NUMBER EIGHTEEN

WELCOME ALUMNI

Awards and Service Keys Presented at College Assembly

Certificates indicating the names of students who were selected to appear in the 1945-1946 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" include the following students from the State Teachers College, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania:

Gloria Belcastro—Wyoming, Pa.

Althea Parsell—Orangeville, Pa.

John Hmelnicky—Exeter, Pennsylvania.

Kay Kurilla, Atlas, Pa.

In addition to being selected to appear in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," the first four students whose names follow have the double achievement of also receiving the Service Key Award made to outstanding Seniors for four years of participation in extra-curricular activities:

Jacqueline Shaffer — Bloomsburg, Pa.

Athamantia Comuntzis — Bloomsburg, Pa.

Mary Schroeder—Easton, Pa.

Eileen Falvey—Berwick, Pa.

Marjorie Stover—Lewisburg, Pa.

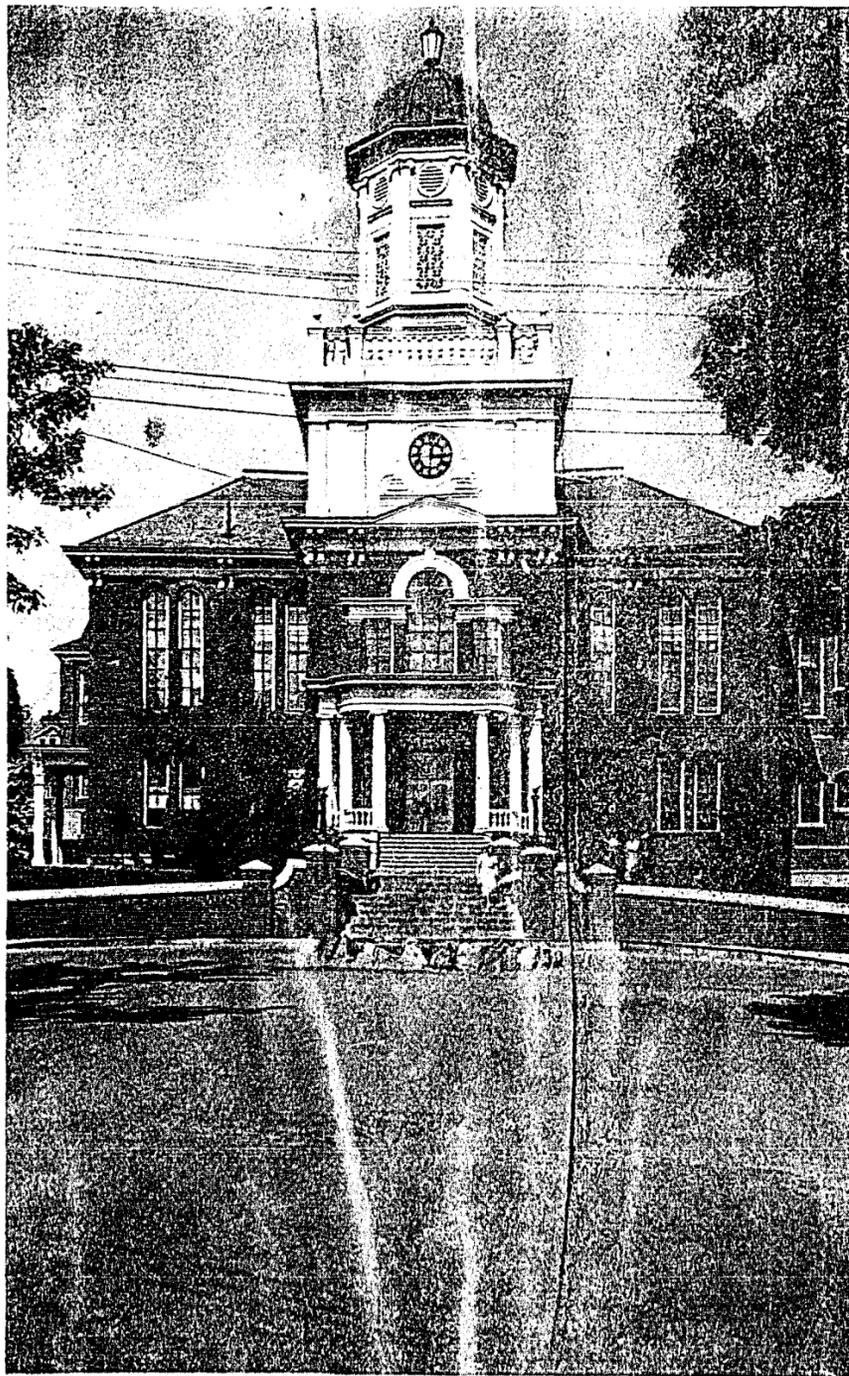

The Keys awarded to students for service are based on a point system which covers four years of participation by the student in extra-curricular activities at the college under a policy developed by the Community Government Association.

The Deans of Men and Deans of Women selected candidates for inclusion in the Biographical Dictionary of college students known as "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," which was originally founded in 1934-1935 and now represents an authoritative list of names of students whose promise of future achievement is much above the average.

Rev. Ziegler Delivers Baccalaureate Invocation and Sermon

Baccalaureate exercises for the class of 1946 were held Sunday, May 19, at 2:30 P. M. Eastern Standard Time in the college auditorium. The program opened with the processional "Ancient of Days." The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Edgar D. Ziegler of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Bloomsburg, and was followed by the hymn "Faith of Our Fathers." President Harvey A. Andruss of the college read the Scripture.

"The Marks of a Christian" was the title of Rev. Ziegler's baccalaureate sermon. Ann Williams, a graduating Senior, sang "Blessed Are the Poor in Heart" and the recessional to "Awake My Soul" ended the exercises. Miss Harriet Moore of the faculty directed the music and Prof. H. F. Fenstemaker was at the console.

CARVER HALL

ALMA MATER

JOSEPH H. DENNIS

Far above the river winding
Midst the mountains grand,
Stands our College, dear to students,
Far throughout the land.

CHORUS

Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg, Bloomsburg College,
Up on College Hill,
Years to come shall find us ever
True to Bloomsburg still.

Far and wide though we may wander
Still our hearts are true
To our Hilltop Alma Mater
We our pledge renew.

Ever seaward Susquehanna
Never resting flows—
Ever upward, striving, climbing
Onward Bloomsburg goes.

Royal Arch Gunnison To Deliver Speech For Commencement

Commencement and Alumni Day will be celebrated jointly Saturday, May 25, at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Royal Arch Gunnison will deliver the commencement address. Mr. Gunnison, a world famous news analyst, was captured at Manilla and spent eight and a half months in a Jap prison camp.

Following the commencement address a general alumni meeting will be held and after the alumni luncheon, class reunions will take place.

College Men Attend Banquet

All men of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College were guests at an athletic banquet held Thursday, May 16, in the college dining room. Over a hundred and fifty were in attendance and heard the new football coach for 1946, Alden J. Danks, outline the proposed football program of the future. His assistant, John A. Hoch, also newly elected, spoke briefly. Both men were introduced by President Harvey A. Andruss of the college who commented on the athletic policy in general.

At the speakers' table were Robert Llewlyn, Wilkes-Barre, who presented President Andruss, Dr. North, Coaches Danks, Hoch and Buchheit, John C. Koch and Howard F. Fenstemaker, who accompanied the group

Remember the Early Bird?

You all remember the old one about the early bird getting the worm.

It sounds like a lot of baloney, doesn't it? Yet the fact still remains that it's true—it works.

A couple days ago, we saw a line-up of men and women a block or two long waiting to get into a little store where they were selling nylon hose.

We watched the line for a couple of minutes. After about a third of the line had gotten into the store and secured a pair of the much sought after nylons, the proprietor came out and said—"Sorry. That's all for today."

The people who got there first got the hose. The rest got stung.

The same goes for people on the job. We've yet to see a man or woman who's perpetually late get anywhere so far as promotions or wage boosts are concerned.

It sounds like old stuff—but it's still right as rain—the early bird gets the worm. So be on time, and no one will get ahead of you.

RAIN FAILED TO DAMPEN SPIRIT OF B-CLUBBERS

"I'm Singing in the Rain, Just Singing in the Rain."

