Class of 1931 to Hold Twentieth Reunion on May 26

The members of the class of 1931 will hold their twentieth reunion on Saturday, May 26. Mr. Edward T. De Voe, of the college faculty, is general chairman of the affair. Mr. De Voe was Editor of the Obiter in his senior year.

The group has engaged the Elks Dining Room in Bloomsburg for an Alumni Dinner at 1:00 P.M. Entertainment will be provided by college musicians. John Bogdan will play several violin selections. He will be accompanied on the piano by Mary Grace Almers and Dick Powell will also present a few vocal solos.

The committee has invited Dr. Francis B. Haas, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Mrs. Haas; Dr. Harvey Andrus; Dr. Thomas North; Dr. Elna Nelson, President of the Alumni Association; Mrs. Nelson; Miss Harriet Moore, who was advisor of the class of 1931; Mr. Samuel Wilson, to whom the class dedicated its yearbook, the Obiter—1931.

Well Known Author And Correspondent Will Be Speaker

Nora Waln, distinguished American author, who recently returned from the Orient, where she was the accredited Far Eastern correspondent, for the Saturday Evening Post and special writer for the Atlantic Monthly, will deliver the 1951 Commencement address, on Monday, May 28, in the Carver Auditorium.

Dr. Elvin Clay Mers, minister of the First Methodist Church, Bloomsburg, will preach the Baccalaureate sermon, on Sunday afternoon, May 27.

Author of "The House of Exile" and "Reaching for the Stars," two best-sellers, Nora Waln left Korea late in December, 1950. Since the Korean War began, she spent most of her time at the front with the fighting men. She was one of six correspondents who were on the Manchurian border when the Chinese Communists began their attack.

Having spent many years of her life in the Orient, Miss Waln is regarded as one of America's outstanding authorities on the Far East, particularly China and Japan. In fact, she speaks and reads five dialects of Chinese, as well as Japanese. No American writer has a keener insight into the aspirations and hopes of the Chinese and Japanese people.

Miss Waln will speak on the subject, "China as a Factor for Peace in Asia." She will be the first woman to speak at a regular Spring Commencement.

Kappa Delta Pi

Edward W. Steiner To Speak at Annual Ivy Day Ceremony

Edward W. Steiner will deliver the address at annual Ivy Day services to be held on Wednesday evening, May 23, at 9:00 P.M. The traditional Ivy plant will be placed this year in an appropriate spot in the Waller Hall Court, near the newly erected Class of 1949 Memorial Fountain.

The processional of gowned seniors will march from Carver Hall to Long Porch. The entire class will then sing "Halls of Ivy," after which Richard Kressler, President of the Class of 1951, will introduce Steiner to the audience.

Following Steiner's address, Dick Kressler will plant the Ivy and present the spade to Tom Anthony, newly elected president of the class of 1952. An intermission will then follow whereupon a piano selection will be played by Lola Deibert.

Following intermission, Dr. Andrus will introduce a representative of the class of 1949, who will present the new fountain to B.S.T.C. Mr. R. S. Hemmingway, President of the Board of Trustees, will accept the fountain on behalf of the college. The singing of the Alma Mater by all present will conclude the ceremonies.

Following the presentation, a social hour will follow in the old gym, at which there will be dancing and refreshments will be served.

Five Instructors Announce Retirement At Faculty Banquet

On Wednesday evening, May 16, at 6:30 P.M., the annual Faculty Banquet was held at the Charmund Inn in Orangeville. It was announced at this dinner that five of our faculty members were retiring at the end of this term on behalf of the faculty to these esteemed instructors, some of which have served at B.S.T.C. up to twenty-eight years. Those from Bloomsburg State Teachers College who have resigned are: Dr. H. Harrison Russell, Head of the Geography Department; Mr. S. I. Shortess, Science Instructor; Mr. John Fisher, Head of the Psychology Department; Miss Harriet Moore, Head of the Music Department; Mr. Samuel Wilson, Head of the English Department. A full coverage of the careers of these five, together with pictures, will be included in the Alumni issue of this paper.

