CLAUDE THORNHILL

Composer-arranger and pianist par excellence—that's Claude Thornhill, the great bandleader who brings his fine musical aggregation to the Bloomsburg State Teachers College on November 26, after 32 months overseas in the Navy.

Claude is a triple-threat man and the lovely theme song of the Thornhill orchestra introduces all three of the maestro's talents simultaneously. Claude is the composer and arranger of the hauntingly beautiful "Snowfall" which also features himself at the piano.

The other richly colored band arrangements are all written by the maestro. Thornhill has a big advantage over most of the current bandleaders in being able to combine a classical background with the current trend of popular music. The result is music that bears a distinctive Claude Thornhill stamp.

His training at both the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and the Curtis Institute of Music are the prime factor in making the band what it is today. Thornhill has a set-up that includes six reeds, eight brass and four rhythm, paced by the leader's eloquent piano. Most unusual of all is the fact that in the eight brass, there are two French horns. The horns, which are usually identified with symphonic orchestras are being used to blend with the colorfully harmonious arrangements of the leader. Two vocalists round out the group.

Replacing Artie Shaw as head of the Navy's most famous band, Claude, who enlisted as an apprentice,

Community Government Officers Maintain Full Agenda

With an unusually large student enrollment, the Community Government Association is looking forward to a very successful year. A great part of the work involved in making the activities of the college a success falls upon the officers of this organization. The current group of officers promises to give the school the leadership necessary for well planned activities.

President of the C. G. A. this year is William Horvath, a member of the senior class. He, like many other students of the college, interrupted his schooling to serve in the armed forces. He was a yeoman in the Navy, serving for three years. He was one of four naval men who served on the Allied Control Commission in Bulgaria. He is currently a member of Pi Omega Pi and Kappa Delta Pi. Although he played football for Bloomsburg for two years as an end, he is now occupied with other extracurricular activities; namely, a wife and a nine month old son.

Robert Martin, vice president, is from Edwardsville, Pennsylvania. He will graduate from B. S. T. C. in August of this year. He is a member of the Dramatic Club and the "Maroon and Gold" staff, and he is serving as line coach for the football team. He spent in the Coast Guard "two years, six months, thirty days, and eleven hours" to be exact. Mr. Martin is married to a veteran of the Marine Corps' Women's Auxilliary.

Betty Fisher, a native of Bloomsburg, is secretary of the C. G. A. She is in her junior year here, having interrupted her studies for a time to work in the Department of Justice at

C. G. A. TO PURCHASE NEW FURNITURE

At a recent meeting of the college council, President William Horvath appointed a committee to investigate the possibility of purchasing furniture. An allotment of $2250.00 has been provided in the budget for the school year to cover the cost of this much needed refurbishing. Tentative plans call for the placing of new chairs, tables, sofas, etc., in Waller Hall, North Hall, the Day Men's Room in Navy Hall and the Recreation Room.

A most desirable project is the beautifying of the Old Gym. The possibility of accomplishing that at this time has been eliminated because of the war. Continued on Page Two

College Involved in Law Suit

Famous Artist Charges Attempt Against Reputation

The great artist, Silver Dillydally, has just filed charges in the Columbia County courts against the Bloomsburg State Teachers College. It appears that a recent discovery in Noctling Hall has resulted in a smear against Mr. Dillydally's reputation as a leading authority on modern art.

Several weeks ago Mr. Dillydally was called to the Teacher's College to give his opinion of several pictures hanging in the hall just down from the library. Upon close examination, which included the use of magnifying glass, microscope and hydrogen peroxide, he pronounced several of the pictures as authentic examples of extreme ultra-ultra sur-sur-realism. Mr. Dillydally said that we could quote him on this pronouncement and that he would stake his first wife and his last two canvases on it. Mr. Dillydally also said that the picture next to entrance of the dormitory stairway was an exceptionally fine example of a technic which he has used in several of his own pictures—the ten foot throw and splash method. The great artist said that in employing this technic, the painter dips his brush in the desired pigment, steps back from the canvas five paces; then with an underhand movement, he throws the brush, aiming for the center of the canvas. He said that this technique is perfected only after much practice. In his early career he destroyed several Paris apartments in this manner.

