HOMECOMING '78

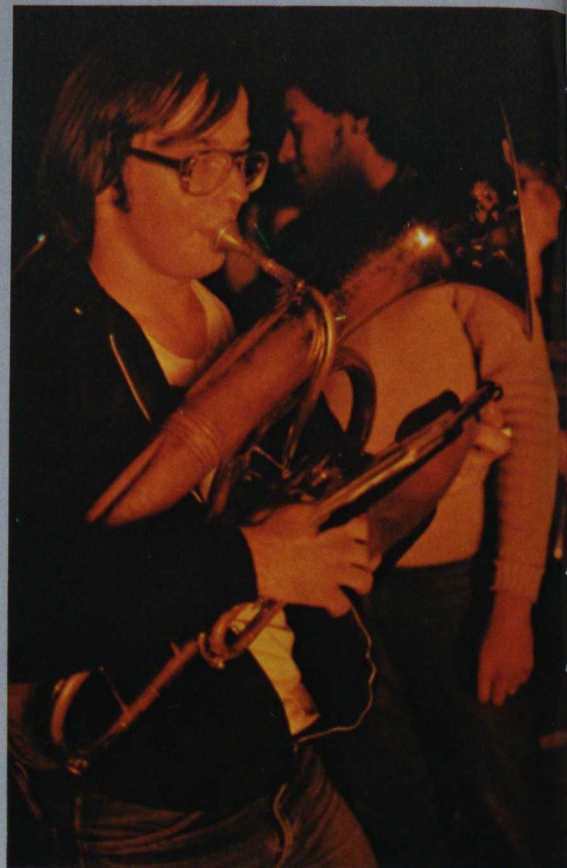

Radiant blue skies and seventy-degree breezes lent an exhilarating air to the October 21st Homecoming celebration. From the student parking lot to the far reaches of town, jovial crowds gathered along Third Street's curbs and porches to see bands, banners, balloons, batons and all the other trappings of a parade.

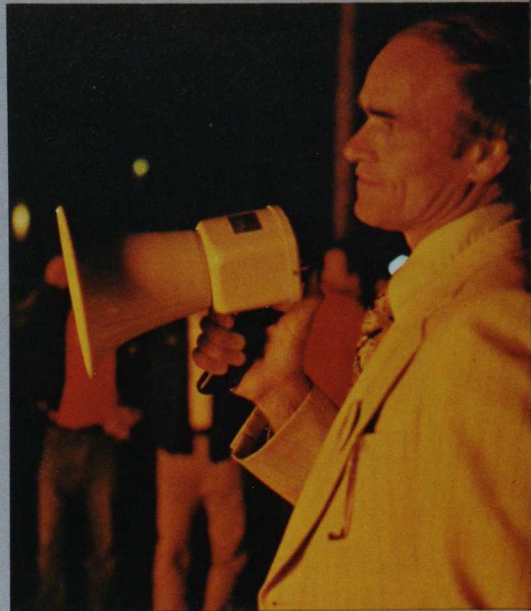

Enthusiasm began before the parade however, for on Friday night, students gathered before a bon-fire in the student parking lot with the Vulcan Cheerleaders, CSC's Marching Band, Coach Hunter, and the football team to fire up support for Saturday's homecoming game against the Edinboro Scots.

