'67 graduate to speak

Lawyer, prosecutor, judge, Outstanding Woman of 1974; are but a few of the experiences of Eileen Albertson, a Marine Corps major and 1976 BSC graduate in the field of history. Albertson will be the key speaker in the 1978 Awards Convocation to be held in Haas auditorium at 2 p.m. on Sunday 23.

A native of the town of Bloomsburg, Major Albertson was active as an undergraduate student in the Maroon and Gold Band and maintained Dean's List status throughout her college career. Moreover, she was a charter member of Phi Alpha Theta, the history honorary society. In her junior year at BSC, she enlisted in the Marine Corps and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant upon receiving her B.S. degree. She remained on inactive duty the next three years, earning her M. Ed. in History at Bloomsburg in 1969, and a Law Degree from Marshall-Wythe School of Law at William and Mary in 1970.

Following graduation from the Woman Officer Basic School at Quantico, Virginia, Major Albertson spent ten weeks at Naval Justice School in Newport, Rhode Island, where she graduated in December, 1970 and was certified a Judge Advocate in the U.S. Marine Corps. Albertson pursued a nine-month career course at the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's School in Charlottesville, Virginia. Next came duty at the Marine Corps base, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, as a Trial Counsel. In December 1973, she was certified as a military judge, the second woman in the history of the Marine Corps to be so certified and the first woman to actually serve as the Presiding Judge of Special Courts-Martial.

Since August 1976, she was transferred to the office of Judge Advocate General of the Department of Navy in Washington, D.C., and serves as the head of the Review Branch of the Military Justice Division of that office.

Albertson's honors, among others, include the "Moot Competition Award" from the William and Mary, Marshall-Wythe School of Law; the "Leadership Award" from the Woman Officer School at Quantico; 1974 North Carolina's "Outstanding Young Woman of the Year;" and 1974 Awards Volume of Outstanding Young Woman of America. Most recently, Albertson was honored by being selected for the Post Graduate Degree Program for a Master of Law Degree at the National Law Center, George Washington University.

Heinz gives raise for scholarships

When Congressional pay raise passed earlier this year, many opponents of the raise, including Senator John Heinz, announced that they would donate their raises to various charities, scholarship programs, etc. Senator Heinz decided to donate his raise for scholarships and almost immediately received hundreds of letters requesting the aid.

In order to be fair to all concerned, Heinz recently donated the full amount of this year's raise ($10,750) to the Foundation of Independent Colleges of Pennsylvania, Inc. This group will distribute the funds to all Pennsylvania colleges and universities for scholarship aid to deserving Pennsylvania students.

New evaluation to maximize feedback

by LOU HUNSINGER

A new type of evaluation of instruction instrument has been developed by a joint committee of faculty, students and management. This committee has concluded its work recently.

This new evaluation instrument incorporates many suggestions and comments that were received by students and faculty. Additionally the new evaluation emphasizes brevity.

The committee has expanded the distribution of this instrument rather than just limiting to faculty members who must be evaluated. It will be sent to all faculty members who are teaching this semester. It is hoped that this distribution will encourage campus-wide use of the instrument, and will maximize faculty and student feedback to the committee.

The committee has expanded the evaluation period a full month to further encourage participation in this evaluation. Evaluation materials were distributed the first week of April and the faculty will be given a full month to schedule their evaluations.

When the evaluation process is complete, the committee will review the campus reaction to this new evaluation, and it will recommend appropriate revisions. In the coming semesters the entire reevaluation process will be subject to close scrutiny so that the procedures can be modified to meet the changing needs of the college.

Job outlook is good

A review of summer job opportunities for college students at Guest Ranches, National Parks and recreation areas for this coming summer looks good.

Job opportunity analysts researching opportunities for this coming summer indicate that excellent opportunities exist throughout the nation. As usual, good jobs will be very competitive; however, those applying early will have a good chance.

National Parks and the supporting industries surrounding them will probably be the best potential again this year. Many new recreation facilities have started this past year in areas close to National Parks.

Private summer camps and youth retreats which operate through the summer will be hiring college students as counselors and general employees.

College students should be advised that many good jobs go unfilled as a result of general apathy and lack of interest on the part of many students. Some good opportunities go unfilled because students don't bother to apply.

Aggressive students are rewarded with excellent pay, rewarding experiences and opportunities for future employment.

