Name Band To Invade Campus

The current topic of conversation is the possibility of having a big name band on the campus. The Social Committee under the direction of Dr. Kehr and Mr. Landis with Bob Millard as chairman, are going all out to give the students a good program this year. It is the hope of the members of this committee to have one big social event each month.

B. S. T. C. is coming out this year into full bloom. It has been under cover, in fact it has been hibernating, since the start of World War II. Now there is new life on the campus and it is time for the college to really become active. The thought of having a name band for a dance came to the committee by an indirect method. It is the idea of several students as well as the committee.

Tickets which can still be bought for the remaining events of the College Entertainment Course will be the chief source of revenue to pay for the band. The number of tickets sold will affect the cost of admission for the students when the big evening arrives. This cost will depend on the amount of money the committee can raise between now and the night of the dance.

All students are invited and that includes the wives of the vets. Any one wishing to buy a ticket for some person down town, should go into the business office, or see Bob Millard. This is an opportunity to help make this event the largest in the history of the school if everyone cooperates.

Through the William Morris Agency in New York, the committee members have made contact with Charlie Spivak, Claude Thornhill and Hal McIntyre and their orchestras. These three men with their great bands may be available for the Thanksgiving Day Dance.

The "Maroon and Gold" will publish information about this dance as it grows from an idea to a thing of reality.

CONFERENCE SESSION HELD AT COLLEGE

Cooperation among all agencies and individuals interested in the common welfare was the theme of the afternoon session of the Annual Conference for Region 7, Pennsylvania Welfare Conference held yesterday in the First Presbyterian Church. This session was planned especially to discuss problems common to this region, as well as of general interest. The theme for this session was: "Let Us Take Inventory" and under this topic, adequate care of the dependent was discussed by experts in their respective fields.

Other topics of discussion during this session were "Adequate Care for Children," "Adequate Care for the Chronically Ill," and "Adequate Care for the Mentally Ill."

The evening session was held in the auditorium of Carver Hall with President Harvey A. Andruss presiding. Howard P. Russell, Director, American Public Welfare Association had for his subject, "The Citizen Legislates Welfare."

Fifteen New Faculty Members on Campus

Fifteen appointments complete the faculty that is providing the instruction during the coming year for a student body of 750 students, the largest in the history of Bloomsburg State Teachers College. The new members of the faculty are as follows:

Dr. J. Frank Dame

Dr. J. Frank Dame comes from Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania. He is the new Acting Director of Business Education, taking the place of Professor William C. Forney, who is recuperating from a recent illness.

Dr. Dame is a graduate of New York University where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1930. Four years later, he received his Master of Education degree at Temple University. In 1938, he received his Doctors Degree at Temple University.

Dr. Dame has written numerous articles dealing with professional training for teachers of business subjects and he is the co-author of "Prognosis, Guidance and Placement in Business Education," a widely used text-book for teachers in the commercial field.

N. Harvey Deal

Mr. Deal is the Librarian, and an English teacher. He graduated from East Carolina State Teachers College in 1940, and received his Master of Arts degree from George Peabody College.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. Deal has an outstanding war record. He saw much action on the Philippine Islands, and was on duty in Japan. He served in the U. S. Army from 1941 until 1945.

Edward T. DeVoe

Mr. DeVoe, who is teaching English here, graduated from Bloomsburg State Teachers College, and took graduate work at Bucknell University.

While attending Bloomsburg State Teachers College, Mr. DeVoe was editor of the Obiter. Since then he

INSTRUCTS LIFE SAVING CLASS AT B. S. T. C.

A life saving course is now being given to all interested and qualifying students under the instructions of Miss Zita Spangler, assisted by Mr. Michael Nicholson. The group meets twice a week to learn practical water safety and to apply that knowledge in actually saving drowning persons. Much of the work thus far has been concentrated on land drills; a necessary step in learning life saving. This is a twenty-hour course of five weeks duration given under the auspices of the Red Cross.

P. S. P. A. CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT COLLEGE

"Candy" Selected By Student Body

Everybody likes Candy, especially at B. S. T. C.! And that statement was proven beyond all doubt at a recent assembly program when Candy was chosen over four other very talented co-eds to be "song stylist" with the college band. Candy, a diminutive young lady with persuasive charm and a voice not in keeping with her size, is off-stage, Miss Dottie McCollom, a Freshman.

The student audience was quick to choose the singer for orchestra-leader Daryl Stull, who, after finding difficulty in choosing one girl from the five aspirants for the position, placed the selection in their hands. Candy's expressive singing of "In Love In Vain" was so well received that the audience called her back to the microphone for another chorus after their applause had assured her of winning.

Candy—or Dottie, as you prefer—is a product of Haverford, Pennsylvania, and she was graduated from high school with the class of 1946. She is at Bloomsburg as a Penn State student, and plans to major in English with a bit of radio and dramatics on the side. She states no definite ambitions along these lines, but expects to let her plans for the future be determined by the opportunities presented.

When asked where she developed

The College Community expresses its deepest sympathy to the family of Alden J. Danks. He was a fine man who would have endeared himself to every one at the college had he been able to continue his work.

B. S. T. C. to be Host to the High School Faculty and Students

Officers of the Susquehanna Valley Press Conference have decided to have the fall conference of this P. S. P. A. District at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. The tentative date for the conference has been set for November 16.

Representatives from the various high schools in this district will attend the conference. Miss Miriam Wendle, Regional P. S. P. A. Chairman, anticipates having as many as two hundred teachers and students at the luncheon which will be held at the college.

Definite plans have not yet been established for the conference, but they are in the making and will soon be ready for publication.

B. S. T. C. HAS STATE REPRESENTATIVES

With Doctor North as the faculty member of the Board of Control for the State, and Janet Gilbody as the student member of the Board of Control for the State, Bloomsburg State Teachers College has the honor of officially representing the entire state of Pennsylvania in the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers. This organization of seventy-three teacher training colleges in eleven Eastern States held a meeting in the Hotel Commodore, New York, October 14. It was decided that the annual general meeting of the association will be held in March of next year.