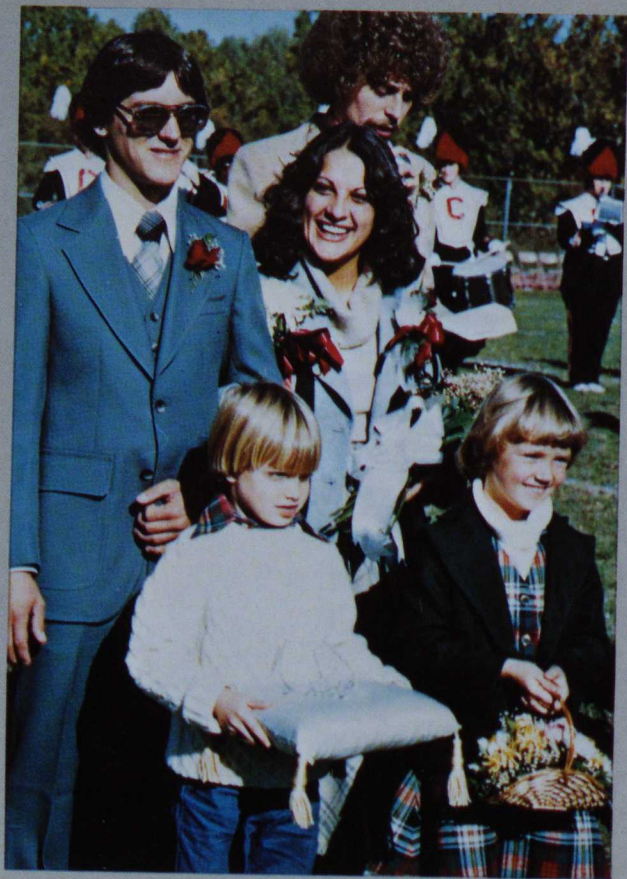

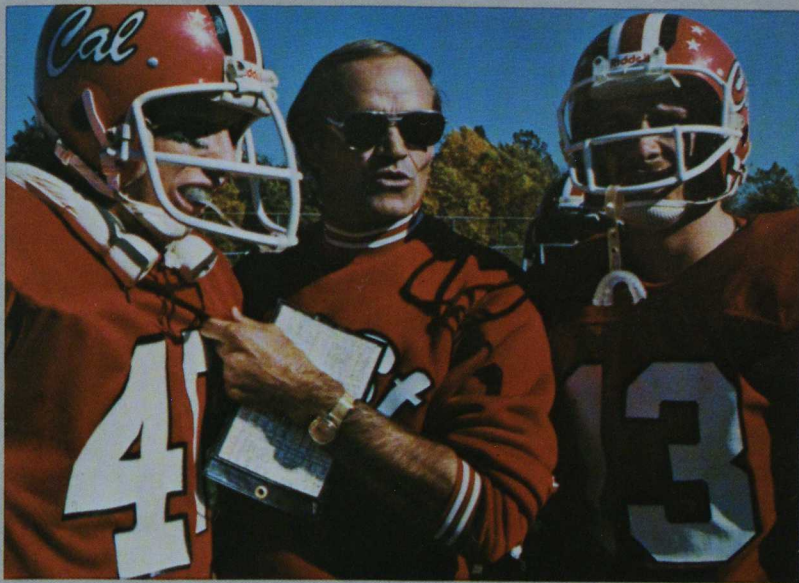

Later that night, the Terry Lee Disco kept everyone in motion with a performance in Gallagher.

After Saturday's game at the College Farm, a jubilant crowd gathered for the post-game celebration with barbecued chicken, cold beer, and music by "Night Owl". An early evening performance by the Disco Cheerleaders brought homecoming day to a close.

