Maroon and Gold

State Teachers College, Bloomsburg, Pa.

Volume XXIX

Bloomsburg, Pa., Friday, May 11, 1951

Number 19

In the Glamour Spotlight . . .

Pictured above is lovely Liz Patton who was among the twentythree attractive co-eds who participated in the fifth annual Spring Fashion Show.

New Spring and Summer Styles Are Featured at Annual Fashion Show

Placement Bureau Releases Data On Employment

According to the Placement Bureau, ninety four per cent of the 1918 graduates in the eighteen year-period from 1931 to 1948 have been employed. The Bureau, headed by Dr. Ernest Engelhardt, has released placement information released placement information concerning graduates of the Class

Several business students have secured employment in fields other than that of teaching. Gerald Bacon is employed by the Sylvania Electrical Products Company of Towanda; Rita Dixon is a government stenographer in Washington, D. C.; Charles Kraemer is working at Sears and Roebuck in Blooms-burg; Charles Lockard is employed by the A&P store in Muncy; Carl Persing, by the J. C. Penney Co. in Hanover. Walter Zorn is serving in a stenographic capacity for the (Continued on page 4)

Town Merchants & Retail Selling Classes Cooperate In Staging Colorful Event

An exciting review of spring and summer fashions was presented in Carver Hall Auditorium on Friday, May 4, when the Retail Selling classes of Bloomsburg State Teachers College presented their fifth annual fashion show. Exciting new shades of orchid, green, red, and tangerine were combined with new styles and interesting Applications of styles and interesting variations of old favorites in the collection of wearing apparel from the stores of Bloomsburg. Featured in the show were afternoon dresses, date dresses, picnic and square-dance dresses, afternoon cottons, spectator and active sportswear, bathing suits, pajamas and negligees, hats, and evening gowns. The dresses showed many new styles in linen, cotton and cotton sheers, shauntung, and

Most notable among the fashions were the revivals of the duster and the large, wide-brimmed hat. (Continued on page 4)

Alumni Association Of Columbia County Organizes 'Ten Club'

At the annual dinner of the Col-At the annual dinner of the Columbia County Branch of the Bloomsburg State Teachers College Alumni Association, held in Berwick on April 2, 1951, Edward T. DeVoe, the president, was authorized to establish what is hoped to be a long-range scholarship program for worthy students at RSTC.

It was agreed at the meeting that each Columbia County graduate should be asked to contribute ten cents per year for each year which has elapsed since the time of his or her graduation from the college up to the present year, with a minimum contribution of

Here is how the plan will work in actual practice. If an alumnus in actual practice. If an alumnus is a recent graduate of B.S.T.C., in 1946, for example, his contribution will be $1.00. If he or she were graduated in 1931, the contribution will amount to $2.00. If the graduate belongs to the class of 1897, his contribution will be based on fifty-four years of alumni membership and will amount to $5.40. The assumption is that older graduates benefited yearly from er graduates benefited yearly from the training they received at their Alma Mater and that they are in a better financial position than the neophytes. If all Columbia County Branch members join the "Ten Club", the scholarship fund should be adequate for at least a decade

Payment of contributions will automatically qualify a Columbia County alumnus for membership in the "Ten Club". Recognition of such membership will be made in the Alumni Quarterly through the cooperation of Dr. Elna H. Nelson, president of the Alumni Association, and Howard F. Fenstemaker, editor of the alumni magazine.

Dr. Kimber C. Kuster, a member of the Science Department and a Columbia County alumnus, has accepted the chairmanship of has accepted the chairmanship of the scholarship committee. All contributions should be addressed to Dr. Kuster, in care of the college. The chairman will have a free hand in the distribution of these grants in aid and will give these grants-in-aid and will give a report of receipts and expenditures at the annual branch din-

The next dinner meeting of the group will be held next fall in the college dining room through the courtesy of Dr. Harvey A. Andruss, president of the college. An effort will be made to hold the dinner on an evening when an outstanding number of the evening entertainment program is being

Overflow Crowd Applauds May Day Festivities Held on College Campus

Europe Bound

Richard Kressler

Richard Kressler To Leave June 16 On European Tour

The date is quickly approaching when one of the members of the B.S.T.C. student body will embark upon a summer of study and service in six European nations.

It was with great honor to himself and his college that Richard N. Kressler, popular Senior Class President, was chosen as one of twenty students from the United States and Canada to participate in a European study-service project and conference sponsored by the Lutheran World Federation during the summer of 1951.

Dick will leave from New York on June 16 and will travel to England, France, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, and Germany. At pres-ent, he is busily preparing for his departure. Shots for diptheria, typhoid, typhis, and small pox must be obtained and a passport must be arranged.

Dick looks forward eagerly to meeting the people in the countries he will visit and to seeing just how conditions on the contin-ent actually exist. He is especially interested in visiting Norway and

More and more students will join Dick's group as they travel through Europe until a large caravan will finally assemble in Germany. Approximately ten to fourteen days will be spent in each nation visiting institutions of the Church, and observing the life of the community and university.

During the tour Dick will undergo a basic study program. It will include Bible study, and a study of the life of the Church in Europe and the world. He will be expected to give time and effort toward bringing the richness of our demo-cratic traditions and way of life to the students of all nationalities with which he will travel.

American students on the trip will need to forget the discomforts of the places in which they may stay, overlook the difference in food, forego having special privileges, leave behind griping, egotism, indifference, and thoughtlessness.

At all times, the group must remember that one American who is thoughtless and too self-centered to know what will be an offense can undo the impression that one hundred Americans have created.

Dick expects to return back home again by the last week in August. At that time he will journey to Michigan to attend the convention of Lutheran Students to be held at Interlocken.

Diane Snyder Reigns as Queen During Gala Annual May Day Presentation

Bloomsburg State Teachers College observed its annual May Day on Wednesday, May 9.

Festivities began with a concert by the Maroon and Gold Band, under the direction of Mr. Charles Henrie. The entrance of the May Queen took place at 2:30 P.M. The Senior Girls, dressed all in white and carrying a garland of greens, formed an aisle through which the procession passed.

Leading the group were the Herald, Lee Hinkel, and Crown Bearer, Louise DeVoe. Flower bearers from the first grade of the Benjamin Franklin Training School prepared the way for the Queen's Court: Mary Ann Alarcon, Nancy Powell, Elvira Thomsen, Martha Bronson, Helyn Burlingame, Beverly Cole, Ruth Doody, and Mary Jane Dorsey. Pages held the veil of lovely Diane Snyder, who was crowned Queen of May by Anthony Grabowski, President of the Community Government Association.

