Scheduling Explained

Your Own Thing

Bloomsburg State College will have a first on Monday, October 26 when YOUR OWN THING opens the 1970-71 Artists and Lecture Series. YOUR OWN THING is a Rock Musical which won the New York Critics Circle Award, for the Best Musical. Clive Barnes of the N.Y. Times describes YOUR OWN THING "A cheerful, joyfuf and blissfully irreverent musical...as modern as today".

YOUR OWN THING is loosely, very loosely, adapted from all people, Shakespeare's Twelfth Night (but then he adapted that from something else). The new adaptation seems to have worked, for in addition to awards, it played Off Broadway for three years and at one time had three companies on tour in all major cities.

The cast is young, but with a wealth of musical comedy background, some of it gained in the Broadway and touring companies, as well as major musicals on Broadway, film and TV.

Danny Apollinar (co-composer) has a RCA-Victor single of "Flowers and the Middle Years" from the show. Hal Hester, also a co-composer, has his own RCA Album, HAL HESTER DOES HIS OWN THING.

YOUR OWN THING will be rousing, now thing. BSC students receive admission without charge by presenting ID's. Other tickets may be bought at the Stud. Union. The Faculty may obtain tickets or admission with Activities Cards. The public may write or call for tickets to the College or obtain tickets at the door on the evening of the performance. Curtain time is 8:15 in Haas Auditorium, Monday, October 26th.

Student Teaching Meeting

All secondary students who intend to do their student teaching the next academic year, 1971-72, will meet in Carver Auditorium from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 27, 1970, to complete applications. It is extremely important that all students who intend to student teach at this time be present.

Because of the large number of students who intend to student teach next year, it is imperative that applications be made out now.

Those who fail to do so may find themselves in an embarrassing position as far as student teaching assignments go.

Students should know the following information for this meeting: your overall Quality Point Average, your Quality Point Average in your teaching field, and the number of credits you have to date. This is information that every student should be able to figure out for himself.

A open meeting on Scheduling was held Tuesday night in the Bookstore Lounge, on rather short notice, Dean Hoch, Mr. Bunge, and Mr. Davis from the ad hoc Committee on Scheduling discussed the new system in some detail with interested students.

It was pointed out that the purpose of the meetings on Wednesday and Thursday was to determine the number of students who wish to take each course that could conceivably be offered by the faculty present in the Spring Semester. The list of courses in each major, usually similar to the out-dated College Catalog listings, is a reflection of the capabilities of each department at this time.

The information gained by each student listing the courses he wants, will be used by the department chairmen to determine the actual courses that will be offered. This system is preferable to the past system of rotating course offerings or relying on limited student opinion.

Obviously, there are not enough instructors to teach every course that was requested in the first tally. Therefore, decisions will have to be made by the department chairmen as to which of the requested courses will be offered and how many can be offered after the general, multi-section courses are satisfied. It should be pointed out that there will be a better utilization of instructors and more courses offered since the exact number of sections of the general courses can be determined and no more instructors allocated to these than are necessary, leaving more time for upper level courses.

At this time, all students will have to again request the courses they wish to take from the realistic list of choices that can be offered simultaneously. Most students will merely repeat what they listed on the first tally, provided all the courses they requested reappear on the second list (the list of courses that will be offered). Those who asked for courses that could not be offered must then choose from the list of ALL the courses to be offered a replacement for the course or courses that didn't appear. On the old system, if a student didn't get a course he selected there were only a limited number of courses that were open and fit in the student's schedule. On the new system, the courses are chosen first and fit into a pattern by a computer matrix that eliminated conflicts for over 94 per cent of the freshman class that used it to schedule for this semester.

Once this final tally of all students who will be taking courses that were offered basically by student demand is made, then and only then can individual sections and professors be assigned for each course. Since the number and selection of sections cannot be made accurately earlier, it is impossible to choose the exact section for an individual student with the equipment available.

Investigation into systems that can simultaneously schedule courses and instructors is being made. At this time, nothing that can be used here is available, but hopes are high for the future. (Ed. note: it doesn't seem logical that everyone can get all the profs he wants, somebody has to get the duds! Perhaps a system of preference by credits earned can be instituted when the equipment becomes available.)

Under the present system, schedules will be made out seniors - first and so on in such a manner that conflicts in courses (after the second tally) will probably only occur in the sophomore and freshman schedules. The program matrix will try thousands of possible combinations before rejecting a schedule as irresolvable. These schedules will be reentered using the additional choice that students will have provided on the "mark sense" form.

