

NORMAL LOSES HARD FOUGHT GAME

Last Saturday night before a record breaking crowd the Maroon & Gold passers were forced to bow in defeat to Stroudsburg Normal.

The game was fast thruout and the outcome was not certain until the closing minutes of play.

Normal was not going so well during the first half which ended 20-12 in favor of the visitors. The visiting center, Secor, is 6 feet, 7 inches tall and he was a big handicap for our boys as he of course took all the tap offs. Our boys also seemed to be a little over anxious and were constantly trying long shots only one which was turned into a score.

At the beginning of the second half Haupt replaced Jenkins at forward and shortly after Cooper replaced Sack. Normal took on a spurt and came within an ace of tying the score, which at one time was 33-30.

Of the visiting team Capt. Morris led the scorers with 5 field goals and 4 fouls closely followed by Kawalski who had 5 field goals to his credit. Secor, Oister and Curtis also played a nice floor game.

Captain Kazlusky was the stellar performer for the Maroon and Gold. He played one of the best games of his career. He also played Oister, recognized as one of the leading forwards of Normal schools, and held him to seven points while he (Kaz) scored 13 points which was the highest individual score for our side. Jenkins and Sack, owing to illness, did not play up to their usual standard neither scoring a point. They were also off form on the passing end. Turner played a fine game on the offense scoring 11 points but he was a little weak on the defense, his opponent scoring 14 points. Haupt who took Jenkin's place for the second half, also played exceptionally well. He played a fine floor game besides caging three field goals and a foul. Zimolzak played a fine game considering the opponent he had. Despite his opponent's 6 ft. 7 in. of height he was held to 2 field goals. Cooper played a nice game when he substituted for Sack in the second half.

Score:

B. S. N. S.		S. S. N. S.
Turner	R. F.	Kawalski
Jenkins	L. F.	Oister
Zimolzak	C.	Secor
Sack	R. G.	Morris (c)
Kazlusky (c)	L. G.	Curtis

Field goals, Bloomsburg—Turner (3), Haupt (3), Zimolzak, Kaz. (5); Stroudsburg—Kawalski (5), Oister (3), Secor (2), Morris (5), Curtis. Fouls, Bloomsburg—Turner 5 out of 7, Haupt 1 out of 2, Kaz. 3 out of 4; Stroudsburg—Oister 1 out of 2, Morris 4 out of 7.

Substitutions—Haupt for Jenkins, Cooper for Sack, Bauman for Morris, Morris for Bauman.

CAST SELECTED FOR OPERETTA

Under the Direction of Prof. C. R. Carter

The three combined Glee Clubs under the direction of Prof. C. R. Carter, are going to put on an operetta entitled "The Pennant," Tuesday, March 24. The lyrics for the operetta were written by Frank M. Colville, and the music was composed by Oscar J. Lehrer. "The Pennant" is a comic operetta of two acts, and is full of laughs from beginning to end. It is especially adapted for college entertainments.

The cast is as follows:

Volley Ball Match to be Held.

A few weeks ago a call was given for volley ball practice for girls. There was a larger response for the sport than there was for basket-ball. Practice has been held every week since, and the girls, Juniors and Seniors, have been working hard.

A match will be held the second week in March between the Senior and the Junior teams. Seniors and Juniors come out and back your team. See if you can help them win.

DOUBLE QUARTETTE CONCERT SUNDAY

Same Concert to Be Broadcasted
March 13th

On February 27th, a very successful concert was given by the quartette, assisted by Miss Helen Hartzell, reader, for the benefit of the school libraries at Lime Ridge, Pa. Miss Hartzell's entertainment has recently been added to the program, and is most enthusiastically received. Miss Mason gave a very interesting talk on the value of the school library.

Mr. Edison Harris, tenor soloist in the quartette, gave a very beautiful rendition of "Rend Your Hearts, and Not Your Garments" by Rogers at the recital at St. Paul's Church, Sunday afternoon, March 1st.

The Boys' Quartette, under the direction of Miss Perner, entertained at the Methodist Church Monday evening, March 2.

Miss Mary Bomboy, one of the soloists in the quartette, sang at the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, March 3.

March 5th, the mixed quartette will sing for the Rotary Club.