Dedication of Redwood Trees to Earl Harris

An impressive ceremony honoring Earl Harris, a graduate of Bloomsburg State Teachers College who was killed in the Philippines last year, was held Thursday, October 11, by members of the faculty and the Science Club. Two California redwood trees were planted to commemorate Mr. Harris' fine work both during his school life and while he served in the armed forces of his country.

Mr. Clayton Patterson opened the exercises by stating the purpose of the gathering and asking that everyone bow his head in a moment of silent prayer. He then put the meeting in charge of the program chairman, Anne Baldy. Miss Baldy explained that it has always been the policy of the Science Club to plant a tree on the campus each year, either an unusual one, or a type not already on the grounds. The treasurer, Robert Bunge, thanked Wilfred and Royal Conrad for their efforts in getting the redwood trees. Their mother, Mrs. William A. Conrad, of Benton, sent the trees to her sons from California.

Welcome to Veterans

The opening of this school year has brought many new students to the campus. In this group there are 403 veterans, six of them women. With the arrival of the veterans a more extensive sport program has been established including football, basketball, baseball, soccer, track and other inter-mural sports. Getting a sport program into full swing always adds to the general school spirit and proves to be an asset to college life.

Many of the ex-G. I.'s have shown a great interest in the newly organized Flying Club. For some it will be applying knowledge gained while in the service; and for others it will be a completely new experience.

Social life and extra-curricular entertainments have taken a turn toward the brighter side with the arrival of more men. Dances will take a front seat in the new college social program.

"The Maroon and Gold" is proud to dedicate the "Gold Button" column to all veterans on campus. Veterans are requested to fill out information blanks for use in this column. The blanks may be obtained in the Library or Day Men's Room and returned to the College Post Office or the "Maroon and Gold Office."

The College Community extends a warm welcome to the returning service men and women, and takes this opportunity to wish them a successful and happy college life at Bloomsburg.

Why Men Leave Home—Late

Wife was vigorously powdering her face before going out.

"Why do you go to all this trouble?" asked her husband, who was waiting impatiently.

"Modesty, my dear," was the reply. "I've no desire to shine in public!"

Put work into life and life into your work.

PEACE

All this shall pass,
But this that be again,
As surely as the shadows on the grass
Declare the coming and departing of men,

Or as the seasons flicker with the sun
Winter, Spring, Summer, Fall, one ever after one.

World-peace goes leaden foot between the wars,
Limps wearily between the roars of iron days

But in among the murder-rays
A brighter flame,
Peace, enters singly as she always came

When she desired Eternal rest,
It is her singleness impressed
Upon a soul, a soul, a soul,
That shall in time give wisdom to the whole.

—Margery Smith.

The Senior had just finished bragging about how bravely he had undergone an appendectomy. "Gosh," the Freshman murmured, "what kind of a grade did you get?"

—Hammer and Tongs.

Well Broadcast

Did you ever do any public speaking?

I'll say. I proposed to a girl in the country on a party line!

"A Jostled Junior"

I'm back in college again, and gee!

All these new students—it amazes me.

I walk past the book store. Glee! What a line.

I'll buy a candy bar some other time.

The social room, usually half-empty and quiet,

Is crowded now and practically riot.

I stroll into the gym to see some pals.

Well! Such a mob of fellas and gals.

The juke box, as usual, is blaring forth

With a song about "Bananas and Their Care Up North."

Jeepers, there's the bell. I must scurry.

I'll end this banter in a hurry.

For all of you Freshmen, I leave this refrain—

Don't worry, you'll graduate—if you can stand the strain.

—Barbara J. Greenly.

Daymen Dillies

The Daymen are the proud possessors of a new dayroom, and the organization is showing some new spirit because of it. It is now possible to have a good, sensible discussion—before, there wasn't anyone to discuss anything with—and enrich your pedantic being. You can even learn more, listening to some of the Freshmen who discuss their Business Math than you can learn from a supervised—and we say this advisedly—orientation tour. As Wilde said: "Nothing succeeds like apple-polishing."

With all the talking about schedules—the feeding kind—and the responsibilities of fatherhood, it should be interesting to note that there are several happy fathers on the campus. James Smith is the proud "pappy" of a baby girl, John Magill and Ray Brandan possess a future president of our United States, and Bob Schram is just expecting. Of course Bob states, in no uncertain terms, that his boy? will be president, too. We suppose the Democrats will be out by that time, and the boys will have a chance.

Heretofore, the Daymen's organization has been a minority group on the campus; it has been unheard, unsung, and unappreciated. It is felt that the coming year will bring an "about face," and that the group will receive the just recognition that is its due.

THE GREEN WEEKS

Oh, horrors, what monstrosity is that coming towards me? Being of a squeamish nature I dart into a hallway to hide. Come out you coward! It's only one of those Freshmen bearing the initials WH (Waller Hall) on her forehead in brilliant lipstick. Sorry, but I thought it was a branded steer from the Danville livestock market.

Regulars in Waller Hall know that this is only one of the numerous styles and beautifying (Ha!) devices sported there the past three weeks.

Remember the day the Freshmen girls modeled the green bonnets of all styles, shapes and sizes (of their own creation, of course?) Lilly Dache' would find stiff competition at BSTC during customs.

The rather impatient suffering souls added to their list of complaints the carrying of an umbrella on a perfectly sunny day (nature did provide a bit of rain later in the afternoon), the wearing of different colored socks, etc.

Sleepily throwing my books in the corner after the final night of customs in Waller Hall I sigh and breathe, "But wasn't it fun?"

Just another Freshman.

"Do you neck?"

"That's my business, sir!"

"Ah, a professional!" —Collegio.

"Borrowed Banter"

A Freshman stood upon the burning deck.

As far as we could learn,
He stood in perfect safety.

He was too green to burn.—Collegio.