The final determination of the Master Schedule will not be made until several weeks before the Spring Semester begins. Many changes occur between the time that the Master Schedule is made up and the beginning of the semester. The result last year was that almost 30 per cent of the Master Schedule had to be changed during the first week of classes.

A machine can do the difficult, time consuming parts of preparing a Master Schedule in a very short time. Although the overall schedule is still to be done manually, it can be done more accurately and in a much shorter time than on the old system. This will hopefully enable administrators to spend the first few days of class adjusting individual schedules to suit individual needs rather than trying to re-work a Master Schedule with many changes not caused by individual adjustments, but by course and instructor changes in the past.

A committee is being established to re-work the "drop-ad" procedure so that the maximum number of students with reasons to change will be able to do so. CGA President, Mike Pilligalli, will choose students to serve on the committee.

Special consideration will be made for athletes, band members, and others who must have certain periods of the day free. These names will be provided by the advisors of each organization (ex: Russ Houck for Wrestling).

Consideration will also be given to students who work during the day and have schedules that conflict. Employers must certify in writing that the student in question must have certain times free. The validity of reasons for this situation, commuters in car pools, and other problems that will arise is to be determined by the committee.

It is obvious that no system, past or present, will give everyone the exact schedule desired. As always, you have to take your chances.

Hot Box

The Art Department is constructing a new kiln and an outside sculpture area behind the Bakeless Center for the Humanities, according to Mr. Ronald F. Bower, Assistant Professor of Art. The kiln, a device for firing pottery, reaches temperatures as high as 2600 degrees Fahrenheit.

Larger than any that they have had in the past (20 cubic feet), the kiln allows for high-fire stoneware and porcelain to be made. The new kiln uses natural gas instead of electricity as a heat source, allowing for a reduction type atmosphere, which makes it possible to create colors that could not be achieved under normal conditions.

The new kiln was originally planned to go inside Bakeless, but since venting and chimneys created a problem, it was decided to put it outside. It will be in operation as soon as the gas and electricity connections are made.

Fin. Aid Review

Over $2 million in financial aid will be extended to Bloomsburg State College students before the end of the current college year, according to Robert L. Duncan, Director of Financial Aid. Approximately 3,000 or 75 per cent of all undergraduate students will be receiving some form of aid.

The three major loan programs include the State Guaranteed Loan, the National Defense Student Loan, and the BSC Alumni Loan. Over $1 million is to be provided by banks for BSC students through the State Guaranty Loan program.

