Events Announced for Alumni; Class Dinner Highlight of Day

Alumni of Bloomington State College will meet in reunion tomorrow. Informal get-togethers, Reader's Theater, a luncheon, meetings and reunions, open house, and dinners will highlight the day-long activities.

Informal Get-together

Following an informal get-together from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m., the Bloomington Players and Alpha Psi Omega fraternity will present "Through the Ages" to an audience of alumni. This Reader's Theater presentation is in charge of Mr. Michael J. McHale.

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Alumni Association will be conducted after a luncheon in the College Commons. Class Reunions and Open House will occupy the remainder of the afternoon and will precede the various class dinners.

The Class of 1916 will hold their Fifty-year Reunion this evening when they will be guests of the Alumni Association at dinner in the College Commons. Members of the Classes of 1911 and 1915 are also invited to attend the dinner. In addition, the Class of 1916 has scheduled breakfast at Hotel Magee at 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning.

The success of scheduling the event in early May last year resulted in the continuation of this practice this year. The early date was adopted in consideration of those alumni who are serving as teachers and who are involved in various activities of their respective schools as graduation approaches.

Will Be Class's

Unlike other years, classes will be held as usual tomorrow, according to an announcement by the Dean of Instruction.

BSC Hillel Society Becomes Active

The BSC chapter of Hillel, the national society for Jewish students, has been active since the fall semester, 1965-66. Besides co-sponsoring guest assembly speaker Rabbi Stephen Schafer last semester, the Hillel Society has had a Chanukah party with the Bucknell U. chapter, a Sunday bagel & box brunch at the Beth Israel Synagogue in Bloomington, and at their last meeting had as their guest speaker Rabbi Robert Miller of Congregation Beth Israel, Hazleton.

Recognition Gained

The BSC chapter gained regional recognition as well as support from the Bloomington B'nai Brith by attending the Lehigh Valley Hillel Institute. At the Institute, clubs in eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey formed a Regional Coordinating Committee for activities in this area.

Elected officers of BSC's Hillel Society include: Mark Goldman, president; Mark Frankel, vice president; Janice Tapper, secretary; Allen Baum, treasurer, and Terry Aronson, regional committee representative.

The following changes for the 1966 Summer Session have been announced by the Dean of Instruction.

Pre-Session: Add, Math. 116—Introductory Statistics; Cancel, Bus. Ed. 321—Intermediate Accounting I.

Main Session: 8:00 a.m., 9:40 a.m., and 11:20 a.m., add: Math 211—Analytic Geometry.

APO Helps Make BSC "Number 1"

Dick Fulmer; Marty Kester, president of APO; Turtle, and trophy.

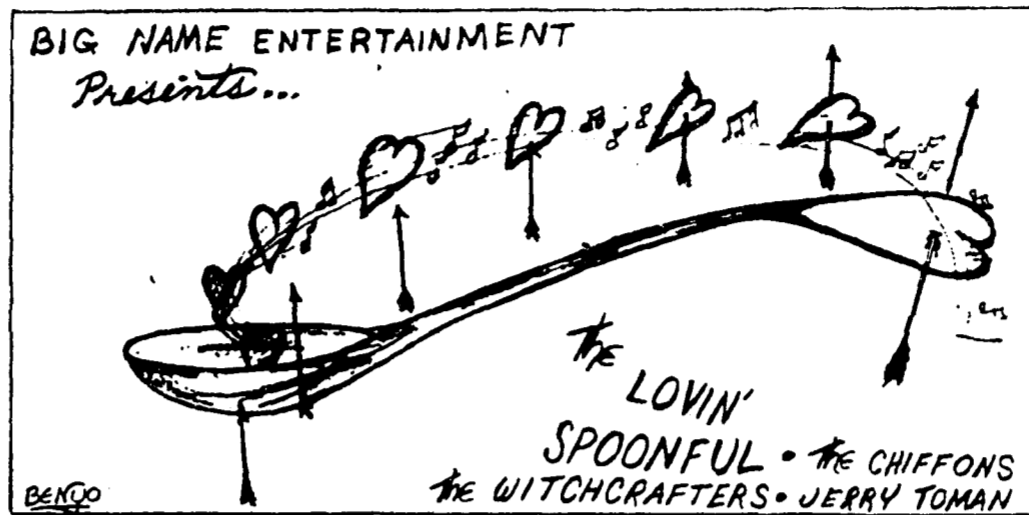

BSC achieved still another distinct honor last week in the world of sports. "We're Number One" signs once again were in evidence in Husky Lounge and other conspicuous spots around the campus. Student morale climbed to a new peak as students resounded the praises of the latest campus hero.