For the first time in the history of Ner Paltz S. T. C., a weight-lifting club is being organized. One of the purposes of this club is to prepare, in particular, those men desiring to specialize in the field of physical education. To this end, with the guidance of Coach Loren D. Campbell, the enthusiastic charter members are devoting their time and energy.

It's Fatal

What you need is an electric bath.
No thanks, Doc—I had an uncle drown that way up at Sing-Sing.

—Clarion.

Which recalls the wolf of the woods who drove a gal out into the bosky places, turned off the motor and asked for a kiss. She shook her head for a half hour before he discovered she had her nose caught in the windshield wiper.—Collegio.

Dr. H. H. Kung has given $1600 to Oberlin College to provide scholarships for four Chinese students who will enroll for the fall term. The Shansi Memorial Association, which arranged the gift from Dr. Kung, will be responsible for the selection of the scholarship winners, and will act as advisor to them during their stay there.

Prof.: "Are you sure this story is original?"

Student: "Certainly it is."

Prof.: "Heavens be praised. That I should at last meet Rudyard Kipling."—Girard News.

The College Student's Dream

A man knocked at the heavenly gate,
His face was scarred and old;
He stood before the man of fate,
For admission to the fold.

"What have you done," St. Peter asked,

"To gain admission here?"

"I've been a college student, sir," he said,

"For many and many a year."

The pearly gates swung open wide,
St. Peter touched the bell—

"Come in and choose your harp," he said.

"You've had your share of Hell."

James W. Kerr—Clarion Call.

A student "Guidance Center" is now in operation on the campus of Pittsburgh, Kansas. Those who were disabled, are compelled to take tests to show what subjects or course is best for their personal needs. Veterans under Public Law 346, non-disabled men are not compelled to take the tests, but a majority are taking advantage of the tests for personal guidance.

Yes, But —

Are you optimistic about postwar business?

Yes.

Then why do you look so worried?
I'm not sure my optimism is justified. —Clarion.

The coed thought long and hard before she was able to give the correct answer on one of the hardest exams of her lifetime.

"Give the number of tons of coal exported by this country in any one year."

"The answer, 1942 none."

—Girard News.

Gold Button Gossip

This is the first edition of the ex-servicemen's column for this semester. The story behind each gold button relates the service that its wearer contributed to "Uncle Sam."

* * *

William "Bill" Hummel, of Espy, is resuming his studies as a Senior in the Secondary Course after devoting three years of his life to his country as a T/5 radio operator with the 94th Signal Battalion.

Bill enjoys playing volleyball and is reputed to be a "crackerjack" poker player. His hobby is collecting dollar bills along with local history.

Bill's army career consisted of fifteen months service overseas from October, 1944, to January, 1946, during which time he visited the Ardennes, Rhineland and Central Europe. His most interesting and unique event was his course of study at Shrivensham University in England. Bill was discharged January 21, 1946, wearing the presidential citation for the crossing of the Ludenberg Bridge, Remagen, Germany. Bill is a "killer diller" with women and seems to be doing all right around the campus. His aspiration is to attend graduate school.

George W. "Skully" Smith hails from the "City of Beautiful Women" alias Shamokin, Pa. A true sportsman, Skully enjoys both hunting and fishing. (He's especially capable as a hunter of two-legged deer). He's enrolled as a Senior in the Secondary Course.

Skully served as a Cryptographic Technician with the rank of Sergeant in the 57th Army Airways Communications Service Group, visiting Algeria, Egypt and Iran (including nine months at the capitol, Teheran). Twenty-two months of his three years' service was overseas and he holds the American Theatre, E. T. O. Victory and Good Conduct Ribbons. Spending a seven-day pass in Palestine and the Holy Lands is claimed to be the most interesting and unique event in Skully's army career. Hey girls, here is a fellow still on the loose and he plays a darn sweet saxophone. His remarks about campus feds included, "White women with shoes on—wheeeee!"

Another familiar face around the campus is that of Reginald S. "Reg" Remley who is back in the groove with his studies in the Biz—Ed Curriculum. Reggie plays baseball and soccer and claims shorthand as his hobby (take note, Walt).

Serving as a Soundman, second class on the U. S. S. Walter C. Wann (DE412), Reg participated in anti-submarine warfare in the Atlantic and the Pacific. His duties took him through the Leyte invasion, Lingayen invasion, and the Okinawa invasion and to landings at Yokosuka, Wakayama, Kure and Kobe. Twenty-four of his twenty-nine months were spent overseas and his most unique event was "being homeward bound." He holds the American Theatre, Asiatic-Pacific (3 stars), Philippine Liberation Ribbons.

Reg is married and has no comment to make on BSTC gals. He says, "It's too late now!"

Arthur C. "Art" Birt hails from Berwick, a picturesque metropolis of about twelve miles distance. Art is enrolled as a frosh in the Secondary Course here.

Well, Art entered the army on January 10, 1941, and served as a clerk with the Tenth Mountain Division. He held the rank of T/Sgt. and performed his duties in North Africa,

LAST RITES FOR RUDOLPH THE FLY WIDELY ATTENDED BY THOSE DAY GIRLS WHO RESPECTED HIM

On Monday, October 7, the Bloomsburg Teachers College campus was the scene of one of the most widely attended funerals in recent years. The day girls, on whom Rudolph Fly was a constant creeping companion, spared nothing in showing their respect for the recently departed friend.

Rudolph's death came very suddenly on Saturday morning when he crashed headlong into a fly swatter while he was leisurely journeying up the east wall of the Day Girls' room. He died instantly, never realizing what hit him. He was picked up on the spot and removed immediately to the funeral home of a very able mortician, Aleki Comuntzis, where he was prepared for burial. Miss Comuntzis, a masterly coffin-maker as well as a capable mortician, spared neither time nor effort in construction of the casket. Her conducting of the funeral and direction of traffic during the long pilgrimage from the day room to the grove was interrupted by a very unfortunate incident. Near Science Hall, Rudolph's body mysteriously tumbled from the casket and was lost in a jungle of grass along the path. In order to avoid delay and prevent the grave in the grove from caving in, an unfortunate ant sacrificed his miserable life so that the casket would have an occupant for the remainder of the journey.

