Dedication

—— To ——

DR. ROBERT S. STEELE—

As a token of esteem and appreciation of his efforts for the school and the student body, we, the Class of 1929, affectionately dedicate this, the first edition of the MONOCAL.

Foreword

OUR efforts, our desires, and our ideals have gone into the pages of this book . . . If, someday, a lonely soul finds companionship in memories, a cold heart meets a little warmth from fires of old, our labor shall not have been in vain.

IN MEMORIAM

✓ CHOOOL

*“Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.”*

“The scarlet of maples can shake me like a cry of bugles going by.”

*“Rest is not quitting the busy career;
Rest is the fitting of self to its sphere.”*

*“Walls must get the weather stain
Before they grow the ivy.”*

*“And so never ending
But always descending.”*

To "Reeling and Writhing, of course, to begin with, and the different branches of Arithmetic - Ambition, Distraction, Uglification and Derision" leads our pathway.

“Words will build no walls.”

“Memory is the treasury and guardian of all things.”

*“One awakens, one arises, one dresses,
and one goes forth;
One returns, one dines, one sups.”*

*“What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching voice
The world can never fill.”*

Senior Class History.

CLASS OFFICERS

President JOHN WOLFE
Vice President PAUL CORNELL
Secretary ELEANOR SWANSON
Treasurer MILDRED STOKES

AS we, the class of '29, are about to pass on into the past, we look back over our college days with mingled thoughts and emotions. Our hearts are heavy when we know that we must part from all that is dear to us here; but they are light when we think of the work that awaits us that we have so long and faithfully prepared for. It is not what we have said but that which we have done that will make us long remembered in the annals of the California Teachers College.

Our days in college have been full of splendid opportunities for learning and serving. Looking back over these years, we can say that we have given our Alma Mater some things worth while. Among the most important of these is the California Alma Mater Song which was used by the student-body for the first time in the history of the school this year. This song was composed some time ago by the Messers. Thomas Smith, Guy Rider, Eugene Pugh, and Charles Crouse. The singing of this song has added much to our college life and has filled a noticeable gap in our school life. The Mid-Year Commencement in January and the January Class Day program were held this year, for the first time in the history of the school. To our class comes the distinction of receiving the first degrees to be presented by the California Teachers College.

This, our Yearbook, too is the first of our College's annuals. The name, Monocal, was chosen by the year book staff from the names which were submitted by the student body. The meaning of the word Monocal is California on the Monongahela.

However, be these the gifts that we gave our Alma Mater, they can compare in only a very small way with the gifts that she has bestowed on us. We came new, inexperienced and lacking courage. She not only showed us the value of a well balanced life, but she has also shown us how to build habits that will make our lives full of efficient service. To her we owe our everlasting gratitude for the things that she has given us—knowledge and skill in keeping our instruments in tune with the rest of those which make up the great orchestra of life.

Our Junior days were as a vague passing dream, so filled were we with the idea that knowledge was the only thing we were striving for. Our Senior days, the days in which we began to see the practical side of the application of our accumulated knowledge, were full of rich experience. Under the careful supervision and guidance of our teachers, our viewpoint changed and we began to see that teaching is a great and vital factor in the life of the modern civilized world. With the dawning of this light of understanding our attitude changed and we threw ourselves wholeheartedly into the great profession which we had chosen for our life's work. Thus our College days come to a close, with each member of the class pledging himself to the great task that lies before us as a class.

While we were engaged in the task of accumulating and applying our knowledge, we did not neglect the organizations of the school. The class of '29 made itself known in every activity the school sponsored. Our members were outstanding in the literary societies, athletics, student government, and other campus clubs.

As we bid farewell to our dear Alma Mater, we know that behind us today lies the history of the class of 1929. But it is not what we have done here that will be the complete history; it is what we shall do on the great battlefield of life that shall make us proud of each other, and our Alma Mater proud of us all in the years to come.

The 1929 Monocal

Four Year Graduates

California—A Teachers' College.

AT the Commencement held on August 2, 1928 the school was granted power to offer the four-year curriculum leading to a B. S. degree in Elementary Education. At the regular meeting on November 8th, 1928, the State Council of Education gave the school power to offer the courses in the four-year curriculum which lead to a B. S. degree in Secondary Education. With the first fourteen students receiving a degree at the May Commencement the school becomes a Teachers College.

The pictures of the people to graduate with a degree appear before the other Seniors which, we believe, is due honor they have earned.

JUNIORS

Junior Class History.

President	PATRICK McMANUS
Vice President	ELLWOOD COOPER
Secretary	MARTHA HOLSOPPLE
Treasurer	HENRY PARKINS

EARLY in September three hundred and twenty-six specimens of humanity found shelter within the walls of California State Teachers College. A number of this group had returned after a happy preceding year but the larger part was material of the "greenest green." Youth is capable of turning from the ridiculous to the sublime at short notice; and, as a consequence, this "green stuff" was soon roaming the halls with an air of assurance and familiarity. The class was not organized until late in the semester, when, on January ninth, the voting machine was used in the election of officers—Pat McManus getting the leading role as president.

Ten days after the election, ninety-five new members joined the Junior ranks and were cordially absorbed into the activities of the growing class which now numbered four hundred and twenty-one—a large class which shows promise in its fine spirit. The Juniors played no small part in each of the departments of school activities. The girls entered energetically into hockey, basketball, and hiking; while the boys were active in football; and both carried their enthusiasm over into literary societies, dramatics, debating, glee clubs, the orchestra, newspaper staff, art club, tennis, and their respective Christian associations.

The class did not hold regular meetings but met at the call of the president. The first meeting of the Junior Class was held January fourteenth, when a unanimous vote was cast for a Junior Prom. The class put forth its best efforts to make the Prom "the dance of the season." On March fifth, a second meeting was held to decide whether or not to publish a yearbook in nineteen hundred thirty. The votes were in favor of the yearbook and plans were made for the election of staff members. These staff members were required to have a scholastic average of B. Thus the class looks ahead and plans for the future when we shall be Seniors.

We looked still farther, and on the eleventh and twelfth of March all the Juniors had an opportunity to sign their names and addresses upon pages which were placed in the cornerstone of the new Campus Training School building when it was laid on Wednesday, March twentieth. When the building is torn down in the dim and distant future, may posterity find the record of a successful class—the Class of 1930.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Summer School.

WHEN any one says Summer School one usually shrinks in horror at the thought of spending perfectly delightful summer days penned up in school, but friendships made one summer at C. T. C. changes one's mind entirely. The summer of '28 was six weeks of real fun. Really, there were so many social activities that it was a pleasure to work when it was time to prepare lessons or attend classes.

The summer social calendar included a boat ride, moonlight picnics, and hikes, to say nothing of our tennis tournament.

In the summer, the student body was divided into counties and each county entertained. But there were so few people from Allegheny, Greene, and Somerset counties that they had to consolidate. So these "famous" Alle-Gre-Sets decided to stage a somewhat romantic moonlight picnic. Sorry Alle-Gre-Sets, your intentions were fine! But several days of rain made it necessary to hold the moonlight picnic in the College gymnasium. Never mind, there's another summer in '29.

But not to get the cart before the horse, Clio opened the social program for the summer by sponsoring a boat ride. The night before the boat ride the sky, a myriad of tiny stars, told that there would be no rain for this function. The morning sun shone brightly, and the classes, strange as it may seem, were restless and slow. But on every face there was a smile, when at 2:00 the "Julia Belle" docked, and gleefully and noisily announced her arrival.

Well, little need be said about what went on after we started. The dance floor and orchestra were perfect, and when it got warm, everybody crowded to the shady side of the deck.

Yes, it rained, just at supper time, too. However, the crew kindly allowed us to eat in the kitchen. Just before the boat docked in California, some of the more fortunate of us were up in the captain's cabin, and he explained many things about the boat and the locks. He also told us of many experiences he had had on boats.

Finally, we docked in California. Just as we got off the boat the heavens opened. Well, the run from Coal Center to home may have been fun for the athletes, but for the majority of us it was otherwise.

All this time our future tennis aces were "sweltering away" perfectly good hours on the tennis courts. The battle was a long hard fought one. The spectators never once deserted them except at meal time and then the town's people took their places willingly. One by one the players were eliminated, until it was finally decided that for the men, Tom Smith was champion, with Clarence Long second. In the ladies' sphere, Margaret Wilkinson was made "Tennis Queen" of the Campus and Polly Paxton followed closely in her footsteps.

SNAPS FROM JULIA BELLE EXCURSION

Another interesting feature about Summer School was our Sunday vesper services. In the winter the services are held in the library or chapel; but in the summer, Vespers were held on Dixon campus. The attendance was very gratifying and the programs proved beneficial to all of us. One evening the churches held their services on Dixon Campus and with the assistance of the Male Chorus, rendered a delightful program.

One of the most interesting things in those six short weeks is transportation and its facilities. Here-to-fore the summer school enrollment has been much larger than that of the winter school. The greater number of the students travel because the lovely weather (sometimes!!) makes traveling such a pleasure. Cars—Cars—Cars, everywhere. It seemed that there were more cars in California last summer than in the city of Detroit. Maybe that is exaggerating somewhat but really you must stretch your imagination a bit to realize the number of cars that arrived in California from 7:30 A. M. to 9:00 A. M. They say parking conveniences are bad. Cars are stretched from one end of the street to the other and as far as one can see.

Horrors of horrors, I almost forget to tell you of one of the most active societies of the Summer School—the G. O. C. No, before you ask me that inevitable question, it is not second cousin to the G. O. P. It is the Girl's Outdoor Club. The members were up in the wee hours of the morning, hiking here and there, when the rest of us were trying to steal those last forty winks. But their activities were not always morning adventures, for often they took their suppers, and right after school went trailing off somewhere, to return about a quarter of nine, dead tired and dusty, but with minds better prepared for the work of the next day.

What would you say if I told you that a dignified State Teachers College had a Cat and Dog Party? Forgive me, if that is not the right name for your party, folks, but that is what we gathered from circumstantial evidence. The party was held in the traveling girl's rest room. We were studying (?) in the third floor wing, when all of a sudden it just sounded as though some pet shop had set loose its finest thoroughbred hounds and they had come in fierce contact with the wierdest back-alley cats. Oh, it was awful! They told us later that they were playing a game. Peanuts were hidden all over the room and they were to hunt them, and pick them up with their mouths. When anyone found a peanut, he barked or meowed as the case may be. North had given this party and invited Dixon as their guests.

LEAVING THE DOCK

About two weeks later Dixon in turn entertained North. Their party was of a somewhat different nature—a Garden Party. Pretty Japanese lanterns were hung from tree to tree. The piano was taken out from the “Y” room, and such an evening! Dixon had such an interesting program planned that before we knew it, they were serving cookies and punch, and playing “Good Nite Ladies.”

