College Band Sports New Duds

The band this year is better than ever. Forty-four students are enrolled and they make a striking picture as they march down the field in their new uniforms.

These new uniforms are of maroon whipcord material with gold trimmings. The majorettes uniforms are also of a maroon whipcord bodice and a white whipcord skirt. The Press has commented quite favorably on the appearance of our band as it marches. It is said to make the best appearance of any State Teachers College band.

The first appearance of the Band this year was at the Mansfield-Bloomsburg game in Kingston. They also played at the Lock Haven game, at the pep meeting in the Centennial Gym, and at the Homecoming Day Broadcast in Carver Hall Auditorium on Thursday. They then played at the Homecoming Assembly Saturday morning and at the football game between Shippensburg and Bloomsburg last Saturday afternoon. They marched in the Hallowe'en Parade downtown on Monday night. On November 1, the band, twirlers, and cheerleaders will accompany the team to Kutztown State Teachers College. And on November 8, they will play at the East Stroudsburg-Bloomsburg game which will conclude the activities of the marching band.

On November 10, the Concert Band will form at which time it is desired that any students who wish to play in the Concert Band will come out for practice. It is particularly desirable that more clarinet players make an appearance.

At Homecoming the Shippensburg band members will be the guests of our band in the dining hall for luncheon and dinner. This is in return of

Camera Contest Underway

Rules and Regulations of Campus Contest Listed

By noon Monday, we would like to have the results of your photographic attempts. The best picture of campus interest will be published in the next issue of the Maroon and Gold.

Here are the rules:

1. The contest is open to all students and faculty members. We request that those who have had commercial experience refrain from entering.
2. Maroon and Gold staff members are not eligible.
3. Pictures must be snapped by the individual submitting. They may be developed personally or commercially.
4. Pictures for each week's judging must be in the Maroon and Gold office no later than noon, Monday.
5. Pictures will be judged as to subject matter, composition, form, lighting and artistic qualities.
6. Pictures submitted are to be taken in relation to BSTC campus and/or activities. This provision may be changed later.
7. Prizes will be awarded as follows: 2 rolls of film (to fit your cameras) for the best shot, and one roll of film for the second best. The grand prize for the picture of the year will be $5.00; a second prize of $2.00 will be awarded the second best picture.

It is suggested that good pictures are the result of good subject matter. For the novice, the best word of advice to be passed along is, "hold your camera steady, and be patient."

Columbian Club Gives Hallowe'en Party

The Columbian Club combined its monthly meeting with a Hallowe'en party on Wednesday, October 29, at 8:00 P.M. in the basement of the St. Columbia Church at the corner of Third and Iron Streets. Approximately sixty members with their guests attended and enjoyed games, dancing, and the refreshments which were served. The basement was decorated in bright fall colors which were appropriate for the occasion. A juke box provided the dance music.

This organization, made up of one hundred college students, has the following officers: Jack Donnelly, president; Joe Kulick, vice president; Nancy Wesenyak, secretary; and Tony Paulmeno, treasurer.

Chances for Immediate War Are Slim

The splitting of the world into two distinct spheres of political and economic influence, which is now in progress, does not necessarily mean immediate war. As a matter of fact, this condition does not even demand war within a decade. Why not? Militarists refer us to the balance of power—the theory that two nations with equal ability to wage war will not enter a military conflict because neither can achieve a clean-cut victory. Despite political tension, this is the case of the United States and Russia.

Neither of these nations possesses an offensive superiority capable of penetrating the geographic and military defenses of the other. Therefore, war will be delayed until weapons are invented which will guarantee complete victory. Scientists of both nations are consequently working at break-neck speed to win the race of warfare development.

At this point, perhaps it would be well to review the potentialities of these two major powers. Russia boasts an army of greater manpower, however her navy is insufficient to dominate the oceans which separate her from the United States. Russian air power is also too weak to penetrate U. S. defenses. On the other hand, the United States commands the seas, but at present, its army is greatly reduced from that of World War II days. Although the United States possesses the atomic bomb, no means of getting through Russian defenses have yet been devised.

Thus, unless some premature stimulus comes into being beforehand, the next world conflict must wait for scientific development to break the prevailing deadlock.