At the grave Dr. Jean Litz, D. F. P. (Doctor of Fly Philosophy) conducted impressive services, concluding with a Bartlett quotation of a few fly funerals back:

"Ashes to ashes,
Dust to dust,
If the fly swatter don't get you,
The fly spry must!"

This brilliant quotation will be used as a tombstone epitaph to be inscribed in red on a medium size gravel stone.

After the services the huge crowd of fresh-women dispersed, leaving the grave diggers to add the final touch to the "last word in funerals."

While the procession was enroute to the grove cemetery, High Mass was sung by a huge choir comprising flower girls, mourners and friends of Rudolph. Some of his closest friends—those he crawled on most—acted as pallbearers; namely, Lucy Jane Baker, Louise Baker, Esther White, Mary Robbins, Roberta Miller and Annabelle Eshelman. The pallbearers also sang Mess. The music was under the direction of Louise Lohr, who led the group in singing new and appropriate words to that deathly old number, "Sleep Kentucky Babe."

Rudolph Fly is survived by several thousand brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, etc., all of whom are well known to the day girls.

—William Hummel.

FORTY MEN FORM GLEE CLUB IN B. S. T. C.

A Men's Glee Club has been recently organized on the campus under the leadership of Miss Harriet Moore. In doing so, it brings back into activity an organization that was forced out of existence during the war years by the shortage of male students. Now that the men are out of the service and back on the campus, the Glee Club is being revived through the interest of many ex-G. I.'s who enjoy singing.

At this time the organization has forty members and is working on future programs to be presented at some later dates.

Sardinia and Italy during a span of two and one-half years of overseas service.

Among his collection of ribbons and medals, includes the E. T. O., North Appenines, and the Po Valley Ribbons. After four years and eight months of total service, we'll all agree with Art that his most interesting or unique event was, "I finally got a discharge."

Sorry gals, he's hooked. Mrs. Birt is the former Ruth Hess also of Berwick, Pa.

From Shenandoah, Penna., comes Clement G. Koch, who is a Junior in the Biz—Ed Curriculum. "Clem" claims boxing and wrestling as his favorite sports and music as his hobby. He's a Junior in the commercial course here.

Clem served as a seaman first class and later as an aviation cadet in Naval Aviation at Norman, Oklahoma, Philadelphia, Pa., Bowling Green, Ohio, Iowa City, Iowa, Miami, Florida and Athens, Georgia.

Clem is still single. He says, "I'm white, free and twenty-three; but I HATE WOMEN" (Who's he trying to kid?)

THEY'RE HERE! WHO'S HERE? BIRDMEN OF BLOOMSBURG

Here is the long awaited club! Newly organized is the Flying Club of B. S. T. C. with an enrollment slightly topping one hundred.

Under an unorganized poll, it was found that many students on the campus were interested in learning how to fly, mechanism of airplanes, and subjects related to flying. Jimmy Lake, as representative of those interested in the club spoke to President Andruss and he immediately approved the idea.

A committee of six members has drawn up a constitution, now before the Student Council for approval.

The main purposes of the club are to provide flying lessons for those who desire them, instruction in ground work, and lectures on such topics as Civil Air Regulations, Navigation, Meteorology, Theory of Flight, Engines and General Service of Aircraft which will be given at different club meetings. If possible, movies will be shown to clarify the lectures. Help will be given to those members desiring to acquire from Private through commercial and flight instructor ratings.

There are several members on the regular college faculty who are licensed under C. A. A. to offer ground school courses.

The club has been divided into four temporary flight assignments with about twenty-six in each flight. The four leaders of the flights are Jimmy Lake, Davey Jones, Bill Thomas and Bob Millard.

Servant Problem

We once kept a maid for a whole week!

How did you ever do it?

We lived in the top floor of a ten-story apartment house. The elevator was out of order and the maid wouldn't walk down the steps!

Business Education Has Large Club

The Business Education Club began the fall semester with an enrollment of over two hundred students; thus making it the largest club on the campus.

A series of interesting and educational programs are being planned for the ensuing year by Betty Lehet and Peggy Such, program co-chairmen.

At a recent meeting Mr. Walter Ness, manager of the Bell Telephone Company of Bloomsburg, demonstrated the miraphone, which is a device for recording and reproducing the voice. Among the highlights of the year will be the annual shorthand and typing contests to be held in the spring and a mock trial to be given in November.

The officers of the club are Harold Miller, President; Harold Reinart, Vice President; Doris Gilday, Secretary; Estelle Friday, Treasurer; Raymond Popich, Historian.

The President appointed the following as chairmen of committees: Program—Betty Lehet, Peggy Suchy. Social—Betty Fisher.

Hospitality—Marion Chubb.

Publicity—Eloise Noble.

Birthday—Shirley Henley.

Placement—Michael Nicholson.

The club's sponsor is Mr. Walter Rygiel.

BLOOMSBURG PLAYERS HOSTS TO DRAMATISTS

"The Bloomsburg Players" have chosen Miss Harriette E. Smith as their new faculty advisor. Miss Johnston asked to be relieved of this position, but she will remain the Club Director. The officers for this term are: President, Harold Swisher; Vice President, Gladys Kuster; Secretary, Barbara McNinch; Treasurer, Gloria Galow.

The club members are planning to present a three-act play in December for the public. The Play Reading Committee, which includes Barbara McNinch, Chester Prince, Robert Diltz, Barbara Greenly, Robert Millard, Alberta Naunas and Mildred Palimbo, have already read many plays and selected one. Try-outs for the cast were held last week.

After the Clare Tree Major Players' presentation of the "Merchant of Venus," Tuesday evening, October 15, the dramatic organization entertained them in the Social Room of Science Hall. This meant relaxation for the members of the troupe and an enjoyable and interesting time for everyone.

