Husky Gridders Clash with Rams; Big Parade, Game, Dance Scheduled

Republicans Win 2-1 in Phi Sig Mock Elections

The Democratic party was decisively defeated by the Republican party in a mock election sponsored by Phi Sigma Pi, a campus fraternity, during assembly, Tuesday, November 1st.

As the students entered Carver Auditorium to find pictures of the presidential candidates and their running mates on the stage, they were handed campaign buttons and literature by members of the fraternity. Preceding the campaign speeches, ballots were passed to everyone in attendance.

The first person introduced by John Hoch, Dean of Instruction, was Kenneth Smith, a senior science major from Berwick. Mr. Smith represented the Republican (Continued on page 4)

Students Respond With Enthusiasm to Freshman Talent

"With great pleasure and in true minstrel fashion" the freshmen at Bloomsburg State Teacher's College presented their Talent Show. Six end men, typical characters of the good old Minstrel Days, constituted the backbone of the program by tying the acts together with hilarious comedy and forming a continuous minstrel background. The freshmen talent poured forth in the form of sparkling comedy and the "best" loved songs of yesterday and today.

Four Candidates Represent Classes For Varsity Queen

The crowning of the 1956 Varsity Queen will take place Monday, November 19 in Centennial Gymnasium at the annual Varsity Dance. Charles Puckey, President of the club, will crown one of four girls selected by the club members as candidates for queen. The four aspirants, representing each of the four classes are Barbara Lentz, Barbara Creamer, Lorraine Basso, and Virginia Hardy. As part of the crowning ceremony, which highlights the evening, each candidate will be escorted by a senior member of the Varsity Club. The four escorts will represent each of Bloomsburg's major sports teams.

Barbara Lentz, the senior representative, comes to BSTC from Williamsport. Upperclassmen remember Barbara as a cheerleader last year. At present Barbara is student teaching in the elementary grades.

Candidate of the junior class is Bobbi Creamer, a business major from Langhorne, Pa. In addition to modeling in the Fashion Show, Barbara reigned as Snow Queen at the 1956 Sophomore Cotillion last December.

Representing the Sophomores will be Lorraine Basso, a business student from Bangor. Lorraine's extra-curricular interests are centered in Dramatics Club and the Student Christian Association.

A freshman cheerleader and member of the Dramatics Club, Ginny Hardy of Kingston, completes the list of nominees.

Chuck Casper, Bo Rainey, Jim Snyder, Bill Calderwood, and Charles Loughery, members of the Varsity Club, are selling tickets at one dollar per person. The dance is open to all members of the College Community and is the final social function before the Thanksgiving recess. Usually well attended, the event promises to be equally successful this year. All students are urged to attend.

Capt. Vivian Bulger Will Be Here Nov. 14

Captain Vivian B. Bulger of the U.S. Marine Corps will be in the Husky Lounge, November 14, to discuss opportunities for women students to earn commissions as second lieutenants in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve.

Sophomores, juniors, seniors, and graduates may enter training class during summer vacation. The 12-week program is completed in two summers by upperclassmen and in one summer by seniors and graduates.

Masqueraders March Uphill for Trick or Treat Festivities

Black cats, devils, and wolves were on the prowl in Centennial Gym on Wednesday night. The Masquerade Ball, sponsored by the Social-Recreation Committee, was held from 7:30 until 10:00. The masked guests danced to music by the Starlighters, directed by Chic DeFebo.

Some of the guests included Julius Caesar, Lil' Abner and Daisy Mae, a nurse named Aunt Het, several couples still around from the 'twenties, some gypsies, a Scottish lass, and a few gangsters. The highlight of the evening was a jitterbug by a green satin wolf and a Navy officer, who were revealed later as Dean Hoch and Dr. Wagner.

The prizes were free passes to the Columbia Theater and were awarded to fifteen students. Prizes for the most original costumes given to seven girls dressed backwards, and to two hobos. The girls were Genie Beers, Molly Mattern, Wendy Rundell, Jane Ott, Carol Yost, Jane Martini, and Jill Baylor. The hobos were Eleanor Myers and Lorraine Taylor. Prizes for the most clever costume were awarded to Terry Julio, who was dressed as a devil, and to Barbie Lentz and Kahki Crew, dressed as Siamese twins. The prettiest costumes were worn by Connie Eaton as Martha Washington and Vera Rearick as George Washington. The funniest costume was worn by the Fat Man, who was Joe Pendle. The judges were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Bleschschmidt, Mr. Yohe, and Mr. Blair.