The object of the feverish excitement was the turtle—yes, turtle—owned and bred by the Lee Viard Turtle Stables, which represented Alpha Phi Omega at the North East Invitational Turtle Tournament at the University of Connecticut. The turtle earned the title of "Fastest Turtle in the East" by becoming the Grand Champion of the tournament. The victorious reptile was accompanied on the trip to Connecticut by Dick Fulmer, a brother of APO.

Anyone listed by the Dean of Instruction's office as a possible academic casualty at the end of this semester will automatically be dropped from the dormitory housing list for the next college term. This will enable the Business Office to facilitate the billing of dormitory residents.

CGA Big Name Entertainment Cm. Announces Spring Weekend Concert

Big Name Entertainment will start Spring Weekend with a three hour concert featuring the Lovin' Spoonful, the Chiffons, the Witchcrafters, and Jerry Toman. Tickets are $2.50, general admission, and $3, reserved, for the concert of Friday, May 13th, at 8:15, in Centennial Gym.

Lovin' Spoonful

The Lovin' Spoonful is a vocal group noted for a variety of styles ranging from the Liverpool beat to modern folk-rock. Numbered among their hits have been "Do You Believe In Magic?", "You Didn't Have To Be So Nice," and "Daydream." They also have a hit album to their credit, entitled "Daydreamin'."

Chiffons

The Chiffons are another popular vocal group. They are best known for such hits as "One Fine Day" and "He's So Fine." The Witchcrafters are one of the finest instrumental and backup groups in the recording field. Jerry Toman, a promising comedian will complete the list of acts slated for this concert.

Must Be Successful

CGA vice president Dan Guydish, chairman of the Big Name Entertainment stressed the necessity for each student to support this venture. He explained that any profits realized from the sale of tickets will be divided among BNE and the four classes. Guydish pointed out that a number of class undertakings have not been too successful, and that financial success of this concert is imperative if high class dues and assessments are to be avoided. These dues could run anywhere from $20-40, if the combined BNE-class venture fails.

History Fraternity To Be Organized

An organizational meeting for a new Social Studies fraternity, Pi Gamma Mu, will be held at 3:00 on Tuesday, May 10, in Room 33 of Science Hall. The purpose of the meeting is the approval of a constitution and the election of officers for next year. Any student who is majoring in some area of Social Studies and who will have completed three elective courses by the end of this semester is eligible for membership. All students who did not attend the first meeting but are interested in joining the fraternity are urged to come. Those who cannot attend may put their name and box number in Box 1204, New North Hall, and they will be contacted later about membership.

Student Speakers Travel to Festival

Six BSC students under the direction of Miss Janice Youse attended a reading festival at Penn State University last week. The group, which entered both the prose and drama divisions of the program, was comprised of Carol Dewald, Janice Feimster, Patricia Rhodes, Ella Knittle, Tim Shannon, and Larry Carter.

Prose Division

In the prose division, Carol Dewald read, "How to Talk to a Man" from The Snake Has All the Lines by Jean Kerr; and Tim Shannon read Patrick Henry's "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" oration of 1776.

Drama Division

In the drama division, Carol Dewald, Janice Feimster, Ella Knittle, and Patricia Rhodes presented Act I, Scene I, of The Women by Clare Booth; and Janice Feimster and Larry Carter presented Act I, Scene I, of Caesar and Cleopatra by George Bernard Shaw.

The group received individual certificates for their participation in the program, in addition to very favorable comments on their readings.

Gam'a Theta Upsilon Inducts New Pledges

The Delta Chapter of Gamma Theta Upsilon, the national geography fraternity on campus, inducted new members at its April 21st meeting. New members include: Verda Belles, Edwin Charles, William Kelchner, Christine Kowalski, Austin Kurtz, Richard Leahy, Darlene Schlegel, Mrs. Harriet Watts, Kenneth Weaver, and Sally Williams.

Registrar Injured In Auto Accident

Mr. Robert Bunge, BSC Registrar, was seriously injured when his Volkswagen was struck broadside by a truck last week at the Esplanade-Lightstreet road intersection.