ON OUR WAY

SUMMER TENNIS GROUP

But then it is not always the outstanding events that make our Social calendar a success. As far as life in the Dorm is concerned, well..... There is such a limited space and so very much to say that it is hard to know where to begin.

Early dinner, five o'clock, made our "Campus Dates" quite successful, to say nothing of how interesting they were. The last two weeks of school were really more than one could expect. It was so warm that we were allowed to stay out on the Campus until eight o'clock.

Now winter students who abhor the idea of summer school, what do you think of that? Now, don't get excited, but listen while I say we were even allowed down town until seven o'clock. But horrors of horrors, one night we were down street and it started to rain. Taylor's clock said sixty-eight. Now we're the type of college students who did not take advantage of extended privileges—for fear of losing them. Well to make a long story short we ran home in the pouring rain. But it was the last week of school that made life worth while. Every night we were allowed to dance in the "Gym" until ten o'clock.

In all my sixty weeks at C. T. U. I would never sacrifice my six weeks at summer school. We had hardly time to make many friends for six weeks is so short. But the friends we made were lasting, at least they still write.

Winter friends, I would like to introduce you to our summer student body. They are very interesting to me in many ways: They are older than we, for the most part. If more winter students spent a summer at C. T. C., their associating with the more settled group would make them realize their purpose more fully.

Summer Social Calendar.

BOAT EXCURSION

On July eleventh, the boat "Julia Belle," steamed up the Monongahela river. The excursion was under the auspices of Clio. A humorous program was prepared and given, which, along with the support of the students, made the trip a great success.

WASHINGTON COUNTY TEA DANCE

A Tea Dance was held for the Washington County traveling and dormitory students on Wednesday, July 25, 1928. Music, which was very unusual in its entertaining qualities, was furnished by a local orchestra.

CLIO DANCE

One of the chief social events of the summer was a dance sponsored by Clio on July 28, 1928. The dance was largely attended by students, alumni and faculty. The decorations, which were in the form of a woodland scene, were very attractive and greatly appreciated.

GOVERNMENT

Student Government.

THIS year the system of Student government is in the process of reorganization. It was felt that no central organization existed through which a unity of spirit and interest and an expression of student opinion could be obtained. As a result, through a committee of the council of Presidents working with the Dean of Women, the Dean of Men and the Director of Extra-Curricular Activities, a constitution has been drawn up and accepted by the student body, which provides for a student association to maintain the ideals of the college and to establish (by student cooperation and enterprise) more democratic plan of control. The executive power is vested in a council composed of a President, Vice President, Secretary, and the chairmen of all standing committees as members. It is hoped that through this association the following things may be accomplished; first, a closer cooperation between faculty and students; second, a greater unity between dormitory and traveling students; third, an increased interest in campus activities; fourth, the development of an adequate social program.

At present the Women Students' government is divided into two groups, one handling 200 dormitory problems, the other handling traveling students' problems. Each group has its own Senate and Council. Through our students association the responsibility for good order and right conduct is placed upon each student. The purposes of such an association are to create a spirit of friendly cooperation, to promote high standards of personal conduct, and to carry out a constructive social program.

TRAINING SCHOOL

DEDICATION EXERCISES

The Training School.

THE early settlers of Pennsylvania were the Dutch and the Swedish peoples. At that time the initiative was manifested in churches and schools. Haphazard schools existed during a long struggle until Thaddeus Stevens, the champion of the public school, led, with vigor and eloquence, the school forces in the lower house and succeeded in obtaining the passage of the "Free School Law" in 1834. Since that time continued advancement has been made in education, and it is still being made today. Our present school systems are a great proof of this statement; and the building of a new demonstration school on our California Campus affords a good example of continued advancement.

CORNERSTONE

SCIENCE HALL

For many years there has been visioned a large, modern, well equipped, centrally located, well-functioning school plant; indeed one that would be representative of the progressive Southwestern district of which California is a part. This is no longer a visionary thing; instead, it is now a reality. Additional land was purchased for this purpose; and at the present time a modern Training School Building is being erected on land east of Dixon Hall. On Wednesday afternoon, March 20, 1929, the cornerstone for the new building was laid with impressive ceremonies. Immediately following the addresses, a sealed copper box, containing the signatures of the College and grade students, the faculty members and the training teachers, school records, a school catalogue, a Calnorsean, and several Campus Chronicles, describing the new building, was placed in the cornerstone.

The new "Demonstration and Observation School" erected at a cost of $135,000 is a modern two-story building of fireproof brick, steel and concrete structure, 65 feet long and 64 feet wide. It will provide eight classroom units, and will be a modern plant for student demonstration and observation. The building is being so constructed that additions, in the form of wings, may be added to the main unit at any time.

California State Teachers College has an efficient, well-organized training school department, under the capable direction and leadership of

Professor Kerstetter. There are, at the present time, five schools in the department, namely the Campus Training School, California Borough School, Junior High School, Coal Center School, and the South Brownsville School. These five schools utilize the services of twenty-seven capable and efficient training teachers, under whose guidance two hundred fifty-five seniors have received their practice teaching. Each student teacher is required to teach one session daily during a semester. The practice teachers receive much practical and technical knowledge as well as come in contact with many experiences of a professional teacher, both in the classroom and on the playground. Thirteen hundred and one future citizens were also placed under the care of the training teachers during the school year.

The Campus Training School, utilizing six rooms in Science Hall, provides capable instruction for the first, second, and third grade pupils. It also provides experience for those of the College who are interested in primary work. No doubt, many of the Juniors, not having chosen their group, upon observing these little ones, are guided in their future vocation as teachers.

SOUTH BROWNSVILLE

The most modernly equipped school plant in our department at the present time is the California Borough School. It is here that the practice teachers receive training from the fourth to the sixth grades. It is frequently visited by College classes desiring to observe the pupils and teachers of the intermediate group.

A Junior High School has not been completely organized, but the practice teachers receive their training in Junior High School subjects in another of the California Borough buildings. Here the seventh and eighth grade pupils receive their instruction. They may be described as a small but mighty group. Each pupil in the two grades is an active member of a club. Among these clubs are the Dramatic Club, Travel Club, and Girl Reserves. Through clubs the pupils discover likes and dislikes and make adjustments according to their tastes, and fit themselves to be capable citizens of a democracy.

Those of our seniors who were so fortunate as to do their practice teaching in the Coal Center Borough School, received a glimpse of what the small village or rural school is really like. This school has only four classrooms, but the first six grades are included in its organization. The students and training teachers were ever ready and willing to help our practice teachers do their very best work. Special teachers from the College supervise the departmental work, and the students receive individual attention which plays so important a part in our present day methods of teaching.

This year as in former years, South Brownsville again has cooperated to in providing demonstration space for our practice teachers from Brownsville and the vicinity. The enthusiasm and helpfulness of the townspeople, the principal and the training teachers have been appreciated by those of our seniors who taught there, and also by the training school executives. It is an excellent laboratory, well equipped to uphold the high standards of our training requirements.

In conclusion, we may say we have five of the most up-to-date and modernly equipped training schools in which to place our practice teachers. Here they receive their first experience in the great profession which they have chosen for their life's work; that of teaching the youth of this great nation.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL⁴

COACH EWING

Foot Ball.

ALTHOUGH from the standpoint of a percentage of games won and lost, the football season does not appear to have been a decided success; nevertheless, keen interest was shown by the student body.

In the opening of the season Saturday, Oct. 6, California bowed to the strong W. & J. Freshmen team on the home field by a score of 31 to 0. This contest merely proved the old saying; "A good big team is better than a good little team." Although the local boys were outweighed by more than thirty pounds to the man, the heavier team could not gain consistently but rather spasmodically; for with every last flicker of their spirit, the Red and Black players fought up and down the field losing as their strength waned, and again holding their burly enemy as strength came back to them.

The superb end-running of Rush, the powerful line plunging of Wilson, the smoothness of Gersler, and the all-around play of the line were the main reasons for California's defeat.

Losing to W. & J. aroused the fighting spirit of our boys and it was only after one of the hardest fought battles ever witnessed on the California athletic field that Edinboro was able to triumph 13 to 6 the following Saturday.

HAYWOOD

BRANT

During the first half the Red and Black gridders played their opponents to a stand still and did considerable ground gaining. Once in the first quarter, California had the ball on Edinboro's line but lost on downs. Again in the second quarter the pigskin was within the shadow of Edinboro's line, but once again the up-state team held and punted out of danger.

The third quarter was just a duplicate of the other two, but as the fourth quarter opened, Edinboro displayed a smashing line attack that resulted in a 50 yard march down the field for a touchdown. Camp carried the ball over. The placement-kick was blocked and the score stood, Edinboro 6, California 0. The second touchdown for Edinboro came just a few minutes after they had kicked off to California. Hoffman of Edinboro intercepted a California pass and raced 45 yards to the 3 yard line before he was brought down. Camp again smashed through center for the touchdown. This time the try for extra point was good and California was on the short end of a 13 to 0 score.

California's lone touchdown came in the last minute of play. Cornell punted to Edinboro's 38 yard line and on the first play Krupensky, of the Red and Black team, hit Riley so hard that he fumbled and C. T. U. recovered on the 22 yard line. After three line bucks without results, Cornell passed to Krupensky over the goal line. Haywood missed the extra point as the final whistle blew.

The third time does not always prove the charm as C. T. C. lost her third straight game of the season. Failing to show the same fighting spirit that was so outstanding in the Edinboro game, the Red and Black gridders were defeated by Indiana 6 to 0 on the opponents' field Saturday, Oct. 20. The game throughout was marked by some very poor playing on the part of both teams. The final score might have been different if both teams had played "heads up" football.

SLOSKY

At the end of the first quarter, by a series of line plunges and off tackle smashes, Indiana had carried the ball to the 15 yard line, and would probably have carried it over if fate had not intervened, causing a fumble which was recovered by C. T. C.

The only touchdown of the game came as a result of a misunderstanding of both teams. At the end of the third quarter, Cornell punted from the California 10 yard line to Graff on the 45 yard line as the umpire's whistle blew for time. Some of the players mistook the umpires whistle for that of the referee and ceased playing, and Graff sped over the goal line without much opposition. After much arguing between officials and captains the touchdown was declared valid, and the teams lined up to try for the extra point. The placement kick was wide and the score stood Indiana 6, California 0.

SALSI

During the last quarter C. T. C. outplayed their opponents and kept the ball deep in enemy territory all the time. They lacked the necessary punch to take the oval across and the game ended with the ball in California's possession on the 15 yard line.

