Student Leaders Vie for Top Campus Offices

Newspaper Earns Columbia Award

Notice was received recently from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association that in its annual contest for school newspapers and magazines, the Maroon and Gold News ranked third in newspaper achievement. The contest, which is sponsored annually by Columbia University, was entered by approximately eighty teacher education colleges.

The purpose of this annual evaluation is to encourage work in selected fields and to call attention to commendable effort within the publications themselves.

The criteria considered in the judging of the newspapers are: (1) heads, (2) news stories, (3) editorials, (4) sports, (5) general features, (6) creative literary work, and (7) advertising.

Trustees Appoint Academic Chm.

The growth of Bloomsburg State Teachers College has made necessary the appointment of Chairmen of Academic Departments. At the present time, the Dean of Instruction and the Directors of Business, Elementary, Secondary, and Special Education are responsible for the academic program. This form of organization existed when the college had 600 or 700 students, and since this number has been doubled and is to be further increased in the next college year, the following chairmen have been appointed by the board of Trustees: Department of Communications (English, Speech, and Foreign Languages) Dr. Cecil C. Seronsy; Department of Mathematics and Science, Dr. Kimber C. Kuster; Department of Social Studies (including Geography) Dr. John J. Serff; Department of Music, Mr. Nelson A. Miller; Department of Art, Mr. Robert P. Ulmer; Department of Education and Psychology, Dr. Ernest H. Englehardt.

As the enrollment of the College increases the administrative staff must be increased proportionately, and the general plan of organization is subject to review at the end of each three-year period.

All of these administrators have a reduced teaching load and receive salary supplements in the form of an administrative fee for the responsibilities which would be over and above those of a member of the full-time instructional staff.

Laurel Princess To Be Crowned At Junior Prom

Class president James Peck has announced that preparations for the Junior Prom are now underway. Lee Vincent and his orchestra have been contracted to provide the music for the all-college affair which will be held on Friday, April 17. The dance was originally scheduled for the previous Friday.

The theme for the prom has not been chosen, but students are asked to drop suggestions for a theme in a ballot box which will be placed outside the Husky Lounge. Free passes to the dance will be given to the student making in the winning theme. Further information concerning this will be announced at a later date.

The Laurel Blossom Princess will be crowned at the dance. The entire student body will vote for one of five Junior girls who have been selected to enter this contest. The candidates are Sandy Clark, Mary Ellen Dushanko, Pat Oswald, Nikki Scheno, and Jacie Schwatt. The Princess will receive a free weekend in the Poconos, representing Bloomsburg in the Pocono Laurel Festival.

Key Point Scale To Be Reviewed

At a recent council meeting, Rob-in Folmsbee, Awards Committee Chairman recommended adjustments in the point scale for council approval.

No provision has been made for awarding points to several organizations on campus. It is the conviction of the committee that the amount of work required by these positions is deserving of recognition. These include members of Waller Hall standing committees, 0-1 points; Editor of the Co-Pilot, 1-7 points; staff members of the Co-Pilot, 1-4 points; scenic director of the fashion show, 1-2 points.

Under the present point allowance, all members of CGA standing committees are eligible to receive

Defeat Amendment; 43% Oppose Change

By a vote of 421 to 318 the recently proposed Community Government Association constitution amendment was defeated. This amendment proposed to change Article VI, Section 4, Topic F, from reading "Deans and Department Heads" to read "the Dean of Instruction and the Deans of Men and Women."

For a CGA constitution amendment to be adopted it must be approved by 67% of the voters. Since only 57% of the vote favored the change, the referendum was defeated. It is also required that 51% of the eligible voters on campus (students and faculty) participate in an election before it becomes official. During the last voting, 54% of the electorate participated.

All figures in this article are approximate because official records are destroyed two weeks after the elections are held.

0-1 points. However, with increasing enrollment, the duties of some committees, notably the Hospitality Committee, have multiplied. Therefore, the council has been asked to approve a raise in the point maximum for CGA standing committees to 2 points. The extra point could then be awarded to deserving committee members at the discretion of the faculty advisor.

