Spring Weekend on May 8 Features Four Lads, Dick Gregory in Concert

The Four Lads and Dick Gregory will share equal billing in a $4,000 concert on May 8 at 8:00 pm in Centennial Gymnasium. General admission tickets will be $2.00 and reserved tickets will be $2.50. Both prices are reductions from previous concert admission rates, made possible through profits realized from these performances.

The "Lads"

Frankie Buseri is the baritone and usually leads the foursome into song. Jimmie Arnold has been described by vocal experts as having "one of the very best high tenor voices." Bernie Toorish is the lead, sings tenor, and is the composer-arranger for the group. The newest of the "Lads" is Johnnie D'Arc, a baritone-bass.

Early Training

The Four Lads' musical prestige is the result of unusually high standards that first took form in their home town, Toronto, and their school, St. Michael's Choir School. The boys studied at this renowned musical academy for five years under the expert guidance of Monsignor Ronan.

Although the "Lads" met as choir-boys, they soon discovered that they enjoyed working as a team, spending many hours together studying voice at the academy and playing sports on the athletic field.

was created in April of 1960. The purpose of the office is to coordinate the non-academic life of the college, including the offices of the Deans of Men and Women. Some of the matters handled by the office include loans and scholarships, student employment on campus, the Pilot, and requisitions.

The Four Lads

The boys launched their professional career as the Four Lads singing in local clubs and hotels in Toronto and nearby towns. They were auditioned by Elwood Glover, then emcee of the Canadian Radio Cavalcade, and he was impressed to the extent of booking them immediately on his popular coast-to-coast radio show.

Not too long after that the Four Lads came to New York and have performed in the United States almost exclusively since, except for occasional singing engagements in various parts of the world. Since their debut in New York they have sold some sixteen million singles and albums.

Gold Records

"Standing on the Corner," "Moments to Remember," "My Little Angel," "Who Needs You?" and "No, Not Much" are all gold records by the Four Lads.

The singing group has appeared on TV shows of Arthur Godfrey, Perry Como, Steve Allen, Milton Berle, Pat Boone, Patti Page, and Ed Sullivan, as well as their own spectacular. They have been playing on the West Coast for the past three years with great success.

Dick Gregory, who will share the spotlight with the Four Lads, will be featured in the next edition of the MAROON & GOLD.

BSC Hosts Contest For Area Students

Two hundred sixty-nine high school students from sixty high schools will be hosted by BSC tomorrow for the Thirty-first Annual High School Business Education Contest. Miss Margaret Ann Jack is faculty coordinator for the event which is sponsored annually by BSC.

Contest Areas

Contests will be in the areas of bookkeeping, business arithmetic, business law, typing, and shorthand. Charms will be presented to the top three students in each contest area, and a plaque will be presented to the team amassing the highest number of points. A team will consist of four students, each of whom will compete in a different category.

Representatives from fifteen machine and book companies will exhibit the latest business education materials from 9:30 to 12:00.

The Social Recreation Committee has announced the following policy which is now being enforced concerning the admission of students into social functions.

1. All BSC students, upon presentation of their ID cards, are admitted with their guests.
2. All students from other colleges showing identification are invited and welcome as long as they conduct themselves properly.
3. Visitors, unless guests of the college or guests of BSC students, will not be admitted.

This policy has not been created as another means of harassing the already burdened college student, but it is the only means available to keep intruders out of our social activities. Please show every courtesy to those students assigned to check ID cards.

Council Examines Variety of Topics at 14th Stated Meeting

The 14th regular meeting of College Council and the second open meeting was held last Monday evening in Science Hall. There were 23 students attending as observers.

President Miller opened the meeting with a statement explaining an error in rules made at the last regular meeting. He told the visitors that they did not have the opportunity to voice their opinion during a meeting but must do so through their representatives. This point was explained by illustration that this is the way the citizens of Pennsylvania bring matters before the General Assembly and/or Senate.

Grievances Report

The meeting was open to old business which featured a committee report on the grievances of the student body presented at the last meeting. The first item discussed was restrictions on non-sponsored college activities which brought up the statement that there wasn't any rule against co-ed sun bathing. The committee then suggested the lawn area across from Sutliff be set aside for co-ed sun bathing. The committee further stated that the boys had a private area behind New North if they so desired and that the women find a private area if they so desire.