"CANDY" SELECTED

her lovely voice, Candy modestly denied any likeness to such, but explained that singing and music has always been a hobby with her, and any training she has had she attributes to the church choir. Her love for music includes "everything from Bach to boogie," with special admiration for the arrangements of Tommy Dorsey and Fred Waring.

Although a State student, Candy likes Bloomsburg, and we are sure Bloomsburg likes Candy. It will be a pleasure to follow this vivacious young lady as she handles the vocals for the college orchestra at the forthcoming campus functions. We are sure her warm voice and smiling face before the microphone will be an addition to that musical organization that will more than compensate for the acclaim given her in her selection by the student body.

Clarion Teachers preserved its undefeated record by winning over the Huskies last Friday night at Athletic Park before a small sized crowd. The game was played under adverse conditions with mud and rain causing numerous fumbles.

The Golden Eagles from Western Pennsylvania scored in the first period what proved to be the winning tally. With about three minutes to go, a Husky lateral was batted to the ground by Wallace, Clarion right end, on the Bloom 20. Rimer gained six yards in three plays and then in desperation shot a pass to Zacheri good for a first down on the Husky seven. Whisner, Clarion fullback, hit center for the only six points scored during the evening. Scarantine's try for point was wide.

Passes Few

Because of the slippery ball, passes were few, most of the plays being through center to prevent fumbling. However, the Huskies showed five miscues and Clarion four. The powerful Clarion team, outweighing Bloom almost fifteen pounds to the man, was in Husky territory most of the game, showing 135 net yards from rushing to Bloomsburg's 62.

In the third period, a Clarion threat subsided when Bernie Rodgers recovered a fumble on the eight. Joe Apichella, Hazleton, playing his first game, stood behind his own goal line and got off a beautiful punt to the Clarion 40. The Eagles started another drive in the fourth period but lost the ball on downs on the six.

Substitutes Numerous

Coach John A. Hoch used practically three teams in an effort to stop Clarion and had weather conditions been better, the result might have been different. Five new faces appeared in the Husky starting line-up: Donan, Soth, Thomas, Von Stetten and Don Snyder.

Moore in Hospital

Charles Moore, regular quarterback, was operated on for appendicitis last Friday morning at the Geisinger Hospital in Danville. Moore had been outstanding in the first two games, and his loss will be keenly felt.

Huskies Clash With Millersville Tonight

Still hoping to turn in a conference win, the Bloomsburg State Teachers College eleven will journey to Columbia this evening, meeting a strong Millersville outfit. The tiff had originally been scheduled for Millersville, but since the Millers have no lights the fracas was shifted to nearby Columbia.

Fresh from a thrilling 13-12 victory over powerful Lock Haven, a team which defeated the Huskies, 20-12, the down-state lads will have to be watched. Mansfield, a team which battled the Huskies to a scoreless stalemate, beat Millersville, 14-7, so the boys who bank on comparative scores don't know how to figure this one. In any event it promises to be a thriller.

No definite starting line-up had been announced for the Huskies at this writing, but Husky fans can be sure that a strong team will take the field. Five new faces appeared in the starting line-up against Clarion last Friday night.

In Reese and Hubert Peters, the latter a Columbia lad, the Millers have two fine backs. Reese is the boy who has been taking care of the scoring for the boys from down Lancaster way.

Bald Eagle Booters Are Here Tomorrow

Soccer was not officially declared to be on the B. S. T. C. sports menu until a week ago, but things have happened fast since then, and the season will officially open tomorrow afternoon on Mt. Olympus when Lock Haven pays a visit to the Husky campus.

Coach Peter Wisner has a number of promising candidates and from some thirty boys will pick a starting eleven for the tilt. Three of the boys, Pat Patterson, John Magill and Reg. Remley, played on Husky soccer teams previous to this year and some of the other boys have seen experience in high school.

Little is known as to the strength of the Havenites, but from past experiences with the Bald Eagle school, they are sure to present a strong team.

Five games have been tentatively listed—two with Rider College, two with Lock Haven and one with West Chester.

MISS GILMORE TO SPONSOR POETRY CLUB

The Poetry Club, reborn this year after being disbanded in 1943, held its third meeting Thursday, October 3rd, to carry on its process of reorganization. Officers elected were Albert Rickmers, President; Fred DeBell, Vice President; Gretchen Trobach, Secretary; Thomas Beyer, Treasurer; and Fern Shellenberger, Historian. The club's aims and projects will be the study of the technicalities of the construction of poetry, appreciation of the works of the Master Poets, and critical analysis of the members' own writings.

The club, sponsored by Miss D. E. Gilmore, Assistant College Librarian, has an active membership of about twenty people, and will meet every other Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, in room E.

Lock Haven Wins On Aerial Assault

Once again Lady Luck pointed the wrong way as Lock Haven State Teachers edged the strong Husky eleven, 20-12, before some 5,000 fans in a night game at Jersey Shore's Stadium Saturday, October 5.

The Hoch-coached crew had it all over the Bald Eagles in ground gaining, amassing a net gain of 211 yards as against a meager 76 for Lock Haven. Once more the Maroon and Gold line stopped the enemy backs, and had it not been for the Havenites' success through the air, the result would have been different. They completed eight of sixteen passes attempted, good for 122 yards. Bloomsburg led in first downs, thirteen to seven.

Midway in the first period, Lock Haven began its initial march for pay dirt. With the ball on the Bald Eagle 42, Billy Booth, thorn in the Huskies' side all evening, passed to Snaith on the Bloom 35. Booth picked up 6 and then rifled a pass to Snaith for 5 more. Booth gained 3. Then George Teufel tried his hand at passing and immediately tossed a pass to halfback Johnson for the score. Booth passed to Barthelson for the point, and Lock Haven led, 7-0.

