

Bloomsburg Players Mark the Start Of Fifth Annual Spring Arts Festival

The Fifth Annual Spring Arts Festival to be held April 21st through May 1st, is being conducted, as in the past, with the purpose of stimulating interest and participation in the creative arts for students, faculty members, and the area community residents. The majority of the events will be held in Carver and are open to the public without charge.

Players Begin Festival

The Bloomsburg Players, under the direction of Mr. Michael McHale, will start the festivities by presenting "You Can't Take It With You," a comedy by Moss Hart and George Kaufman currently enjoying a revival in New York. The play will be staged Thursday, April 21st through Saturday, April 23rd. On Monday evening April 25th at 8:15 p.m. the Pennsylvania Ballet Company of Philadelphia will perform a program of contemporary ballet. The well-known Spanish painter, Vaguero Turcios will present three lectures Tuesday, April 25th at 2:00 p.m., 8:15 Tuesday evening, and Wednesday, 10:00 a.m. His topics will be "Five Painters and the Problem of Reality," "Mural Painting," and "A Brief History of Spanish Art," respectively.

Literature Presentations

Critical and creative literature will be presented by two speakers. Scott Elledge, Professor of English at Cornell University, will give a lecture on E. B. White, Wednesday, April 27th at 8:15 p.m. On April 29th, at 8:15 p.m. Richard Eberhart, poet and Professor of English at Dartmouth College, will read some of his own poetry.

Jazz Program

On Thursday, April 28th at 2:00 p.m. and again at 8:15 that evening the Bruce Cameron Quartet, a student ensemble from Bucknell University will present a program of jazz.

Quartet Returns

Of particular interest will be the return of the Curtis String Quartet whose appearance at BSC was a highlight of the 1964 Festival. The Quartet will present a concert of Haydn, Schubert, Wolf and Debussy on Saturday evening, April 30th at 8:15 p.m.

The Festival will conclude on Sunday, May 1st, at 3:00 p.m. with a concert by the BSC Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. William Decker of the college Music Department.

A contemporary religious painting exhibit from the Museum of Modern Art, New York will be on display in Waller Hall throughout the Festival.

CGA And Class Candidates Named; Elections Scheduled Next Week

Leaders of the Community Government Association and the classes for the 1966-67 academic college year will be chosen by the students of BSC next week. The ballots will be polled automatically by machines in Husky Lounge next Wednesday and Thursday.

MRA Formulates New Constitution

The Men's Resident Association for this year has come up with a new constitution that gives more power to the student representatives, relieving the Dean of Men's staff.

The Men's Resident Association (MRA), is formed to promote the general welfare for men resident students and assumes the responsibility of improving their living conditions.

Reforms

After being appointed last September by the Dean of Men, the Men's resident Council began work to broaden their influence. Among the changes recently instituted are student elections of representatives instead of administration appointments and monthly general meetings of the council.

Each elected representative will represent approximately 50 to 60 men. Those men will be notified as to who their representative is and will be able to go to them with their problems, which in turn the representative will present at the monthly council meetings. Elections of new officers will be in April, and the council urges all men to participate by campaigning and by voting for the men of their choice. Elections of representatives will take place at the beginning of each fall semester.

MRA Activities

The MRA has sponsored several activities during the school year, among them a tour by the officers last December of several Pennsylvania colleges to observe other Men's Resident Associations. Other activities include the Toys for Tots Dance and the Men's Smoker. Plans for future activities are now being made.

"BSC Abroad" Being Formulated

The Fourth Annual European Culture Tour, sponsored by Bloomsburg State College, will be conducted this summer from July 11th through August 18th. The Program Director is Edson J. Drake, Associate Professor of History at Bloomsburg State College.

Tour Nine Countries

The tour will cover 9 countries in 39 days. Participants will leave from Kennedy Airport on Monday, July 11th. The countries they will be visiting during the tour are England, Scotland, Holland, East Germany, West Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, and France. Students will see many points of interest in each country and will have the opportunity to visit several university campuses before returning to the United States.