The program, entitled 'A Holiday Panorama," began with a group of travelers who were leaving a travel bureau. The program showed various holiday celebrations throughout the world.

The first scene was in an art gallery, where the travelers watched a picture of gromes come to ed a picture of gnomes come to life. In the dance were Marilyn Evans and Kitty Mitchell, who also did the choreography for their modern dance.

The next visit was to a zoo, where the kindergarten enacted bees; the third grade did a clever "monkey dance," with the boys in monkey suits and the girls in pina-

In historic old Williamsburg, the fifth grade girls performed a min-

The gala Mardi Gras, in New Orleans, showed the Fourth Grade girls, in lovely orchid ballerina costumes, doing a graceful dance with balloons.

In the Wild West our travelers saw a rodeo, with the Fifth Grade boys portraying cowboys with whirling lariats.

Abroad the first stop was in Holland, where the Second Grade danced in blue breeches and white Dutch bonnets.

In Germany, the Sixth Grade girls entertained with a graceful and beautifully-executed dance to the Blue Danube waltz.

The mountain-climbers of Switz-(Continued on page 4)

B.S.T.C. Will Be Host to Educators At June Conference

On June 22 and 23, Bloomsburg State Teachers College will be host to a summer group discussion conference by the Pennsylvania Branch of the National Association of Secondary School Printing

This workshop conference has now been held at B.S.T.C. for a number of years. Bloomsburg is one of several centers at which such conferences are held. At a meeting of the steering committee meeting of the steering committee for the affair, three basic problems were chosen for group study from a possible list of fifteen. These problems are: What is right with our schools? What should be the cooperation relationship between teacher and principal? How can we improve the teaching of basic skills? skills?

Mr. Leon C. Bubeck, principal of Forty Fort Junior and Senior High School, is chairman of the conference. Dr. E. H. Engelhardt will act as coordinator and will represent our college.

The conference will begin on a Friday morning at 9:00 A.M. The participants will stay here overnight in order to meet again early the next morning. At the conclusion of the conference, a formal luncheon will be held at which a summary of accomplishments will be presented. Later in the year, an editing committee will send an annual report out to all the members of the association.

Participate in Presentation of Scholarship Awards

. Four B.S.T.C. freshmen are shown above with those who made the presentations of the $50 awards at a recent assembly. They are (from the left) front row—Miss Jeannette Traver, Tunkhannock, R. D.; Miss Louise Reinhart, president of the Bloomsburg Branch, AAUW; Miss Antoinette Czerwinski, Mount Carmel; back row—Howard F. Fenstemaker of the college faculty; Keith A. Smith, Pittston, R. D. 1; William Carson, Mount Carmel; and Dr. Kimber C. Kuster of the college faculty and chairman of the College Scholarship Committee.

Maroon and Gold

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY AND FOR THE STUDENTS OF BLOOMSBURG STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Co-editors—Marie B. Mattis and Merlin C. Beachell Editorial Board—Harry Fenstermacher, Priscilla Abbott, Samuel Yeager

Business Manager—John Burns News Editor-Alfred Chiscon Feature Editor -- Marilyn Evans Sports Editor—Harry Brooks

NEWS STAFF

Mildred Pliscott Shirley Search

FEATURE STAFF. Anna Bittner Dot Cedor Dolores Doyle Ann Gengenbach Calvin Kanyuck Max Kaplan

Alfred Chiscon Nancy Heebner Nan Kelly John S. Laidacker Mildred Mervine Laura Philo Shirley Reisenweaver Mary Lou Todd Harriet Williams David Jenkins

Nancy Powell Robert Price Jacob Slembarsky Thomas Rowley

ADVERTISING STAFF

Robert Burns Mike Dorak Eugene Adami Jean Newhart Margaret Shoup BUSINESS MGR.

John Burns G. I. MAIL

Jenne Ruckle Dick Kressler exchange Staff

Betty Hell Edna Keim CIRCULATION STAFF Mary Kallenbach Martha Stiner Jeanne Wallace Gloria Mazetti Alex Boychuck Edward Kapsack Helen Ann Thomas

l'ony Ciampi

Bill Fisher George Williams

Jimmy Johnson Bill Kline Jerome Kopec Gene Morrison Phil Weinstein Bill Byham

SPORTS STAFF

ART STAFF Phil Search, Ed. Chuck Andrews

PHOTOGRAPHERS Dick Knause Keith Smith

TYPISTS

Robert J. Lewis Pat Penny Maxine Shirey Jean Skeeba Kenneth McAnall Marie Miller Janet Price James Ferdinand

Which Side Are You On? . . .

'Which side are you on?" Americans, who by nature and experience think of only two sides in any contest, ask this question of Nehru, leader of the people of India. After a recent conference with the enigmatic prime minister, Harold Stassen, in the May issue of LADIES' HOME JOURNAL, gives his impression of Nehru — Man in the Middle.

Now sixty-one years of age, Nehru was imprisoned on nine different occasions for a total of eight years and fifty-one weeks for his work in the Indian campaign for independence from Great Britain. During these years, Nehru was strongly attracted to the Soviet Union and Communism as it was practiced there. After noting the developments in the Balkans after World War II, however, and observing the violent and subversive role of the Communist Party in India and other Asiatic countries, Nehru was fully disillusioned.

"During my visit to New Delhi," says Mr. Stassen, "I found him to be not only thoroughly alert to the evils of Russian Communist imperialism, but fully aware that a campaign of passive resistance would be ruthlessly crushed by Russian Communism. He well knew that passive resistance could be effective only against a nation such as the British, a nation with a moral code and a restraining public opinion. It is clear, therefore, that he, and India with him, intends to resist - actively and effectively - all Communist threats from within or without.

Five of the most acute problems of Nehru's India are represented by these five words: land, water, babies, cows and capital. In the solving of these problems, much depends on the future relationship between India and America. "I strongly believe," concluded Mr. Stassen, "that if we in America once realize that Nehru and his country are and will be neither close friends to us nor distant opponents, neither an echo of America nor a voice of Moscow, and then develop a policy toward them that accords full recognition of their third position, trmendous good will result for the people of both countries."

"Go West, Young Man . . . "

The following letter was recently received by Dr. Andruss from Joseph Putera, a graduate of B.S.T.C., who is now teaching in Conrad, Montana. Throughout the letter the young instructor reflects his genuine love for the teaching profession:

You may be interested in hearing from a former student so I will tell a bit of my experiences here.

