SENIOR CLASS TO GRADUATE MAY 25

Thornton, Bechtel, Farrow To Edit '58-'59 Publications

Succeed Galatha Suwalski, Wahl

1958 editors for the Maroon and Gold, the Obiter and the Olympian were selected last week by the BSTC Publications Board. This group, which consists of Dr. Seronny, Dr. DeVoe, and Dr. Russell, has appointed Mary Ann Thornton to the post of Maroon and Gold newspaper editor, Joanne Bechtel to the position of Obiter yearbook editor, and Whitey Farrow, Olympian editor.

Mary Ann Thornton, a junior from Shamokin, succeeds Mary Galatha as editor of the Maroon and Gold, the college newspaper which is published by a student staff. The paper keeps the student body informed on current activities at the college.

Mary Ann's journalistic experiences include news editorship and assistant editorship on the college paper, and membership on the editorial board of Obiter. She was also chairman of the Hospitality Committee and a delegate to the 1958 Student Government Conference.

Her duties as Maroon and Gold editor include supervising and coordinating the various departments which include editing, copy reading, news, sports, typing, advertising and circulation.

Joanne Bechtel, a junior from Easton, will succeed Nancy Suwalski as editor of the Obiter, which is the college yearbook. Published each Spring by the college community, the Obiter contains a review of the activities of the graduating class, including a pictorial story of the campus, faculty, students, clubs and teams.

Joanne has been a member of the Obiter staff and the Obiter editorial board. Besides acting as secretary of the C.G.A. and the 1958 Student Government Conference, she has been active in the Business Education Club, Chorus, Social Nsgae Club and Newman Club.

As editor of the Obiter, Joanne will also be in charge of the Placement Brochure. She will supervise the staff and coordinate their efforts.

Whitey Farrow, a sophomore from Peckville, was selected to succeed Kim Wahl as Olympian editor. The Olympian is a student literary magazine in which talented students receive the opportunity to publish their literary efforts in the fields of poetry and prose.

Whitey has served on the Pilot staff, the editorial board of the Maroon and Gold and college sports publicity, under the direction of Mr. Buckingham. He is also a member of Men Residents' Council, Phi Sigma Pi, Social and Recreation Committee, and the Athenaeum Club. His activities include intramurals and the Annual High School Basketball Tournament.

Phi Sigma Pi Has Year End Banquet

The brothers of Phi Sigma Pi held their semi-annual banquet last Thursday evening at Dutch Hill Church. The banquet was given in honor of the seniors to be graduated this month. Chicken and waffles was enjoyed by 47 members of the Bloomsburg Chapter. Following the dinner a ceremony was conducted for the installation of officers for the coming college year.

The following officers will guide Iota Chapter during 1957-1958: Pete Valenla, president; Cap Parry, vice-president; Jim Peck, secretary; Bill Thomas, treasurer; Ray Berger, assistant secretary; Conrad Stanitski, sergeant-at-arms; Ron Romig, historian; Byron Krapp, chaplain; and Mr. Russell Schleichner as official faculty sponsor.

Dr. John J. Serff was the Chapter's guest speaker for the evening.

Oliver To Speak At S.S. Institute

Dr. Robert T. Oliver, Far Eastern Advisor to the United States Department of State and one of the nation's leading authorities on Korea and Korean affairs, is one of six authorities on international affairs lecturers, consultants, and discussion leaders for the Institute of International Affairs to be presented by the Bloomsburg State Teachers College from June 23 to July 11, 1958. The Institute is being offered to college students and teachers-in-service during the second three week summer session. Dr. John J. Serff, Professor of Social Studies and Director of the Institute, announced today that lectures and discussions will emphasize conditions in the Far East, Middle East, and the Soviet Union.

Dr. Oliver is scheduled to address the Institute and the college assembly on Wednesday, June 25. In addition to his role in world affairs, he has served as Professor and Head of the Department of Speech at the Pennsylvania State University since 1949. He is also one of the organizers and a member of the Board of Directors of the American-Korean Foundation.

In June, 1951, and again in November, 1952, Dr. Oliver was called to war-torn Korea by Dr. Syngman Rhee, president of the Republic of Korea, to serve as an advisor to him. He had served President Rhee in a similar capacity in the spring of 1949. Before joining the Penn State faculty, he was manager of the Washington Bureau of the Korean Pacific Press.

From 1942 to 1948, Dr. Oliver was a counsellor to the Korean Commission, and has acted as an advisor to successive Korean delegations to the United Nations since 1945. He served on the faculty of the University of Korea in Seoul in 1946, and in 1948 he lectured at the Asia Institute in New York City.

Dr. Oliver earned degrees from Pacific University, the University of Oregon, and the University of Wisconsin. He has taught at Clark Junior College in Vancouver, Washington, at Bucknell University at Lewisburg, and at Syracuse University, and during World War II was administrative assistant with the Victory Speakers Bureau of the O. C. D., and administrative chief of Food Conservation with the War Foods Administration.

In addition to his reputation as an outstanding speaker, Dr. Oliver has authored nine books and numerous magazine and newspaper articles.

Enrollment for the Institute is still open to college students and teachers-in-service. Additional information may be secured from John A. Hoch, Dean of Instruction at the College.

Alumni Return To Alma Mater

More than five hundred alumni are expected to return to the campus during the annual Alumni Day on Saturday, May 24, 1958, at the Bloomsburg State Teachers College. College personnel and officers of the general alumni association have already completed most of the arrangements which will make it possible for alumni and friends to renew old acquaintances, attend class reunions, and get a look at changes made on the campus since their last visit.

The day's activities will get underway with a meeting of the association in Carver Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. (Daylight Saving Time). In addition to the business meeting and the election of officers, Meritorious Service Awards will be presented to two outstanding alumni. Luncheon will be served in the College Commons at noon.

Dr. E. H. Nelson, President of the Association, indicated today that reponses from the graduates have been good. Many alumni, including the Classes of 1913, 1933, 1943, and 1948 are making extensive arrangements for reunions of their respective groups. Some have scheduled dinners and meetings for Friday, May 23, while others will meet at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday with a dinner and social hour in the evening.

Hoch Presents New Four Point System

John A. Hoch, Dean of Instruction, recently announced that the quality point system now in effect will be changed as of September 6, 1958. The Administrative Council with the approval of President Andrus decided to use the following ratings: A, Four quality points, B, three quality points, C, two quality points, D, one quality point and E, no quality points.