The tour may be taken for 6 undergraduate credits in Social Studies 204 or 6 graduate credits in Social Studies 504. Mr. and Mrs. Drake will accompany the students as chaperones. The tour is open to college students and in-service teachers who, in the judgment of the Director, qualify on the basis of their academic achievement and personal characteristics. Applications will be welcomed from students in any accredited institution of higher learning. Additional information may be obtained by writing Edson J. Drake, Associate Professor of History, Bloomsburg State College, Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania.

Chamber Quartet To Appear at BSC

The Curtis String Quartet, a highly-regarded chamber music group, will perform in the Fifth Annual Spring Arts Festival on April 30th at 8:15 p.m. Three of the original group, organized in 1927, Messrs. Aronoff, Brodsky, and Cole are members of the present Quartet. Geoffrey Michaels, a distinguished violinist, joined the Quartet last year. The Curtis Quartet has given more than two thousand concerts throughout the United States and Europe.

The Curtis String Quartet has performed at the White House and at the Silver Jubilee of King George V. In 1954 the Quartet was awarded the Philadelphia Art Alliance Medal. In the summer of 1961, they were Quartet-in-Residence and taught at the International Institute of Music held on campus of Inter-American University in Puerto Rico. For the past three summers they have been Quartet-in-Residence at Pennsylvania State University.

Each season the Quartet plays three concerts at the Free Library in Philadelphia to capacity audiences.

Fall Semester Dean's List Released

Test-taking one way to Dean's List.

One hundred forty BSC students have achieved recognition for their scholastic efforts last semester by making the Dean's list. Dean John Hoch released this week the list of those students who compiled a 3.5 or higher average last semester and who have a 3.0 cumulative average.

Twelve January graduates are included in the listing.

Five Percent

The figure represents approximately five per cent of the total fulltime student enrollment. The list was released after careful

MRA Elections

The petitions for Men's Residence Association offices will be accepted during the week of March 28th-April 1st. The offices are president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. Qualifications are as follows: the candidate must have a 2.0 cumulative average and a 2.3 previous semester, and entering his junior year in September, 1966. The vice president, secretary, and treasurer must be entering their sophomore or junior years in September, 1966.

Summer Jobs

Students are reminded to check the lists on the bulletin board outside of the Dean of Men's office in North Hall. Several jobs are available for now and for the summer.

The Day Women's Association celebrated St. Patrick's Day with a "dessert" served from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Day Women's Lounge in the Basement of Ben Franklin. Refreshments included ice cream and cakes. Mrs. Lola Hunsinger was in charge of the program.

Attention: All off-campus resident men should pay their rent for the last nine-week period of the spring semester on or before March 20, 1966.

Topic: Elections

Election time is here once again! As the college community prepares to go to the polls next week, we feel that it is necessary for us to clarify the role of the college newspaper in campus politics.

As is common knowledge, financial support for this publication comes mostly from the Community Activity Fee. In other words, students must buy the school newspaper. For this reason, we feel that it would be a very serious breach of journalistic ethics for this paper to take a stand, pro or con, on any candidate for any office.

Independent Paper

An independent newspaper is free to express opinions concerning its choice of candidates in elections. If people do not agree, all they need do is discontinue buying the paper. However, at BSC students cannot do this, and for this reason this publication will remain strictly a neutral party in the upcoming elections. While remaining neutral, we will always endeavor to give full, impartial coverage to the political scene.

Staff members of this paper are students with their own opinions and with varying degrees of political involvement. We assert our right to hold our opinions and to participate in the democratic process, while at the same time pledging to remain neutral in the pages of this paper and to report political happenings in an unbiased manner.

Vote!!

The only comment we will make on the election situation is to sincerely urge the entire college community to cast their ballots in next week's elections. BSC is only as strong as its components, in this case students, faculty, and administrators. The obvious way to keep BSC strong is to join together in voting in order to strengthen the democratic process.

Topic: Social Frats

The Board of Trustees of Bloomsburg State College meets in regular session today. One item on the agenda is the question of whether or not social fraternities should be allowed on this campus. The Maroon & Gold would like at this time to declare its unqualified support of the concept of social fraternities.