The Huskies came back early in the second quarter. Booth fumbled Holtz's punt on the Havenite 24, Bloom recovering. Stan Krwyzwicki passed to Paternoster for a first down on the 11. Holtz, Krwyzwicki, and Rodgers gained nine yards to put the ball on the 2. Holtz then plunged for the score. Mike Krepich's try for point was wide and the Bald Eagles still led, 7-6.

Lock Haven scored soon after, however. Booth returned the kick-off from the goal line to his 35. Teufel gained 5, and a 15 yard penalty against the Maroon and Gold put the ball on the Bloom 45.

Then Lock Haven executed a beautiful play. Booth shot a pass to his favorite receiver, Snaith. As Snaith was about to be hit, he lateraled to Rafferty, who for an instant was in the clear but was finally downed on the 15. Rafferty and Booth gained three yards between them. Then once again the Booth-Snaith combination clicked, this time for a touchdown, and Lock Haven led, 13-6. The try for point failed.

During the second half, it was all Bloomsburg so far as yards gained was concerned, for Lock Haven grabbed its final seven points on an intercepted pass, a play that probably wouldn't have occurred had the Huskies not been so desperately in need of a couple points.

Matt Maley, slippery Husky left halfback, was a surprise starter in the second half, and his presence was immediately noticed. He and Tom Donan each intercepted Bald Eagle passes late in the third period to preserve the Huskies' chances. Maley shot a bullet pass to Sal Arduini, right end, who cut across center to spear the pellet. He was hit on the Havenite 30. Booth intercepted a pass to give the Bald Eagles the ball as the final period opened.

After the Huskies got possession on a punt, however, Bernie Rodgers slid off tackle, got into the open, and romped 51 yards for a score to make it 13-12. Krepich's placement attempt was blocked by the hard charging Lock Haven line. This was the turning point of the game.

A few moments later Maurer intercepted a pass to give Lock Haven the ball on the Bloom 30. On fourth

Lock Haven Drops Conference Lead

Bald Eagles Lose to Millersville; Clarion and California Tied

By virtue of Millersville's close 13-12 win over Lock Haven the past week-end, the Bald Eagles were ousted from the State Teachers College Football Conference lead. Clarion defeated Bloomsburg and California topped Indiana to tie for the top spot, each showing two wins and no losses. Clarion is unscored upon.

Slippery Rock and East Stroudsburg are the only other clubs to be undefeated, although West Chester, probably one of the strongest Teachers College teams, has yet to swing into action. East Stroudsburg swamped Shippensburg, 32-7, in its first conference test.

Outside the conference, Kutztown turned in a 20-7 win over Monclair, of New Jersey; Mansfield edged a strong Cortland, N. Y., team, 9-6; Westminster won over a stubborn Edinboro eleven, 7-0; West Chester ran all over Penn Military, 40-0, and Thiel scored a safety to beat Slippery Rock, 2-0.

The top battle this week will be at West Chester Friday night when Lock Haven clashes with Glenn Killinger's boys from the Philadelphia area. West Chester has rolled up four straight victories over Moravian, Drexel, CCNY, and PMC.

Bloom at Millersville

Another important battle Friday night will take place at Columbia as Bloomsburg tangles with a good Millersville team. On Saturday, undefeated Mansfield visits Kutztown to play the Golden Avalanche and Slippery Rock meets Shippensburg at the latter place. Several good non-conference games are also listed.

Last Week's Results

Clarion 6, Bloomsburg 0.
E. Stroudsburg 32, Shippensburg 7.
Millersville 13, Lock Haven 12.
California 18, Indiana 6.

Non-Conference

Kutztown 20, Montclair 7.
Thiel 2, Slippery Rock 0.
Mansfield 9, Cortland 6.
Westminster 7, Edinboro 0.
West Chester 40, P. M. C. 0.

This Week's Schedule

There was pride in the face of the woman who walked into the furniture store and handed the cashier a small monthly payment. "There," she said to the man behind the grille, "is the last installment on our baby carriage."

"And how is the baby?" asked the cashier.

"Fine," she replied. "He was drafted last month."

down, Thomas' pass was batted away from his intended receiver, but Marusiak caught the ball before it hit the turf and went all the way to the 4. "Smoky" Stover then hit center for a score. Thomas shot a pass to Snaith for the extra point, making the score 20-12.

Shortly after, the Maroon and

THE SPORTS DIARY

By MILLARD C. LUDWIG

This column may seem familiar to a few readers who were on the Husky campus during the "sports famine" of '41 and '42. Bloomsburg struggled through those lean years and came through with flying colors, considering the small student body from which to draw athletic material. A lot has happened since then, and it's certainly great to see the Husky once more "strut his stuff"—civilian style.

It would only be proper to say a word in regard to the late Alden J. (Lefty) Danks' sudden death. (A complete article appears in another part of this issue). This writer remembers "Lefty" not only for his great achievements on the gridiron but also for his stellar pitching with the Milton entry in the fast Central Pennsylvania Semi-Pro Baseball League in '34, '35 and '36. At the time, the league was rated as fast as a Class "B" organization. Had it not been for "Lefty," Milton would have been lost in the chase. On one occasion, Bloomsburg was battling with Mifflinburg for the top spot. Milton and Bloomsburg met in an important game, and "Lefty" shut out the local entry, 3-0. Bloom was never the same after that.

Another event this writer had the pleasure of witnessing involving "Lefty" was the all-important fracas between his 1939 Milton gridiron machine and the powerful South Williamsport club on Thanksgiving day of that year. South Side fumbled on the opening play of the game and never did recover. Milton kept eating up yardage, scoring one touchdown after another. It looked like a well-oiled college outfit instead of a high school team. Milton won going away, 39-0, and South Side suffered its first defeat.

This boy Billy Booth, of Lock Haven, is much the same type of a player as Magalski, the Mansfield flash. Both are of about the same build, and both are as slippery as an eel. Opponents of these two boys will have to be on guard, especially on the run-back of punts.