After a week's rest, the team went on the field Saturday, Oct. 27, determined to win. Just to prove what determination will do, the highly touted Bloomsburg Team, conquerers of Shippensburg, was handed a set back, 6 to 0. The game was played in a steady drizzle of rain that turned the field into a sea of mud. The main features of the game were the broken field running of Hoak and the line smashing of McCloy.

UNDERWOOD

Early in the first quarter the local team got the jump on the Easterners. California worked the ball to the opponents' fifteen-yard line from mid-field before Bloomsburg was able to hold for downs. A Bloomsburg pass intercepted by Hoak on their thirty-five yard line again put the locals in a position to score but they failed to do this as they were forced to surrender the ball on downs on the twenty-yard line. At the end of the first quarter, the California boys had worked the pigskin from mid-field to the twenty-yard line. Immediately after the opening of the second quarter,

McCOY

CORNELL

Hoak smashed across the final chalk mark for the touchdown of the game.

During the remainder of the game the teams played on even terms, neither side making any long gains. The visiting eleven was kept on the defensive most of the time. When they did have possession of the ball, it generally covered quite a bit of ground before C. T. C. received it on a punt or on downs.

Still fresh from their victory over Bloomsburg, the Red and Black gridders journeyed to Shippensburg. The game was played before a large home-coming throng who cheered their Alma Mater on to a 13-0 victory over the much smaller team from the Monongahela Valley.

The game was hotly contested from the start and both teams were in a fighting mood as was evidenced by the many penalties. The game was not marked by many sensational runs or plays; probably the only one that brought the spectators to their feet happened in the first quarter. A pretty forward pass by Fensty with Dayon on the receiving end enabled the crafty end to cross the California goal line, climaxing a 20 yard run. Cable made a touchdown in the last quarter on the same play.

Having forgotten the Shippensburg game, the Red and Black warriors journeyed to Clarion and overran the supposedly powerful Clarion eleven with a score of 19 to 0. The game was played on a field covered with snow three inches deep. Despite this fact, Coach Ewing's boys completely obliterated the ambitions of the Clarion team, displaying a brand of straight football, and making no attempts to open up the bag of tricks. Clarion's main weapon was the forward pass which several times threatened the California goal. When the time came to put the ball across, Clarion simply could not get anywhere.

The season was brought to a close Sat., Nov. 17, with the annual grudge game with Slippery Rock on the California athletic field. The game was won by Slippery Rock 41 to 0. Because the visitors scored a romping victory over them does not take away any credit from the local boys. Considered the under-dogs, but fighting every moment of the game, they displayed a brand of courage that is pleasant to remember. Being swamped in a sea of heavy mud by a none too promising score does not say the Red and Black gave up; in fact, the overwhelming set-back was due to the exceptional team that Slippery Rock brought here.

Cheerleaders.

“S TUTTER it, gang! Let’s go!” Across the gridiron and basketball court, this and other calls for cheers would float to the ears of the Red and Black warriors who were playing their part in the game with the hearty support of their class mates from the side lines.

Martha Holsopple and Margaret “Peg” Nixon were the everready cheerleaders whose winning smiles and sunny dispositions worked as a magic charm in producing voluminous cheers which did much to lend strength to our football and basketball players.

After the opening of the fall term, tryouts for cheerleaders were held and after much work and many practices, the candidates appeared at the opening pep meeting and from a group of eight candidates the Misses Holsopple and Nixon were elected by the student body.

Their ability to inspire the student body and their quickness of thought and action in calling for the right cheer at the right time, called forth much praise for our feminine leaders. Always present at every game and radiating with pep and action, these leaders saw C. T. C. through one of its best athletic years.

LEAF

Basket Ball.

WHEN Coach Ewing issued the call for basketball candidates shortly before Thanksgiving Day, a large number turned out. With plenty of new material to build around the nucleus composed of Cornell, Dorman, Kent, Smith and Krupensky of last year's squad, the prospects for a good season were very bright. As the team rounded into shape, the fine all-round work of Ed Leaf, one of the new men, became very noticeable. On account of his height, he fitted into the center position very nicely, and gave promise of getting many tip-offs. James, Vernallis, and Neil were other new men who showed some good basketball and were destined to become regulars.

On December 15, the team traveled to Waynesburg College to play their opening game. No one could foresee very definitely the outcome of this game because it was not known just what California's new machine could do, and less was known about Waynesburg's strength. Our boys, however, were determined to put up a hard fight, and were unwilling to concede the opponent any chances of victory until the last minute. Although California suffered defeat (40-29), the team was launched into the spirit of basketball vigor and determination to win the next game.

With this attitude, they attacked the Normal Basketeers at Fairmont, W. Va., the following week. Here that spirit of "Never say die" was exemplified and we were credited with victory. It was a "nip and tuck" affair throughout, both teams displaying the very best brand of basketball, and the winner was not decided until the last minute when Dorman, our husk guard, sank a two-pointer that ended the fracas in our favor. The score was 60 to 58.

The following week we had the pleasure of trimming Clarion Teachers College on our own floor by the score of 66-39. It took but a few minutes for our boys to gain a good lead and then it was just a matter of how large the final score would be. Leaf and Kent were the high scorers in this game. Coach Ewing took this opportunity to put his reserves into action so as to give them a chance to display their wares, which they did very nobly.

On February second, Coach Ewing and his proteges journeyed to Edinboro, where the Red and White snapped our four-game winning streak. The fatigue of the long trip together with the fact that our cagers were experiencing a night off, gave the advantage to Edinboro. We were unable to stem the attack led by Comp and Anderson, crack forwards, and had to be content with the short end of a 59-39 score. Leaf was the high scorer for C. T. C.

On December twentieth, the famed Pitt Freshmen came here to clash with our boys. It was a "neck and neck" race all through the game and it was only through the success of some minute strategy that the Frosh were able to win.

The first game of the new year was played with Youngstown Junior College at Youngstown, Ohio. Since little was known of the strength of the Youngstowners, the boys went into the game with a feeling of uncertainty. California was handicapped somewhat by the fatigue resulting from the long trip. They were forced to give the Juniors the victory, the score being 52-36.

The first conference game of the season took place on January twelfth, when the Red and Black cagers had the opportunity of defeating the powerful Slippery Rock team to the tune of 55-40, this breaking the jinx that had so long protected our old rivals. The Rockers took the floor, very confident of victory, but to their surprise they were soon swamped with a deluge of two-pointers that compelled them to take time out to talk the matter over. The game continued and at only one or two times were they able to check the rush of our team. The ability of Ed Leaf to roll the ball into the basket made him the star of the game. However, Slippery Rock put up a good fight and it was simply a matter of one good team being beaten by another good team.

Our defeating Slippery Rock initiated a long winning streak. When Coach Ewing and his cagers went to Indiana on January nineteenth, another victory was listed on our side of the page. Full of confidence and elation over their recent victory, the team displayed an excellent quality of basketball but were kept on their toes all the time by the equally clever playing of the Indiana boys. There were no outstanding players but the team work was excellent.

On January twenty-fourth, California's invincible machine met an old rival, Massanutten Military Academy. The game was played before the largest crowd of the season, even though it was in the middle of the week. California had no trouble in annexing the expected victory.

California tasted defeat for the second consecutive time when they bowed to the heavy W. & J. Frosh aggregation. It was a hard fought battle and was hindered by much shoving and holding. California held the upper hand a good part of the way but the Frosh were not to be denied. Their weight earned them a victory of 39-33.

The team broke into the victory column again when they defeated the Youngstown Juniors on our own floor, thus getting revenge on the Ohio passers for their previous victory over us. The Youngstown mentor seemed to have been over-confident, for he started his entire second team and as a result found himself on the short end of a 14-1 score at the end of the first period. In the second period, our boys retained a comfortable lead and won by the score of 66-38. The team work was splendid.

In the next game, the Red and Black basketeers suffered defeat at the hands of the Slippery Rock team. California put up a hard fight but could not make the victory in our favor.

California increased its already long list of victories by taking over the Pitt Juniors from Uniontown, by the score of 66-43.

When Indiana came here they were handed their second defeat of the season at the hands of the Californians, thus losing the last chance for capping the conference title. It was a well-played game and the shooting of Kent and Lear was outstanding.

Since Edinboro had discontinued basketball for the season, the lone barrier to California's title hopes was Clarion. With hearts beating high with hope, the Red and Black team traveled to Clarion. There they nosed out a hard-earned victory on Clarion's band-box court.

By virtue of this victory California satisfied her ambition and gained undisputed possession of the Conference title.

The last game of the season was with Shippensburg. This team was defeated by a large score, thus proving that California could defeat eastern teams as well as western teams.

Track Season, 1928.

CALIFORNIA'S track season opened with many candidates who were eager to participate in any entry. During the first few weeks, there was light training under the direction of Coach Sutherland and Captain Sisson. After every one was in fair condition, a track team was selected to represent California in the triangular meet at Clarion, between Clarion, Indiana, and California Teachers Colleges. Coach "Jock" was very enthusiastic that California should stand as one of the best among the teams representing the Teachers Colleges. His enthusiasm was largely responsible for California's taking second place with Indiana first and Clarion third. Although the majority of the team were new men, they produced a winning team and enjoyed the work with Coach Sutherland, who deserves much credit for his hearty cooperation.

Miss Louise A. Hildreth.

MISS HILDRETH is widely known for her athletic coaching ability, having been an athletic director in our institution for several years. Under her intelligent supervision, many things have been accomplished in the field of athletics for girls.

Under her direction, the Girls' Athletic Association was organized and became one of the most important organizations of the College.

Without Miss Hildreth, we would probably not have our May Day festivities. It is she who plans and directs the features to be given in this celebration.

Because of her influence and ability, the College has four girls' basketball teams; namely, Dixon Hall, North Hall, Traveling, and Town. Each year a call is issued for team candidates and there is always a good response. Miss Hildreth divides these girls into sections which they represent and then a basketball tournament is held to decide the championship.

Another outstanding thing Miss Hildreth has accomplished is the annual G. A. A. Circus, held in the College gymnasium in April. This is a good opportunity to see all the "different animals" of the College.

Miss Hildreth is to be congratulated for her willingness and the fine spirit in coaching girls' athletics at the College.

TRAVELING TEAM

Champion Basket Ball Team.

BASKETBALL, a favorite sport among the girls of the College, brought about a sensational tournament.

A great number of girls responded to the call for candidates. Because of this large number, it was necessary for the girls to be divided into sections which they represented. This being done, we had four teams known as North Hall, Dixon Hall, Travel, and Town.

These teams participated in an inter-sectional tournament which was brought about by officers of the association. The games were played with strong determination, for each team wanted to become the champion.