Students Complain

This publication has joined with the vast majority of BSC students in the past in complaining of the lack of variety of campus social activities, togetherness, friendship, and a definite lack of school spirit. We believe that social fraternities will act to bring this campus together.

Fraternities — A Boon

Fraternities could provide a variety of social activities which would benefit the entire college community. Examples of this can be found in a number of undertakings by the Social Improvement Organization, such as hayrides, dances, and special entertainment, e.g. the Jones Boys concert of tomorrow night. Special weekends and big name entertainment events are regular occurrences on campuses where social fraternities exist. Fraternities, by their very nature promote brotherhood, loyalty, and trust. Fraternities foster a healthy competitive spirit of inter-fraternity rivalry. Fraternities nurture school spirit, as witnessed by the resurgence of student pep with the formation of the Social Improvement Organization. Finally, fraternities can serve as effective vehicles for the expression of citizenship and service through book drives, blood drives, etc.

Critics of social fraternity establishment at BSC, have alleged that the inception of social fraternities will mean an immediate breakout of a rash of drunken orgies. We feel that the drinking problem would be non-existent because of the state drinking laws and their prohibition of drinking at a state college. In addition, to use the Social Improvement Organization once more as an example, a number of Social Improvement Organ- by this group which we have attended( e.g. hayrides and dances) have proven to us that a good time can be had without alcohol.

"Weekend Warriors"

The failure of other means to promote a variety of social functions, unity, and school spirit is evidence by the number of "weekend warriors" making the trek home every weekend, the large number of complaints of BSC's social life, and the big lack of school spirit. We feel that social fraternities should be allowed on campus, if only to alleviate these problems.

Social Freedom — a guiding principle

Finally, this publication has stood on social and academic freedom as its guiding principles this year. We sincerely feel that, since students pay money and come to BSC of their own free will, they should have the right to join together in fraternal organizations if it is their desire. We earnestly implore the Board of Trustees to consent to the establishment of social fraternities on the BSC campus.

"Truth And Justice" Are Removed— BSC To Find Them A New Home

The plaintiff cry was murmured by many students as they watched the workmen outside Husky. Piece by piece, the "immortal ladies" housing came down. For 96 years, Truth and Virtue have sat there, immortalized in glass, watching the changing scene. It looked like progress was finally phasing them.

Why Were They There?

On a plaque in Noetting Hall, it tells why the Tiffany Windows were there. It reads: "Truth and Justice — 1870 — presented to the Bloomsburg State Normal School by its alumni to commemorate the graduation of its 50th class of teachers and the 44th year of educational service to the commonwealth by David Jewett Waller Jr. As principal of the State Normal Schools at Bloomsburg and Indiana and as state superintendent of public instruction. With culture and efficiency as educational aims, he placed character, honor, right living and high ideals above every material success." They were placed there for a noble thought in a past century.

The value and rarity of stained glass windows is a dual one. First, there is the aesthetic value; their gift of serenity has caught the student's eyes for many years. Secondly, a monetary value must be considered: this one, like the first, is unestimated at present. These windows are well known. But, four others have been hidden on the back stairs of Noetting. All of them are treasures that are being removed.

A Happy Ending

But, high on Mount Olympus a new home is almost finished. It will house the knowledge of the ages in bound volumes. Here, the Tiffany windows will also find what is hoped will be a permanent home. The students did not know that their new place was planned from the first plans of the architect. Yes, "the ladies" are moving but, unlike most stories, this one—like a child's tale — does have a happy ending.

WCNR Initiates BSC Campus Report

Bloomsburg State College is now on the air waves! Every second-Sunday at 2:05 P.M., a different view of college is pursued by radio station W.C.N.R.

On the last program, there was a spot featuring the Spring Arts Festival. The chairwoman, Miss Susan Rusinko told the radio audience the purpose and the upcoming events during the week. During the last few years, W.C.N.R. has given close coverage of this event. Now, it has a regular slot for this type of program.

Educational

More than events are covered by this radio program. It is trying to give a comprehensive picture of our college community. It is in essence an educational program. It deals with publicizing events and programs and helping other people become acquainted with our college.