"I Shoulda Stood in Bed"

It was a bright Monday morning, but even this would not invite Horatio Bilge out of bed. "Mmm, I wish I could stay here forever," he thought, but there were many things to do. Horatio admitted very unwillingly that he would not get anything done in bed. So Horatio tumbled out and began to get dressed. When he was almost through shaving, Dick, his roommate, came tearing in. "Horatio," he exclaimed, "you remember the other day when you were imitating 'Birdie'—I mean Miss Mason? Well, she heard and, worse than that, saw you."

"Oh-oh-oh," groaned Horatio, "No! No! This couldn't happen to me!"

"Well, it has," Dick replied.

Horatio also remembered that this morning he had a class with Miss Mason, a stern bit of spinsterhood, who never seemed to understand Horatio and his ability to answer incorrectly. "Oh well," he said, "must be going. If I am to ever be a career man, I must be going."

On his way to Miss Mason's class, he vowed that he would really try to win his way into her heart. After all, she had been a teacher at Smithmore for forty years, and there must be something good about her for them to keep her so long. Entering the class room, he gave her his sweetest smile and, much to his surprise, he thought he detected a smile hovering about Miss Mason's lips. He acquitted himself in her class very well, probably due to the fact that he wasn't called on to recite.

Just before dismissal time, Miss Mason said she would like to see him after class. Cold sweat poured from him and chills ran up and down his spine as he anticipated the subject they would soon discuss. Just at that moment when he had pulled himself together, he noticed that the rest of

"Horatio," Miss Mason began, "since you are one of the strongest boys in the class, there is a favor I would like to have you do for me." There on the floor lay a large plank, and Miss Mason asked him to take it to the caretaker's office.

"Oh boy!" thought Horatio, "Here's my chance. The old girl really likes me and if I can impress her this once, maybe she will give me a good mark."