The standards of achievement will automatically become 2.0 instead of the present 1.0 minimum. Record cards will be re-rated this summer to coincide with the new system.

NOTICE

All men students who are planning to request their draft boards for continued deferment from military service must file their SS Form 109 with the office of the Dean of Instruction before the end of the current semester. Letters must then be written to the Local Selective Service Boards in support of the SS Form 109 in order to qualify for deferment for the college year 1958-59. The dean's office will not file the forms, as a routine matter; the completion of the form is the individual responsibility of the student desiring continued deferment.

Kovacs Speaker At Graduation

The Senior Class of 1958 will be graduated Sunday, May 25, at 2:00 p.m. in Centennial Gymnasium. The Reverend Imre Kovacs, B.D., pastor of the East Sixty-Ninth Street Community Church in New York City, will deliver the commencement address. Rev. Kovacs will discuss "The Challenge of Being an American."

Kovacs is no stranger on the Bloomsburg campus. He made a very favorable impression during a previous address, just as he has done in addressing more than five million people in American communities from coast to coast, including an audience of twenty-five thousand at Madison Square Garden.

A native of Hungary, Kovacs is an authority on Central Europe and the Balkan area. On occasion, he has said that he is "Hungarian by Birth, Yugoslav by Compulsion, and American by Choice."

Educated in the schools of Hungary, Germany, Rumania, and Serbia, he came to the United States after World War II to complete his education and training at Yale University, Lancaster Seminary, and the Julliard School of Music.

For a number of years, he represented the Young Men's Christian Association in Yugoslavia, and travelled through nine European countries, studying social and economic conditions. He returned to the United States at the invitation of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. for a lecture tour.

He is the only foreign-born American ever to receive the National Best-Teller Award. He was co-recipient of the Award with former Vice President Alben Barkley. He now devotes most of his time to spreading the message of tolerance and democracy for the remedy of the blind hatreds and prejudices of the Old World.

During the commencement exercises, degrees will be conferred on one hundred eighty-six seniors who will complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree in May or during the Summer Sessions.

Winters Sermon To Be "Strange Values"

Richard H. Winters, Dean of Students at Franklin and Marshall College, will deliver the sermon during the Baccalaureate Service, Sunday, May 25, at 10:30 a.m. (D.S.T.) in Centennial Gymnasium. The theme of his address will be "Strange Values".

A native of Smithsburg, Maryland, Dean Winters was graduated from the public schools of Washington County before he began his undergraduate work at Franklin and Marshall. At the latter institution, he earned the Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy in 1944, and, a short time later, enrolled at the Lancaster Theological Seminary where he was awarded the Bachelor of Divinity degree upon completion of his preparation for the ministry. During the next four years, he served Evangelical and Reformed churches in Allentown and Hellertown, and completed a year of internship as a hospital chaplain.

In 1951, he joined the staff at Franklin and Marshall as Director of Admissions. After three years in that capacity, he accepted a call to become minister of The Abbey Church in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. He returned to his alma mater in 1955 to assume his present duties as Dean of Students.

An audience of nearly two thousand students, faculty, parents, and friends are expected to attend the Baccalaureate Service at 10:30 a.m. and the Commencement exercises at 2:00 p.m. when Bachelor of Science degrees in Education will be presented to 187 seniors who will complete requirements for graduation in May or during the summer sessions.

Vincent To Play At Senior Ball

The annual Senior Banquet and Ball will highlight a busy period of activities for this year's graduating class. The Irem Temple Country Club in Dallas, Pennsylvania, will be the scene of the long-awaited Senior Banquet and Ball on Thursday, May 22, 1958. The high point of the banquet, which will begin at 6:30, will be the reading of the Class History by Eddie Braynock. Dancing to Lee Vincent's Orchestra will begin at 9 p.m. and continue until midnight.

Paul Anderson has been selected by class members to deliver the annual Ivy Day Oration on Wednesday, May 21, following the Senior Honor Assembly.

A full schedule of activities follows:

Saturday, May 17—Teaching seniors to pick up caps and gowns in Room L following Professional Practicum Class.

Tuesday, May 20—10-12 a.m.—Non-teaching seniors to pick up caps and gowns in Room L.

4:00 p.m.—Classes end for all seniors.

Wednesday, May 21—9:00 a.m.—Honor Assembly and Ivy Day Practice. Senior assembly in Husky Lounge for instructions.

10:00 a.m.—Honor Assembly in Carver Auditorium. Immediately after assembly, Ivy Day exercises will take place at the cafeteria (weather permitting).

11:15 a.m.—Senior Class will assemble near small porch at Weller Hall for picture (weather permitting).

1:30 p.m.—Seniors will practice for Baccalaureate and Commencement. They will assemble in Centennial Gymnasium and will be seated alphabetically for Baccalaureate Commencement.

Thursday, May 22—6:30 p.m.—Senior Banquet at Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas, followed by Dance from 9 to 12.

Saturday, May 24—10:00 a.m.—Class will assemble in cap and gowns in Husky Lounge for Alumni Day exercises.

11:15 a.m.—Rain date for class picture.

Sunday, May 25—10:00 a.m.—Seniors will assemble for Baccalaureate exercises in Husky Lounge. In case of rain, assemble in small gyms of Centennial.

10:30 a.m.—Baccalaureate, Centennial Gymnasium.

1:30 p.m.—Seniors will assemble in Husky Lounge for Commencement exercise instruction. (In case of rain, assemble in small gyms of Centennial.)

2:00 p.m.—Graduation exercises, Centennial Gymnasium.

Notes From a Senile Senior

Seniors are old. They've been through the mill. They're tired. Their bones creak. They're just not much good anymore. You can spot a senior the minute he opens his mouth because right about this time of the year he can speak on only two subjects: "Remember When" and "Job" (or lack of one). One nice thing about a senior is that he appreciates everything so — "This is my last milkshake from the ice-cream-man at BSTC. . . This is the last time I'll sit in this booth on this side of the lounge wearing my polka-dotted dress and smoking my pipe. . . This is the last time I'll be able to flunk one of Dr. Herre's history tests. . ."

Oh, what a bittersweet age!

As a member of the "last class of the 'Old Regime'" we have just a few observations. That we are the last of the Old is true. It was pointed out to us by a junior not very long ago. The "New Regime" is characterized by larger enrollment, more emphasis on scholastic achievement, increasing complication of administrative red-tape, high fashion in clothes, beautiful new building facilities (the new Husky Lounge, post office, Waller lobbies, Deans' offices, College Commons and the new library have all been built or improved since we wore Frosh dinks) and decreasing warmth and friendliness among the students.