After this conference Dillydally departed for Greenwich Village.

Just last week this balloon of exalted bliss was punctured when one of our brilliant freshmen made a startling discovery. This individual happened to be strolling by the picture singled out by Artist Dillydally and found that it was nothing more than a photograph of the Niagara Falls which had been turned upside-down by a modern art neurotic who had majored for three years in art appreciation. Mr. Dillydally was notified of the discovery immediately and came down the Susquehanna by speedboat to verify it. After revolving the picture some twenty or more times to see if another picture had been substituted for the original, he went to the Columbia County Court House where he filed charges of fraud, slander on his reputation, and attempted swindle of his first wife and his last two paintings.

There has been a great amount of speculation as to the verdict which the jury will arrive at in this interesting case but one thing is certain—the rehanging of the pictures in Noctling Hall has done more in the way of unique interior decoration than all the recent construction work. A student survey also indicates that there is a decided preference for "Dillydally Splash" than for its "reversed aspect"—the foam from Niagara Falls.

WHAT IS HOMECOMING?

Homecoming Day is one of the most outstanding social events of the college year. It presents an excellent opportunity for old friends and classmates to reinforce their friendships and recall poignant memories of student days. For nineteen years, Alumni of Bloomsburg have been returning to the place where their thoughts turn nostalgically. Homecoming Day, however, is to be distinguished from Alumni Day. The latter is concerned with specific class reunions, while the former is concerned with one general reunion and with the entertainment of the home-comers by the present student body.

The Homecoming was interrupted during the days of conflict and many of the graduates who served in the armed forces were not yet home from the wars last year when the event was staged.

Hundreds who have not been on the campus for a day in more than five years plan to attend on Saturday.

Gold Buttons

Edwin M. Allegar claims Stillwater, Pa., for a hometown. Eddie plays baseball and is on the Husky soccer team. This boy is sports minded because he has them as a hobby, too. He'll graduate in '49 under the secondary course of study.

On June 27, 1944, Eddie joined the Army Air Corps and trained at Lehigh University (ACER) and Clemson A. & M. In March, 1945, he transferred to the Navy and took the Eddy Program (radar). He achieved the rank of Seaman 1/c.

Overseas for five months, from February to July, 1946, Ed. was on the U. S. S. Nassau and went to Hawaii. His discharge showed two years as his length of service. He really is sincere when explaining his most interesting or unique event. "Seasickness. Believe me . . . it's unique, too"

Single, Eddie says, "So sorry—no remarks!" when asked his opinion of the girls on this campus.

Three cheers for the Seabees! Or so Charles M. Eves, who is a freshman taking Business, says. "Chuck" comes from that big community of Almedia, which, if you look very hard, you can find nestled between Lime Ridge and Espy on the way to Berwick. Just a few houses, yes, but home to Charlie. He likes to play baseball, volleyball and softball; hunting and fishing-are his hobbies. Entering the service June 7, 1943, he was assigned to the Director Western Pacific Division of the Yards and Docks. His highest rank was that of Yeoman 3/c.

On March 17, 1944, Chuck began twenty-one months of overseas service during which he took in the sights at Pearl Harbor, Guam and Eniwetok. He received his discharge May 25, 1946. His total length of service wasn't three years, but two years, eleven months and nineteen days. His ribbons and medals include those for Victory, the Asiatic-Pacific theater of war and the American theater.

The most interesting and unique event during his service he describes like this: "Moonlight beach parties in Hawaii—Ah-h-h-h yes!" (Brother!)

length of service—Too long; Date of discharge—Not soon enough; Ribbons, citations, medals—Safety pin for Safety Zone—5 years; Most interesting or unique event—See the gold braid wait in line for discharge; Marital status—Yes; Remarks about B. S. T. C. girls, aspirations, etc.—I should commit myself?!!