Women Advocate Wearing Bermuda Shorts On Campus

The governing board of Waller Hall Association was recently requested to consider the question of wearing Bermuda shorts and slacks by women students. Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, Dean of Women, conferred with President Andruss on the matter which falls under the jurisdiction of the administration.

President Andruss requested the proposers of the application to set up criteria which would include stipulations as to the time and place where Bermuda shorts and slacks would be worn by the coeds of BSTC. This request has been met and at the present time the criteria are under consideration.

Teachers College Crisis Predicted In Next Decade

In an address given March 18, to the college faculty association, President Harvey A. Andruss pointed out that the Board of Directors of the Bloomsburg Alumni Association has mailed to each alumnus a letter soliciting support for The Council of Alumni Associations of the Pennsylvania State Teachers Colleges, in order that a public relations office may be opened in Harrisburg to present the needs of our colleges to the public and to the General Assembly.

In times past, tuition of students in State Teachers Colleges has been paid by appropriations. However, in recent years the general fee paid by all students has been increased from $90.00 to $144.00 per year, and it is likely that this will be further increased to $200.00 per year.

The present budget proposed by the Governor appropriates nineteen million dollars to State Colleges for a two-year period, June 1, 1959 to May 31, 1961, during which period students are expected to pay twenty-one million dollars for basic housing fees. This is the first time the students have been expected to pay more than the State. The income from students' fees and State appropriations must cover the cost of instructional personnel and plant, exclusive of housing.

The State Teachers Colleges have more than eighteen thousand students at present, and if they are to increase their capacities to twenty thousand students, Dr. Andruss re-

The hats are in the ring!

Where's Louis Armstrong?

Last year a group began to agitate to have big name entertainment on our campus. No one seems to know what happened to this group. Maybe they lost their enthusiasm. Rumor has it that the project was relegated to officers of a certain class. Again, no news from any source.

The cost of securing Louis Armstrong, Earl Bostic, the Tigertown Five or even Sammy Kaye would not be prohibitive, even for a class dance. Several good reasons — students would be willing to pay more to hear top entertainers; students wouldn't leave the dance at 10:00 o'clock and have two or three hours to spend more money. After all, where else could they find top flight entertainment?

If Kings, Wilkes, Bucknell, Franklin and Marshall and LaSalle can have well-known bands and musical artists, why can't Bloom swing it? These schools are smaller than, or approximately the same size as our college. The only time Centennial Gym has been full to capacity was during the STC Wrestling Tournament. Let's pack the gym for a social event, for a change. Get on the ball and start agitating those pessimistic class officers.

Who Runs This College?

The chronic complaint at Bloomsburg is that the students have no voice — the administration runs the school. If this is true, and I think it is in most cases, it's partially the students' fault! There is a great opportunity here on campus for the students to assume leadership. The administration would be only too glad to be relieved of duties which should be handled by students, but which they are willing to undertake.

On the other hand, the college administration should pressure student leaders to fulfill their obligations. Give them responsibility — more responsibility than they deserve, if necessary. This way, when mistakes are made, they will not be blamed on the administration. Students will be forced to accept the criticism the same way they accept the praises of success. Another advantage in doing this is that efficiency and maturity on the part of the student will develop. All this will contribute to a more equal balance of power among the members of the Community Government Association.

Elections for CGA officers will begin this Thursday following assembly. Look over the candidates carefully. Investigate their qualifications for holding an office. When you vote, remember that whoever wins will be your representatives on College Council. Vote for candidates who you know will work for your benefit.

Suggestions Made For Raising Funds

The College Council recently appointed a Charity Committee, headed by Elaine Anderson, for the purpose of starting a Campus Community Chest Fund. This campus fund would contribute only to local charities.

