

CSC PREVIEW OF TOMORROW

The brothers of Theta Xi prepare their float.

Homecoming Pageant Takes on New Look

The Fifteenth Annual Homecoming will be held at California State College, California, Pennsylvania on Saturday, October 24, 1964. The theme of this year's festivities will be "Famous Quotes".

Highlighting the program will be the Homecoming Parade, which will form at 12:05 p.m. at Steele Auditorium. It will proceed down Third Street, past the Judges' Stand at Fleck Dormitory, turn right at Union Street, and continue up Second Street to the J. Albert Reed Library on the California State College campus. This year's parade will consist of approximately thirty-five units, featuring area bands and drill teams as well as the traditional and colorful floats. The United States Air Force is expected to exhibit a rocket. Also featured in the parade will be the Tam O'Shanners, a group of sixty young girls from Somerset, Pa. They will also present a program at 2:10 p.m. at the Community Booster Field.

Dr. Michael Duda, president of the college, and Dr. Irvin Shutsy, president of the Alumni Association, will serve as honorary Parade Marshalls.

Miss Joann Barantovich is a junior in the Atypical curriculum of Speech and Hearing, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barantovich, 607 Fourth Street, Monongahela, Pa. Very active on C.S.C.'s campus, she is the co-chairman of the Committee on Social Activities, the organization that is responsible for much of the preparation for Homecoming. A member of the Speech and Hearing Club and Sigma Alpha Eta, honorary Speech and Hearing fraternity, Miss Barantovich also belongs to the Delta Zeta sorority and is recording secretary. She graduated from Mon-Valley Catholic High School, Class of '62, and attends St. Anthony's Catholic Church. A water-lover, she enjoys water skiing and swimming and is always a front runner in Greek Week competition. Miss Barantovich also enjoys the more quiet diversion of playing the piano, and despite her many activities, has been a Dean's List student.

Miss Donna Jean Loncaric, a senior in the Elementary curriculum, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loncaric, 82 Elma Avenue, Uniontown, Pa. A 1961 graduate of South Union High School, she has made several appearances on the Dean's List at C.S.C. An active member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, she is first vice-president. In holding this office, she serves as pledge-trainer. Most readers of the California Times will remember her column in the "Greeks Speak" section. In addition to these activ-

The construction now in progress on main campus just off Senior Walk seems to have the entire student body mystified. Expressions of bewilderment have been noticed on the faces of almost every student attending C.S.C.

What is now underway is the first phase of a 60-foot court provided by the graduating class of 1963. The flagpoles which formerly stood near Main are currently towering the lawns of our Alma Mater. This, the first step of the development, will be followed by the court which will later be provided with benches, planters, and other improvements.

The class of '63 set aside a donation of $300.00 to build the project, and another $100.00 was donated by Alpha Phi Omega social fraternity. This project is sincerely appreciated and the court will certainly be a useful addition to the campus.

Mr. Jay Helsel, a member of the Industrial Arts department, is directing the enterprise.

This court is also expected to be used for outdoor concerts and other such events once the construction is completed.

As a waitress in Atlantic City this past summer, Miss Loncaric represented Cap'n Starn's Restaurant in the Miss Waitress Contest. She was also a candidate for Junior Miss in her hometown.

A student on the accelerated trimester program, Miss Lillian Rocco is a junior in the English curriculum of Elementary education.

FLOATS

The annual Homecoming of California State College will again be highlighted by the parade of floats through the Borough streets. Preparation for presentation of the floats is now in its usual, hectic last night. The crepe paper and the hair of those who are working will be flying tonight in the usual frenzy which accompanies every homecoming.

Themes for the floats have been announced. The overall theme for this Fifteenth Annual Homecoming is "Famous Quotes", and all participating organizations have chosen their separate theme accordingly. The following campus organizations will participate in tomorrow's parade: Class of '65, Class of '66, Astronomy-Physics Club, College Choir, Newman Club, Tucis "Y", Theta Xi, Alpha Kappa Lambda, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Delta Sigma Phi, Sigma Kappa, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Zeta.

As usual the competition between the Greek Societies will be keen, and all fraternities and sororities hope they have chosen the winning theme and design.