"I teach in a little 'White' School House and have eight 'problems' to take care of. Four are Polish Displaced Persons who came here in late November. I started with six in September; two of the original six left here in March.

"It has been a great privilege to guide the Polish pupils through their first year of American life. Their progress has been rather good, although at first I believed they'd teach me more Polish than I would teach them English.

"The highlight of our year was the "Christmas" program. This was devised by my pupils for the benefit of one hundred adults and children who crammed themselves into our building. The pupils recruited me to play in two of the plays on the program. Someone forgot to provide a pillow with the result that I was the skinniest Santa Claus in existence.

"If any Social Studies and English Majors at school are worried about placement in Eastern schools, it would be advisable for them to seek employment in the West. There is more chance for employment in these fields here.

The rural schools are usually rather remote from town. I am quite lucky to be thirteen miles from Conrad.

Living facilities, on the whole, are quite good, since teachers are provided free of charge. I have a cozy, two-room teacherage. It is electrified and contains an electric range, oil heater, and enough furniture to take care of one's needs.

However, applicants should be certain that any rural school they ask for does provide these facilities. I have seen schools in more remote sections of this county where the teacherages are not electrified and, in my opinion, uninhabitable.

The cost of living is somewhat higher than in the East. Such things as the price of cars, dry-cleaning, laundry, gasoline, tires, and clothing are much higher.

There is not as much commercialized entertainment here, as there is in the East. People must make their own entertainment, and it has been my experience that this form of group participation is a good deal more satisfying than the mere attendance of a per-(Continued on page 3)

Speaking of . . OPERATIONS

by Calvin Kanyuck and Max Kaplan

Anybody who says he isn't a hypocrite is a damn liar. It isn't a question of whether we are or are not; it is a question of how deep we have sunk into the muck. Right from infancy, we begin to learn the tricks of the trade; it's an integral part of our training. And as we grow older and wiser, and become more and more inhibited, more and more artificial, we learn better and more efficient methods of hypocrisy. We are not content with deceiving others. Our final and ultimate degradation is the deception of ourselves; and we go to our graves attempting to deceive the very God Who gave us life.

Here and There . . .

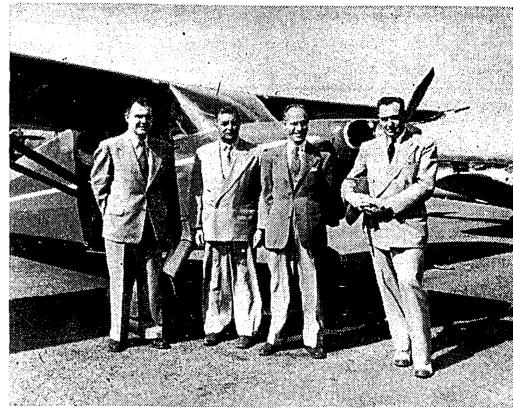

We have it, from usually reliable sources, that "Mouse" Canouse is going to take the course of least resistance in the near future.

We learned, belatedly, that Thomas Klopp, mastering his Master's at Bucknell, swore off the evil influence for Lent. Tom is going to try again next year . . . Chatted with Al Stimeling at the Orchard Street Building in Berwick. Al says he's on the wagon, and looks it. Maybe the future Mrs. S. has something to do with it? Al claims he's having a great time teaching—really enjoys it. We expect he's storing up material for literary speculation. Who knowscomes a few years hence, we may be reading "The Schoolroom Saga" or "Ten Days in a Classroom" by King Alfred the Stimeling . . . Upstairs from Al, in room 9, Mr. Leonard DePaul speaks softly and big, and it "ain't no" stick—just a moderate-size paddle. Wielded in the capable hands of "Teddy" De-Paul, two of these instruments of the conservative school of pedagogy have had their backs broken in the line of duty. Bernie, a progressive at heart, describes the reversion to conservative tactics as a "felt need." He related for us a for instance in the school-day in the life of his fifth grade mental

Flying Profs . . .

Left to right — Mr. Earl A. Gehrig, Mr. William B. Sterling, Mr. Clayton H. Hinkel, Mr. Edward T. De Voe.

Instructors Fly to Ed. Conference in Stinson Cabin Plane

Three Business Education Instructors recently traveled by air to the Pennsylvania Business Educators Conference held recently in Norristown. Mr. Sterling, pilot of the Stinson cabin plane in which the flight was made, Mr. Gehrig, and Mr. Hinkel made the ninety air mile journey in a brief fifty minutes. Mr. DeVoe, English instructor at the college, also went along for the ride.

Proving the efficiency of air travel, members of the conference from Williamsport were forced to leave by car for the conference as early as 5:00 A.M.

On the return trip, the group sighted a. forest fire, which Mr. Sterling immediately reported to the proper authorities.

midgets. One of the inmates hurled a clock across the room. "Why did you do that?" asked the patient keeper. "I wanted to see time fly," replied the cherub. Happy paddling, Bernie. Fashion Notes . . .

We attended the fashion show last Friday eve. Operation stars go to everyone connected with it. Nancy Swartz did a super job as M. C. Her voice is the answer to an advertiser's low sales account. Mayhaps she took lessons from boy-friend speech correctionist, Ed Tavalsky? . . . Although admission to the show was free, such a motivating program was presented that pocket-books are already shedding moth-balls. Mrs. K. has a couple of dresses in mind, not to mention

(Continued on page 4)

Mr. Edward DeVoe Engaged in Filming Children's Classic

During the past few weeks, Mr. Edward T. DeVoe, popular English instructor at B. S. T. C. has been busily engaged in directing the filming of a well-known children's classic.

With the cooperation of the Benjamin Franklin Training School, various faculty members, and downtown residents, Mr. DeVoe plans to have the final film approximately twenty minutes in length. Mr. Arthur Kramer, projectionist at the Capitol Theater, is doing the actual shooting of the film, which, by the way, will be in full color.

Under the assistant direction of Mrs. William Beckley, the characters in the movie will be portrayed by students at the Training School. Included in the cast are Teddy Charlton, Vincent McEvoy, Bruce Shoemaker, Steve Ohl, Charles Birck, Ross Baker, Dick Patter-son, Paul Fahringer, Jack Ralston, David Kahler, Sherman Colbert, Jimmy Kuziak, Terry Frazier, Naoma Eble, Frances Fest, and Patricia Hitchens.