Several suggestions have been made to raise money here on campus. Some of these proposals are:

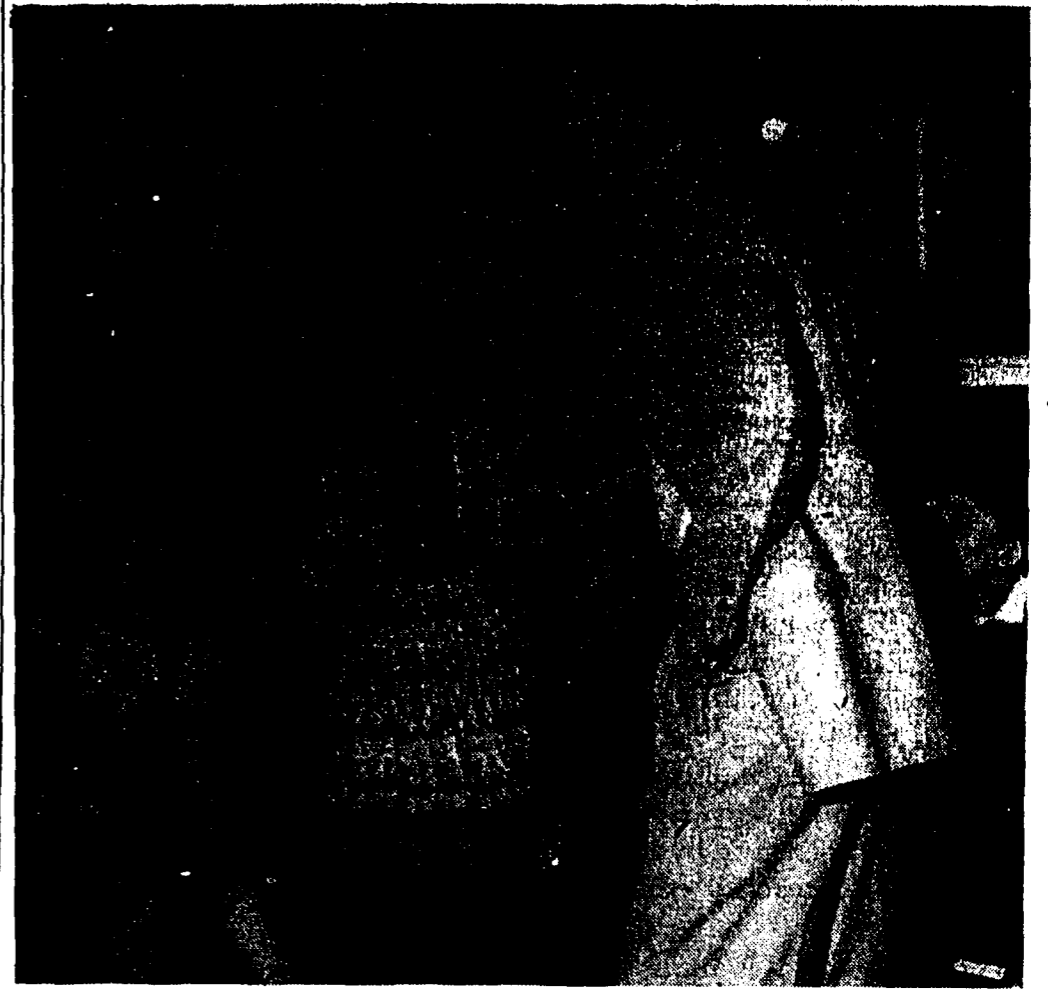

1. A dance from which the proceeds would go into the fund.
2. A bake sale.
3. The sum of $.25 per person to be taken from the Community Activities Fund.

The town of Bloomsburg has a program called the Columbia County Fund, which benefits various charities. The donation from the Campus Fund could be put into this United Fund and divided among the participating organizations.

You needn't be a Ph.D. ....to make a suggestion!

En francais, s'il vous plait

The teaching of modern foreign languages in grades 3 and 5 at the Benjamin Franklin Laboratory School is being received with enthusiasm by both the elementary students and their classroom teachers. Two college students, Donald Ker, senior, and Marion Wassel, junior, prepare and present the lessons during their free time, under the supervision of Mr. H. Fenstermaker, Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages.