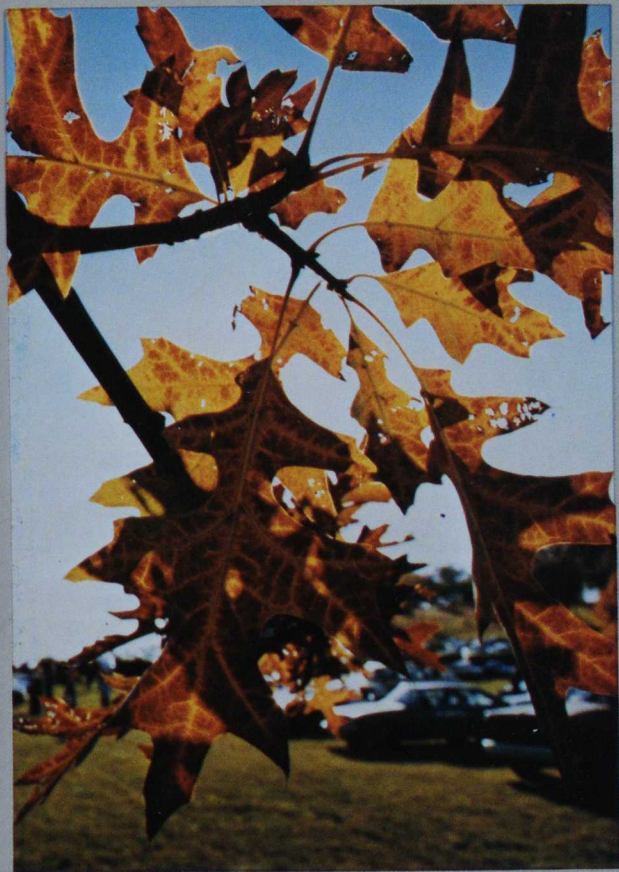

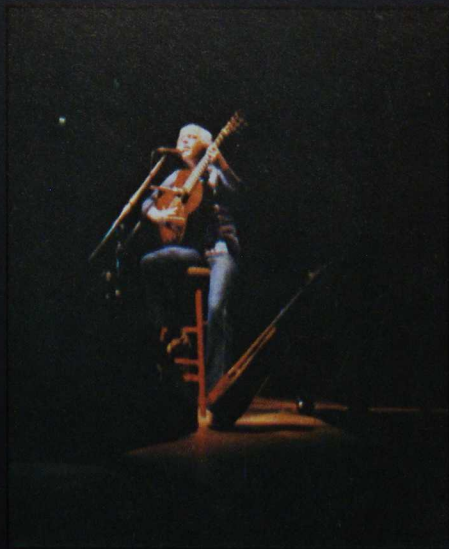

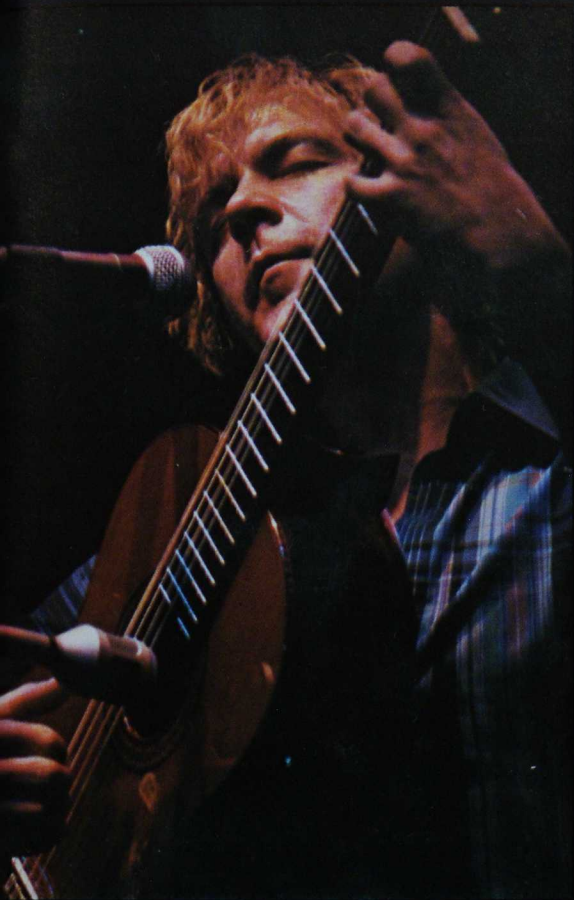

In an outstanding game at Adamson Stadium, California's Firegods pulverized the Edinboro Scots, 28:7. The Alumni Association named Willis Lowery and Jack Durant Defensive and Offensive players of the game, respectively. During halftime ceremonies President Watkins crowned Homecoming Queen Bonnie Merowitz (shown with escort Richard Olshefski).

COLLEGE CHOIR

Under the direction of Professor Miriam Wilson, the California State College Choir has fast become one of the most prestigious musical organizations in the area. The choir, composed of about 50 soprano, alto, tenor, and bass voices, has traveled to both the Philadelphia and Johnstown areas twice in the past year. In addition to annual spring and Christmas concerts, the choir is often asked to perform at many area churches.