Maybe we're just old, but BSTC seems to have a less mature atmosphere now. Has a "high school" element crept in somewhere? We suspect.

There are a few things we've just got to say before we leave. For what it's worth — our key point system needs revising. . . students need a little more spark, a little more of the adventuresome spirit. It's probably a comfort to be a loved-and-endeared-by-everyone-glob but being too "safe" can be dangerous too. . . The '58 Orbit is beautiful. Those straight, space-saving, eye-saving pictures are a comfort to tired eyes. . . glad to see, also, more informal shots. . . the women's dormitory needs closed-room smokers. . . spontaneous music sessions like the one on Wednesday night should be encouraged, not calendarized. . . BSTC needs more excellent cultural programs such as we've had this year — Ciardi, Man and Superman, the Chalk Garden. . .

As Seniors are old to the rest of the students, they are new, too, to the hard cruel world. We'll be babes in the woods to an older civilization. But after that — never young again. Tragic, rather. . .

Whenever we think of graduating, one image sticks in our mind. About a week ago a little lady in the "winter of her age" smiled timidly near Waller Hall and asked if she might just go in and look around a bit. Then she added impishly and proudly, "I graduated from here once."

Makes you think.

All this chatter sounds as if we are reluctant to leave BSTC. Not so! We've enjoyed our visit. Thank you kindly. But we've just about overstayed our welcome. It's about time we move on. It's always nice to visit, but when it's over, it's just as nice to leave the host behind. BSTC will probably never look so good as from a distance.

Well, it's true.

Every class in high school makes a will. We would like to bequeath, to the faculty and the remaining students, the problems of the world. The good memories we'll take with us but the problems we leave to you. We just borrowed them for a spell but you can have them back — slightly used, worn a little thin perhaps, but still kicking. Take good care of them. They'll be around for a long time.

. . . Sweets for the sweet. Farewell, my lovely. . .

Shorthand Class Wins Prize Again

Professor Walter S. Rygiel recently received the announcement that his shorthand class team won Third Place in the International Order of Gregg Artists Shorthand Contest, Collegiate Division, sponsored by the Gregg Publishing Co.

There were approximately 20,000 contestants competing. The British Isles, Asia, many of the islands, and North and South America are only a few of the many areas represented in the International Contest.

The Third Prize is an engraved gold wall-plaque awarded to Mr. Rygiel as teacher of the team. He also received a personal gift.

Audrey Brumbach, Bangor; Lois Miller, Mifflinville; Louise Campbell, Lewistown; Joan Stablum, Minersville; Bernice Dietz, Cling-erstown; Janice Bittle, Cressona; Gerald Eltringham, Shamokin; Jay Bangs, Millville; Joseph Butz, Glen Lyon; Aristide Adlizzi, Brookline; Larry Fisher, Trevorton; Kenneth Swatt, Shamokin.

Gold pins were awarded to the following students for superior merit in shorthand penmanship: Mary Majikas, Bernice Dietz, Linda Ruggiere, Joanne Bechtel, Janice Bittle, Joy Dreisbach, Barbara Batzel, Aristide Adlizzi, Jay Bangs, Kenneth Swatt, Janice Kunes, and Lois Miller.

Miss Barbara Batzel, of Singing Springs, a member of the local team won the added distinction of being named to Fourth Place in the International Student Division for submitting a meritorious specimen of shorthand notes. She received as a prize a desk pad, "My Week."

For two years in succession — 1956 and 1957, Professor Rygiel and his shorthand students took First Prize in National Shorthand Contests.

THE Commuters . .

The Commuters are sponsoring a new contest. This contest will decide the new school colors. Just check your favorite, clip out the ballot, and return to Box 545. Each ballot must be accompanied with two deficiency slips from Dr. Herre. Ivory and White — Burnt Umber and Yellow Ochre — Purple and Maroon — Yellow and Gold —

I hope Calvin Ryan will vote. "Orchids of the Week" to Carl Unger for fixing Janet Fry's flat tire. (But Carl, with Scotch Tape). Thanks Calvin Ryan for your help. Did you notice Miss Mettler handing out preventive aspirin to the practitioners of May Day. And is it true the May Queen gets a pole complete with streamers instead of a service key at graduation?

Tom Fleck has so many riders signed up for next year, he's going to make two trips every morning. Maybe Calvin Ryan will share with you.

Did you hear about the girl commuter (R.N.) who missed her ride last Wednesday. After crying on the steps in front of Carver for two hours, she knew it was hopeless and decided to put her books in the Day Room and spend the night in the freight elevator. However, as she was closing her locker she heard the familiar slam of the door as the janitor clicked the key in the lock.

A course in Professional Orientation taught her to be self-reliant so she went out into the kitchen and prepared herself a delicious meal of leftover sandwiches. After dinner she went to the lounge (D.W.) and did her homework in Speech Pathology while listening to Lawrence Welk-a.

With her homework out of the way, she decided to retire for the night. (She couldn't retire permanently because she isn't 65). She then collected the sweaters and coats left on the racks by last year's seniors and made a comfortable bed on the largest couch. Her blanket was the February 4 issue of Morning Press. Perhaps now you'll believe your daughter's story Mrs. N.

What happened to Beau Huttemann's cheering uniform? After all he was duly elected.

Did the baseball team really enjoy their free ride to Millersville last week? Who didn't report the call from MSTC? C.R.?

Do all of you commuters realize that until the advent of Daylight Saving Time we have to get up at five a.m. instead of six?

I can hardly wait for the summer session on the Institute of Foreign Relations. We hear Fidel Castro will be Battista's good will ambassador.

And a happy May 22 to all, including C.R.

Concert Presented

The Annual Spring Choral Concert was presented by the College Choraleers on April 29 under the direction of Nelson Miller. The program opened with two songs dealing with man's prayer and his search for peace and understanding. "Mountains" by Leigh Jones and "Souls of Men" by Raymond Rhea were the two songs.

A romantic ballad "The Dream of Oliven" was next on the program. This was followed by the mountain dance song "Cindy." Returning to the serious selections again the Choraleers sang "Madame Jeanette." Edward Lockton and Alan Murray were inspired to write this song by the Battle of St. Pierre during World War I.

Included in the "Carousel" medley transcribed by Clay Warnick were "You'll Never Walk Alone," "June is Bustin' Out all Over," "A Real Nice Clambake," and "If I Loved You."