"Borrowed Banter"

A University of Mississippi student handed in the following as the principal parts of a Latin verb:

"Slippeo, slippere, falli, bumpus."

The returned paper contained the following corrections:

"Fallio, failere, flunco, suspendum."

A pretty young lady named Jane, While walking was caught in the rain;

She ran—almost flew,

Her complexion did, too,

And she reached home exceedingly plain. —The Collegio.

A Sweater Hop was held at Slippery Rock S. T. C. by the Phi Dets girls' health ed. frat. Every shade of every color was represented in the figured, checkered and plain sweaters seen in the crowd. Some of the couples were merely contrasts in colors, their sweaters being identical in style. Brief thought—similar sharp dance would be fun at B. S. T. C.

I shall illustrate what I have in mind said the teacher as she erased the board. —The Collegio.

I tried to kiss her

Then, as I said

I was struck by the beauty of her hand. —The Collegio.

cause of the fact that there is a state appropriation forthcoming to be used in remodeling the Old Gym.

The whole college community will appreciate the efforts of this committee, because everyone realizes the need for more pleasant and comfortable rooms in which to relax and socialize.

Chuck is single and has no general remarks about B. S. T. C. girls. "I don't know them all—yet!" (Well, girls!)

William Troutman is from Shamokin, Pa., and is known to his friends as Bill. He played football at B. S. T. C. in 1939 and 1940 when he earned two letters. Now he has P. I. A. A. football and basketball as a hobby, acting in both as an official. Bill will graduate in 1949 with a major in Chemistry.

In November, 1944, he joined the Army and was assigned to the 9th Infantry Division Medical Battalion where he was Sgt. Major. Bill served in France, Belgium, Austria and Germany. At the time of his discharge his permanent station was Augsburg, Germany. His total length of service was twenty months, fifteen of which were spent overseas. July 17, 1946, was that happy day of discharge to Bill. During his time in the Army, Bill received the E. A. M. E. Campaign Ribbon, Good Conduct Medal, Victory Ribbon and Army of Occupation Ribbon.

The most interesting event of his Army career was officiating football in Hitler's Great Nuremberg Stadium, now called Soldiers' field.

Sorry girls, but Bill is married and says nothing about B. S. T. C.'s female students. He would like to become a football coach, but also wants to continue officiating.

Kutztown and Huskies Tangle In Homecoming Game Tomorrow

Gabriel and Kriss Score To Beat Shippers, 12-6

Huskies Enroll Initial Victory Over Red Raiders

Taking advantage of a blocked punt and an intercepted pass, the Husky gridiron machine rose to the occasion last Saturday to beat the Red Raiders from Shippensburg, 12-6, before a Parents' Day crowd of more than 3,000.

Once again the granite-like line of the Maroon and Gold was outstanding. The Shippers showed a net total gained on the ground of 65 yards. Not finding the Husky line weakening at any point throughout the game, the Red Raiders took to the air, completing eleven of twenty-one attempted passes for 177 yards. However, it was one of these passes which meant a touchdown for Bloomsburg.

Second Period Score

Midway in the second quarter the Huskies struck pay dirt. Billy Dugan stood on his 44 and punted a beauty out of bounds on the Shippers' five yard line. After going to the 17, Danny Galbraith, star Red Raider quarterback, attempted a third-down pass. However, Steve Kriss was on the alert, intercepted on the 30, swept toward the sidelines, and raced for a touchdown. Krepich's try for point was wide, and the Huskies led, 6-0.

Gabriel Blocks Punt

With about three minutes gone in the fourth period, Shippensburg had the ball on its 18. Galbraith went back to punt, but Louis Gabriel charged in to block the attempted kick. He raced after the rolling pigskin and fell upon it for a touchdown. Albano's placement attempt was short and the score read 12-0.