Religion-in-Life Week Activities Well Attended by College Community

Day Men Plan Dance on 14th

John Ford, President of the Day Men's Association, recently announced that plans are being made for their annual dance which will be held in Centennial Gym on Wednesday, November 14 from 8 to 11. Dancing will be to the music of Ed Ritter.

General Chairman for the affair is William Dupkanick. His committee members include the following: refreshments, Virgial Hettinger, Dale Bangs, Jay Bangs, Randy Arbogast, Art Leshner, and James Bruin; entertainment, William Welliver and William Trivelpiece; publicity, Dale Biever and Paul Troutman.

There is no admission charge and everyone is invited.

At last the weekend we have all been waiting and planning for has arrived. Today we journey by bus to meet the Golden Rams of West Chester. The Huskies with the backing of approximately 300 students are prepared to end their football season in victory.

Spirit and enthusiasm were displayed last evening in the traditional West Chester parade, which aroused the town of Bloomsburg with the cries of "Beat West Chester!". The evening ended with a huge bonfire which added to the students fervor.

The buses for West Chester will leave this afternoon at 1:30 with a crowd eager to show their pep and school spirit.

Provisions for the evening meal include a box lunch prepared in the college cafeteria to be eaten upon arrival at our destination. The arrival is scheduled for approximately 5:15 p.m.

With permission from the West Chester Police Force we will parade with the Maroon and Gold Band through the streets of the town. Organizations are expected to make banners for the parade. The North Hall White Jackets will also march.

A reserved section of bleachers for the BSTC cheering section and Band will be provided at the West Chester Stadium.

Buses will leave West Chester for Bloomsburg immediately following the game.

To honor our Husky Team, a dance will be held at Centennial Gym on Saturday night. The dance will be informal and free of charge. Decorations will consist of the banners used in the parade at West Chester.

This trip and outstanding weekend is possible because of the joint efforts of the Pep and Social Recreation Committees.

Dean of Instruction's Office Reveals Current Information

Miss Hazen, Dr. Engelhart, and Dr. Martin attended a conference of the Deans of Instruction and Directors of Teacher Training at Indiana State Teachers College, Monday, October 21. Problems concerning enrollments, curricular offerings, and student teaching were discussed.

New Entrance Requirements

Under a new requirement approved by the Board of STC Presidents, all applicants for admission to State Teachers Colleges for September 1957, regardless of rank in high school class, must pass a qualifying examination. Bloomsburg is planning a series of examinations for a record breaking number of applicants. It is likely that these exams will be given on Saturday morning on dates yet to be determined. The new policy will not affect applicants for January, 1957.

Nine Weeks Grades Due

Nine weeks grades are due in the office of the Dean no later than Monday, November 12. The nine weeks period ends Saturday, November 10. Plans are being made to have the grades recorded and mailed before November 17. New grade report forms are now printed and will be used for the first time this semester. The new forms will replace the mimeographed grade sheets formerly used.

Dean Hoch on Curriculum Revision Committee

Dean Hoch has been selected by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to serve on a state-wide committee for long-range curriculum revision. Dean Hoch's appointment was announced this week by Dr. Charles H. Boehm, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Bakeless Loan Fund Reports Contributions

The following groups have contributed to this fund: Kappa Delta Pi, Dramatic Club, Sophomore Class, Pi Omega Pi, Waller Hall Association, Aviation Club, Phi Sigma Pi, Student Christian Association, "B" Club, Business Education Club, Athenaeum Club, Wesley College Fellowship, Alpha Psi Omega, Phi Sigma Pi, Varsity Club and Science Club.

In addition pledges have been received from the Maroon and Gold Band and the College Choraleers.

The total money received to-date amounts to $274.54 and total of pledges is $27.50

New Dietician Begins Duties at BSTC

There's a new personality on our campus! Mrs. McBride, a widow and mother of two daughters, has joined Bloomsburg's administrative staff as the new dietician.