Mr. Reilly, News and Program Director, in an interview said the following about the program: "Since the program went on the air, the 20th of February, we have discussed such things as policies, admissions, and admittance requirements with Mr. Bender and Mr. Walker. Prior to the State Wrestling Tournament, the guest was Mr. Russ Houk. Dr. Adams and Mr. Thompson related facts about the summer institute program sponsored by the National Defense Educational Act. This week the program will include the Spring Arts Festival and the Maroon & Gold. We also expect to cover CGA with Gill Gockley and Dean Riegler."

Cooperation Noted

Jim Reilly also commented upon the excellent co-operation that was given him. Dr. Andrus and the Administration were very helpful in getting the program off to a good start. So many people like Mr. Buckingham and Mr. Dietrick, in the Public Relations Department, gave him invaluable aid. Time and energy from many faculty members and department heads was given in order to participate in this program.

This program will be an asset not only to the whole college com-

Waller Hall Gives Home to "Bertha"

Alfred Hitchcock, it seems is appreciated as a master of suspense, intrigue, and the eerie. But, the campus of BSC has managed to top the master by the still sought-after country-mile. No, not in its showing of his "Psycho," but in the recent art exhibit in Waller Hall Lounge.

As We Contemplate —

Anyone who has come through the tunnel from the Commons after eating a meal, or who has come from Husky after having lunch is sure to have noticed a certain 'creature' who stands before him and watches over him as he attempts— usually unsuccessfully — to digest his food. This 'creature,' no laggard in the food department herself, 'provocatively' enticing to any who passes by, displaying her charms in no uncertain terms. Some of the incidents are watching apprehensively for the Magical Moment when "Big Bertha" becomes a reality — they even have a dink and name-sign ready (and a complete wardrobe, size 24½). They have left the Hometown line on the name-sign blank, thought, as they are not sure where she-it-Bertha has come from (where she is going, or what she is doing where she is now).

Is She From . . .

It has been surmised, by some of her midwives, that she is a mermaid fetus, developed by some freak of an atomic explosion in some South Sea island mud pit, and was too weak (Would you believe—?) to break free of the plaster semi-shell that imprisoned her for some eight years.

. . . Or — — —

Others believe that it is the product of a demented murder scheme out of the Chicago region a la '28, wherein some doxie was no longer required as an employee of some Bheer Bharon, and was taken care of by dropping her in a fresh cement tub, which, by some quake of Fate, landed in the garbage pile of the Chicago outskirts, being found by some bearded-type fellow, who insisted that it had to "pop" art, and therefore spent his life, livelihood, and life savings, seeing that She got a proper home — as is only humanitarian in its intent, but sadistic in its accomplishments — in some Great and Famous art exhibit. Jealousy Sets In (?)

She must be feared by some of the co-eds, too, for she is one of the most talked about females on the campus — nay — in the region. She may well be tomorrow's Mother Image: today Whistler's Mother, tomorrow — Her. Or, she may become the bane of the campus, if her intents are vicious, and as degraded as her expression seems to be; we may suddenly be living in a 1966, where Big Sister/Big Bertha/Big Thing/Big Radioactive Mermaid/Big Murdered Mistress/Big Mother Image Is Always Watching.

At least it has one 'positive(?)' effect. There have been very few couples spending their evenings there since she took up her residence.

community, but to many of the listeners. Through these efforts, we now have a voice on the air waves.

Comedy to Close Players' Season

The Bloomsburg Players will present "You Can't Take It With You," a comedy by George S. Kaufman, as the opening program of the 1966 Spring Arts Festival, in Carver Auditorium, April 21st, 22nd, and 23rd at 8:15 p.m.

Large Cast

A large cast from the rank of the Players will be portraying some of the most unpredictable characters ever seen on the stage of Carver Hall, including Luton Houtz as Grandpa Vanderhof, the merry and zany who rules the roost of the Sycamore Family; Diane Spielman as Penelope, who decided on a writing career because a typewriter was delivered to the house by mistake; Glen Landis as Boris, the ballet teacher and Karen Leigh Saunders as Essie, his pupil for a mere eight years.