"An Ereskay Love Lilt" and the well-known railroad song "The Gandy Dancer's Ball" were the concluding numbers of the concert.

The College Choraleers present two annual concerts. They are under the direction of Nelson Miller of the college faculty. Miss Patsy Fetterolf is the piano accompanist.

Notice

All women students living in Waller Hall who are planning on attending the Senior Ball must have their permission slips on file in the Dean of Women's office by Monday, May 19, 1958.

The Old Philosopher

Hello friends! From your comments about our absence from the last two issues we've been encouraged to take the advice of one of our great naval heroes — "Don't give up the ship" — So we've decided to come above board and let you know once again the submerged news around the campus.

We've decided to start a crusade — "A new word to replace apathy" — if anyone has any suggestions send them to the Maroon and Gold Office. The word appeared 32 times two issues ago — Stan Swider counted it for us! Thanks, Mank.

We've heard from a Dean's List student that the town library is in worse shape than the one here at school. Cheer up readers — the new library is now in operation. We hear that there are even open stacks.

Incidentally, College Commons is in the process of being renamed Banquet Hall. Keep hoping workers, maybe someday you'll get a raise in salary, (maybe it will be included in the Ten Year Plan?). One of our "friends" was sick last week, but not sick enough to get a ride in that expensive new ambulance. Our "friend" said, "Thank heavens for cottage cheese — I recovered." Deiores Panzetta informed us that Darwin's favorite food was bananas.

Since we've been reading one of the best features of the Maroon and Gold, other than the editorials, we've been wondering how the Commuter's can afford all those orchids every week — maybe they have a business deal with Dr. Lanterman. We'd like to congratulate Nikki & Robin on their radio show — "Radio Free Berwick". Keep up the good work, Comrades.

Is Woody Rhodes planning on giving up chess since so many people are becoming interested in the game? Cheer up Woody, once they become of age Ekill Pool at Hess' will occupy their time.

Some of the Frosh told us that the Phi Sig initiation reminded them of their early days at BSTC.

Overheard on Campus:

Miss Mettler telling Mrs. Miller and Miss Zinn that Waller Hall Lobby should be made into a reading room (Don't forget your books folks when you take your girl in at night.). A trip to a coal mine will be an annual event of the Modern Novel Course.

The Husky track team is now being coached on a merit basis — (maybe the proposed Tribunal did do some good.). Some of our Elementary students are confused between the term recession and recess. Careful or we'll have a Teaching of Recess course offered next semester.

Every male on campus should read Philip Wylie's "To Hell With Togetherness" in the current issue of True Magazine. Rebel insulted an English major by asking him for a loan of his Kiddie Lit book. Is Mary Healy now the mascot for the Penn State Glee Club?

Clean up day in the Husky Lounge always seems to come when the students have free time. We suppose you'd call it long-range planning.

As another happy school year ends we all have things we can look back on and smile — the socializer remembers many dances, noisy pep rallies and wet splash parties; the scholar remembers term papers, book reports, themes, outside readings and studying for tests; the workers at College Commons remember banquets, banquets and, yes, you guessed it, more banquets. Just think, soon all you'll have to do is swim in the ocean, horse back ride in the mountains or work to earn enough money to come back next semester. What ever you do friends remember things aren't as bad as they seem, so lift your head up high, take a walk in the sun and smile, smile, smile. . .

Memoirs of Mae Bush

Dear Stiney,

Well, we all got thru May Day okay. You know the theme was "Story-Book Land." Well—the co-ed gym classes danced a synopsis of Peyton Place. I must say, we really wowed them!

Stiney, I'm terribly hurt that you preferred going to the SAGCC (Semi-Annual Garbage Collector's Convention) instead of taking me to the Senior Ball. Since I'm so shy and bashful, I just won't ask anyone else, so I'll just spend my 3:30 down at the local tappy. Anyway—I'll make some money doing my floor show, so that's some consolation. You should see it—it's different. I start out doing a sort of waltz, wearing a black and purple bathing suit. And then I keep throwing on clothes as the music plays faster and faster! When I finally finish, I'm doing the "Mush-Husky-Hop" dressed as an Eskimo.

Maybe there's something to this sikiatree jazz. The other day when I was going to have my sneakers recapped, I stopped in at the local sikiatrist, Dr. Froid, Sig for short. He has offices in a local establishment in town. (The shingle looks good against red.) He got out his portable couch and I lay on it and told him all about my past like the time I spread peanut butter and jelly all over myself and was a sandwich for two months and when I collected illuminated clock faces and sausage links and made large charm bracelets. And I told him of my terrible phobia of platypuses' fingernails and my compulsion to walk on third rails and my ambition to be the first dog food sales-girl n an earth satellite.

I took a Rorschach, too. But they all looked like ink spots to me. And I drew a man, only I kept thinking of you, so I guess it's not too good.

All the while I was talking, Dr. Frid, Sig for short, just hummed, "Ummmmmmmmmm," and smoked about seventeen cartons of Marlboroughs and stared out the smoke-strained windows—just like the movies in Ment-ul Hygiene.

Well, here's what Dr. Froid, Sig for short, said: I'm pretty normal for a Bloom co-ed, only I have a split personality; one part of me is going to graduate in a few days, and face the wide world and some unsuspecting American pupils and the other part will stay at Bloom writing letters and memoirs for another year. Well, we (both of me) hope all our friends (both of

by Jane Neff

Currently playing at the Borchardt Theater is "Auntie Mame," starring Geer Garson. This comedy takes place during a period of years from 1928 to 1946, during which Auntie Mame becomes involved in an unusual series of events.

As the curtain goes up, Mame has just taken her nephew Patrick Dennis, into her unconventional home. Patrick becomes quite attached to the gay life of his Aunt and her friends, but complications set in when Mr. Babcock, a trustee to the young boy, discovers that Mame has been sending the boy to a progressive school where everyone goes nude.

Finally, Patrick is sent away to a "proper" school, and Mame is forced to work because of a stock market crash. Just before she ruins the economy and sanity of Macies, Beauregard Jackson Picket Burnside, complete with southern drawl and "hominy grits", marries her. They are very happy touring the world, until Mame's true love falls off a peak in the Swiss Alps in an effort to take her picture. Then Mame returns complete with black lace to New York. In order to snap Mame out of her pseudo-mourning, her friends suggest that she write her memoirs. It is during this time that we meet Miss Agnes Gooch, an indescribably funny character. Her personality, appearance, and voice well fit her name. She becomes involved with a roughish Irishman in order to follow Mame's instructions "to live."