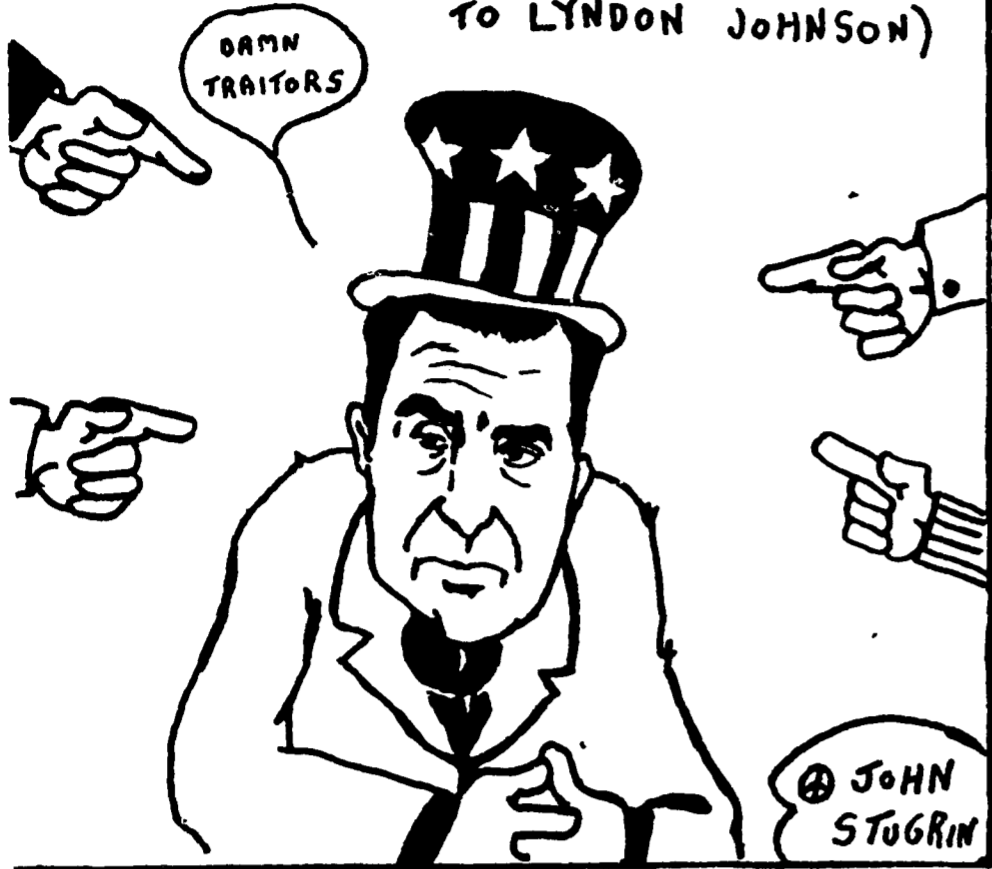

Major Nancy P. Hansen, AMSC (Army Medical Specialist Corps), will be on the Bloomsburg campus on Wednesday, October 28, 1970, in the lobby of Hartline Science Center to talk to interested women students in regard to the Army Physical Therapy Program.

Employment will amount to an additional $300,000 in funds to be distributed to approximately 600 students. This does not include $72,000 paid to student employees of ARA School and College Services in operation of the College Commons.

The most important source of aid to many students is the PHEAA administered State Scholarship. Tentative awards for this year total nearly $900,000, although only the first half of this award has been promised thus far.

Practical Poetry

I had a professor last semester I adored, Mr. Deake Gifford was his name. I enjoyed his class and was never bored, And hoped this semester would be the same.

I read the article in the Morning Press, And it made my heart fill with rage. To know the people will take it as gospel-truth no less, Since it was a "major" item for the front page.

I was sure economics was something to dread, But Porter made it as interesting as anyone can. That's why I can't believe what I read- What may happen to this respectable man.

Then having to set and listen to the Dean tell me That I would have a change next class that met, Was something cruel and I hoped couldn't be. I'm hoping some minds are changed, cause it isn't final yet.

He taught the subject so I could understand. Now isn't that what a teacher is for? I honestly feel that he is being "canned" Aren't teachers kept for their ability anymore?

So what if he changed class with Dr. Skehan? It's the students only that should have bitched. Students weren't denied a class, so what do they mean By relieving them of their duties since they switched.

So you want to get us out of Vietnam? You hate this war, this war in the wrong place at the wrong time.

Well, a lot of people hate war, but they are not confused by the intellectual lies and foul reports that pass as "news."

The people who hate war as much as you, also hate what will happen to the South Vietnamese when the sweet "nationalists," communists as you call them, take over. And take over they will, because the word is out now about what the peacenik solution to the war will be if you have your way. That word is coalition, or death to any South Vietnamese who isn't a communist.

The communists proved that, when they took over the ancient city of Hue during the TET offensive. The sweet harmless "nationalists," as you call them, killed hundreds of peasants with a shot in the head at close range, burial alive, and other agonizing forms of murder, for which the communists are noted.

Let us go back to the reasons why you are so wrong, so reckless with the truth and with the fate of millions.

You say we are killing Vietnamese. You bet your last McCarthy button we are, We are killing communists who have invaded the south with the full intent of taking it over and Sovietizing it. The south will become an unliveable hell. Why do you ignore Hue? Why do you ignore Hue? Why, in lauding the sweet nationalists, don't you call them by their real name, communists? You know, these "nationalists" build walls and kill people, our brothers, who try to escape to freedom. How many times has this happened at the Berlin Wall?

Capsulization of the M&G: ya bend yer nose to the grindstone and all ya get is a whet dream. In case ya haven't noticed, I been away for awhile. Haven't been writing. I've been in the type of mood where all ya want to do is find some young, noble and unmarried teacher and crawl into her virgin recesses. Yeah, this M&G stuff is getting me down. Particularly the letters.

The letters. Lessee, Drucker calls me illiterate (an unsubstantiated claim; I'm not illiterate, I know who my parents are) and then at Pr. Nossen's rap-in he sez the only way to end this polarization is to quit name-calling.

And those letters we get telling us to ditch the peace symbol cuz it's not in the interests of all students. Well, we HAVE ditched the symbol, but only because we can't figger out what to do with it, with the new banner and all. But I shouldn't talk about the peace symbol here, it's not in all student's interests.