The Traveling team seemed to be the strongest of the four teams and won the Inter-class championship. The Traveling team was composed of Laura Buttermore and Jane Hill, guards; Stella Komer, center; Margaret Barr, side center; Margaret Wilkinson and Marie Hartley as forwards. These girls were also stars on the High School basketball teams.

North Hall Basket Ball.

IN the beginning of the year, 1929, a call was issued in North Hall for better basket ball players. Well, they came—good and bad, and out of these were chosen first and second teams with substitutes for both. Many of these girls finished the season and those who did will agree that we had a most enjoyable and beneficial season. We did not win by points, but feel that we made quite a high score in sportsmanship. “Playing a girl’s game, fair and square” was our unwritten motto, and we kept it in mind throughout the season. We will look forward to a great improvement next year, but in any case we hope that the best team wins as it has thus far. Quite a number of us are leaving this year but we feel that there will be many more to take our places, and we do hope that they have a much more successful year than we have had. Always hope for something better!

Dixon Hall Basket Ball Team.

FOR the past two seasons interest in basketball has been lacking among Dixon girls. It was difficult to get enough girls out to have a good practice. But this year the girls made up for this lack of pep, and let every one know Dixon could play real basketball.

At Miss Hildreth's first call for those interested in this sport, twenty-five girls presented themselves as candidates for the team. As usual, several dropped out, leaving sixteen girls who worked hard, forming later into Dixon A and B teams. Helen Duvall was elected captain and served well in that capacity.

When the tournament was arranged, Dixon A, although they did not win, showed real strength in holding the Traveling Team to a 19-21 score and winning from North Hall 7-11. Dixon B did not meet with quite an equal amount of success yet played well and exhibited real spirit.

The morale of the team was fine. The girls were out for the sport, for the "kick" in the game itself, and the sportsmanship in every game was commendable. This training is extremely important in our future careers as teachers. After all, this is the important thing in any activity.

Several of the teams' dependable players were Juniors, and we hope that these new candidates from Dixon will make the next basketball season just as successful as the season of 1929.

Hockey.

OF the many girls' sports now sponsored by every modern school, there is none more invigorating and popular than hockey. Because of its great attraction it was one of the outstanding activities this year.

When the announcement of the first practice was made, the Coach, Miss Hildreth, was pleased to see the field crowded with girls belonging to the G. A. A.

The sport is still in its infancy, and as a result only intra-mural hockey was planned. Careful selection resulted in the organization of the various teams. Excitement, cheers, and good school spirit were manifest at the games which followed.

After much practice and fun an honorary Varsity was chosen. The qualities which determined the choice of these players were attendance, attitude, and good sportsmanship.

The end of the hockey season came too soon for the girls. A final gathering was demanded and the G. A. A. held a banquet in the College dining hall. The pleasant events of the evening included yells for the individual members of the Varsity.

Those girls who have spent their last year at the College will carry away with them a love for hockey that will last.

G. A. A. Board.

THE G. A. A. Board consists of the following:

President, Agnes Clark, better known as the one who called the meetings of the Board in Y. W. Room.

Vice President, Lettie Colvin, whose aid was always appreciated.

Secretary, Eleanor Swanson, the one whose voice rang out, "A meeting of the G. A. A. Board was called by the President," etc.

Treasurer, Mary Hutchinson. She sure can handle the money.

Senior Dorm Representative, Margaret Jennewine, whose two years of service on the G. A. A. Board were of much value.

Senior Traveling Representative, Eva Sklov. Ask Eva, she knows.

Senior Town Representative, Stella Komer. It is useless to try to explain how much we appreciated Stella.

Junior Dorm Representative, Margaret Nixon. Our ringleader, cheerleader and what else?

Junior Traveling and Town Representative, Marie Hartley, whose services as a Board Member have been appreciated.

Hockey Manager, Josephine Yowan. Was the hockey season a success? Why shouldn't it be with Jo at the head?

Basketball Manager, Jane Hill. The international basketball tournament was quite a success with Jane at the head.

Miss Hildreth and Miss Carroll are sponsors of this association and it has proved a source of pride to them.

Girls' Athletic Association.

THE main purpose of the G. A. A. is to sponsor girls' athletics; chiefly basket ball, hockey, hiking, tennis and volley-ball. Girls participating in any of these sports are awarded a certain number of points for which they receive a letter.

Another objective of this organization is to keep the social affairs moving. The season opened with a hike and wiener roast, September 26. Many girls attended the first event of the school year, making it a great success.

The first meeting of all the members of the G. A. A. was in the form of a hike and wiener roast along the Republic road. Before refreshments, the regular fall election of new members of the board was held. After this meeting the girls enjoyed themselves by gathering around the bonfire and singing until dark.

The next event was a combined Hallowe'en Party and initiation. The gym was decorated with sheets and witches, giving it a ghostly appearance. Before refreshments were served, a special program was rendered, consisting of readings, piano solo, and stunts by the different halls. The faculty presented a very interesting stunt. After the eats all enjoyed themselves by dancing.

On February 14, a Valetime Party in form of a Track Meet was held. The girls were grouped into different teams, each electing a captain. The contest was then on. The winning team was presented a loving cup. All enjoyed themselves. This was evident by the sounds heard coming from the gym.

The refreshments were in keeping with the day, heart-shaped cookies, and ice cream moulded into red hearts. After the refreshments the main diversion was dancing.

G. A. A. Circus.

THE largest and most successful event of the G.A.A. was the Circus held in the gym, Wednesday, March 20, 1929.

The sideshows, (directed by Miss Eva Sklov,) were the features of the first part of the evening.

Next came the big parade, consisting of the largest elephant in the world, giraffe, bears, African peacock, camel, ponies, pirates and clowns.

The program for the Main show was as follows:

1. The Kookoo Clown Band.
2. The Woofuses.
3. Isadore, the Irish elephant.
4. Tonsil Eatous, the only trained giraffe alive.
5. Old Man Clog.
6. Mike and Ike, harmonizing hoboes.
7. Princess, Kanjamar and her group of wild animal performers.
Nero, the pie face lion.
Fritzie, the furious tiger.
The Three Bears (Watsa Bruin, Lotsa Bruin and Home Bruin.)
8. In Topsey Turvey Land.
9. Equestrienne Act—College Trained ponies.
10. Lindy Lee Clog.
11. Osa, the African Peacock.
12. Sailors Hornpipe.
13. Camille, the Shiek's own camel.
14. Tillie Toddles, the light rope walker.
15. Tony Macaroni and Jocko.
16. Parade of the Wooden Soldiers.

INTERMISSION

17. Three Little Kittens.
18. The Hottentot Head Hunters.
19. Bozo, the Strong Man.
20. Blood Thirsty Pirates.
21. A Dark Secret.
22. Wreath Drill — Whoopee.
23. Captivating Clowns in Curious Contortions.
24. George White's Scandalous Scandals.

The Circus closed amid shouts, applause, and laughter.

ACTIVITIES

ORGANIZATION

Philo.

OF all the things by which a school is judged, its literary activities are among the most important. It is with this thought in mind that the Philomathean Literary Society has always conducted its activities. The name in itself, which means "Lovers of Learning," reveals the aim of Philo.

To begin with, the Philo Literary Society had a very active session during the summer of 1928. The season was opened with a "bang" by the entrance of eight new members. New officers were elected to conduct the society during this session. This group of people helped to make the organization a success.

Philo presented a show consisting of eight acts. This show was the biggest and best literary feature of the entire school semester. The faculty and professional actors also took part in making it a success. Many other pleasant programs were presented.

Summing everything up, Philo benefited greatly by the summer session because she gained both members and talent.

Throughout the entire winter session, Philo has taken as its slogan "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm." By following this slogan it has accomplished many outstanding achievements.

PHILO HALL

The first of these achievements is the Philo Dance given in honor of the football team. It was well attended and rated by all a success.

The second achievement is in holding the honor of having in its society the majority of the athletes of the school. This fact alone shows that it is an active organization.

Third, in an impressive ceremony lead by our former President, Miss Grace Latus, the American flag was presented to the College. It was accompanied by music, singing, and an impressive patriotic speech of acceptance by Dr. Steele. This was the beginning of a campaign for "bigger and better Chapel programs."

Philo will continue in its work, to win the society contest, to give a one-act play of worthy mention and, finally, to leave to the future members of Philomathean Literary Society a background worthy of such an organization.

Clio Literary Society.

THE Clonian Literary Society, during a career of fifty-five years, has established for herself an enviable reputation for work achieved, and for the high moral and educational standard maintained in all her departments.

The largest number of earnest, industrious, and worthy members enrolled under her banner, during the past, have been and is a tribute to her endeavors.

When the summer session of 1928 convened, all the students new and old alike were received into our institution's activities by the Literary Societies. Clio Literary Society announced that their first meeting would be held that evening. A record crowd attended the opening meeting with many of the old Clio members present. A nominating committee for officers for the ensuing six weeks was appointed. Clarence Long was elected to fill the position of President and the society immediately set about planning their annual summer social event. In the summer of 1927, the Fayette County Students innovated the practice of holding an annual summer boat excursion on the Monongahela river. Clio's contribution to the summer social functions was a continuance of this feature. The steamer, Julia Belle, was chartered from the Penn Transport Company of Pittsburgh and on July seventh, all faces were turned toward the beautiful scenery of the Monongehela. This occasion and the excellent programs given by Clio members were two of the outstanding features of the summer term.

CLIO HALL

The Intra-Mural Tennis Tournament, held on our courts during the last weeks of the session, caused much excitement. Again Clio came to the front in offering two gold and two silver medals for the champions and runners-up. The Mens Championship was won by Thomas Smith with Clarence Long as the runner-up. Margaret Wilkinson was the woman champion, with Pauline Paxton second.

We recognize the fact that the hours we have spent in Clio Hall during the past fall and winter are the most pleasant of our school life, and as such, our endeavor has been to make each meeting better than the preceding one. Clio has taken many steps in the last year toward improvement. The Constitution has been revised, which will make our society more up-to-date. She was instrumental in the direction of several social events of the year. It was Clio who was responsible for the coming of the Oberlin College Glee Club to our school. The informal dance which was in honor of Dean Eunice Nelson was sponsored by Clio. Both of these events were successes. Another important event which proved a success was the play "Sauce for the Gosling." The cast consisted of Dorothy Nelson, Josephine Kinsey, Rachel Mitchell, Helen Duvall, Naomi Reed, Lettie Colvin, and Pearl Crosser. This cast was composed of very active members of Clio and helped to maintain the high standards of performances which are always given by the Clonian Literary Society. Clio is still looking forward to one more important happening this year; namely, that of the contest with Philo. We are trying and hoping to make this just as successful as other events of the year.