The new grown Patrick envisions himself in love with a prim New England girl, but Mame, the now very pregnant Agnes, and Auntie's "rare" friends, produce a rather unfavorable impression upon the girl and her parent.

Patrick marries a girl who accepts the eccentricities of Mame's household, and in the final scene Mame is off to tour the world with their young son Michael.

Greer Garson, who replaced Rosalind Russell, was very good in her portrayal of Mame. The sets showing the frequent redecoration of Mame's house were ingenious, and her costumes were glamorous. Her egocentric manner and husky voice made most of her statements, which were most risque, extremely effective to the audience. This comedy stopped enough short of slapstick to be a hilariously funny show.

mine) have a nice, profitable summer. Lots of Love, Mae Bushes

MAY DAY 1958

Old King Cole's Court Jester Myron entranced all spectators, young and old.

Tuesday, May 13, Miss Bobbie Creamer was crowned queen of the third annual May Day celebration held on the lawn at Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Assisted by the first graders from Benjamin Franklin Training School who acted as junior attendants, eight senior girls formed Miss Creamer's honor court.

Preceding the ceremonies, the Maroon and Gold Concert Band presented a program of contemporary music. The audience was then taken on an imaginary trip to Story Book land by the pupils from the Training School and the college students. The crowning of the queen by Luther Natter was followed by the colorful winding of fifteen maypoles by children and college coeds.

Storybook Heldis come alive on the campus terraces.

After Old King Cole called for his pipe, his bowl and his fiddlers three he seemed perplexed by all the sudden attention.

A May Day Dance held from 8:30 to 11:30 in Husky Lounge climaxed the celebration. Joe Stanton and his orchestra provided the music for the occasion. One of the highlights of the evening was the introduction of the May Queen and her attendants. The doors leading from the upper deck of the lounge were opened to provide access to the lawn where refreshments were served.

Bob Steinruck acted as general chairman for the dance.

The "Kampus Kids", winners of the square dance competition at the State Farm Show, show May Day audiences "Turkey in the Straw".

Sigma Alpha Eta Visits Clinic

Thirty-six members of Sigma Alpha Eta, the Speech and Hearing Fraternity, and Dr. Maletta, made a trip to Philadelphia on May 1st and 2nd.

The purpose of the over-night tour was to visit two facilities for the care and education of the deaf in our state, The Pennsylvania School for the Deaf at Mt. Airy, and the Audiological Clinic of the Philadelphia Naval Hospital.

The group was thoroughly guided through the Mt. Airy school. This oral school provides a complete academic program beginning with pre-school activities and continuing through the ninth grade.

The Audiological Clinic of the Navy Hospital is a national one with men from all over the United States making use of its services. Many of the fraternity members were permitted to experiment with some of the equipment and tests while there. Welcoming courtesy was extended to all.

Sophomore Girl in Beauty Contest

Miss Virginia Deibert, daughter of Mr. and Mr. Earl Delbert, Danville, a sophomore in the elementary curriculum at BSTC, placed third in the Miss Shamokin contest held Saturday evening at Shamokin High School. Also participating in the contest which included girls from four counties was Miss Nikki Scheno, Berwick, also a student at the college.

The contest, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Shamokin, is an official preliminary competition for the Miss America Contest which is held at Atlantic City, N. J.

Contestants were judged for personality and talent and appeared in evening gown and bathing suit. They also spoke extemporaneously on three topics.

Miss Deibert's presentation included an imitation of Marilyn Monroe. Her accompanist for a vocal number was Robert Steinruck.

Commuters Disc Jockeys on WBRX

Two talented Bloomsburg sophomores are displaying their versatility as "Disc Jockeys" on Radio Station WBRX Berwick. Robin Folmsbee and Nikki Scheno, who write "The Commuters" feature for the Maroon and Gold, conduct a one hour show every Thursday from two to three.

The program features the latest in popular recordings, information concerning events at BSTC, Lycoming, Wilkes, Bucknell and other area schools and is spiced by the original witticisms of the two co-eds.

The girls are anxious to play any requests which you may have and will give publicity to your organization. Next Thursday, May 22, will terminate their broadcasting for this semester.

Robin and Nikki say: If you're like Cal Ryan and like to hear your name on the radio tune to 1280 on your radio dial.

Elementary Group Tours New York

Students enrolled in the elementary social studies course, taught by Miss Edna Barnes, visited the Headquarters of the U. N. and several other places of interest in New York City on Thursday, April 24.

After an early morning start the group arrived at the United Nations at approximately 11 o'clock. The students had an opportunity to view an introductory film "Introducing the U. N." The classes toured the Headquarters and were permitted to visit the chapel, bookstore, novelty and gift shops, and the coffee shops. Several students attended the morning session of the Court.

The latter part of the afternoon was spent at the Hayden Planetarium and the American Museum of Natural History. At the planetarium they viewed a program "Time and the Stars" which depicted the many changes which have occurred in the heavenly bodies during the centuries.

Message From Retiring CGA President Luther Natter

On Monday evening, May 12, College Council held its annual banquet at the Hotel Magee, marking the culmination of another year of council work here at BSTC. To some of us it was the termination point, but to others it was the beginning.

Throughout the past year we have tried many things, some of which we have succeeded in doing while in others we have failed. But yet we cannot say we have failed entirely, for some of the things we have started will grow, even as Bloomsburg grows. Once a seed is germinated, with a little help it will mature into a plant. Those ideas we have brought forth this year are the seeds that need only to be cultivated by you . . . those that remain behind. What is more, our successor can profit by our mistakes, and nurture these seeds to a final and profitable harvest. Upon commencing my responsibilities as CGA President, I, as most of the average members of our college community, had little comprehension of the magnitude of our CGA and its inter-workings. Your new president, Ron Romig, I am sure, has mixed emotions as to what his year as CGA president will bring, and is undoubtedly approaching his position with the same qualms as I had. In the interest of a better Bloomsburg, may I pass on to you now—be tolerant. Be tolerant in your evaluation of and in your criticism of your chosen leader. Give him the support you indicated in the recent election, stand behind him and his associates, in their efforts to pull the "weeds" and make this harvest possible.

College Council Decentralizes Social and Recreation Committee

College Council recently passed a plan for the decentralization of the CGA Social and Recreation Committee. The purposes of the plan are to include a greater number of the student body in the planning of college activities, to create a greater variety of activities, to provide appropriate activities at the time they are needed, and to encourage originality and variety of social experience.