Meanwhile I've heard some complaints about my mention of masturbating to "Cheap Thrills." Comments like "Sure everybody does it, but why write about it?" abounds, and I'm not sure whether it means masturbates just plain or everybody does it to "Cheap Thrills." And then there are comments like "That sort of thing ought to be in the GADFLY, not the M&G." Weird. But it's ironic. I mention masturbation and right away everybody wants to beat me.

Yeah, I been depressed. About the usual national stuff. And about Canada at war with itself. I mean, ya'd think with all the U.S.'s experience with war, Canada would ask us for Why have you praised Ho Chi Minh and criticized South Vietnamese President Thieu? Do you know you are praising a bloodthirsty cutthroat who learned everything he knew about killing at the Russian Communist Comintern's school for revolutionaries in Moscow during the 1920's? You didn't know that because Mike Wallace, Eric Sevareid, Huntley and Brinkley, and Walter Cronkite never mentioned it. The Library of Congress mentioned it, back in 1965, when it released his biography. Ask why the liberal news media ignored it. You should be rather angry, because you have been given only the news the media wanted you to have. Still, they and you think he was a great patriot. You say Thieu and Ky are corrupt. You have it ass backwards.

Thieu and Ky are the leaders of a nation whose countryside is filled with refugees who fled from advancing communist tyranny. Thieu and Ky are not corrupt; they represent the last bastion in a divided country for people who don't want to be enslaved under communism. Would you deny these people the right to live their lives in freedom?

Americans are tired of this war. They want to win it; not being subject to the incessant propagandizing of doves, dupes, and soft-headed friends and pacifists of communism, whose voices have been amplified by a news media that doesn't deserve the name. The constant, bloodcurdling misconceptions to get us out of Vietnam are nothing more than those of a mouse with an amplifier. And you think it is the voice of the majority!

Appeasement

I've got this friend who claims he's a hedonist. I asked him what he really meant by that and he told me, "I guess with me it's kind of sexual. I'll take a piece anyway I can get it."

That's the way I feel about the Vietnam war. I'll take a peace anyway I can get it.

The reaction to this, of course, is "ahah, you're for peace at any price. That's just what the enemy wants."

Then I've gotta go through this other rap:

"Whose enemy?"

"Our enemy, The Viet Cong."

"The Viet Cong ever threaten you? Did they ever threaten our American shores? Did they ever drop any bombs on a city YOU were in?"

"No, but we're at war with them and I'm behind my country."

"My representatives in congress didn't vote to declare war on North Vietnam. And personally, I don't believe in rule by Kings."

"Yeah, but we can't let the commies take over any more of the world. It ain't right for people not to be free?"

"O.K., so how come we're screwing around in Vietnam. Why aren't we freeing the Russians. Or the Chinese. There are a hell of a lot more Chinese than Vietnamese for pete's sake."

"We can't attack Russia or China because they've got atomic weapons. You want everyone to get blown up?"

"Well, lets face it, if the communist countries of this world decide to conquer the earth by force we aren't going to hold off 900,000,000 Chinese, 400,000,000 Russians, and a couple of hundred million assorted Yugoslavs, Bulgarians, Cubans, Loreansm East Germans, Czechoslovakians, and so forth without using Atomic weapons, right?"

"We'd have to use them."

"And if we used them, they would, and then the whole world would be free. Free dust particles heading for Alpha Centuri. If it was the only solution, it dropping bombs and shooting people is the only way 20th century earth can find to solve its problems, then one way or another Mr., we are going to lose. If we stick to conventional warfare we're outnumbered and outgunned. The Chinese could paddle over in canoes and we wouldn't be able to drop bombs fast enough to kill them all. And if we go to thermonuclear weapons, of which each side has enough to blow up the earth seven times or so, nobody knows exactly what will happen. But everyone knows it won't be good. For either side.

"Better dead than red."

"That's what I'm saying. IF WAR IS THE ONLY SOLUTION, THOSE ARE THE ONLY CHOICES..DEAD...OR RED. a,d,m.

Patented Peace Symbol?

The U. S. Patent Office has given the go-ahead to a competition for commercial trademark rights to the peace symbol. Two companies, the Intercontinent Shoe Corp. of New York and LUV, Inc. are bidding for exclusive rights to the internationally used symbol, the upside down "Y" in a circle with a bar extending through the fork of the "Y". The sign originated from the semaphore code for Nuclear Disarmament-ND- and was first used in Britain during the ban-the-bomb demonstrations in the late fifties.