Mrs. Charles Beeman is art advisor of the film. Needing a background of Gothic architecture for part of the movie, Mr. DeVoe chose the First Presbyterian Church in downtown Bloomsburg. For another scene, this time with a dark dungeon flavor, the basement of Waller Hall was found more than suitable, with its earthen floors, dark low side partitions, and general musty atmosphere. Still another shooting took place in the back firetower of Carver

Students Attend Student Gov. Clinic At Muhlenberg

Clare Davis, Elaine Gunther, Irene Cichowicz, Dick Powell, Sam Yeager, and Hank Marini, of the college National Student Association Committee, attended the Stu-dent Government Clinic which was held at Muhlenberg College on April 27 and 28. This clinic was one phase of the work the N.S.A. is undertaking in its efforts to better acquaint student govern-ment with its responsibilities to the college community.

Panel discussions were conducted on such subjects as: disciplinary problems, publicity techniques, voting procedures, and student government in civil defense.

Among the speakers present were Ted Perry, of Temple University, who was formerly National Vice President in charge of Student Affairs; Bob Kelley, St. Petersburg, New Jersey, former National burg, New Jersey, former National President; George Howitt, an expert on Student Government and a graduate of Muhlenberg College and Lehigh University; Dean Seidle, Dean of Men at Lehigh University; Dean Mercer, Dean of Men at Muhlenberg College; and Dr. Tyson, President of Muhlenberg College. Dave Long, President of Student Government at Muhlenberg, was general chairman in charge of the clinic.

The panel discussions were supplemented by small group discusplemented by small group discussions where everyone had an opportunity to present any of his major governing problems for advice. Sam Yeager, chairman of our N.S.A., was see of the sixteen chosen to serve as a discussion leader.

(Continued on page 3)

N.S.A. Committee

Pictured are members of the N.S.A. Committee who recently attended a conference at Muhlenberg College. Seated are Clare Davis, Elaine Gunther, and Irene Cichrwicz; standing, Dick Powell, Sam Yeager, and Hank Marini.

Daddy's Boys and KP's Still Lead in Intramural Softball

With the first half of the intra-mural softball season already finished and the leagues working on the leadoff games in the second portion, we find that Daddy's Boys, in the National Division, and the KP's, in the American Loop, are still maintaining their respective

The KP's were idle during last week's play, but Daddy's Boys kept setting the pace by trouncing Ferrilli's Follies. 9 to 1, in a game played on Monday, May 7. They had previously slaughtered the same club by a score of 24 to 2, on Tuesday, May 1.

The other games played in the National League saw the Outcasts wallon the Rejects twice, in a doubleheader played Thursday. May 3, by scores of 17 to 4 and 19

Over in the American Loop, B-R was victorious over the Scott's Frat outfit in two games run off May 2 and May 7, by scores of 19 to 5 and 7 to 4 respectively. These were the only games played in this league during the past week.

The standings of the teams at present are as follows:

1
American
Team	Won	Lost
KP's	3	0
B-R	3	- 1
Coalers	1	2
Scott's Frat	0	4
National
Team	Won	Lost
Daddy's Boys	4	0
Outcasts		1
Rejects	1	3
Ferrilli's Follies	0	4
The men's tennis on	d hore	achna

The men's tennis and horseshoe tournaments began on Tuesday, May 8, under the direction of student managers Gene Morrison and Johnny DiRico.

The individual winners of the tennis playoffs will be found on a basis of a single set, while in the horseshoe tourney the individual winners will be those contestants winning 2 out of 3 games in each individual meeting.

Makowski Pitches Huskies to 8-4 Win Over Kutztown

Kulpmont's Clem Makowski posted his second straight victory as he applied the pressure when it was needed, to pitch the Huskies to an 8-4 win over Kutztown State Teachers College at Kutztown on Saturday, May 5. Makowski was touched for ten safeties, but headsup fielding and some tight pitching kept the Kutztown runners from denting the home rubber.

The Huskies opened fast, as lead-off man Dave Linkchorst worked a walk and scored on Dick Hummel's smash to left. Hummel was thrown out trying to stretch his hit for extra bases. Mike Evans clubbed a double but was left stranded. They added two more tallies on three safeties in the third. Hummel, Don Butler, and Evans produced successive singles, driving two runs across the plat-

In the fourth, the locals added another as Glosek doubled and Dick Ledyard singled him home. This gave the Husky baters a 4-0 lead at the end of the fourth.

"Robbie's Rovers" rolled for two more in the fifth inning and drove starter White from the hill; Feeser held them in check for two innings. In the fifth, Dick Hummel got on as Sukeena, enemy third sacker, booted his grounder. Don Butler then tripled to left and "Greek" Lambrinos squeezed But-ler home with the Huskies' sixth run. Thompson walked, stole second, and scored on Linkchorst's double to right. The final tally was added by Lambrinos, who doubled and scored when Feeser overthrew first on Glosek's hopper to the mound.

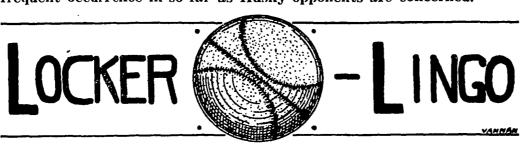

Makowski gave up two runs on two hits in the sixth and the same in the seventh as he weakened momentarily. Seven of the ten hits given out by the lefthander were divided between Dux, lead-off batter, and Snaith, first-baseman. The latter had four for four, including a triple, a double, and two singles.

Bloomsburg Linkchorst, 3b Hummel, 2b Butler, cf Evans, 1f Lambrinos, c Glosek, rf Thompson, ss Ledyard, 1b Makowski, p	ab 4 4 5 4 5 4 3	r 122011100	h 1222 110 10	0 1 1 3 4 8 0 3 8 0	1 3 0 0 1 0 3 1 2	© 000000000000000000000000000000000000
Totals	36	8	10		11	ĭ
Kutztown	ab	r	h	0	a	0
Dux, 2b SuKeend, 3b	4 3	0	3 1	2 0	1 2	1 1

Round Tripper!

Don Butler, the Huskies' hard slugging outfielder, crosses home plate after blasting out another home run which has become an all too frequent occurrence in so far as Husky opponents are concerned.

by Harry Brooks

The Husky baseball squad has now pulled their diamond record up to an enviable 8-2 chart at this writing. The Scranton game of more than a week back, was a real thriller from start to finish despite the strong winds. It marked the second time this year that the Redmen have dumped two fine Pennsylvania universities. The other was Temple, earlier in the season. The Huskies journeyed to Lock Haven on Wednesday of this week to meet that rival school. In the home opener of the campaign, Buck Byham bested the Bald Eagles 8-4. Tomorrow afternoon, the Maroon and Gold nine trek to Mansfield for a return engagement with the Mountaineers. In the initial battle on Mount Olympus, the RSTC househad a tough time of it, but same through with a thril the B.S.T.C. boys had a tough time of it, but came through with a thrilling 4-3 victory. During the week, the Huskies will again take to the road to meet Kings College's Monarchs, who also fell on Mount Olympus by the score of 4-3. By the looks of the schedule, the Redmen might be in for a rough week, but the team has been improving steadily with each fray, so they should be up for the games. In addition to the consistently fine mound work of Big Buck Byham, 'Don Kearns and Clem Makowski have been doing more than their share to keep the Maroon and Gold slate envisible. slate enviable.