Injuries

Mr. Bunge sustained fractures of the left leg and hip, the clavicle, and the pelvis in addition to abrasions. He is not expected to return to his duties this semester, but those students who would have had business with Mr. Bunge as Registrar can find instructions elsewhere in this edition.

Concern

In a conversation with the M&G, Mrs. Bunge said that the many calls and expressions of concern for her husband are much appreciated, but wished also to request that interested friends wait until at least the middle of next week before calling on Mr. Bunge.

Editor's note: The staff of the M&G joins with the students and faculty of BSC in wishing Mr. Bunge a speedy recovery.

AAUW Plans Tea For Sr. Women

The American Association of University Women, Bloomington Branch, will entertain all senior women at a tea and reception to be held in East Hall Lounge on Thursday, May 19th, after the Honors Assembly, from 3:30 to 5:00 p.m.

For Sr. Women

The tea is in honor of all Bloomington State College senior women who, upon graduation, are eligible for membership in the national organization.

The reception will provide an opportunity for senior women to obtain information about the purpose and organization of the American Association of University Women.

Topic: Alumni Day

Welcome alumni! That seems to be the message this weekend. It is futile to list all the physical changes that will meet the eyes of the BSC graduates returning for this event. Instead, we would like to direct attention to a more tangible change on this campus. We are speaking of the forward-looking attitude which has taken root at BSC.

Better Communications

We feel that the most noticeable indication of this change can be felt in student-administration relationships. While we have certainly not reached the Utopian stage, we have made a number of important and significant steps in the right direction. The two most notable examples are to be found in the special edition of this publication which appeared earlier this week. The Standards Committee is, in our opinion, the most important piece of legislation passed by College Council and approved by the administration in this or any other college year. This opens a whole new field of student responsibility unheard of in previous years.

Revision Undertaken

The second example we speak of is the Constitutional revision now being undertaken. If adopted by the Community Government Association, these measures will give much more flexibility to our Constitution and method of self-government. We commend both the College Council and the administration for the progressive attitude which is necessary to produce changes of this magnitude.

Unchanged Tape Snarl

As previously stated, things aren't all roses. A number of matters still fall prey to that old foe of speedy progression, RED TAPE! We are speaking of such matters as social fraternities, campus radio station, etc. We are not saying that delays are bad, rather that they seem a roadblock to progress of students in a hurry. Reflection is necessary to insure going forward rather than back. Still, things seem to pass slowly.

Faculty and Tests

The faculty hasn't changed much. The average alumnus returning to campus will be able to identify most with a number of policies followed by instructors: tests are still being given during weeks like Spring Arts Week (a factor limiting attendance at the festival); faculty members are still very strict, unreasonably so at times, about cuts; busy work still fills much of the time between class meetings; personal opinions are still kept in the background. The faculty has its bright side, too. The overall quality of instruction has improved in recent years. Academic facilities have also improved and are in the process of continued improvement.

A New View

And so Mr. Alumnus, we have tried to give you a picture of the change of attitudes at BSC. We do not wish to give the impression that we are growing complacent, for we will continue to strive for greater social and academic freedom here. We will admit that we have it a lot better than you did, but we hope that you will recognize the need for continued progress.

Letters

Dear Miss Gers (Feature Editor):

Thank you for the marvelous review of "You Can't Take It With You." The quality of your article may be compared with the quality of an article written for a poor Jr. High School newspaper. Your plot summary was wonderful but, Moss Hart did such a fine job on the plot that you were very foolish to attempt such a ridiculous approach. Your feeble effort was at least the third try at summarizing the play that has been published in the M&G, frankly we were hoping for something that was at least relevant if not creative.

Maybe I shouldn't be upset, after all you did mention my name in your review, but, I'm upset because there were a lot of people who did good jobs in that play who were neglected because you couldn't distinguish between reviewing and play writing. In the future, if you plan to write a sequel, please read a few good reviews. Maybe you will learn what a review is.

Yours,
Brian B. McLernan

First Come First Served...

Spring Weekend Provides Break; May Prove Test of Endurance —

by Richie Benyo

With the weather coming on as it has been, everyone seems hesitant to call it Spring. But, it has to be pronounced at least once before school is dismissed for the summer — and it shall be: not once, but three times in such rapid succession that it is almost a slur: May 13th, 14th, and 15th — SPRING WEEK-END.

