

Maroon and Gold

State Teachers College, Bloomsburg, Pa.

VOLUME XV

BLOOMSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1947

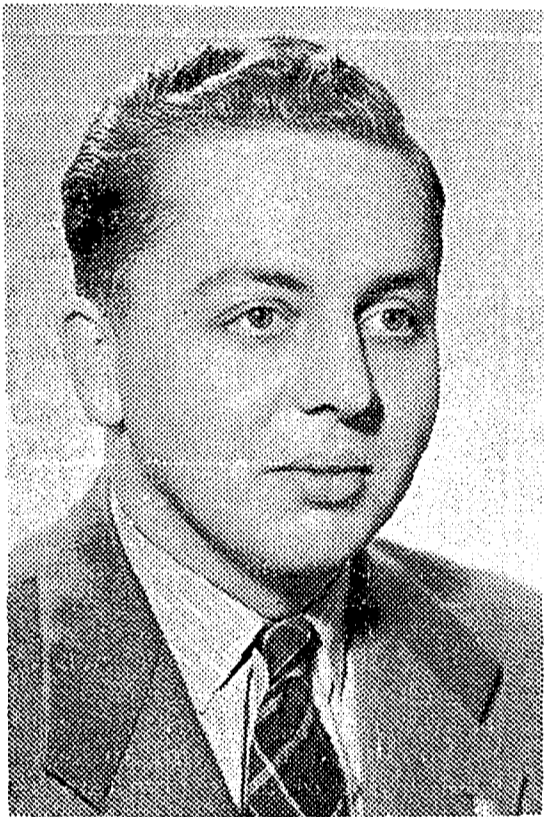

NUMBER SIXTEEN

Harry Reitz Elected New President of C. G. A. at College

Harry Reitz, a secondary junior, who has been exceptionally active in campus activities, recently was elected president of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College Community Government Association.

Other officers elected were Betty Lehet, vice-president; Betty L. Fisher, secretary, and John M. Purcell, treasurer.

Miss Lehet recently was awarded two scholarships, one by the alumni and the other a Miss Irma Ward Memorial scholarship. Miss Fisher was re-elected secretary. Purcell is another leader in campus activities.

High Percentage Vote

The students had full charge of the election which was carried out exactly as are civic elections. Those in charge only recently were addressed by Robert H. VanSickle, county treasurer, on the methods followed in civil government.

The interest in the election was shown in the fact that of the 750 students now at the college, 650 cast their ballots.

The officers elected April 22 will serve during the college year of 1947-48. All are members of the class of 1948.

STUDENT TESTIFIES ON SALARY BILL

Robert Bunge, a married ex-G. I. who is a senior at B. S. T. C. was one of those who testified at Harrisburg, April 22, at a hearing held in the forum of the education building on House Bill No. 147 which deals with increasing teachers' salaries.

Mr. Bunge is the vice president of the Oscar Hugh Bakeless Chapter, Future Teachers of America, here on the college campus. He is a senior in the field of secondary education.

Thirty college seniors chartered a bus to make the trip in a group. The hearing was open at 10:30 A. M.

Shorthand Expert To Demonstrate Skill Here on May 2

The world's fastest writer of shorthand, Charles E. Zoubeck, of New York, will demonstrate his unusual skill in a blackboard demonstration in the writing of Gregg shorthand as a feature of the annual Pennsylvania Commercial Contest held here May 2. Mr. Zoubeck holds the world's record for writing shorthand—three hundred words a minute—and is also noted as a lecturer and writer.

After graduating from a New York high school, he was employed by the Gregg Publishing Company as a stenographer. His unique skill soon won him nation-wide attention and he is now kept busy traveling throughout the country as a special representative of the company.

Freshman Hop a Great Success

On April 24, the freshman class sponsored a semi-formal dance which was held in the Centennial Gymnasium. The dance was well attended by the faculty, the college community and their guests.

The gymnasium was beautifully decorated with pink, white and green crepe paper and yellow balloons. The low ceiling of white lattice from which the pink dogwood decorations were suspended helped to create an atmosphere very appropriate for the spring season.

Russ Andalero and his fourteen-piece orchestra furnished the music from eight o'clock until midnight.

Anthony Paulmeno, dance chairman, and the following committee members did a splendid job in making this dance one of the college's outstanding activities for this year:

Punch—Charles Savage, chairman; Jay George, William Wirt, Mary Schatz, Norene Adams, Kathryn Graham.

Publicity — Joseph Sopko, chairman; Charles Dubbs, George Gera, Nancy Brunstetter, Lois Datesman.

Programs—Aleki Comuntzis, chairman; Sara Faust, Nancy Wesenyak, Richard Grimes, Louise Keyser, and Thomas Bowman.

Policy—George Thear, chairman; Larry Walker, Edward Baker, Walter Bird, Janet Heller, John McDonald.

Decorations — Basil Lynch, chairman; Lucy Jane Baker, Jane Keller, Wilmer Nester, Carl Walton, Louise Lohr, Dorothy Lovett, David Jones.

