BSC to host Good Neighbor Day May 5

BSC students on campus and especially off-campus students who have often wanted to get to know their neighbors better will have the chance this weekend.

The BSC Kehr Union Program Board is sponsoring the first annual Good Neighbor Day, which will be held on Saturday, May 5.

The purpose of this event, according to Marianne Montague, program coordinator, is to better the relationship between the town's people and students, faculty and administrators of BSC.

The events will begin at 10 a.m. with registration in the Presidents Lounge. During the registration period, BSC information tables will be set up to familiarize the townspeople with admissions, financial aid and extended programs procedures.

All buildings on campus will be open on Saturday for tours so the townspeople can get a glimpse of what goes on internally at BSC.

At 11:30 a.m. in the Presidents Lounge in the Union, a question and answer period will be held. On hand to answer questions from the townspeople and the students will be administrators and faculty members.

For the rest of the afternoon, many activities are being held to occupy the visitors. Some of them include: visiting the art galleries in the Kehr Union and Haas Auditorium, visiting the library where a slide show will be presented on how to use Andruss Library, attend PA State Athletic Conference Tennis Championships at the tennis courts.

At 1 p.m., faculty lectures and demonstrations will be held. Professors giving talks and their subjects are: Plant Care, by Dr. Louis Mingrone; BSC's Children Art Program by Mr. Gary Clark; and a demonstration called Good Neighbors in an Emergency, by Mr. Edward Edwards, executive vice-president Chamber of Commerce of the Bloomsburg Red Cross.

To conclude the neighborly activities, a town gown Ballroom Dance will be held in the Kehr Union Multipurpose room. Townspeople and college students are invited.

Greeks hold competition

It is a Greek's world this week at BSC. All fraternities and sororities will compete against each other in their annual Greek Week activities which will be held on campus all week ending on May 6.

Events to be held include: Tug of War, tomorrow outside of the Union (time and place are tentative); Car Rally, Saturday, May 5 at the Tri-Level at 1 p.m.; Greek Sing, Sunday, May 6 in Haas at 6:15 p.m.

Those events held earlier this week include: Olympic Day, the Hamburger Eating Contest, the Chariot Races and Games Night.

CAS fights tuition increase

What do the draft, administrative search warrants, high tuition costs and drinking on campus have in common? These are issues which affect nearly every student at BSC, according to Jeff Hunsicker, C.A.S. coordinator. Today marks the first annual Student Rights Awareness Day, to be held outside the Kehr Union. Throughout the day speakers will provide information and their views on each topic.

The Commonwealth Association of Students has invited President George Badame from East Stroudsburg to explain the proposed $100 tuition increase for the state colleges.

According to Hunsicker, students of the PSCU already pay the highest tuition for a state-owned college system.

Studies conducted by the Stanford Research and the University of Wisconsin System indicate that tuition increases have a negative impact on student enrollment. Pennsylvania also has the lowest percentage of high school graduates attending institutions of higher education.

In order to make the legislators aware of student concerns BSC students are asked to donate pennies on Monday and Tuesday outside the Union. To protest the proposed cuts in the Governor's budget, the pennies will be shipped to Harrisburg with a statement that students have already paid as much as they can for education, and these pennies are all they will allow their tuition to increase.

Resumes are now being accepted for the following positions on next year's Campus Voice staff: Ad manager, News editors, Feature editors, Sports editors, Photography editors and Copy editors. Submit them in the Campus Voice Office or c/o Jim Pofflay, Box 3980, KUB by May 7.

All staff members of the Olympian must attend the meeting tonight (Wednesday) at 6:30 in the Campus Voice office. Applications for editor, in the form of a brief resume, must be submitted at that time for the staff vote.

"THE MURDER OF AGAMEMNON," Paul Knopf's oratorio, will premiere on the BSC campus Friday night with the BSC Concert Choir. Knopf will also present his own piano compositions in Kehr Union.

A BRIEF LIST OF SESSIONS

To give a brief idea of several possible places for summer study, the following is a list of openings presently available.

Environmental awareness is also emphasized in classes throughout New England. In a pamphlet, available from Richard Donald, BSC, courses are available in environmental studies for the elementary education teacher.

Have some credits to catch up on? Want to study something different this summer, and break away from the usual educational monotony?

A variety of schools hold special summer sessions, ranging from backpacking to skiing, and taking place from Maine to California.

Dormitory - style living is approximately $108 and includes kitchen privileges and studio space. Kenneth Wilson, associate professor of Art at BSC, maintains a studio at Moosehead Lake.

A little closer to BSC, the Deep Run School of Homesteading and Organic Agriculture in York, PA offers an intensive program on a 36 acre farm. Studies include such topics as aquaculture, solar shelters, folk crafts and survival training.

