about the University . . .

California University of Pennsylvania, founded in 1852, is located 40 miles south of Pittsburgh on the Monongahela River. Our 6,700 students, 350 teaching faculty members, 277 support staff and 30,000+ alumni represent every state in the Union and numerous foreign countries. As a member of the publicly owned State System of Higher Education, the University is able to provide, at a reasonable cost, a variety of traditional and innovative educational opportunities for both the recent high school graduate and for the adult pursuing additional education.

Our undergraduate divisions are the Colleges of Science & Technology, Liberal Arts and Education & Human Services. They offer more than 150 courses of study leading to the Associate (two-year) and Bachelor's (four-year) degrees and a number of pre-professional, certification and endorsement programs. The School of Graduate Studies & Research offers the Master's degree in more than 30 fields.

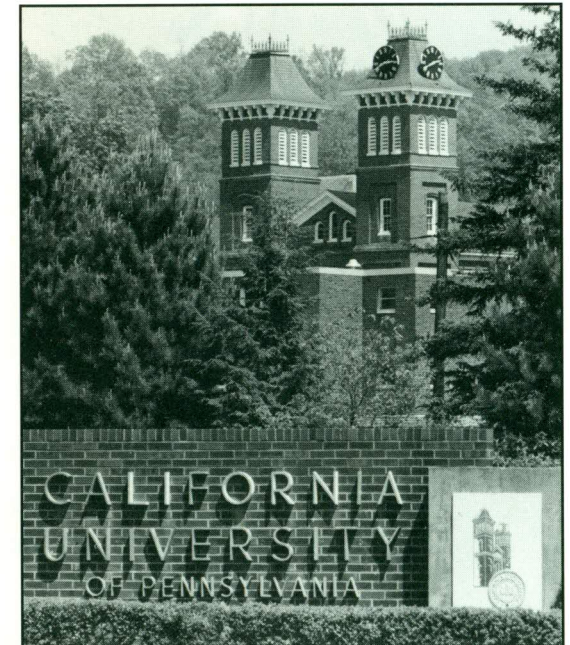

The main campus consists of 33 buildings on 59 acres, among them residence hall accommodations for 1,500 students, a fully computerized library, a recently renovated computer center, a newly equipped recreation and fitness center, and a new state of the art Student Center. The George H. Roadman University Park, located two miles south of campus, is a large recreational and sports area of 88 acres.

The University's principal mission is to provide a thorough and scholarly education. In addition, for personal growth and development, students are offered a variety of social, recreational, and co-curricular activities, including men's and women's intramural and intercollegiate sports, concerts, lectures and films, musical and art organizations, a student-run radio station, a local cable television station, and a movie theatre featuring surround-a-sound and such publications as a yearbook, weekly newspaper and several literary magazines.