COLLEGE ENJOYS DRAMATIC SCENES

Dramatic scenes from the operas "Faust" and "Samson and Deliah" were presented at the college assembly recently by the Janet Bush opera quartet. The quartet, which was made up of Janet Bush, contralto; Gordon Hendricks, tenor; Irma Cooper, soprano; and Franklin Neil, baritone, sang the garden and prison scenes from "Faust" and the second act of "Samson and Deliah."

J. B. Farr was the accompanist for the group.

REVEREND STUART GAST TO GIVE COLLEGE BACCALAUREATE

C. G. A. News Releases

At the last meeting, the college council made the recommendation that the profits of the Community Book Store be used to purchase a new station wagon for the use of the college. This recommendation was passed and approved by President Andruss. Next year our athletic teams and delegates to conferences will be able to make use of this.

C. G. A. President's Plaques outside the C. G. A. office will be ordered within the very near future.

Congratulations to Bob Martin, Vice-President of C. G. A., for his foresight in recommending to the Senior Class that a bus load of students go to Harrisburg to set in on the open session of the legislature concerning teachers' pay.

The first meeting of the college council committee considering the management of the canteen and the publishing of the Obiter met and made suggestions which will bring about a definite change in these functions next year. All members agreed that the Obiter should be an all-college year book, finances coming from the C. G. A. budget.

Collections are still being taken in the C. G. A. office for W. S. S. F. funds. Collections to date have been heartening.

Bloomsburg Players Have Busy Evening

On April 21, some of the members of the college dramatic club were busily engaged in presenting programs, one group to the Future Teachers of America and the other to the Woman's Civic Club of Berwick.

The presentation for the F. T. A. was the radio play that was used for a broadcast March 18, over station WHWL. It included a series of episodes on the question of teacher shortage. The script was prepared and presented by the students under the direction of Miss Alice Johnston, although she accompanied the second group to Berwick. The following named persons were in the original cast: Edwin Allegar, Charles Hawk, Edward Maciewicz, Joseph Currilla, Barbara Greenly, Dorothy McCollum, Janet Heller, Barbara Schiffman, Robert Millard, Louis Pecora, Joyce Trigano, Aleki Comuntzis, Robert Llewellyn, Robert Baylor, Leonard Gricoski, Betty J. Anella.

A one-act comedy was presented in the ballroom of the Hotel Berwick by Betty Jane Anella, Esther Sackoff, Rosanna Broadt and Edmund Parkef. It was very well received by the civic organization.

Former Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Here Will Speak on May 25

The Reverend Stuart Gast, rector, St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church, Washington, D. C., will deliver the baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College, Sunday, May 25. President Andruss has announced that the service will be held in the Carver Hall auditorium.

A graduate of the Franklin and Marshall College, The Rev. Mr. Gast received the degree of Master of Arts at the Pennsylvania State College. He is well known in Bloomsburg, having served as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church here from 1934 to 1937. Leaving Bloomsburg, he was named rector of the St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church in the nation's capital.

He has served as member of a number of important diocesan committees and is an honorary canon of the Harrisburg Cathedral. As a member of the Youth Commission, the Rev. Mr. Gast has won considerable attention for his forth-right thinking on youth problems. He served on the faculty of several youth conferences as well as Dean of the Kiski Conference.

The Rev. Mr. Gast spoke during the college commencement activities on one previous occasion, having delivered the baccalaureate here May, 1935.

Audio-Visual Aids Program Is Planned

An Audio-Visual Aids Program will be presented to the visiting teachers Saturday morning, May 3, at the Bloomsburg State Teachers College, while their students are participating in the Fifteenth Annual Business Contest. College faculty and students and townspeople are invited to attend.

The Audio-Visual Program will consist of two parts, an exhibit of Visual Aids Equipment from nine o'clock to noon, and a presentation of two films in Carver Hall Auditorium at ten o'clock.

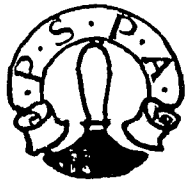

The exhibit will be opposite the Social Rooms in Noetling Hall. The exhibitors will be the Kunz Motion Picture Service, of Philadelphia, and the J. P. Lilley and Son, of Harrisburg.

The program in Carver Hall Auditorium will consist of the following films: "Advanced Typing Shortcuts," a 16mm sound film; "Step Into the Customer's Shoes," a 35mm sound strip film. The J. P. Lilley and Son will project the former and the Kunz Motion Picture Service feature equipment in the projection of the latter.

Character is the joint product of nature.