MONOCAL

AN OVERALL VIEW OF STUDENT LIFE

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE

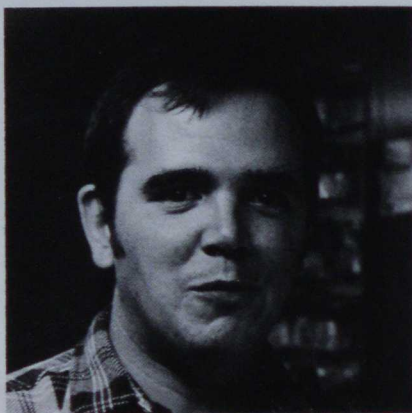

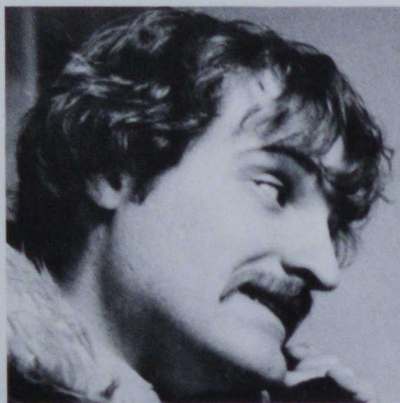

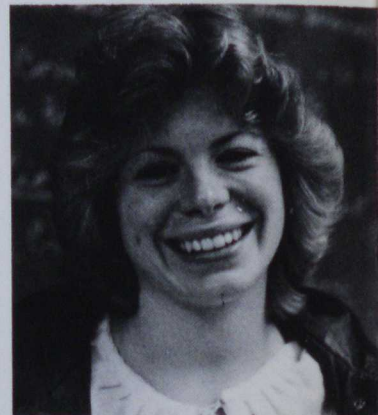

MONOCCAL

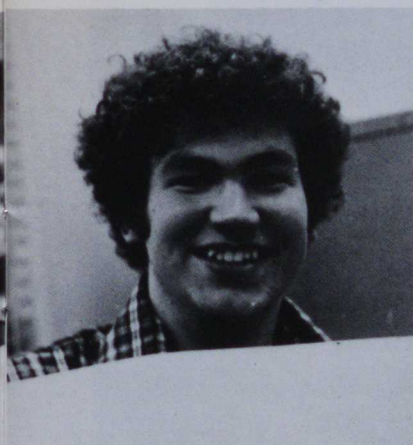

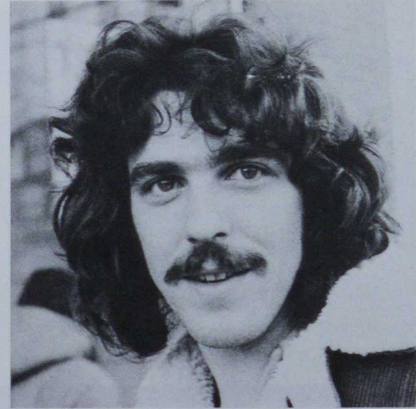

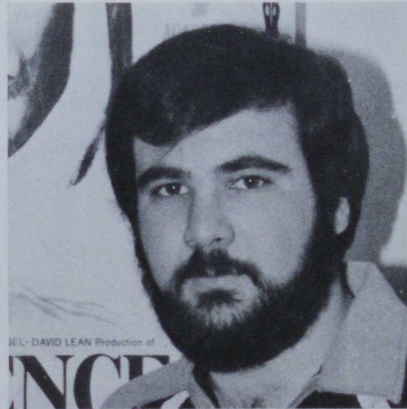

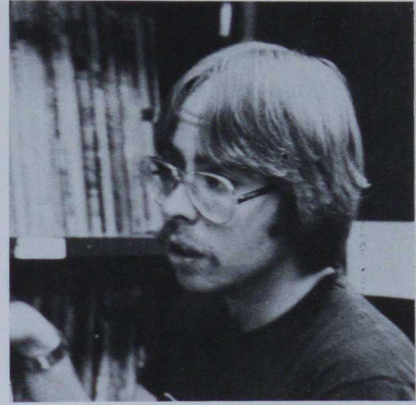

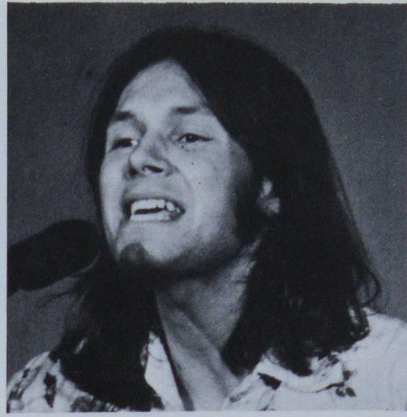