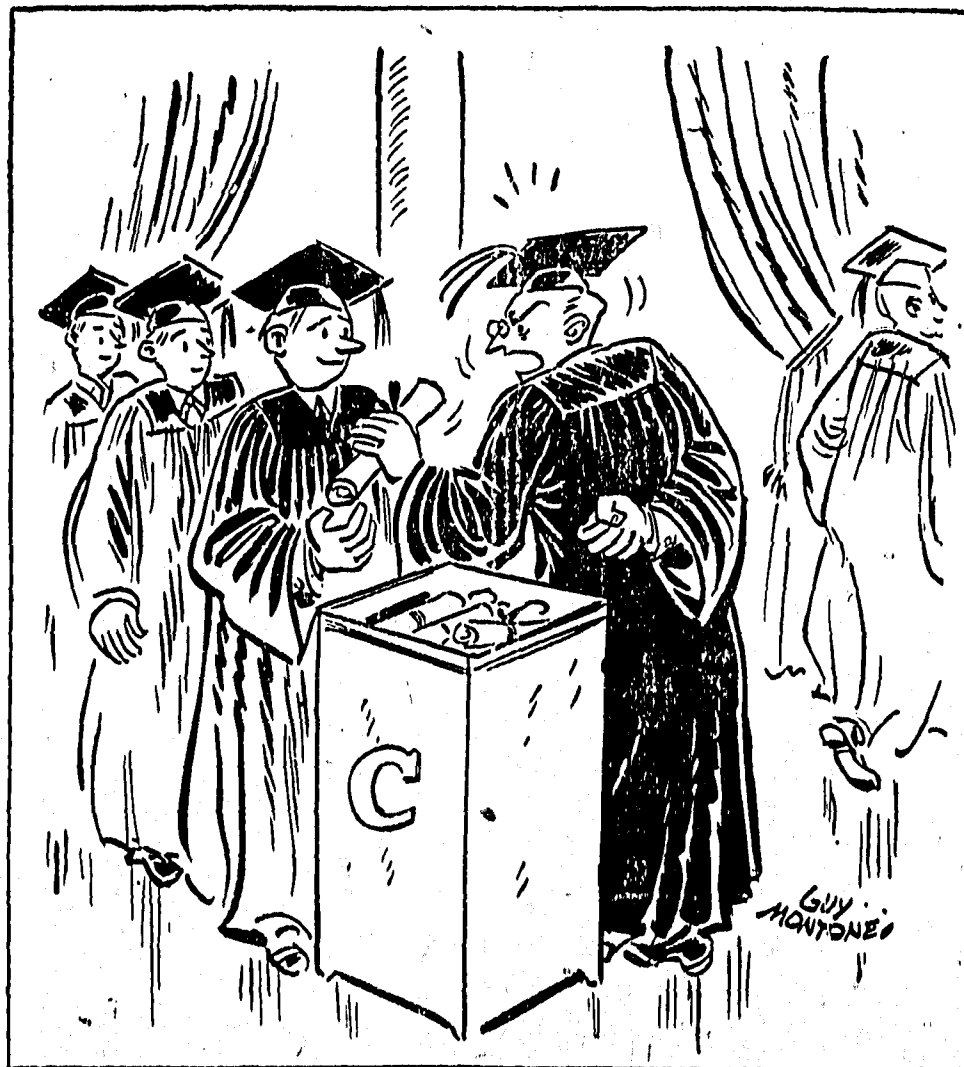

Picking up the plank, he gustily swung it up on his shoulder. Horatio slowly turned around and dared to look. There on the floor lay Miss Mason screaming. Horatio immediately bent over to pick her up, but he forgot about the plank and dropped it in her lap. Just then the Dean of Men happened by.

"Oh - Oh!" Horatio exclaimed, "I shoulda stood in bed!"

Husky Eleven to Try for Fourth Victory After Dropping Homecoming Tilt 12-19

Rodgers scores. The St. Gabriel High product went over from the three yard line after nine plays in the first period of the Homecoming game.

Kutztown Golden Avalanche Fresh from 33-0 Win Over Trenton Teachers

As a result of a one sided win over Trenton Teachers last Saturday, Kutztown's Golden Avalanche remained a threat to the Husky eleven, in quest of their fourth conference win today at the Berks county school.

The charges of Coach Walter P. Risley, who were Homecoming Day victims of the Huskies last year by a 19-0 score, will be out to avenge that stinging loss today. In the victory at Trenton, a deadly passing attack, with Lawrence Motkowski doing most of the pitching, proved the death knell to the New Jersey lads.

Ira Fake and Alph Novick did most of the catching, and they will be a threat to the Huskies this afternoon. The Redman crew, remembering the Shippensburg aerial display, will be ready to meet the Kutztown attack. Last year the avalanche reportedly had an airplane offensive cooked up for the Huskies with Doug Batdorf doing the heaving, but it did not materialize.

Although Kutztown has failed to gain a conference win in three tests, they have a veteran eleven from last year's squad, which upset a strong Millersville team in the last game of the season. Lock Haven swamped the Golden Avalanche, 48-6; Shippensburg turned the trick, 28-6, and Mansfield was victorious, 40-6. In the Shippensburg game, halfback Leroy Heckman, of Hamburg, ran a kick-off back 80 yards for a touchdown.

The Huskies will be all out for this one, not taking anything for granted, regardless of the fact that Kutztown has not shown much in conference battles to date. They are pointing to the Trenton clash in which five touchdowns were recorded. By winning this game, the Redman crew can improve their standing in the conference and at the same time be certain of finishing the season not lower than the .500 mark.

A chartered bus is to accompany the team, and Husky fandom is to be well represented.

Red Raiders Win In Second Period

Shut out by Slippery Rock the previous Saturday and kept from paydirt by the Huskies during the first quarter, Shippensburg State Teachers College cut loose with a three touchdown assault to beat the Huskies, 19-12, before a Homecoming Day crowd of 3,000 at Athletic Park last Saturday.

The Red Raiders, who are loaded with football talent from all over the commonwealth, concentrated their offense for the afternoon into fifteen minutes of a touchdown display which will be remembered for years to come.

They made 8 of their 11 first downs, 54 of the 102 yards rushing, and 151 of the 172 yards passing in that fatal second period. All three scores came as a result of passing with Ben Russ, former Harrisburg Catholic High star, somewhat duplicating Matt Maley's feat against Lock Haven.

During the first fifteen minutes of play, the Huskies looked like the

Purple and Orange Bring Strong Soccer Team

Lincoln U. Team Extended Bloomsburg in First Meeting of Two Opponents

The clever Lincoln University soccer team will visit Mt. Olympus this afternoon in the town's only sports attraction of the day. Kick-off time is slated for 2:30 P.M.