Lessons are presented by the conversational method. Pronunciation is taught by the imitative method, and the lessons are related to practical and useful aspects of everyday life.

Students in grade 3 are learning French from Don, and students in grade 5 are learning Spanish from Marion.

All right, nasty, who told Rebel there wasn't any Easter Bunny?

If the tuition rates keep going up our children will be attending the Ivy League schools and only the wastrel rich will be able to afford state supported education.

We'll never complain again about the limited amount of time our instructors allow for the completion of an assignment. After all, the Maroon & Gold demands their assignments in the return mail.

Our thin veneer of sophistication was severely scratched last week. Monday morning we were on our way to the depot to pick up the rest of our car pool, when we had a flat tire. We were on a country road about four miles from Berwick, and we were sure we'd be late for our 8 o'clock.

We were impatiently watching our father fix the tire when a good samaritan stopped, and offered to take us to town. Our good samaritan turned out to be an aggressive looking middle aged woman who said: "Pretty cold out, it's a good thing I came along. Well, don't worry, I'll have you at the high school in plenty of time." We told her we weren't going to the high school and that she could just let us off downtown. She looked at us disapprovingly and said: "You don't carry books like that to go shopping." For the next 15 minutes we couldn't get a word in edgewise. By the time she finished her harangue on modern youth and the causes of juvenile delinquency we were parked in front of the high school. Somehow it just didn't seem worth arguing the point. The morning was half shot anyway, so as soon as our good samaritan was out of sight, we went shopping.

Pat Long won the election for the position of secretary of the Shamokin car pool. During a vicious campaign Pat suffered a sprained ankle, and the resulting sympathy cost Millie the election. Anyway, Pat is

George E. Pfahler Honored In Munich

George E. Pfahler, M.D., a pioneer radiologist, is perhaps one of the most illustrious alumni of Bloomsburg State Teachers College. His wife, Murial, has recently written his life story, The Love of a Physician. This very interesting and enjoyable book includes many of the articles Dr. Pfahler wrote for medical journals and many speeches he has delivered.

George E. Pfahler was born at Numidia, Columbia County. He entered Bloomsburg State Normal School in 1892 and graduated in 1894. He received his medical degree from the Medico-Chirurgical College in 1898. In 1950 he received the Distinguished Service Award of the Ninth International Congress of Radiology, Munich, Germany, to be held July 26-31 of this year, his name is to be one of the four pioneer American radiologists to be placed in the "Hall of Honor."

As a pioneer radiologist, he fought to achieve recognition for X-ray and radium in the medical and surgical practice. Dedication to his works finally caused his death on January 29, 1957, his eighty-third birthday.

Husky Nine Faces Lock Haven in Double Header Opener

Tournament Ends: Walt Dryfoos Named As Outstanding Player

by RON CONCAVAGE

The 32nd Annual High School Invitational Basketball Tournament came to a resounding end Saturday, March 14, high atop College Hill in Centennial Gymnasium. This night, aptly dubbed, the "Night of Champions" will long be remembered by the overflow crowd who gathered to watch the dynamic talent on exhibit. Featuring All-Staters, the Gilberton Ducks, the Fighting Irish from St. Joseph's of Williamsport and Bishop McDevitt out of Harrisburg annexed the championships of their respective classes. In addition, the best cheerleading squads were awarded trophies as were the members of the all tournament team and the most valuable player.

Gilberton, second half kingpin of the South Schuylkill League, broke open a close, well played contest with defending champion Ringtown's Mustangs by outshooting their adversaries 21-4 in the third canto. The tremendous shooting ability of Mike Wagner, Duck guard, proved to be the big difference in the contest. Having been stopped with only 4 points in the first half, the 5'10" speedster erupted for 18 counters in the latter half to walk off with top scoring honors. His deadly jumped and patented drive-in were the weapons of destruction. Valuable aid was rendered by center, Stefanic who dunked 19 in addition to controlling the boards. "Pitchin" Paul Glowatsky, junior star from Ringtown was held to his tournament low by being able to account for only seventeen points after having a near 34 point average.