STUDENT LIFE

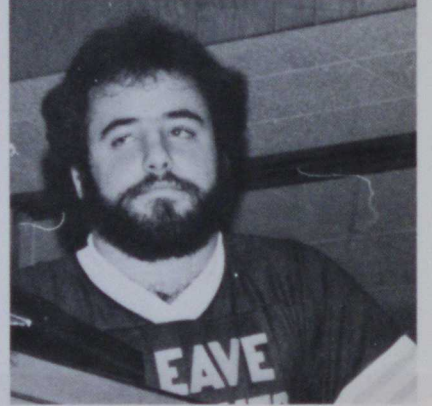

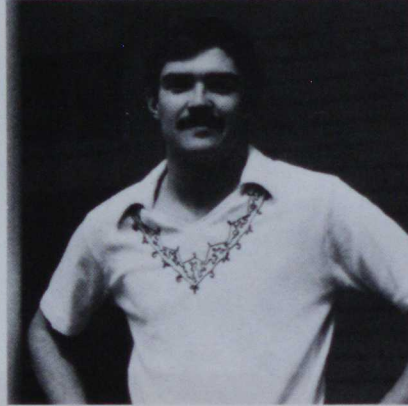

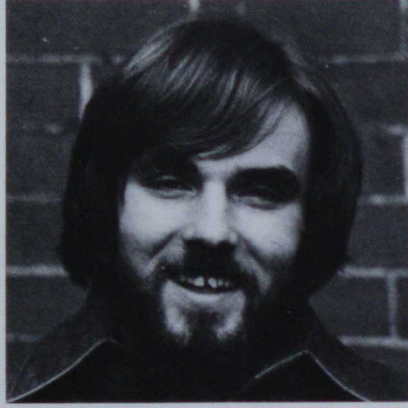

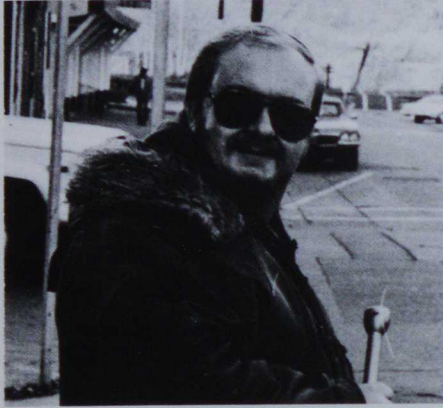

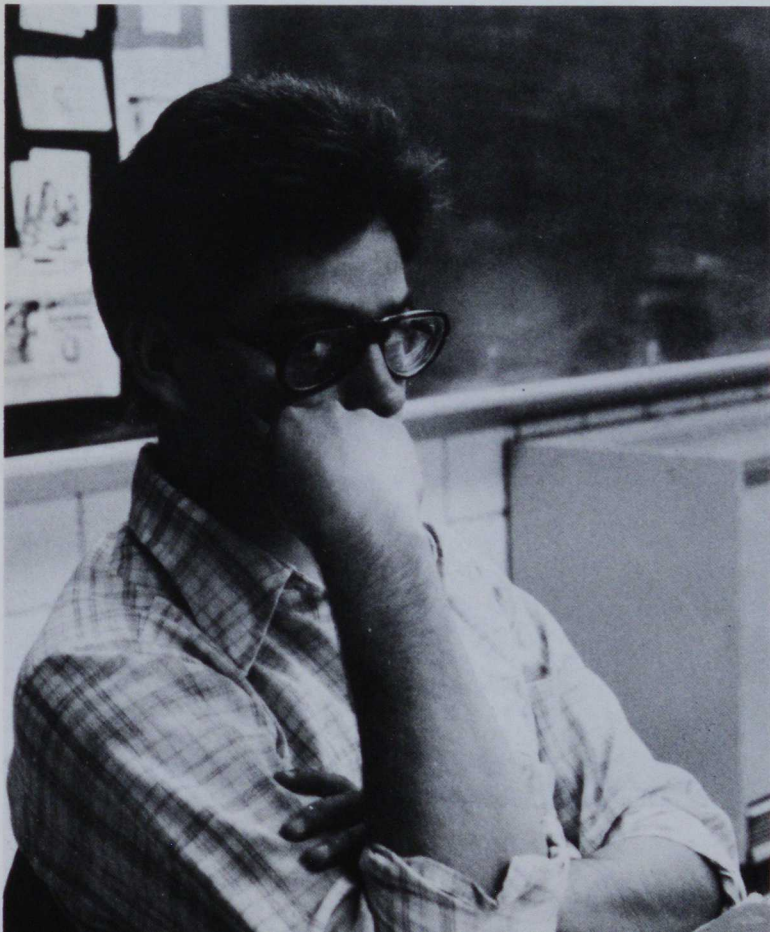

FACES

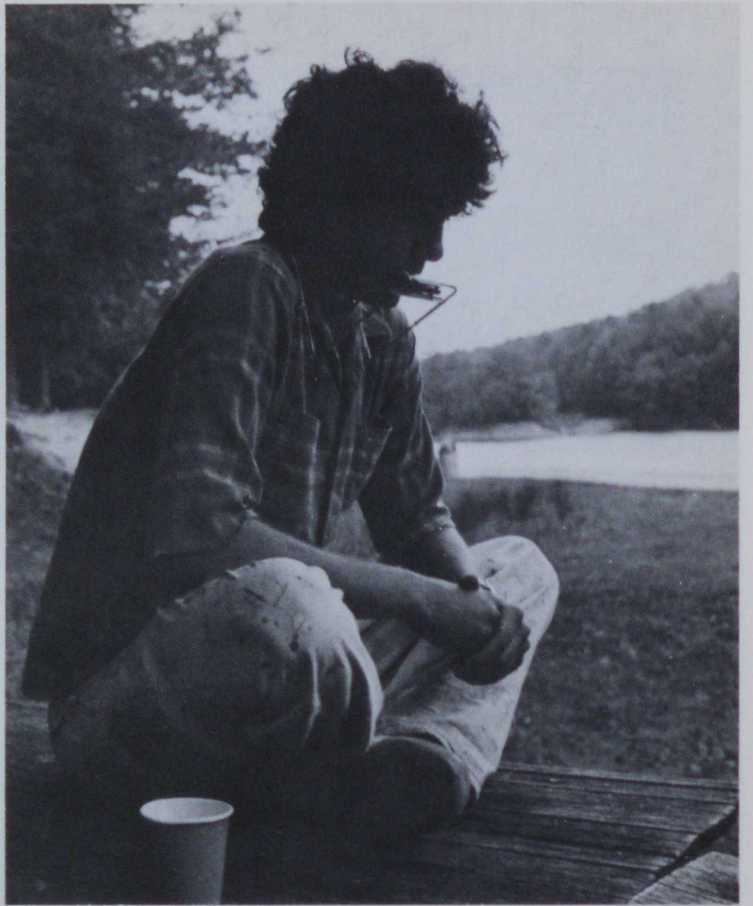

Through the eyes of tomorrow
On the lashes of today
This is the face
That is yet to be.
Our lips will whisper —
Our ears will hear —
Of the pasts and the futures
All told in faces.

