HUSKY PRIDE

unleash your inner husky!

It all started with "all eyes on the quad" on Thursday, September 6th when students, faculty and staff all gathered on the Academic Quad for a high-energy launch of "unleash your inner husky"! This launch showcased the HUSKY PRIDE that runs through the university community!

What is your inner husky?...Inner Husky is pride in BU and your drive to excel and achieve. It's challenging yourself to explore ALL possibilities. It's personal and it's told through the life stories of each and every one of us who believe that Bloomsburg University's education and support enriched their personal and professional lives!

We as Huskies are leaders. We motivate with a determination and driving spirit that doesn't let anything get in the way when we are unleashed!

HOW DO YOU UNLEASH YOUR INNER HUSKY?

Several offices around campus had a fun little competition to see who could decorate the best office with BU colors. Roongo went around to all the offices to take pictures and decide the winners.

Kendrick Lamar

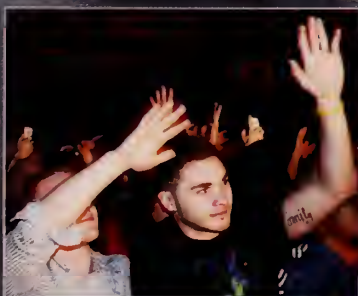

WEDNESDAY MARCH 27, 2014
BLOOMSBURG HOUSE

It started around 7:00 PM with opening act Black Veil Brides. Then Kendrick Lamar hit the stage at about 8:10 PM and stayed for over an hour to a wildly enthusiastic crowd of over 2500 people, made up of mostly BU students. The show was a sell out!

Kendrick Lamar is an American hip-hop recording artist from Compton, California. Lamar first gained major attention after releasing "Overly Dedicated" in 2010. Early on in his career he had the opportunity to work with many popular artists including, but not limited to: Dr. Dre, Warren G, Busta Rhymes and Lil Wayne. MTV crowned Lamar the "No. 1 Hottest MC in the Game" on their famous annual list in 2013. We were privileged to have him here at Bloomsburg University!

Kendrick Lamar performed to a sold-out crowd of over 2500 students and guests.

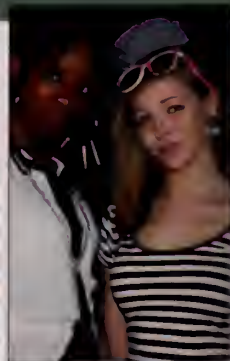

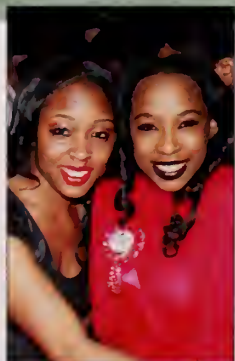

The enthusiastic crowd enjoys the hip-hop stylings of Kendrick Lamar as he performs LIVE at Bloomsburg!

After the show Kendrick met with BSCC members for pictures and autographs.

The Bloomsburg Student Concert Committee is a committee of students that plans and organizes concerts of either music or comedy for the students at Bloomsburg University. They meet on a weekly basis to choose the right act at the right time to bring to BU. Once an act is booked they plan ticket sales, marketing and show preparation. On the day of the concert they are the first to arrive (by 8:00 AM) and the last to leave (usually after midnight) to make sure the show runs smoothly. It is a lot of work, but truly a rewarding experience for committee members.

Tickets sold out for the show, and these two individuals were proud to show off their tickets.

Anxious fans wait in line to enter Nelson Field House for the Kendrick Lamar concert held on March 10, 2013.

Peaks of the Cascades: California

Peaks of the Cascades has been a multi-year trip that Quest leads exploring the summer mountaineering options in the Cascade Range of the Pacific Northwest. Each year a group heads west to attempt to climb several mountains in the range which stretches from Northern California to Southern British Columbia in Canada. The skills necessary to be successful in mountaineering embody the ideas of teamwork and leadership that Quest works to promote. New people join every year and many people return year after year on this exciting program.

The Great Divide Mountain Bike Route is a mostly off-road route from the famous mountain town of Banff in Alberta, Canada to the border in Antelope Wells, New Mexico. This was the first year of a multi-year attempt to bike sections of the route in each state. The route holds a bit of everything along its path and no shortage of adventure can be found. The group had to work as a team to support each other and keep everyone safe during the trip.