Students and graduates who are sincerely interested in receiving assistance on locating summer jobs may send a self-addressed stamped envelope for a FREE booklet to Opportunity Research, Lock Box 730, Coeur d'Alene, ID. 83814.

speakers for the Eleventh Annual History Conference. Mellen will be speaking on Friday at 11 p.m. in the Kehr Union.

James Earl Jones says of Mellen's latest work: "Big Bad Wolves is an important and eye-opening book...Joan Mellen has powerfully evoked how we are all affected by the use of art in the promotion of false images and values which so deeply influence our psychological and social well-being."

Mellen describes how Hollywood has tried to create an elevated male image — one superior to their female counterparts. A summary of her work includes: following the tracks of these big bad wolves from the zesty, youthful creativity which characterized the twenties through Brando's and Dean's portrayals of vulnerability in the fifties, to such path-breaking films as "Dog Day Afternoon" in the seventies.

According to Playboy magazine, "the male hero has (continued on page three)

DO YOU HAVE AN APPOINTMENT?...Marilyn Muehlhof, secretary to three BSC Presidents has made the job of a secretary an art. Her job may be a behind-the-scenes job, but it is essential to the administrative functioning of BSC.

Handling people is an art

by NANCY FAUSNAUGHT
Screening phone calls and visitors, knowing the organizational structure of the college, researching information, and acting as an intermediary for the president sounds like a pretty responsible job, and so Marilyn Muehlhof's job is.

Muehlhof, Dr. McCormick's secretary, does much more than typing and shorthand.

Muehlhof firmly believes in three equally important traits a secretary should have. These are loyalty to the individual or business for which you work, dependability and trustworthiness, along with the routine secretarial skills, she explained.

"I believe you can't become stagnant in a job. Education goes on throughout your life, and you should keep aware of changes," she stated.

Muehlhof graduated from Berwick High School. During her senior year she worked with a guidance counselor for part of the school day.

In 1974, Muehlhof became a Certified Professional Secretary. She obtained this by taking an exam that is based upon secretarial work, with emphasis on judgment, understanding and administrative ability.

With this experience she came to BSC in August of 1965, where she became secretary to the Assistant to the President, Dr. Creasy.

"Dr. Creasy's position was new at the time, the responsibilities were just developing. It grew into a team approach between Dr. Andruss, Dr. Creasy, and I," she said.

She obviously abides by her philosophy that you can't become stagnant in a job, because in 1967 when Dr. Andruss secretary passed away, Muehlhof was chosen to take her job.

Since then she has been Secretary to three presidents, and one acting president.

After Dr. Andruss retired, Dr. Robert Nossen became president. In 1972, Nossen resigned.

"This was due to a controversial matter that was difficult to resolve," she explained.

"I think of this as another learning experience, and I grew through it," Muehlhof stated. Again she referred back to her philosophy. "I tried to be loyal and supportive, as I believe you should be to the person you are working for," she said.

Dr. Charles Carlson became acting president from 1972-73. In September 1973 McCormick came.

What is it like being secretary to the president of a college? "You must anticipate needs, know the campus and be aware of legislation being discussed in Harrisburg," Muehlhof stated.

"I must also screen phone calls and visitors for the president, and refer them to him or to the appropriate channel," she said. "Phone calls are very interesting, handling people is an art in itself."

Secretary to the President is a very responsible job, and Muehlhof must use her own judgement and discretion in deciding many matters.

"I need to keep a finger on the pulse of the campus." Incidents that are recurrent or similar I can handle myself and give to President McCormick to sign," she explained.

As a president's secretary Muehlhof must be flexible.

"I must be able to shift gears. I may have a work schedule planned for one day, but I realize that something might come up and I'd have to change directions."

Muehlhof likes meeting people from all walks of life, and she especially enjoys her contact with students. "I wanted to work with students and in education. It's a growing field, and far from stagnant," she stated.

Another requirement of the secretary to the president is to keep abreast of new trends through active membership in professional associations, a requirement Muehlhof definitely meets.

Some of the professional organizations she is involved in include the Berwick Chapter of the National Secretary Association, of which she once served as president, Future Secretaries Association, and past president of the Berwick Business and Professional Womens Club.

How have the college and students changed during her years here? Apparently quite a lot.

Muehlhof explained that in 1965, $3½ billion was the annual operating cost, now it is $21 billion. The faculty and staff have grown from 400 in 1965 to 670 today.

"There has been an increase in student enrollment, all for the better I think," she stated.