This was the most popular ditty sung by the B-Club members on their week-end trip to Eagles Mere. It takes more than a few drops of H₂O, however, to dampen the spirits of this hardy bunch of feminine pulchritude. Chief Rain-in-the-Face had mercy on the poor B-Clubbers for a short time Saturday. He did dry up long enough for a die-hard softball game between the Alumnae and the Seniors, and the underclassmen. The score, the losing team is sorry to say, was Alumnae, 31—B-Club, 15.

The girls spent Saturday night looking for deer (mistake, please) DEER. The manner in which they tracked down the poor innocent creatures was quite unique. Chasing them in cars is not one of the usual hunting methods. Everyone was envious of the group that did see "Bambi."

To satisfy their bird-like appetites between meals, the girls devoured one crate of oranges, crackers, fruit

Spring's Headache

In the Spring a young man's fancy turns to—Baseball? No! Tennis? No! Trade? No! Well, what then? The traditional answer is—to what the young lady has been thinking of all year long.

This brings up a rather difficult question. Just what does a young lady think about all year long?

After a lengthy period of research that included a poll of several hundred fair co-eds, a somewhat sketchy conclusion was drawn. An itemized list showed that young ladies do not limit their thoughts to one a year. Indeed a profound discovery in itself, young ladies today exercise to some degree their mental resources.

But what of the old adage. Is it to be thoroughly disrupted because the modern young lady thinks more than one thought annually?

Delving again into the data collected one notices that there is a similarity in the reports, particularly about one thought. Inevitably young ladies think more about young men than about anybody or anything else. With that encouraging revelation return to the adage. "In the Spring a young man's fancy turns to what the young lady has been thinking all year long." But wait, a young lady thinks most about young men.

A further complication plainly has arisen. The young men are definitely on the road to ruin. Why? What else could possibly be the outcome if they are going to think of themselves all Spring? That is the interpretation of the adage, thanks to this bit of inquiry.

However, before people break up their homes, begin another world war, start the final downfall of civilization, let everyone pause and relax for a brief moment—there are undoubtedly other meanings to the adage.

With this enlightening thought the world is bright and shining again. After all an adage is but a saying that has obtained credit by "long" use. Everyone knows Spring isn't too "long" so—enjoy it and shout out the old saying without fear.

Just as Good

"Is your daughter improving in her music?"

"No. But the next best thing is happening. She's getting tired of it."

The City Boy Takes a Trip to the Country

OR

Willie Goes to New York

We was sputterin' out a 'Nurk' at fifty miles an hour. We goes up, and down streets and alleys, and before you could studder out "Sodium acetylsalicylate" we slid right into the sewer at 85 m. p. The old lady sittin' in front of me turns around in her seat and politely informs me that we aren't gona' get moidered or drenched and that this contraption ain't a sewer, it's the Lincoln Tunnel.

After about five minutes of skuttin' around under the Hudson River we slid out in Manhattan and pulled in to the station. I stood in front of a telephone booth for two hours tryin' to find out how ya' manipulate the dial telephone, I finally got up gump-tion enough to git in the booth and dial the number of me friend—Boulevard 8-6558. Well that darn number looked like a party line down back home. I dialed something, and Heaven knows what, but I no sooner got my finger off the blasted trigger when some old lady hollers "Vell, maybe is Clark Gable you're callin', No?" and I yelled "No!" I slammed the receiver and dialed the operator. "Say," I says. "How do ya dial Boulevard 8-6558? Do you spell Boulevard with a Bo or a Bu and what do ya do with that dash do-hicky in the middle of that crazy number?"

She proceeded to tell me in nothin' flat. "Say," she says, "You dumb city slicker. You spell it Bo and don't do anything with that dash except wait a little longer."

Me not to be out-done, I says to her, "I only waited three hours at that durned spot already."

Well, I finally got my pal and ask him how to get out to his neck of the woods. He proceeds to tell me to take the 8th Avenue Subway. I goes down the street to this here subway and on the way I had to have the cop knock my neck back in place. Ya know I never did see such durned big silos in my life. I gits to the subway and goes down and puts my nickel in the slot. I ask the trainman when to catch the Jamaica train and he tells me I'll have to go up the steps and go to the other track. Well, I go up the steps to the other track and there's another slot machine and it costs me another nickel. That's all! Too much is enough. Well, before I was finished I had covered every phase of city politics from sewage disposal to subways. The trainman just looks at me and shrugs his shoulders. "Don't look at me! I don't run the works. Why don't you go back to the city where you belong?"

