CRAIG A. SHOEMAKER

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS, honoris causa

Named Comedian of the Year at the American Comedy Awards on ABC-TV, Mr. Craig Shoemaker is a writer, stand-up comedian and comic actor who has appeared in more than 100 television shows and feature films.

Viewers voted his half-hour Comedy Central special one of the network's top 20 stand-up specials of all time.

Mr. Shoemaker's feature film credits include the 1997 box office hit Scream 2, a role co-starring opposite Patrick Stewart in Safe House in 1998, and a featured role opposite Daryl Hannah in Dark Honeymoon in 2007.

He won Best Supporting Actor at the 2007 Elevate Film Festival, which honors socially conscious films. His own 1997 film The Lovemaster, with the late Farrah Fawcett, won Best Film honors at the Los Angeles Independent Film Festival.

Mr. Shoemaker began his comedy career in his hometown of Philadelphia, where he honed both his comedic style and his characters, winning the "Best of Philly" award while working as a bartender.

He had his own syndicated radio show for two years and has been a guest on major radio programs across the United States.

His career in television started at KYW Channel 3 in Philadelphia, where he was a regular on the horror series Saturday Night Dead. He produced and wrote for the PRISM Network after attending California University of Pennsylvania. While he was at PRISM, the network won its first two Emmy Awards from the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

An award-winning writer and actor, Mr. Shoemaker is a longtime member of the Screen Actors Guild, the Writers Guild of America and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists.

He recently wrote, produced and starred in the film Totally Baked, distributed worldwide by Universal Studios. Other writing credits include ABC-TV's Just The Ten of Us, and Real Funny.

He also wrote and starred in the critically acclaimed one-man show Who's Your Daddy? at the Coronet Theater in West Hollywood, Calif.

In 2004, Mr. Shoemaker opened a comedy compound and retail outlet inspired by his nonprofit organization, LaughterHeals.org. Currently, he is producing and writing a feature documentary, Live to Laugh, along with Mark Harris (Crash, Gods & Monsters) and Michael Beckwith (The Secret, The Oprah Winfrey Show).

Mr. Shoemaker and his wife, Mika, live in the state of California with their three sons: Justin, Jacob and Jackson.

Appearance of a name in this program is presumptive evidence of graduation, but it must not be regarded as conclusive. The transcript, issued through the University by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, sealed and signed by the proper authorities, is conclusive testimony to the possession of a degree.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME CODE

GOWNS

The gown for the bachelor's degree has pointed sleeves, with no trimming, and is worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has oblong sleeves, open at the wrist, with the rear part of its oblong sleeve square cut and is worn open or closed. The gown for the doctorate degree has bell-shaped sleeves and is faced down the front with velvet and three bars across the sleeves. The facing and crossbars of velvet may be of the color distinctive of the field to which the degree pertains.

For all academic purpose, including trimmings of doctors' gowns, edgings of hoods, and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different subjects are as follows:

Only a single degree from a single institution should ever be indicated by a single garment.

Agriculture	Maize
Allied Health	Green and Gold
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts, including Architecture	Brown
Forestry	Russet
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Physical Education	Sage Green
Public Administration, including Foreign Service	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon Pink
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet
Veterinary Science	Gray

HOODS

The length of the hood worn for the bachelor's degree is three feet, for the master's degree three and one half feet, and for the doctoral degree four feet. The doctoral degree has side panels. The linings of the hood represent the official color of the college or university conferring the degree. The binding or edging of the hood is two inches, three inches, and five inches for the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees respectively. The color is distinctive of the degree held by the wearer.

CAPS

The cap or mortarboard has a tassel fastened to the middle of the cap and wearing over the left side indicates the completion of a degree. The doctoral cap is indicated by a tassel of gold thread.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Vulcan, the Greek god of fire and metalworking, lifts a hammer high over his head, preparing to strike an anvil which is draped with a triangle inscribed with the words education, research and service. He holds the triangle in place with tongs; his face fierce with determination, he kneels at the forge. Captured forever in the act of creation, this Vulcan is memorialized on the University Mace created by artist Thomas Shimrock of Grantsville, Maryland. His interpretation of the California mascot, cast from six pounds of silver, sits proudly on the top of a 52-inch-high wooden mace that made its debut at the 147th commencement.