In a previous engagement two weeks ago at Oxford, the Huskies came through with a thrilling 2-0 victory, but only after playing a fast brand of ball the entire distance.

Lincoln, which has on its squad many African players from Nigeria, boasts a tricky, ball-handling array of stars led by the center halfback, Naochiri, who was in on the majority of the plays in the first meeting between the two schools.

Huskies Ready

Indications are that the Huskies will be at full strength for the clash, although there remained some doubt as to whether or not Owen Diehl, big center forward, would be available for duty. Diehl has missed the last three games due to a knee injury.

Led by fullback Johnny Magill and goalie Leroy Henry, the Maroon and Gold boast of a strong "last-ditch" defense, which has kept the enemy from scoring during the last ten quarters.

Halfbacks Glenn Phillips, Pat Rooney, and Claire Mensinger have been playing bang-up ball, and the line play has been nothing short of sensational. A last minute switch may send Phillips in at inside right with Doyle Johnson taking left halfback.

The Huskies have a record of three wins, two ties, and one loss and are anxious to improve that with a victory today and at the same time improve their EIL rating.

With the Maroon and Gold playing such a high brand of ball and due to the fact that Lincoln is a drawing card, a large crowd is expected to be on hand today for the clash.

Booters Win Over Elizabethtown 3-0

A powerful Husky soccer team continued its surge toward national recognition by defeating Elizabethtown College, 3-0, on Mt. Olympus last Saturday in the morning feature of Homecoming Day. The tussle was witnessed by the largest crowd ever to see a soccer game on the hill, and the grads who came back to get a glimpse of the Maroon and Gold booters, who are improving with each game, liked what they saw.

Elizabethtown puzzled the Huskies no little in the first period with a queer type of defense, most of the men remaining within the penalty area when the Maroon and Gold had the ball. Shot after shot was pushed aside by Frankie Keath, the visitors' goalie.

Red Raiders Win In Second Period

team of destiny as the Maroon and Gold rooters went wild. Many couldn't believe their eyes, for they scored twice within the first ten minutes of play.

The Huskies got the ball on the Red Raiders' 43. In nine plays they were over for a score. Bernie Rodgers, of St. Gabriel's, carried the ball on six of the nine plays and went over from the 3. Fans had nicely settled in their seats when this happened.

After the kick-off Shippensburg failed to gain and kicked. From the Red Raiders' 49, the Husky juggernaut again rose to great heights, requiring only seven plays to make it with Jimmy Reedy and Billy Dugan doing most of the carrying. The last play, a beauty, was a pass from Maley to Elmer Kreiser good for eleven yards to make it 12-0.

Shipper Attack Starts

With Bloomsburg fans wondering just how much the Huskies would beat Shippensburg, and with the Red Raider players digging in and slapping each other on the back, the Huskies again kicked off.

Starting from their own 21, they unleashed a terrific offensive. Ben Russ cut loose for 19 and then hit Vern Collins with a pass on the Bloom 36. Two running plays failed, but Russ shot a bullet down the middle to Collins, who lateraled to big Jeb Stewart on a beautiful play. The big boy lumbered over for the score. John Russ' attempted conversion was blocked by the hard charging Husky line.

When Shippensburg again gained possession of the pigskin, they struck with fury. Ben Russ completed two passes, one to Collins, and one to Jack Hopper, to put the ball on the Husky 13. Then he heaved one down the middle to Collins, but Don Snyder batted the ball away. However, Johnny Russ gathered it in for the second touchdown. The conversion again failed, and the score remained 12-12.

Russ Passes Again

The Huskies appeared ready to launch an offensive when Ben Russ intercepted a pass. Hopper, a lightning halfback, scampered through for 16 yards. George Buflap, a left handed passer, fooled the Huskies with his southpaw antics and threw a pass to Hatfield, the Negro star, on the 23. Then he propelled another to Hatfield, who took it as he dived across the goal line on a beautiful play. Johnny Russ added the point from placement, and that concluded the scoring for the afternoon.

In the last quarter, Shippensburg started another drive. From their 31 they moved to the Husky 14 with the clock ticking away precious minutes of time. The Maroon and Gold defense bolstered, and they took possession.

Steve Kriss, out of action most of the afternoon because of an injury, picked up 4, and Matt Maley got a first down on the 33. He then gained 7. Kriss failed to gain, but Wayne Von Stetten passed to Georgie Paternoster for a first down on the 50.