The team prepares to depart for their first day of riding. After months of training and preparation the time has finally come to start.

W hat is an OWL?

Orientation Workshop Leaders, or OWLs as we affectionately refer to them, are highly trained student leaders whose job is to help new students adjust to life at Bloomsburg University.

There are more than 75 spirited and talented OWLs who will serve as personal hosts and share their experiences, tips and strategies for success. OWLs range from sophomores to seniors and cover nearly every major offered at BU. They live on and off-campus and are each involved in an average of at least three other student organizations on campus.

In addition to hosting students during an orientation experience, OWLs are also a highly active student organization on campus. At any given time, OWLs are:

- participating in fun community service activities
- recruiting new OWLs
- fundraising
- going on group outings, such as amusement parks
- participating in leadership training
- traveling to conferences

Here to help everyone get started on the right . . . "paw"!

Excited to help to begin your journey as a BU Husky!

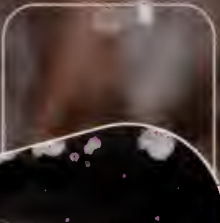

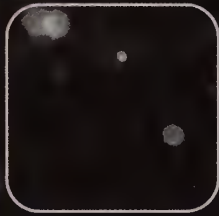

Sponsored each year by the Program Board and the Orientation Office, this event is designed to give students the opportunity to "Get Involved" and "Find Their Niche"! Organizations can reach out and speak with new and existing students to tell them more about themselves and their organizations! Only you define your inner husky!

PASSHE Collegiate Media Summit

BUNow, with the support of PASSHE, PSECU and The College of Liberal Arts hosted the Media Summit. It was a two-day event that featured numerous professionals in the fields of public relations, telecommunications, journalism and technology. One professional was Andy Mehalshick, investigate reporter from WBRE who spoke on current issues and developments in media today

The conference was free to all Bloomsburg University students, not just students majoring in mass communications. Interested students came to the summit and networked with renowned professionals who had tons of experience to share!

There were many sessions and workshops throughout the summit and even PASSHE Chancellor John Cavanaugh was there!

Season Review

The lady Huskies produced two team wins in 2012. They outpaced the competition in the DII Challenge at Kutztown and the St. Clair Invitational at Belmont Park in Philadelphia, PA. The seasoned roster produced solid team results all season and continued to impress at the PSAC and NCAA Atlantic Regionals.

Shattered Records

-Vicki Davis led the Huskies in all six races the team entered. She won her first four outings and produced two new course records (DII Challenge & St. Clair). She was a runner-up at both the PSAC and NCAA Atlantic Regional and represented Bloomsburg University in the NCAA Championships in Joplin, MO.
 -The team excelled in the classroom as they earned USTFCCCA All-Academic honors for their efforts off the track!

While at Bloomsburg, Hale posted a record of 173-56-1 (.754) and holds the school record for the most coaching victories. In 25 years as a head coach, he had a mark of 213-69-1 (.754) and ranked in the top five among active coaches in NCAA Division II in winning percentage and victories at the end of last season.

In his 20 seasons as head coach at Bloomsburg, Hale led the Huskies to 11 outright or shared PSAC Eastern Division titles and eight NCAA post-season playoff berths. In the last 13 seasons (2000-2012) Bloomsburg was one of the most successful NCAA Division II programs with a combined record of 121-32 (.791).

Hale was honored in April of 2012 when the field at the school was named in his honor following a year-long fundraising effort.

Among the great players that Hale coached:

Jamar Brittingham - All-time leading rusher in the history of Bloomsburg University & PSAC

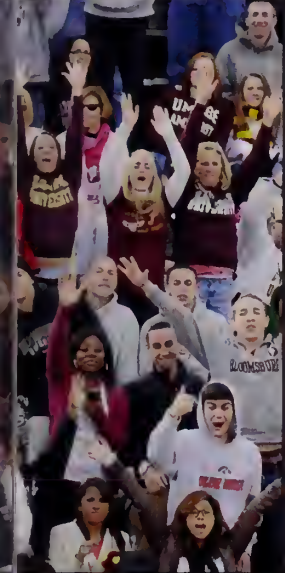

Franklyn Quiteh - Finished third & sixth in the Harlon Hill balloting in his first 3 years

Jahri Evans - NFL star of the New Orleans Saints

Twice he won the honor in consecutive seasons (2000-2001 and 2005-2006). He was also named the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year 10 times, including four straight years from 1994 to 1997 and back-to-back in 2005 and 2006.