Our aim is to realize the good, the beautiful, and the true, and we desire to incorporate into our program only such principles to harmonize with such an aim.

We hope, in the years to come, the character of Clio may never become depreciated but that the radius of her influence may increase and her helpfulness be intensified.

Y. W. C. A. GROUP

Y. W. C. A. ROOM

Y. W. C. A.

THE purpose of an organization, such as a Y.W.C.A., is to help maintain the high ideals and standards of right living while students are in school. The Y.W.C.A. of California has worked hard this year to achieve this purpose.

The annual membership drive was made in the early part of this year and one hundred thirty-five members were pledged. The "Little Sister Movement" that followed has helped to guide the new girls in the social and ethical life of the school.

Regular Sunday evening Vespers have been held throughout the year in the College library and the entire student body has been invited to attend this service of song and praise. A notable feature is the extent to which individual students have participated.

A new service was given this year by the Y.W.C.A. when it conducted the annual Red Cross Roll Call at the school and managed the sale of Tuberculosis Seals.

One of the big events of the year was the International Bazaar. The booths were decorated in the fashion of various countries and displayed articles peculiar to each. The whole affair was very colorful and showed much work on the part of the Y.W.C.A. girls.

The closing activity of the year was the play, "The Cradle Song", given by an entire cast of girls and directed by Mr. L. H. Connell.

Y. M. C. A. GROUP

Y. M. C. A. ROOM

Y. M. C. A.

THE Y. M. C. A., founded on the golden principle of Christian fellowship, is an organization embodying the most worthy and noble ideals to be lived and enjoyed on the campus, in the classroom, and in the world about us.

For developing and establishing these fine Christian principles of living, regular weekly meetings were held in the "Y" club room every Wednesday evening. At these meetings throughout the year, students, faculty members, and various outside speakers have contributed their services in making the programs successful in the way of educational interest, entertainment, and inspiration. In every way, the meetings have been thoroughly helpful and worthwhile.

Aside from the regular work, the "Y" pursued several other objectives. During the second semester deputation work was started and the Y of California provided three Hi Y clubs with leaders. Attendance at all conferences was another aim, with the result that in every case our Y was well represented. In the Beaver Falls conference, it excelled all the colleges represented. To provide for Eaglesmere funds a benefit concert was sponsored in January. Among social features, the most outstanding one was the Y Banquet held in the dining hall at the close of the attendance drive. This proved such a success that it is hoped it will be an annual event.

The membership roll has reached the highest mark in years, having a total of eighty members. Since the organization has grown in numbers, it has naturally increased in effectiveness and influence. With continued effort and cooperation it will become an association in which its members can find power, truth, and a love which will help them in doing the best things in life for others.

Debating Club.

ONE of the most active organizations of the College is the Debating Club. This club was organized to help all students who are interested in literary circles to receive debate training and extra-curricula credits. Much of the credit which is given to this club is due to the Coach, Professor I. C. Keller, who has been a careful supervisor during the year. It was through his influence that this organization put on its first debate in the College. Now the club has its concrete foundation upon which it may build in the future. Although the club has passed only the second milestone of its existence, it must be remembered as one of the organizations of the school that carried out a definite program throughout this season. Many new members tried out this season and it is hoped that since membership is open to all, many more will try out next year and in the years to come.

The teams met Edinboro Teachers College on March 14, 1929 in a dual debate. On March 15, 1929 the teams met the Slippery Rock Teachers College. April 11, 1929 marked the last dual debate this season with the Clarion Teachers College. The subject for debate was: Resolved, That The Present Jury System Should be Abolished, Constitutionality Conceded. Our home team, the affirmative, won the first two debates while the team that traveled, the negative lost in two close contests. The results of the last debates, with Clarion were a win at home and the team debating at Clarion losing. Patrick McManus was selected Captain of the Negative, and Evelyn Snyder of the Affirmative team.

The administration of this club was taken care of by the officers named below:

The College Players.

AMONG the newer organizations on the campus is the College Players. Under the able supervision of the dramatic coach, Mr. Leon H. Connell, it has proved one of the most successful of the student activities.

The organization was an outgrowth of the "Sock and Buskin" club and the play-casts of previous years. After the organization of the Players, tryouts were held for new members. It now has a membership of ninety active members who are afforded the opportunity to gain knowledge in costume designing, scene painting, supervision of plays, and make-up.

The first formal social debut was made at a delightful Hallowe'en Ball where the successes, "The Wooden Hut" and "The Makers of Dreams" were presented. At the Yuletide season, McFadden's play "Why the Chimes Rang" was presented to a capacity house. It was acclaimed one of the most impressive Christmas entertainments ever held at C.T.C.

The next outstanding event was the introduction of "The Children's Theatre" through the play "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs". This is the only children's theatre in Monongahela Valley and it promises to be a thriving enterprise.

A characteristic play of the Carolina mountains "Sun Up" was an unusual success. All plays produced at the College are presented and enacted through College Players.

Gamma Pi Chi.

THE Gamma Pi Chi is an organization consisting of thirty girls who are selected on a basis of scholarship, loyalty, cooperation, and friendliness. No girl is eligible to membership who does not have at least a C average. Weekly meetings are held where programs which are both instructive and entertaining are given. The club aims to "do something for others" and this semester at Thanksgiving time made a substantial contribution to a needy family in California. At present, the girls are earning money and they hope to contribute to the Student Loan Fund. The club is sponsored by Miss Henrietta Carroll.

The Varsity Club.

AT the opening of the fall term a new organization, called the Varsity Club, came into existence. A constitution was drawn up under the able supervision of Professor Edinger and submitted to the extra-curricular activity committee for approval. In due time the constitution was approved and the following officers were elected:

President	KENNETH SLOSKY
Vice President	VINCENT DORMAN
Secretary	FOSTER SISSON
Treasurer	ELDEN KENT

All undergraduate athletes who had won their varsity letters in any major sport in previous years were admitted automatically into the club as charter members. In all, there were twelve charter members—Slosky, Dorman, Sisson, Heywood, Krupensky, Kent, Adamson, Miller, Long, Lingquist, Smith, and Cornell.

At the end of this present years basket ball season, ten new members were added to the club, making twenty-two members in all. Of these, nineteen are expected back for the next season. The new members are: Vernallis, Brant, Underwood, Nevins, Neil, Salsi, Diskin, Blair, Leaf, and James.

With this group from which it can gather its material the 1929-30 athletic squads will undoubtedly be better able to measure up to the College standards.

Waiter's Club.

MERRY and full of pep! That's significant of the "Hash Slingers" of California Teachers College. How they can smile and make wise "remarks"! One never knows what will happen next. In speaking of service, our boys win the gold medal for efficiency. Day in and day out, they don their white jackets and perform splendidly. This 'gang', better known as the "Loyal Order of Hashmen", pleases the hungry throng in every possible way.

MUSIC

STAGE 1928

Conservatory of Music.

DR. CHARLES VEON, head of this department, with the assistance of Mrs. Jean Helsel McConnell and Miss Louise Noble, prepared a very delightful recital which was given in chapel on Monday evening, May twenty-eighth, 1928.

In the program were six ensemble numbers and four solos, all of which were excellently rendered. Seven pianos were used in the last number, with fourteen musicians participating. The most notable of the selection given was "Rakozy March" from Liszt.

The stage was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Kerstetter and Mrs. Pollock, under the direction of Miss Hazen, of the art department.

Sigma Tau Lambda.

THE Sigma Tau Lambda, better known as the Girls' Glee Club, under the supervision of Miss Meyers, is a well known organization on our college campus. The past year for the Club has been a lively one, socially as well as musically. At Thanksgiving time a cantata, "Three Springs", was successfully presented. During the spring months another cantata, "Pan On a Summer Day", was presented.

Meetings were held by the club each week. Several parties were given during the year. The outstanding social event was the Christmas Party, held in the form of a dinner, after which the girls went to a show.

Trips were made to Bentleyville, Brownsville and Washington, where the club presented programs.

The officers for the year are as follows:

President	EVA SKLOV
Vice President	IRENE BONHAM
Secretary	RUTH J. HEWITT
Treasurer	JANET PARDOE
Librarian	ELIZA GRABLE

Men's Glee Club.

UNDER the able direction of Prof. Halstead the Men's Glee Club experienced a very successful year. Many of the members were new, but this did not seem to be a handicap, as every one worked and made the club a success. The men also helped in the Mixed Chorus.

During the year a burlesque, entitled "Cleopatra," was given. "Cleopatra" is a modernized story of Anthony and Cleopatra, based upon college life.

The Glee Club gave a concert at the American Legion banquet at Bentleyville on Friday evening, March 15, 1929, in the High School Auditorium. The club has also made several other appearances, helping to furnish the music for the Mid-year Graduation exercises, California High School Assembly, East Pike Run High School, and often adding to the chapel exercises.

College Male Quartet.

THE past season at California Teachers College has been one of the best for the College Male Quartet. The quartet, under the able supervision of Mr. Halstead, was composed of Henry Parkins, first tenor; Elwood Cooper, second tenor; Jack Hoyes, baritone; and Dave McCulley, bass. The first appearance of the quartet was at Newell, then followed programs in school, where the quartet has been an added attraction to the concerts which were given by the Glee Club. Another very successful performance was given at the American Legion Banquet in Bentleyville. Not only have the students at the College enjoyed these programs, but also the various organizations in towns along the river have taken pleasure in them. At Uniontown and Bentleyville, the boys were especially well received. Both Mr. Halstead and the members of the quartet are to be heartily congratulated for their excellent work.

SCENE FROM ROMEO AND JULIET

MISS MOYER

Orchestra.

THE orchestra, consisting of twenty members, is one of the most important organizations of the college. It is one of the most enjoyable, and profitable features of college life. Under the excellent supervision of Miss Ella R. Moyer, and of course the efficiency of each of its members, the orchestra has worked up the ladder to success.

The history of the organization proves that each rung of the ladder grasped at each chance, was not easy to reach. When organized, five violins, one cornet, piano, and a trombone, composed the orchestra. This was merely a violin class until Miss Moyer discovered some new talent in the college and added bass horn, two saxophones, one cornet and six violins to the orchestra. Thus strengthened, this group met twice a week for practice.

Although the public appearances of the orchestra have been few, when they did appear they were heartily welcomed. Some of their appearances include the January Commencement and the Orchestra assembly.

The orchestra closes its season with music for the commencement exercises. Each class is represented in the orchestra, and although graduation will claim some of its members, yet its spirit will live on.

Dalcroze Eurythmics.

DALCROZE Eurythmics, a new feature at the College, was introduced by Mr. Elmer Schriener.

The word Eurythmics itself means "good rhythm," and goes back to the days of Plato. The Greeks, in those days understood rhythm, worked with it, and made it a guiding principal in Art, Poetry, Music, and life itself.