From the schedule of events planned for this year it could be quite a hyperactive—and very successful—weekend, if the weather has the heart to show a little "seasonal temperature."

They've Done It Again!

The Lovin' Spoonful (Aw-right!) takes the stage (and far from the first one out of town) on Friday night at 8:00, backed up by the Chiffons, the Witchcrafters, and Jerry Toman. The Spoonful would be great entertainment by themselves, but with extras involved in the performance, it should be quite a night! (Must take time in the rundown to congratulate the BNE Committee for a job very well done this year in regards to the entertainment presented; there has certainly been some excellent variety, considering the styles of the Four Seasons, the Lettermen, and now the Spoonful!) Sleep-In??

It seems that there will be quite a good turnout for this concert, too. There was a line of "sleep-ins" fourteen hours before the tickets went on sale—a pretty respectably-sized line.

The second event on the schedule encompasses ten and one-half hours: the Annual All-Campus Picnic. This particular event is always looked forward to—Rolling Green Park has one of the Most Exciting roller coasters in the world; the bumper cars there let you get back at that particularly unaffectionate professor with immunity; and if the afternoon is hot, a dunk in the lake (under the pretense of a canoe ride) is very refreshing. A dance in the Lounge tops off the evening.

But, the dancing sneakers can't stop at that. There is also a dance Sunday afternoon.

Permission...

BUT, the highlight of the weekend is "Car Permission." Baby, once in a year opportunity there, and if you forgot to get permission today, well, you're just left out of it all. "The irony of it all—!"

Looks like a good weekend—see ya' there...

....First Publication of Poem....

IT REALLY ISN'T FUNNY

by W. Harmon Wilson

I gave them art and culture and all the abstract.

They became ladies and gentlemen, but couldn't add or subtract.

They read great books and mastered Latin and Greek.

They memorized poems, but found no jobs to seek.

I taught the 3 R's and great pride did I take.

They mastered the tools, but just for mastery's sake.

I taught them vocations and a way to work and to eat.

They became skilled workers, but not socially elite.

I was not well respected because I trained for careers.

But liberal arts teachers expressed great fears.

I taught them to adjust to society and to life.

They became good citizens and without any strife.

I socialized and diluted the vocational and all.

They had concepts and appreciations, and just had a ball.

The many little slow learners never did I slight.

They learned to my surprise, but I neglected the bright.

I shifted to the fast learner to educate the elite.

They surpassed my greatest hopes, and added to my conceit.

Now I teach each student according to his needs.

They all seem to learn, but at different speeds.

I graded by the normal curve, by percentile did I pass.

They all were unhappy, everyone in the class.

I followed school policy and passed all in my class.

Then I tightened my standards so only the bright pass.

I decided at last there is a way in between.

Now I pass them or flunk them as best it may seem.

I practiced democracy and stresses and strains.

They soon walked all over me till I pulled in the reins.

I became real progressive, as a good teacher should do.

They enjoyed drifting aimlessly, but I stopped that too.

I prepared them for college, disregarding their need.

When many didn't go, I began to take heed.

I am again respectable for I prepare for careers.

Artist In Residence; Short Lived Term

What has Vaquero Turcios left with Bloomsburg State College? Or, what has Bloomsburg State College left with Vaquero Turcios? These may seem odd questions to ask of a lecturer who has simply paused for a moment here. Nevertheless, I wonder what, if any, are the answers?

Personalities or Words

Vaquero Turcios recently lectured at the compulsory 2:00 assembly. Those who did not cut that period, or fall asleep, those with interest, probably were left with a little more insight into the art of Spain, perhaps received an impressionistic view of the artist himself, his work, and his country. Do I remember the words of the lecture? Only a few. Do I remember the man, his attitude, his way of speaking, his approach to the subject, his person? Yes, rather well, in fact.

All this may only point out that I am a poor student and listener, and have a poor memory. It may point out something a bit more significant, though. Could it show that people, or personalities, or the individuals we meet are what we most remember—not their words, or academic prowess, or their lectures?

A World Traveler

Vaquero Turcios is a friend of Picasso. He is a world traveler, an intellectual; he exhibited paintings at the World's Fair and stopped here (BSC) to give three paid lectures. He spoke personally to art students commenting on their work, and to Spanish students commenting on their Spanish. He spoke to and socialized with faculty members, and wandered about the school—none of which he was paid for. What does all this mean? It means that, planned or unplanned, Vaquero Turcios has left something at Bloomsburg College. He may have left the art students inspired or depressed, and similarly the Spanish students. He may have been, in lecture, merely informative, a teacher. He may have created some interesting hours for the faculty.