The presenters and panelists came with a wealth of knowledge and experience to share and were all alumni of Bloomsburg University. Many alumni came back to campus and worked with many organizations on campus. Some organizations that were involved include: CGA, Peer Ambassadors, Program Board, DASL Campus Leadership, CA's, OWL's, Greek Life, the Living and Learning Communities and Multicultural Affairs.

The Big Event is a single-day community service project sponsored by the Community Government Association (CGA). The event gives BU students the opportunity to say, "Thank you" to Bloomsburg residents. Students get the opportunity to go out into the community and give back to residents by completing various tasks, such as raking leaves, weeding, painting and much more!

This year more than 1,700 students sprawled across Bloomsburg for a massive spring cleaning campaign. This signaled the largest and greatest effort that the CGA's Big Event has seen in its four years of existence!

The Big Event is the largest student run community service project in the nation and originally began at Texas A&M University.

To The Class of 2013,

How appropriate that the theme for the Bloomsburg University yearbook, The Obiter, is "Faces of BU". When I think back about the class of 2013 I see the many faces of students I have encountered as I strolled through campus, ate at the Scranton Commons, met at academic events or joined at sporting and cultural activities.

Many of you experienced an awakening of your senses as you transitioned from high school days to university life. Your world expanded and your perspective changed through the rich diversity of individuals on our campus. Academic and co-curricular experiences provided a learning environment that will serve you in many capacities throughout your life.

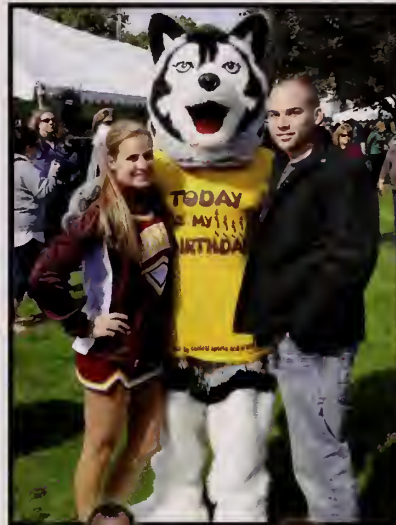

Think about the BU faces that greeted you daily - students from many cultural backgrounds, encouraging faculty from around the world, smiling food-service workers, helpful residence hall custodians, empathetic health care workers, caring department secretaries and supportive coaches. All these interactions have contributed to your growth as a young adult and BU graduate.

I am proud that Bloomsburg University's many faces played a significant role in your maturation. My best wishes for a happy, healthy and successful life.

Sincerely, David L. Soltz, Ph.D., President

Continue to work hard. Strive for excellence. Be an advocate for the weak.

Stand for truth, even if it means standing alone.

Help those in need. Be an encouraging friend to those around you.

Always do what is right! Above all, love the Lord your God with all your heart.

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.

Alyssa Whinna

Alyssa, it all started when you were voted most likely to succeed at your 8th grade graduation. You graduated with honors in high school, only to duplicate this achievement once again. Admission to a doctoral program, one of ten, this is certainly a success. Four years from now you will adorn the title Doctor in front of your name. There is no stopping you and your relentless drive to achieve to be the best you can be. Hours of studying while others were sleeping, relaxing, and enjoying trips home; you were in the library preparing for your next big test. You gave up so much to excel, but now you are living your dream and reaping the benefits of all your hard work. You have demonstrated not only shown what a good college student is, but embody the true definition of a well-matured adult. You have made us proud your entire life, from all those laps in the pool to recovering from your shoulder surgery to getting back to what you love when they said it was over. You show true determination in all that you do, so stand with your head high; you are a great friend, loyal loving sister and a great daughter. Keep being the person you are and look back on the last four years with pride and enjoyment. You made some great friendships (Melissa is awesome) that will remain for a lifetime. We love you and could not be any prouder. Congratulations on your graduation, you rocked it girl! We love you so much!