Maroon and Gold

Published at the Bloomsburg State Teachers College

Member
Associated Collegiate Press

STAFF

Editor ----- Jean Richard
 Editorial Board
 Kay Chapin, Aleki Comuntzis, William Deebel, Eloise Noble, Lois Tompkins
 Business Manager ----- Sara Graham
 Circulation
 Gloria Mainiero, Manager; Nancy Fisk, Alberta Funk, Harold Miller
 Exchange Editor ----- Barbara Greenly
 Advertising ----- James Boyle, Robert Williams
 Art Department ----- Janet Gilbody, Basil Lynch, Al Zimmerman
 Sports Writers
 Millard Ludwig, Editor; Evelyn Pethick, Anne Wright, John Jones, Wayne VonStetten, Cyril Kane
 Editorial Writers ----- Barbara Schiffman, Eileen Drennan
 Feature Writers ----- William Hummel, Barbara McNinch, Helen Wright
 Poetry Department ----- Patricia Dean, Dawn Eshleman
 Photographer ----- Edwin Hoffman
 Reporters
 Anne Baldy, Rosanna Broadt, Robert Bunge, Luther Butt, Robert Eshleman, Shirley Gauger, John Keegan, Rose Marie Kraiser, Jane Livsley, Robert Martin, Ann Papania, Mary Robbins, James Rooney, Mary Rush, Ralph Seltzer, Louise Sharpless, Ruth Shupp, Robert Smink, James Smith, Eleanor Todaro, Russel Williams
 Typist ----- Carolyn Hower
 Faculty Advisers -- S. L. Wilson, Edward T. DeVoe, Harvey Deal, John Hoch

Vol. XV BLOOMSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1947 No. 16

One Can't Win Without the Other

Did you ever attend a track meet—an athletic event where the contestants vie for honors in running, jumping and throwing?

If you've seen such a contest, you remember the relay race—the race in which each side has a group of runners, each one of which runs the course in turn, then passing the baton onto his next team member.

In such a race each member of the team depends upon the other—one can't win without the other—it's all together—or defeat.

Isn't it the same way in our school work? If we want to be successful in our educational endeavors, we have to put plenty of work into our schooling. Work and success are on the same team.

No matter how much mental ability a person may have, he still has to put in plenty of work to make a success of his education.

Work and success are members of the same team—in school—as well as in later life. One can't win without the other!

Ed. Note: A poster covering the above has been placed in the lobby.

When a boy breaks a date he usually has to—

When a girl breaks a date she usually has two.
—Franklin High Post, Portland, Ore.

Bookkeeping Instructor—See here! You entered this credit on the debit side.

Student—Very sorry, sir. I'm left-handed.

"Hello, there, Harry. You're looking better. How's that pain in the neck?"

"Oh, she went to her bridge club for the afternoon."

Huskies Shutout Lock Haven, 2-0

The veteran Lado Savelli stepped to the forefront and turned in a masterful four hit job against Lock Haven as the Huskies racked up a victory in the lid-lifter at the Bald Eagle school last Thursday, 2-0.

Savelli, who did quite a bit of hurling last spring after patrolling right field during the 1942 season, was in complete command. He walked but one man, while striking out six, and only one Havenite got as far as third base.

Score in First

The Huskies started off with a bang in the first frame. Paul Slobozien singled, went to second when Eddie Allegar was thrown out at first, and came home on John Czerniakowski's sharp to center.

The other Husky run came in the seventh. Sal Arduini hit a two and "O" pitch for two bases, went to third on Wayne VonStetten's single through the hole, and came in when Stan Krzywicki forced VonStetten at second.

The Husky defensive play was outstanding. On several occasions the Maroon and Gold lads came up with fielding gems to hold the Bald Eagles at bay.

Bloomsburg (2)

	ab.	r.	h.	o.	e.
Kostellic, cf.	3	0	0	3	0
Slobozien, lf.	3	1	1	2	0
Allegar, 2b.	4	0	1	2	1
Czerniakowski, 1b.	4	0	1	7	0
Arduini, 3b.	4	1	1	3	0
Von Stetten, rf.	4	0	1	2	0
Krzywicki, ss.	4	0	1	2	1
Soth, c.	3	0	0	6	0
Savelli, p.	3	0	0	1	0
Totals	32	2	6	27	2

Lock Haven Teachers (0)

	ab.	r.	h.	o.	e.
Psavcc, ss.	4	0	1	1	1

Huskies Drop Decision To Scranton Tommies

Lewismen Unable to Bunch Hits; Allegar Homers in the Ninth Inning

Held scoreless through seven innings, the Husky nine scored a single tally in the eighth and two in the ninth in a game played recently at Scranton, averting a shutout, but the Tommies took the game, 7-3.

Two Royal pitchers, Gentile and Olshefski, held the Huskies to ten scattered hits over the distance. Six of these safeties came in the first seven scoreless innings, but the Tommy pitchers kept them well scattered.

Allegar's Fourmaster

Eddie Allegar, Benton Tri-County product, smacked out a terrific homer in the ninth, the only extra base swat in the entire game, sending in Clair Mensinger, Mifflinville Tri-County outfielder, with the second tally of the game. The other Husky score came in the eighth. John Czerniakowski drew a pass, advanced on Wayne Von Stetten's rap to center, and came home on Billy Dugan's safety.