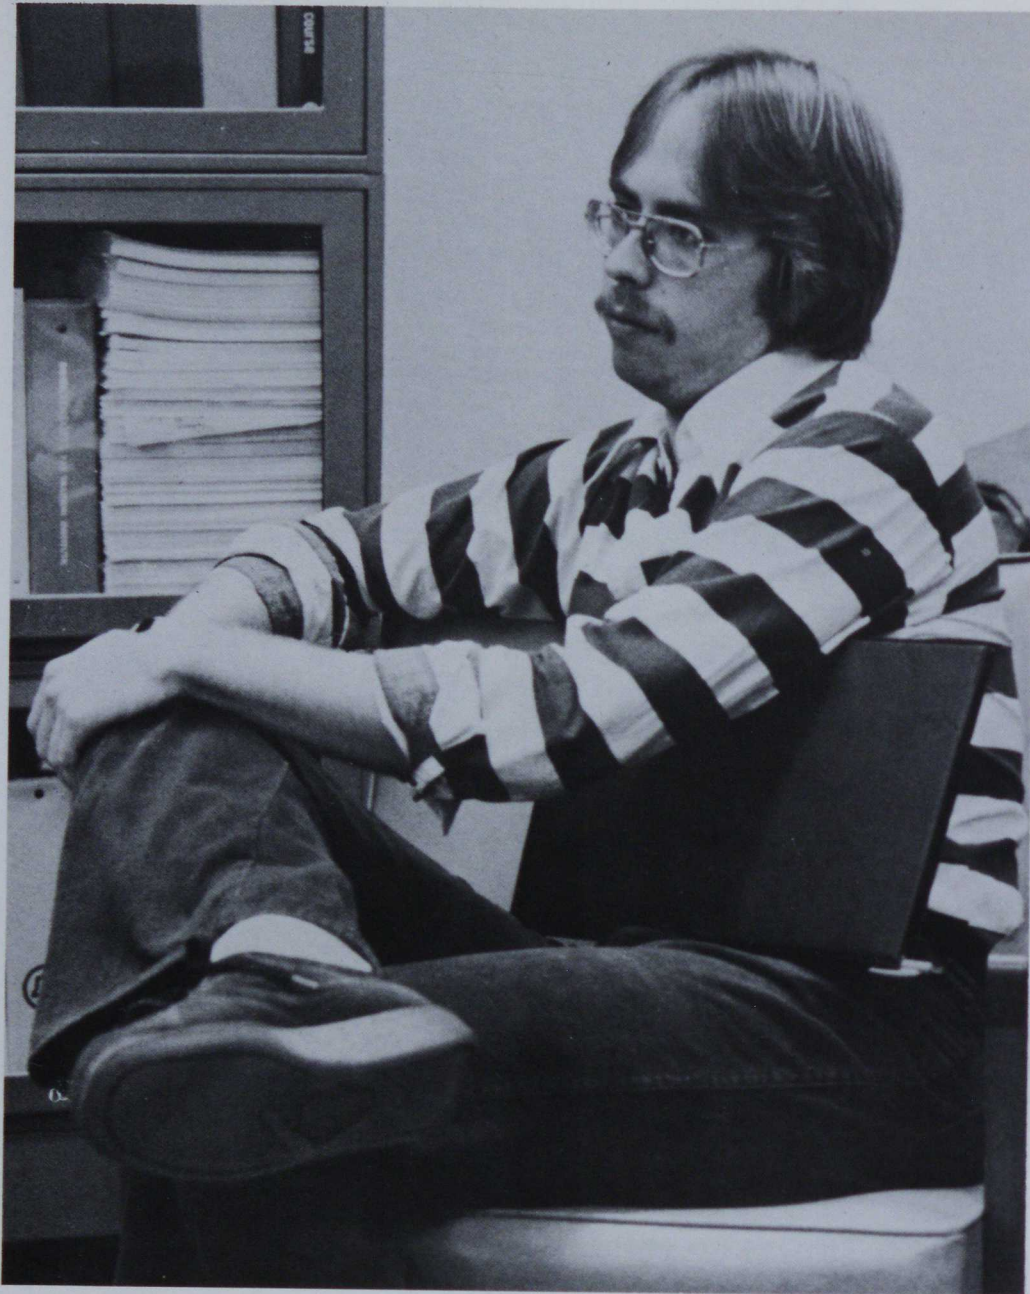

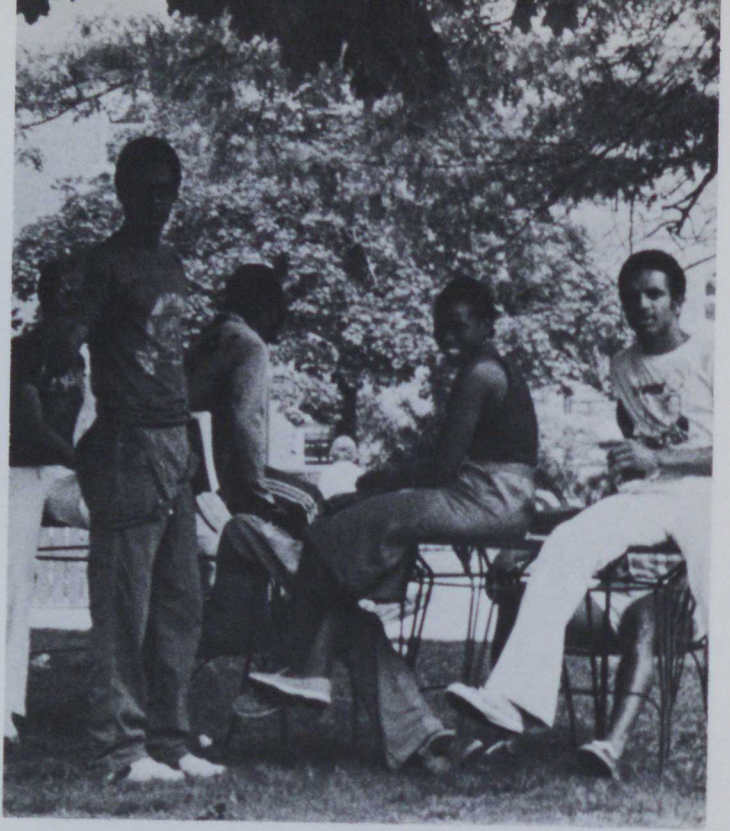

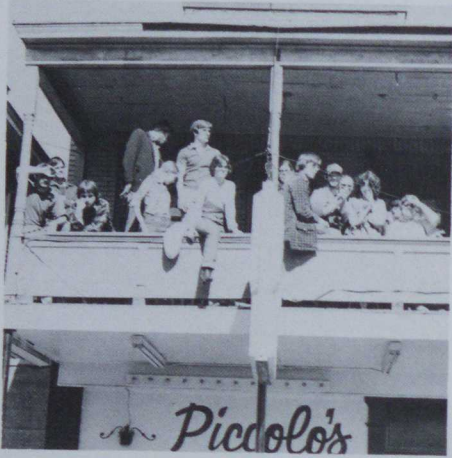

And here lay our footsteps —
The hills and the valleys,
The stages and backgrounds
Of the paintings we lived.
We are chattering still
Through your alleys, your back doors.
We are scenes, we are portraits
On the collegiate wall.

