1979-80

MEN'S BASKETBALL

JON BARDSLEY GOES UP FOR TWO

COACHES PLAYER PROFILES

Jon Bardsley

A sophomore point guard that played in all 24 games as a freshman. Jon possesses exceptional quickness along with great ability as a passer. With an improved shot, it is expected that Jon could double his scoring average of 5.4 p.p.g. of a year ago.

Mark Cable

Co-captain of the 79-80 squad, Mark is undoubtedly the most dangerous outside shooter on the team and will be looked to against opponents employing zone defenses. Well liked and with a great sense of humor, Mark's leadership qualities are a necessity with this young team.

Terry Conrad

As a senior at Delone Catholic last year, Terry was an All-Conference player and Harrisburg Area All-Star MVP. This year he gives the Huskies the best depth at the point guard position in modern Bloomsburg State history. Although a great passer, Terry also has the capabilities of scoring in double figures.

Doug Greenholt

Last year's starting center as a freshman. Although his progress was limited due to a number of injuries, still averages 7.0 p.p.g. and 5.0 rebounds as a freshman. Probably the fastest big man on the team, and may see considerable action at the forward position when more size is needed in the game.

Dave Kiersnowski

A native of near-by Shamokin, this junior will be counted on at the second guard spot and to lend some maturity and competitiveness to a young squad. Dave has good defensive instincts and gets involved well with the Husky running game.

Ed Nichols

The 6'7" sophomore played in 22 games last year and is expected to contribute significantly as a scorer and rebounder this season. Ed is a quiet and reserved individual that has the tools to create quite a commotion with opposing teams.

Dave Ogden

Dave has demonstrated more improvement in his game than any other member of the team. After a summer of long hours in the weight room and on the courts, Dave appears to be one of the people who will provide some of the scoring punch in this year's attack.

Bill Tillman

Starting his third season as a varsity player, Bill finds himself in the role Co-captain and one of the "old men" on the team even though he is only a junior. One of the most talented players on the team, Bill will be looked to as a leader by example.

Brad Weber

Although sidelined most of last season by a shoulder injury, Brad did compete in 9 varsity games as a freshman. A strong player with a nose for the ball, he will see a great amount of playing time as the small forward and defending the opponent's scoring forward.

Mike Wenrich

Because of a knee injury early last year, Mike sat out the season and has four years of eligibility remaining. One of the best athletes on the team, Mike has the talent to be one of the statistical leaders this year and to enjoy a career that would establish him as one of the outstanding players to wear a Husky uniform.

NEW FACES

Mark Bennett

Mike Campo

Randy Colone

Ron Zynel

6'6" Mark Bennett - a smooth, good passing sophomore forward.

6'7" Mike Campo - Freshman center with size that could play a lot in the near future.

6'6" Randy Colone - could be the hardest worker on the squad and a name to remember for the future.

6'7" Ron Zynel - has a knack for getting the ball in the basket. An aggressive rebounder.

1979-80 OUTLOOK

After two good back-to-back recruiting years, Coach Charles Chronister indicates the Huskies of Bloomsburg State College should have the best height in the school's history.

"We face a very tough schedule," comments Chronister. "There are no seniors on the squad so we're a young team with some inexperience, but we have a lot of talent and potential. We should develop as the season progresses."

Co-captains are juniors Mark Cable, 4.3 p.p.g. av. last year, and Bill Tillman, 7.1 p.p.g. and 4.2 rebound av. per game.

Other key returnees include sophomore Jon Bardsley, 5.4 p.p.g. and leader in assists with 87; 6'7" sophomore Doug Greenholt, 7.0 p.p.g. and 5.0 rebounds per game; 6'7" sophomore Ed Nichols, 3.1 p.p.g. and 2.8 rebounds per game; and 6'3" junior Dave Ogden who saw considerable action late in the season. Mike Wenrich, a 6'5" sophomore and a good leaper, was injured early in the season and sat out the balance of the year.

Lost through graduation were last year's co-captains John Bucher and Miles Reitnour who led the team to a 13-12 season. Bucher averaged 13.4 p.p.g. and 5.5 rebounds per game while Reitnour's average was 11.3 p.p.g. and 6.2 rebounds per game.

Although the above returnees all saw considerable action last year, Chronister will still have a very young team, mostly freshmen and sophomores. During the 1978-79 campaign, there was a lack of consistent scorers, and this may be a problem again, particularly early in the season.

Six foot three sophomore Brad Weber saw some varsity action and up from the JV's are 6'3" junior Dave Kiersnowski and 6'6" sophomore Mark Bennett. Ron Zynel, a 6'7" sophomore from Wilkes Barre, who was recruited two years ago by Chronister and decided not to play as a freshman, is back as a surprise walk-on.

Incoming freshmen include: Terry Conrad, a 5'10", 160 lb. point guard from McSherrystown (Delone Catholic), a first team South Central League selection, MVP, Harrisburg area and an all-stater, averaged around 17.0 p.p.g.; Mike Campo, 6'7", 200 lbs., Moscow (North Pocono H.S.), averaged around 20.0 p.p.g., an All-Conference and dream team selection; and Randy Colone, 6'6", 180 lbs. from West Deptford H.S., Woodbury, N.J., a regional all-star.

Two transfers with later eligibility are David Heimbach, a 6'5" sophomore from Lycoming College, who joins the team in January, and Ken Casey, the 6'6" ex-King's College standout, who will have to wait until the 1980-81 season.

Chronister's career record at BSC stands at 132-67. Assistant coaches are Burt Reese, now in his 12th season, and Mike Herbert, in his 15th year.

The Huskies will play a 21 game schedule plus participate in the Clarion State Invitational on November 30 and December 1, conduct their own BSC Keystone Invitational Classic January 4-5, and play in the West Virginia Wesleyan Tournament January 11-12.