For starters, the prospective summer student should contact Dean Richard O. Wolfe, School of Extended Programs

Nearly 1500 people are expected to participate in Outward Bound at the Hurricane Island Outward Bound School in Maine. Programs are held in a wilderness setting and students can expect to find a new understanding of themselves.

And for UCLA fans, the University of California, Los Angeles, will offer more than 400 special programs and courses spanning 50 subject fields from the physical, natural and social sciences.

A scenic tour of Russia

Going to the 1980 Summer Olympics? Want to get a look at the sight of that event?

If one wants a look at Moscow and other locations within that nation, the opportunity will be Thursday, May 3, at 7:30 p.m. in room 104, Bakeless. Selected slides from the three Bloomsburg tours of the Soviet Union since 1975, with an accent on the '78 tour, will be shown.

Special emphasis will be on the things to see and do, and the facilities to be found in Moscow, the Olympic city. Leningrad, Peter the Great's capital, built by architects from the west in 1703 and nearly destroyed by invaders from that direction 240 years later, is also featured.

Most visitors to the Soviet Union agree that Leningrad is the most beautiful Russian city and many Olympic package tours are sure to include some time there.

Vilnius and Riga, the respective capitals of Lithuania and Latvia, were visited on the 1975 and '77 tours, and the 1978 tour spent time in the Russian Caucasus Region of the south. While in the Caucasus a day-long excursion was made to the Black Sea resort of Novorossiysk for an interesting look at Russian vacationers.

A visit to a collective farm in the heart of Russia's "Black Earth" region provided a first hand observation of socialized agriculture.

The slides will be shown and narration provided by Dennis Sweeney, currently a graduate assistant in Bloomsburg's reading Department and a veteran of three tours of the Soviet Union.

Regretably no vodka will be provided, an almost essential part of Russian life, but the slides presented attempt to focus on the people and the everyday life of a culture so unlike ours.

For anyone interested in the Olympics, life under Communism or just curious about the one nation that rivals ours for world dominance, this showing could be just the thing.

Double defeat for BSC; Shippensburg takes two

The Bloomsburg State College baseball team dropped a doubleheader this weekend to Shippensburg State College.

In the opener, which the Huskies lost 3-2 Shippensburg came from behind to win the game in the eighth inning. Ray Thompson walked, got to second on a wild pitch from Bloomsburg's Brad Moharter, was sent to third on a sacrifice fly ball and scored on a ground hit by Brian Snell.

Todd Hoover and Brent Bankus hit the two runs home for Bloomsburg with singles in the third inning.

The second game was dominated by the outstanding play of Shippensburg's Dave Hemerly, who drove in six runs for the Red Raiders. Hemerly hit two home runs, and two triples to lid the 12-4 Shippensburg effort.

Bankus and Gary Thorp each drove in two runs for the Huskies.

The Bloomsburg nine will face Scranton at home on May 3 (Thursday) at 2 p.m.

Lady lacrossers lose 7-5; to face Bucknell, Kutztown

The eighteen fouls called against Bloomsburg's women's lacrosse team as compared to East Stroudsburg's seven figured heavily in the Huskies' 7-5 loss to ESSC last week.

A SLOW START

BSC got off to a slow start, scoring their first goal twenty-one minutes into the first half, while Stroudsburg had already tallied two. Terri Taylor put the shot in past goalie M. Staropoli, and left defense wing Barb Barrow was credited with the assist.

East Stroudsburg scored again, making it 3-1 with two minutes left in the half. A Bloomsburg player was injured by another Stroudsburg shot immediately after the draw.

A PLAYER SHORT

Since re-entry is not permitted in lacrosse, the player was pulled out of the game, and Bloomsburg played one person short. However, the BSC attack rose to the occasion and Taylor scored another goal with a minute left, despite ESSC's power play advantage. The half time score was 3-2, in Stroudsburg's favor.