Matt Maley's number "27" was hardly visible near the end of the Mansfield game. His jersey was one brown mass of mud. When the fans spotted a lad with a stained jersey carrying the ball, they immediately knew it was Matt. Incidentally, Maley's ability to fall forward after being hit is gaining the Huskies precious yardage. On one occasion in the Lock Haven game, he gained ten yards on one play, five of them being picked up by the extra momentum.

Sal Arduini, classy end from Jersey Shore, had the opportunity to play before the home folks October 5 and did a fine job of it. The next Husky player to enjoy such an event will be Tom Donan, tackle from Columbia, who was all over the place in the Mansfield game. This was brought about due to the change of date and scenery for the Millersville game. The Millers have no arc lights and since the game is being played next Friday evening, it will be staged in Glatfelter Stadium at Columbia. Millersville has acquired a lease on the field for this game and possibly a game with Shippensburg, November 2. Incidentally, one of the Miller players will be performing before the home folks—Hubert Peters, Millersville fullback.

Putting the sport shots here and there . . . East Stroudsburg's Big Red soccer team edged West Chester, 2-1, in two extra periods recently . . . Shippensburg is the only school not to list an opponent outside the State Teachers College Conference. The Red Raiders are playing an eight game schedule . . . West Chester, long a powerhouse in Teachers College ranks, is meeting six non-conference opponents . . . Kutztown is said to be one of the heaviest teams in the S. T. C. Conference . . . Basketball should have another excellent year here . . . Four veterans of the '42-'43 starting combination are back in school . . . They include Mike Remetz, John Slegeski, Vince Washvillia, and Joe Chesney . . . Any local court fan knows these boys are well acquainted with the hardwood.

Mansfield-Huskies in 0-0 Stalemate

Line Play Stands Out in Opener at Athletic Park on Monday, September 30

Meeting on the gridiron for the first time since 1940, the Mansfield State Teachers College and the Husky eleven renewed their rivalry Monday, September 30, battling to a scoreless deadlock before 2,000 fans in an arc light contest played at Athletic Park.

Just before the kick-off, fans and players of both teams took part in a moment of silent tribute in memory of the late Alden J. (Lefty) Danks.

A stout Maroon and Gold line held the charges of Ted Casey on three occasions in the fourth period as they penetrated at the 12, 11 and 7 yard line. During the last drive, Grant, Mansfield quarterback, attempted a field goal which went to the left of the uprights.

The "stonewall line" of Coach John A. Hoch held Mansfield to 37 net yards, and during the first half the invaders' total gain from scrimmage was minus eleven.

Matt Maley did much of the ball carrying for the Huskies, and the "swivel-hipped" halfback from Pottsville was repeatedly getting through for big gains. George Paternoster played a bang-up game at right end, both offensively and defensively.

Bloomsburg threatened in the first period and controlled the ball practically throughout the initial quarter. Mike Krepich's onside kick-off was recovered by Sal Arduini on the Mansfield 39. With Bernie Rodgers, Bill Holtz, and Maley doing the ball toting, the Huskies marched to the 8 where the northern tier boys held on downs. A punt exchange put the ball on the 20. Mancina, Mansfield halfback, fumbled, Reedy recovering on the 19. This time Bloom went to the 13, again losing the ball.

Midway in the second period Rodgers grabbed Magalski's punt on the Husky 15, running to the 25. A series of short gains put the ball on the Bloom 43. Then Charlie Moore shot a pass to Rodgers for a first down on the Mansfield 40. Another first down put the ball on the 26 where Moore's pass was intercepted by Magdalinskis, Mansfield center, who played brilliantly all evening.

The third period saw most of the action take place between the 30 yard lines, but early in the fourth quarter Holtz' punt was blocked by Mollahan on the Bloomsburg 29. It was at this point that Mansfield began its three offensives.

Bob Magalski, spark plug Mansfield halfback from Larksville, was instrumental in the attack until he was injured in the fourth period.

S. C. A. Holds Investiture Ceremony

The Student Christian Association recently held an impressive investiture service to install the new members of the organization. Twenty new members were taken into the club.

The main part of the program for the evening was composed of responsive readings, led by Harold Reinert, and given by John Guy, Mary Ellen Clark, Marjorie Brace, Marion Wilson, Carson Whitesell and Mae Klinger. Solos were sung by Edith Fling and Mary Shoemaker, and the entire group joined in singing hymns. Joyce Smith was the accompanist for the program. The meeting closed with a candlelight ceremony, during which the president welcomed both new and former members of the club.

The S. C. A. has made a tentative plan for the year to sponsor Sunday Vesper services in the Carver Hall Auditorium. One service each month will be presented by the pastor and congregation of a Bloomsburg church, and on the remaining evenings the S. C. A. will present the programs. One service, featuring an inspiring talk by the Reverend G. Douglas Davies, has already been held, and it is hoped that this plan can be put into operation during the coming months.

The officers of the organization for the year are: President, Harold Reinert; Vice President, Robert Millard; Secretary, Mary Rush; Treasurer, Janet Gilbody.

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

He graduate from Yale University School of Music with a Bachelor of Music degree. He then studied in London, England, at the Tobias Matthay Pianoforte School, The Royal

F. T. A. Constitution Is Presented

All students following the teacher-training program were asked to attend the recent Future Teachers of America meeting because they are the members of the organization. At this meeting, this year's faculty advisor, Miss Edna J. Hazen, read the constitution of the F. T. A. to those present.

One of the articles of this constitution is the purpose of this organization. The purpose of this organization shall be to improve the professional advancement of its members, to help them to become familiar with professional organizations and to participate in their activities before active service as a teacher, to promote teacher and student welfare, to keep in touch with national and state educational issues and problems, to render service to community, to foster professional zeal, and to uphold educational standards.

Following this, the election of this year's officers was completed. They are as follows: Edward Hollis, president, elementary education; Helen Fehl, vice president, business education; Robert Bunge, secretary and treasurer, business education.