Galbraith, who had been threatening the Huskies all afternoon, finally contributed a score with one of his many heaves at the twelve minute mark in the fourth period. Standing on the midfield stripe, he shot a pass to Sam Hatfield, Negro halfback, who took it on the five and went over for the Red Raiders' only score of the afternoon.

Play Called Back

A holding penalty cost the Huskies another touchdown in the third period. Big Bill Holtz, South Williamsport fullback, smashed through center on his own 19, got by the Red Raiders' secondary, and cut loose to the Shippensburg 5 before being hit by Keifer. However, his momentum carried him over the goal line. The ball was brought back and the Huskies were penalized 15 yards.

Galbraith's Aerials

Galbraith's long passing continuously was a threat to the Huskies, but for the most part they met the test. In two pass plays, his strong arm carried the Red Raiders from their own 13 to the Husky 5 in the fourth period. Halfback Hopper was on the receiving end both times. The Huskies held and punted out. It was at this point that the Red Raiders registered their only touchdown.

Two Players Injured

Jim Sampsell, Husky left guard, suffered a twisted knee in the second period, but at the time it was thought he would be ready for the Kutztown game. Marvin Hubley, Shippensburg fullback, whose punting stood out during the first half, twisted his an-

Strong Rider Team Beats Huskies, 6-1

Opener of Two Day Trip is Played at Trenton

Playing on a smoke-filled field in the industrial part of Trenton, New Jersey, the Husky booters dropped a 6-1 contest to a well-oiled Rider College soccer team last Friday afternoon.

Before the Huskies could get their bearings, Rider scored. With less than ten seconds gone in the first period, Malone, Rider halfback, sent a curving shot from just past midfield near the right sideline. A heavy crosswind caught the ball and sent it into the upper left corner of the net. This stunned the Huskies and before the period was over, Rider had registered two more scores.

However, in the fourth period, the Maroon and Gold actually outplayed the New Jersey boys and scored their only goal. Captain "Pat" Patterson was credited with the boot. Rider used only two substitutes during the entire fray.

On Olympic Team

Owens, who booted three goals, and Sureconek, inside right, have been selected as representatives on the American Olympic Soccer team. Rider's only defeat of the year was at the hands of Army, 3-2, and occurred in the last five seconds of play. A tie was recorded with powerful East Stroudsburg, 2-2, while victories were posted over Loyola (Balt.), 2-0, and over Bucknell, 5-1.

COACH JOHN C. HOCH

CALIFORNIA LEADS FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

California State Teachers College's undefeated untied football team stood at the top of the heap in the hotly contested Teachers College Conference race as a result of a 19-7 win over previously unbeaten Clarion last week. This gives California three wins and no losses and places them on the inside track for the title. They have only one conference tilt remaining, that with Lock Haven November 23, and it may be that the title will remain in doubt until then.

E. Stroudsburg Beaten

West Chester aided California's position by winning over East Stroudsburg, 13-7. After the Rams were knocked off by Lock Haven two weeks ago, the Big Red looked like the team to beat, but now their chances too are slim as they have but one conference tilt remaining, that with the Huskies.

Mansfield is Second

Idle Mansfield jumped into second place showing two wins and a tie in three decisions. The Northern tier institution has three conference frays remaining and has a good chance at the championship.

Lock Haven lost a golden opportunity to advance in the standings when the Bald Eagles dropped their game to Indiana, 13-0. They now have an outside chance of finishing in a tie.

Although winning over Shippensburg, Bloomsburg dropped from ninth to eleventh in the standings. This was brought about due to the fact that two schools, West Chester and Indiana, recorded their first victories, and because they had not played as many games as the Huskies, showed a higher percentage once recording their initial triumph.

Outside the conference, Mansfield used every available player in tramping Dickinson Seminary, 33-6; Kutztown topped Trenton Teachers, 12-0; Slippery Rock lost to Fairmont State, 7-0, and Edinboro, which hasn't scored a point all year, lost to Thiel, 7-0.