After several unsuccessful attempts to climb the wire fence with my suitcase in one hand I decided to pay the other nickel.

After this I can say, "I like the country up at New York but give me the city."

William Hummel.

ELECTED PRESIDENT

During the last meeting of the year, the Athenaeum Club members elected their officers for next year. This year's president, Harold Miller, announced that the following people would fill the positions in September: Janet Gilbody, President; Anne Baldy, Vice-President; Midge Fuller, Secretary, and John Morgan, Treasurer.

Mr. Miller thanked the members for their cooperation and said that he

ACTIVITIES OF C. G. A. DURING PAST YEAR

Miss Helen Wright, President of the Community Government Association, called for detailed reports from the chairman of the various committees concerning their functions during the past year. Miss Wright and the committee heads are to be congratulated upon their efficiency and co-operation in carrying out their programs. Co-operation of this type develops leadership and understanding among the students.

The Handbook Committee performed its duty of revising the College Handbook during the summer months. The "dummy" had to be ready for the printer by early August. This was accomplished and the committee was discharged with a vote of thanks.

Martha Hathaway and Gerald Demaree held an unique election this year by using the same materials that are used in a Columbia County election. The following elections were held under the supervision of this Election Board Committee: C. G. A. Primary Election, C. G. A. Final Election, Senior Class Election, Junior Class Election, Sophomore Class Election, and Freshman Class Election.

The Awards Committee under the leadership of Wanda Barth and Helene Brown proved to be one of the most successful in recent years. The Co-chairmen say they owe the success of this committee to the splendid co-operation with which it functioned.

During the past year many fine programs have been presented during the college assembly. Much of this success is owed to Mr. Harold Miller. It was through his efforts that much outside talent was presented.

The needed advertisements for the various functions of the college during the past year were carried out very efficiently by the Booster Committee under the direction of Jean Richard and Peter Parnell and aided by Rosanna Broadt, Janet Gilbody, Ellen Moore and Anne Williams.

The Gym Committee gave the College Community the popular old-fashioned Square Dances, along with the ping-pong table. At present a program is under way to have the gym painted.

The Hospitality Committees were capably headed by Miss Anne Williams of the dormitory and Miss Barbara J. Greenly, of town. These committees functioned with co-operation never before felt between the dorm and the day students.

All of these committees have laid the foundation for a successful college year to come. With the return of peace this college is looking forward to bigger and better programs. It has been through the efforts of these committees that the college community can look forward to the future with a smile thinking that a strong foundation is here to build upon. The College Community appreciates the efforts of the members of these various committees during the past year.

Seniors Hold Ball and Banquet at Hotel Altamont

One of the outstanding events in college life is the Senior Ball and Banquet. Final arrangements were completed to assure everyone of a good time on May 18, between 6:00 P. M. and 12:00 P. M. Daylight Saving Time.

The guests of the Senior class included President and Mrs. Harvey A. Andruss, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. North, Dr. Marguerite Kehr, Miss Ethel Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Rygiel, Miss Lucy McCammon, Dr. Nell Maupin, Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner and Dr. and Mrs. Kimber Kuster. Each Senior had the privilege of inviting a guest.

President Andruss and Dr. Kuster were the speakers for the evening.

Lillian Guis, General Chairman of the Ball and Banquet, was assisted by the following committees and chairmen: Bernice Gabuzda, Chairman of the Ball; Ralph McCracken, Chairman of the Banquet; Dance Program Committee—Frances Saunders, Chairman; Hazel Keeler, Lola Good, Jacqueline Shaffer; Orchestra Committee: Evelyn Whitman, Chairman; Dora Brown, Lorraine Fichter, James LaBarr; Refreshment Committee:—Kay Kurilla, Chairman, Rose Cerchiaro, Martha Donahue, Violet Weller; Ticket and Program Committee—Lenore Seybert, Chairman; Anna Pappas, Betty Smith, Lorraine Utt, Marie Krum; Publicity Committee—Mary Longo, Chairman; Ann Bucinell, Janet Shultz, Lillian Guis; Decoration Committee—Athamantia Comuntzis, Chairman; Kathleen Hess, Eltheda Klingaman, Marjorie Stover, Marian Creveling; Investigation Committee—Mary Schrader, Chairman; Martha Stitzel, Anne Williams, Eileen Falvey; Transportation Committee—Mark Wanich, Chairman; Stephen Hotz, Robert Welliver.