The sign is now widely used as an anti-war protest here and abroad, and has been attacked as

Archery

The Men's Intramural Archery Tournament started on Thursday, October 15, 1970. It will continue until completion.

Match shooters must make arrangements with their opponent during the scheduled time. For example, a person in Round 1 must shoot the match with his opponent during the period of October 15 to 22. Matches not shot during the scheduled date will be declared forfeits. It is the responsibility of the winner to notify the Intramural Office that he has won directly after his match.

Each match will consist of the total points of 12 arrows shot at 20 yards and 12 arrows shot at 30 yards. All arrows passing through the target will be scored as 3 points. The method of scoring will be as follows: Bull's Eye Gold - 9 points, Red - 7 points, Blue - 5 points, Black - 3 points, White - 1 point.

Shooters may use their own equipment or, secure it from the Department of Health and Physical Education's Equipment Room.

The women's intermural football teams are off to a great start so far. On Monday, October 19, Team 2 rallied against Team 4, with a final score of 8-6 in favor of Team 2. The score was tied 6-6, until Team 2 received 2 points on a safety, where they tagged Team 4 down in their end zone. The rules of this game are very similar to those of varsity football, with the exception that the girls pull tags off of their opponents belts, which are worn around their waists, instead of tackling each other. Team 2 will continue its plays on Tuesday, October 27th with another game on the president's field.