Skate Boards

The recommendations continued by suggesting that skate-boards be banned on the roads but allowed on sidewalk from the Ben Franklin to Carver Hall.

Jean Zenke proceeded to explain the rules and recommendations in the women's dormitories. The lobbies are now open and the lounge hours will be extended. The women may move furniture and use the kitchen facilities.

Recreation

Dean Hoch then explained that in the recreation areas there were two conditions necessary for use of the athletic facilities. First, a requisition (required by state law) must be filed with Dean Hoch containing the name of a state employee (faculty member) and second if the pool is open, arrangements must be made for a lifeguard. It was emphasized that the building must be in the hands of a responsible state employee.

As for growing a beard, the committee simply stated that there is no rule against it.

Infirmery Hours

The committee then turned to infirmery hours and suggested that the nurses take their lunch hour from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm thus giving students who have classes during either hour a chance to see the nurse. The reason the infirmery can't remain open 24 hours a day is because there aren't enough nurses to cover all hours of the week. Also because of this lack of employees the nurses can't make room calls as emergencies may arise at the infirmery.

It was explained that students 21 years old living in apartments downtown can't have beer because of its availability to students under age.

Cooking Privileges

It was also explained that cooking privileges for students living in rooms downtown are not possible because of regulations of the Department of Labor & Industry, especially fire and safety regulations, etc.

Inspection of rooms was reported as necessary in some cases when it is indicated that state equipment and materials are missing. However, the desks and closets are not inspected under ordinary inspections.

A lack of library help was reported as the reason for not having longer hours. Also BSC has some of the longest hours of any college library anyway.

Veto Over President

The committee then explained that no student government has veto power over the president of the college. This is necessarily so because the president is responsible for the entire college and as such is under bond. The SC presidents are bonded for one-quarter million dollars. For example if a building should burn down and it could be proven that the president was responsible, he may be pressed for the loss.

Parking Lot

The committee then moved into the parking lot facilities and problems. The idea of charging for parking was eliminated because by the time enough money would be raised, we could probably have a parking lot so to speak "for free." It was reported that there was a possibility and negotiations are being made to lease a lot from the hospital for parking purposes.

The bermuda shorts policy as already announced was presented again as part of the total report of the committee.

The question of sufficient housing for all seniors was reported affirmative.

The dormitories will not be patrolled anymore with the condition that all male students have two feet on the floor at all times. Also the male students will be responsible to speak to other students when they see this privilege being abused. This will be in effect as long as it isn't abused.

The committee then reported that there can't be any parking on the Ben Franklin lot because of the fire hazards and regulations.

The reporting committee then said that college officials only check private parties and parking facilities at the request of town police.

The committee concluded its report by requesting that the TV in Husky Lounge be allowed on all night. This situation is comparable to the first floor lobby of New North Hall and the girls' dormitories when their TV's are finally installed.

Worthy Performance Of "Teahouse" Proves Highly Honorable Success

by Jennifer Smith

"The Teahouse of the August Moon," in which democracy produces unexpected and uproarious results, is one of the most successful student productions to be staged by the Bloomsburg Players. Those who failed to attend because they "saw it on television" were entirely misguided. "Teahouse" must never be seen in black and white in a 26-inch screen. Although the story is an excellent one, and able to stand by itself, an integral part of the play are the colorful costumes and sets.

Contrast

Rarely does a comedy—especially one centering around the US Army—have the lyrical beauty found in "Teahouse." This lyrical quality alternates with the blunt directives of the Army occupation staff, and the contrast produces many of the comic effects.

The technical aspects of the production were done professionally, and the sets and lighting were particularly outstanding. The use of a single follow spot throughout the play epitomized the simplicity characteristic of the Japanese Influence. The sets in the last act, and the simplicity of the stage design in general, were very effective.

The leading actors, Henry Fetterman as Sakini and Larry Remley as Captain Fisby, gave fine performances, as did several supporting members of the cast. Ann Shepherd, playing Miss Higa Jiga, president of the Ladies' League for Democratic Action, conveyed quiet sarcasm and outrage even in "Okinaawan." Captain McLean, the Army psychiatrist was excellently characterized by Tom Curtis as he forgot his doubts about Fisby's mental state and went off the deep end himself over organic farming. Colonel Wainwright Purdy III was well done by Howard Kearns, and as his cursing became more convincing, so did his characterization.