A jump pass, Von Stetten to Ed Jones, was ruled complete on the Shippensburg 40. Reedy and Kriss each got 4. Maley made it a first down on the Red Raiders' 28. The Husky rooters went wild, for it was the first time since the opening period that the Bloomsburgers had threatened.

Kriss got 3, and Von Stetten passed to Jones for a first down on the 9. The Raider defense then put on a sparkling exhibition. Reedy and Kriss each lost 2, and Maley was spilled on the 21 when he couldn't pass. Maley's pass was then intercepted by Stewart, and Shippensburg held the ball when the game ended.

Booters Win Over Elizabethtown 3-0

Near the end of the first period, a high bounding kick came in toward the Elizabethtown goal. Neil Dent beat Keath to the ball and headed the oval into the net. The remainder of the first half saw the Wishermen bombard the invaders' goal but to no avail.

Third Period

Midway in the third period, the Huskies put the game on ice. On a corner kick by Ludwig, the ball was headed through on a beautiful play by Glenn Phillips, the "flying dutchman" from Dalmatia.

With the score 2-0, Coach Wisher made some changes in the line-up, but the Huskies scored again. Royal Conrad lined a boot toward the goal. It glanced off Luther Butt, of the Huskies, and an Elizabethtown defender to go between the crossbars, making the score 3-0.

Once again the Husky defense turned in a neat job. Led by Johnny Magill, who is playing his fourth year at fullback, and Leroy Henry, the cat-like goalie, the Maroon and Gold lads have kept the opposition from scoring during the last ten quarters.

Frosh Show Ends Orientation Program

The Freshman Class of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College presented a variety show as a feature of the regular college assembly program held today in the Carver Auditorium.

The show, an annual event, concluded the Freshman Class orientation activities, and was broadcast over Station WCNR, Bloomsburg, at 2:30 p.m., Thursday afternoon, under the supervision of Miss Alice Johnston, faculty director.

The program was under the direction of Edward T. DeVoe, faculty adviser, with Barbara McNinch and Edward Allegar as student coordinators.

Robert Holman acted as master of ceremonies, while Gay Polutis accompanied the musical numbers. Robert Llewellyn was the student director assisted by Betty Ann Buck who directed the music.

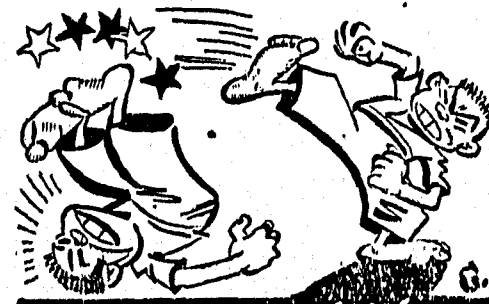

The following program was presented: Accordion solo, Thomas Kopetski; tap dance, Maxine Shirey; vocal selections, Frank Dean; recitation, Eloise Symons; Can Can Chorus, Norma Fehr, Gertrude Shade, Norma Eber, Carmela Tarole, Janet Friedman, and Elsie Kardos; beauty shoppe quartet, Marian Lake, Eloise Symons, Marjorie Brunner, and Delphine Buss; vocal selection, Marian Lake; impersonation ("Andrews Sisters"), Frank Konderchek, John Aimetti, and Andre Vanyo.

THE SPORTS DIARY

MILLARD C. LUDWIG

Homecoming Day was a success from an athletic standpoint, although the Husky eleven lost out to Shippensburg in a thriller, 19-12. The grads were well pleased with the display of the gridiron sport the Huskies are producing this year, and they were also delighted that the Maroon and Gold soccer team came through with a victory over Elizabethtown College.

Much discussion about the calibre of teachers college football has caused the big time sports writers to sit up and take notice this fall. According to the observations we have been able to make and from reports gathered through other methods, the majority of the teachers colleges rank with many of the best small colleges. This writer saw the Bucknell-Delaware game a few weeks ago, and on that particular afternoon it wouldn't have been too difficult for the Huskies or any of the better teams in the conference to take either school into camp.