The some club picked up a tally in the second on an error and a single and added four in the third by virtue of three walks and two hits. The final pair were registered in the seventh when the Scrantonians exploded for five hits off hurler Leo Carter.

Bloomsburg (3)

	ab.	r.	h.	o.	e.
Kostellic, cf.	1	0	0	1	0
Mensinger, cf.	3	1	1	1	0
Slobozien, lf.	5	0	1	2	0
Allegar, 2b.	5	1	2	0	0
Czerniakowski, 1b.	3	1	0	11	1
Arduini, 3b.	4	0	1	2	0
Von Stetten, rf.	4	0	1	0	1
Krzywicki, ss.	2	0	1	1	0
Dugan, ss.	2	0	1	0	0
Soth, c.	3	0	1	5	0
Diehle, c.	0	0	0	0	0
Remley, p.	1	0	0	1	0
Carter, p.	2	0	1	0	0
Evans, p.	0	0	0	0	0
Berlanda, p.	0	0	0	0	0

Continued on Page Three

Ticcony, 2b.	3	0	0	3	0
Metro, 3b.	3	0	0	1	0
McElhose, cf.	4	0	0	0	0
Wagner, lf.	3	0	0	1	0
xShaner	1	0	0	0	0
Humphreys, 1b.	4	0	1	12	0
Young, rf.	3	0	1	1	0
xxMateczko	1	0	0	0	0
Wanzer, c.	3	0	1	8	0
Potter, p.	2	0	0	0	0
Crook, p.	1	0	0	0	0

Totals	32	0	4	27	1
x—Batted for Wagner in ninth.
xx—Batted for Young in ninth.
Bloomsburg	1	0	0	0	0
Lock Haven	0	0	0	0	0

Runs batted in—Czerniakowski, Krzywicki. Two base hits—Krzywicki, Arduini. Sacrifice hit—Slobozien. Left on bases—Lock Haven 7, Bloomsburg 5. Earned runs—Bloomsburg 2. Bases on balls off—Savelli 1. Struck out by—Savelli 6, Potter 6, Crook 1. Hit by pitcher—by Savelli (Metro). Wild pitch—Potter. Losing pitcher—Potter. Umpire—Pletcher.

NOTES OF THE GAME

John Czerniakowski made a magnificent stop of a sure Lock Haven hit in the seventh which ended a home club rally.

The Huskies made their appearance in new white uniforms trimmed in maroon.

Literary Corner

"A CHANGE OF HEART"

By Louise Lohr

Sally Potter had been a nurse at the General Hospital for the past three years, but she had never had a patient quite like Mr. Hinkel. Sally usually got along splendidly with her patients, but the bed-ridden old farmer in 319 with the high blood pressure was the bane of her existence.

This morning was no exception. Sally tiptoed into the room to see if Mr. Hinkel was awake. He lay flat on his back, his shriveled face peeping over the top of the bed sheet. As the woman in white reached his side, Mr. Hinkel's one eye slowly opened.

"Good morning," said Sally, her good natured face beaming as she drew back the window screen to let in a deluge of brilliant sunlight.

"Humph!" was the reply, "What's good about it? It's gonna rain." With that Mr. Hinkel sat up in bed, drawing the sheets tightly about his neck.

Sally fluffed his pillow into a soft ball and placed it at the head of the bed.

"Oh, I don't think it will rain today, Mr. Hinkel," she said cheerfully as she glanced out the window. "Just look at that sun!"

"You look at it," grumbled the old man, "My big toe itches, and when my big toe itches, it rains."

"Well," laughed Sally, "I guess you don't need an almanac on your farm."

"Huh," he retorted furiously, "I ain't gonna have no farm if I don't soon get out of this dadgummed hospital!"

"Now," warned Sally as she gently pushed him down on the pillow, "remember your blood pressure."

But Mr. Hinkel went heedlessly on, his arms extending like bean poles above the sheet as he feebly gestured with his hands.

"My son ran off five years ago, my wife died, and I ain't got nobody there to care for that farm."

"But Mr. Hinkel," said Sally soothingly, "the hospital is trying to locate your son." She began to give him his morning bath.

"My son—bah!" he roared contemptuously as his fist socked the pillow. "I'm better off without that no-good scoundrel. I was gettin' along good, mindin' my own business, till I got sick, and now my farm is goin' to ruin."

His rage ended in a piteous sob, as he pressed his hands to his wrinkled forehead. Sally finished bathing him in silence. As she started to make his bed, she started another conversation.

"Your friends will take care of your farm, so don't worry," she assured him. "You just rest and —"

"I ain't got no friends to lend a hand, and I don't want nonè!" burst in the old man.

Sally stood with a pillow in her hand and stared at him.

"It's true," he growled. "I've been here three weeks and there ain't nobody come botherin' me yet. Friends ain't no good. Jest trouble-makers. People and I jest don't get along. I LIKE living alone, and I like BEING alone!"

