CU's Partnership with Ferrilli to End April 30

Commonwealth University's partnership with Ferrilli will come to an end on April 30. Ferrilli is the consulting firm that was brought on board in May 2023 to help with the implementation of the Banner/OneSIS student information system.

All faculty and staff who should take the available trainings, but have not done so yet, should do so by or before April 30. After that date, live trainings with Ferrilli staff will no longer be available to CU employees. Trainings will later be organized through the Registrar team and Brightspace.

Helpful materials that are now on Brightspace will continue to be available for faculty, staff and students after April 30 and updated as appropriate.

Ferrilli is offering advising and registration open office hours through April 12 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. each weekday through Zoom. You can also submit an IT issue through the issues log.

DEI Holding Women's History Month Donation Drive

DEI is looking for donations to support women and children. Donated items will support residents of the YWCA Northcentral PA's Wise Options. Wise Options provides refuge for survivors of violence in a safe and secure site. Wise Options' emergency shelter for victims of abuse is the only shelter of its kind in Lycoming County. In addition to Wise Options, donated items will also be distributed to women and children during a community engagement day that DEI is hosting in Williamsport on Thursday, March 28.

DEI is hopeful to have the following items donated: pillows/pillowcases, cookie sheets, diapers, children's books and games, toiletries, feminine hygiene products, school supplies, baby supplies and new and slightly used clothing. Donated items will be accepted at the following locations:

- Bloomsburg – Women's Resource Center, First Floor, Schuylkill Hall and Global and Multicultural Education and DEI Office, 101 Kehr Student Union
- Lock Haven – Robert and Delores Lynch Multi-Cultural Center, 103 Raub Hall
- Mansfield – Pride Center, 130 Alumni Hall

Contact Ralph Godbolt rgodbolt@commonwealthu.edu for additional information.

Career Connection Expos Set for Spring

Please alert your students to the following Career Connections Expos. In addition to being a convenient way to network and find internships and jobs for third- and fourth-year students, expos are also great way for first- and second-year students to explore careers, establish connections, and practice networking with potential employers. Students can register on Handshake under "career fairs" and find toolkits, resume labs, coaching appointments and more ways to prepare under "career center." Students in need of professional attire can visit the Career Closet on their respective campus.

Items Needed for Annual Book Sale

The Friends of the Bloomsburg University Library Association (FOBULA) will hold its annual book sale for 2024 from Saturday, April 13, to Monday, April 15, in the Andruss Library Schweiker Room. The book sale has brought in $48,400 since the first one was held 23 years ago. This money has gone toward several special projects, two of which are the digitization and preservation of local and university historic materials and providing textbook scholarships to deserving students. There is always a need for more books, CDs, and DVDs. The items can be brought to the Andruss Library Circulation Desk anytime the building is open, and if you have a large number that need to be picked up please contact Robert Dunkelburger.

Documentary and Discussion Series about Palestine and Israel:

'The Diaries of Yossef Nachmani'

Please encourage your students to attend and join us for a screening and a follow-up discussion of a compelling documentary about Palestine and Israel: The Diaries of Yossef Nachmani on Thursday, March 28, at 6:30 p.m., Centennial Hall 218.

The documentary explores the diaries of a land broker who worked for the Jewish National Fund. As an employee for the JNF, Nachmani was "responsible for acquiring Palestinian lands for Zionist settlements from the 1930's through the 1940's" and "is a unique history of the gestation and birth of the Jewish state, the Palestinian diaspora, and the conflicts that continue to this day."

Pizza with the Prez

President Bashar Hanna will host a "Pizza with the Prez" event on Tuesday, April 2, from 5-6 p.m. in Alumni Hall, room 307. The event, open to any Mansfield student, will be held in the hour before the Student Government Association's regular meeting.

Join the Commission on the Status of Women at CU-Mansfield

Are you interested in advocating for women and supporting women's issues on campus?

The Commission on the Status of Women is an organization that works to support women on campus and provide programming to further this mission. The commission meets one-to-two times per month and asks for additional support at commission-sponsored events throughout the academic year. Students, staff and faculty are welcome to join the commission for the 2024/25 academic year. If you are interested in becoming a member, please submit your information by Sunday, March 31, at <https://bit.ly/joinpcsw>.

Elections will take place at the Wednesday, April 3, meeting and new members will be welcomed at the first meeting in the Fall 2024 semester. The commission will contact interested parties by April 15 with election results and a link to the Doodle poll for the Fall meeting time.

Volunteers Needed for Community Care Day

Volunteers are needed for Community Care Day, Sunday, April 7, from 1-5 p.m. We are looking for dedicated individuals to join us in our mission to make a positive impact in our community. You can sign up as an individual or a group (club/organization/department) for projects in the community such as painting, trash pickup, yard projects, and more. Sign up by end of day on Sunday, March 31, at <https://bit.ly/mountiescare>.

Garden and Sustainability Activities

CU Mansfield's Garden and Sustainability Club is hosting a house plant sale. Anyone interested can stop by 106 Grant Science to pick out plants. They range from $5-$10. Any questions can be sent to Maegen Borzok at mborzok@commonwealthu.edu.

Holly Jackson is hosting a workshop with the Garden and Sustainability Club on Wednesday, March 27, from 4 to 5 p.m. in 122 Grant Science: "Rural Sprouts part 2: Container and Sustainable Gardening." Come learn more about container and sustainable gardening while making your own DIY pot and planting a seed to start at home. Email questions to hjackson@commonwealthu.edu

North Hall Library's Seed Garden is officially open to the Mansfield community! Come "check out" seeds from any of the following categories: Flowers, Fruits, Herbs, Leafy Greens, and Vegetables! More information and what's available can be found at <https://library.commonwealthu.edu/nhseedlibrary>.