However, if more students had ventured to meet him, he may have created more than this.

There were lectures to be heard, but more, there was a man to be met. How many persons, lecturers, etc., pass through with no such contact? Who knows? He, Vaquero Turcios, was part of your education; did you short change yourself?

But the academic people will soon be in tears.

I accelerated their learning for I have found a way.

They are learning and learning, I am happy to say.

Now I'm looking and searching for a new gimmick or two.

My, oh, my! I must hurry, what next can I do?

Speaking to the Problems of Business Class on problems relating to education, Dr. Seldon included this poem, "It Really Isn't Funny." This was written by a friend of his, Mr. W. Harmon Wilson, Executive Vice President of the South-Western Publishing Company. This poem has not been published as of this date, but Mr. Harmon Wilson has consented to let the Maroon and Gold print it before publication.

Studio Band Ends Successful Term

With the crowning of Miss Eastern Pennsylvania, the BSC Studio Band completed one of its most active and successful years. Under the direction of Dr. Charles H. Carlson, the organization has performed before many audiences both on and off campus.

High School Tours

Throughout the past year the Studio Band has performed before numerous high school student assemblies, including Northwest, Berwick, Bloomsburg, and Lake-Lehman. Assisting the Studio Band at these performances were Ralph Miller, Susan Harper, Jane Ternigan, Becky Ward, Carla Overheiser, Bobbie Tharp, Iva Klingaman, and Ed Austin.

TV Show

Recently the Studio Band videotaped a program for WNEP-TV which will be released at a later date. The thirty minute program presents a variety of BSC talent.

The Studio Band was selected as the official band for the Miss Eastern Pennsylvania Pageant, playing musical scores obtained from the National Pageant in Atlantic City.

An on-campus performance in Husky Lounge provided entertainment to an informal student audience. The performance included a wide variety of music and talent.

Plans for next year are already being formulated and should include more off and on-campus programs, a talent show for incoming freshmen, and another television program.

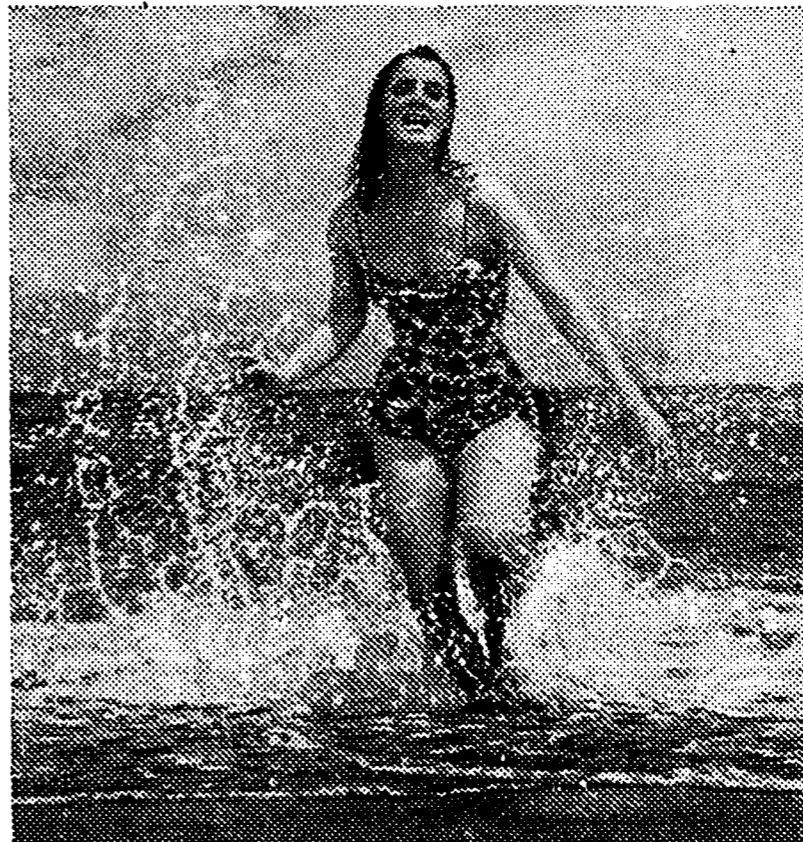

Openings

Dr. Carlson has announced that there will be three openings in the sixteen member group next fall. These openings include one trombone, one tenor saxophone and one drummer. Admission to this group is based upon high interest and the decision of the director.