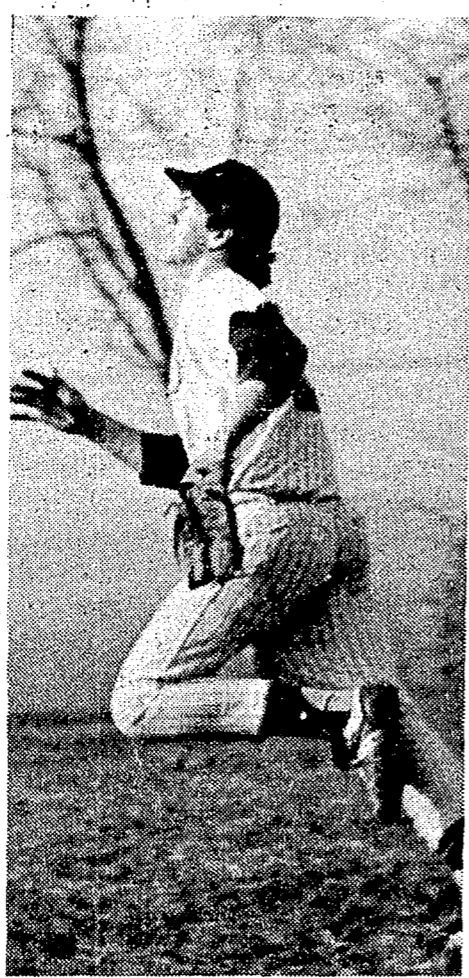

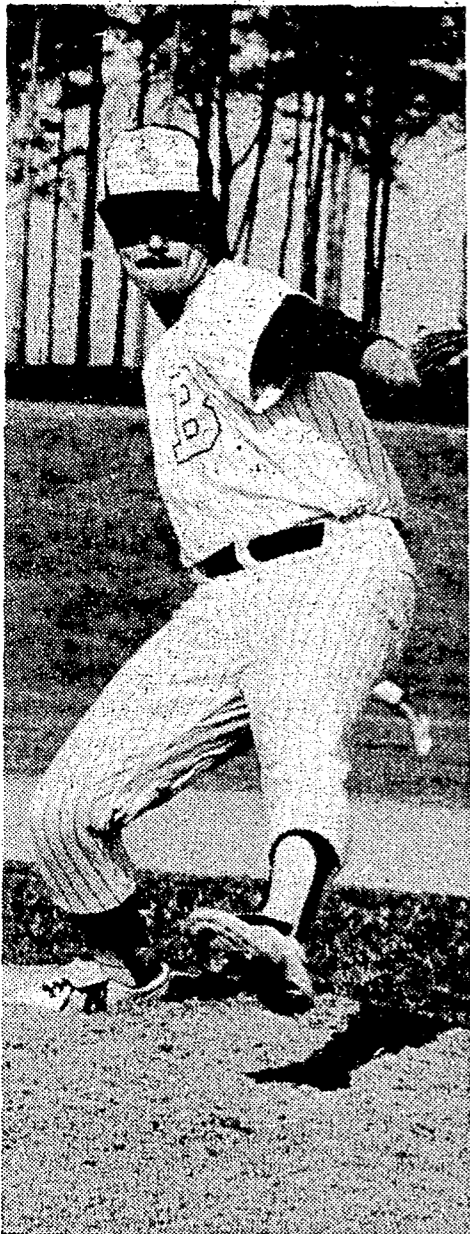

Bloomsburg's play became careless in the second half, and Stroudsburg capitalized on it. Two goals were scored on the Huskies before Scilla Elliott managed to retaliate for BSC with a hard slow shot.

The Stroudsburg attack, however, came back with two goals of their own.

ELLIOTT-HOPKINS SCORE

Scilla Elliott and Gail Hopkins each scored a goal for the Huskies in the final minute of play. Wendy Farrell and Elliott were credited with the assists on the respective goals. The Huskie effort was too little, too late, though, and the women lost, 7-5.

Oratorio premiere slated

by LENORE FIRSCHING and JULIE STAMETS

Ready for something different? Experience the sights and sounds of jazz composer and pianist Paul Knopf in concert - the first of its kind ever to come to BSC.

Knopf, has written a highly original oratorio specifically for BSC's Concert Choir, under the direction of William K. Decker. The premiere performance of "The Murder of Agamemnon" will take place in Haas Center for the Arts on Friday, May 4 at 8:15 p.m.

"The Murder of Agamemnon" is a modern version of the Greek Tragedy by Aeschylus. The jazz oratorio features narration, choral speaking and unusual music.

The choral parts are in the modern classical style while the accompaniment is jazz. Modern, earthy language adds a special effect to give the piece a striking uniqueness.

Knopf has been active on the New York concert scene, performing his own compositions for instruments, solo voices, chorus and dance. He has made three albums of original jazz compositions.

He is being sponsored at BSC as an artist in residence by the Arts Council and the National Meet the Composers Foundation. While at BSC, Knopf will perform some of his works in the Kehr Union.

Knopf, himself, will perform as pianist for the oratorio. Other accompanists featured will include Dwayne Renko and Mark Smith, drums; Robert Mease, string bass; and Scott Miller, Alto saxophone.

In addition to Knopf's music, several works by Aaron Copland will be performed under the direction of student conductor Lee Mueller.

"Our team has been plagued with a lot of minor problems," commented Hinkle. "The whole atmosphere of injuries has detracted from our performance and has made us look relatively weak as a team."

Hinkle continued, "We have 23 freshmen, 6 sophomores, 7 juniors and 6 seniors, so the majority of our format, as far as experience, is now one of relying on our younger talent."

The team's record now stands at 2-3 in dual meets. A victory over Kutztown and Cheyney on May 5 could salvage the season, according to Hinkle.