Previous to her arrival at BSTC Mrs. McBride was employed as an office nurse by Dr. M. J. Matzko, a prominent physician in Berwick. She attended high school in Nova Scotia, Canada, and upon graduation came to the United States to complete her education at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. After receiving an RN degree she attended Gelsinger Hospital for her post-graduate work.

THE TALL MEN . . . . . by Annette

This is an actual photo of Carl Stanitski (top) and Joe Worrell, the "biggest men" on campus, tucked in their little beds, in the littlest room in North Hall.

Carl and Joe, both freshmen, and both 6'7" have housing problems here at BSTC. One of them, with his arms outspread, spans the width of their tiny third floor room. And the two of them standing together at arms length, span the entire length of the room. If they need haircuts, they brush their heads on their doorway which is only 6'8" high. And to make matters worse, their closet doorway is only 6'4". Their mirror is only chest high, and their legs tangle if they both use the desk at the same time.

Joe, a recent graduate of West Chester High School, weighs a neat 220 pounds and wears a size 13 shoe. His little roommate, Carl, who comes from Shamokin, weighs only 210 and wears size twelve shoes. We hear that there isn't an empty space on their closet floor because of those huge shoes lying around.

They claim they have to take turn breathing in their little room; but imagine the situation when they have company—and especially when it's Carl's twin brother, a freshman at West Chester.

Students Respond

Bill Roberts paved the way for the male participants in the show with a vocal. Alice Shaw accompanied him as he sang "If You Are But A Dream".

Those End Men were just bubbling over with jokes and slipped a few in each time they could. Drifting about the room at this point was a statement about humor being a shift of wit and odor being an entirely different matter. When the air had finally cleared Margie Gorden and Ron Hileman presented their act. Arm in arm they told each other how life would be—"If I Loved You". A starry-eyed audience listened intently as Margie and Ron sang their duet.

The class had hoped to have as their special talent someone terribly thrilling like Jack Benny or Lou Costello but all such stars were booked so they had to settle for that rather dull personality Marilyn Monroe. Marilyn, in the "shape" of Ginny Delbert, was terribly, terribly excited about being here and somewhere between the "OH's" and "AH's" she sang "Canadian Sunset". Shy Dr. Kuster must be holding out on us for Miss Monroe certainly had a strange gleam in her eye when she mentioned him and the billions of little living cells he told her about.

Biology apparently struck a note with Jumbo as he suddenly expressed a bit of concern for Mrs. Beeman. Seems she was having some trouble with the egg laying mash, DO OR DIE, she was feeding her chickens. Jumbo said the trouble was she fed it to her roosters too.

The fifth talent of the program was presented by Jean Ann Fenstermacher, who sang the beautiful "Carissima". Jean Ann was accompanied on the piano by Lorraine Yeager. The costumes in the next act were the typical knee pants and short skirts of the Minstrel Days but the thought involved was common of any period. Alice Shaw accompanied Susan Kirstead and Dave Spar as they sang "That's What I Like". One could hardly guess what it was they "liked".

One of those witty fellows in the white coats gave the audience a real jolt and maybe a good hint when he explained how he found the girls at a dance. Seems he just opened the door marked LADIES and "there they was".

The next number was a portrayal of "Five Foot Two" by three young ladies who changed their minds about the type of guy they

Greeting Terminology Changed by Student Association

by Gus Spentzas

At the last meeting of the Students Subversive Association, it was moved and passed unanimously that the greeting of "Hi" be outlawed from further use on the campus. It has been discovered that this greeting has met with approval and extensive use by the student body (common herd). The president also protested the fact that people are becoming friendly with each other.

It was suggested by the Dean of Inter-Student Relations, that further greetings between students be confined to a blank stare followed by a brief discussion of the good qualities of the Mascot Retirement Fund.

The Dean of Rule Enforcement stated that punishment for using the word "Hi" will be administered in the council room where the offenders will be forced to stand for two days and listen to a record continually repeating the phrases "Hi Gang", "Hi There", "Hi Everybody", "Hi" "Hi". A loud shrill laugh will follow these phrases.

A vote was taken. A small group forming the opposition asked for discussion before voting. They were removed from the room, however, and the vote was taken in an orderly fashion. Surprisingly, the motion was carried unanimously.