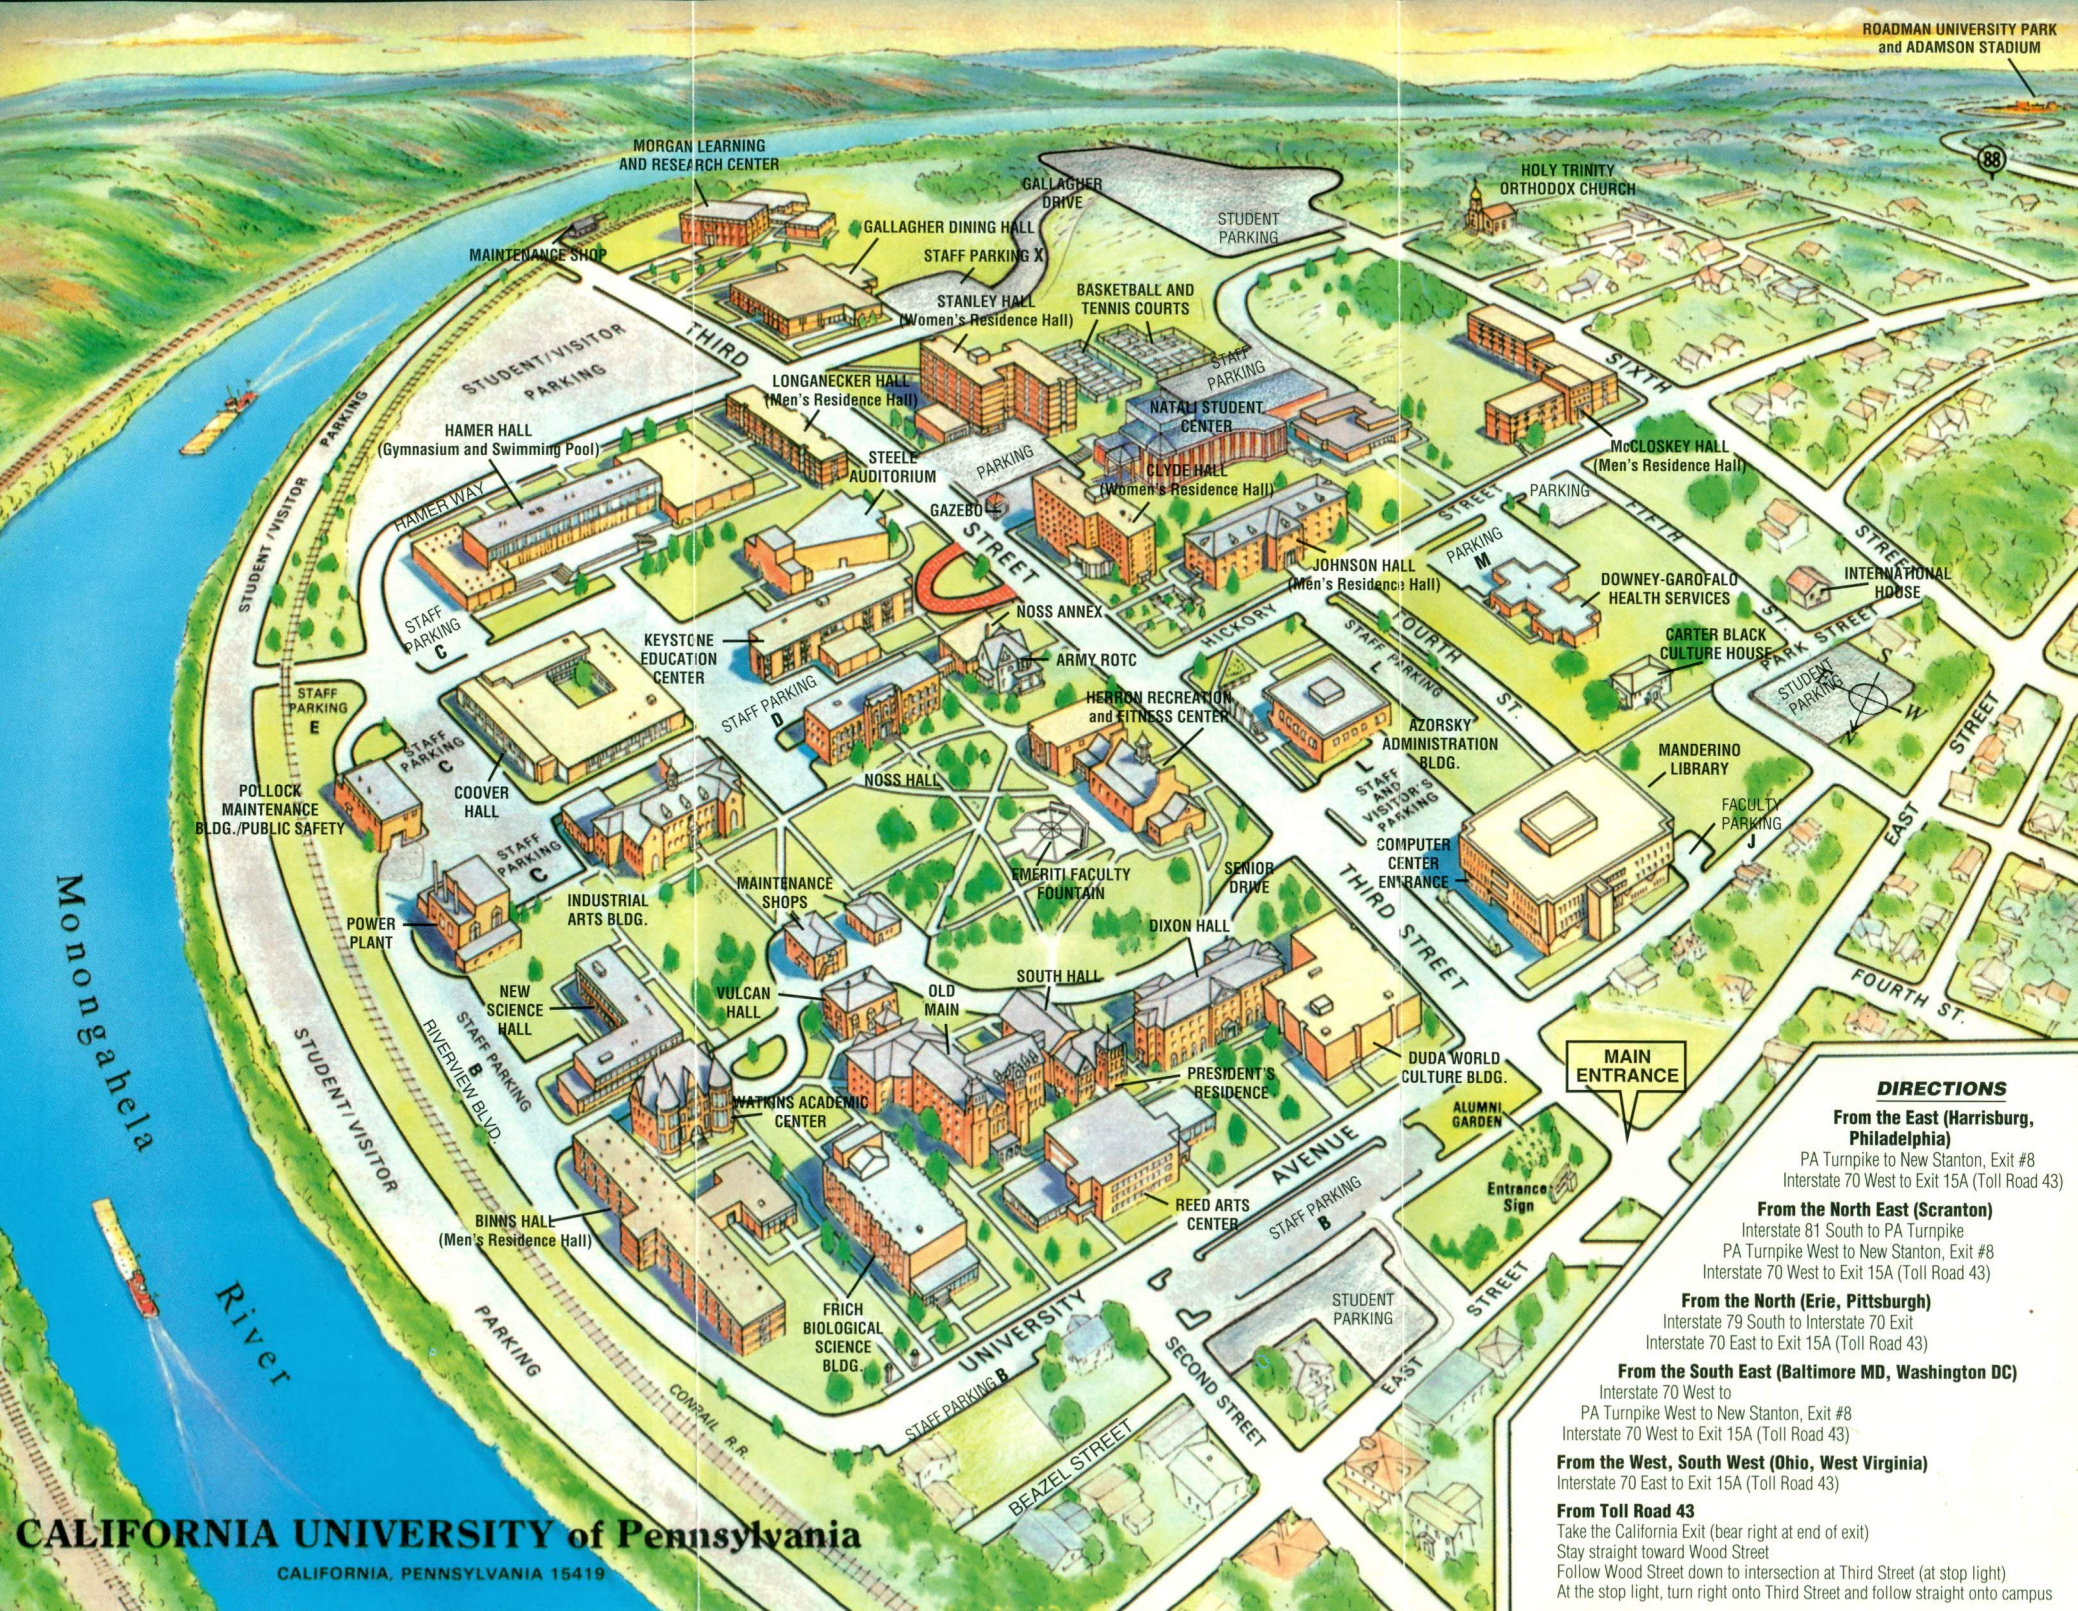

If you would like further information, please call or write any of the offices listed in this brochure. We are an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action institution.