Theta Xi Fraternity has chosen as their theme an old folk saying, "Necessity—The Mother of Invention". This will be the first year that Theta Xi has entered competition, and they are hoping that they will be welcomed with an award.

As their theme for 1964, the girls of Sigma Kappa have chosen a quotation from Julius Caesar, his immortal "Veni, Vidi, Vinci", while Tau Kappa Epsilon is busily at work constructing their float around their theme of "... And the Glow From That Fire, Can Truly Light the World".

Good Morning!

This year, the Homecoming Queen will be selected by a panel of impartial judges. The candidates are Donna Loncaric, Lillian Rocco, Joann Barantovich, Chris Turnbull, and Joan Wingrove.

Bids for sororities are out. Formal rush begins at a later date.

The judging stand for the Homecoming Parade will be at Fleck. The parade will start at 12:05 p.m. The parade route has been changed.

The autumn leaves are still falling all over the place.

COMMUTERS BEWARE! THE SNOW IS NOT FAR BEHIND!

Last week some of the I.A. students went to the IAAP conference. More of the students are scheduled to go to the AIAA convention soon.

The sisters of Tri-Sigma work busily to finish their entry in the parade.

TIMES FOR CHANGE

We would, first, like to thank the student body for their acceptance of our new Editorial Policy. Despite the many complaints of cynics, The California Times does not agree that the students of CSC are an 'apathetic bunch'. It is felt that they were merely weary of being told, in sarcastic tones, that they were completely indifferent over the fate of the world.

The time has come for a change on the CSC campus, and The California Times is willing to take the leading role in this movement. We feel that this should be the role of a newspaper on a college campus.

This is not to say that our newspaper will be completely void of criticism. We refuse to become an optimistic, 'look on the brighter side' tabloid. Constructive criticism will be voiced objectively. Our role is to persuade not to coerce; to convince not to compel; to reason not to ridicule.

LOANS TO FRESHMEN

Gov. William W. Scranton announced last week his plans to ask the 1965 General Assembly to expand Pennsylvania's new student loan program by extending it to freshmen.

The governor made the announcement in a speech Thursday at the 125th convocation of Bloomsburg State College. Earlier Scranton had dedicated the new Harrisburg Community College, the first such two-year institution of higher learning in the Commonwealth.

In his Bloomsburg talk, Scranton said the student loan program was "off to a faster start in Pennsylvania than in any state which had previously begun a comparable program." Under the program, the Commonwealth guarantees education loans made to student by banks. At present, only sophomores, Juniors and seniors are eligible.

Scranton said loan applications amounting to more than $2 million have been approved for over 3,000 students, since June 8. The governor's office in Harrisburg, meanwhile, announced that the West End National Bank of Shamokin had become the 1,000th bank to join in the program.

Scranton told the convocation that he also intended to ask the legislature to revise public school subsidy payments, increase the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction and establish a Commission on Cultural Affairs. "The single most important reason for the existence of our Commonwealth is education," he said.

Looking Back At Old CSC

Looking Back:

There seems to be some confusion concerning the mention of the Provincial Room in the last issue. So our reporters traced the history of it. To our surprise it is now the Men's Traveling Room. At first it served as classrooms, and then in 1930 the Industrial Arts department redecorated it and named it the Provincial Room which was for the purpose of social activities such as dancing and lounging. Later it became a Snack Bar, then simply a storage area.

September 1957

Sammy Bill was featured at Homecoming Dance, theme of the dance was "Sleeping Beauty."

CSC was having trouble with thieves stealing books (this problem hasn't been solved yet!)

October 1960

Greek Civilization

Theta Xi House, 115 First Street

The California State College Colony of Theta Xi Fraternity was founded in the Spring of 1961, as Kappa Theta Gamma. The original members numbered fifteen as CSC's newest fraternity began to grow.

In the Fall of 1962, still as Kappa Theta Gamma, the fifteen charter members took their first pledge class and began to think of their fraternity on a national scale.

It was later decided that Kappa Theta Gamma would become a colony of Theta Xi. On December 5, 1962 the twenty members of KTG became pledges to Theta Xi National Fraternity.

