Sunrise service initiates Earth Day

by ELISA LaCRETA

In 1970, Dennis Hayes organized Earth Day in celebration of Mother Earth. On April 22, BSC will celebrate Earth Day, as will thousands of people across the country.

Dr. Oliver Larmi, professor of philosophy anthropology at BSC, described Earth Day as "an attempt to reinforce our commitment to society."

Earth Day '80 will include many interesting and informative activities along with entertainment.

EARTH DAY ACTIVITIES

The day's activities will start with a sunrise ceremony behind the Lacrosse Field on campus. A run or bike-in to campus campaign will be waged along with the construction of a solar collector.

A noon rally will be the highlight of the day with the live music of Jeff Vetelli from Allentown. Vetelli is with a group called The Lehigh County Committee of Concern (LEPCCO). He has been a peace activist and environmentalist for many years.

Also occurring at the rally will be the ceremonial planting of trees on campus and brief remarks by faculty and college and public officials.

There will also be a raffle for the solar collector and, bringing the activities to a close will be a sunset service.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

In support of these activities CGA finance committee has proposed a budget which recently went in front of General Council for vote on April 14. Also contributing to the Earth Day committee is the Association of Penn State Colleges and University Faculty (APSCUF) and the BSC Administration has made tentative commitments to aid in the funding.

The Earth Day Committee is made up of both students and faculty with a common commitment to peacefully show concern for Mother Earth by celebrating for what she is giving us and what she can give.

Larmi commented that this is a total environment issue: "It's not a matter of attacking local problems such as the Berwick nuclear plant."

He made it clear that this would be a very peaceful non-violent structured rally stating, "this is simply a celebration for the earth."

Keep April 22 in mind and help the Earth Day Committee with the celebration.

Kathy Folk receives Outstanding Award

Cathy Folk was presented the Outstanding Student Achievement for 1980 from the Pennsylvania Council of Teachers of Mathematics at their recent 29th annual meeting in Pittsburgh.

Her paper, "A Double Error Detecting an Error-Correcting Binary Code," will be published in the Spring issue of the PCTM Journal.

Folk is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Folk Jr., Twin Hills Terrace, Bloomsburg. She has been selected in the 1979-80 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

A member of the BSC Math Club, Phi Kappa Phi, honor society, and president of the BSC Kappa Mu Epsilon. Folk will graduate from BSC in May. She is a 1976 graduate of Bloomsburg High School.

BSC SENIOR KATHY FOLK receives the "Outstanding Student Award" for 1980 from BSC professor Ron Novak. To the right of Folk is June Trudnak, a council delegate at large.

Convention recalled

by R.W. FROMM

Mock political conventions have been a part of the Bloomsburg scene for many years. According to the local newspaper account of May 4, 1928, the Republican convention of that year featured nominations for Herbert Hoover and Will Rogers among others, Texas sombreros, threats to support the Democratic candidate and apparently unexplainable maneuvering on the part of some of the delegations. Note that although the headline claims a second ballot victory, Hoover was not nominated until the third:

MOCK CONVENTION
NOMINATES HOOVER
ON SECOND BALLOT

WILL ROGERS BROUGHT UP AS DARK HORSE AND CAME NEAR WINNING

Beverly Hills' mayor emeritus, Will Rogers, was introduced as a dark horse candidate yesterday in the closing session of the "Republican National Convention" of the Bloomsburg State Teachers' College but he failed to carry the convention by storm and Herbert Hoover was nominated by a large majority on the third ballot.

Rogers' name was placed beside those of Secretary Hoover, ex-governor Frank O. Lowden and Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas, at the opening of yesterday morning's session and immediately a following was won for the ex-cowboy, most of whom remained loyal to him to the end.

Hoover and Rodgers gained strength on the second ballot, while their opponents lost. Hoover had 575, Rogers 287, Curtis 160 and Lowden 145.

Curtis and Lowden supporters swung their support to Hoover on the third ballot and he polled 881 votes to gain the nomination while 190 votes were cast for Rogers.

The second and closing session of the convention was marked with increased enthusiasm as it opened. The Texas delegation carried off stunt honors, appearing in the "convention hall" wearing sombreros.

The "New Hampshire" delegation placed the name of Will Rogers before the convention and several of the members of that delegation were on their feet at the same time telling of the virtues of their candidate. When the tide turned decisively for Hoover just before the third ballot was taken Rogers' supporters told the convention if they did not like their choice for president they would vote for Al Smith.

A motion to make Hoover's nomination unanimous was lost for want of a second. That was probably due to the motion not being heard for the hall was filled with confusion.

There was considerable irregularity in the voting. Alabama, which had given its place in the roll call to Illinois who nominated Lowden, gave their entire block of votes to Rogers on all three ballots.