The West Chester paper not long ago came out with an article to the effect that the Philadelphia papers had been snubbing the Rams—although the Killinger crew boasted of an undefeated record and had beaten several of the colleges in the suburban area; West Chester might have something there, but the Rams over a period of years have received more publicity than all of the other teacher colleges combined.

One method has helped the situation considerably. Each week Associated Press releases an article discussing the week's results and carrying official standings of the teachers college conference race. This is promoting interest among fandom and is binding the conference into a stronger union.

One noticeable weakness of the conference still remains, but it will probably be corrected in a year or two. West Chester, East Stroudsburg, and Slippery Rock each play but three games within the conference—not enough to warrant any title which they might receive. Due to the fact that football schedules are made years in advance, these schools were powerless to book more conference tiffs this year. However, they are going to be required to do so in the near future.

The Husky team, despite its second defeat of the year, looked good last Saturday. Line play was outstanding with the Red Raiders being held to a total of 63 net yards on the ground. Pass defense seemed to be the weakest point, and the Maroon and Gold will have to brush up in that department, especially against East Stroudsburg. Another department which will stand quite a bit of improvement is the extra point attempt. The Maroon and Gold have successfully converted but three of fourteen possible extra points this year. The Mansfield game was the difference between a tie and a defeat.

Coach Peter Wisner's Husky booters are blossoming into something of which the school can be proud. Defeated but once in six games, and that a close 2-1 loss, the Maroon and Gold eleven will attempt to make it four in a row today. The victory over Elizabethtown College was sweet revenge, for just five years previously the visitors spoiled Homecoming Day with a 2-1 overtime victory. The 3-0 win on Saturday saw the down staters no match for the Huskies, who are improving with each appearance.

Not wishing to point ahead too far, the Maroon and Gold booters, however, are looking forward to their visit at East Stroudsburg, Sat. Nov. 8. Because this is the Huskies' first year as a member of the Eastern Intercollegiate League, it will be hard to obtain a very high rating, but by winning over the Big Red the feat could be accomplished, for the Pocono school ranks high in the EIL standings. Right now, however, the Huskies have enough to worry about with Lincoln University this afternoon.

Spirit is a dominating factor in the success or failure of any athletic team. Anyone connected with the Wisner squad knows that they rank second to none when it comes to team spirit. Time after time key men have been on the injured list, yet the squad continued to play a high brand of soccer. Substitutes filled the open spots most capably, and the team continued to win. With such enthusiasm present, it's hard to keep such an aggregation down.

According to official figures released early this week, West Chester is at the top of the heap in the mass-standings of all colleges and universities in the commonwealth. The Rams have a composite record of six wins without a defeat. Slippery Rock is in fourth place with four victories and a tie, that deadlock resulting last Saturday when supposedly weak Fairmont, W. Va. held the Rockets to a scoreless stalemate. That game prevented the Rockets from being one of the nation's 32 undefeated, untied football elevens.

Tied for seventh with Muhlenberg is Shippensburg, with four wins and a single loss. Mansfield ranks tenth with three wins, one tie, and one defeat. The Huskies are tie for fourteenth with four other schools—Lehigh, Thiel, Lafayette, and Temple. Lock Haven is tied with Villanova for nineteenth position, each with three wins, two losses, and a tie. East Stroudsburg and Lincoln are in the range 31 position, Edinboro and Clarion are 37th, and Kutztown is 43rd.

Associated Press is already picking out some of the teachers college stars, having mentioned several in the weekly release. Matt Maley was one of those listed. Others included Carlozo, West Chester; Tuffel, Lock Haven; Carlson, Indiana; Ben Russ, Shippensburg. It is certain that the conference will be represented this year in the all-state selections, and it won't be surprising if a few first team spots go to the teachers colleges.

Turning to other fields for a moment, Columbia's defeat of Army's Black Knights last week was described by Coach Earl Blaik as not a piece of luck. He claimed that Gene Rossides was one of the best passers he ever saw and that end Bill Swiacki ranked on his list as the best. Coach Lou Little has again come up with an outstanding passing star in Rossides. First it was Sid Luckman, then Paul Governall, now Rossides. He didn't play against Yale and Penn, both games resulting in losses for the Lions. Blaik went on to add that the pressure was now off, and the boys could settle down to ordinary football.

