you have a backup parachute! The most important thing we wish for you is happiness. Be happy and success will follow. Now go out into the world and make all your dreams come true!

Love you always,
Mom & Dad

Baylie Jill Sappir

Dearest Baylie,
 We are bursting with pride as you graduate from Bloomsburg with dual certification in Elementary and Special Education. Your special gifts and qualities make you an amazing human being and teacher! We wish you continued success in life!

Danielle Walsh

Congratulations!

Danielle Walsh

I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
 Never settle for the path of least resistance

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
 You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger

May you never take one single breath for granted
 God forbid love ever leaves you empty-handed

I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
 Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens

Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
 Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance

And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
 I hope you dance...

All our love and best wishes for an amazing future
 Mom, Dad, Cara, Lauren, James, Marysa and Andrew

Who do well it seems

Don't lose track of your values
As time slips along
For if you heed to them
You won't go wrong

We love you so much
And wish you only the best
We feel as your grandparents
We've been truly blessed

John & Yvonne Chopyak, Sr.

Congratulations Allyn!

Dearest Jenna . . . a.k.a. "Pooh Bear",

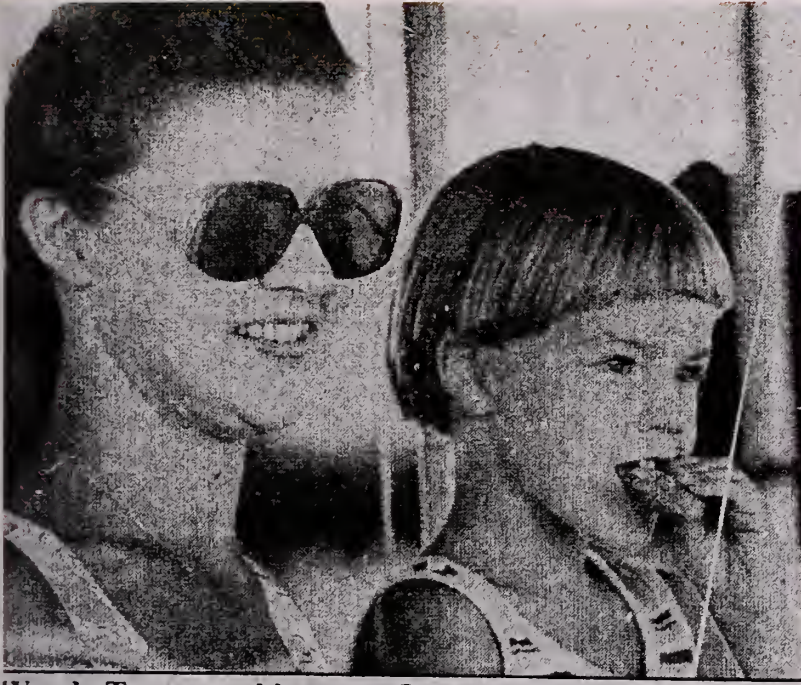

On this special day, I am so proud of you, as I am every day. You have been over obstacles and challenges within the past few years...but your determination and ambition make you strong. You believe anything is possible when you have the drive and personality that you do.

I have watched you become a very strong, independent young lady; however, remember that I will ALWAYS be here for you as your mom, a friend and a mentor whenever you need me. You will ALWAYS be my "baby girl".

Congratulations to you as you graduate BU with honors and the many memories you will carry with you from the past four years.

I love you with all my heart and beyond,

Rebecca Hurlbut

Becky, your life has changed drastically in the 4 years that you were in Bloomsburg; mostly in good ways but a very important part changed in the worst of ways. We're so proud of how hard you worked and how much you accomplished. You have tried to take advantage of all the opportunities offered to you and have done so much. From a shy little girl, you have grown into an intelligent, hard working woman of whom we are very proud!

Madeline,

Four years ago, you arrived at Bloomsburg, a young girl excited, full of hopes, dreams and anticipation of the new chapter in your life. The people you've met and the knowledge you've gained has transformed you from that vulnerable young girl to a strong and self-confident woman.