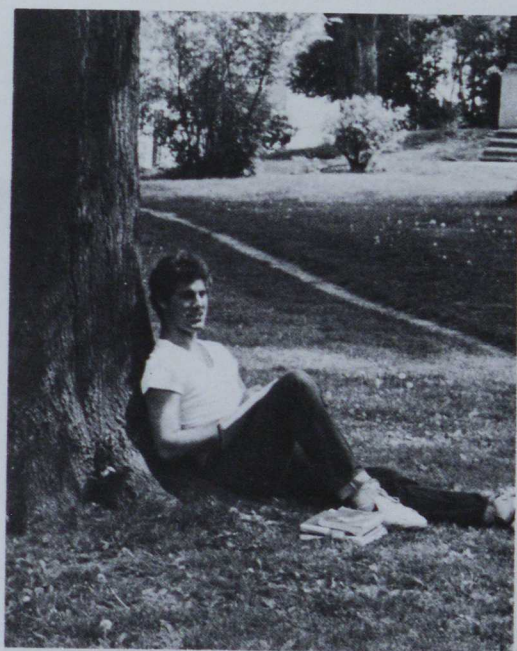

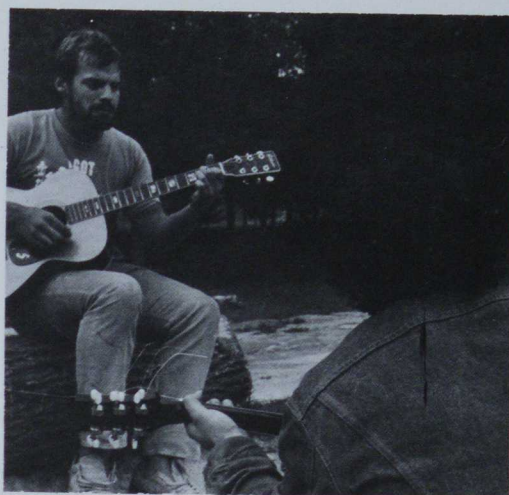

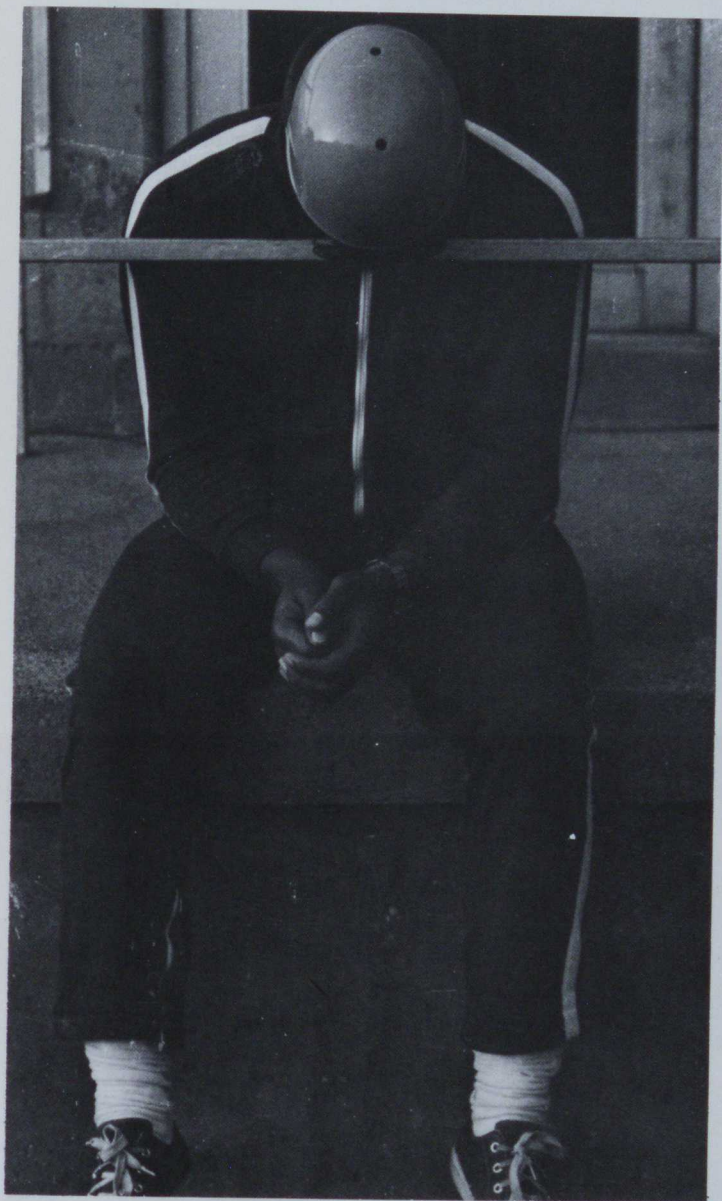

PLACES

Beads of sweat on the brow
Of bowed young heads at labor.
Give us this day our daily scratch
And wish us well
On the fragrant road
To sweet success.

PLAY

We'll weave you a dream
Of a moment off . . .
Step light with a pool cue
On the slate-top dance floor.
Back in a flash
Take a message; press 'hold.'
Time taken from ambition
And given to life.

SPORTS

We made it.
We won.
We whipped 'em.
We're great.