Arizona's delegation surrendered its place in the roll call to California so that Hoover could be nominated and then gave its solid

Editorial Letters

EDITOR'S NOTE: Letters must be typed on a 60-character line and be in the Voice Office no later than 6 p.m. Tuesdays to be included in Friday's edition. All letters must be signed, with a phone number enclosed. Names will be withheld upon request, at the discretion of the editor.

To the editor:

To the editor,
I'm totally disgusted with the coverage (if you call it that) that the Bloomsburg State College Wrestling Team has received this year. I've come to the conclusion that the only way to get sports publicity from your "Newspaper" is to be on a losing team or a women's team.

First of all, I'd like to highlight some of the accomplishments made by the Husky Grapplers (since the Voice's readers would have no idea). Wrestling is the only Division I sport at BSC — all others being Division II & III. The Huskies were ranked in the Top 20 for the entire season and at one time they were as high as 11th in both the Amateur Wrestling News and National Mat News (both national publications). The Huskies compete on an even keel with such major universities as Oregon State, Iowa State, Oklahoma, Cal Poly, Lehigh, and Penn State. All of these schools offer full athletic scholarships. Such a lofty position merits some publicity. Bloomsburg went 11-3 in dual meets and won the East Stroudsburg Open, Bloomsburg Invitational & Delaware Invationals. They also placed second as a team in the Lehigh Invitational (behind Lehigh), the Wilkes Open, and the Eastern Wrestling League.

Bloomsburg also won the Pennsylvania State College Conference crown for the second year in a row (defeating arch rivals Clarion State and Slippery Rock).

These team accomplishments came through the hard work of each individual team member. Each wrestler deserves mention and congratulations but we have seen nothing.

The final straw came when

Tony Caravella placed seventh in the NCAA Division I Championships at Cowallis, Oregon. This made him a Division I All-American, something that only an elite few attain. Yet your paper had the audacity to include him in your sports coverage under "Sports Briefs." I guess he was lucky to get in there at all.

I'm not concerned with whose reporting is at fault with this coverage. I feel your job as reporters is to follow these teams and report. I only hope in the future that the Wrestlers get the attention and publicity that they deserve.

To the editor:

To the Editor

This past week the Commonwealth Association of Students presented, or should I say attempted to present, students with valuable information ranging from tuition increases to nuclear power. The sad fact is that only about twenty people bothered to listen.

"A Day" or "Student Awareness Day" was conceived to educate students on current issues which not only effect their education, but their lives in general. How long will it take us to realize that concerns over nuclear power, the draft, unemployment, plus others have the potential to erupt at any time? How long will people sit and be silent waiting for a nuclear holocaust? When will we finally wake up to the realization that our rights are no longer unconditionally guaranteed unless we exercise them?

As long as we remain apathetic the general public has but one thought to think; that we are satisfied, that we don't need more funding, that we don't care about nuclear power, rising inflation, or rampant unemployment. To expect more from them would be unrealistic.

Prepare for future with ASPA

by PAM HAZEN

What organization helps prepare you to deal with and learn the problems of personnel management in the business world? Well, this can be answered in just one way, the BSC chapter of the American Society for Personnel Administration (ASPA).

According to BSC chapter President Dave Cichan, there are no special qualifications. It is open to all students. By belonging to this organization, you get a chance to meet with people from the personnel departments in various industries, to find out what it's like to be in personnel management. ASPA helps you prepare for the future. You are also given a chance to hold a student membership in the national organization for a membership fee of $100.00 a year.

ASPA has a total of over 11,000 members in 183 chapters throughout the 50 states. In addition, ASPA sponsors 33 chapters in American colleges and universities. The BSC chapter is affiliated with the Susquehanna Personnel Management Association which is comprised of personnel executives from a five county area bordering Bloomsburg.

The BSC chapter of ASPA will be recognized for its efforts at a national convention in Salt Lake City in June. In receiving the award, the BSC chapter is noted for its outstanding contributions to the professionalism in personnel administration. Some highlights of the year included our two trips to New York where we visited Wall Street, a trip to Berwick Power Plant and various speakers at our monthly meetings.

Anyone is welcome to join ASPA and participate in all of their activities.

Phi Sigma Pi supports Indian foster child

Phi Sigma Pi, a coed national honor fraternity, recently took on the responsibility of helping the Porcupine Sioux Indian Christian Children's Fund (CCF) project to support an underprivileged foster child.

The 14 year old child, Franklin Black Tail Deer, is of Sioux Indian background and lives at the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota.

Since there is little work available in this rural area, except for seasonal farm labor and occasional odd jobs, Franklin's foster parent works for a community bus service. His income, however, is low and insufficient to provide for all the needs of his family. Little if anything remains to pay for the children's school clothing.

Franklin attends the Porcupine Day School between August and May where he is furnished with nourishing meals and recreational opportunities. The school with the help of CCF provides funds for the purchase of clothing, shoes, and personal items for the children. Money is also set aside to help meet the emergency needs of the girls and boys.