In this week's encounters, Clarion will visit unpredictable Indiana; and Bloomsburg will play host to Kutztown; Edinboro will play at Mansfield, and Shippensburg meets Millersville at the latter place. In non-conference competition, West Chester plays Albright at Reading; Grove City is at Slippery Rock; and East Stroudsburg plays host to Montclair. Lock Haven is idle.

Golden Avalanche and Maroon and Gold Renew Grid Rivalry

Highlighting the Nineteenth Annual Homecoming Day activities tomorrow will be the gridiron tussle with Kutztown State Teachers College invading Mount Olympus Field to engage the Huskies. The kick-off is set for 2:30, and an overflow crowd of approximately 2,000 fans is expected.

Heavy Team

The Kutztown aggregation, which operates under the direction of Head Coach Walter P. Risley, is expected to field one of the biggest and brawn-iest elevens yet encountered by the proteges of Coach John Hoch. The Golden Avalanche boasts a forward wall that averages slightly over 200, which means that the Huskies will be outweighed approximately twenty pounds per man when they line up for the opening whistle.

Strong Passing Attack

Although the won and lost record for the visitors this season is none too impressive, they are expected to make it plenty rough for the Hochmen tomorrow afternoon. The Berks County boys have dropped all three conference engagements to date but showed strength in losing. Their two victories have been at the expense of two New Jersey schools, Montclair and Trenton.

Strong Passing Attack

Big gun of the Kutztown attack is Doug Batdorf, 180 pound left halfback, who is a triple threat all the way. Teaming with Batdorf in the aerial offensive, a thorn in the Huskies' side all season, is big Charles Novick, 190 pound end, who can really snag passes.

Huskies Ready

The Maroon and Gold, having tasted victory for the first last Saturday with a 12-6 win over Shippensburg, will be working to stay in the victory column to improve their conference standings. Reports are that the squad is in fine physical condition and will be ready to go with practically the same starting line-up as the one which faced Shippensburg with the exception of Jim Sampsell, first string guard, who sustained a knee injury in the Shippensburg fray. Replacing him will be Louis Gabriel, hero of last Saturday's tilt. It was Gabriel who blocked a kick and fell on it for the second and deciding Husky touchdown.

Series Deadlocked

Records show that the two schools are even up in past gridiron performances, each having won two. Kutztown was victorious in '38 and '39 with the Huskies winning in '40 and '41.

The Bloomsburg High School band and football team will be guests of the college for the celebration.

KAPPA DELTA PI VOTES TO PLEDGE NEW MEMBERS

The Gamma Beta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, Honor Society in Education, voted to invite over thirty of the outstanding students on B. S. T. C.'s campus to join the fraternity.

During the war, the Kadelphians were unable to secure the Wedgewood plates picturing Carver Hall. These plates are again available and any member of the College Community will soon be able to purchase them.

The officers who were elected at the May 9, 1946, meeting to serve for the present year are Paul Rowlands, President; Laura Davis, Vice-President; Harriet Rhoades, Recording Secretary; Shirley Keiser, Corresponding Secretary; Alberta Naunas, Historian; and Helen M. Wright, Treasurer. Dr. Nell Maupin is the sponsor for the organization.

The purpose of this fraternity is to encourage high professional, intellectual and personal standards and to organize outstanding contributions to education.

TRAINING SCHOOL PUPILS PARTICIPATE IN PARADE

The children of the Benjamin Franklin Training School paraded in the annual Halloween parade on October 28. They represented the Spirit of Benjamin Franklin. A number were dressed as the ghosts of Ben Franklin while others represented famous experiments in electricity. Stress was put upon Franklin's versatility as a printer, teacher and inventor.

Children were the main feature of the parade this year. Each child received a prize with a special prize for the most original costume. Those class rooms that had over 50 per cent of their members marching received a five dollar award. This five dollars is being used to buy "My Weekly Reader," a famous painting, and to finance a Mothers' party. Some of the classes have not yet decided how they shall use their winnings.