The fantastic, incredible and stunning performance of "Jumpin" Joe Prato proved to be too large a deficit to cope with for the Wolverines of Butler Twp. Prato, who used every conceivable shot known to modern basketball, at times molded together new concoctions with which he ripped the cords. His 27 points led the scorers on both teams. Teammate Tom Eisworth followed with 18 markers while Lusavage and Crane scored for the Wolverines with 17 apiece.

Fast-breaking to perfection in the first half, Bishop McDevitt's Crusaders built up an impregnable nine point vantage, fought off a brief third period rally and coasted through the final eight minutes to stop the Preppers of Freeland Mechanical and Mining Institute and with the Class A diadem, 64-52. Having dropped the P.C.I.A.A. Eastern final the night before to Allentown C.C.H.S., the Crusaders were more determined than ever, and outside of a pair of Preppers found little opposition confronting them. The unorthodox senior, "all-everything" Walt Dryfoos proved to be the main thorn in the side of the Royal Blue and Gold as he dunked 34 markers and nabbed approximately 30 rebounds. Mike Watahovich chimed in to the tune of 12 tallies. For the Ginannimen, Terry Crouthamel and Paul Blake paved the way scoring-wise while excellent floor pay by Bob Spencer and A-Stater Dennie Dobosh provided the impetus.

Capping the night's festivities was the presentation of awards. Saint Ann's from Freeland was acclaimed Cass C cheerleading titlists while Butler Twp.'s lasses gained some measure of revenge in the middle division. A clean sweep of group laurels came for Devitt's when the panel of judges awarded the Class A cheerleading trophy to them.

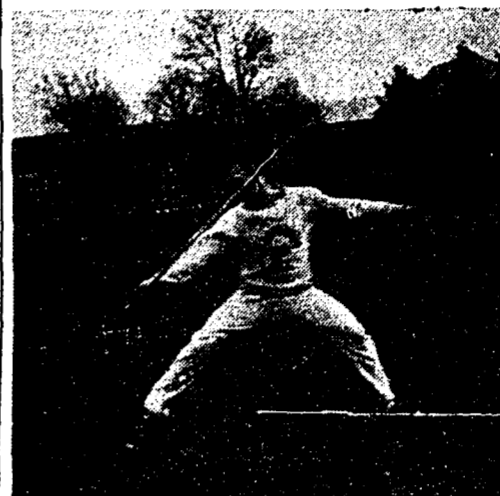

Final recognition was given to tourney all stars and the most valuable player as the "Night of Champions" ended on a grand scale. Composing the elite were Robert Betnar from Plains; Eddie Widitz of Rock Glen; Patrick Charney, and Irishman from West Wyoming; Gilberton's Mike Wagner; Paul Glowatsky, Ringtown center; Danville ace Jim McWilliams; the baffling all-time scorer from St. Joe's, Joe Prato; Dennie Dobosh and Terry Crouthamel from McDevitt and Charley Crane, Butler Twp. captain. At long last the most anxious moment of all arrived and the tension grew. A lengthy list of outstanding achievements were read before Dean Hoch broke the suspense that prevailed by announcing that Walt Dryfoos from Freeland M.M.I. had been chosen as the most outstanding performer of the tournament and on this note came the end of another "Night of Champions."

Blair To Speak at Millersville Clinic

Walter H. Blair, Head Football Coach at BSTC, has accepted an invitation to serve as one of the five clinicians at the Second Annual Invitational Football Clinic which will be held at Millersville STC Saturday, May 2. At the clinic, Mr. Blair will discuss "The Slot Offense."

