

CALIFORNIA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA
154TH COMMENCEMENT

MAY 12, 2001
HAMER HALL

ALMA MATER

California, alma mater
Now we sing to thee
California, dear forever

In our memory.

With our voices loudly ringing,
Of thy fame we're ever singing.

California, alma mater;
Hail! All hail to thee.

For the friends and joys you gave us,
We give thanks to thee
All thy knowledge we'll make worthy
For Posterity.

May thy reign be ever prosperous
And thy name forever glorious.

California, alma mater;
Hail! All hail to thee.

Philip Rossi '37

Education is not a preparation for life; education is life itself.

Eleanore N. Childs

Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa

Eleanore N. Childs is nationally recognized for being a child advocate and defender of civil rights. Her preparation for these roles included a bachelor's degree in the Administration of Justice from the University of Pittsburgh, a law degree from Duquesne University, and additional graduate studies at Harvard and Georgetown universities. For fifteen years she practiced criminal and civil rights law. During the last five years of her legal work, she specialized in juvenile criminal law, often taking clients who could not pay for legal services. She recognized that many of her young clients needed more than legal counsel, so she took some of them into her own home for a time.

When two of her young clients failed to express remorse over the murder of an elderly couple, she wondered what we could do to nurture a stronger sense of social and personal responsibility in our children. With two of her children's teachers and other volunteers, she began to develop a children's ethics curriculum. Working around her kitchen table on Saturdays, she and her colleagues developed the internationally recognized Heartwood Ethics Curriculum.

Using award-winning children's literature from around the world, the Heartwood curriculum has enabled hundreds of thousands of students and teachers to explore seven core attributes: justice, respect, courage, love, loyalty, hope and honesty.

Eleanore Childs has exemplified those attributes in her own life. Jane Burger of the Grable Foundation has said of her, "Ellie personifies the best in all of us. She is the doer who turns her passion into action. No job is too big or too unthinkable if Ellie believes in the rightness of it. She appreciates the potential of children and recognizes the treasure they are. She understands that adults must be role models for what is good and right. I can think of no one who better exemplifies the character we all strive for."

Esther Shaeffer, the executive director and CEO of the Character Education Partnership in Washington, DC has observed, "As chief architect of the Heartwood program, Ellie Childs has helped teachers across the country use literature to instill values core to our democratic society."

Eleanore Childs' first seven years as executive director of the Heartwood Institute were entirely voluntary. Her impressive fund-raising abilities regularly prevented the non-profit institute from declaring bankruptcy. She has traveled all over the country and to other countries, often at her own expense, on behalf of character education and the work of her Institute. Her financial sacrifices on behalf of children speak volumes about her character.

Her efforts, however, are not limited to children. She regularly visits a group of the elderly and delights them with picnic lunches. Those who know her were not surprised when she received the YWCA Greater Pittsburgh Leadership Award in Human and Social Services in 1996.

Eleanore Childs has raised seven children while managing a farm in Zelienople. Possibly the most important comments about her come from her children. Her daughter Rachel has said, "I could not have asked for a better mother." Katie observed, "My mother loves people. She seems to have made it a personal and a professional goal to learn as much as she can about human culture. In this way, Heartwood has always been her life's work, even before she knew it." Jonathan has said, "My mother is my source of perseverance in a world that is sometimes inhospitable to visions of world peace and compassion. Please tell my mother that I am off in the world developing a very special fire dance that was inspired by the beauty and selflessness which emanates from her." And finally, Kristan offers, "Mom is a real hero of mine. It seems like she plans her life like she'll live to be a hundred, but she lives it like she could die tomorrow. She is intimately connected to the world around her—whether that world is her garden, her work or the global community. 'Family' is whoever she's with. Above all, she loves children."

In recognition of her significant contributions to the moral development of children and adults, Eleanore N. Childs is awarded the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

GRADUATE DEGREES

Appearance of a name in this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not be regarded as conclusive. The diploma, issued through the University by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, sealed and signed by the proper authorities, is conclusive testimony to the possession of a degree.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME CODE

GOWNS

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, with no trimming and is worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has oblong sleeves, open at the wrist, with the rear part of its oblong sleeve square cut and is worn open or closed. The gown for the doctorate degree has bell-shaped sleeves and is faced down the front with velvet and three bars across the sleeves. The facing and crossbars of velvet may be of the color distinctive of the field to which the degree pertains.

For all academic purpose, including trimmings of doctors' gowns, edgings of hoods, and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different subjects are as follows:

Only a single degree from a single institution should ever be indicated by a single garment.

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration, including Foreign Service	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet
Veterinary Science	Gray

HOODS

The length of the hood worn for the bachelor's degree is three feet, for the master's degree three and one half feet, and for the doctoral degree four feet. The doctoral degree has side panels. The linings of the hoods represent the official color of the college or university conferring the degree. The binding or edging of the hood is two inches, three inches, and five inches for the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees respectively. The color is distinctive of the degree held by the wearer.

CAPS

The cap or mortarboard has a tassel fastened to the middle of the cap and wearing over the left side indicates the completion of a degree. The doctoral cap is indicated by a tassel of gold thread.