Player of the game . . . . Clem Makowski was the outstanding player in the Mansfield tilt of May first. The Huskies won the battle but it was only because Clem, who was often in trouble, consistently fought his way of tough situations to record his first win of the season.

The whole team deserves a vote of congratulations in their victory over Scranton University a week ago Thursday. After they fell behind, and trailed 6-3 going into the last inning, the Huskies put on a terrific rally to dump the Scranton nine by the score of 7-6.
The battery of Clem Makowski and George Lambrinos get the vote as the players most valuable in the Kutztown tilt last Saturday. Clem recorded his second win of the season and George, guided this new found hurler into pitching the win.

Coach Shelly's vastly improved track team will journey tomorrow to Shippensburg to compete in the State Meet. Several fine cinder teams throughout the state will be represented in this affair, somewhat comparable to a miniature Penn Relays. On Monday, the Husky tracksters will hang up their shoes for another year after they travel to Bucknell to meet the Bisons in the last encounter for the year. This is the first meeting between the two rival schools in an intercollegiate sport for many years. In the past, both teams have met on the practice gridiron and the JayVee basketball Bisons and Huskies have fought consistently for years

Intramural tennis and horseshoes began this week with a large field competing in the two sports . . . softball is going on as usual with the second half getting under way . . . despite the chart appearing in last week's paper of the averages and records of the baseball team, Clem Makowski does not have a pitching loss at this writing. He has two victories . . . Tennis courts are getting tougher to get all the time so don't you think it's about time that someone restrict them for strictly college use. After all, that is one of the things that our fifteen dollar activities for gets us! activities fee gets us!

"Go West, Young Man . . . "

(Continued from page 2)

son at a theatre, concert, or any such form of entertainment where a person usually knows few, if any, people.

"I have gone hunting in the Rocky Mountains, and I hunted pheasants with the neighbors in the immediate area. There are house warmings, baby showers, card parties, skating parties, and other such homely affairs going on all the time. We often gather together to play ball when the weather is good, or we take motor trips to see places of interest.

Probably the most important factor in favor of the West is that the people here are a warm, friendly and kindly sort of folk who try to make you feel that you are a person of worth . . . a sharp contrast with the rather formal and off-standish atmosphere that characterizes the Eastern seaboard in general.

Very truly yours, Joseph J. Putera."

Brey, 3n Boyer, c Gehris, lf Zyde, cf	0 4 4 4	0 0 1 2	0 0 0	1 3 6 0	1 0 2 0	0 0 0
Sndith, 1b Seiger, ss Sdwiki, rf Bardley, rf White, p	4 5 3 2 2	10000	42000	10 2 2 1 0	0 3 0 0 2	10000
Feeser, p	2 .	Ŏ	ŏ	ŏ	ĩ	ŏ
Totals	38	4	10	27	12	3

Students Attend

(Continued from page 2)

This clinic proved to be the largest regional convention ever held in the country, with 32 colleges and nurses schools represented. Other state teachers colleges indicating their interest in N.S.A. were Millersville and West Chester.

Lock Haven Teachers Even Year's Series by Dropping Huskies 11-5

Ninth Inning Rally Gives Huskies 7-6 Win Over Scranton

Bob Redman's Huskies rallied for four runs in the ninth inning on a windy Mt. Olympus, to defeat Scranton University 7-6.

In a game played under most trying conditions imposed by the stiff wind and rain in the late stiff wind and rain in the late innings, the College had to come from behind twice. Scranton jumped off to a two-run lead in the opening inning and held it until the fifth when the Huskies went

The Royals came back with four runs in the eighth and then gave wav before the Husky ninth-inning rally.

Four walks, an error, and singles by Dick Hummel and Mike Evans dotted the ninth inning. Evans' single brought home the winning run.

Don Kearns went the route for the winners, pitching creditable ball except in the first and eighth innings when the visitors had the slender righthander in trouble. It was the seventh victory in nine games for the Huskies.

ab r h o a e

Scranton

Slactish, ss

Shea, 2b Tulley, c Neuman, cf Romanko, lf Downey, 1b Kopa, rf Zinsky, 3b Russin, p Berger, 3b Surgon, p Savage, p Totals	4 3 4 4 4 1 4 2 0 34	112100000006	0 0 1 2 0 2 0 1 1 0 7	6 2 3 11 0 0 1 0 0 26	0 0 2 2 1 0 0	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Bloomsburg	ab	r	h	0	$\mathbf{a}$	$\mathbf{e}$
Linkehorst, 3b Hummel, 2b Butler, cf Evans, lf Lambrinos, c Glosek, rf Thompson, ss Ledyard, 1b Kearns, p a—Steinbach Levan, c Totals a — Walked f Scranton	5 4 3 3 4 4 3 0 35 or Ko . 200	1 0 7 ear	0 0 8 ns	5 4 1 10 0 0 1 27 in	0 1 0 1 0 2 0 9 nini	0 4 th.
Bloomsburg			10		)4 —
RBI—Linkchon Evans, Stein Downey, Newn 3B Linkchorst, man, DP—Slac ney, BB—Kear age 1, Surgon Russin 2. LOF U—Klutz and	bach nan. Butl tish, ns 4, 1. S	, I 2B ler. Sha Ri O - S.T	Ron Sea a ussi L.C.	nan Rom B— and n 3	ko nank -Nev Do . Sa	2, to, w- w-
X7 1 777			,

Yanks True to Form As Majors Develop Some Surprise Teams

As of May 5, after nearly a month of play, the major leagues have developed some surprises, while in other cases stars and teams have developed according to plan. St. Louis is the surprise team in the senior circuit as they currently lead the league. Although their offensive power hasn't been too great, they have received considerable aid in the pitching department in rookie Tom Poholsky and veterans Harry "the Cat" Breechen and George Munger.

In the American League, the perennial Yankees are in first place, with Cleveland and Washington a close second. The Yankees have once more established themselves as the team to beat.