Forensics gains ten awards

by HARRY STRINE
NON STAFF WRITER

Members of the BSC Delta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, National Forensic Fraternity, attended the bi-annual convention tournament of the Province of the Colonies held in Plymouth, Massachusetts. The local Huskies returned home with ten awards in addition to having two members elected to the highest provincial offices for both a student and faculty member.

Susan Waters was elected to serve as Student Lt. Governor for the 1978 - 1979 school term. Waters also earned a gold medal and a superior certificate for placing first in After Dinner Speaking; a gold medal and an excellent certificate for capturing second place in Extemporaneous Speaking; and she was awarded an excellent certificate for her performance in Oral Interpretation.

Regina Wild earned a gold medal and a superior certificate for placing first in Informative Speaking. Wild also received a bronze medal and an excellent certificate for capturing fourth place in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Penny Moyer was presented with a silver medal and a superior certificate for placing third in Impromptu Speaking. Moyer also earned a bronze medal and an excellent certificate for capturing fourth place in Informative Speaking, and she received a bronze medal and an excellent certificate for earning fifth place in Extemporaneous Speaking.

Gert McGoff was presented an Excellent Certificate for her performance in Oral Interpretation. Cindy Fissel was awarded a bronze medal for her entry in the Interviewing Category: Oral History of Pi Kappa Delta.

Others who helped turn in a strong team performance in the twelve school field which represented three states were Mark Lucia in Informative

Speaking and Oratory, and Mike Goc who was entered in Oral Interpretation, Impromptu Speaking, and Extemporaneous Speaking.

Professor Harry C. Strine III, BSC Director of Forensics, was elected to serve a two-year term as Governor of the Province of the Colonies. Strine had been Lt. Governor the past three years.

In his capacity as Lt. Governor, Strine was responsible for coordinating and running the provincial convention-tournament. Assisting Strine as co-director was Mr. Neil Hilkert, graduate assistant in the Speech Communication and Theatre Arts Dept. Strine credited Hilkert with the smooth operation of the tournament.

The Forensic Society's final tournament for the 1977 - 78 school year will be attendance at the National Individual Events Tournament to be held at Monmouth College, West Long Branch, New Jersey, April 20 - 24, 1978.

WBSC offers program variety

by FAY A. WALTER
Do you ever get bored after studying for a while? Do you often feel drained after a long week of tests or other pressures? Why not turn your radio on to 640 AM and get back into the swing by listening to the new and exciting programs on WBSC, the student's radio station.

In an attempt to provide greater entertainment for its student listeners, WBSC has introduced some appealing programs to its station. Varying with the style of the hosts, they all have special touches which make them unique and enjoyable.

The "Album Hour," presented every Sunday night from 10 to 11, plays a brand new album in its entirety each week. Featured recently have been Manfred Mann's Earth Band's "Watch Manfred Mann's and the debut album from "Player". This hour of new music is sponsored by the College Store.

Another special hour of new music is provided by the "New Ones" on Monday nights, again from 10 to 11. This program differs from the "Album Hour" because rather than playing a popular album, "New Ones" exposes listeners to new artists and their material as well as the new material of old groups. In addition to the songs themselves, host Lance McCarty provides some background information on these "moving up" compositions and vocalists.

From 10 to 11 on Thursday nights, Larry Kitson brings back for listening enjoyment some albums from yesteryear that are worth hearing again. His program, called "Out of the Trophy Case," features classic back albums such as the recent playing of Crosby, Stills and Nash's first album.

The "Shotgun Show" on Friday afternoons from 2 to 4 is many times referred to as "Zaniness on a Friday" with duel hosts Bruce Sauter and Mike Goc. This program combines good music with spontaneous interviews and crazy conversation which gets student listeners ready for the weekend. A special feature is added by Scott Mix in his spot which he presents "Everything that you always wanted to know about everything else but never asked about it because really you didn't want to know about it in the first place anyhow."

Another special program, "The Unexpected" can be heard on Friday from 7 to 8 p.m. Providing variety that differs weekly, host Jody Millard, WBSC's assistant program director, also influences her audience to get in the mood for Friday night activities. Millard plays nostalgia, oldies, soundtracks from movies, comedies, bluegrass and more but always the "unexpected."

A new program, the "Old Timers" is presented Monday through Thursday nights from 7:30 to 9. This show brings back Old Times Radio comedies and suspense. Examples of these "oidies" are "The Shadow", "Dracula", "Abott and Costello" and "Sherlock Holmes."