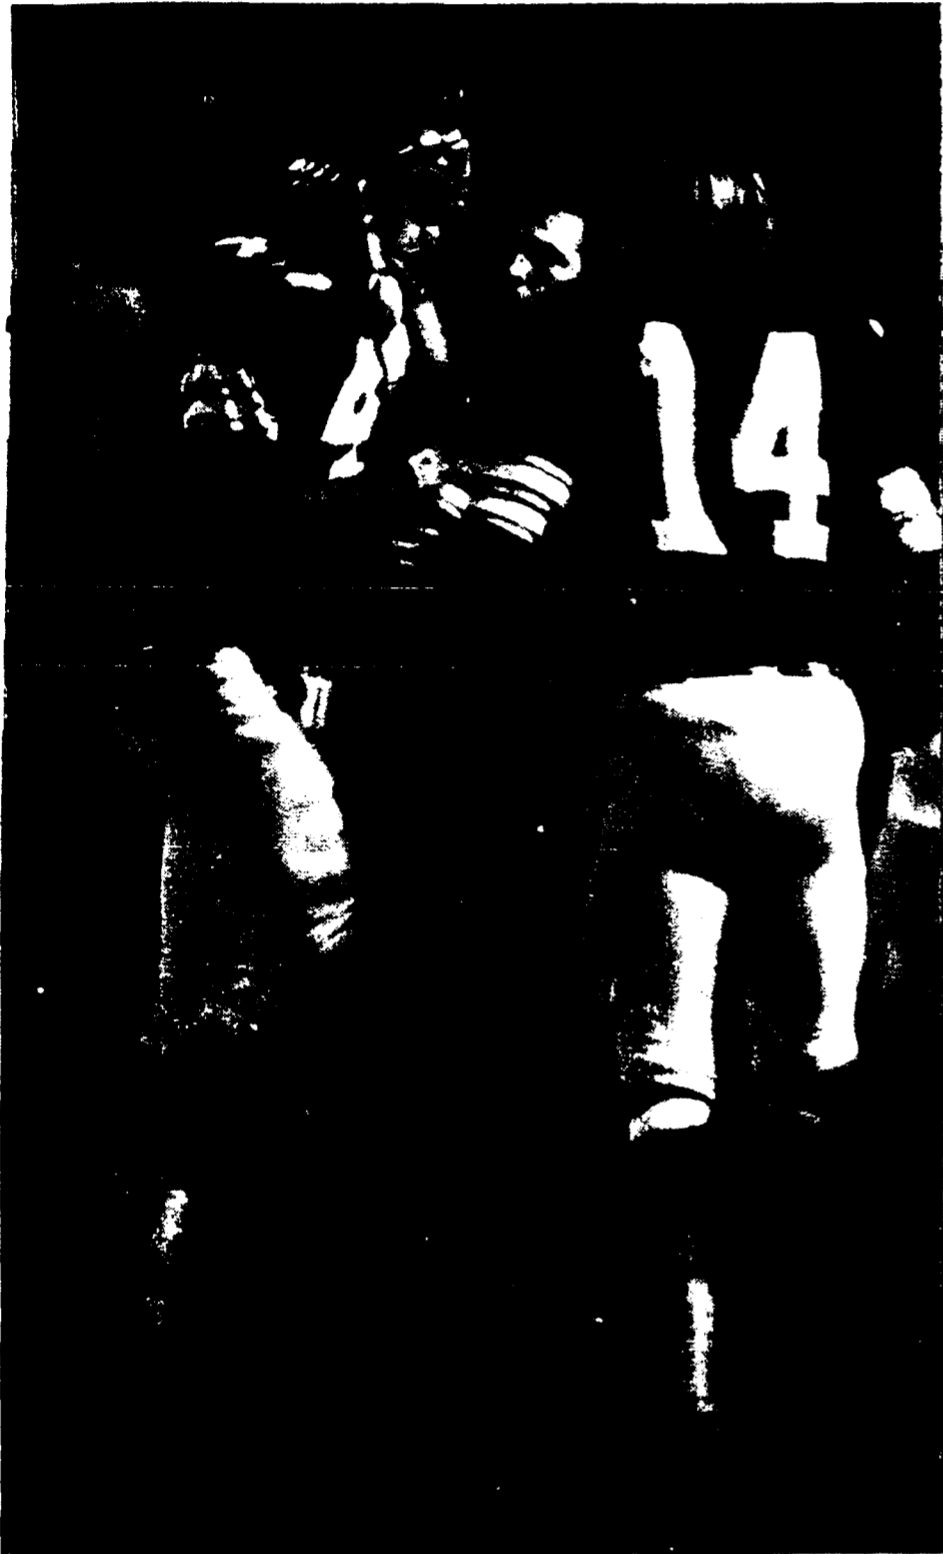

Men's Schedule

John Zarski, Assistant Dean of Men and moderator of Men's intramural football today released the schedule of games yet to be played. They are as follows:

- Monday, Oct. 26, 1970
East Eighth St. vs. A1's
Officials: Lacock, Ciullo, Salbo
- Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1970
North "B" vs. Phi Sigma Kappa
Officials: Massaro, Davies, Pedernana
- Wednesday, Oct. 28, 1970
Third East vs. The Who
Officials: Seaman, Alumni, James
- Thursday, Oct. 29, 1970
Seventh Elwell vs. Sixth Elwell
Officials: Calahan, Madden, Hamilton
- Monday, Nov. 2, 1970
Sigma Pi vs. S.O.B.
Officials: Hassel, Viani, Puhak

Thursday evening October 15 marked the first invitational "Screw your neighbor" card tournament at BSC. Resident men from North and Elwell halls met at 9:30 in the Elwell Hall recreation room for the contest. Participants included veterans John Ficek, Gary Eby, Leo Wisneski and Duke Hoffman, along with rookies Andy Kusma and Phil Brown. Joe Fortembaugh was unable to attend as a result of an injury sustained to his shuffling hand.

The point limit was 250 and any member reaching that quota was eliminated. John Ficek was first to bite the dust with a total of 257 points. Second was Leo Wisneski, who after winning the first 3 hands and winding up with a 249 score yielded with a 262 total. Phil Brown and Gary Eby were the next to be eliminated with scores of 282 and 259 respectively. The finalists were Andy Kusma and Duke Hoffman. After 5 hands of close play, Kusma defeated Hoffman 233 to 268. The first two place finishers will receive T-shirts signify

Harriers Win 6th, Beat Kings 15-43

Bloomsburg State College's cross-country contingent ran its record to 7-1 yesterday afternoon by blanking Kings College, 15-43, at Wilkes-Barre.

Bloomsburg's Terry Lee, who has been finishing second most of the season, poured it on yesterday to take the top spot at 25:49, 10 seconds shy of the course record.

Tim Waechter captured second best showing on a time of 26:33 as three Huskies followed for the first five positions before Chris Farrell of Kings grabbed sixth place.

Paul Pelletier garnered third at 26:35, Larry Horwitz picked up fourth with a time of 27:11 and Charlie Graham came home fifth on a 27:25 showing.

Larry Strohl was the only other Bloomsburg runner to finish in the top ten when he copped ninth position, crossing the finish line at 28:15.

Bloomsburg's only loss came in its first meet against Millersville State College. The locals close out the home campaign tomorrow against Shippensburg.

Friday the men of coach Clyde Noble travel to Mansfield to take on the Mountaineers before the NAIA meet at Millersville next week.

Have you ever looked around to see who is with you in this?