Orange Blossom Department

Graduates and students of B.S.T.C. kept the wedding bells ringing overtime this summer. Here are a number of those who took the fatal step:

Graduate Vance Laubach, of Berwick, married Miss Jean Cameron, of Mount Union, on June 29th. Vance was, at one time, captain of the Huskie football team. He is now instructor in Business Education and Aeronautics at the Waynesboro Senior High School.

Miss Melva Kocher, of Light Street, another graduate, was married to Dr. LeRoy Heller Wintersteen of Danville this June. The bride is at present a faculty member at the Hughesville High School.

Herman Kuster, Jr., of Bloomsburg, a member of last year's Freshman class, married Miss Marian Lindemuth of Catawissa. The couple are now residing in Bloomsburg.

Miss Effie Jean Patterson, of Shamokin, a graduate, was the bride of Leslie B. Gore, of Traverse City, Mich., on May 29th. Mrs. Gore is now teaching in the Allentown public schools.

Alumna Mary Longo, of Sheppton, was married to Paschal P. Pratico, of Schenectady, N. Y., in June. The bride was a member of the faculty of the Sheppton High School.

Miss Ruth Hartman and Hervey Thomas, both of Orangeville, were also married this summer. Both attended B.S.T.C. Mrs. Thomas is now a teacher of Commercial subjects in the Berwick High School, and the groom is employed by H. B. Law and Son in Orangeville.

Miss Freda Pearl, graduate of Bloomsburg R. F. D. #4 became the bride of Reed Raymond Bowman of Stryker, Ohio, on June 28th. Mrs. Bowman was an elementary teacher employed by the Center Township School District.

Miss Katherine Greenly, of Montoursville, who attended B. S. T. C. for three years, was married to James Eugene Winters also of Montoursville.

Graduate Hazel O'Brien of Benton was married to Joseph Davis of Brooklyn, N. Y. At present she is teaching at Gillette, New Jersey.

Carolyn Livsey and G. Edward Deily, both of Bloomsburg, and both graduates of B. S. T. C., were married in July.

Miss Ruth Brandon, of Berwick, married H. Drue Kinney, of Nescopeck. Mrs. Kinney is a teacher in the Shickshinny schools.

Miss Betty Zehner, a graduate, from Sugar Loaf, was married to Francis Dietrich of Philadelphia on August 9th. The couple are now living in Philadelphia.

Elmer Kreiser, Columbia, a member of the class of '51, was married to Jean Felch, also of Columbia, on August 23rd. Both are now living in Bloomsburg.

Wayne Von Stettin, Columbia, a member of the Sophomore Class, married Margaret Beck of McKees Rocks, Pa., on August 23rd. They, also, are residing in Bloomsburg.

Veteran's Corner

Are you getting deficiencies? Are you discouraged? Do you wonder if school is worth while? You're ready, chum! Remember the recruiting office is down at the court house. Just think — join the army and see the world. Travel, education, experience, high pay, rapid promotions—all these are offered by the U. S. Army.

Who knows, you might become another Patton, an Eisenhower or a Sad Sack! (most likely). And don't forget — only twenty years and you can retire with a pension and live the life of a gentleman. You may choose your theater of operations—you can go to Europe and see the places you read about—Paris, London, Berlin, or you can go to Japan and Korea, eat rice, drink sake, and see all the mysteries of the Orient. Sign up for as long as you desire—one, two, or three years. Join now! Do it today!

Editor's Note: Our writer just couldn't resist the temptation to plug the Army Recruiting Program. His love for the Army still lingers in his mind as something out of this world.

A total of 51,273 World War II veterans are in Veterans Administration hospitals today.

Almost 230,000 disabled World War II veterans are now in training under the provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act known as Public Law 16.

VA officials estimate the number of living veterans and members of their families will reach a peak of more than 62,000,000 by 1952 or 43 per cent of the nation's population.

Gamma Theta Upsilon

The Delta Chapter, Gamma Theta Upsilon, made its reappearance on Homecoming Day, October 25, 1947, when five old grads put twelve aspirants over the coals. Dr. H. H. Russell is the faculty advisor and sponsor for this organization. It was through his efforts plus the cooperation of the students that made reactivation possible. The primary aim of Gamma Theta Upsilon is to further the study of geography.

Dramatic Club Try Outs

The Dramatic Club's try-out committee has chosen twenty-four promising students as new members of the organization.