Commencement Will Climax Activities On Monday, May 28

The Senior Ball and Banquet will be held next Thursday evening, May 24, at the Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas, Pennsylvania. The Banquet will begin at 7:00 p.m. sharp. An interesting program is planned and will be moved along by Ball Chairman, Russell Hawk, who will act as master of ceremonies. Among the features of the program will be a vocal selection by Charles Edwards, a narration of the history of the class by Marie Mattis, and a parody of the popular song, "So Long, It's Been Good To Know You" by several members of the graduating class. Lee Vincent and his orchestra will provide the music for dancing, which will be from 9:00 p.m. to 12:00 p.m. The dress is formal, with a choice to the men of either dark or white coats.

The color scheme this year is green and white. The dance program has a mother of pearl-like cover with a bright green paper backing and a green and white tassel. There are two colonial dressed figures on the cover—the young lady in a wide, hooped dress, and the gentleman in a military outfit. The men going to the dance will receive white boutonnières and green packs of matches.

The Senior Ball and Banquet will be the third major activity of an action-packed commencement week. A double-barreled beginning will be provided on the night of Wednesday, May 23, with the Ivy Night exercises and the dedication of the new fountain in the court by a member of the class of 1949. On Saturday, May 26, Alumni Day exercises will take place, and Baccalaureate Services will be held on Sunday, May 27. Commencement Exercises are scheduled for 10:30 a.m., Monday, May 28.

Lillian Mikvy is general chairman for the Senior Ball and Banquet committees. Carolyn Vernov is Banquet chairman and Russell Hawk is chairman of the Ball. The Investigation Committee consisted of Robert Jewell, Jack Rodeback, Barbara Brace, Ukasin Vukcevic, and Frank Perry.

Berwick High Chorus Presents Concert During Assembly

At Assembly, Thursday, May 10, the girls' glee club of Berwick High School again entertained the students and faculty of Bloomsburg State Teachers College with a sparkling program of songs. The Berwick High School group, directed by R. R. Llewellyn, maintained its reputation of former years while presenting an entirely new and varied program.

The program opened with "The Heavens Are Telling" from Haydn's "The Creation," followed by a group of excerpts from South Pacific: "Some Enchanted Evening;" "Wonderful Guy," with a solo by Cleo Costino; "Younger Than Springtime," a soprano solo sung by Eria Marie Meyers, with a choral refrain by a trio, Connie Seriff, Cleo Costino, and Kathleen Sterner; Bali H'ai, by the chorus; and "Gonna Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" with Edith Hason as soloist.

The next number was a soprano solo by Connie Seriff who sang "My Johann" by Edward Grieg. This was followed by two choral numbers, "The Time Is Now" by Fred Waring; and "Comin' Thru the Rye."

A novelty team "Two Notes and a Piano," consisting of Janet and Cleo Costino, the notes, and Kathleen Sterner, at the Piano, gave an amusing surprise performance of "How Could You Believe Me," and "Oh Johnny," followed by a black-face routine, "Shoe Shine Boy" and "Sing Something Simple."

The concluding song was a hymn, "This Is My Father's World."

The accompanist for the glee club was Ethel Lutz.

Speaking of . . . OPERATIONS

by Calvin Kanyuck and Max Kaplan

Sun-bathing . . .
Here we are lying in the sun, and we feel good. The hot rays beat down upon our winter-whitened hides and for a few hours we will broil conscientiously, thinking flittingly about various things, but nothing in particular, consciously enjoying the warmth, the relaxation, dozing off intermittently, feeling good to be alive.

Another day may come to pass when we will be broiling in the sun, plagued by thirst, the life oozing out of us drop by drop or gushing from us in spurts. Then we may look back to this time when we enjoyed broiling in the sun.

"How ironic!" we will say. "How wrong it is that we should be here on the battlefield dying in the sun, when we should be back home on the back lawn feeling good to be alive in the sun."

"God in heaven," we will say, "why must we die when the sun is shining? The sun shines for people to feel good in it, not to die in it."