Better.
Stronger.
Know it.
We said it all.

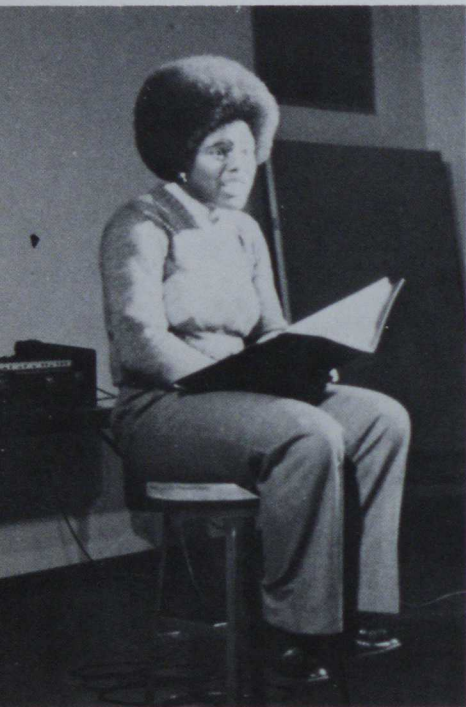

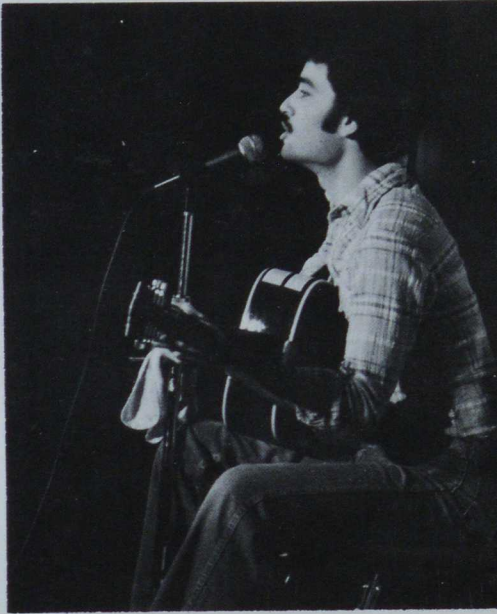

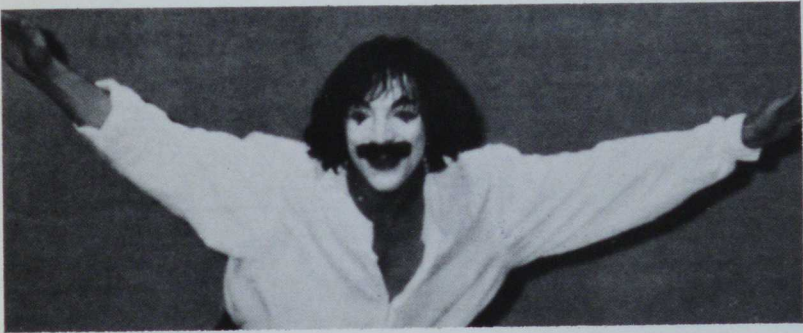

STARS

Tonight's the night —
Hit it!
Sing of golden flashes
In the limelit pan.
There are stars
That glare in the campus skies
The warm, sequined edge
Of the scholastic knife.

MUNCH

Our food, our sustenance —
We chug it; we stuff it
In great gobbling maws
Bent on heart's content.
Sepesey's our mother
Alfano our sire
Oh, collegiate consumers
Raise your glasses higher!