Paul and Mr. DePinna, who manufactures fireworks in the basement of the Sycamore home, will be played by Brian McLernan and David Schmaars respectively, and Russell Walsh will act the part of Ed, who is a printer when he isn't playing the xylophone. Jan Feimster and Howard Kearns will supply the love interest, in the roles of Tony and Alice.

While Tony's dignified parents, who accidentally wander into the mad Sycamore household for dinner on the wrong evening, will be played by Richard Sherman and Carole DeWald.

Other important roles will be played by Marcella Douglas, Tim Lavelle, Bill Kelly, Jean Kleiser, Joe Lyons, James Windt, and Sharon Repp. This will be the last show presented by the Players this season.

BSC's MRA Hosts ESSC's Delegation

Recently Mr. Gene Martin, Dean of Men at East Stroudsburg State College, and the officers of their Men's Residence Association visited BSC in order to study the operation of our MRA. Members of the delegation met with our officers in the morning, lunched in the Commons, toured the campus and attended Tuesday's assembly program where they heard the campaign speeches of the CGA candidates.

Madrigal Singers Present Concerts

The BSC Madrigal Singers continue their busy concert season tonight with a performance for the North Central District Chorus. Mr. William Decker, the group's director, feels this invitation is a special honor for the organization.

This semester has given the Madrigal Singers several occasions to perform. Highlights have been programs at the Walden School in New York City, the Annual District meeting of School Superintendents in Towanda, Penna. and a convention held at the Caldwell Consistory.

New members of the group are Christine Sloan, soprano from Lancaster, and James Fargus, tenor from Williamsport. These people are replacing Karen Leffler and Ray Schneider who are student teaching this semester.

All articles, poetry, and press announcements must be submitted no later than 4:00, Monday, March 28th for publication in the April 1st issue of the M&G. Submit to Box 58, Waller Hall.

By Ray Buckno

A few words to the baseball team, "last year was last year, this year is this year." Sounds ridiculous, Yes. But, then No. In reality last year is history and is the past; and with the past many feats of certain players can be rehashed in the minds of all BSC students. But those facts of the past cannot help the baseball team to capture this year's title in baseball.

Last year's team was a great team, this was proved to all of us in the manner that the players gained BSC the State Conference Baseball Championship. But we cannot rest on our laurels of the '65 championship team.

All the boys involved realize this as do the coaches, I hope. If not then they will end up the strongest team in the league, last place finishers holding up the remainder of the league. As this columnist sees it, we do have the men to repeat the task of last year and if not, then to finish a close second.

Sure we will miss some of the big bats of the past, but with determination and all out performances on the part of the entire team we can come through with another good showing. Along with the boys and their best efforts goes the task of sound judgement and good coaching to repeat as winners.

If the above two pre-requisites are carried out then we will have a winning baseball team, but remember it is easy to say you tried but the end results of victory show if you tried more than 100%. It is this 100% plus that makes winners.

With all these ingredients comes the familiar harping of whether or not the team has fans backing them up and cheering them on to victory. I feel this ingredient will be present for baseball fans are diehards and will always be there to back their team and our students are a little bit better than diehards. They are the best supporters in the State College Conference and have proven this many times. I am sure that they will be there again this year, for everyone likes to back a winner and BSC's baseball team is not only a winner but State Champs.

All totaled up, I feel that this should be another banner year, all the way around from the team, the coaches and the students in the stands. About these students across

Frosh Win Plebe Tourney; Cunningham, Grady Champs

The BSC freshmen wrestlers were the undeclared leaders at the West Point Tournament and produced two individual champions, Dave Grady and Mike Cunningham. Altogether, a total of 168 wrestlers from 21 schools participated in the meet. Official team scores were not recorded, but the unofficial rating had the Huskies in front with 52 points, ahead of Lehigh with 47, Maryland, 38 and West Point, 35. Second-place Lehigh finished with four individual champions, but the Huskies gained the advantage by capturing a second, three thirds, and a fourth place.