Sally finished the bed, and stood for a moment gazing into the eyes of the old farmer. They were hard, expressionless, cold. Slowly, sadly, she turned and walked out of the room.

Late that afternoon Mr. Hinkel lay in bed, still at war with the world, when in burst Sally, her face wreathed in smiles.

Mr. Hinkel jumped. "See here,

Continued on Page Three

Twenty Survive Final Diamond Cut

Six Hurlers, Two Catchers, Eight Infielders, Four Out- fielders Remain

Twenty men were listed for varsity duty on the baseball team after the final cut recently made by Coach Thomas Lewis, it was announced by Faculty Sponsor John Hoch.

In a practice tilt held recently, Ledo Savelli pitched his team to an easy 10-1 victory. Wayne VonStetten slammed out a long homer, and Paul Slobozien and John Czneriakowski cut loose with smoking triples.

The Team

From last year's team remain two pitchers, Savelli (who also toiled in the Twin-County League) and Mario Berlanda. Reginald Remley, of the Bloomsburg Tri-County team, and Tommy Evans, Watsontown, will give the staff some needed left handed hurling.

The other two are Frank Scatton, who has come along fast in recent workouts, and promises to be one of the mainstays; and Leo Carter, Throop, who did some pitching here prior to the war.

Owen Diehle, Philadelphia, and Ed Soth, Harrisburg, head the catching department. Diehle played here while a member of the V-12 unit.

"Big boy" Czneriakowski is around to take care of first with southpaw Al Rickmers giving a royal battle. Bob McCaffrey came down with malaria trouble again.

Eddie Allegar, Benton Tri-County league player who last year helped make up a seven man team from the same family, seems destined for first string duty at the keystone. Matt Maley is the other guardian of the midway station.

Billy Dugan and Stan Kryzwicki are waging a merry feud at short stop. At the hot corner, Sal Arduini, Jersey Shore, has the position tacked up, but John Thomas is around and may cause some trouble.

Four Outfielders

In addition to Slobozien and Von Stetten, Kostelic and Claire Mensinger, of Mifflinville Tri-County team, will be available for duty. If needed, Savelli, who carried a potent bat, can be used in the outer garden, a position he played in 1942.

MONTROSE BAND PRESENTS PROGRAM

Students of the Teachers College had a chance to hear one of Pennsylvania's finest high school bands last week when the Montrose High School band visited the campus and presented a special program of band music during the college assembly program.

The visiting organization stopped off on its way to York, Penna., where it was competing for class A honors in the annual state-wide contests. The Montrose group recently won the championship of Northwestern Pennsylvania in a district meet held in Kingston.

The students and their leaders were invited to the college by Charles H. Henrie, director of the Maroon and Gold Band.

A new and vastly improved method of collecting class dues will be in effect next year. The Classification Committee, under Dr. North, has presented to the council a plan which will change the present system.

Busy Spring Track Card Is Announced

Penn Relays Next Friday and Sat- urday; Shippensburg Here in Opener

A busy track schedule was announced recently by Athletic Director John Hoch. The card includes three dual meets, all at home, in addition to the Penn Relays and the annual State Teachers College meet.

On the basis of the team's performance at Lock Haven, which was only a practice session for the campaign ahead, the main weakness seemed to be in the distance while the strong point was in the field events.

Kashuba Wins

Matt Kashuba, talented high jump specialist, took it easy and had to jump only six feet-one inch to win that event. The shot put was won by Wayne Thompson with a record of 39 feet, 8 inches. Kashuba finished second in this department.

In the distances, the Huskies lost all five relay races, showing weakness. If the Maroon and Gold expect to finish high in the Penn Relays, much work lies ahead.

George Thomas, Forty Fort, showed signs of brilliance in the dashes. James "Pat" Rooney, varsity performer at Villanova before the war, displayed exceptional promise in the short distances.

When the Huskies line up to meet Shippensburg, here, May 1, they will be defending one of the best track records in the country. In some 26 dual meets, a Bloomsburg team has been unbeaten.

The Schedule

April 25, 26—Penn Relays, at Philadelphia.
*May 1—Shippensburg, here (tentative).
May 6—East Stroudsburg, here.
May 10—State Meet, at Shippensburg.
May 13—Lock Haven, here.
*The Shippensburg meet was tentative at press time. If this meet is not staged, the home opener will be with East Stroudsburg.

"GEE I" WAIT

By A. D. Rickmers

How many times have I looked to see
And failed to find it there
How many times have I opened the box
Only to find it bare.

Who but a Vet could ever know
Of the grief and sorrow I feel
When I rush to the box, unlock the door
And no check does the box reveal?

Tis woe to the one who has a date
With the very best girl he knows
And stops by the box for the money he needs
But still no check it shows.

Oh! the last two weeks of every month
That the veteran collegiate spends
Is two long weeks of waiting
For the check the government sends.

Prof.—What is the most outstanding product that chemistry has given to the world?
Student—Blondes.