Since that date Theta Xi has continually progressed on the CSC campus and now ranks as a leader in Greek activities. The officers for this semester are as follows: president, Richard Winters; vice president, Herman Fry; recording secretary, Henry Millon; corresponding secretary, Joe Yukish; treasurer, Patsy Botti; history, Murray Peterson, and parliamentarian, Gene Ritsert.

The present residence of the men of Theta Xi is 115 First St., in California. Their former address was 420 Fourth St.

Although still a Colony, Theta Xi has constantly been a growing, active force on the California Campus and promises to continue being an asset to the climate of the school.

Greek Civilization will be a weekly feature of The California Times. Each week a different fraternity or sorority will be highlighted.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Bobbi and Bob,

Hooray for the new Times policy, may it live forever, and may the staff follow it to the letter. At last we may have equal coverage of all activities and organizations, (including Greeks and we may get the news without the sarcasm for a change. Thanks from the whole student body.

I'm also pleased to see that California isn't the only one with the problem of trying to spread a tiny activity fee over literally hundreds of activities items. I, for one, feel that it is about time the students faced up to the fact of inflation and increased SAA services, and raised our meager twenty dollars a semester into something workable. Slippery Rocks pays forty and pays for their yearbooks too. Shouldn't California consider raising theirs?

In your "Looking Back" column you stated that the "Provincial Room is now the Colonial Room. I was under the impression that the dining room was once the Provincial Room and was used for dances and lounging. Who is right?

Good luck to you and the whole staff this year!

Yours truly,
George Graff

Dear Editors,

"The book-store line is only sixteen blocks long now!" Maybe by the time that the trimester is over we will be able to buy our books. Why can't some influential citizen in our midst put the pressure on someone with authority to change the present conditions? At least we got some improvement when the Book-Store was moved from the basement of Vulcan Lounge to its new location, in the old laundry, but must it stop there? Would we be better off if some temporary arrangement was made to kill the first week rush. I do not know whether anyone has devised a new plan for a temporary operating base for this trying time, but think that something has to be done. If it is done for no other reason, it should be done for the benefit of the poor people who slave for long hours behind the counter during the first few weeks.

I will gladly accept any arguments to this article through the newspaper office in Vulcan Lounge. I will even print a retraction if necessary, but think that all students will agree that maybe, something could be done.

VULCANS TO FACE CLARION

HOMECOMING PREVIEW

Tomorrow afternoon, the fighting Vulcans will play host to the Golden Eagles of Clarion State at the annual Homecoming game.

Under the able leadership of head coach Bill Hepner, the grid-ders of CSC defeated Clarion 6-3 last year, and overwhelmed them 54-7 the year before that. The Vulcans will be trying to make history repeat itself, by defeating the Eagles for the third time in as many years.

By virtue of Edinboro's upset victory over Clarion last week, three teams, Edinboro, Clarion, and California, are tied for fourth place in the western division of the PSCAC Standings, so tomorrow's game will be important to both teams.

Athletic Activities of W.R.A.

The Women's Recreation Association is an organization which provides for physical and recreational activity for the Women of California State College. The women participate in intramural and inter-collegiate activities such as volleyball, basketball and archery, just to mention a few. The officers of the W.R.A. are as follows:

President, Karen Scarpari; Vice President, Peg Mullen; Secretary, Sandy Browning; Treasurer, Janet Shipley; Representative to Congress, Barbara Bruce; Alternate, Sharon Zajicek; and Social Chairman, Pat Foley.

The W.R.A. has many activities planned for this and next semester. The following is a schedule of W.R.A. activities.

Starting Wednesday, October 28, and continuing every Wednesday until November 18, will be an intramural sports volleyball and basketball tournament. The sessions will begin promptly at 7:00 p.m. and will continue until 9:00 p.m. They will be held in Gym A, (Herron Hall) and are open to any CSC woman, be you a dorm resident or a commuter. Any woman who is interested in participating, or if you wish to form a team of your own, should get in contact with Sophie Battles, Nancy Brown, or Karen Scarpari.

Also, these same evenings, a "Round Robin" tournament will be held in Gym B (Herron Hall), which will include badminton, archery, ping pong, and shuffle board. Downstairs in the pool, swimming will be conducted for any woman who desires to do so. Don't forget, that's every Wednesday evening (7 to 9:00 p.m.) from October 28 to November 18.