Dave Grady, 160, decisioned Yale's McEwan in overtime in his title bout. Earlier, he defeated the Plebe's Nardotti 7-0 in the semifinals. In the 177 title match, Mike Cunningham won a 6-4 decision over Dingher of West Point, having beaten Umberger of Maryland in the semifinals 2-0. After decisioning RIT's Raines 4-1 in the semifinals, Kurt Grabfelder lost an overtime decision to Lehigh's 130 champ Moore in the finals for a second place.

Three third places were taken by Huskies Ron Russo, Leo Mundy and George Jenkins who lost out in the consolations. Russo dropped a 4-2 overtime decision to Lehigh's Moore but then defeated RIT's Raines, 11-5. Mundy lost a 7-2 decision to Gilead of Maryland but won a 7-4 victory in the consolations. In the 167 bout, Jenkins was pinned by Penn's Smith. Also wrestling at 167 for the Huskies, Fred Kressler dropped a 15-5 decision and lost again to teammate Jenkins in the consolations for a fourth place.

from the SIDELINES

Mr. Earl Voss and Dean Elton Hunsinger recently attended the NCAA Basketball championship at the University of Maryland. Mr. Voss represented BSC at the championship, while the Dean of Men was the guest of Mr. Bill Foster, head basketball coach at Rutgers University. Mr. Foster was a successful basketball coach at BSC a few years ago.

Are our sister colleges showing good sportsmanship? Up until last year, the NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Association) had a ruling considering freshmen eligibility in varsity competition. According to their rules any member school with a male enrollment of over 750 should not allow freshmen men. But this makes no difference since all our schools now have over that number of males.

The point that I would like to illustrate is that Bloomsburg, Millersville, and West Chester are the only schools which have faithfully followed the 1964 decision. Is it fair that only 3 out of 14 colleges abide by a ruling which they all are now required to follow?

Up until two years ago West Chester was the only one of the 14 State Colleges which used this ruling in their athletic program. The reason being that many of the other colleges had under the required, male enrollment. However, by 1964, five of the eastern division colleges: Bloomsburg, Shippensburg, Millersville, East Stroudsburg, and West Chester, had expanded to the point that they were now affected by the NCAA restrictions. These schools agreed that beginning in September of 1964 they would all restrict freshmen from the varsity. The other nine sister colleges still used freshmen due to their own various reasons.

Then by 1965, with the exception of Lock Haven and Cheyney, all the State Colleges had enrollments sufficient enough to come under the NCAA freshmen ruling. Therefore, the PSCAC (Pennsylvania State College Athletic Conference) modified its policies requiring all members to make freshmen ineligible beginning in the fall of 1966. Meanwhile, the NCAA changed their ruling to 1250 or over male enrollment...

The annual Men's Smoker sponsored by the Men's Residence Association will be held Tuesday, March 29th. An evening program will be held in Carver Auditorium with the entertainment chaired by Mike Heltz.

Varsity Matmen In NCAA Match

After choosing not to attend the NAIA wrestling championships to defend their national title, the BSC varsity wrestling team will send four men to the NCAA wrestling tournament held this year at Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa on March 24, 25, and 26.

Representing BSC will be Jim Rolley, Tom Vargo, Joe Gearst, and Barry Sutter. Both Rolley and Vargo are seniors and two-time PSCAC state champs, while Gearst and Sutter are sophomores who took second and first, respectively in the state meet this year.

This will be the first time since 1960 that the Huskies have entered the NCAA tournament, as a team.

Monday, March 28th, 1966, at 8:00 p.m. the Association of Resident Women will hold the annual Installation of Officers ceremony in the College Commons.

All seniors including August graduates must complete their folders in the Placement Office immediately. Anyone neglecting to do so may find their chances jeopardized as incomplete credentials can not be forwarded to school districts.

SHE: I can picture my mother right now—all alone, by the telephone... wondering where I am... and how I am... and if I am going to call her.

HE: Why don't you?

SHE: And ruin the picture?

Yes—and ruin the picture. Parents—especially mothers—worry. Often for no reason. They like to be reassured. A telephone call is the best way to do it.