In 1955 Mr. Blair joined the BSTC football staff as an assistant to Jack Yohe. In 1957 he was appointed Head Football Coach. Aside from his football activities, Mr. Blair serves as Dean of Men and Head Baseball Coach.

Weather Hampers Husky Thinclads

A potentially strong nucleus has greeted Coach Harold Shelly as he begins to round into shape the 1959 edition of Husky trackmen. Individual workouts have been underway for some time, although most of the field aspirants have been hampered in their drills by bad weather.

Ray Thayer and the amazing Terry Engleman return to bolster the distance-running. Stan Hugo, a state champ two years ago in high school, is back to display his talent in the pole vault. Johnny Johnson, a sophomore who proved last year that he could handle himself in the high jump event, will be back to take his place in that category. "J.J." will also be seen pretty consistently in the sprints. And then, the little pepper-pot from New Jersey, Beau Hutteman, will return to toss the javelin.

Joe Enney from Harrisburg and Vince Raupers from Athens will enter discus competition, and the Stanitskis, Carl and Conrad, are training in field events and high jump. Gary Allen, Maynard Aungst, and Joe Thompson have turned from the wrestling spotlight to the legman's sport. Shelly is pleased with the wealth of new material from newcomers on the track scene, Don Cole, Jim Burke, Ed Slatsky, Wayne Moss, Jim Weaver and Bob Sterner.

The first meet for the Husky thinclads will be on April 10, with Kutztown State Teachers College at Kutztown. The Shellymen will open their home schedule with Millersville State Teachers College on Tuesday, April 21.

Challenge Shippers On April 11

The first trials for the Husky diamond men will come on April 9th when they face Lock Haven in a double header on Mt. Olympus, and two days later when they entertain Shippensburg in another double bill.

Coach Walter Blair is encouraged by the forty man turnout for try-outs and sees promising prospects in nearly every position. Hoping to see action on the mound are Ed Galitsky, Roland Quick, John Timko, Dale Franklin, Paul Franklin, Pete Perialis, Bob Meckley, Frank Tibbs, and Bill Eberz. The Franklin brothers, both veterans on the Mount Olympus hump, will see action this spring, but younger Dale will take the number one spot while Paul will be held for the most part in reserve. Galitsky, too has hurled for the Huskies, but newcomers, Tibbs, Meckley and Timko, will be battling for pitching honors. Of the eight, three, Timko, Eberz and Meckley are southpaws. John Paniello, Joe Blackburn, and Glen "Bud" Gruber are contenders for duties behind home plate.

Around the bases, "Flip" Houser and John Seamon have the first base assignment well in hand. The second bag is as yet undecided. Gary Anderson, Joe Rishkofsky, Dick Frey, and Frank Creneti, all show promise. Shortstop also is indefinite with Jerry Oravitz, Jerry Hittle, and Tom Stover as leading aspirants. Carl Derr, who doubled as pitcher in '58, will hold down third.

Bob Rohm, Ed Blackburn, Frank Fisk, Dan Fritz, Walt Patynski, and Phil Lockduff are expected to be called upon for outfield posts. Rohm, a three sport competitor, will return to left field, Fritz will be stationed in right and Blackburn in center. Behind the scenes, Andy Litavec, Ed Kuser, and Dan Cody will manage the Blairmen. The Huskies nabbed second place in the 1958 STC baseball conference and hope to duplicate or better the record this year. They'll get their first chance on Thursday when they open the season by tangling with Lock Haven's Bald Eagles in two seven inning contests.

"I Got Tapped"

by JIM BRAY

As the first 9 weeks of the second semester come to a close the bowling enthusiasts are still going strong.

All the teams are really putting forth an effort, and that is what makes a good competitive league.

A. Dazley still leads in the top average field with 172; G. Spaid follows with a 169. Ron Ralston has an average of 160, B. Uiber 157 and Eberz 155. These are accomplishments well worth praise.

Bud Weber still holds the individual scoring records for both single game and high series. Bud is a moving spirit in bowling at BSTC and should be credited with the starting of the league.