The action taken for disuse of the greeting "Hi" will be promulgated by memorandum in a few days. A slight delay will result in making copies of the memo, since it will take some time to obtain the necessary signatures and loyalty oaths required to use the ditto machine.

FTA Offers Tutoring Service

Mid-semester grades will soon be out, and as many of us look back over the past nine weeks, we wonder if these grades really belong to us. We had started out with such good intentions: to really study hard, and, maybe, even attain the honor of seeing our names on the Dean's List. But somewhere we met a stumbling block and found ourselves hopelessly lost and desperately looking for a means to pull ourselves out of this "slump."

The Future Teachers of America has the answer to our problems. They are again offering a tutoring service to all students who desire help with troublesome subjects. This service is now being offered in business, mathematics, science, history, and English. There is no charge and the time and number of hours per week can be arranged between the student and tutor.

Marilyn Friedman, vice-president and chairman of the tutoring service, has urged that more students take advantage of this opportunity to receive help. At present, approximately twenty students are being tutored. Anyone desiring further information concerning this service should contact Marilyn.

If you are having trouble with a difficult subject, don't wait until it's too late to do something about it. Contact Marilyn Friedman now, and find out how you can raise your grades through the help of the FTA tutoring service.

SPORTS HI-LITES

by DON COFFMAN

This evening the Huskies will attempt to regain some of the prestige they lost last week-end at California by upsetting the highly favored Golden Rams of West Chester. This spirited rivalry, which is over 30 years old, may prove to be the deciding factor in the capping of the STC crown.

Last Saturday afternoon the Huskies were humiliated at the hands of the winless Vulcans of California STC. A fired-up team, tough breaks, and poor officiating were some of the justifications that were offered in defense of our team.

Earlier in the season, the Huskies were stopped cold by a power-laden crew from Cortland. We took that defeat in stride, mainly because that was not a conference game. Numerous reasons were given for that defeat, including school spirit. Just two weeks later, our gridiron crew traveled to Shippensburg, along with a spirited cheering section, where again they claimed they ran into tough breaks and another fired-up, powerful team.

From this standpoint, however, it appears that once the Huskies get behind they make no team effort to do anything about it. Last Saturday they again went down to defeat due to similar reasons. Perhaps the team had a psychological disadvantage due to past scores between the two schools, and due to California's pre-season edge.

It is definite that the school spirit has proven one to be proud of in the past few weeks; however, I feel that the students have not been rewarded for their efforts.

We are defending a title; and the team should make every effort to do so. We have practically the same team that won the championship for us last year, along with a fine freshman team. What has happened? In our three losses, we have been able to garner only 12 points while giving the opposition 57. We should be able to defend that title with pride, not with shame. We have men on our team who are candidates for all-state berths—Malczyk, Watts, Hughes, Rainey, and others. We have a heavy line; we have been able to hold our own on many occasions. Yet we have lost three games! Two of these three games should be tucked under our belts as victories, and the game tonight with West Chester, should be one to decide the title between Bloomsburg and West Chester, not between West Chester, East Stroudsburg, and Shippensburg.

In previous games, the Huskies have mastered terrific plays. Watts showed his power in the game at Kings; the entire squad thrilled the Homecoming crowd; and additional strength was shown in the first game of the season.

The Yohemen know that West Chester is "Up" for their game tonight, especially since last year's Husky upset. The spirit is also riding high between these two schools. Therefore, a fired-up West Chester squad should be no reason for defeat.

Two weeks ago the Warriors of ESSTC ran into this same West Chester eleven in the rain at West Chester. The high-riding Warriors lost for the first time this year that evening, and practically eliminated their chance for sole ownership of the crown.

We know that our Huskies are capable of knocking off the Rams tonight. We know that the spirit will be there. The Huskies will now have nothing to lose and everything to gain. I know that they will give everything they have to produce this big upset.

As for the Championship—the old Brooklyn Dodger adage will suffice — "Wait 'til next year!"

Conference Title At Stake When Huskies-Rams Meet

In every football season we have one game that is more important than any other—the West Chester game. The traditional rivalry between Bloomsburg and West Chester dates back to 1925, the earliest game on record.