Each organization on campus shall be asked to take charge of one weekend during the year. Choice of the activity or activities to be held is the concern of the individual organization. The manner of assigning dates shall be decided upon by the Social Recreation Committee.

The Social and Recreation Committee shall present a budget to the College Council in the same manner as in the past. The committee shall allot to each organization a set amount of money with which to finance wholly or in part, the weekend program. All bills covering activities shall be filed in the name of the Social Recreation Committee of CGA. The committee shall allot to itself a part of the budget to cover its activities.

The Social and Recreation committee shall serve as a coordinating body for the social program. It shall also be responsible for activities on weekends not planned by organizations. The Assistant Treasurer of CGA shall serve in the capacity of treasurer of the committee, keeping an account of the bills turned into the committee covering activities held by the organizations, and all other Social and Recreation expenses. The committee shall be responsible for informing student groups of their assignments and they may be called upon to give assistance in the activities.

In accordance with the general College Social Policy, the advisors of the various organizations shall serve as chaperons for their activities. They shall arrange for additional chaperones if they fee, it is necessary and they may request the assistance of the members of the Social and Recreation Committee.

The organizations sponsoring the events must file a report of plans for the event with the Social Rec Committee and they must submit bills not to exceed allotted amount with the committee by the Monday following the event.

Campus Scene of Business Contest

On Saturday, May 3, Bloomsburg State Teachers College played host to two hundred eleven students who participated in the Twenty-fifth Annual Business Education Contest. This group of students, representing 48 high schools in 21 Pennsylvania counties, broke all attendance records for the past 25 years.

Sixty-one high school teachers and many parents and friends accompanied the contestants. Assisting in various capacities were about 125 students of the Business Education Department at the College. The college students aided in giving the tests and determining the contest results.

Later in the afternoon, the contest officials, headed by Dr. Thomas B. Martin, Director of Business Education at the College, completed an analysis of the tests. The testing categories were Business Arithmetic, Bookkeeping, Business Law, Shorthand, and Typing. The contest winners were announced as follows:

Individual winners:

Bookkeeping — First, Edward Slatky, Duryea High School; Second, Darlis Lynn, Danville High School; Third, Martha Eppley, Susquehanna Township (Progress) Harrisburg.

Business Arithmetic — First, Linda Lehman, Danville High School; Second, Sophie Barski, Newport Conyngham, Wanamie; Third, Dyanne Kunsman, Muhlenberg Twp., Laureldale.

Business Law — First, Robert Garrett, Berwick Area; Second, Robert Duignan, Milton Hershey HS, Hershey; Third, Joy Fulton, Bloomsburg.

Shorthand — First, Kay Williams, Warrior Run Area, Watson-ton; Second, Linda Reed, Treverton; Third, Barbara Palley, Phoenixville Area.

Typing — First, Frances Moyer, Lewisburg Joint; Second, Irma Meteer, Wyalusing Valley Joint; Third, Jane Harsanyi, Phoenixville Area.

Team Honors:

Bloomsburg High School, first. Parkland-Union, Orefield, second.

Berwick Area Joint, tie—third. North Penn, Lansdale, tie—third.

Danville High School, fifth. Duryea High School, sixth. Upper Dauphin, Elizabethville, seventh.

Northumberland High School, eighth.

Cocalico Union, Denver, ninth. Conrad Weiser, Wernersville, tenth.

The students and their teachers were guests of the college for the noon luncheon in the college dining hall.

Hay Ride Tomorrow At Knoebel's Grove

A Sadie Hawkins hayride will be the highlight of a weekend beginning this evening with a record dance in the Husky Lounge. The Social Recreation Committee has made arrangements for tractor-drawn hay wagons to take the college students to Knoebel's Grove.

The wagons will leave long porch 2:00 tomorrow afternoon. Softball games have been planned for the remainder of the afternoon. Pavilion K has been reserved for BSTC students. A picnic lunch will be served there at 6:00.

Following the supper, the amusements will be opened for the use of the students.

SPORTS HI-LITES .. Huskies-Lock Haven in Final Meet

by Jim Wagner

On Tuesday, May 13, the BSTC student body welcomed and proclaimed that Spring had arrived at the same time the Husky baseball squad was starting to bid its farewell to the 1958 campaign. With the college year rapidly approaching its tension-packed climax, Coach Blair looks back over past games and evaluates each one in its own likeness.

Probably, as he earlier said, pitching was the team's big trouble. But was it? What about Dale Franklin who holds a 4-0 record in conference play which ranks him among the best in STC conference competition? I would rather give the chief problem on this year's squad as not hitting, running, pitching or fielding, but a team which lost faith in themselves when the opposition rallied for several runs. This was clearly evidenced in the Kutztown, Scranton, and Mansfield games. There was, however, one exception in which the Huskies mustered enough fight-back to come from behind, this being possible mainly through the batting efforts of Bob Rohm. Give the Huskies a lead and a shot in the arm and they will give any team a good hustle.

Another grave defect which this writer saw in past games on Mt. Olympus was the lack of moral support from the bench. A good loud bench is half the ball game. In the game against East Stroudsburg, Dr. Wagner contributed more razzing of the opposition than the entire reserve bench. You can be a good team with an average bench, but you have better chances of being the best team with a fired-up bench. Many of you may think that "fighting till the end" and good morale are not too important; but remember, it isn't always the best hitting and defense that wins all the games, but rather it is the little and seemingly unimportant factors that contribute to the success of many a ball game.

Turning to the brighter side we find that the Huskies have merits which greatly overshadow the demerits. Perhaps the most important asset on the team has been the coaching of Charlie "Moose" Orner. Charlie and his never failing spirit has raised many BSTC potential defeats into glittering victories. Coach Orner recently stated at one of our games that the most improved player on the team is Robert Boyle. None of us can dare deny this. Truly, Bob has certainly held true to his old form this year. He has hit in nearly every ball game, and off hand I would say he has had an average of two hits per game. Boyle has also made himself known as a versatile outfielder, playing three outfield slots all equally well.

Johnny Oustrich and Jonah Goobic have shown signs of improvement and have given the team a good lift. Oustrich played his first year at first base and has hit and fielded well. Not much must be said about Jonah, for all of us who saw a few games know that he is instrumental in the proper functioning of a Husky game. Joe Pental has recovered from an early season slump and now looms once again as the most dangerous hitter on the club.

Despite all the aforesaid assets and liabilities, the Huskies are still rated as one of the best, if not the best, in the Conference.