"A CHANGE OF HEART"

Continued From Page Two

girlie," he growled sleepily, "remember my blood pressure!"

"Your son is here!" cried out Sally, "and he wants to see you; he—"

"Eh?" exclaimed the old farmer as he sat up with a start. Then, a miracle happened, or so it seemed to Sally. Slowly a faint smile crept over his face, the first smile that Sally had ever seen on the old man's countenance.

"And that's not all," went on Sally jubilantly, "you do have friends, Mr. Hinkel. All the farmers from miles around your home have taken care of your crops and cattle. And guess what else!" She paused for breath.

The old man's mouth hung open. Sally finished triumphantly. "They even cleaned up everything, and fixed over your dilapidated house and barn. They look just like new!" Then softly she added, "Your FRIENDS did that for you, Mr. Hinkel."

The old fellow's lips were trembling. His deep-set blue eyes were dimmed by tears as he looked up into Sally's face. He grasped Sally's plump, ruddy hands in his wrinkled, bony ones, and spoke in a whisper, his heart full of emotion.

"I'm an old fool, blinded by my own selfish ways. I jest hope I ain't too old to prove to those folks that I'm their friend, too."

Both were silent for a moment, and then Sally went to the window and pulled up the shade. The reflection of the setting sun cast a rosy glow into the room.

"There," she said softly, "I knew it wouldn't rain today."

HUSKIES DROP DECISION

Continued From Page Two

xRickmers	-----	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	-----	35	3	10	24	2
Scranton U. (7)
		ab.	r.	h.	o.	e.
Nimmo, rf.	-----	3	1	0	1	0
Rafalko, 2b.	-----	4	0	1	3	0
Genoa, 1b.	-----	2	1	1	6	1
Kunec, 3b.	-----	4	1	2	2	0
Lubowiak, ss.	-----	4	2	1	2	0
Bean, lf.	-----	4	1	2	2	0
Bush, cf.	-----	4	0	1	5	0
Prociak, c.	-----	4	0	1	4	0
Gentile, p.	-----	2	0	0	0	0
Olshefski, p.	-----	2	0	1	0	1
Totals	-----	32	7	10	27	2

x—Batted for Berlanda in ninth.

Bloomsburg ---0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2—3
Scranton ----0 1 4 0 0 0 2 0 x—7

Runs batted in: Bloomsburg—Allegar 2, Dugan. Home run—Allegar. Stolen bases—Mensinger, Bean, Bush, Rafalko. Sacrifice hit—Arduini. Left on bases—Bloomsburg 11, Scranton 7. Earned runs—Scranton 6, Bloomsburg 2. Bases on balls off—Remley 3, Carter 2, Berlanda 1, Gentile 2, Olshefski 2. Struck out by—Remley 2, Carter 1, Gentile 3, Olshefski 1. Hit by pitcher by—Berlanda (Rafalko). Losing pitcher—Remley. Winning pitcher—Gentile.

NOTES OF THE GAME

Eddie Allegar's homer was truly a beauty. It was perfectly placed between the left and centre fielders and rolled to the farthest corner of left center field.

All the breaks seemed to be against the Huskies. In the fifth inning when they had a rally underway, Eddie Soth was hit with a sure single to left off the bat of Carter and was au-

Five Huskies Win Tourney Awards

Chesney, Kashner, Jones, Slegeski, and Arduini Play Good Ball

The Milton YMCA Tourney, which this year came up with a classy brand of basketball, officially brought down the curtain on the 1947 cage season when Sigma Chi, composed largely of Bucknell players, defeated the Huskies in the finals, 58-44.

Frank Haas and Lou Desci scored 34 points between them to pace the fraternity attack. Paul Slobozien got 19 and Bobby Kashner 13 to head the Husky scoring bracket.

Awards Announced

Eddie Jones, who developed into one of the better guards of college basketball during the latter part of the season, won a place on the first team. Frank Haas and Desci, Sigma Chi; Zlock, Phi Mu Delta (Susquehanna varsity); and Snaith, Milton Elks, were the other four to make up the first team.

Bobby Kashner, Husky forward, was named on the second team. Others included Westervelt and Hospidor, Phi Mu Delta, forward and center respectively (Susquehanna varsity); Lose, Barney's (Bucknell varsity); and Von Heil, Sigma Chi.

Three Bloomsburgers, Joe Chesney, center; and Sal Arduini, and Johnny Slegeski, forwards, made the third team. Pfeiffer and Maddock, Phi Mu Delta (Susquehanna), completed the squad.

Chesney Honored

Chesney's 29 points against Wentzler's of Williamsport, gave him the medal for the most points in one game. He finished one marker behind Haas for total points in the tourney. Chesney also received a medal for being the coolest man under fire. Medals for honor players went to Haas, first; Desci, second; and Chesney, third. The Husky Stars won a gold trophy mounted on a wooden base for finishing runner-up in the tourney.

INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET HELD APRIL 17-18

An Intramural Track and Field Meet was held on April 17, and 18, with only a small number of participants. The meet, which was to have representatives from each class, was won by the freshman class with little difficulty.

The freshmen had such performers as "Red" Thomas, who won the 100-yard dash and the 440-yard dash; Dave Jones, who came in second in the 100-yard low hurdles; and Joe Thompson, who won second place in the 440-yard dash.

Only a few upper classmen competed in the meet. Smigel, a sophomore and also a member of the B. S. T. C. track team, won the Mile Run, and Pat Rooney chalked up a few points for the Juniors by winning the 100-yard low hurdles.

Nick Panzetta was the official scorer while Coach Pete Wisher did the timing. Another track meet is being planned and it is hoped that there will be more representatives from the upper classmen.

tomatically out. The rally soon died out after this misfortune.

Local basketball fans will remember this lad Olshefski. He was the left hander who appeared here with the Tommies March 1.

LOOK RECORD REVIEW

TOPS IN WAX—Frankie Carle comes out on the Columbia label with two of his most popular instrumentals — his theme, Sunrise Serenade and the oft' requested, Carle Boogie. Both versions are new and fresh, and made with his own band. It was, Sunrise Serenade that sky-rocketed Frankie to fame while he was pianist with the Horace Heidt band, and the tune has remained his identifying trademark. Here is some of Frankie's most listenable music, Sunrise, as will be remembered, has a complete, relaxed ballad feeling with the Carle piano in his own styling. The Boogie features his piano throughout with the band supplying the background and climaxes.

Frankie Carle

Jordan (Decca); My Love For You, Tommy Dorsey (RCA Victor).

JAZZ FOR COLLECTORS — It Must Be True—Mary Lou Williams and her girl stars, a Quintet, get into a relaxed mood for some good improvisations. A vocal breaks the jazz value, but instrumentally the number is good. Harmony Grits, the reverse, moves along instrumentally, and for this review becomes the strong side (RCA Victor). Other good jazz: Soprano Boogie, Herbie Fields Quintet (RCA Victor); I Can't Get Started, Lennie Tristano Trio (Keynote); T-Bone Blues, T-Bone Walker, (Blue Note).

Mary Lou Williams

VOCAL STANDOUTS — Butch Stone, novelty vocalist and sax side man with Les Brown comes into his own as featured funny vocal man in his debut on a new label: Advance. Butch sings How Big Can You Get? and pairs it with In My Convertible Cadillac. This disc backs Butch with an all-star septet which makes the two titles tops for good novelty and listening. Frank Sinatra offers two romantic ballads, and supported with the music of Axel Stordahl he makes a hit pairing: Why Shouldn't It Happen To Us and I Want To Thank Your Folks (Columbia). Georgia Gibbs takes two titles from the Broadway show, Finian's Rainbow, Necessity and How Are Things In Glocca Morra? and she rates a listen (Majestic). Other vocal worthies—Heartaches, Eddy Howard with his Orch. (Majestic); Far Away Island, Harry Babbitt (Mercury). —Sam Rowland

DANCE—M-G-M, a new label makes it's debut with the band of Jimmy Dorsey. Jimmy digs into his file of styles and makes a repeat of the old Green Eyes treatment and applies it to the popular revival Heartaches. Vocals are shared by Bob Carroll and Dee Parker. Here is a refreshing J. Dorsey. For the reverse he plays, There Is No Greater Love with Bob Carroll vocal. Among the theme releases, Claude Thornhill issues his own, and also instrumental, Snowfall. On the reverse, he adds another instrumental, Autumn Nocturne. This a mood, with Thornhill piano opening backed with his band and unusual reed and horn instrumentation. Two ace sides! (Columbia). Among the moods—a new Duke Ellington, the second of his Musicraft releases, Magenta Haze, an instrumental, which features the alto sax of Johnny Hodges. On the backing, Duke plays Tulip Or Turnip, a quiet jumper with vocal by Ray Nance. Recommended new releases: Old Devil Moon, Gene Krupa (Columbia); We Knew It All The Time, Vaughn Monroe (RCA Victor); Someday Sweetheart, Joe Liggins and the Honeydrippers (Exclusive); Open The Door Richard, Louis

Jimmy Dorsey

NEW AND WORTHY IMPRESSIONS IN WAX—

- I'M IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE (Vocal) Monica Lewis (Signature)
- WHAT GOOD WOULD THE MOON BE? (Dance) Freddy Martin (RCA Victor)
- THE WORLD IS WAITING FOR THE SUNRISE (Jazz) Sammy Benskin Trio (Blue Note)
- I'M YOURS (Vocal) Mel Torme (Musicraft)
- BRAHM'S LULLABY (Vocal) Bing Crosby (Decca)

THE SPORTS DIARY

By MILLARD C. LUDWIG

Bloomsburg State Teachers College athletic teams are fast becoming one of the best dressed units in collegiate circles. The baseball team will take the field against Shippensburg in the home opener, Saturday, April 26, decked out in white flannel uniforms trimmed with maroon with giant numbers appearing on the back.