In the individual starring department in the national league Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson leads the league in batting, with a .415 average. Behind him are Pete Costiglione of Pitsburgh, 410, and Grady Halton of Cincinnati, with 373. Robinson also leads the league in hits.

Andy Pafko of the Cubs has 18 RBI's with Robinson second with 17, and Sam Jethroe of Boston with 16. Gil Hodges leads in the home run department with 8, folowed by Jethroe, 6; third are Snider and Pafko with 5 each.

In the American League, Jim Busky, of Chicago, leads the league with a .441 mark. Following him are Easter (Cleveland), .423; Minoso (Chicago), .394; Carrasquel (Chicago), .371; Coon (Washington), .335 ton), .335.

The Brownies' Ray Coleman leads with 15 RBI's, with Jensen, Moren and Doerr having 14 each. Jensen, Williams, Doerr, and Coleman and the state of th man each have four home runs.

These listings are up to and including the games played Saturday, May 5.

Triple Play Executed; Byham Loses First; Butler Hits 3 for 5

The Huskies lost their third game of the year on Wednesday at Lock Haven. The score was by a convincing 11-5 count. The Mar-oon and Gold nine, who have lost all three games on the road, were in the game until the sixth inning then the Lock Haven power began to assert itself.

Lefty Bill Byham, who was making his first start since he was injured, absorbed the loss, his first of the year. Don Kearns relieved Byham in the seventh but was no more effective than Byham had been.

Hard-hitting Don Butler again showed the way for the Husky hitters as he pounded out three singles in five attempts. Little Jimmy Thompson who contributed a triple and a single was the only other Husky to garner more than one hit. The Husky offense had one of its poorest games of the season as they totaled only eight

The picture play of the game was made by Jimmy Thompson in the eighth inning with men on first and second. Thompson pulled down a vicious line drive, dashed over to second, and threw to Ledyard at first for a beautiful triple-play.

Linkchorst, 3b 5 1 1 1 1

ab r h o a e

Hummel, 2b Butler, cf Evans, lf Lambrinos, c Glosek, rf Thompson, ss Ledyard, 1b Byham, p Kearns, p a-Steinbach Totals	4 5 4 5 4 4 4 3 0 1 39	0 1 0 0 0	2 0 0 0 0	0	2 0 0 3 0 3 0 1 0 10	000000000000000000000000000000000000000
Lock Haven	ab	r	h	0	$\mathbf{a}$	e
Powlus Sundstrom, 2b Morgan, 3b Henry, c Johnson, If Suereth, If Crook, rf Leitzel, ss Murphy, cf Gehman, ss Fuhrerl, p Totals	5434404311433	$\begin{array}{c} 2 \\ 0 \\ 0 \\ 1 \\ 1 \\ 0 \\ 2 \end{array}$	0 3 1 0 1 4	191013	0 0 0 1 0 2 5	1 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0

a-Grounded out for Kearns in the

B.S.T.C. . . . . 100 300 010— 5 L.H.S.T.C. . . . 120 003 32x—11 RBI-Butler, Evans, Thompson, Sundstrom, Powlus, Henry, Johnson, Fuhrerl 2. 2B — Henry 2, Evans. 3B — Linkchorst, Thompson. TP—Thompson-Ledyard. BB —off Byham 1, off Fuhrerl 1. SO—Fuhrerl 6, Byham 9, by Kearns 1.

Members of College Council and Guests Attend Banquet

Loser-Byham.

Members of the College Council and several guests attended a banquet in the American Legion on Monday evening, May 7. Following the turkey dinner, a brief address was delivered by Anthony Grabow-ski, retiring president of the Com-munity Government Association.

The dinner is an annual affair held for College Council members. The College Council includes in its membership the officers of the Community Government Association; the president and a woman and man representative of each class; the presidents of the four day and dormitory organizations; the editor of the college newspaper; the Deans; and the directory of the beans; and the directory of the dir tors of the business, elementary, and secondary departments.

and secondary departments.

The dining room was appropriately decorated for the event. A floral adornment hung from the center of the ceiling; cakes, decorated in maroon and gold and bearing the note "Welcome, B.S.T.C.," were placed on the tables; the place cards bore the college seal.

After the dinner, the group went to the home of Dr. and Mrs. North.

College Council members and guests who attended the banquet are: Miss MacDonald, Miss Hazen, Dr. Engelhardt, Mr. Hoch, Mr. Redman, Miss Moore, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Anthony Grabowski, Tom Anthony, Al Marsilio, Dick Kressler, Maynard Harring, Jim Whibley, Frank Dean, Herb Kerchner, Dale Bennett, Hank Marini, Jack Williams, Mike Crisci, Al McManus, Henry Hurtt, Russ Looker, Nancy Powell, Ruth Russ Looker, Nancy Powell, Ruth Glidden, Clare Davis, Elaine Gunther, Marie Mattis, and Jeanne Ruckle.

Speaking of Operations

(Continued from page 2)

those adorable P. J.'s . . . Fortunately for President Andruss's domestic peace, no movies were taken of the show this year. After viewing the black and white of things in technicolor last year, Mrs. Andruss accused her spouse of showing too much interest in the proceedings.

Could be . . .

Pravda says that in Soviet Russia men live longer than in other countries. However, we understand that every effort is being made by Stalin to stop the practice . . . Yale Center for Alcoholic Studies says that the average alcoholic is 40 years of age and married. We are told, however, that it can be done without being either.

Your inquiring columnists . . .

While scampering about the campus, we put the following question to several students: "Do you believe that Old Soldiers never die but just fade away?"

Leon Coval: "Yes, but all soldiers do die. After all, how could they be heroes?'

William 'Bill' Ginter: "Off hand, I'd say that they die at least once anyway."

Regina Herchel: As she gazed around the hall looking for some way to make her escape, "If they do they sure try to make a big noise before they go. I'd say that they like to let the world know that they are still kicking. Ellen Gibbons: "Yes. Don't you dare to print that or I'll, I'll . . ."

Nancy Belle Williams: "Yes. I refuse to say more on the grounds that it might tend to incriminate Abagail Lipschitz: "Far be it from me to pass judgment on such a vital issue, but as for the kings of Israel, they are . . . "

H. S. T.: Laughing, "What do you think?"

Off with the hat . . .

We're doffing the topper this week to the Day and Dorm men. It was through the combined efforts of these two groups that a large number of the college community spent a most enjoyable and entertaining evening last night. Those who attended had many favorable comments to make about the semi-formal dance. Speculation seems to be running high on the probability of making this a yearly affair. One thing that is surprising is that not more of the students took advantage of this free social event. Gem of wisdom . .