May Day . . .
Marilyn Evans and Kitty Mitchell, gnomes who know no peers, sparked May Day off to a gay beginning with a dilly of a dance. The wind blew Marilyn's hat off at the start of the convolutions, and so Marilyn was a hapless, hatless gnome. The dance was inspiring, however, for both Kitty and Marilyn gave convincing performances. The girls have been invited to join the Dancing Gnome Society of Upper Lower Slobbovia . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dorak were there with their adorable daughter. Little Mary Jean seems to have adopted Harry Fenstermacher. What are you trying to do, Mike, scare the child? . . .

Somebody conveniently walked in front of the camera as Jim Barr attempted to snap a picture of the May Queen on her way to the throne. It was colored film, too. Goody! We bet Jim always wanted a picture of a blackout in technicolor . . .

Someone, a few benches behind us, (We made out a feminine, auntsy type of voice.) spoke these words in a coochie-coo tone, presumably to a small child, "I'll fix you when we get home. Yes, I will. I'll fix you." She repeated the monologue so persistently that we began to fear the child was broken. . . .

Diane Snyder, the Queen of the May, was lovely as usual. She says she doesn't use Pon's or Sweetheart Soap either. She just sticks to Bab-o and Scat . . .

Oh! where can my Bulck be? . . .
The above was the question asked by that popular man about B.S. T.C., John Kennedy. It seems that some dastardly culprit (Note: neither of these words are profane.) decided that he could make better use of John's car than could John. As a result, we had, for a short time, a careless, careless Kennedy. Local police authorities question the idea of a theft. They seem to think that it may have been merely a case of a run away car. "Hy'ever", to quote Smiley Burnette, John is probably glad to have his vehicle once again regardless of the circumstances under which it made its disappearance.

What a relief! . . .
Yes, the day-dorm dance of last week was a relief—a relief—a relief from the strain of classes, term papers, and the general humdrum nature of college life. It was great to be able to go to a dance without having to literally sign one's life away to do so. There were no dance lists on which one had to make clear and definite the names of persons attending as couples. The way things are we were looking forward to the day when it would be necessary to get

Should Women Be Drafted?

"Why doesn't somebody do something about drafting women?" The social forces which made women hesitate to volunteer for military duty would vanish if they were drafted, Mildred McAfee Horton, wartime head of WAVES, says in a recent issue of Ladies' Home Journal.

"Selective Service officials are having a hard time finding men," Mrs. Horton says. "Veterans, fathers and boys in the middle of their educational training are being drafted. How much better for the nation, it would seem, to draw from the 16,000,000 young men and women of draft age, rather than try to fill our military needs from the 8,000,000 boys."

"Nobody who knows anything about military life seriously contemplates making the Army or Navy—and certainly not the Marine Corps—into fifty-fifty coeducational organizations! The main business of military services is combat, and women should be noncombatants. Nevertheless, the organizational difficulty of using women for noncombatant duties is not insurmountable."

"There is a pseudo gallantry which discourages using women for war duty. They must be saved from the burdens of war—though how they are saved by drafting their husbands, leaving them with young children whose fathers have been sent to war, is hard to see. Worst of all, so-called chivalry led too many people to believe that girls in uniform were somehow lesser in quality than the nice girls who stayed at home to work in a factory. Rumors about their manners and morals spread like wild-fire. Most of the rumors were wild."

"It seems safe to assert that the experience of most service women was a positive, healthy, morally wholesome experience, naturing rather than degrading, enriching rather than cheapening. As a matter of fact, the armed services are probably less dangerous places for young women than are new jobs in war industry where less adequate provision can be made for twenty-four-hour-a-day welfare of personnel. Americans proved to be a fine lot of human beings whether or not they wore military uniforms."

Ivy Day — 1951

Wednesday, May 23, will be set aside as "Ivy Day" here on campus. The class of May, 1951, will be unique in having an Ivy Night instead of an Ivy Day. Twice a year, here at Bloomsburg, the graduating class traditionally plants a sprig of ivy which may symbolize the growth of the class in the tiny ivy plant as it develops into a beautiful vine—then again, it may commemorate the graduating class by thus having a living symbol of the class on campus.