Sunday afternoon, March 8th, at 4 o'clock, a concert will be given in the Normal Auditorium, featuring the double quartette and solos by Miss Perner and Miss Elizabeth Pursel in the same program which will be broadcasted from the Scranton Times Air Station on March 13th. A silver offering will be taken at this time to defray the expenses of the quartette.

The mixed quartette will be placed "on the Air" from the Sterling Hotel Studio in Wilkes-Barre at a later date.

Other dates for the appearance of the double quartette are:

March 20—Rupert, Pa.
 March 27—Parent-Teachers' Association, Bloomsburg.
 March 28—Catawissa, Pa.
 April 17—Forks, Pa.

New Athletic Leaders Elected.

At the beginning of this week the Juniors voted for girls to be representative Athletic Leaders from their class. The eight girls having the highest number of votes are the members from the class of '26. Initiations will begin tomorrow morning and continue until Monday night, so if you want to know who these girls are, watch for the initiations. You'll know them at once.

The new leaders will assume active work immediately; the old leaders will not give up their duties entirely, but will help the others surmount difficulties.

NORMAL BOWS TO BELLEFONTE NORMAL

Last Friday, February 27, the Normal team was defeated by Bellefonte Academy for the second time this year. The final score was 44-26.

Coach Meade used the entire Jr. Varsity team throughout the game excepting for about the last three minutes of play. Capt. Kazlusky and Haupt were the only two veterans who made the trip. The varsity did not play on account of the anticipated hard tussel with Stroudsburg Normal the following evening.

The game was played before a large crowd and was clean throughout. Hood, Bellefonte's flashy forward, starred for the Academy quintet, caging eight two-pointers and two fouls, for eighteen points. Walsh with 8 points was Normal's high scorer.

Score:

Bloomsburg		Bellefonte
Vanbuskirk	R. F.	Hood
Zeveny	L. F.	Griffin
Austin	C.	Slaven
Walsh	R. G.	Whitmore
Stoker (c)	L. G.	Blackburn (c)

Field Goals, Bloomsburg—Vanbuskirk, Zeveny, Austin, (2); Walsh, (3); Bellefonte—Hood, (8); Whitmore, Slaver, (4); Griffin, Hill, Blackburn, (2). Fouls, Bloomsburg, 7 out of 10; Bellefonte—6 out of 10. Substitutions—Haupt for Vanbuskirk, Cooper for Walsh, Kaz for Stoker, Greene for Griffin, Bowers for Slaver, Hill for Whitmore.

FACULTY MEMBERS.

Miss Ruth L. Tempest needs little introduction to most of us.

Every senior and faculty member knows her, and to know her is to love her. Last year she was a senior and because of her excellent standing she was chosen a member of the faculty. In the place of the kindergartner we have two first grades, with Miss Tempest "mothering" the wee tots coming to school for the first time. As her personality won the little folks so it has won us all. If chaperones are in order one just invariably thinks of her. She's just as peppy and full of fun as can be.

"Ruthy" has another rare quality, grace. Have you seen her dance? If not you have a treat in store.

Miss Tempest came to us from Shenandoah High School, where she was an Honor Student. We feel her work here has just begun. Although her future is quite uncertain at present we know she'll make good in anything she may chose—teaching or housekeeping!

Ah! How beautiful she was and how madly I loved her! Let me see—what the deuce was her name?

EDITORIAL

TRUTHFULNESS.

There are features continually springing up in the course of our lives here at school which call into play the utmost sincerity and truth. How easy it is for one to slip off the well beaten path of truth to one less desired by your associates. Who is the man that cares to associate with one who cannot tell the truth or cannot be square with those he comes into contact with? You have noticed, no doubt, that the fellow who got ahead in life was the fellow who invariably told the truth and who was honest in his dealings with his fellow-men.

Then why not to-day make a fresh start and cultivate that idealistic quality "Truth" for therein lies the key note to success.

I Wonder Why?

Peg McLaughlin holds the tones of "Ray and Me," so long when she is singing in music class?

"Frankie" Cauley likes shoe stores? She also has a great liking for the color red especially if it is red hair.

Margaret Smith always likes artificial articles, especially when it comes to teeth?

Charlie Lesser waits so patiently for the mail?

Mary Bevan went home last Saturday?