Coaches Honor BSTC Athletes

An impressive All-Sports Banquet honoring those individuals who contributed in some way to the success of the 1957-58 athletic program at BSTC was held in the College Commons on Monday, May 5, at 7:15 p.m. The practice of honoring all athletic teams in an annual dinner was resumed after a lapse of several years.

Nearly two hundred fifty guests, consisting of athletes representing all intercollegiate sports, coaches, press members, members of the administration and faculty, and cheerleaders and majorettes enjoyed a delicious candlelight dinner, after which Nelson Miller, accompanied by Howard Fenstermaker, led the guests in group singing.

Following the dinner, Dean A. Hoch introduced the various speakers. President Harvey A. Andruss, main speaker for the occasion, spoke on the importance of athletics and of the fine job that Husky teams have done and are doing. Coaches Walter Blair, Harold Shelly, and Russell Houk presented the football, basketball, and wrestling awards. Gold Awards were presented to Carl DeFebo, Edward Watts, Robert Bottorf, George Chaump, John Oustrich, Frank Frusch, Moritz Schultz, Oscar Snyder, Thomas Vaxmonsky, Gerald Wood, Kenneth Wood, Robert Boyle, Paul Anderson, James Gustave, James Snyder, Bill Swisher, John Schaefer, Robert Asby, and James Garman.

Area notables in the world of sports introduced to the guests were: Joseph Metro, John Fredericks, Walter McCloskey, Bernard Stiner, Dr. Fred Reese, Dr. Harry Hoffman, Don Daniels, and Dave Linkhorst, and local sports writers and radio announcers.

An informal social gathering was held in the lobby of the Commons following the Dinner-Program.

BSTC Relay Team Finishes Fifth

Ed Watts, Charles Loughery, Kenneth Swatt, Earl Levengood, Stan Hugo, and Coach Harold Shelly represented Bloomsburg State Teachers College at the famous Penn Relays in Philadelphia on Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26. Watts, Loughery, Swatt, and Levengood constituted a relay team which placed fifth in the State Teachers Conference mile event. They also finished fourth in the All-American half mile heat.

Hugo, Husky pole vaulter, failed to hit the twelve foot qualifying mark. It was the first time in several years that Coach Shelly entered a squad member in an individual event.

Lycoming Edges Bloomsburg STC

The Warriors from Lycoming College gained sweet revenge last weekend when Coach Walt Blair and his diamondmen journeyed to Williamsport. Having previously lost to the Huskies, Lycoming reversed itself and came on to defeat Bloomsburg, 3-2. Dale Franklin had his winning streak of four games broken; however, he is still undefeated in conference competition.

Lycoming drew first blood in the fourth when they tallied on two hits, an error, and a walk. BSTC was quick to erase the deficit by scoring twice in the sixth on a single by Pental, a Lycoming error, and a pinch hit single by Bob Rohm. The game moved along swiftly until the bottom of the ninth when Lycoming scored the final marker on Bill Smith's single to left.

Bloomsburg Wins Exhibition Tilt

Last Saturday the Warriors from Lycoming College came down from the hills to meet the Huskies on Mt. Olympus. And what a game it was. With BSTC collecting fourteen hits and Lycoming eight, the game provided nine action packed innings. The final result of the contest found the Huskies on the fat end of a 9-4 count.

Paced by the strong bat of Boyle, the Huskies maintained a 5-0 lead at the end of three. Lycoming picked up one run in the fourth and on a combination of hits and walks and then rallied for three runs in the fifth to chase starter Eddie Galitsky. Paul Franklin came in after Galitsky in an attempt to halt the Warrior attack and did so after allowing two of the three Lycoming runs to score. Bloomsburg put the game on ice when they scored single runs in the fourth and sixth, and added two in the seventh to bring the final score to 9-4.

Bobby Boyle and Jonah Goobic led the way with three hits each while Pental, who had a three-run homer, and Fritz added two more hits apiece to the Husky cause.

Huskies Defeat E. Stroudsburg

The largest crowd of the season watched the Husky diamond crew trounce the East Stroudsburg nine, 11-3, on Mt. Olympus, Wednesday, April 30. Dale Franklin and Bobby Boyle proved a dual threat to their bewildered opponents, each collecting three hits and driving in three runs. Franklin racked up his fourth mound victory in the process, giving up nine hits, allowing no walks, and fanning six. Boyle, playing his usual great game in the outfield, slammed out a pair of singles and a double to drive in three big runs, two coming in the big eight-run sixth inning, while Franklin came up with two singles and a triple to drive in three runs.

The victory was sweet revenge for the Huskies, who dropped two games to the East Stroudsburg aggregation last season. Prior to being downed by the unyielding Huskies, East Stroudsburg had been undefeated thus far this season.

Going into the bottom of the sixth frame, the score was locked at 3-3. At this point the Blairmen swung into action, sending 13 men to the plate and scoring eight runs. Franklin singled in the first marker of the inning, then Oustrich forced a run across with a walk. Pental singled with the bases loaded to score two runs, while Boyle's timely shot to left added two more runs to the Husky rally. Franklin, batting for the second time in the inning, cracked a triple to center to score the eleventh and final run.

Jim Oplinger, ace hurler for East Stroudsburg, took the whipping, giving up 10 hits. Pat Denoy, star second baseman for the Huskies, continued to baffle the conference hurlers, walking in his four times at bat to bring his total to 20 walks out of 34 times at bat.

Keyser, who was 3-4, was the top man at the plate for East Stroudsburg while Brunner and Charles collected two hits apiece. Boyle was 3-5 and Franklin 3-4 to lead the Husky hitting parade, while Patynski racked up two hits in four times up. Oustrich and Pental contributed to the Husky cause with a single each.

Blairmen Split With Red Raiders

On Thursday, April 24, the charges of Coach Walt Blair journeyed to Shippensburg State Teachers College where they met the powerful Red Raiders on a double-header. The eventual results of the previously postponed games was a split, with Shippensburg STC winning the first game by a 7-2 margin. The Huskies, however, rallied in the nightcap to post a 6-2 victory over the Raiders.

In the first game BSTC jumped off to a fast start by scoring two runs in the top of the first only to have the home team relinquish the temporary lead by blasting home three runs in their half of the first frame. SSTC continued to bombard the Huskies as they scored three times in the second and added an insurance run in the fifth. Ronald Clark pitched all the way for the winners allowing only five hits, two runs, no walks, and striking out three Husky batsmen. Carl Derr worked the mound for Bloomsburg, but was not as effective against the Raiders as he had been against Mansfield on Tuesday of that week. Derr allowed seven runs on seven hits. Carl also had three strike outs.