This rivalry has been especially intense since 1950, when the two teams were scheduled to meet after a 19-year lapse. Both teams were strong in the conference and the conference title hinged on the game which West Chester won. Again in 1951 the Bloomsburg-West Chester tilt was the deciding game for the conference championship when the Huskies emerged victorious.

In 1952, 1953, and 1954 the games again carried tremendous weight. Both schools supported their respective teams to the hilt. Each had its own parade, pep-rally, and dance. However, West Chester proved to have the stronger teams, winning each of the three games.

In 1955, with the conference title again riding on this one game, Bloomsburg, with terrific support and spirit, won the game and title. Enthusiasm was displayed in the pre-game parade the night before the game and in the pep-rally and dance held the same night.

What's the angle for this year? West Chester is strong, practically assured of the title with conference wins over powerful East Stroudsburg, California, and Millersville. They also sport wins over the University of Delaware, and Drexel. Their only loss has been to the powerhouse team of New Haven, Conn.

The West Chester ball carriers are Dick Wendland, and 190 pound Army returnee Dick Mosteller, who has been making a name for himself this season. Quarterback John Harrington handles the pitching end of the Golden Ram's aerial game.

The West Chester line consists of six veterans, including Senior guard, Joe Chibbert, who won Little All-American recognition last fall. The Golden Ram's coach, Glenn Killinger, has his team fired up to win this game so that the Rams will have an undefeated conference record.

This game should be one of the best of the season and pre-game enthusiasm here at Bloomsburg is running high. A large delegation of loyal fans will make the trip to West Chester tonight.

Strine and Rainey Complete Football Career Tonight

One of the key performers for the Huskies in recent years has been Bob Rainey, versatile half-back from Johnstown, Pa. "Bo" will long be remembered for his field-goal kicking and his brilliant running when the chips were down. So far this season, Bo has booted two three-pointers—one in the 6-3 Cortland clash, the other in the 20-3 Shippensburg tilt. Just recently, it was Rainey's pass to Watts which scored the first Husky TD and paved the way to a 25-7 victory over King's College.

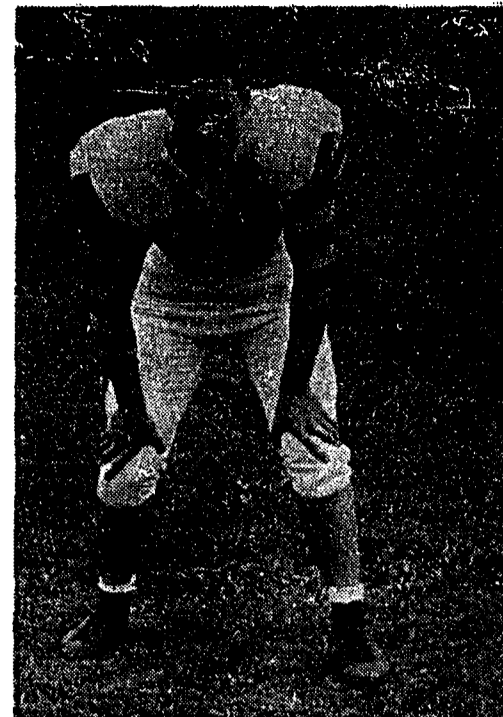

"Bo" learned the football fundamentals at Johnstown Central High School. This experience proved valuable to "Bo" as a member of BSTC's backfield. He is noted for his reliability and "workhorse" performances.

Rainey says his most memorable sport moment came in 1951 when he played on an undefeated team under coach Bob Redman. He also vividly recalls the 1955 season when the Yohemen emerged as STC champs.

Bo is enrolled in the elementary curriculum and plans to teach and coach in a combined Elementary-Junior High School. Hunting and fishing rank as "Bo's" favorite hobbies.

In closing, Bo conveys the following message: "May BSTC continue to be the top team and never lose the spirit that has been symbolic of the 'Friendly College on the Hill'."

We thank Bo for this fine tribute and wish him the very best of luck.

A capable lineman for the Huskies this season is Dick Strine, 190 pound left-end from Milton. Dick has been one of Johnny Oustrich's key targets during the current grid campaign. His 6 foot 2 inch frame enables him to haul down Oustrich's aeriels and gain valuable yardage for the Yohe offense. Likewise, Dick's stature makes him a feared defensive threat.