You never know how many parts a car has until it hits a tree.

Placement Bureau

(Continued from page 1) Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadelphia. Business graduates who are teaching or will teach are Joan Grazell, Ridley Township; Mabel Harris, Roaring Springs; John Kocur, Moscow; Robert Maza, Benton Township, Dalton; Frank Perry, East Orange, New Jersey; and Wanda Petraitis, West Chester. Hazel Palmer and Emory Rarig, January graduates, are attending January graduates, are attending graduate school. Romeo Danni is serving in the armed forces.

Most of the Elementary gradu-Most of the Elementary graduates have secured teaching positions. They are Martha Bronson, Woodbury, New Jersey; Delphine Buss, East Orange, New Jersey; Vivian Carey, Abington Township; Jean Davis, Madison School, Columbia County; Bernard DePaul, Berwick; Lois Dzuris, Lawrence, Long Island; Carol Greenough, Williamsport; Alice Jacques, Dalton; Faythe Hackett, Lower Merion; Christine Kreamer, Berkely Heights, New Jersey; Jaquelin Reinhart, Yardley; Winifred Sharkey, Hazleton; Diane Snyder, Lawrence, Long Island; Lewis Stauffer, Pottstown; George Young, East Orange, New Jersey. Edward Steiner has enrolled for further study at a theological seminary. The following Secondary Graduates are teaching or expect to teach next September: James Arnold, Couton; Francis Bodine, St.

teach next September: James Arnold, Couton; Francis Bodine, St. Mary's County, Maryland; James Kleman, Dundalk, Maryland; Norman Kline, McClure; Harold Lundy, 'Dundalk, Maryland; Robert McCaffrey, Cardiff, New Jersey; John Parsell, Troy; Nancy Powell, Lawrence, Long Island; George Reck, Saint Mary's County, Maryland; and Richard Waechter, Milton. Frank Schilling is employed ton. Frank Schilling is employed by the Radwin Corporation in Bloomsburg.

Capitol Theatre

Bloomsburg Playing Fri. & Sat. May 11 and 12 "ONLY THE VALIANT"

New Spring and Summer Styles

(Continued from page 1)

The duster was shown in several styles, all designed to match or contrast with the dresses worn beneath them; an organdy evening dress had a matching organdy duster. With slightly longer hair coming into style, large hats are once more becoming popular, and they took most of the spotlight in the millinery show.

The stage, arranged to resemble the front lawn of a country club, was furnished with chairs, and a table with a colorful umbrella, furnished by Davison's Furniture

A note of talent was added to the show by Barbara Gulick, who sang "I've Told." Little Rochelle Diettrick did a song and tap routine to "A Penny a Kiss." Mary Grace Almers played organ music continuously throughout the show.

Beautiful flowers and corsages were supplied for each model by Dillon's.

The fashion show was under the direction of Mr. Charles H. Henrie. Nancy Swartz, who acted as fashion coordinator, supplied descriptive comment on the fashions as each model appeared on the runway. Nancy also modeled an attractive costume. Lillian Mlkvy was chairman of the store coordinators, who were responsible for selecting and caring for the merchandise chosen from cooperating Bloomsburg stores. Store coordinators were: Kathryn Rhinard, Michalene Cas-ula, Marie Grazel, Eleanor Bolinsky, Laura Philo, Wilma Jones. Shirley Ashner, Joanne Cuff, Irene Eckert, Barbara Harman, Olive Hunter, Jane Seeley, and Judith

The graceful and expert models were: Helyn Burlingame, Dorothy Cedor, Joanne Vanderslice, Joyce MacDougall, Joan Enama, Laura Philo, Derlene Keller, Dolores Doyle, Joanne Heisley, Nancy Unger, Phyllis McLaren, Lois Dzuris. Kathleen Mitchell, Barbara Sherman, Mary Lou Todd, Elizabeth Patton, Mildred Patton, Mildred Mervine, Margaret Shultz, Marlene Wetzel, Shirley Eveland, Patricia Boyle, and Barbara Gulick. The smallest of the models, but hardly least in charm and attractiveness, were the children: Claudia Montross, Eileen Hornberger, David Welker, Rochelle Diettrick, Dale Davenport, Charles Buck, Patty Gearinger, Barbara Gehrig, Joyce

Remaley, and Mary Pursel.

Among the cooperating merchants who provided the attractive styles worn by the models were Arcus Women's Shop, 'Dixie Shop, Endicott Johnson Shoe Store. T. Grant, Johnson's Jewelry and Gift Shop, Dorothy Kashner Millinery, Kay Long Dress Shop, J. C. Penney, F. P. Pursel, J. S. Raub Shoe Store, Ruth's Corset and Lingerie Shop, and Snyder's Mil-

The stage setting was handled by Francis Sheehan, John Rode-bach, Louis Ballentine, and Frank

Overflow Crowd Applauds May Day

(Continued from page 1)

erland were portrayed by the Fourth Grade boys.

The next scene was in England, where the College women performed traditional English country

Last on the tour was a visit to South America; here we watched a gay flesta by the Sixth Grade.

crowning the program was the beautiful and impressive winding of the maypoles, which were placed on all the terraces.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Redman. She was assisted by the training school teachers, student teachers. school teachers, student teachers, and Miss Lucy McCammon.

Self-made man: A horrible example of unskilled labor.

Skunk: A pussycat with a secret

Eppley's Drug Store

Main and Iron Streets Bloomsburg, Pa.

Photo Services Inc. for your PHOTOGRAPHIC NEEDS 36 East Main St.

CLUB NEWS..

The members of the Student Christian Association at a recent meeting elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Gerald Houseknecht; Vice President, Mary Ellen Dean; Secretary, Rosella Danilo; Treasurer, Robert Lewis. Mr. Hinkel is the faculty adviser.

The highlights of the organiza-tion's program during the past year were the Get-Acquainted Party for freshmen in September, the Christmas program in the Baptist Church, and the series of Wednesday Services in Carver Auditorium. The attendance at these services this year was triple that of last year.

Members of the Aviation Club visited the Bloomsburg airport recently for the purpose of taking plane rides and obtaining an air view of the B.S.T.C. campus. W. B. Sterling, faculty sponsor for the Aviation Club, and Vanice Buck, a member, each flew an airplane accompanied by other members of the club. Mr. Sterling flew a fourseated Stinson, and Miss Buck, her Ercoupe. They circled the campus and pointed out cites of interest in and around Bloomsburg.

