

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE
CALIFORNIA, PENNSYLVANIA

Ninety-fourth Commencement
1964

ROBERT McCURDY STEELE AUDITORIUM
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19th AT 10:00 A. M.

"That we shall be better and braver and less helpless if we think that we ought to enquire, than we should have been if we indulged in the idle fancy that there was no knowing and no use in seeking to know what we do not know; — that is a theme upon which I am ready to fight, in word and deed, to the utmost of my power."

THE CALIFORNIA PLEDGE

I DO SOLEMNLY PLEDGE: That I will never consciously or wilfully bring discredit to this College: that I will faithfully perform any task entrusted to me; that I will respect the privileges of others; that I will do my utmost to raise the academic, social, and civic standards of this College; that I will obey its laws and customs, respect its ideals, and honor its traditions; that I will continually endeavor to prepare myself for the noblest of all professions—that of teaching; and in all these ways I will strive to transmit to my successors a greater, better, and more beautiful California than was inherited by me.

ALMA MATER

California, alma mater
Now we sing to thee
California, dear forever
In our memory.
With our voices loudly ringing,
Of thy fame we're ever singing.
California, alma mater;
Hail! All hail to thee.
For the friends and joys you gave us,
We give thanks to thee
All thy knowledge we'll make worthy
For Posterity.
May thy reign be ever prosperous
And thy name forever glorious.
California, alma mater;
Hail! All hail to thee.
