DEI Holding Women's History Month Donation Drive

DEI is looking for donations to support women and children. Donated items will support residents of the YWCA Northcentral PA's Wise Options. Wise Options provides refuge for survivors of violence in a safe and secure site. Wise Options' emergency shelter for victims of abuse is the only shelter of its kind in Lycoming County. In addition to Wise Options, donated items will also be distributed to women and children during a community engagement day that DEI is hosting in Williamsport on Thursday, March 28.

DEI is hopeful to have the following items donated: pillows/pillowcases, cookie sheets, diapers, children's books and games, toiletries, feminine hygiene products, school supplies, baby supplies and new and slightly used clothing. Donated items will be accepted at the following locations:

- Bloomsburg – Women's Resource Center, First Floor, Schuylkill Hall and Global and Multicultural Education and DEI Office, 101 Kehr Student Union

- Lock Haven – Robert and Delores Lynch Multi-Cultural Center, 103 Raub Hall
- Mansfield – Pride Center, 130 Alumni Hall

Contact Ralph Godbolt rgodbolt@commonwealthu.edu for additional information.

Career Connection Expos Set for Spring

Please alert your students to the following Career Connections Expos. In addition to being a convenient way to network and find internships and jobs for third- and fourth-year students, expos are also great way for first- and second-year students to explore careers, establish connections, and practice networking with potential employers. Students can register on Handshake under “career fairs” and find toolkits, resume labs, coaching appointments and more ways to prepare under “career center.” Students in need of professional attire can visit the Career Closet on their respective campus.