Obviously, WBSC, which is founded by CGA has many interesting programs to offer the students at BSC. The management of the station, encourages audience input so that they can continue to provide students with the kind of music that students want to hear.

Retirees noted

by DEBBIE HEIM

Three men that have served the college community for many years are retiring from BSC.

James B. Watts already has retired, as of February 2, 1978. Watts served as Library Director from 1966-1972 and then as Archivist and Special Services Librarian from 1972-1978. He has been employed with BSC for 11½ years.

Willard Christian will retire at the end of this semester. Christian served as an Associate Professor and Chairperson for the Department of Business Education for 10 years. When asked about his future plans Christian said, "I have nothing definite planned. Just to get in some hunting, golf, gardening and travel. The leisure sort of activities."

Robert L. Duncan will retire next September. Duncan is an Associate Professor Administrator serving as Director of Financial Aid. He has worked for BSC for nine years. Within Duncan's future plans is a move into a new condominium that he purchased, in New Hampshire. At his new residence he plans to get in a lot of skiing and visiting.

Male image

been represented on screen as tough, unemotional and stereo typical in his associations with the opposite sex. Unfortunately, author Joan Mellen fails to get to the root of the problem, if indeed, it is one, preferring simply to examine the various mutations of the male hero throughout the history of cinema. Mellen prefers to attribute the male screen image to a conspiracy within a male dominated film industry, which, though it may be a valid point, is not a particularly profound one."

Tennis team wins 2 of 3 matches

by CINDY PECK

On April 11 and 12, the men's tennis team shut out Lock Haven and Kutztown, respectively, 9-0, while the netters fell to the east coast defending champion, Temple, 6-3 on April 15.

The team's record stood at 6-7 for the year at press time, and 3-0 in the conference. The netters have not given up a single team point in the conference.

Against Temple, BSC's Jim Hollister lost to Nick Gregory 7-6, 6-3, bringing his spring record to 5-8. Rob Vance beat Allan Bond 6-4, 2-6, 6-0 in the second position, boosting his record to 10-3. Nate Levine was defeated by Felipe Oreamuno, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, giving him his fifth loss of the season, against eight wins. In the number four and five positions, Mark Raynes and Greg Hafeman also lost - Raynes to Bob Litterst, 6-0, 6-2, bringing his spring tally to 3-3, and Hafeman to Gary Solomon, 6-7, 6-3, 6-3, evening his tally at 1-1. In the final singles match, Ken Grove was the victor over Dan Waintrup, 6-4, 6-1.

In doubles competition, Gregory - Bond beat BSC's Vance - Levine, 6-3, 7-6. In the number two spot, Hollister - Rick Willders outdid Litterst - Rami Rotholz, 6-4, 6-2. Temple's Oreamuno - Mark Boggs scored the final win for their team, 6-2, 7-6 over Grove-Gary Golbitz.

The team hosts Oneonta, the SUNY conference champions, on Thursday.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

In women's tennis action, the team brought its season record to 3-1 with a victory over Susquehanna on April 11, a 9-0 shut-out over University of Scranton on April 14, and a 1-8 loss to Lehigh on April 15.

Sue Purnell and Sherry Irwin, in the number two doubles position, were the team's only victors against Lehigh. The netters will take on Marywood on April 19.

Trackmen bow to ESSC, 85-69

by MIKE INCITTI

Saturday's meet saw the Bloomsburg State trackmen bow to ESSC by a score of 85 to 69 at East Stroudsburg. Along with the cold and the wind, the Huskies had to deal with injuries to key personnel suffered in the Millersville meet Wednesday. Although the injuries did hamper the teams performance, the meet was an overall close one all the way to the end.

First and second place finishers for BSC include Mark Bond who copped a first in the steeplechase with a time of 9:37. Dan McCallum placed second in the shotput with a throw of 48' 4 3/4". All-American Steve Eachus was a double winner in mile and three-mile runs with times of 4:19 and 14:16 respectively. Rich Drzewieski came in second in the 120 high hurdles clocked at 14.8. Placing second in the 440 yard run for BSC was Pete Hensey with a time of 52.7. Senior Barry Stalon drew praise from coach Carl Hinkle by placing second in the 100 with a time of 10.1, first in the long jump with a leap of 22' 5", and a second in the 220 with a time of 22.8. The Huskies swept the high jump as Chuck Stathopolous led with a height of 6'4". All-American Jeff Carruthers, whose performance was plagued by a heel injury, came in second followed by Jim Nash. The 880 yard run had Carter White blaze a first in 1:59 with teammate Aaron Johnson close behind at 2:00. Stan Nita threw to a first in the javelin with a heave of 206' 1/2". Freshman Jerry Werkheiser who, according to Coach Hinkle, is improving with each meet, took a second in the triple jump with a leap of 43' 5 1/2". Jakie Williams came in second in the 440 int. hurdles (timed at 56.6. Coach Hinkle expressed disappointment with the results and feels the team is much better than what they displayed. "They took points from us in the relays because we had people out due to injuries. The meet was close though all the way to the end. We are capable of competing with the best as will be evident in the Penn Relays."