Transition Successful

Rarely did the players permit a laugh to be lost, and many difficult situations were handled expertly by them. After the teahouse has been torn down and Fisby prepares to leave, the audience must make the transition from a sad situation to a funny one, when Sakini suggests that Fisby take him along, since he can't take Lotus Blossom. Dramatically, this sort of transition is difficult to effect, but was done so with ease by Henry Fetterman. In this production, the Bloomsburg Players demonstrated that they possess the precision and discipline necessary for staging an outstanding show.

Realism Confused With Vulgarism; Pornography A Constitutional Right?

by Judy Gers

There is an old carnival saying which goes, "Take the sucker for what you can get."

Well, fellow students, we have been taken for a merry little ride along the pornography trail and left with the proverbial 'empty bag.' This pathway is paved with "nice dirty books," but under them lie all things which we do or at least did believe in.

What is pornography? In Webster's New International Dictionary, it is described as a treatment of material that is obscene, lascivious or licentious. After that definition, one ponders a while trying to look up all those descriptive terms. In plain words, pornography is material which treats anything that opposes morality, decency, and lawfulness, as if it were a common standard.

Currently, in America, there is on the newstands, an "original, uncut and unexpurgated edition as first published and banned in Paris." I suppose one should take the book in the satirical manner in which it is meant. But, besides satirizing pornography, Candy is an excellent example of what it set out to criticize. In the book, it makes the family, hospitals, and religion a cheap farce. While doing this, it makes promiscuity a trait that is desirable in a girl.

Doubts Creep In

Why is this type of book cheap, undesirable and any number of other terms that one can use to describe it? In the first place, if a person frequently encounters a book saying: "this is all right according to one's peer group," or, "everyone is doing it," even the staunchest supporters of moral decency will begin to doubt his beliefs. Where there is doubt, don't worry, the group will gladly make up your mind. Such phrases as "square," "goodie-goodie," "mid-Victorian," etc. will goad him on the way. Such men as George Washington, John Paul Jones, and Abraham Lincoln would have those terms applied to them today.

Secondly, soon we, the students, will be called upon to contribute to society. What are we going to contribute? Our literary knowledge of books like "The Tropic of Cancer"?

Finally, some of us will become parents. Will we say to our children, "well, anything is all right with me. Go ahead, I don't care." Or, will we hand our children a flexible code instead of no standards at all.

There Can Be A Change

That's all fine and good, but, what can we do about it? Two suggestions can be offered. First, develop a sense of literary value, and

"The Creation" Will Be Presented; Guest Vocalists To Provide Solos

"The Creation" by Joseph Haydn, one of the world's greatest oratorios, will be presented by Bloomsburg State College Choraleers on Sunday, May 2, at 3 pm. The text is a combination of the words from "Genesis" and Milton's "Paradise Lost." Written in his 66th year, "The Creation" is perhaps Haydn's finest work. He was particularly interested in its being his greatest achievement, and he revised his sketches many times until he was sure the work was a masterpiece. The story of the oratorio tells of the creation of the world in six days. Interspersed with the narrative are poetic reflections of God and nature.

The featured soloists are:

Mary Decker

Mary Decker, soprano. Mrs. Decker, a member of the BSC faculty this year, holds Bachelor and Master's Degrees from the Eastman School of Music as well as a performer's certificate in voice. She has had considerable experience in opera and oratorio.

Jay Braman

Jay Braman, tenor. Mr. Braman is soloist for the Har Zion Synagogue and the Oak Lane Presbyterian Church. He is on the staff of the Settlement Music School and Conductor of the Immaculata College Glee Club, and is also currently enrolled at Temple University completing his Master's work. Tim Hoffman

Tim Hoffman, a freshman liberal arts major, will also sing some of the bass solos. Mr. Hoffman belongs to the BSC Men's Glee Club and Madrigal Singers. In addition, he sings with the Columbia Chorale and a popular vocal group.

Lois Sturgeon

Lois Sturgeon, organist, is the wife of BSC faculty member, Dr. Thomas Sturgeon. Mrs. Sturgeon is a graduate music major from Westminster College who has had considerable professional organ experience.