THE SPORTS DIARY

By MILLARD C. LUDWIG

Although the record of only one victory and a tie in five starts may not seem anything to rave about, we're certain that Homecoming Day football fans will see one of the strongest Husky football teams ever to represent the Maroon and Gold in action tomorrow afternoon. This team has something different. It has fight and ginger to the last second of play, a line that has yielded less than an average of 80 yards per game, an offensive that is potential and daring. We have seen Husky teams of the past pushed all over the gridiron. Many times it was due to the size of the squad. Such is not the case this season, for a wealth of material is at hand. B. S. T. C. football teams are no longer the doormat of the conference, and the boys will be out to prove that tomorrow afternoon.

During the soccer trip last week-end, we had the pleasure of witnessing one of the best Teachers College clashes of the year. West Chester defeated the Big Red of East Stroudsburg at Wayne Field, West Chester, 13-7, in a knock-down, drag-out affair. One thing particularly noticeable about that game was the cheering. It really sounded "big time." Not only did the Rams have an enormous delegation, but so did the Big Red. One enthusiastic Big Red roofer even organized his own little band of cheerers, and throughout the game he and his cohorts really made noise. Cheering and enthusiasm is certainly one of the most important phases in a football game. Let's hope Bloomsburg surpasses that of West Chester and East Stroudsburg.

In catching the two powerhouses—Rider and West Chester—over the past week-end, the Huskies played these two teams when they were the hottest. At Rider, they play soccer practically the year round and go into rigorous training in August. West Chester had played six games before tangling with the Huskies and had been going strong since September 1. This is certainly a disadvantage to a school with only two weeks' practice.

Putting the sport shot here and there . . . All Teachers Colleges are pointing to successful basketball campaigns this winter . . . Everyone seems to be loaded just as has been the case during the football season . . . Army's football juggernaut will meet Notre Dame and Penn on successive Saturdays, November 9 and 16 . . . Both have strong squads and have had no trouble in vanquishing all opponents to date . . . Penn has boys on its third team who in previous years were first stringers at the Quaker institution . . . Upsets were common in collegiate football ranks last week-end . . . Texas, Tennessee, Missouri, Michigan, California, North Carolina State, Fordham, Wagner, and Arkansas were teams which according to the prognosticators were "sure" to beat their opponents . . . Husky Booters Lose At West Chester

Playing their second game in two days, the Husky soccermen dropped a 5-1 decision to West Chester at that place last Saturday.

The first half was close with the Rams holding a narrow 2-1 lead, one of the West Chester scores resulting from a penalty kick.

However, during the latter part of the third period and in the fourth, the Purple and Gold tallied thrice as the Maroon and Gold lads tired. Playing for the first time quarters of twenty-two minutes in length and on a field twenty yards longer than usual, the Huskies were unequal to the task.

West Chester is playing a strong eleven game schedule this season including such opponents as Loyola (Baltimore), Penn, East Stroudsburg, Ursinus, Panzer, Bucknell, Temple, Wheaton, Ill., Delaware and Lehigh.

tice seaman in October 1942, conducted the orchestral "Rangers" through harmonious engagements on every Pacific isle except the mainland of Japan. Playing for the Army and Marines as well as Navy personnel, his ovations resounded from New Guinea to Okinawa. Because of G. I. demand the Navy planned the Claude Thornhill All-Star Show featuring screen star, Jackie Cooper and radio star, Dennis Day. The All-Star organization toured seven months, travelled 70,000 miles and amassed a total of 400 performances, an all-time record for Naval show business.

In recognition of the morale boost Claude Thornhill and his boys were giving the entertainment hungry men on these lonely islands, Secretary Forrestal commended him personally and he was awarded a citation by Admiral Nimitz. Resuming his civilian career, Claude returns with a fine orchestra comprised of the best of his Navy crew with whom he is sure to cruise to the popularity peak he vacated for the bell-bottoms.