Well, those merry-makers in the Kremlin, who captured a third of the world's population since 1917, by starvation, imprisoning of at least 40 million souls, and mere murder, are with you. They are "nationalists" too. They have sent tanks into Hungary and Czechoslovakia to snuff out the sparks of freedom. And you say we are "imperialists."

Like some Congressmen pointed out, Hanoi is on your side. You have allied yourself to the butchers of Hue. The record of this crime has been documented. There are thousands of recorded incidents of beheadings, dismemberments, and murders. But you couldn't have known that because Chet, David, Walter and Eric never mentioned it. Instead, they were too busy telling stories about napalm and the Dow Chemical Company.

Speaking of Hanoi, if the North Vietnamese are such patriotic nationalists, why are they massing troops in Laos, Cambodia, and Thailand? Why are they doing this? Who is invading whom? Try to put McCarthy, Halbright (Fulbright), and company on the spot into giving us the answers!

North Korea is on your side, too. It constantly sends saboteur teams into South Korea to "nationalize and liberate" it. North Korea also treats American prisoners with the utmost of care. Remember when the crew of the Pueblo tried to tell you the stories of their inhuman treatment by the "peace loving" communists? Just remember, North Korea is rooting for you every time you take to the streets or indulge in your fantasies at a Vietnam Moratorium.

The East European satellites are on your side because they are supplying the tools with which to kill the "imperialistic" Americans and South Vietnamese. Of course, the East Europeans have no choice. Moscow does the choosing. Remember Dubcek? Czechoslovakia?

Look around you again. Why even the clergy is on your side. A tiny, microscopic portion of these disciples of God, who deny Him, who preach of doing your own thing in church, such as "rockin' and a 'rollin'" when you should be a "prayin'", are all for "love" of the communists. The very communists who surpress religion everywhere they crawl.

Who are the scholarly types beside you in the crowd? Professors who wouldn't recognize a communist if one hit them on the head with a hammer and sickle! They counsel draft evasion, SDS courses, and the "corrupt" nature of our government. They have taught many all they know, which isn't much. They teach permissivism and irresponsibility, but fail to teach the real American values or about our representative democracy.

The New York Times is with you, but then, you know all about it. Don't you? This great newspaper said that FidelCastro was the George Washington of the Caribbean. I know people who didn't believe the Times. They have been leaving Fidel's Island Paradise at the rate of thousands a month for the past three years, on refugee flights. With a newspaper like the Times behind you, how could you possibly be right?

Oh yes, Fidel is solidly behind you. Fidel believes in "nationalist patriotism" a la North Vietnamese. He orders that people who escape from his "workers' paradise" in innertubes, creaky rowboats, etc., be machine-gunned to death! Are you beginning to feel uneasy?

The Americans for Democratic Action are right in there too. It believes in and is pushing every program Marx ever conceived. If the A.D.A. gets its way, we'll be just as "well off" as the Soviet Union — provided we get rid of most of our telephones, 80 per cent of our consumer goods, and last but not least, our "pot."

Absolutely bubbling with enjoyment over the war dissent is the American Civil Liberties Union, which has represented just about every anarchist and communist who ever broke a U. S. law. However, the A.C.L.U. did take up a few cases of loyal Americans, only to keep up its, "fair and unbiased position."

This Vietnam war dissent is mostly if not wholly a sham. It is only one of the programs dreamed up by the communists, who have a great vested interest in seeing us "bug-out" of Vietnam. Go to Hawaii in five years, if we pull out of Vietnam, and you might be arrested by a Bolshevik for surfing, when you should have been picking pineapples or coconuts for the glorious future of communism. Fidel has a similar plan going in his canefields. You cut cane or get planted.

If you think I'm full of hot air, get a load of the following statement made by V.I. Lenin, founder of the U.S.S.R. and considered to be the "god" of the Reds. He said, "As long as capitalism and communism exist we cannot live in peace; in the end, one or the other will triumph—a funeral dirge will be sung over either the Soviet Republics of the capitalist world."

Believe me, the communists are out to get you and me! Are you going to be part of the movement that is dedicated to destroying your country and your freedom? Or are you going to be part of the movement that is going to repulse the force of imperialistic and athiestic communism?

Briefs

Sing Out

"Sing out," urges the BSC Men's Glee Club in its search for additional members. There is still time to learn the music they are preparing for the Christmas Concert, December 15.

All men will be welcomed as fellow members.

Rehearsals are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:30 in Room 227 Haas Auditorium. Be there.

Rap - In

Another "rap-in" will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1970 in the Schuykill Hall lounge at 7:00 p.m. Dr. Carlough will address the group on the topic "The New Morality."