Plans for future activities were discussed. The F. T. A. will be in charge of the assembly program during America Education Week. On November 2, Homecoming Day, a gathering will be held for last year's Seniors in order that this year's graduating class may meet and converse with them. The next meeting of the F. T. A. will be held on October 28, during which their guest speaker will be Mr. Ted Martin.

Academy of Music and Dalcroxe School.

Dean William E. Landis

Dean Landis who teaches in the Business Education Department is the Dean of Men and assistant football coach. He comes here after serving in the Army for three years, first as an enlisted man but rising to the rank of Major at the time of his discharge.

Dean Landis graduated from Indiana State Teachers College and received his Master of Science degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Harold H. Lanterman

Mr. Lanterman, Department of Physical Science, graduated from Bloomsburg State Teachers College and took his graduate work at the New York University and Pennsylvania State College.

Mr. Lanterman spent thirty-eight months in the Army working in War Department laboratories on secret projects.

Strike Up the Band!

One of the busiest and peppiest organizations on the campus is the college marching band. Lending music and color to the various social activities particularly during the football season, it adds much to the spirit of the student body.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Henrie, the band includes thirty-five members. The drum major is Daryl Stull. Six snappy twirlers and a color guard of four girls complete the personnel.

The band will attend three out-of-town football games this semester. New uniforms will be purchased next year.

Anyone who can play an instrument and who is interested in improving his musical ability, is welcome to join the marching band.

WOMEN'S CHORUS ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

With the beginning of a new year, the Women's Chorus has recently elected its new officers. They are: Anne Baldy, President; Helene Brown, Vice-President; Pauline Kolkias, Secretary; Peggy Suchey, Treasurer; and Marie Dieffenbach and Shirley Ganger, Librarians.

The Freshmen women were very enthusiastic about joining this well-known organization, and so the membership has reached unexpected heights. Each girl had an individual voice test given by Miss Harriet Moore, director and advisor, before she was admitted into the chorus.

As yet there is no definite schedule of singing events for this group, but the girls have been practicing several sacred chorales.

The Seebing (Ala.) News tells us how the dean of women at a large coeducational college severely criticized the moral laxity of the student body on Wednesday that "The president and I have decided to stop necking on the campus."—A. C. P.

known on the campus for her activity in extra-curricular while attending Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

Della M. Thayer

Miss Thayer, the dietitian, graduated from Syracuse University and attended the University of Michigan (League) for one year. She was dietitian for seven years at Overland College, Ohio.

Miss Thayer is very much interested in camping and has been employed as camp dietitian in camps in Wisconsin and New York.

Margaret E. Waldron

Miss Waldron graduated from Wesley College with a Bachelor of Arts degree and received her Master of Arts degree at the Teachers College, Columbia University. She has taken graduate work at the University of Southern California, Harvard University and Bucknell University.

Miss Waldron has taught at the Lock Haven State Teachers College and at the Rhode Island College of Education.

Peter Wisner

Mr. Wisner, Physical Education Department, graduated from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. He received his Master of Education degree at Penn State. Having nearly completed his work for his doctorate Mr. Wisner will have his major field in Physical Education and his minor field in Secondary Education.

Mr. Wisner spent three and a half years in the United States Navy, entering as a Chief Specialist A. (Athletics) and later receiving the commission of Lieutenant, junior grade.

Five Active Members of Pi Omega Pi

The Alpha Delta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi, National Business Education Honorary Fraternity, is beginning its twelfth year on the "Bloom" campus. First meeting of the season opened with five active members.

At the Annual Business Education Club Banquet in May, the officers for this year were announced as follows: President ----- William Horvath
Vice President ----- Harriet Rhodes
Secretary ----- Rose Marie Kraiser
Treasurer ----- Betty Fisher
Historian ----- Charlotte Reichart
Recently the Chapter elected Mr. Earl Gehrig, Sponsor.

An interesting program has been planned for the year. Part of each meeting is always devoted to something professional. The fraternity is planning to have speakers, panel discussions, book reviews, debates, and some very informal discussions. The subjects will be strictly commercial in scope. The social functions of the organization are already under way. At the second dinner meeting held at Fest's Restaurant, plans for increased membership were announced. Some of the problems that pertain to work on our own campus will be taken up. It is felt that this will be beneficial both to the college and to the students as prospective teachers.

DEDICATION

Dr. Russel addressed the audience then, telling of the high character, intelligence and personality of Earl Harris as a student at B. S. T. C. He said that today's "world leaders are failing to set up a peace worthy of the price paid by the loss of such fine promising young men as Earl Harris."

Dr. Kuster spoke next, giving a report of Mr. Harris' record. Earl graduated from B. S. T. C. in May, 1942. While attending this institution he was in Science Club four years, served as Vice-President and President; Geography Club two years; Gamma Theta Upsilon three years, served as President; Treasurer of Junior Class; Chairman of Student Government Association Committee; Men's Glee Club; Treasurer of Senior Class; Business Staff of the Obiter; and was on the Dean's Honor Roll every semester. While in the service 1st Lt. Harris was wounded three times. He was killed instantly by mortar shells on Cebu Island on March 28, 1945. To quote Dr. Kuster, "He was interested in nature and natural phenomena—plants and animals in their natural environment. He was at home in the fields and forests, mountains and valleys, and along streams. To him the earth was a good place to live in, and people were worth loving and dying for."

"These two trees that we are about to plant come from sturdy, stalwart stock, great in endurance and long life. We hope that they will live long on this campus and symbolize for Bloomsburg Alumni the influence and promise of 1st Lt. Earl Harris."

Mr. Ezra Harris, Earl's brother, stated that when he had been with Earl while he was convalescing from wounds received on Bougainville, Earl kept his scientific and geographic interests expanding by new discoveries and exploration. His mother and father and Mrs. Ezra Harris were also guests of the Science Club.

The trees were planted by Carver and Noetling Halls to the left of Senior Walk. It is hoped they will grow and thrive to keep alive our memory of Earl Harris and many others like him.