The music for the occasion was furnished by Emanuel Donate and his Serenaders.

DR. DAME GUEST SPEAKER AT MEETING

President Harvey A. Andruss introduced the guest speaker, Dr. Dame of Temple University, at a recent meeting of the Business Education Club, held in the Industrial Arts room of Navy Hall.

Dr. Dame spoke on "Teachers and the Teaching Profession." He stressed the fact that teachers should be working for the welfare of the students and not for money. In all we do, our aim should be to take the straight fence leading to the horizon and not one of the crooked ones leading to nowhere. Many other interesting and instructive hints on class management were given.

The president, Isabel Gehman, thanked the members of the club for their cooperation during the year and also thanked Mr. Walter S. Rygiel, club sponsor, for the generous help he gave the officers and members of the club, thus making the club one of the most active on the campus.

The officers for the next college year are: President, Harold Miller; Vice-President, Harold Reinert; Secretary, Doris Gilday; Treasurer, Estelle Friday; Historian, Raymond Popick.

"I gave him a bridge for his violin."

"What's the idea?"

"To help him get his music across."

Twenty-Seventh Annual Summer Sessions

PRE-SESSION

Monday, June 3 to Friday, June 21, 1946

REGULAR SESSION

Monday, July 24 to Saturday, August 3, 1946

POST SESSION

Monday, August 5 to Friday, August 23, 1946

The State Teachers College at Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, is maintained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the professional education of teachers for the Public Schools of Pennsylvania. The Summer Sessions are designed primarily to enable Pennsylvania teachers to advance professionally and to meet the certification standards approved by the State Council of Education. All the courses offered will be on a collegiate basis and will be of particular interest to the following:

- (1) Undergraduates desiring to complete degree requirements in three calendar years.
- (2) Undergraduates qualifying for advanced standing or the removal of conditions.
- (3) Teachers-in-Service qualifying for (a) advanced State Certification, (b) the Degree of Bachelor of Science in Education, and (c) the Permanent College Certificate.
- (4) College Graduates qualifying for State Certification through courses in education and student teaching.

The work of the Regular Session, beginning June 24, will be scheduled so that one ninety-minute period per day, for five days per week, will constitute a three semester-hour course, except where adjustments for laboratory courses are needed. Six semester-hours of credit is the normal load for the six weeks' session.

In special cases, with the approval in advance of the President, seven semester-hours may be permitted. Students working for a State Certificate desiring to take more than six semester-hours must secure permission in advance from the Teacher Division, Department of Public Instruction.

An opportunity for additional work will be provided this summer by a three weeks' Post-Session. The work of the weeks' session will be scheduled so that two ninety-minute periods per day for five days per week, will constitute a three semester-hour course, except where adjustments for laboratory courses are needed.

Students not living in their own homes are required to live in the dormitories. An early application will secure a desirable room. A cordial invitation is extended to visit the College and to discuss any matters of detail with Dr. Thomas P. North, Dean of Instruction.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students transferring from other Colleges should have an interview with our Dean of Instruction a few days before the opening of the session. The prospective student should present a transcript of college credits together with a statement of honorable dismissal. This interview will be more satisfactory than one held during the rush of registration day.

A student desiring to transfer from another college must first present a letter of honorable dismissal and a complete record of the work taken at his former college. These records shall be sent directly from the college to the office of the Dean of Instruction.

In evaluating and crediting the work of a student transferring from another college, credit shall be given only for work having a grade one letter point or the equivalent above the lowest passing grade of the institution from which the student is transferring.

SUMMER SESSION PAYMENTS

Registration—To be completed Monday morning. Classes will meet and organize that afternoon at 2 P. M.