Mr. Shimrock was commissioned to design and create the mace, a display cabinet and a carrying case by the Foundation for California University. The display cabinet is a work of art in itself. Crafted from bubinga wood, it holds the mace upright within its circular confines. Three graceful bubinga supports, stretching upward from delicately carved ebony ovals, each topped with a different hand-cast silver finial, cradle the circular cabinet body, made up of two curved glass windows and a curved ebonized anegre wood door set in a bubinga wood frame. The carrying case is made from quarter-cut sycamore lined with velvet.

The University Mace, carried by a senior faculty member in all formal academic processions, is on permanent display in the lobby of the Louis L. Manderino Library.

California University of Pennsylvania
Building Character. Building Careers.
www.calu.edu

A proud member of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education.

MISSION STATEMENT

OF CALIFORNIA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

IDENTITY

California University of Pennsylvania, a comprehensive regional institution of higher education and a member of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education, is a diverse, caring and scholarly learning community dedicated to excellence in the liberal arts, science and technology, and professional studies that is devoted to building character and careers, broadly defined. The University is inspired by its core values of integrity, civility, and responsibility and is guided by its bill of rights and responsibilities: We have the right to safety and security, we have the responsibility to ensure the safety and security of others; We have the right to be treated with respect, we have the responsibility to treat others with respect; We have the right to expect the best, we have the responsibility to give our best; We have the right to be treated fairly, we have the responsibility to treat others fairly.

MISSION: BUILDING CHARACTER AND CAREERS

To advance its ultimate mission of building the character and careers of students, the University shall focus its efforts on three goals: student achievement and success, institutional excellence, and community service. These interrelated ends will be facilitated by the following means: high quality faculty, students, programs, and facilities. These means, in turn, will be funded through an energetic program of resource acquisition and stewardship.

VISION

Be recognized as the best comprehensive public university in America.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

- Offer an exceptional, one-of-a-kind character and career-building experience;
- Focus character-building on the University's three core values and four rights and responsibilities;
- Define career-building broadly to include life-wide (multiple life roles) and life-long (legacy) aspects;
- Recruit and retain a distinguished faculty who challenge and mentor students to attain their fullest potential;
- Recruit and retain a talented, diverse, and highly motivated student body;
- Maintain an administrative staff dedicated to the highest professional standards and service;
- Maintain a learning community known for its academic excellence, intellectual rigor, and civil discourse;
- Instill not just learning but the love of learning;
- Be widely known as a center for thought, inquiry, dialogue, and action in matters of character and leadership;
- Maintain a campus of natural and architectural beauty featuring state-of-the-art facilities and equipment;
- Reflect a special mission in science and technology through programs in science, technology, and applied engineering, as well as through emphasis on technology and information literacy across the curriculum;
- Be widely known for high quality undergraduate and selected masters level graduate programs;
- Foster increasingly higher admissions criteria, academic quality, and scholarly expectations;
- Incorporate continuous improvement into all programs and activities to ensure competitive excellence;
- Prepare students for the world of work or further education from multiple locations through multiple technologies in order to meet the ever changing needs of the Commonwealth and the larger world;
- Sustain a reputation for the University's academic excellence, its daring and entrepreneurial spirit, and the integrity, success, and loyalty of its graduates;
- Instill a culture of philanthropy among students, faculty, staff, and alumni;
- Create an ever larger community of supporters and an endowment that will perpetuate the work of the University and enable constant innovation and renewal.

LEGACY

Founded in 1852, and now in its second 150 years of service, the University is committed above all to academic excellence and intellectual rigor in the context of personal and institutional integrity, civility, and responsibility.