Vivian Pitt, on her way home, stops off at some little patch town?

Anna Cauley likes asparagus and fish especially if it is bought in Bloomsburg?

Anna Adamson came up to the dance Saturday night?

Flo Shovelin sat in the balcony during the dance? Her efforts were not fruitless, however.

Peg Scanlon usually looks at the postmark of her letters before she opens them and then brightens up if it's from Bellefonte?

Gretchen Culver says she is going to buy a ticket for the Junior play?

Week-end Notes.

Dick Powell, of last year's class, once again visited his Alma Mater as well at Gertrude Hildebrand.

Gertrude's mother and father were also here Sunday.

Clinton Weisenfluh, and Dusty Painter, of the class of '23, came back for the basketball game Saturday evening.

Gene Wilson had as her guest over the week-end Claire Walker, of Scranton.

Jennie Jones and Peg Griffiths went home for the week-end.

Gretchen Culver and Emily Park spent Sunday in Berwick with Emily's grandparents.

The following "thank you" note was received by the Mu Phi Sigma for the feast they tendered the Middler Boys Tuesday evening:

The President of M. Phi Sigma,

Bloomsburg, Penna.,

Dear Madam:

As instigator of all plots and promoter of all efforts to dismember the middler section and block organization, and custodian of all mail and parcels directed to the middler boys, I feel it is my duty to render you thanks for your kind appreciation of our existence.

Although the banana skins tasted somewhat stale, and the meat was somewhat wormy we appreciate your generosity, for we believe that many of you have refused to satisfy your severe appetites in order that we may subsist one day longer.

For this and all other kindnesses you have shown to us, I, on behalf of the middler boys and myself, give you many thanks for what you have done for us.

Sincerely yours,
Middler Boys,

DR. PIKE'S SERIES

OF LECTURES OVER

Senior Class Visits Danville Hospital.

After a most beneficial and interesting series of lectures delivered by Dr. Pike, the senior class of the normal school was privileged to visit the Danville State Hospital for the purpose of seeing in reality the different cases, for sake of illustrations, which were formerly spoken of and described in the previous lectures.

The class left Bloomsburg on the 8:33 D. L. & W. for Danville. An extra coach was provided for some three hundred students. Arriving in Danville about 9 A. M., we set out in a company for the Hospital. After spending a few minutes in the hospital chapel, we were directed to the auditorium where we were welcomed very cordially by the Superintendent. Immediately following the welcome address, Dr. Pike proceeded to explain the cases which in a way he had previously made familiar to us. They were varied greatly. He explained to us through actual people, feeble-mindedness as the result of faulty heredity, environment, venereal diseases, some physical ailment, illusions, delusions, hallucinations-auditory and visual-feeling, dope and liquor.

It was most interesting to watch the cases and hear them respond to Dr. Pike's questions. Some had a mental age of only 2 or 3 years, others were highly educated and intelligent. It was a proof to us that this awful mental disease is no respecter of persons.

About 10 A. M. we were finished with the auditorium exercises and our crowd was divided. The girls were put in one group to visit the women's dorm; the men in another to visit the men's dorm. A doctor and several nurses accompanied each group. In our tour around the building we visited the convalescent ward, a most comfortable and delightful one; the violent ward, where the patients are loud and boisterous; the infirmary, where the aged and infirm live; the E ward, where the patients are first taken and kept until their cases are diagnosed; the work shops; the laundry, which employs about sixty patients, forty women and twenty men; and the kitchen.

This trip took about two hours of time but it simply flew when one was in so interesting a place. During the examinations the groups were requested to keep as closely together as possible so as to hear the explanations and get as much as possible from the trip.

Immediately following we were given our lunch which the Normal had prepared for every student. We then divided into groups and hiked to the business section of Danville.

One cannot leave the institution,

KEEP SMILING.

When all the world seems dark and blue,
When work is hard and pleasures are few,
When everything discourages you—
Keep Smiling.

Though days are long, and sad, and drear,
Though all your friends have left you here,
And though you know there's no one near—
Keep Smiling.

If worries and cares have weighed you down,
If little trifles have made you frown,
If all the world seems upside down—
Keep Smiling.

Cheer up, dear one, forget your pain!
Look for the sunshine, forget the rain!
Meet your friends with a greeting, the same—And
Keep Smiling.