Tutors

Tutors are needed in all subject areas. Any interested students should see Mr. Zarski in Elwell Hall.

Olympian

The 1970 Olympian will go on sale Monday, Oct. 26 in the Student Union Building. BSC's literary magazine will be sold for 40 cents, which means that you can get 25 copies for a mere ten dollar bill. If finances are pressing, you will be allowed to purchase a single copy. If you desire to prevent excess damage to your magazine, advise your friends to buy their own Olympian instead of reading yours.

Hikers

The Alpine Club of Williamsport (P. O. Box 501, Williamsport, Pa. 17701) has published its schedule of monthly hikes through the mountains of central Pennsylvania, October through March. The next scheduled hikes are on Sundays, Oct. 25, Nov. 29, and Dec. 13. Interested faculty and students are invited to write directly to the Alpine Club for further information. Dues are $2 single, $3 per couple. Robert Solenberger, a local member, will be glad to give information on locations and transportation—also on hiking possibilities near Bloomsburg. Phone 784-0267.

caused in this country, how can you write something like that? Seven years, man, and where have you been? (think...will ya think... I mean I can ask you to think the same as you can feel obligated to explain to me who V. I. Lenin was...I know a ready who V. I. Lenin was, which doesn't label me cuz you know who he was too...too bad we can't forget who he was...think..)

Think, as I'm sure you do, of America's honor. You want us to emerge with honor - okay, wonderful, but why didn't somebody worry about America's honor BEFORE we got into Viet Nam?

Think: how can Nixon, a Quaker, sleep at night?

Think: Have we done anything better to Viet Nam than the "atheistic Communists" would do?

Think: why should everybody have to adopt the American Way of Life?

So what if them dirty Commies are atheists? If we can grant people freedom of religion, why can't we tolerate freedom FROM religion? Still, if they became un-atheists, would you enforce your God unto them or let them choose?

Think: you say Eric Chet David and Walter have slanted the news. Sounds like Pat Buchanan is writing your stuff, Bob; I seem to have heard Acnew say that. But without Eric Chet David and Walter we never would have found out about My Lal.

Think: My Lal: Americans with God on their side playing berserker. Think of the reaction to My Lal. Granted, most people reacted with horror and indignation, the horror and indignation of knowing what we're doing, the reaction" of "what the hell ARE we doing?" But not everybody reacted like that. There were others shocked and outraged when they saw those extinguished lives mutilated and twisted onto our front pages;

they were P.O.'d awright; they called editors and complained, complained that they were offended, offended not because of the crimes against humanity endorsed by this country, offended not by the thought that somebody loved those bodies while they lived (and loved), no, uhhum they were offended because those corpses of raw tissue just so much waste they saw on their front pages were NAKED. Sure, it's okay for the kids to see corpses, but God will trample out or something if Johnny and Sue see NUDE, DIRTY corpses. And you tell me, Mr. Jasinski, that this country doesn't have something drastically wrong?

You're right about one thing. I consider myself a pacifier. A pacifier. Not a "pacifist of communism," not a dupe, not a coward. I'm not as paranoid as you seem to be, I don't think everyone's out to get me, just some people, and I'd rather have them kill me than me kill them. Ya know, it's written somewhere

"Thou shalt not kill." Until you, Acnew, Nixon, or anybody else with God on his side gets the word from Up-Higher and the word is revised to "well, ya can kill if yer country says so," then maybe I'll grab my M-1, join the Marine ROTC so's I can get my pic in the M&G page one, and maybe then I'll go out and kill dem gooks. But I doubt it. Killing for peace is still killing.

Sure pacifism is idealistic, right. But what's left? Howelse can we deal with the Nixtons, the Commie-haters, the hater-Commies? And pacifism has worked. Way back when, China simply sucked its invaders up into her culture. The Sumerians did the same thing to the belligerent Akaddians. So maybe turning the other cheek will work. Okay, somebody else says killing anybody who disagrees is the best, the most effective policy: are you any better than him when you try the same?

Cuz don't you see? We need to understand. Yeah, you've heard it before, so have I. Maybe we still disagree. Probably. But I'll tell ya what. I promise: I won't kill you, no matter what. How's that, huh, feel any more secure? And if anybody wants to kill me cuz they don't like ol me, well, I certainly don't like the idea, but then again, neither will that God my murderer will have to face. Understand?

(and oh yeah. ya said ya'd bet a McCarthy button...just one question...which McCarthy?)