Now it is your turn to go out and effect change in others lives. Remember that each student that comes into your life affords you the opportunity to change a life and make it better. You have a unique combination of intelligence, charisma, honesty and charm. Use these tools that God has given you to make a difference in other's lives.

Know that you always have and continue to make all us so very proud.

"It's All Good" ... We hear that phrase and we think of you, Kevin. But the reality is that it really is all good. It is good because of the person you are. It is good because you had to work harder than everyone else and you did; and because of it you understand your students like no one else can. You are caring, compassionate and considerate. We are proud of you. We are proud of what you have accomplished.

And yes, it's all good. Good indeed. Congratulations on achieving your dream.

Now you can live it!

Richard B. Leone

As I Look Back

Every parent thinks their child is the best kid in the world. Well in our eyes he is the best. He worked very hard to get his degree. In high school he skated through four years. When he first went to college, I called him on his cell phone and he answered in a very low voice, I said, "Why are you talking so low?", and he replied, "I'm in the library studying." My reply was, "You know how to read?" because in high school he never opened a book.

But all kidding aside, he worked very hard these past four years and my wife and I are very proud of him. He is the first Leone ever to graduate from College. And hopefully not the last.

I never met anyone who met my son that didn't like him right away. He has a personality that you don't just like him, you love him. He would give his shirt to help a friend or family member in need. He always has nice words to say about everyone. Never, and I mean Never has he said something bad about anyone. If you met my son you would know that what I'm saying is true.

Not only is he a good person, but he is very talented too. He sings and dances great. I know it sounds like what parents would say of his talents, but we are also a fan of his. I love to hear him sing.

I remember when he turned 21 years old, he thought he didn't have to listen to me anymore, but he did. When he went out with his friends, he would call me at 2 or 3 AM to tell me he was safe and on his way home. He didn't like it very much to call, but he appeased me anyway.

I know he will succeed in life because he is a winner in anything he does. You don't know how proud I am of you son in what you have achieved. I'm glad I'm writing instead of talking to you in person, because even though I'm writing I'm still crying as I'm writing. Imagine how I would be in person.

Mom and I love you so much and again we are proud of you. There aren't words I can say to you as to how much we love and care for you!

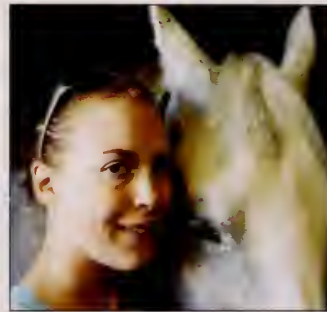

Lindsay A. Ferris

We are SO proud of you!

Love and hugs!

To Our Son —

Genuinely loving, kind, compassionate, considerate, giving, honest, achiever, dedicated, a team player—the list could go on and on. You were such a positive influence on the organizations you were involved in. From OWLS to CGA, community service projects and many more, you always showed compassion in the work you displayed because you firmly believed in all of their causes. Not only have you left a positive influence on Bloomsburg University as Vice President of OWLS and CGA, but you also left a trail for your successors to follow.

Over these past 4 years, you've put forth endless hours of hard work, intellectually emerged and enriched with knowledge. Over the next few years, we know you will put forth every effort it takes to work toward your future success. Know that we support you, believe in you, and are always here for you. Proud, so very proud of whom you are and so very blessed to be your parents. We love you very much.

Congratulations on your accomplishments!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Kosta, you never cease to amaze me. All that you have accomplished thus far in your education takes dedication and self-discipline. But more importantly, all that you've accomplished as a person takes love and appreciation. Anyone who knows you realizes you are generous, thoughtful, and always up for a challenge. You do everything to the best of your ability and you do it with the honor and gratitude of those around you.

Congratulations on all of your accomplishments while at Bloomsburg!

Here's to the bright future that lies ahead and all the blessings that come with it! I couldn't be more proud to call you my brother.

Love always,
Rosemarie

To my brother, my best friend —

I loved playing with you, and I was your best friend keeper—you could tell me anything. You always included me and took great care of me. God couldn't have given me a better brother than you. Know that I am always with you watching over you, and when you need to "sneak" me wherever you are I will be right there listening. I even get to watch you graduate! Congratulations!

Your brother, your best friend