CLASS OF '16 PLANS REUNION BREAKFAST

Another of the reunion classes of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College which will stage a special feature in connection with the Alumni Day activities here on Saturday will be the class of 1916, which will have a reunion breakfast at the Elks home at nine o'clock.

Mrs. Sam Henrie is the chairman of arrangements and indications are this class will have a large representation at the event. There were fifty-two members back for the twenty-fifth year reunion and it is hoped to have an even larger number present on Saturday.

The '16 breakfast is another of the many special events on the program. The classes of 1896, 1901 and 1911 will open their reunion with dinners on Friday evening.

There are many events on the program during the day with all of the times given being Eastern Daylight time.

The program will open at eleven o'clock with the commencement exercises at which Royal Arch Gunnison, columnist and news analyst will be the speaker.

The general alumni meeting in the auditorium, Dr. E. H. Nelson presiding, will get underway at 12:30 P. M. The luncheon will be at two P. M. and the Class reunions will be at three o'clock.

THIS COLLEGIATE WORLD

Did you know that the Teddy Bear Junior got for Christmas was named after President Theodore (Teddy) Roosevelt, and that more Teddy Bears have been sold in America than any other toy?

Or perhaps you thought the dancing bear you saw performing on the toy counter was something new. It was new in outward form only, for mechanical toys have been in demand since the middle ages.

If you bought the red ball instead of the blue ball for the baby, you made the correct choice, for red is the most popular color for children, and there are figures to prove it.

These are just a few of the many interesting facts about toys and their history compiled by Dr. Graydon L. Freeman, professor of psychology at Northwestern University, and his wife, Ruth, in a recent book, "Cavalcade of Toys."

Viewing the toy world of the past is like looking at history in miniature, say the Freemans. Every important event, even to the guillotine of the French revolution, has left its mark in a plaything.

Robert Lewis Stevenson's preoccupation with toy theatres during his bedridden youth led to a flowering of dramatic prose in adulthood while the Wright brothers' first interest in flying goes back to youthful experiments with kites and toy airships.

While mechanical toys were known to the ancients, they appeal more to adults than to children, say the Freemans.

As a toy, the ball has as great antiquity as the doll, according to the Freemans, whose research reveals that pottery, wood and papyrus balls were common in ancient Egypt and a manuscript of the fifteenth century mentions "the yellow glass used for the little balls with which school boys play, and which are very cheap."

The rocking horse also has a long and honorable history. Jack-in-the-boxes were known in the sixteenth century while the flying kite has been common in China since recorded history began.—A. C. P.

POLICY GOVERNING ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

We have the names of more than 700 Bloomsburg students and graduates who have served in the Armed Forces, and a letter is being sent to each name on our list at the last known address, asking that you help us to hold a place for those veterans who want to return to Bloomsburg to complete their college education. This group will be given an A-1 priority on our list, subject to our housing limitations. Married veterans will be admitted as long as adequate housing exists in the Town of Bloomsburg. However, it will be necessary for each veteran to let us know, well in advance, when he intends to return, and if he intends to live in the college dormitory or reside in the Town of Bloomsburg as a married veteran.

Provision has been made for educational benefits for veterans of World War II under two acts of Congress. Public Law 346 provides for twelve months of education, plus the number of months of service, for those men and women who served at least ninety days in the active military or naval service subsequent to September 16, 1940. Public Law 16 applies to veterans with disabilities. If such disability was incurred in service subsequent to September 16, 1940, and resulted in a vocational handicap, the veteran is entitled to vocational rehabilitation to overcome the handicap.

Benefits under these laws apply to both part-time and full-time students.

Veterans will receive advice with respect to their benefits at the offices of the Veterans Administration located in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Wilkes-Barre.

Graduates of high schools are going to college in larger numbers since the war is over and employment is slackening.

It seems at this time there will be more students seeking entrance to colleges and universities in America than can be accommodated.

Since our housing accommodations are limited to 400 resident students, we will of necessity close our registration when that number is reached. Registration for married veterans will be closed when adequate housing accommodations in or near the Town of Bloomsburg are exhausted. Day students living at home may be accepted above that number. Women students attending this college are expected to live in the college dormitories unless they live at home, or are working in Bloomsburg for their board and room under approved conditions.

The Freshmen Class accepted for entrance on June 3 or 24 will be limited to the number which can be accommodated by the college.