In previous years, the ceremony was held after the Honor Assembly near the end of the school year; the seniors were attired in caps and gowns. The Service Key awards and Who's Who awards were presented at this time. It was a beautiful sight to see the seniors all attired in graduation garb walking to the front of the auditorium to receive their hard-earned honors. "Service Key" honors are in harmony with the name "Service Key" as they represent recognition for service to the college, as the members of his year's graduating class are well aware. These awards are given to the upper ten per cent of the graduating class having a minimum of twenty points. This year's service key earners varied in points from 64-29—the lowest point accumulation being nine points over the minimum.

As the Ivy is planted "Ivy Night", the fountain in Waller Hall Court will be dedicated. This fountain, the gift of the class of 1949, will present an elaborate picture with its many colored lights. The impressive ceremony shall include the senior's singing of the beautiful melody, "The Halls of Ivy".

Yes, Class of 1951, we are sorry to see you leave us. As we watch your ivy plant grow, it will be truly a living symbol of your class. While you are singing "The Halls of Ivy" and are absorbed by the impressiveness of the ceremony and by graduation—think of your class—of the individuals comprising it. They and you are now going out to teach the youth of America. After four long school years of study, at last you will do that for which you have been preparing. In school you may have made new friends, held club offices, participated in school productions, made good grades, and perhaps written school songs or cheers, but now you must leave all this. You will forget the unpleasant things about Bloomsburg, and retain only the pleasant or happy memories—your friends, favorite professors, activities, social gatherings, and the beautiful campus.

grandparental consent and to prove that ones great-grandparents voted in a national election in order to be permitted to attend a college dance. Here we are, a supposedly progressive school, and yet we cling to traditions which were common in the gay day of the chaperon. We are constantly reminded that we are no longer high school kids but mature young adults. Yet, here we find junior-high schoolish practices prevailing. Time marches on, so Bloomsburg, why not march with it? Time for a change. . .
Since most motorists are beginning to change the oil and grease in their cars, and since everyone is changing to lighter summer clothes, we had a suggestion presented to us the other night to change the name of this newspaper. The idea came about during a discussion of the title of the publication. One of the staff suggested that we interchange the "M" and "G" in "Maroon and Gold" thus producing "Garoon and Mold." We apologize. . .
During the course of our travels this past week, we were severely reprimanded for not having called attention to nor given credit for the juke-box which is currently holding its own. Therefore, we lift the lid to whomever is responsible for this great effort and say "GRACIAS". No doubt we are just like everyone else—we are quick to find fault and slow to give credit. This is, of course, one of the great American faults. Be that is (Continued on page 4)

Husky Tennis Squad Earns First Win by Stopping Kings 7-0

The Husky Tennis Team chalked up its first tennis victory of the season last Saturday afternoon by vanquishing winless King's College, 7-0, on the Bloomsburg tennis courts.

The victory evened the record of the Huskies at a victory and a loss, with two matches left to play.

The matches were played on uncertain underfooting because of wet weather, but the Huskies failed to lose a set during the matches.

The remaining two matches on the schedule will be played here with Lycoming as the opposition on May 19th, and at Wilkes-Barre on May 21st, with King's College.

Saturday's Results: Heckman won over Mackin, 6-3, 6-4.