William Decker, conductor, is a BSC faculty member in charge of the Choraleers, Men's Glee Club, and Madrigal Singers. Mr. Decker holds the Bachelor and Master's Degrees from the Eastman School of Music and is currently working toward a doctorate at Indiana University. He has also studied choral conducting at Union Theological Seminary and the University of Illinois. The purpose of the Lincoln Square YMCA Theatre is to endeavor to bring to the attention of the dance world and the public, innovations in Modern Dance, as well as to stimulate experimentation by young choreographers and dancers so that a new and exciting vitality can be brought to the art of Modern Dance.

buy and read what meets your standards—even for amusement. Secondly, if one store continues to sell pornographic materials, don't buy there. Any other ideas must come from one's fertile mind.

Today, in America, one of the most abused freedoms is the Constitutional freedom of the press. This safeguards crooks as well as institutions. But, students, we do not have to support the pornographers.

A Heart That Loves Too Wild

I believed in you.
I changed for you.
I put my things aside.
We bucked seedling love together then . . .
When hearts were pricked, remember?
We stood in the wind in the cove
Until the sun crystallized the waters.
We had so much to conquer,
So much to live.
Wild to love.
You held the reins.

Now you want to race your chariot
With the wind, and
Tread the woods with men.
But I thought we had felt
The grass in our shoes.

You want to buck alone now;
I must learn to do that well.
I shall.
But life must be patient just now.
I am a woman, sophisticated and girl.
Why am I so feminine to cry?
Such frailty you would say,
So like Ophelia or Juliet
And Life should not be so many tears.

But then, tears whisper
The worth of things
From the hollows of the heart.
Extra tears for expensive things,
my love.
You have not gone away,
But I wish you were here.
O wild tears,
O God,
If only I were a man.
And yet, the light is coming in.

Dr. Margaret C. Means has made the following statement with respect to the recent Reading Conference:

"The Committee who was responsible for the Reading Conference that was held on BSC's campus April 23, and 24, wish to thank the students for their cooperation. Many of the participants remarked to the Committee that they were impressed at the caliber of the student body, their manners, and the outstanding service that they received in the College Commons. These people, as well as the Committee, feel that the student body should be commended."

David Blum, conductor of the Esterhazy Orchestra, approaches his music with an enlivening vitality combined with a scrupulous devotion to perfection of style and spirit. Born in Los Angeles in 1935 and receiving his early training there, he conducted his first chamber orchestra in that city in 1957. In 1958 he went to Europe to conduct in Berlin, Munich, Frankfurt, Mannheim and London, and at the request of the American-Israel Cultural Foundation, conducted a series of concerts with the Haifa Orchestra throughout Israel.

from the ... SIDELINES

by Irwin Zablocky

Spring football practice began Tuesday, April 20, for the Husky gridders. This is something new for Bloomsburg whereas West Chester, East Stroudsburg, and Millersville have had spring training for quite some time.

One advantage to spring football is that the athletes can get back in shape after the long layoff following the regular season.

Another reason for this early practice is for the coaches to get a good idea of next year's team. Many of the positions are tentatively filled so that the coaches aren't starting from scratch in the fall.

A final reason for this early training is that the players have a chance to review old plays and learn new ones.

There were approximately 40 candidates showing up for practice. This, however, does not include those football players who are currently playing in other spring sports.

The baseball team is undefeated in League play. Their overall 6-1 record includes a 2-1 loss to an extremely good and previously undefeated Susquehanna team.

The golf team has defeated East Stroudsburg and lost to a strong Shippensburg team. If this is any indication, they should do better in the state meet this year than they did last year.

The Penn Relays is the best track meet in the eastern half of the U.S. Contestants arrived from such outstanding track schools as: Rice, Villanova, Missouri, Penn State, Kentucky State, LaSalle, Navy, and others.

Even with such keen competition, Bloomsburg's Jan Prosseda placed 7th in the two-mile event setting a new school record of 9:12.7. In the 3000 meter steeplechase he finished 6th with a new school record of 9:33.7.

BSC Victorious In Two Twin-Bills; 5-0 Record In Conference Games

Unidentified Husky slides into home safely, Shippensburger jumps high for ball; BSC won both games of doubleheader.

Bloomsburg State College's baseball team swept two doubleheaders within the past week. The first was over Lock Haven State 3-2, and 15-7, and the second over Shippensburg State 10-4, and 13-2; all the games were played at the Light Street field.