Please fill out the preliminary enrollment blank and return to us immediately.

It will also be necessary for you to draw a check payable to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (or secure a Money Order drawn on the Postmaster at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania) for $10.00, and mail immediately to State Teachers College, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania.

A Farewell Visit Around North Hall

The semester is ended. The long bleary cold winter has had its fling and now youth will have its fling—in fact one can readily see youth flinging it any night between the hours of 9:00 and 10:00; at most any convenient spot on the campus. At any rate, a survey has been taken and a few comments have been made by some of our esteemed male students, pertaining to campus life during the past eighteen weeks.

Several of the men couldn't be interviewed for various reasons. Don Houck was involved in finishing the last few lines of his newest song (The title of which is "Bull-Dozer"—the sequel to "Cement Mixer") and couldn't be interrupted. Stan Semic was down town getting his final lesson in making popcorn. All Freshmen Business Education students were too busy trying to copy each others practice sets to be annoyed. (Two were found babbling unintelligible words between tears—something about "three cents out"). Jim Tierney was so engrossed in devising new ways to make a mimeograph run 10,000 copies per minute, and clean the gym at the same time that it would have been a sin to break his thought. Needless to say, Pop Reity couldn't be found, without walking to a certain establishment down town, so he was excluded as your author didn't have the necessary energy for aforesaid walk. The only other member of our fraternal group who couldn't be disturbed was that immortal (that's a "t") figure, Chips Collins. (He must have had a test the next day, as he was studying intently in a green covered book; the name of which was partially covered, but the last part was something about "Amber").

The first ex-G. I. to be approached was Royal Conrad who explained, while dusting off and placing a picture of a beautiful blonde on his bureau, that he felt certain now that nursing was a better vocation than teaching.

John Longo's statement of the year was: "Who wants to purchase all or any component part of one slightly used Dodge?" (John, incidentally, is giving special rates on the rear windows of the left side).

George "Skully" Smith's comment on the past semester was: "If a man doesn't let the little things such as grades, plenty of ready, and Secondary Education bother him, this is a fine institution!"

John Davis acclaimed he enjoyed the year; had nothing to do all summer and was anxious to get started on it.

Richard (Dutch) Rowlands' thought was: "Onward! Upward! Forward!" (Which, interpreted means, "Don't let that Buick motor get cold").

That intrepid character, Morgan, was next; and his idea pertained to the liberal education he got (at no extra tuition fee) by the "big boys" lectures in his room each night. To put it in the words of Morgan himself—"OH! OH! OH!"

The remainder of the students when approached, either sighed deeply; tore their hair out in mental anguish; or went screaming down the halls crying, "Banzai for Bloomsburg," all of which can be understood to mean—"WE'RE CRAZY ABOUT THE PLACE."

BASKETBALL AWARDS PRESENTED BY B. S. T. C.

East Stroudsburg Downs Husky Nine by 11 to 3 Count

The Red and Blue nine from East Stroudsburg took a liking to the Huskies' hurling and easily downed the Bloomsburg team. The game started with Bloomsburg scoring first and the hilltoppers held the lead until the fourth inning, when the pitching staff from Bloomsburg weakened. East Stroudsburg started to hit the ball all over the lot scoring 8 runs in that inning. Bill Strein was the batting star for Stroudsburg while Vershinski found his eye and collected two hits for the Huskies.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

The football schedule of Bloomsburg State Teachers College for the 1946 season has recently been announced by George C. Buchheit, Acting Director of Athletics. Alden J. Danks and John A. Hoch, newly elected coaches, will take over their duties in the near future.

The schedule includes the following games: September 28, Mansfield, home; October 5, Lock Haven, away; October 12, Clarion, home; October 19, Millersville, away; October 26, Shippensburg, away; November 2, Kutztown, away; and November 9, East Stroudsburg, away.

HUSKIES BOW TO MILLERSVILLE

After getting off on a fine start and leading 7 to 0 in the 4th inning, the Huskies gave ground to be on the

Coaches Buchheit and Koch Make Presentations Dur- ing Assembly

Awards won at the Nineteenth Annual Invitation High School Basketball Tournament sponsored by the Bloomsburg State Teachers College were presented Thursday, May 16, during special assembly exercises at Edwardsville, West Wyoming, Berwick and Scott Township High Schools. Edwardsville won Class "A" with Berwick as runner-up. West Wyoming finished second in Class "B" and Scott Township walked off with Class "C."