Phi Sigma Pi should be able to help give Franklin the opportunity to live a normal and prosperous life under such adverse conditions. This is one of the many projects and activities in which Phi Sigma Pi participates.

Other activities include banquets, national conventions, fund raisers, campus intramurals and other events on campus.

Under the direction of Mr. Donald, their advisor, Phi Sigma Pi has grown to a present membership of 53 (23 females and 30 males). In the past 3 years, Bloomsburg's chapter has won the best chapter award nationally.

FRANKLIN BLACK TAIL DEER, a Sioux Indian was recently adopted by Phi Sigma Pi, a NSC national fraternity.

McCallum and Wenrich pace Husky track effort

By KEVIN KODISH

When a track team leaves two of its better performers at home and goes to a meet, not too many points can be expected unless the team is very powerful.

Such was the case when the BSC tracksters journeyed to East Stroudsburg last Saturday for a triangular meet with the Warriors and Shippensburg State.

The Huskies made the trip without leading sprinter Robert McIntosh and distance ace Tom Groff. The result was a third place finish for Bloomsburg.

BSC scored 28 team points, while ESSC grabbed top honors with 96 points. Shippensburg secured the second spot by chalking up 62 points.

McCALLUM TOP HUSKY

Luckily, the Huskies didn't leave senior weightman Dan McCallum in Bloomsburg. BSC only got three first places on the afternoon, and McCallum was responsible for two of them.

McCallum won the shotput with a heave of 15.61 meters. Ray Distasio gave Bloomsburg an additional place in the event, as the sophomore claimed fourth place.

McCallum also walked away with first place in the discus competition. The standout threw the discus 43.75 meters. As in the shot, the Huskies got a fourth place behind McCallum. This time Bentz Tozer accounted for the place.

BSC's only other first place finisher was sophomore Mike Wenrich. The Reading native topped the field in the high jump. Freshman John Hinks finished fourth in the event for Bloomsburg.

The Huskies got good performances from the Feeley twins, John and Bob. The two 1500 meter runners placed for BSC in the race. John was the runner-up, while Bob came across the finish line in fourth.

Bloomsburg got two third places in the meet, one coming in the 5000 meter run. Senior harrier Steve Johnson ran a fine race for the Huskies.

The only other third placer for BSC was freshman Joe Miller. Miller finished behind two Warrior runners in the 200 meter dash. Miller also placed in the 100 meter dash, finishing fourth in that event.

Jeff Deisher picked up fourth place for Bloomsburg in the javelin competition. It appeared that Kevin Anderson achieved fourth place in the 400 meter dash, but the timers awarded the place to Bill Swingler of Shippensburg.

Head coach Carl Hinkle noted that McIntosh and Groff had incurred injuries. It is hoped that both performers will be ready for this week's competition.

"Danny McCallum has been very consistent with his good places in our meets. He got two first places in this meet and is looking very good at this point," stated Hinkle about his senior standout.

Hinkle added that the team hasn't yet shown what it is capable of doing in dual meet action. "We haven't pushed team performance up to this point. So far we haven't been able to make the adjustments to dual competition," Hinkle said.

The squad will now host Lock Haven, Mansfield and Lycoming today in a quadrangular meet at Redman Stadium. A limited team will travel to Maryland Saturday for the Mason-Dixon relays.

Lacrosse club opens season; Ken Norton leads BSC scorers

by KEVIN LEONARD

The BSC mens' lacrosse club suffered two hard fought defeats last week, losing to Penn State 11-5, and falling to East Stroudsburg 9-7.

On Thursday the men played their first game of the season at Penn State. Going into the first contest the BSC squad was somewhat unorganized during the first half of play and were outscored 8-2.

In the second half, behind the excellent goaltending of Captain Greg Talese, Bloomsburg outscored Penn State 4-3. For BSC, Ken Norton tallied three goals, while Frank Aceto and Fred Eisenhuth added one each.

With less than one minute to go in the first half and behind by three, BSC attack man Norton scored twice cutting East Stroudsburg's lead to just one, 7-6.

In the third period the Huskies outshot their opponents 15-2 but they did not register any goals. BSC tied it at 7-7 in the fourth period, before ESSC retaliated with two goals thus insuring their 9-7 win.

The scoring for BSC was as follows: Norton 3, Frank Aceto 2, Joe Aceto 1 and John Sheeln 1. In both games, the BSC defense turned in a strong effort led by the goalie, Talese.

team hopes to avenge their first loss with this rematch against the Nittany Lions.

CLOSE CONTEST

On Saturday afternoon, BSC hosted East Stroudsburg in what turned out to be a very hard checking game. The game was played in very windy and rainy weather conditions before a good size crowd at Nelson Fieldhouse.

According to Captain Talese, "The team has improved 100 percent since the first half of play against Penn State, and we are looking forward to upcoming victories."

Bloomsburg will travel to Ursinus on Sat., April 19 and their next home game is against Penn State on April 26. The