November 21 is the date set aside for the Volleyball Sports Day, in which the district colleges will participate.

Every Wednesday from 6:15 to 7:00 p.m. the Volleyball Club will meet and practice. It is from this club that players are selected for the CSC Inter-Collegiate Volleyball Team, which competes with such colleges as Indiana State, Carnegie Tech, Geneva, Seton Hill and Duquesne University.

If you are looking ahead to the Spring of 1965, on April 24, the Annual High School Sports Day will be held. 125 district high schools will be invited and some 225 girls are expected to participate. It will be an all-day affair, lasting from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m., and will include basketball, volleyball, swimming, and other recreational games in the program.

These activities are all sponsored by the W.R.A., and are designed to provide all CSC women with some first-class athletic enjoyment. If you are interested in becoming a member of the Women's Recreation Association, be sure to be in attendance every Wednesday at 7:00 p.m.

Conference Notes

East Stroudsburg's soccer team with six straight wins is maintaining the undefeated pace set by the football team . . . Although he did not lose a match, but wrestled to two draws, Elliott (Gray) Simons, former PSCC wrestling star, was eliminated in his bid for an Olympic wrestling medal. Gray fought Russian and Iranian flyweight wrestlers to a draw. The gold medal in the division was won by a Japanese wrestler who learned his holds at Oklahoma State.

Bloomsburg and Clarion will play football on new gridirons next year.

Coach Hubert Jack will take sabbatical leave next January and the popular Lock Haven football-wrestling coach and his wife will begin around the world tour on Feb. 4.

Stan Dieda and Bob Horak of Lock Haven were taken to Erie hospital after the game at Edinboro. Both were released after observation. Dieda may be lost for remainder of season with torn ligaments, while Horak may play next weekend following last weekend's slight concussion. . . .

Climaxing the day's events will be the Annual Homecoming Dance in Herron Hall, sponsored by the Sophomore Class. It will begin at 8:00 p.m. The theme of the dance will correspond with that of the parade, "Famous Quotes", and music will be provided in Gym A by the Wally Gingers Orchestra.

The committee on Social Activities cordially extends to all alumni and guests an invitation to attend C.S.C.'s annual Homecoming activities.

Gov. William W. Scranton has appointed Dr. John C. Frich of 4810 Barone Drive, Baldwin Borough, to the board of trustees of California State College.

Famous Quotes

Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity is hoping to cop a prize with "I Shall Return" as their theme. This famous quote was taken from the late General Douglas MacArthur during his campaigns in the Philippines.

The girls of Tri-Sigma Sorority are busily preparing their float around a theme of "Speak Softly and Carry A Big Stick", the political philosophy of President Teddy Roosevelt.

"Go West, Young Man, Go West" is the theme chosen by the sisters of Alpha Xi Delta, and Alpha Kappa Lambda Fraternity has chosen as their theme, the late President Kennedy's immortal challenge to the American people, "Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country".

Competition will also be keen between the various clubs on campus who are participating.

The Newman Club and Tucis

"Y" have both chosen religious themes for their respective floats. The Newman Club is pinning its hopes on "Heart speaks to Heart", while the members of Tucis "Y" are hoping their design for "In the Beginning" will win a prize for them.

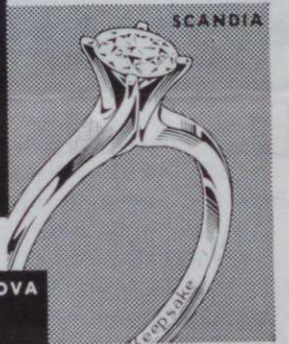

The College Choir has naturally chosen a theme dealing with music; it is "Music—The Universal Language", while the Astronomy-Physics Club has also chosen an appropriate theme in "The Sky's The Limit".

Only two of the classes on campus will be presenting floats. The Class of '65 has chosen "Live Modern Electrically" and the Class of '66 hopes to win with their theme, "Great Oaks From Little Acorns Grow."

The parade will begin at 12:05 p.m. tomorrow, and will be followed by the football game with Clarion S.C. and later by the Annual Homecoming dance.