"B" Club Holds Its Annual Outing at Eagles Mere Resort

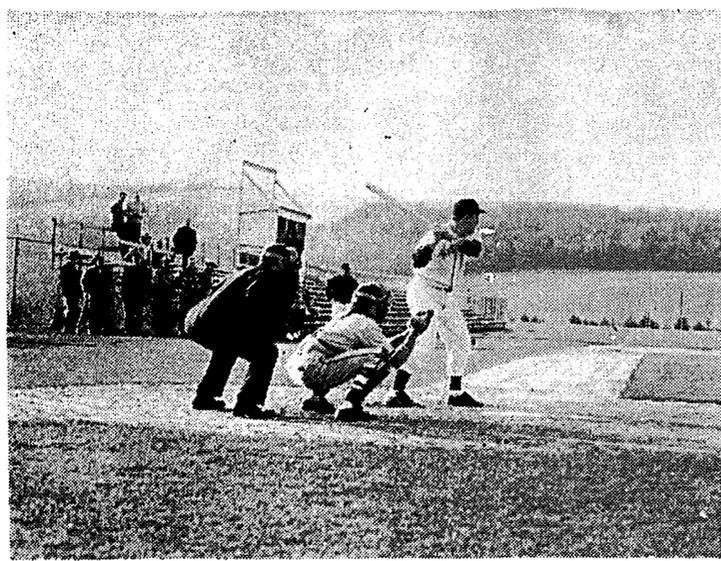

The "B" Club held its annual weekend outing at Eagles Mere on May 11, 12, and 13. All "B" Club members, alumnae who were members of the "B" Club, freshmen who had accumulated 500 points, and upperclassmen who had accumulated 800 points were invited to attend. The group stayed at Hotel Allegheny.

The event began on Friday, May 11, at 4:30 P.M., when the group left long porch. They returned at 5:00 P.M. on Sunday.

The weekend was spent informally, with walks and drives around Eagles Mere Lake and the surrounding vicinity occupying much of the time. Trips were made to High Knob, which overlooks five counties, and to Loyalsock Canyon Vista, which gives a beautiful view of the Allegheny Mountains and Loyalsock Creek.

Those who attended the outing were: Miss Lucy McCammon, faculty advisor of the "B" Club; Miss Edna Barnes; Miss Edna J. Hazen; Mrs. Allis Mulford; Eleanor Young, Barbara Harmon, Ann Gengenbach, Nancy Tovey, Janet Price, Geraldine Funk, Priscilla

Husky Backstop Swings a Big Stick

George Lambrinos, hard hitting Husky catcher, gets set for the pitcher's next delivery. George's big bat has been an important factor in the Huskies' impressive record during the 1951 campaign.

LOCKER - LINGO

by Harry Brooks

Congratulations to the track team on their fine performance at the State Track Meet held at Shippensburg last Saturday. Tom Spack, Johnstown two letter man, took the individual first for the Huskies by winning the javelin. Frank Womer, senior point-getter, tied for first in the pole vault event. Bloomsburg was truly represented. The Shellymen's last meet of the season will be held today in West Chester when the Huskies will battle the strong aggregation from the down-state college. The Rams have posted an enviable record all season and will probably be the toughest match for the B.S.T.C. boys this year. This meet was originally scheduled for May 5, but some difficulty caused its postponement until tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon the Millersville Marauders will journey to the Husky haven on Mount Olympus to engage Bob Redman's diamond boys in the first Saturday afternoon game at home this year. A week from tomorrow, on Alumni Day, the Husky nine will play their last tilt of the 1951 campaign when the Wilkes College Colonels will travel to B.S.T.C. In their initial meeting earlier this month, the Colonels dropped the Maroon and Gold by a 5-2 score.

By the time this issue comes off the press, the tennis tourney will be in its final stages. Speaking of tennis, the college addition to its intercollegiate program hasn't done too poorly considering this is the first year for the sport on this campus since the war years. Next year we can hope for better things and a longer schedule. Popularity of this sport has certainly been shown by the difficulty in getting a court at almost any time of the day.

Because many of the alumni and friends of the college will be back next week for the last time until Homecoming next fall, a complete list of the forthcoming schedules of all athletic events on this college's agenda will be printed. The football schedule is now complete, the greater part of the basketball schedule is now listed, and most of the baseball agreements are signed. The reader will also find a complete recap of each sport for this past season.

Who was the outstanding athlete in each sport this season? Your votes will decide this and also show your athletic interest in this college. Take time out from studying for tests and cast your ballot at the designated place.

- 4. New Jersey
- 5. New York

A guard from the lunatic asylum rushed up to a farmer on the road and said, "I am looking for an escaped lunatic. Did he pass this way?"

The farmer puffed thoughtfully on his corn cob pipe and asked, "What does he look like?"

"He's very short," said the guard, "and he is very thin and he weighs about 350 pounds."

The farmer looked at him in amazement. "How can a man be short and thin and still weigh 350 pounds?" he asked.