To the Greeks, rhythm was the spark that kindled in them a desire to live. Through the efforts of Jacques Dalcroze, of Switzerland, we may make Eurythmics a practical thing in education; a remarkable something through which we may again fully interpret, express, and create rhythm.

The Editorial Staff.

THE editorial staff, which is composed of a group of seniors, has worked earnestly in making our "Monocal" a success. A large part of the material contained in this book was contributed to us by various members of the class and several faculty members and friends. We acknowledge the efforts of these people with the most hearty appreciation. To all others who have assisted us in this work of building the first "Monocal" our deepest appreciation is extended.

Business Staff.

THE Business Staff of the Monocal came in contact with a much greater task than they had anticipated. Due to the fact that the school had become a Teachers College, the staff undertook to make this year's publication larger and better than ever. In this program of expansion, there were many difficulties to be encountered, but the Staff, working with a fine spirit and a determination to make the Monocal of 1929 a success, completed their task at the scheduled time.

The Staff is as follows:

Business Manager	DONALD HAWTHORNE
Advertising Manager	CLYDE HAYWOOD
Assistants	{ MARION EDMUNDS HENRY NEIL ELDEN KENT
Typists	{ HELEN MARSHALL MARY CIRINELLI
Secretary	ROBERT THRASHER

Art Staff.

THE Art Staff was organized in September 1928, under the supervision of Miss Bentz. At that time a modernistic theme was chosen for the year book. Regular meetings were held every Thursday evening at which time honest to goodness work was accomplished, and yet time was found for amusements, in the form of social affairs held at the home of Miss Bentz and in the Art Staff room in Dixon, a room which was given over to the Art Staff and was remodeled and supplied with art equipment. Members of the staff took advantage of this and spent many hours there.

Earl Linquist, former art editor, was graduated in mid-term and Goldie Dobosh was elected to take his place.

The Campus Chronicle

THE Campus Chronicle, after weathering a series of almost disastrous financial adversities has victoriously emerged a bigger and better school publication. Its field of service has been increased threefold since the experiment of a combined school and community publication. The New Chronicle, a standard eight column newspaper is the efficient organ of the student body, alumni, and neighboring vicinity.

The staff includes:

MAY QUEEN—DONNA BAGSHAW

May Day.

MAY sixteenth! It was a lovely day! Birds were singing, trees were in leaf, and flowers were blooming. "Will it be to-day?" was echoed over all the campus. "I hope it doesn't rain." "Did you get your costume yet?" "Let's go and get your costume this period." Excitement and expectation reigned. May Day had been postponed to this day of days. This was the culmination of our WEEKS of practice!

"What time does it begin?" "Why, people are coming and I'm not dressed yet." "I have to change suits twice and I don't see HOW I can possibly make it."

The characters were assembling in the gymnasium. Of course, the Queen, Donna Bagshaw, was the center of admiration. Around her gathered her court people. In every possible place were assembled people in quaint dresses or queer, (but appropriate), costumes.

We had been assembled in our proper places and it was at last time to begin. Our homage was to be given on the campus back of Dixon Hall. Many people from neighboring towns had gathered to attend this annual affair. Queen Donna, led the procession, followed by her pages, jester, and the knights and ladies of the court. Then came the representatives of the different nations. Last of all came the elements.

The Queen of May was crowned with due ceremony with a wreath of flowers. This was followed by a dance, the Minuet, by the Court.

The nations came to give their homage, expressing their gladness and adoration by folk dances. The English presented the Morris Dance; the Italians, the Tarantella; the Russians, the Polka. The Irish, Spanish, Dutch, Swedish, Scottish and Flemish were all represented and gave their dances.

The elements came to greet the Queen and bid her welcome. The Cloud and the Snowstorm were first. Then came Spring, bringing with her many followers, the Raindrops, the Sunbeams, the Flowers, and the Butterflies. These groups gave dance interpretations of the things they represented.

The Wreath Drill followed and the last of our merrymaking was the Maypole Dance!

It was over, but within each heart was an exultation! Ours was the spirit of welcome and happiness. Spring was here at last and we were glad! We had worshipped her within our souls as well as through our dances.

The program had been prepared under the direction of Miss Hildreth. The people who took part were chosen from the members of the different gymnasium classes. It was a day that will be remembered for a long time to come.

CALENDAR

CALENDAR.

SEPTEMBER—1928

- TUESDAY, Sept. 11—Registration day today. A mad scramble to find rooms and room-mates, also to see the new deans.
- WEDNESDAY, Sept. 12—The little Juniors are beginning to get homesick and cry for their mammas. (Maybe its a boy-friend, too).
- THURSDAY, Sept. 13—Classes start "full force" to-morrow. A rush for second-hand books is starting.
- FRIDAY, Sept. 14—First dance of the year in Gym to-night. Only the bravest of those who remained for their first week-end at C.N.S.
- SATURDAY, Sept. 15—Thus ends the first week of school. Quite a number rushed home to the girl or boy friend.
- SUNDAY, Sept. 16—Campus scenes enjoyed by those who stayed.
- MONDAY, Sept. 17—Home sickness prevails. Mary would prefer washing clothes at home to attending classes.
- TUESDAY, Sept. 18—Dormitory rules were given out today. We'd better begin to memorize them.
- WEDNESDAY, Sept. 19—Students are still struggling for places in the dining-room.
- THURSDAY, Sept. 20—Seniors picked their little sisters, and will try to keep them from going astray.
- FRIDAY, Sept. 21—A few went home, but a great many more had Saturday classes.
- SATURDAY, Sept. 22—What a relief, no classes to-morrow.
- SUNDAY, Sept. 23— A campus parade was held by the few who remained for the week-end.
- MONDAY, Sept. 24—"Campus Cases" are developing rapidly. The boy-friends at home are fast fading into the background.
- TUESDAY, Sept. 25—Clio and Philo start regular meetings. Both societies are rushing around madly for members.
- WEDNESDAY, Sept. 26—The Galli Curci's of C.N.S. met in Room 2 to try out for Glee Club.
- THURSDAY, Sept. 27—The students are settling down to work, especially the student teachers.
- FRIDAY, Sept. 28—Clio presented the first dance of the season, in honor of Dean Nelson.

CALENDAR

It was a great success, and we hope for more like it. Thanks Clio.

SATURDAY, Sept. 29—The last day of school this month. It doesn't seem possible.

SUNDAY, Sept. 30—A few more have consented to stay over the week-end. What is the attraction? ? ? ?

OCTOBER—1928

MONDAY, Oct. 1—Coach Ewing (European History):—Mr. Haywood, give me any well known date in Roman History?

Haywood:—Anthony's with Cleopatra.

TUESDAY, Oct. 2—Traveling students luck, the train was very late.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 3—Girl's Glee Club initiated new members. Wonder if they had to ride the goat? Maybe E. Spence or R. Varner could tell.

THURSDAY, Oct. 4—Eurythmic classes growing rapidly.

FRIDAY, Oct. 5—It's too bad Dixon girls knew there was to be room inspection, now the Dean has a better opinion of them, than she does of North.

SATURDAY, Oct. 6—"Football" season opens, but.....we.....lost.

SUNDAY, Oct. 7—Weather conditions lovely. Another campus parade.

MONDAY, Oct. 8—Blue Monday again. The poor Juniors with their art.

TUESDAY, Oct. 9—Clio's laws are becoming most strict. For better or for worse? ? ? ?

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 10—Dean Kriner is working on the class schedules for next semester. When it seems as though we won't get a breathing spell between semesters.

THURSDAY, Oct. 11—English 1-a test in the library. Poor souls. G.A.A. hike and weiner roast. A gala time was had by all.

FRIDAY, Oct. 12—"In fourteen hundred ninety-two, Columbus sailed the ocean blue". We have many modern Columbus's at California for some great chances are taken.

SATURDAY, Oct. 13—Again we were defeated, this time by Edinboro. We hope for better luck next time, boys.

SUNDAY, Oct. 14—All the fellows "cheating" because their "homies" went home. Hunting new ones is a fad.

MONDAY, Oct. 15—The Y.W.C.A. started to sell candy. Girls, beware, or you won't be rich long.

CALENDAR

TUESDAY, Oct. 16—Mr. Harding (geography class):—"Now, Skeezix, you must prove that the world is round."

Skeezix:—"I never said it was."

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 17—Y.M.C.A. held its weekly meeting.

Dean Loesch entertained several faculty members at Cathedral Mansions.

THURSDAY, Oct. 18—This is almost the end of the seventh week of school.

FRIDAY, Oct. 19—Lois and Tom, Elsie and Milton make quite a nice quartette. Everybody happy? ? ? ? ?

SATURDAY, Oct. 20—Defeated again, this time by Indiana.

SUNDAY, Oct. 21—Dean Nelson returned this evening from Miss Boston's home. Honest, Dean Nelson, we were real, real good.

MONDAY, Oct. 22—The Neill Paterson Scotch concert in auditorium this evening. They were all "pure" Scotch, but they weren't Scotch with their program. Crissie Crawford enjoyed it more than anyone else.

TUESDAY, Oct. 23—Leon Miller has finally settled himself to one girl. Who? "Peggie" Nixon, of course.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 24—The G.P.C.'s are still as secretive as ever. Who? What? Why? These are questions that they are asked.

THURSDAY, Oct. 25—The tea dance was called off. Quite a number were disappointed.

FRIDAY, Oct. 26—G.A.A. initiation tonight. Quite a number will remain in bed to-morrow to recuperate.

SATURDAY, Oct. 27—A taste of victory to-day, Bloomsburg defeated 6-0.

SUNDAY, Oct. 28—All resting, for the coming week is to be very strenuous.

MONDAY, Oct. 29—The little brunette dancer from North Hall, gives last minute Do's and Dont's to her male dancing class. They are almost ready for to-morrow night.

TUESDAY, Oct. 30—Clio and Philo hold Hallowe'en programs in Gym. An enjoyable time was had by all.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 31—It's here at last. The Dramatic Club Costume Ball. Whose bones did the witches have? ? ? ? ?

NOVEMBER—1928

THURSDAY, Nov. 1—Two new organizations seem to have developed on our campus, the K.K.B.'s and the C.L.F.'s. If you want to know the meaning of either, just ask anyone you see leaving here Friday with a traveling bag.

FRIDAY, Nov. 2—The K.K.B.'s and the C.L.F.'s were given a fond farewell until Monday.

SATURDAY, Nov. 3—Football season is "on the rocks". We lost to Shippensburg today, 13-0.

CALENDAR

SUNDAY, Nov. 4—"Just another day, wasted away, dreaming of home."