Officers-elect

Officers elected for the 1966-67 term include: Jim Worth, president; Ron Roberts, vice president; Sandy Ekberg, secretary; Pete Constantine, treasurer, and Rita Marx, librarian.

Take your good time going home.

Fly half-fare on Eastern via Florida.

Florida swings in the spring—but it really swings in the summer.

Lower off-season room rates are in effect. And Eastern will take you to Daytona or Ft. Lauderdale or even Miami for half-fare.

So take a detour and enjoy it on your way home. Or go home first and down to Florida later.

Just use your Eastern Youth ID card, or similar card from another airline. If you don't have such a card, it's a snap to get one—provided you're under 22 and can prove it. For the specifics, stop by a Travel Agent or any Eastern ticket office.

Once you have your card, you can get an Eastern Jet Coach seat for half-fare. You can't make an advance reservation. But if there's a seat available at departure time, you can fly to any Eastern destination within the continental U.S. including Florida.

BSC Trackmen Win Tri-Meet; Lose to Mansfield State 73-71

The Husky trackmen won their first two victories of the season on the same afternoon at the Central High field against Kutztown and East Stroudsburg. The Huskies took ten first and six seconds to put them way in the lead with 76 points. East Stroudsburg had 58 and Kutztown 46.

Figliolino Stars

Competing in four events, Joe Figliolino gave a remarkable performance. After bringing the 440-yard relay team to victory, Joe went on to capture both the 100 and 220-yard dashes, running the 220 in 21.8, his fastest time this season.

In the long distances, Irwin Zablocky took both the mile and two-mile runs and Joe Fazzari had one of his best days with a first in the 880 and a second in the mile behind Zablocky. Joe also ran in the mile relay. The Huskies swept the two-mile, with Tom Gingher and Dick Yost placing second and third and Jim Reifinger took a second in the 440.

Clemm Wins Hurdles

Paul Clemm won the 120 high hurdles and in the 330 intermediate hurdles freshman Tom Huston, competing unofficially, bettered his own record set the week before at Lock Haven by .3 second with a time of 40.0.

Gene Shershen won the javelin and Emerson Schnable took the shot-put. John Zarski finished second in the discus and third in the shot. The high jump was won by John Montgomery with a leap of 6'2" and Otis Johnson took a second in the triple jump. The pole vault ended in a five-way tie at 10'6" when the only available crossbar was broken.

Lose to MSC

The Huskies lost a very close meet 73-71 to Mansfield at the Central High field when they failed to win a first in any of the last three events. The Huskies were in the lead throughout most of the meet, but the Mountaineers went ahead when the Huskies failed to place in the discus and lost the broad and triple jumps through the absence of Otis Johnson.

Joe Figliolino repeated his previous performance by winning the 100 and 220-yard dashes and running the last lap in the 440-yard relay. The Huskies also won the mile relay by forfeit.

Zablocky In Double Loss

The Huskies suffered their first setback when Mansfield's Nichols beat out Irwin Zablocky in the mile and again in the two-mile. Irwin lost the mile by only a tenth of a second.

In the other track events, Jim Reifinger won the 440-yard dash with a time of 54.4 and came in third in the 220. Joe Fazzari took the 880 again in 2:06, bettering his time the previous week by 1.4 seconds. Third places were taken by Fred Rapp in the 440, Dick Yost in

INTRAMURALS

The following Men's Intramural Tournaments have been concluded and the champions determined: Shuffleboard Singles — Joel Buck, Shuffleboard Doubles — Jim Basile and Frank Hagenbuch, Basketball — Giant Killers, Water Polo — State Boys, Table Tennis — Bob Cohen.

The Wrestling Tournament is nearing its conclusion and the champs will be announced in the future.

Events now under way are wrestling, volley-ball, and table tennis doubles.

One night events to be scheduled shortly are swimming and weightlifting.

This department intends to schedule badminton singles and doubles, and horseshoes doubles before the semester ends.