Take Two from LHSC

Against Lock Haven in the first game By Hopkins pitched a very strong game, allowing only two runs and six hits. Offensively, the Huskies pushed across the winning run in the bottom of the sixth. Gene Kovalchik led the Huskies at the plate driving in two runs. Steve Bilyk knocked in one run and scored another for BSC.

Gara Is Big Gun

The nightcaps was dominated by the Husky lumber as they scored 15 runs. Rolly Boyle started for the Huskies, but was touched for 4 runs in the first. He was replaced by Hunter who went the distance and received the win. Bloomsburg opened the attack by scoring 5 runs in the third; they added two more in the fourth and added eight more through the fifth and sixth. John Gara was the big gun with 4 runs batted in two hits and scored three times.

Roll Over SSC

Against Shippensburg State, Gene Kovalchik rapped out two doubles and drove in six runs as he sparked the Huskies to a twin victory over Shippensburg. The Huskies completely dominated both games as they scored 10 and 13 runs respectively. Bloomsburg built early leads and never really allowed Shippensburg in the game. Rolly Boyle received the win in the first game although he needed help from John Whitelock. Hopkins pitched the first three innings in the second game and received the win. Whitelock relieved him and finished the game. Kovalchik, Emma, and Gara led the Husky offensive, Emma going 5 for 8 at the plate and Gara driving in 3 runs on 2 hits.

The Huskies are 5-0 in the conference and have split a doubleheader with Susquehanna in exhibition.

BSC Chess Team Captures Crown

The BSC Chess Team is undisputed leader in the Eastern Pennsylvania College Chess League by virtue of their draw with the Lehigh University "A" 2½ - 2½. The Husky Rooks are assured of the crown because of their superior league record.

Draws Help Win

Gary Deets won for the Husky Rooks in first board in the league deciding match with Lehigh University "A". Dan Marks, Gordon Clapp, and Joe Kressler respectively played to draws. Jim Sahaida was the only Husky to be defeated.

Strong Season Record

The Husky Rooks have had a very successful season defeating such teams as Lehigh University "B" twice, Lehigh "A" once, Fairleigh Dickinson twice, this coupled with their outstanding league record gives the Husky Rooks the title.

Prosseda and Zablocky Look Impressive At Penn Relays

Last weekend, the Bloomsburg State College track team traveled to Philadelphia to participate in the Penn Relays which were held at Franklin Field. Running for the Huskies in the distance events were Jan Prosseda and Irwin Zablocky. Jan finished sixth in the steeplechase and seventh in the two-mile run.

In the two-mile race, Prosseda ran a fine race only to finish 9.4

Golf Team Loses To Shippensburg

The stickmen of BSC were defeated by Shippensburg State College last Saturday by a score of 11½ to 6½.

Miller Shoots a Low 75

In medalist play, BSC's George Miller tied Shippensburg's Jim Dickson, both had scores of 75. In Miller's regular match, he defeated Raudensky, 3-0. Dickson of SSC defeated Phil Bloom of BSC, 3-0. In the next two matches, Woltzman and Hanks for the Red Raiders defeated Herbert and Quasnowski for the Huskies by identical scores of 2½ - ½.

Vasil Victorious

The only other Husky victory was by Jack Vasil who defeated Ettline of SSC 2½ - ½. In the final match Hiale of BSC was defeated by a score of 3-0.

The Shippensburg victory was their third of the year, against a loss and a tie. BSC has won only one other meet.

Business Profs. Attend Conference

Two members of the Business Education faculty served in leadership roles at the Spring Conference of the Pennsylvania Business Education Association held recently in Wilkes-Barre. The theme of the conference was "Business Education, the Stepping Stone for Tomorrow's Automated World."

Associate Professor Frank Radice served as chairman of the typewriting sectional meeting. Associate Professor Clayton H. Hinkle was the speaker at the Business Arithmetic sectional meeting.

seconds behind the winner as he finished in a time of 9:12.7. Jan's time was 1.7 seconds faster than that of last year when he finished in sixth place.

Steeplechase

The steeplechase is a 3,000 meter race. This was the first time Prosseda had ever competed in this event but he finished in fine style as the Husky runner won a medal for his sixth place finish. About forty yards behind the sixth place runner going into the home stretch, Jan, with his unusual good kick and aided by his opponents mistake, was able to close the gap and overtake his opponent and finish in a time of 9:33.7. This was 26 seconds behind the winner.