MONDAY, Nov. 5—"Campus Cases" are still developing. Just ask Anna Heath.

TUESDAY, Nov. 6—College girl:—"What do you miss most now that you are married and settled down?"

Mrs. McQuay:—"My husband."

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 7—North Hall just about ruined chances to dance every night. Why can't you North Hall girls behave? Ask Jean Grubbs or Melrose Kinsey.

THURSDAY, Nov. 8—Mrs. Wilson presented "The book of Ruth" very successfully. Dixon girls will miss Mrs. Wilson when she leaves.

FRIDAY, Nov. 9—"The Book of Ruth" was presented again tonight.

SATURDAY, Nov. 10—Hurrah! We won a game today by defeating Clarion 19-0. The monotony has been broken. We hope the boys will keep up the good work.

SUNDAY, Nov. 11—It's too bad Armistice Day had to come on Sunday. We didn't succeed in missing any classes this year.

MONDAY, Nov. 12—A half's day vacation today.

What a list of names posted on the bulletin board today, to report to Dean Kriner. What does it all mean?

TUESDAY, Nov. 13—Dorman was elected to lead 1929 football team. Who's he? Why just ask Peggie Barghausen.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 14—The Sigma Tau Lambda are practicing faithfully for their cantata next week.

THURSDAY, Nov. 15—The Dramatic Club is continuing initiation which started yesterday. Ain't we got fun? Ask Fred Bryan.

FRIDAY, Nov. 16—Dramatic Club party which is a final "wind up" of the initiation. Two members of the Kiddy Wink Staff wish to thank Milton Luce and Ferdinand Black for the eats they donated.

SATURDAY, Nov. 17—We lost to Slippery Rock this afternoon, but the football team had enough "pep" left to enjoy Philo's dance in honor of Dean Ewing.

SUNDAY, Nov. 18—The last Sunday before Thanksgiving vacation. Thanksgiving program in Vespers. Rev. Burson spoke.

MONDAY, Nov. 19—The nightly "shin-dig" in the gym.

TUESDAY, Nov. 20—Clio and Philo hold regular meetings with no exciting results.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 21—Student teachers get second grades. Was there any room for improvement? ? ? ? ?

THURSDAY, Nov. 22—Boy's Glee Club presents "Cleopatra" and the Girl's Glee Club presents "The Three Springs".

CALENDAR

FRIDAY, Nov. 23—It's here at last. What? Thanksgiving vacation, of course. Every one is rejoicing.

DECEMBER—1928

SATURDAY, Dec. 1—Football season is over and it's so hard to find something to do Saturday afternoons.

SUNDAY, Dec. 2—Wonder what Keffer was doing in North Hall parlor last evening? Maybe Mary G. could tell us.

MONDAY, Dec. 3—Still dancing every night, Christmas must be coming, everyone's quitting at 7:00 so that Santa will be generous TUESDAY, Dec. 4—Are you having your picture taken? If not, why not? Chapel wouldn't sound natural without that.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 5—John Grim (entering a crowded barber shop):—"How long must I wait for a shave?"

Barber (after close scrutiny):—"Well, I should judge about two or three years."

THURSDAY, Dec. 6—Y.W. girls are busy deciding what nationality they are. Wonder if they need any help?

FRIDAY, Dec. 7—Fish night, yes, baked halibut is our "flavored" dish on Friday.

SATURDAY, Dec. 8—Y.W. Bazaar in the Gym was a big success. The larger countries were well represented. It's too bad Milton isn't a Y.W. member so he could receive some credit.

SUNDAY, Dec. 9—Only one more Sunday before Xmas vacation.

MONDAY, Dec. 10—"Sunday is over and Monday is blue. Everybody ate too much stew."

TUESDAY, Dec. 11—Pep meeting in chapel to-day. Basketball season soon opens. Everyone is looking forward to it. Football banquet this evening.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 12—Those lucky student teachers certainly get enough vacation. They only have two more days.

THURSDAY, Dec. 13—Bob Thrasher (after forty minutes conversation):—"Hello, central, can't I get a better line?"

Central (who heard most of it):—"What's the matter with the one you hand out?"

FRIDAY, Dec. 14—Quite a number of the girls went home this week-end and selected the boy-friend's present.

CALENDAR

- SATURDAY, Dec. 15—First basketball game of season, with Waynesburg College. Too bad, but we lost.
- SUNDAY, Dec. 16—Carol service, held in the chapel, was very nice. Mrs. Dean's reading was enjoyed by all who attended.
- MONDAY, Dec. 17—Only four more days until Xmas vacation. Girls are packing already.
- TUESDAY, Dec. 18—The number of "flu" cases is increasing. We might get to go home sooner than expected.
- WEDNESDAY, Dec. 19—The Dramatic Club presented a play this evening, "Why the Chimes Rang." The annual Xmas play held in the library and enjoyed by all. If you want to know who Santa was, just ask Fred Bryan.
- THURSDAY, Dec. 20—A group of Dixon girls went carol singing through the halls, after which they were invited to a tea at Dr. Steele's. The girls had a very nice time, but where was North? ? ?
- FRIDAY, Dec. 21—Christmas vacation starts today. Smiles of joy are seen everywhere.
- SATURDAY, Dec. 22—C.N.S. deserted until Jan. 2, 1929.

JANUARY—1929

- WEDNESDAY, Jan. 2—A grand display of Christmas gifts today, especially fur coats and diamonds.
- THURSDAY, Jan. 3—Fire drill to-night, rather a pajama parade. Too bad for colds.
- FRIDAY, Jan. 4—Almost forgot this was laundry day.
- SATURDAY, Jan. 5—Everyone is happy to welcome the return of the injured football captain, Clyde Haywood.
- SUNDAY, Jan. 6—The Flu cases seem to be decreasing. It seems as though we can't close the school no matter how hard we try.
- MONDAY, Jan. 7—Learning politics now. Seniors voted with a real, honest-to-goodness voting machine.
- TUESDAY, Jan. 8—All Juniors also voted with the machine. We're all hoping to get our pictures in the Press. Philo presented a flag to the school. Three cheers for Philo!

CALENDAR

- WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9—Millie S.:—"I don't see "Wilkie" wearing that necktie you gave him for Christmas."
Jane W.:—"Oh, the dear boy said it's beauty would be for no other eyes than his own. Wasn't that sweet of him?"
- THURSDAY, Jan. 10—There was keen competition among the waiters today, determining who could drop the most dishes.
- FRIDAY, Jan. 11—Daddy Cross's smiling countenance is missed greatly among the student body. We hope for his speedy recovery.
- SATURDAY, Jan. 12—California defeated Slippery Rock for the first time in several years. We've certainly enjoyed the spirit shown.
- SUNDAY, Jan. 13—Fire! ! ! ? ? ? 12:10 a.m. The boys were still celebrating, but the girls had to get out.
- MONDAY, Jan. 14—The Shaver Jubilee Singers were here tonight.
- TUESDAY, Jan. 15—Dean Kriner explained the quality point system in chapel. Yes, it's as clear as mud. The only thing we understand is that it's something more to work for.
- WEDNESDAY, Jan. 16—It won't be long now until we know our fate. The lucky seniors are probably counting the hours. We'll miss them when they are gone.
- THURSDAY, Jan. 17—Corridor parties tonight in honor of the graduating seniors. Did we have fun? Ask Dean Nelson.
- FRIDAY, Jan. 18—Last day of school this semester. Oh, those horrible grades to look forward to. Good-bye Seniors.
- SATURDAY, Jan. 19—Game at Indiana. Naturally, we won.
- SUNDAY, Jan. 20—Ferdinand Black had as his guest over the week-end Mr. George Smith. Was he nice? Ask Dorothy S. Restrictions tonight but no one knew it until Dean Nelson came and told us.
- MONDAY, Jan. 21—The line for registration looked like a bread line during the war. Be sure to look pretty before the cameraman.
- TUESDAY, Jan. 22—Classes weren't long today, thank goodness.
- WEDNESDAY, Jan. 23—Classes still weren't held a whole period, but just wait, to-morrow's coming.
- THURSDAY, Jan. 24—Massanutten played here. No score needed. Polly Pritz makes a very good nurse. One of the boys managed to reach second floor of Dixon without difficulty.
- FRIDAY, Jan. 25—He's here! The long waited for gentleman, Richard Halliburton, arrived at last. We were with him every mile.

CALENDAR

SATURDAY, Jan. 26—Quite a day for our social calendar. Clarion played here this afternoon. "Snow White" very successfully presented in the evening.

SUNDAY, Jan. 27—Sunday spent the same as usual. Nothing exciting ever happens.

MONDAY, Jan. 28—The traveling girls are showing great interest in the changing of their rest room. We are all anxious to see it furnished.

TUESDAY, Jan. 29—The name of the year book is changed. Everyone working hard for the $10.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 30—We are pleased to hear that Dad Cross is improving and will soon be with us again.

THURSDAY, Jan. 31—Another month gone. Oh, those grades!

FEBRUARY—1929

FRIDAY, Feb. 1—We get so lonesome without "our roomies." Why do they have to go home so much? Eurythmics demonstration tonight.

SATURDAY, Feb. 2—What are our "wandering boys" doing tonight? They play at Edinboro.

SUNDAY, Feb. 3—It's such a nice day, if we could only go for a ride.

TUESDAY, Feb. 4—Part of the Girls Glee Club went to Bentlyville. They'll have a good time with the "Legionaires".

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 5—W. & J. defeated us. It was some game even if we did lose.

THURSDAY, Feb. 6—New study restrictions went into effect. The teachers are going to have to lighten their assignments.
(It's the only solution the girls can find).

FRIDAY, Feb. 7—Room inspection!!! Shucks, only a rumor, and the way we hustled and hustled clearing our rooms. Chronicle dance presented successfully.

SATURDAY, Feb. 8—Youngstown defeated 63-38. We saw "grace personified", ask Curly James.

SUNDAY, Feb. 9—Contest going strong at Methodist Church. Everyone is betting 10 to 1 for Leaf's side, (blame it on Coach Ewing).

MONDAY, Feb. 11—The Carr Sisters presented a very delightful concert.

TUESDAY, Feb. 12—The girls Glee Club from Charleroi made a "hit" in chapel, but the girl with the accordin made a bigger one.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 13—Mr. Edinger, (absent mindedly), thought he forgot his watch, then took it out to see if he had time to go back home for it.

CALENDAR

THURSDAY, Feb. 14—G.A.A. Valentine Party. Plenty of paper hearts flying around to-night. The boys would be having a mad scramble if they were real.

FRIDAY, Feb. 15—Good-bye boys, we wish you luck at Slippery Rock.

SATURDAY, Feb. 16—Just another "blue" week-end, with plenty to do but ambition lacking.