"Don't act so surprised," said the guard angrily. "I told you he was crazy."

We, the underclassmen, are soon to step into your shoes. We have been doing it all along. Sometimes it takes a lot to fill them, but, at any rate, we hope we shall contribute to Bloomsburg as much as you have.

Good luck, Class of 1951—the world is before you. May your ivy sprig grow abundantly, as a fitting reminder of the class of 1951.

Byham Regains Early Season Form As Huskies Submerge Kings 17-2

Womer Sets New Pole Vault Record Against Shippers

Frank Womer, versatile Pottsville trackman, gave another stellar performance on Navy Hall Field last Thursday, but it was not available as a surprisingly strong Shippensburg team prevailed, 75-51. Womer's antics included a record-breaking pole-vault, as he cleared the bar at 12 ft., 8 in. The former record was 12 ft., 6 in., and was also held by Womer. The Husky ace also took first in the high hurdles, second in the low hurdles, and third in the broad jump.

Tom Spack continued his steady improvement as he placed in both of his specialties, a first in the javelin and a second in the shot put.

Joe Feifer and Bill Radzwich picked up the only other Husky first places as they broke the tape in the half mile and 220 yd. dash respectively.

The results:

Mile — Duerr, S; Bedard, S; Feifer, Bl. T—4:48.3.

100-yd. — Chapparone, S; Radzwich, Bl; Spraglin, S; T—:10.4.

The Huskies' latest varsity squad, their tennis team, dropped its first match of the season last Thursday at Williamsport, losing to Lycoming College, 8-1.

It was the first varsity tennis match for the Huskies since before World War II. Henry Hurtt and Bob Von Drach, Husky tandem, scored the lone Bloomsburg victory in one of the three doubles matches. The Warriors swept the six singles matches with the loss of only two sets.

Hervey A. Smith, a well-known local attorney, is coaching the Husky hopefuls in this new venture. An abbreviated schedule has been arranged, where the Huskies will play Lycoming and King's Colleges on a home-and-away basis. It is hoped that by next year a complete schedule can be arranged.

Last Thursday's Scores:

Landon, Lycoming, won over Heckman, 5-7, 6-0, 6-4.

Brodmerkle, Lycoming, won over North, 6-4, 6-2.

Taylor, Lycoming, won over Doty, 6-2, 6-2.

Nevis, Lycoming, won over Hurtt, 7-5, 6-0.

Kramer, Lycoming, won over Clarridge, 6-1, 6-3.

Hershberger, Lycoming, won over Von Drach, 5-7, 7-5, 6-2.

Brodmerkle and Taylor, Lycoming, won over Heckman and North, 6-4, 6-4.

Nevis and Adams, Lycoming, won over Doty and Clarridge, 7-5, 7-5.

Hurtt and Von Drach, Bloomsburg, won over Zwick and Wagner, 7-5, 6-4.

Jim: Superstitious nothing! — I get paid on Saturday.

Evans, Thompson, & Byham Each Get Three Safeties; Byham Tallies Fourth Win

The Huskies wore their hitting shoes when they journeyed to Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday afternoon and returned home with a 17-2 verdict over a determined but impotent King's College nine.

The Husky clouters put on their best offensive show of the year as they pounded four King's pitchers for a total of eighteen hits. Included in this array of base knocks were two doubles, four triples, and one home run. Jimmy Thompson, Bill Byham, and Mike Evans showed the way with three hits apiece, while Ledyard, Lambrinos, and Hummel each added a pair of safeties to the imposing outburst of power. This game was the first of the year that saw all of the starting Huskies hit safely.

Bill Byham had little trouble with the King's batters with the exception of Matisak, who collected three of the nine hits that Byham scattered over the first eight innings. Byham allowed only singleton runs in the fourth and sixth innings and had complete control of the game all the way. Danny Fitzpatrick was inserted on the mound in the ninth inning and he proceeded to strike out the first two men to face him and force the third man to ground out meekly to the infield.

Don Butler used his defensive prowess to great advantage as he made three sparkling plays in the outfield that were nothing short of sensational.

