Chancellor Greenstein's Blog

In my blog a few weeks ago I explained how universities and colleges like ours are adapting creatively to the tremendous pressures that are bearing down on them. As a follow up, I want to share some thoughts about Governor Josh Shapiro's proposal for major enhancements to Pennsylvania's public higher education sector – namely the ten PASSHE universities and the state's 15 community colleges. ## COMMONWEALTH UNIVERSITY NEWS

CU Experience is Live and Ready for Use by Students, Faculty, and Staff

CU Experience is the new portal—gateway—for accessing Banner at Commonwealth University. Experience provides a single-entry point for accessing most CU systems used by faculty, staff including Banner Self Service, Argos, CU Succeed, and Brightspace. To logon to CU Experience, go here:

<https://cuexperience.commonwealthu.edu/>

The above link is also located is also located at: <https://www.commonwealthu.edu/my-commonwealthu>. After SSO authentication, users will land on the CU Experience Portal which looks like this:

CU Experience is comprised of “cards” which access functionality in Banner as well as other CU systems. The above Experience Portal picture is the Faculty/Staff Portal. The CU Experience Portal for students includes courses, Degree Works and cards pertinent to the student experience in Banner.

CU Succeed Open Office Hours and Brightspace Resources

CU Succeed open office hours are added often to this schedule: <https://forms.office.com/r/VVmJ8G0Tm7>. All sessions are held through Zoom (<https://commonwealthu-edu.zoom.us/j/8993933880>) and you do not need to sign up. Feel free to join for a few minutes or the hour with your CU Succeed questions. For assistance at any time, PDF tutorials are available in the Brightspace MyCommonwealthU faculty and staff training modules and in the Starfish Training module (found in Tools-->Discover). Want to set up an individual, small group, office, or department workshop? Contact jheid@commonwealthu.edu or CUSucceed@commonwealthu.edu.

President Hanna Open Office Hours

President Hanna welcomes conversations about ways in which Commonwealth University can enhance its service to its students. He will be available for 10-15-minute conversations during his open office hours below.

Appointments are not required. Please contact Christa Lamoreaux at clamoreaux@commonwealthu.edu with any questions.

- Mansfield: Tuesday, Feb. 13, from 10 to 11 a.m. in the President's Office, 500 North Hall
- Bloomsburg: Tuesday, Feb. 20, from 9 to 10 a.m. in the President's Office, Carver Hall

- Lock Haven: Tuesday, Feb. 27, from 10:15 to 11:15 a.m. in the President's Office, 311 Ulmer Hall

Retirement Planning Sessions

The HRConnect Benefits team will provide on-campus presentations for retirement planning. The presentation will be followed by a question-and-answer period. In addition, one-on-one meetings with an HRConnect Benefits Representative will be offered via Zoom the following week. Please indicate that you wish to schedule a meeting during the registration process.

If you have already made the decision to retire, please open a "Retirement Counseling Request" inquiry through HRConnect now so that the retirement process may begin. The on-campus presentations will give you an opportunity to review and ask any remaining questions. HRConnect can also be reached during business hours (Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.) at 717-720-4040. Leaving a voicemail after-hours will automatically open an inquiry for you. The registration deadline is March 11. Please register here.

Dr. Orlando-Marquez C. Kittrell, executive director for the PA Act 101 Programs at Commonwealth University participated MENTOR's Capitol Hill Day on Jan. 24 in Washington, D.C. Capitol Hill Day is an advocacy event that connects members of Congress and their staff to mentors, advocates, professionals, and young people from across the country to talk about critical issues facing the nation's youth and the legislation and policies they can implement to expand access to quality mentoring opportunities. Over 454 advocates participated in a total of 224 Congressional meetings.

Kittrell also participated in the 2024 National Mentoring Summit convened by MENTOR on Jan. 25-26 in Washington, D.C. The National Mentoring Summit was an opportunity for 1,342 mentoring practitioners, researchers, philanthropic investors, youth leaders, government and civic leaders, and Affiliates from 48 states and territories and 10 countries. Resulting from attending the summit, Kittrell plans to expand the mentoring and coaching components available to CU Act 101 students and services soon available to other underrepresented and underserved students on the Bloomsburg campus.

Jerry Wemple, professor of English, is hosting a workshop for adults on writing poetry about place on Saturday, Feb. 10, from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Bloomsburg Public Library. He will do a workshop for high school students on Feb. 17. There is a link for registration:

Items Needed for Annual Book Sale

The Friends of the Bloomsburg University Library Association (FOBULA) will hold its annual book sale for 2024 from Saturday, April 13, to Monday, April 15, in the Andruss Library Schweiker Room. The book sale has brought in $48,400 since the first one was held 23 years ago. This money has gone toward several special projects, two of which are the digitization and preservation of local and university historic materials and providing textbook scholarships to deserving students.

There is always a need for more books, CDs, and DVDs. The items can be brought to the Andruss Library Circulation Desk anytime the building is open, and if you have a large number that need to be picked up please contact Robert Dunkelburger. The Friends are looking for all types of books, both fiction and nonfiction, in GOOD condition, that would appeal to a general audience, in addition to movies and music. Items that do not sell well include outdated textbooks (more than ten years old), magazines, journals, encyclopedias, and Reader's Digest condensed books.