SUNDAY, Feb. 17—Spring must be coming, new romances are developing. Ask Ed. Leaf.

MONDAY, Feb. 18—The usual Monday morning call, "All laundry out."

TUESDAY, Feb. 19—The regular meetings of Philo and Clio.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 20—The College Players start initiating, girls running around with boys' coats.

THURSDAY, Feb. 21—The Monocal Staff held a party in Dixon basement. Delicious onion sandwiches and cocoa were served for refreshments.

FRIDAY, Feb. 22—Methodist Sunday School Class held a party at the Parsonage. Coach Ewing can imitate a donkey quite well. If you don't believe it, just get him to do it for you.

SATURDAY, Feb. 23 —Who spilled the applesauce in the dining-room? Probably Milton could tell us, for he cleaned it up.

SUNDAY, Feb. 24—All was peaceful and quiet except during quiet hour.

MONDAY, Feb. 25—Dean Ewing and Dean Nelson had another conference today. Oh, don't get excited, Dean Nelson was probably getting a tune-up on the girls.

TUESDAY, Feb. 26—The orchestra presented a lovely program in chapel. We didn't realize that there was so much music talent in our college.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 27—The Y.W. is holding a "Little sister party" tonight. Don't forget your socks and hair ribbons.

THURSDAY, Feb. 28—Some people are still reserving books for February 29-30 in the library. They must think every year is Leap Year.

MARCH—1929

FRIDAY, Mar. 1—March came in like a lamb, girls are donning summer frocks. We hope they aren't disappointed.

SATURDAY, Mar. 2—Who said we didn't have a good basketball team? Anyway, our boys won the Conference Title by defeating Clarion. Another star in California's crown.

SUNDAY, Mar. 3—Everyone congratulated the basketball team. Are we proud of them? ? ?

MONDAY, Mar. 4—We're so glad radios were invented because we didn't have to miss any school to go to Washington to hear the inaugural address.

CALENDAR

TUESDAY, Mar. 5—Clio gave a very good play in Chapel.

WEDNESDAY, Mar. 6—The Y.M.C.A. held a banquet in the dining-hall. We wonder how they liked their service? Mr. Simmons gave his lecture—"Sinbads of Science", at the last lyceum number.

THURSDAY, Mar. 7—The Dixon Senate held a party for the North and Traveling Senate. It's too bad we can't all be senate members.

FRIDAY, Mar. 8—Another victory for California over Shippensburg, score 62-42!

SATURDAY, Mar. 9—Mr. Kerstetter, "how soon will our grades be ready? ? ? ?"

SUNDAY, Mar. 10—First robins were seen on the campus to-day. Sure sign of spring.

MONDAY, Mar. 11—Well, the first teaching grades are finally ready. There certainly was a variety of facial expressions, today.

TUESDAY, Mar. 12—A little misunderstanding in Clio tonight. Two people joined and the audience thought it was a wedding with President Eberhart officiating.

WEDNESDAY, Mar. 13—Dixon girls are busy getting ready for their program in chapel. Everyone is anxious to witness their talent.

THURSDAY, Mar. 14—We won our first debate of the season, at home, but our team at Edinboro lost.

FRIDAY, Mar. 15—Debate with Slippery Rock turned out the same as last night. Oh, yes, we can hold our own when it comes to debating.

SATURDAY, Mar. 16—Wonder how much Coach Ewing pays to have his car washed? If he'd pay in rides he'd certainly have plenty of volunteers.

SUNDAY, Mar. 17—The "Wearin' O the Green" was seen today. We never knew "Aussie" Piper was Irish until today.

MONDAY, Mar. 18—Clio and Philo are picking contestants for the Literary Contest. Good luck to both societies.

TUESDAY, Mar. 19—It seems as though every faculty member is giving a test this week. Why can't they be reasonable?

WEDNESDAY, Mar. 20—The cornerstone was laid for the new training school this afternoon.

All the animals are prancing around, and "raring to go", at the big Barndoor, Bailhay, and Gymling Sisters Ringles Circus.

THURSDAY, Mar. 21—Just one more night. Everyone is going to stay up to see "Sun Up", because to-morrow we go home.

FRIDAY, Mar. 22—Vacation! It's here at least for most of us, and we extend our sympathy to those who have to stay until to-morrow.

SATURDAY, Mar. 23—Everyone home for the Easter Holidays.

CALENDAR

APRIL—1929

- MONDAY, April 1—The members of the Senior Class were very sorry to learn of the death of their good friend and fellow-classmate, Paul (Doc) Cornell.
- TUESDAY, April 2—Memorial services were held today for Paul Cornell.
- WEDNESDAY, April 3—Mrs. Wilson:—"Sarah, I want you to be very careful of this linen, it is over 200 years old."
Sarah (the maid):—"You needn't worry, Mrs. Wilson, I'll treat it very carefully, and I won't tell a soul. It looks as good as new, anyway."
- THURSDAY, April 4—Philo had charge of the Chapel program, and presented a very nice play. A Senior class meeting was held to settle Senior "dates".
- FRIDAY, April 5—The Junior Prom, at Palm Beach, was unanimously voted a success.
- SATURDAY, April 6—Quite a number were asleep today. No wonder.
- SUNDAY, April 7—We wonder who went riding with Dean Ewing today? ? ? Maybe Peggie Barghausen or Naomi could explain.
- MONDAY, April 8—At last, we changed tables. At least, we can be sure of a place now.
- TUESDAY, April 9—Every time one turns around some one wants a quarter. They must think that they grow on trees. Hall assessment tonite.
- WEDNESDAY, April 10—Another quarter to see the seventh grade play, "The Feast of The Corn", which was very good.
- THURSDAY, April 11—Mary Raveia had an operation for appendicitis. We hope for her speedy recovery.
Debate tonight with Clarion. We hope for the best.
- FRIDAY, April 12—The Presbyterians held a party tonight. A good time was enjoyed by all.
- SATURDAY, April 13—All the seniors were on their good behavior today, during the meeting of the Washington County Teachers Association.
- SUNDAY, April 14—Just another beautiful spring day. The chief diversion was "strolling on the campus".
- MONDAY, April 15—Naomi Gillis:—"Oh! Ken, what a cute tie. I wish I had a dress made out of that."
- TUESDAY, April 16—Regular meeting of Philo and Clio.
- THURSDAY, April 18—Tennis stars are practicing hard, getting ready for the tournament.
- FRIDAY, April 19—Methodist Sunday School party in the traveling students rest room. Dean Ewing tried not to get caught.
- SATURDAY, April 20—A group of Seniors entertained a group of Juniors with a little party. The function is to be held each week-end by different groups.
- SUNDAY, April 21—A record-breaking crowd here today. It looked like, "Old Home Week".

CALENDAR

MONDAY, April 22—Mr. Connell hard at work coaching "The Cradle Song". It won't be long now.

TUESDAY, April 23—We think Eva Sklov spent the night at home.

WEDNESDAY, April 24—Everyone in tears thinking what Wednesday would mean at home, these beautiful spring evenings.

THURSDAY, April 25—A large crowd at the dance tonight. They must be trying to shake the "spring fever".

FRIDAY, April 26—The girls are busy scrubbing and sweeping for all the mothers and sisters are expected to-morrow.

SATURDAY, April 27—The company came. "The Cradle Song" given by Y.W.C.A. members was very successful.

Baseball game here with Indiana.

SUNDAY, April 28—Quite a number in tears today. When asked why, the answer was brief:—"Mamma went home".

MONDAY, April 29—Miss Hildreth is very busy coaching the girls for May Day.

TUESDAY, April 30—Only one more month. Students are beginning to regret that they didn't get to work sooner.

Baseball game today with Fairmont on their field.

MAY—1929

WEDNESDAY, May 1—The May Day program was delightful.

THURSDAY, May 2—A favored expression in North Hall:—"What the d--- do you want?" Sadie B. can explain.

FRIDAY, May 3—Excitement reigns supreme, the Senior Prom is being held tomorrow night.

SATURDAY, May 4—The gowns were beautiful, exotic, even beyond comparison of those seen at C.T.C. in previous years.

Baseball game here with Fairmont.

SUNDAY, May 5—Rest Day after a strenuous night,—last night.

MONDAY, May 6—Not many more Mondays left this school year.

TUESDAY, May 7—Slippery Rock here today for baseball.

WEDNESDAY, May 8—Usual practice of Girls Glee Club.

THURSDAY, May 9—Notebooks are being worked on now. Most of them won't be long.

FRIDAY, May 10—Most everyone home for the week-end. Not many week-ends are left now.

MONDAY, May 13—Only one more Monday of classes after this.

TUESDAY, May 14—Clio and Philo preparing to bring meetings to a close for the year.

Last baseball game played with Slippery Rock.

CALENDAR

WEDNESDAY, May 15—Preliminary tennis games played off at the tournament, held at Clarion.

THURSDAY, May 16—Tennis finals played today.

FRIDAY, May 17—Track meet at Indiana.

SATURDAY, May 18—Trunks are being packed this week-end. Smiles prevail.

SUNDAY, May 19—Those participating in "Campus Cases" are wondering what they'll do without each other this summer.

MONDAY, May 20—Exams started this week. We hope they won't last all week.

TUESDAY, May 21—Last meeting of Philo and Clio.

WEDNESDAY, May 22—Juniors are busy packing trunks, preparing to leave Friday.

THURSDAY, May 23—The Senior class play presented was very successful.

FRIDAY, May 24—The usual struggle between Clio and Philo.

SATURDAY, May 25—The only free day for the Seniors. They surely did make good use of it.

SUNDAY, May 26—Baccalaureate sermon at 10:30 A.M. Rev. Barker of the Point Breeze Presbyterian church giving the address.

MONDAY, May 27—Senior Class Day, beginning with a class breakfast at 8:00. The planting of the Class Ivy, beginning at 10:30. The plant was brought from Washington, D.C., Mount Vernon Cemetery, by Dr. Steele. The history connected with the Ivy tells that it probably goes back to the time of George Washington. In the evening a formal reception was held for the Senior Class by Dr. Steele.

TUESDAY, May 28—Dr. Veon's Piano Recital, one of the main attractions of the Commencement season.

WEDNESDAY, May 29—Commencement exercises beginning at 10:30 A.M. Mr. Leroy A. King from the University of Pennsylvania delivering the address.

Courtesy and Accommodation*

In addition to the security and safety offered to the depositors by its great strength and large surplus fund the National Deposit Bank makes a specialty of prompt and courteous service to all of its customers. The bank has grown steadily for forty years, until its resources are now over seven million dollars. This is evidence of the efficient service it has rendered to its depositors and to the community. This efficiency is being continually increased in an effort to meet every want of each individual customer.