The awards were made by Coach George C. Buchheit and John C. Koch, Dean of Men, of the college faculty. Colored movies taken by Professor George Keller during the tournament were also shown. The winning schools received beautiful plaques and first and second team members received individual medals. Similar awards were made to Nescopeck, Rock Glen, Sheppton and Ringtown at similar assembly programs on May 17. Nescopeck was runner-up in Class "C," Rock Glen won Class "B" and Sheppton captured Class "CC" with Ringtown as runner-up.

The Tournament Committee selected the following boys on the all-tournament team: Forwards, Ross Hughes, Espy and Gene Chamberlain, Berwick; Center, Leonard Smith, Edwardsville; Guards, Michael Helosky, Rock Glen and Daniel Sachs, Nuremberg. The committee felt strongly that Honorable Mention should be given to the following boys: Joe Capobianco, Berwick; Frank Shepura, Edwardsville; Dominic Dante, Exeter; Eugene Nenstiel, Rock Glen; Joseph Milnick, West Wyoming; Michael Fischetti, Shickshinny; Robert Morgan, Kingston Township; John Severn, Bloomsburg and Joe Henger, Berwick.

B. S. T. C. SWAMPS KUTZTOWN, 14-7

The Huskies from Bloomsburg again got into the winning column by beating the Kutztown sluggers by the score of 14 to 7. Vince Husovsky and Steve Hotz were the batting stars of the day, collecting six hits between them, including a long home run by Vince and a triple by Steve. These hits were the deciding factors of the game. The Kutztown team held a 6 to 5 lead until the last half of the seventh. Then Bloomsburg came back and blasted Sword, the Kutztown pitcher, for 11 hits and 8 runs. Mario Berlanda and Frankie Novelli pitched beautiful ball for the Huskies and allowed only eight hits.

short end of a 11-10 score.

M. S. T. C. opened the fifth inning collecting eight hits to score seven runs to tie up the ball game. From then on, it was nip and tuck with the score ten all at the end of the ninth. The tenth inning went scoreless for both clubs keeping the runs even.

The Millers picked up one run in the eleventh to pull ahead. It was at this stage of the game that the Huskies had to prove their power but went down in orderly fashion—three up—three down to end the ball game.

juice and every other edible thing in sight.

Aside from a few short-sheeted beds, very well made by a person or persons as yet unknown, the week-end passed peacefully and everyone felt that they had gotten a much needed rest.

One of the most beautiful things to be remembered was a trip to Rainbow Farm, a private estate, near Eagles Merc.

The following people took part in this entertaining but wet week-end:

Ellen Moore, Rosanna Broadt, Dorothy Kocher, Barbara Greenly, Jean Richard, Anne Baldy, Estelle Friday, Peggy Lewis, Mae Klinger, Alberta Funk, Shirley Keiser, LaFerne Shirk, Frances Saunders, Hazel Keeler, Helen May Wright, Betty Fisher, Janet Gilbody, Jacqueline Shaffer, Marjorie Brace, Miss Barnes, Miss Hazen, Miss McCammon, Alumnae—Kathryn Abbott, Elizabeth Hubler, Isabel Olah, Kathryn Hess, Miriam Long.

G. I. STUDENTS SPEAK AT A. A. U. W. MEETING

Several G. I. undergraduate students of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College were the featured speakers at a recent meeting of the American Association of University Women held on the local college campus. Dr. Marguerite Kehr, Dean of Women at the college and chairman of the International Relations Committee of the Club, presented the veterans to the group.

William Carter, former Navy serviceman, spoke briefly about Japan. George Remetz, Navy radio operator, spoke of the strife between various groups in India. William Horvath, who served in Naval Intelligence with the Allied Control Commission in Bulgaria, told of the need for food and medical supplies. Harold Swisher, former Artillery man in France and Germany, commented on the various attitudes of the thirty thousand prisoners taken at Cherbourg. James LaBarr, Army Air Corp. commented