At this time the State Boys have a solid lead in the race for the overall Championship with a total of 25 points, followed by the Celtics with 15 points and the Giant-Killers with 12.

One of the highlights of this Intramural Season was the Water Polo match between the Intramural Champs (State Boys) and the BSC Swimming team members.

In a match witnessed by an excellent turnout of fans the Swimmers were able to edge by the Champs 2-1 in a sudden death overtime period. The State Boys took an early lead and made it stand up until the final dropped it in overtime. The match was exciting and only conditioning enabled the Swimmers to pull through. The State Boys made up for the lack of training, and in some instances, total lack of swimming ability, with an aggressive style of play, and their spirit almost did the trick.

the 880, and Tom Gingher in the two-mile.

The pole vault was won by Wayne Milligan with a jump of 10'6", and John Montgomery went over the bar at 6'2" to take the high jump. John Zarski and Emerson Schnable finished first and second in the shot-put and Gene Shershen placed second in the javelin.

Meet Lost in Final

The Mounties swept all three places in the discus and broad jump to narrow the Huskies lead and in the last event, the triple jump, the Huskies made a last ditch effort with Jim Reifinger and Wayne Milligan coming in second and third.

CLOSE! That's what can be said of the baseball and track losses this season. The ingredient for victory seems to be gone via graduation.

With the baseball team it is evident that the big bats of Ray Emma and Ron Krick (Ron dropped out of school in favor of joining the Detroit Tigers organization, along with marriage), are being sorely missed this season.

The baseball team as of this writing is 3-4 in the won-lost column. This won-lost column could very easily be 7-0 had the team been able to come up with some hits when they were needed as was the case last season. But this season, due to a lack of batting power, the team spots four losses. The total runs which spelled out defeat in these four games comes to five.

There is evidence of good pitching in these games since the difference in runs is close, and the scores have been consistently low. The hope is that the boys will begin to bunch their hits and to capitalize on the opposition's errors in order to come up with a winning season.

As for the track team the same word comes up: CLOSE. But here the word pertains to only two of the four defeats. At the same time, the other two meets could have been much closer had graduation not been as damaging as it was. Along with graduation comes the factor of student teaching. Many of the outstanding men of last year's team are doing their student teaching this semester; and as everyone knows, student teaching, track and "spring" just don't mix. These three activities bring about work and pleasure and cause one to do either a mediocre job or a decent job by concentrating with only one activity and you just don't quit student teaching because then the school quits on you with your marks and that sheepskin.

In any event, if these men could have turned out for the squad, the record might just as well have been the other way around; instead of 3-4 it might have read 5-2. Why? Well, whether you lose a meet by 2 points or 15 points, THAT'S CLOSE.

Golf Team Splits Triangular Meet

Bloomsburg Golfers played Mansfield and Lycoming in a triangular meet Saturday on a cold, rainy day. The meet was held at the Huskies home course of Briar Heights. The Huskies were defeated by Lycoming 12½ to 8½, while at the same time the Huskies defeated Mansfield 14½ to 6½. Al Belly lost to McKay of Mansfield but defeated Cohick of Lycoming. Jack Vasil tied Kalanick of Mansfield but was defeated by Motter of Lycoming. Bill Bloom tied Griffing of Lycoming and won over Kates of Lycoming. Jim Masich tied Baltruchittles of Mansfield but lost to Tyson of Lycoming. Bloomsburg's John Keosnoski defeated Mansfield's Sifes and tied Bobick of Lycoming. Terry Wolters, the only Huskie to win both his matches, defeated Feyer of Mansfield and Fisher of Lycoming. Paul Fowler defeated Stettler of Mansfield but was defeated by Hinderson of Lycoming.

Baseball Squad Splits Twin Bill

The Bloomsburg baseball team once again split a doubleheader. This time they were victorious over Mansfield 5-4 and dropped a 2-1 decision to the same team.

First Game

The first game saw Bob Gibble pitch fine ball, giving up just two runs but his teammates were able to cross the plate only once. Gibble was relieved by Bill Hunter.

Second Game

The second game was a different story as the Huskies won by a score of 5-4. Hunter was the winning pitcher in relief of By Hopkins. Terry Henry was the batting star for the Huskies as he went 4-6 at the plate.

Support Spring Sports.

To put it mildly, the baseball games and the track meets have been CLOSE, but as the Pennsylvania Dutch say, the weather isn't CLOSE.