Do all you can from day to day,
The kindest thing in the kindest way:
For that's the sure and safest way—

High up above in the clear blue sky,
Someone is watching with careful eye,
Who will not let one harm come high—
If you
Keep Smiling.

Just chase away those clouds of blue,
And let the silver one shine through,
Don't let one thing discourage you—
So
Keep Smiling.

especially a prospective teacher, without great problems on his mind. Nor can one help but feel that the prevention of such diseases can depend upon the teacher to a very great degree. We feel as though this problem of mental hygiene could not be brought more closely and ably to us than it was by Dr. Pike.

Here's hoping that if these problems and advices are not written down in our notebooks, they will be in our heads and we can contribute our share to the bettering of such conditions. We are most grateful to Dr. Pike and the Institution for the course.

MISS REID MUCH ENJOYED.

Election of Y. W. C. A. Officers Postponed Until Tonight.

All those who attended Y. W. C. A. meeting in the auditorium last Wednesday night enjoyed very much the delightful talk given by Miss Reid, the National Secretary of Normal Schools. Her talk centered mainly about keeping on the straight track of life in order to reach our goal—HAPPINESS. She also told many of her interesting encounters in the western and southern states with people who were striving to gain happiness.

Miss Reid was very much interested in hearing about and seeing the work of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. of our own Normal School. However, she believes that we could accomplish much more if there were more cooperation between the two organizations.

Miss Reid will be at the Cabinet Training Conference to be held at Keystone State Normal School next month. We hope that we will be able to send several of our own members to represent the Y. W. C. A. of the Bloomsburg State Normal School at this conference.

Due to the unexpected visit of Miss Reid, the election of officers for the cabinet was postponed. It is hoped that this postponement has given all the members a chance to think about the nominees and to make their selections accordingly. The success of our Y. W. C. A. depends upon you. Please shoulder your responsibility and come to the "Y" meeting to-night to help elect the new cabinet.

- The nominees for office are:
- President—Edith Morris, Gertrude Custer.
 - Vice President—Laura Mann, Margaret Lambert.
 - Secretary—Elgie Prutzman, Edna Brotherton.
 - Treasurer—Katherine Moore, Marion Shelbert.
 - Assistant Treasurer—Betty Ohlman, LaVerne Reese.

MU PHI SIGMA ESCAPADES.

The first number on the social calendar for the Mu Phi Sigma culminated in a chicken and waffle dinner at Light Street Tuesday evening, chaperoned by Miss Mason.

At 5:30, the members left the Normal School and wended their way across Mt. Olympus, then descended through the Modern Hannibal Pass to the main traveled thoroughfare and from thence shambled to the feast that was awaiting them. Upon reaching Light Street they entered the reception (?) room of the hotel and while waiting for their feast listened to some pre-historic phonograph records. At last the long-awaited-for clash of the gong sounded the call for dinner, and everyone rushed to the dining room. There a heavily laden table met their eyes and they surely did justice to the fare.

Soon Gretchen broke the silence by saying, "Now, girls, don't forget that anyone who eats pickles is in love." But alas when the pickles came around, "Gretch" took the smallest one. We wonder why?

It is needless to say that quietness reigned throughout the meal and perhaps the condition might be attributed to "Gracious Robbins." (?)

The dinner ended when "Peg" Emmit called the roll. Every member briefly responded to her name, with Milly Van Zanda climaxing the responses with a very unique dance.

They then returned to the aforementioned reception room, and did they play games? Well, ask any Mu Phi Sigma for further information.

All too quickly the time passed and they were forced to meander towards home. However, they did not forget the Middler boys and hope they had a sumptuous feast over the remnants of their repast—chicken bones, celery tops, banana skins, orange peelings, etc.

Recent News From Washington Set Us Thinking

Cabinet changes are reported.
Why, we have them everyday.

Shirts come in and shirts go out---especially go out at this season when price revisions of 65c to $3.00 apply to so many shirts.

Every shirt thus retired to private life, we trust has long life and gives happiness; and though it may seem hard to find another one so handsome to take its place in our cabinets, somehow one is found and trade goes merrily on.

Thus is prosaic Commerce linked with Statesmanship, and our glass Cabinets of Shirts with the Cabinet in Washington.