The women's track team competing in a quadrangular meet finished third behind Temple 66, ESSC 60, with a score of 26. Bucknell came in last with 16. Individual performances include Ann Lambert's two records in the mile and 2 mile with runs of 5:29 and 12:20.8. Carol Krause took a first in the 110 hurdles and set a school record in the shot put with a throw of 31'2". Another record-setter was Dawn Hutchinson in the discus. Her distance was 83'2".

Husky batsmen split twin bill with ESSC

by AL SCHOCH, JR.

The Bloomsburg State baseball team scored six runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to capture a come-from-behind 11-7 victory over East Stroudsburg Saturday at Central Columbia High School. The Warriors came back in the second game with an 11-0 triumph.

The Huskies and Warriors were battling it out in the first five innings of the opener. With the score tied at 5-5, ESSC came up with two runs to grab the lead. But Bloomsburg came back in the bottom of the inning. Brent Bankus ripped a bases-loaded single driving in the tying runs. After an out, Bill Pennesi doubled to give the Huskies the lead. Tom Fulton then doubled and Scott Vercoe singled to drive in the final runs of the game.

Brad Moharter, working in relief of starter Rick Budweg, picked up the win. Ed Hess pitched the seventh inning to earn a save. In the inning, Hess struck out two batters. And speaking of strikeouts, Budweg increased his club-leading total to 56, as he fanned 12 in his 5 1 3 innings of work.

In the second game, the Warriors benefitted from 5 BSC errors, a grand slam home run, and great pitching for the win. Dave Cardell went all the way for the shutout.

Bob Gibson was the losing pitcher. In the second inning, after two walks and an error, Gibson gave up a grand slam home run. Two wild pitches led to runs in the third inning, and the Warriors were on their way. Hess and Moharter also pitched in the second game, with Hess giving up the final four runs.

With the split, the Huskies are now 11-9 overall and 5-2 in PSCAC play. The big thing that concerns BSC coach Clark Boler is consistency. "We played both good and bad against East Stroudsburg," stated Boler. "If we want to win the championship, we will have to be more consistent."

The Huskies have a busy schedule this week. They will be at home tomorrow afternoon against Oneonta, and at Mansfield State Saturday for a conference double header.

Softball team downs Bucknell

by MIKE INCITTI

The Bloomsburg State College women's softball team defeated the Bisons of Bucknell in last Thursday's home game 4-3 behind the hitting and pitching of Donna Santa Maria and Debbie Karchner respectively.

Bucknell opened the scoring in the top of the first with two runs. The Huskies came up with three runs in their half of the first, thanks to Santa Maria's two-run double.

The Bisons picked up another run in the third but it was once again matched by BSC's Santa Maria who powered a solo home run.

Debbie Karchner scattered eight hits and struck out four to come up with the win.

Aiding Santa Maria in the Huskie's 7-hit attack were Carolyn Bartoni, who was 2 for 3 with a double, and Bert Spezialetti who also doubled.

Although the Bisons out-hit Bloomsburg 8 to 7, they could not come across with runs as they stranded eight on the bases and exhibited poor base running. Bucknell also led in the error department committing seven.

BSC's assistant coach Nina Strausser was particularly pleased with the teams' defensive play, especially that of the infield. "The girls held on in the end and pulled it through. They played very well together." Strausser also cited the outstanding defense of centerfielder Jeanette Mitroka, who made two game-saving grabs in the final frame.

Next time out, the Huskies will bring their 1-2-1 record to Luzerne Community College in a double-header slated for this afternoon.

The Bloomsburg State College women's lacrosse team dropped a 6-0 decision to Bucknell University on Thursday. Val Johnson and Pam Heller each scored two goals for Bucknell. BSC goalie Loretta Sutcliff had eight saves in the effort. The women will face Shippensburg in their last game of the season on April 27 at Shippensburg.