The plane rides were arranged by Mr. Sterling with Mr. Fred Vietig, manager of the Blooms-burg airport. Those who took part in the air journeys were Bill Reed. Jim Joy, Ken Wagner, Jane Seeley, Jay Wirth, Jim Sharp, Stan Ksanznak, Don Richardson, Bob Hale, Helen DiCampi, Bob Dowd, Jim Lesser, Joe Iles, Lee Benner, and John Sirvonlick.

The Alpha Delta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi, National Professional Business Fraternity held its formal initiation recently at an impressive ceremony in the Social Rooms of Science Hall. At this time fifteen pledges were taken into the fraternity. The aims of the fraternity were presented by Shirley Ashner, Barbara Frederick, John Ryan, and Jane Scheetz. Mr. Gehrig, sponsor of Pi Omega Pi, offered the prayer; and Dick Laux pre-sented an interesting reading entitled "The Story of the Lights."

A business meeting was held after the ceremony, and elections for the coming year were held. The new officers are as follows:

President—Dale Bennett Vice Pres.—James Whibley Secretary—Geraldine Funk Treasurer—Barbara Harman Historian—Edwin Cunfer

BART PURSEL

for

CLOTHING MEN and BOYS

Dress and Sport Clothes

We Rent Formal Wear

Jack Geistwite PHOTOGRAPHER

Phone 469-J 124 E. Main Bloomsburg

FOR THAT NEXT 'COKE" OR LUNCH

Try

'At the Foot of the Hill"

Headquarters for

Jonathan Logan Dresses Lassie Junior and Lassie Maid Coats

"For A Prettier You"

President John Ryan announced to the members that the May meeting will be in the form of a banquet, which will be held on May 17.

After the business meeting adjourned, refreshments were served by Lillian Mlkvy.

The new members taken into the fraternity are: Erma Bean, Rocco Cherilla, Edwin Cunfer, Francis Galinski, Wilma Jones, Richard Knause, Leonora Macgill, Vincent Neurocki Bebort Con Vincent Nawrocki, Robert Osenbach, Charles Pease, June Pichel, Carl Shultz, Francis Stanitskie, James Whibley, and Mildred Wrzesniewski.

On Thursday April 26, the Day Men of BSTC cast their votes for the selection of "High Brass" to guide the organization for the fol-lowing year. Walter Worhacz of Shamokin was elected to the presidential post. He will be assisted by William Fisher of Kulpmont, who was selected to fill the position of "Veep." The book work for the association will be handled by Robert Garrison of Shickshinny, the newly elected secretary, and financial affairs will be handled by Lester Hornberger, business student from Mt. Carmel, who was elected treasurer.

On Thursday night, April 26, Phi Sigma Pi held a barbecue at the new grill back of Navy Hall. After the barbecue, the group enjoyed itself by playing softball.

All of the student church fellowships met for a combined supper meeting recently in St. Matthew Lutheran Church.

The program was planned and presented by: Mary Ellen Dean, president of the Student Christian Association; Russell Looker, president of the Knox Fellowship; Dick Powell, president of the Wesley Fellowship; Jack Williams, president of the Lutheran Student Association; Francis Galinski, president of the Newman Club; and Robert Lewis, president of the Canterbury Fellowship.

Group singing was led by Miss Harriet Moore. The supper was prepared by a committee in charge of Mrs. W. C. Forney, and Betty Speal and her committee were responsible for the table decorations.

There were one hundred and ten present. Faculty advisors present were Mrs. Ernest Engelhardt, Dr. Marguerite Kehr, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reams, and Clayton H. Hinkel. The Rev. Edgar D. Ziegler offered the closing prayer.

New officers for next year were recently elected at a meeting of

FEST'S

For Fast Dependable Dry Cleaning Service Bring Your Clothes To

126 East Main Street

- or -

See our representatives at the college: "Cousin Chuck" Baron, "Big Ed" Tavalsky, "Honest John" Ryan.

Have a friend who is graduating? Give him or her a hand-made Wedgewood commemorative plate. Choose one in Staffordshire blue or maroon with Patrician or Tren borders. See these at the . . .

at the

Community Store

State Teachers College Bloomsburg, Pa.

Where Dad Took His Girl

The TEXAS

D. J. COMUNTZIS. Bloomsburg

Mary Ellen Dean Represents B.S.T.C. At U.N. Seminar

On Monday, March 29, Mary Ellen Dean, of Milton, Pennsyl-vania, who represented Blooms-burg State Teachers College, attended the United Nations Seminar, which is sponsored by the National Student YMCA and YWCA, at New York City.

The program of the Seminar lasted for three days, starting on Thursday, March 29, and ending on Saturday, March 31. There were students from all over the United States and quite a few foreign exchange students who attended the Seminar.

Thursday was quite a busy day for Mary Ellen. The activities consisted of registration, orientation, a trip to Lake Success, lunch, a film, visit to the United Nations Session, and supper in Chinatown with international students.

Friday's session was shorter, but not a trifle less interesting than Thursday's. There was the United States mission to the United Nations, lunch, a meeting on U.N.E.S.C.O., a visit to the India delegation to the United States, and a visit to the Yugoslav delegation to the U.S.

On Saturday, the student delegates to the Seminar heard two very interesting speeches. The first dealt with "Demands of Christian Faith for Responsible World Citizenship," and the second, "What We Can Do About What We Learned Here." Then, following these speeches, the three-day program was ended with the closing worship.

the Bloomsburg Players in Carver Auditorium. George Smith was chosen for the Presidency and Rosella Danilo was lifted to the position of Vice-President. Jeanne Miller is the new Secretary and Bunny Cacia was elected Treas-

 During the meeting, the club also decided upon having a party to be held on Tuesday night, May 15, at 6:30 P.M.

Men's Formal Dress Suits To Rent

Complete Tux or White Dinner Coats with All Accessories

Must be measured two Weeks In Advance

LEE-PAT'S

Outfitters for Men & Boys 20 E. Main St. Phone 1102

Famous SUBMARINE SANDWICH Rose and Walts

364 East St.

Compliments of

Phone 2499

Waffle Grille

MILLER OFFICE SUPPLY AND EQUIPMENT CO.

Royal Typewriter Sales and Service

Phone 1616 9 E. Main St.

> The place to purchase all your SCHOOL SUPPLIES

RITTERS

Ruth's Corset and Lingerie Shop

You'll have lines to sing about

FOUNDATION GARMENTS, Hosiery, Slips

Cor. Center and Main Streets

Bloomsburg