Dick has been with the Maroon and Gold gridders since he came from Milton Area Joint High School in 1953. He has been a consistent performer for the locals since then.

His most memorable sports thrill came during Homecoming Day of his freshman year when he intercepted a pass and galloped 65 yards to score against Trenton State Teachers College.

Social Studies and English are Dick's fields of study here at the Friendly College. Upon graduation in May, he may either do immediate graduate work or acquire a teaching position in Pennsylvania.

When Dick is not working on the gridiron, he enjoys golfing and fishing.

Good luck, Dick, from all your BSTC classmates.

THE PEPPER POT

by BILL SHERIDAN

Finally, that anxiously awaited moment has arrived. It is time to travel to scenic Chester County to meet and beat the much discussed "Golden Ram" at West Chester. Having waited another year we are at last rewarded with an opportunity to shatter the aspirations of our opponents.

Certainly the conditions could not be more in our favor. Last week's fatal encounter with California left us nowhere to go but up. However, it also removed the pressure of championship competition and enables us to play the role of spoilers. Now, truly, is the time to avenge the defeats of the season by taking the big game and the chances for the championship away from coach Glen Killinger's charges. An item that surely shouldn't be overlooked that counts heavily in the Huskies favor is the fact that the Bloomsburg student body plans to be represented by at least three hundred of its members.

The bus trip to West Chester had long been a dream of Bob Gower and he was determined not to allow it to simply remain a dream. Few of us realize the obstacles that are entailed with an event of this sort. Certainly it is not an easy task. However, Bob has done a commendable job along with a committee composed of the co-chairman of the Pep Committee, the co-chairman of the Social Recreation Committee, and many other leaders of various student activities. This special committee began formulating the proposed trip way back at the beginning of the semester and worked quietly behind the scenes so that they would not detract from the importance of any other games. Then, last week, posters very ably composed by Ken Weir were displayed around campus. George Vivicqua spoke to you in assembly and revealed the many events proposed to make this more than just a but trip. This will be an unforgettable weekend and unequalled in the annals of Bloomsburg's history. The weekend will culminate in a dance on Saturday night in honor of a team which deserves all the enthusiasm and support we can give them. It is our hope that we can thank them in this way for their endeavors and show them that we all have the pep.

Vulcans Trounce Huskies, 31-6

Last Saturday afternoon the California Vulcans gained their first victory in seven attempts by defeating the Huskies of Bloomsburg by a 31-6 score. The victory-starved Vulcans sent an underestimated and power laden team against the Huskies.

Visiting BSTC was unable to penetrate California's defensive line until the fourth quarter when hard-running Carl Sweet plunged two yards for the touchdown.

Richard Wita was California's hero, having tallied three out of the five Vulcan touchdowns.

In the CLUB HOUSE

ATHENAEUM CLUB

The Athenaeum Club held their regular meeting Thursday, Nov. 1, at 3:00 in Science Hall.

At this time, mambo lessons were taught by Mrs. Isabelle Rosen, a member of the club.

Ray Calabreze, announcer for the Bloomsburg radio station, WHLM, was guest speaker at the previous meeting.

The only requirement for admission to the Athenaeum Club is an interest in music.

Mr. Robert P. Ulmer is the club's new advisor and Arlene Rando is president.

MEN'S DORM ASSOCIATION MEETING

A special meeting of the Men's Dormitory Association was held Monday, November 6. The major purpose of this meeting was to make a constitutional change which was necessary because of the redefinition of those students who are living in Bloomsburg and in homes other than their own. These students have been reclassified as resident students. It has been suggested that they be included in the Men's Dorm Association. Hence, the organization must change its name to Men's Resident Council.

Other items discussed were the Bakeless fund, acquisition of pencil sharpeners for each floor, and floats for the West Chester parade.

SAE

Initiation of new members to Sigma Alpha Eta, Speech and Hearing Fraternity, was the first important item on the club's agenda. Twenty pledges began initiation on Friday, October 26, at 8:00 a.m. A formal ceremony on Thursday evening, November 1, climaxed the week long proceedings.