The track team also will display a sparkling appearance this spring, the togs consisting of bright gold running pants and jerseys. As for football, those long awaited jerseys and pants have finally arrived. One set consists of bright gold jerseys with fourteen inch pro size numbers and maroon knit pants. The other set is composed of maroon jerseys with gold numbers and gold satin pants.

According to reports from other schools, the Huskies during the past basketball season presented one of the most attractive teams in the state with their gold warm-up pants trimmed with maroon. From the various teams we observed this ran true-to-form. Few schools could top the Maroon and Gold clad team in appearance.

A well dressed athletic team is one of the basic requirements in establishing morale. The average sports fan appreciates an organization dressed neatly with the school colors properly displayed. It gives the school a certain air of which any loyal supporter can be proud. An attractively-dressed unit demonstrates to the fan that the school is proud of its team. And last but not least, the athletic team represents the school. If the team is well dressed, the school is "well dressed" too.

The annual college athletic dinner will be held Tuesday, May 13, at 6:30, at the Elks Home. Guests will include varsity lettermen, the college administrator, and members of the athletic committee. Harry L. Lawrence, coach at Bucknell, will be the speaker.

William Horvath, varsity letterman on the 1941 Husky tennis team, has been appointed intramural tennis director and has lined up an interesting card for the spring. A tournament will be held with prizes awarded in the various departments. The racquet-wielding sport is always popular, and possibly some good material will be uncovered for future tennis teams if and when the Huskies return to the court game.

Shippensburg's Red Riders, who were here last Saturday, defeated a strong Indiana team, 3-2, recently, in a pitcher's battle. A single by Reed Ernst in the ninth inning pushed across pitcher Norman Warful with the winning marker.

The National and American Leagues have opened and the many sports writers went back to their old method of picking the 1946 winners as repeaters this summer. Of course that's probably the safest way for a scribe to save his neck, for over a period of years his percentage for picking winners is bound to be higher if he picks the champions of the previous year. But it's tiresome to the reader.

"The Sporting News," national baseball weekly, lists the American loop this way: 1. Boston; 2. Detroit; 3. New York; 4. Cleveland; 5. St. Louis; 6. Chicago; 7. Washington; 8. Philadelphia (another prediction to bring up the averages, so the pensmen say). The National predictions look like this: 1. St. Louis; 2. Pittsburgh; 3. Chicago; 4. Boston; 5. Brooklyn; 6. Phillies; 7. New York; 8. Cincinnati.

We're prejudiced. That's one of the obstacles almost impossible for a writer to hurdle. The New York Giants, a cellar-dwelling club last year, found their hopes drop when Whitey Lockman came up with a fractured fibula. The Ottmen, however, still have the rookie crop of the league with such boys as Ayers, Jansen, McGowan, Gearhart, Lajeskie, and Hartung trying to win their spurs. Frankly, we see the Giants higher than seventh place.

The Pirates are picked to make the most progress, jumping from seventh to second. They have added numerous players well along in years, but several are stars still able to turn in creditable showings. Men like pitchers Bonham, Bagby and Mulcahy; catcher Clyde Klutzz; and Hank Greenberg are examples. Most observers figure the Phillies higher than sixth. They have made few additions, but all have been valuable transactions. Pitchers Lou Poschl and Dick Koecher, both rookies; catcher Don Padgett; first baseman Lou Finney; and outfielder Buster Adams all should help the Phils.

Off-hand, we would say Eddie Miller's return to activity should bring Cincinnati's finishing position up about two. Miller, according to the records, is the greatest fielding short stop in history. Manager Johnny Neun is a happy man now that "Vest-pocket" Eddie is once more in the fold.

The Boston Braves may be the team to give the Cards a battle. With a manager like Billy Southworth at the helm, the tribe promises to be a fighting ball club. Just to be different, we're going to pick them this way: 1. St. Louis (O. K., take it easy); 2. Boston; 3. Chicago Cubs; 4. New York; 5. Phillies; 6. Cincinnati; 7. Pittsburgh; 8. Brooklyn. The Dodgers are an "IF" club. They could become a fighting ball team as was the case last year even though the material wasn't there. Though we don't like Durocher, it must be conceded that he did a good job.

Boston's Red Sox in the American are bound to be a contender. They sent down to their farm clubs numerous rookies who could play in the majors right now. In our mind, Cleveland should give the Sox plenty of trouble with one of the finest infield combinations in the majors backing up a strong pitching staff. Detroit's pitching will give them an edge in that department.

ALL- COLLEGE TOURNAMENT

Instead of intercollegiate tennis this year, there will be an all-college tennis tournament. As soon as the weather permits, the tournament will get underway. Final news will be given in assembly.

FREE DANCE MAY 9

The C. G. A. free dance will be held on May 9. Bob Millard, chairman of the Social Committee, is at this time contacting orchestras. Al Zimmerman is in charge of decorations.