Allan Clark and Dale Henry led the way for the home team with two safeties apiece while hard hitting Bob Boyle paced BSTC with two solid hits.

The second game started off like the first only this time it was the Huskies out in front to stay. Paced once again by the power hitting of Bob Boyle and Johnny Oustrich, the Huskies rallied for single runs in the first and third innings, but had the big inning in the fourth when three Huskies safely scampered across the home plate. Dale Franklin pitched his usually fine and steady game by spreading the five Red Raider hits over the seven inning game. Boyle carried the big stick to BSTC as he rapped out two triples, while Joe Pental had a double and single to help BSTC.

Coach Shelly's Thinclads, relaxed after the State meet last Saturday, faced a busy week as they entertained East Stroudsburg on Tuesday, and will travel to Lock Haven to challenge the Bald Eagles in the final meet of the season on Saturday.

The track squad hasn't been too active this season as one of their few meets has been cancelled due to inclement weather. So far this year they have compiled a one and two won-lost record, and have placed sixth in the State meet, which was won by Shippensburg. Two of the shining lights in the State meet were Stan Hugo, who took first place in the pole vault, and Terry Engleman, who brought home our colors in the two-mile event. Also placing for the Huskies were Bo Hutteman who captured a second in the javelin throw; Johnny Johnson, who tied for fourth in the high jump; Stan Elinsky, fourth in pole vault; Charlie Loughery, fourth in low hurdles; and Carl Sweet, fifth in the shot put.

The Huskies are looking forward to their meet with Lock Haven, hoping to make it two consecutive victories over the Bald Eagles. Last year the Huskies edged Lock Haven in a very close 70 to 66 victory here.

Once again Coach Shelly will be counting on his big point-getters, Loughery, Hugo, Engleman and Hutteman. Lock Haven appears to be strongest in the sprints with Dintiman, last season's conference scoring champ in football, as their biggest threat. Mr. Shelly stated early in the season that we don't have any "breathers" this year, but still feels confident that his thinclads have the potential to return home victorious over the Bald Eagles.

Girls' All-Sports Day Held at BSTC

Seventy-two female athletes and their advisors from Susquehanna University, Lycoming and Wilkes Colleges, and Mansfield and Lock Haven State Teachers Colleges invaded the campus on Saturday, April 26, to take part in the Girls' All-Sports Day, under the sponsorship of the "B" Club.

From 9:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. coffee and doughnuts were served in the lobby of Centennial Gymnasium, during which time the girls registered and received tags identifying them with their particular school.

The softball games began at 10:30 a.m. and continued throughout the day, while badminton games were enjoyed throughout the afternoon. Lunch was served cafeteria style in the College Commons at 1:00 P.M. At 3:30, the water ballet was presented by members of the "B" club and was attended by a large audience.

The program which was supervised by Miss Eleanor Wray concluded at 4:30 p.m.

Huskies Sixth In State Meet

Last Saturday afternoon Coach Harold S. Shelley and 22 of his trackmen journeyed to the scene of the State Teachers College Conference Track and Field Championship. The final results of the meet saw the host college, Shippensburg, walk off with top honors to replace West Chester, who did not participate as conference champions. The Huskies placed sixth in the meet.

Winning first place for BSTC was Stan Hugo with a pole vault of eleven feet, nine inches. Terry Engleman, the Huskies' amazing distance runner, claimed the top berth in the two mile event by turning in a time of 10:16.5; he also finished fourth in the one mile event.

Charlie Loughery failed to qualify in the high hurdles but took a fourth place in the lows. Other Husky pointmakers were Beau Hutteman, second in the javelin; Stan Elinsky, fourth in the pole vault; and Johnny Johnson, tied for fourth in the high jump. Sweet was fifth in the shot put.

Team scores were as follows:

Shippensburg	54½
Slippery Rock	46½
Cheyney	34
E. Stroudsburg	27
Lock Haven	24
BSTC	22½
Millersville	17½

Muncy Athlete To Enter Bloomsburg

Gary Allen of Muncy, Pennsylvania, has been accepted as a freshman student at the Bloomsburg State Teachers College for the term beginning September 8, 1958. An outstanding wrestler and football player, Gary will graduate in May from the Muncy-Creek High School. During his high school career he won four varsity letters in wrestling and four in football. He climaxed his sophomore year by winning the District Four, PIAA 154 pound wrestling championship and copped the 165 pound championship at the end of his junior year. This winter Gary was runner-up in the 154 pound class in the state championship meet.

The announcement that Allen will enter Bloomsburg in September was greeted by Russell Houk, Head Wrestling Coach and Assistant Football Coach at the college. Houk coached Allen during the first three years that the latter participated in mat and grid-iron competition. Houk is once again looking forward to working with Allen in both sports here at Bloomsburg.

Cheyney Edges Husky Thinclads

The Bloomsburg State Teachers College track team dropped its second meet of the season to Cheyney STC, 71½ to 58½ on the winner's field.

Charles Loughery was a double winner for the Huskies, taking first in the high and low hurdles to keep his undefeated streak unmarred. Carl Sweet placed first for the locals in shot put while Terry Engleman continued to exhibit his mastery on distance runs by copping the two-mile event. Other first place winners for the Huskies were Gerald Wood, discus; Johnny Johnson, high jump; Stanley Hugo, pole vault; and Beau Hutteman in the javelin.

The appointment was made by Remund A. Sandmann, YMCA Executive for Campus Services. The chairman of the committee is Dr. Frederic K. Miller, President of Lebanon Valley College, Annville.

Mr. Hinkle has been faculty sponsor of the Student Christian Association since coming to Bloomsburg eleven years ago. He has also served as faculty sponsor of the Lutheran Student Association for nine years.

Tournament Aides Feted at Banquet

Cox's Restaurant in Elysburg, Pennsylvania, was the scene of a banquet held in honor of those individuals who contributed to the success of the 31st Annual High School Basketball Tournament. On Monday, April 21, approximately twenty-five students and faculty members, including Mr. Walter Blair, Mr. Harold Shelly, Mr. Boyd F. Buckingham, and Mr. Russell Houk, enjoyed lobster, poultry, and beef dinners in recognition of their fine work.

Many students aided recently in moving the Library from its former location on second floor to its present one at the old dining hall site. Several men, under the direction of Miss Keefer, transported the columns. Through the efforts of these men and the maintenance men, the move was completed in three days and the Library opened on Monday, May 12.