Officers for the 1956-57 term are Dale Springer, president; Donald Wallace, vice-president; Richard Mease, recording secretary; Barbara Bushy, corresponding secretary; and George Herman, treasurer.

were looking for. The girls: Ann Tooyo, Lorraine Morlock, and Susan Snyder, nearly lost their voices when a nice young fellow dressed in tweed and sporting a brier pipe wandered up on the stage. The girls were apparently spellbound by the background music Dave Spar provided with his ukelele and the strictly collegiate gentleman, Dennis Musket, for they followed the young man right off the stage.

What did a girl of yesteryears say when she found herself at a ballgame with a "run" in her "white socks"? Sally Riefenstahl in her straw hat, bright orange dress, and long stockings told the audience about just such an experience.

The talent show came to a close with a number by none other than the End Men. The fellows created an undecipherable scene as they appeared in lovely gowns and mink stoles to sing "Take Back Your Minks". They blushed a bit afterwards but, well, wouldn't you?

A religious reading was substituted for the Bible. The audience was deeply impressed by the monologue "Three Are Strong" by Maureen Barber.

Credit was given where credit was due—to the people behind the scenes. These included Sam Haupt, who was master of ceremonies; Mary Lou Wagner, Ruth Moser, Joanne Graeber, Alice Shaw, Nikki Scheno, Betty Derr, Sandy Kasper, Carol Kunkle, Robin Foensby, Barbara Watts, and Carol Ely, who had various back-stage jobs; and Sandy McBride and Jack Herman, who as freshmen class advisors were in charge of the program.

The class of 1960 may have enjoyed presenting their talent show, but the upper classmen say "The pleasure was all ours".

LSA NEWS

A highlight of the last LSA meeting, held Monday, October 29, was the panel discussion, moderated by Dr. Serff. The subject, "Christians in Politics," was discussed by Al Hoffman, Harley Stewart, Eunice Miller, and Carol Clark. The opinion that a true Christian should not deal in politics was questioned, because some political issues involve a moral issue also.

A spaghetti supper was served at this meeting.

WESLEY FELLOWSHIP

The last meeting of the Wesley Fellowship was held on October 23, in the social rooms of the church. A delicious hamloaf meal was enjoyed by all.

The program for the coming year was announced. A few of the highlights include a talk by Mrs. Hopkins on what the life of a minister's wife is like, Christmas caroling followed by a Christmas party, slides shown by Miss Barnes on her European trip, and an evening of square dancing.

The next meeting will be held November 13, at 5:30 p.m. All members and their friends are invited to attend.

"B" CLUB

At the regular meeting of "B" Club, the organization has been busy making plans for an interesting program for its members. Some tentative activities include skating and a trip to Hershey to see the 1957 Ice Capades. The club also desires to make a weekend trip to Eagles Mere in the Spring.

party. He stated that during the Eisenhower administration communistic influence in our government has ended, that the Negroes have benefited by the Supreme Court decision, and that a successful "Atoms for Peace" program is in progress. He also cited the fact that during the past four years, there has been increasing national aid to, and leadership in, education. The Korean dispute was a major issue in his speech. Ken reminded the student body that a truce was reached, and prisoners were returned according to the president's promises.

Opposing the Republican party speaker was Donald MacLean, a senior social studies major from Lumberville. Don is a staunch advocate of the principles of the Democratic party, having run for a minor political office several years ago.

Mr. MacLean defended Adlai Stevenson's theory that the hydrogen bomb tests should be discontinued. He stated that by retaining a stock pile, we would be just as prepared as Russia, who has never shown evidence of taking the initiative in war. He also called to the student's attention that small and marginal land farmers are selling out to big businesses as a result of the Eisenhower administration's soil bank plan designed to reduce surpluses. Quoting statistics, Mr. MacLean reported that the average farm family income has fallen 17% from 1952 to the present day. Don concluded his address by telling the assembly how much they would benefit by electing the Democratic candidates.

Senior Ball Planned

The annual Senior Ball and Banquet will be held at the Irem Temple Country Club on Thursday, May 23, 1957, at 6:30 p.m. Dancing from 9:00 to 12:00 p.m. to the music of Lee Vincent and his orchestra will be the outstanding feature of the evening. These plans and many more have been made to help climax four happy and prosperous years spent at BSTC by the class of 1957.