Irwin Zablocky also running in the steeplechase for the first time finished strong.

Husky Relay Team

The Husky relay team was entered in the second heat of the medley relays. Wayne Thomas ran the quarter mile with Fred Stoicheff running the first 220. In the confusion, the Husky dropped the baton and by the time it was retrieved, the race was out of reach. Joe Figliolinio ran the second 220 with Jim Reifinger running the 880.

BSC Netmen Lose To ES Warriors

The BSC netmen suffered their second shut-out of the season and it's fourth straight loss at the hands of the East Stroudsburg Warriors. The score in the shut-out was 9-0.

East Stroudsburg appeared to be a stronger team than Shippensburg, which also shut out the Huskies. The match was East Stroud's from the start. The closest match was Ed Dietrick's defeat by Luley of ESSC, 6-4, 6-4.

The next tennis match will be at home next Saturday against Millersville.

Results Listed Of Survey Taken On BSC Cheating

The following survey was conducted by ninety-two members of Dr. Vannan's General Psychology classes. Each student interviewed four freshmen, four sophomores, four juniors, and four seniors. The motivation survey question approached the problem of cheating in a positive vein—"What is the main reason why you do not cheat at Bloomsburg?" The total number of replies was 1472, and the interviewers reported generally good cooperation from the students. The replies are reported from the highest (in order of frequency) to the lowest in the first eight categories.

Student Reasons

Fear of dismissal from college: 41 freshmen, 37 sophomores, 34 juniors, 37 seniors.

Disgrace if caught: 33 freshmen, 32 sophomores, 27 juniors, 25 seniors.

This pageant, sponsored by the Bloomsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce and the second to be held in Bloomsburg, climaxed several weeks of preparation.

Program

The program consisted of evening gown, bathing suit and talent competition plus several numbers by three 1964 state winners: Miss Delaware, Anita Gail Eubank; Miss Maryland, Sharon Kay Burlingham; and Miss New Jersey, Virginia Jean Krasnomowitz. Final selection by the judges from five finalists was made on the merits of a spontaneous speaking contest.

In the talent competition Susan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Godshall, Oreland, sang and danced to "Wouldn't It Be Lovely?" from "My Fair Lady."

All the top winners received trophies plus U.S. Savings Bonds.

Improve Communications

Also under old business a report was given to improve communications between College Council and the student body. These suggestions include a M&G reporter to be assigned to Council and a special column be given to Council each week. Also a proposed suggestion box would be placed in the hall outside Husky Lounge. Each suggestion must contain five signatures. It then will be submitted to a committee for its consideration; the committee will then tell the persons involved whether the suggestion is valid or invalid. If the suggestion is valid it will be presented to Council for further consideration. In the meantime if the suggestion is valid it will be placed on a bulletin board alongside the suggestion box.

Also along the line of communications it was proposed that an agenda of each meeting be posted on this same bulletin board. Also this agenda would be read before each assembly.

Under new business a motion was made to take $8,200 from the retail Bookstore for the purpose of buying new uniforms. When this is

The schedule for the final examinations will be complete on May 3 and will appear in the May 8 issue of the MAROON & GOLD.

With exception to freshmen, final examination week will begin Monday, May 24, and will end on Saturday, May 29, with only a few exams scheduled for the 29th.

Freshmen are reminded that examinations for English 101 and 102 are scheduled for Saturday, May 22, at 8:00 am.

Advance scheduling will be held Friday, May 21, and Saturday, May 22, in Centennial Gymnasium. Fifty dollars activities fee must be paid at this time.

Advance Fees

Students on academic probation may schedule in advance and may also pay the activities fee for the fall semester. The activities fee will be repaid in full if the student isn't permitted to return.

Deans Announce Summer Housing

Students attending summer sessions at BSC may make arrangements for housing beginning tomorrow, according to announcements by Dean Jackson and Dean Hunsinger. All students, with the exception of commuters, will reside on campus thus eliminating all off campus resident housing during this period.

Women students may select a room by contacting Mrs. Gunter, secretary to the Dean of Women. The second and third floors of East Hall will be filled first, in that order. Girls are asked to indicate the sessions they are planning to attend when signing for a room. There will be two girls to a room.

Men needing housing should make formal application at the Dean of Men's Office in New North Hall. These arrangements should be made before leaving college at the end of this semester, if possible.