There isn't much left of the bowling season this year. All we can say is that we hope there is as much enthusiasm and effort in coming years as there has been this year.

The standings to this date are as follows:

- Fireflies ..... 27-5
- Equalizers ..... 21-11
- Red Caps ..... 17-15
- Snappers ..... 15-17
- Misfits ..... 9-23

Football... So Soon?

BSTC gridders got an early taste of football conditioning this year. Thirty-seven reported to the first two hour session held on Tuesday, March 31, in deep left field on Mount Olympus. A total of forty are expected to finish the rigorous twenty day practice period. NCAA rulings allow twenty days as the maximum spring training period.

The program is headed by assistant football coach, Don Heilman. Graduating seniors, Al Francis, Leo Mulhall, Paul Sparr, Don Wright, and Ken Wood, are gaining experience by coaching the trainees in line and backfield basics.

The training sessions will concentrate mainly on football fundamentals and conditioning drills, and will be conducted in cleats and in the newly-purchased navy blue sweat suits. Heilman expects to add shoulder pads for blocking purposes.

On May 2, head coach, Walter Blair, speaking to the football clinic at Millersville, will use a dozen spring-trained players to demonstrate the slot T.

Wrestlers Fail To Place in NCAA

Pitted against outstanding wrestlers from such giants as Oklahoma State and Utah, four BSTC wrestling charges of Coach Russ Houk returned from a half-continent trip to the NCAA wrestling championships at Iowa City, Iowa, without a trophy in hand.

However, Bobby Rohm won two matches and entered the quarter-finals of the championships. Rohm, who defeated Birt Burger of Springfield College, Massachusetts, in the second; but in his final appearance in the quarter-finals he bowed to Dick Beattie of Oklahoma State.

Jim Garman, Dale Sullivan, and Dick Rimple all were downed in the preliminaries. Garman lost to Doug Bingham of Utah after drawing an earlier bye. Clarence McNair of Kent State decided Sullivan and Sherby Wilson of Oklahoma State upended Rimple.

Houk had originally planned to enter the Husky grapplers in the 4 I Tournaments, but bad weather cancelled transportation and forced registration in the Iowa City event.

Curriculum Trends Discussed

On Thursday, March 19, members of the Susquehanna Valley Elementary Supervisors Association met at the Benjamin Franklin Training School on the college campus to discuss "current trends in the elementary school curriculum development." The program, under the direction of Royce O. Johnson, Director of Elementary Education, was attended by forty-nine persons in the elementary field. Mr. Johnson said that the supervisors, through their past and present experiences in elementary education can help the department at the college to plan a better program for training college students who will become elementary teachers.

In view of recent developments on the international and national scene, there have been requests from parents and boards of education throughout the nation to add Science and Foreign Languages to the already busy day.

The discussion by the group centered on the question of how it would be possible to budget the time in the pupils' school day in order to make possible the addition of some of new subjects that the various groups are requesting for the elementary school program.

There seemed to be a reluctance on the part of the school supervisors to disturb the present program of activities in the elementary schools to accommodate these requests for enriching the school curricula.

ports that more money will have to be appropriated, or the quality of education will not be maintained at its present level. If State Teachers Colleges are to grow and develop as institutions of higher education in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, their performances and problems, along with the needs of expansion, require a full-time public relations representative in Harrisburg.

There is an urgent need for a full-time public relations representative. Therefore, all Alumni have been urged to respond to the appeal for a contribution to support this new public relations service.

Dr. Andruss said that if greater state appropriations are not forthcoming, Pennsylvania will not have the teachers they shall need in the next decade, and prospective teachers will not be educated at the same level as today.

since three names were placed in nomination for that office; the election was held on Thursday, April 2, 1959. Because of the early press deadline for the Maroon and Gold, the result of that election is not included in this issue.

After two weeks of witnessing hard and fast campaigning, the student body of BSTC will elect its new leaders on April 14, 1959. Voting machines will be set up in Husky Lounge from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. for the final election.