Joe Glosek continued his heavy hitting and shows promise of becoming another Danny Litwhiler. Glosek is not fast afield but makes up for this lack in his consistent long ball hitting.

This win, the second over King's this year, makes the Husky record read eight wins and three losses. Coach Redman used his entire squad for the first time this season and although the subs didn't score, they gave a good account of themselves.

Baseball Team Has Impressive Record As Season Nears End

As the Huskies draw near the close of another baseball season, they have once more compiled a good record for B.S.T.C.

They have won seven of their first ten starts; and 2 of Bloomsburg's three losses have been by one-run margins.

Excellent pitching by lefties Buck Byham, Clem Makowski and right-hander Don Kearns, coupled with the timely hitting of center-fielder Don Butler, have contributed greatly to the Husky record.

Butler has been knocking down the fences with his lusty bat, which has procured for him a .561 batting average. Southpaw Bill Byham leads the mound corps with a 3-1 record.

The Scotsman brightened immediately. "Make it a scotch and soda," he said.

"Now don't you start anything," begged the groom. "I'm going to have enough trouble explaining you to her tomorrow."

She: I am Salome, the oriental dancer.

Barbara Harmon; Corresponding Secretary—Marilyn Lundy; Treasurer—Richard Powell; and Historian—Jeanne Ruckle.

After the business meeting, Marilyn Evans, Shirley Ashner, and Gloria Dawn Long presented a summary of an article appearing in "The Educational Forum," the monthly publication of Kappa Delta Pi.

The article was entitled "New Concepts in Education." It stated that the most fundamental change in the present-day emphasis in education is in regarding students as individuals, rather than as members of a class. We seek to provide for the maximum development of the personality of every boy and girl, within the limits of his or her own powers. There are no types among children—only trends.

How a pupil learns is not just a matter of thinking alone. His physical condition, his emotional attitude towards the teacher and the subject, his past success or failure in the subject, his previous knowledge, and his home background all influence the situation. These factors are closely interdependent and interacting.

Success in school is almost as much dependent on emotional attitudes as on intelligence. How a child feels about his school, his school work and the different school subjects partly determines his progress in school. What his attitudes are toward his teachers and their attitudes toward him certainly determine how much effort he puts forward in the various lessons. More and more, teachers are beginning to realize that a pupil's ability to think and to learn is dependent upon how he feels emotionally.

The Scotch chemistry professor was demonstrating the properties of various acids. "Watch carefully," he instructed. "I am going to drop this two-shilling piece into this glass of acid. Will it dissolve?"

"No, sir," spoke up one student very promptly.

"No?" asked the demonstrator. "Perhaps you'll explain to the class why it won't dissolve."

"Because," came the answer, "if it would, you wouldn't drop it in."

I had a perfectly wonderful day, Frank. The children ran away from home for six hours!

If a certain newly hired night watchman had had his way, this paper probably would not have reached the college community until some time next week. It seems that this likeable chap is a bit new and even a bit more eager to do his job to the letter. He insisted that the newspaper office had to be closed sharply at ten o'clock. Silly boys; little does he realize that it is often the wee hours of the morning when the few faithful staff members stagger wearily from their second floor hangout after literally producing a paper by brute force. Ah but with time comes knowledge, and in a short time our watchful watchman will realize that things don't stop because the hands on a clock have reached some magical predetermined hour.

Farewell my lovely. . .

This the twentieth edition of the "M and G" will be the last one available to the general college community. There will be another issue, but it will come off the press next Saturday and will be an alumni edition. This is, therefore, our last combined effort for the college for this year. There are chances that it may be the last thing that we will do together because Max will graduate this year. This duet came about because of and can be blamed on Mr. Wilson. If it hadn't been for his habit of alphabetical seating, Kanyuck and Kaplan may never have gotten together. As it was, we did, and now the entire school has had to pay the consequences. We trust that we have not offended anyone, and if we have, we do hope such individuals will take us lightly and not hold personal grudges. In conclusion, let us say that it has been a lot of work, but it has also been fun. Don't forget if you're ever down in Chi-Chi-Hach-Watchie, look us up.
