

BLOOMSBURG STATE COLLEGE

1978-79 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SEASON'S OUTLOOK

The Bloomsburg State College women's basketball team will be shooting for its fifth consecutive winning season during the 1978-79 campaign.

In aiming for her third winning season, Coach Sue Hibbs will have to do some rebuilding from her 9-6 team that lost three key performers. Graduated are the team's two leading scorers Mary Balaban (15.3 p.p.g. av.) and Julie Ludrof (11.1 p.p.g.); the former broke a single game scoring record of 29 points against Bucknell. She was also the top rebounder averaging 10.5 per game while Ludrof was third with an average of 8.9.

The other loss is the team's main ball handler, Anne D'Ignazi, who scored 44 points and contributed 18 assists. Returnees include Jayne Yurasits who scored well with a total of 99 points, averaging 8.2 p.p.g. and was third in assists with 28 for the season. Patty Lyons had 91 points for the year with an average of 7.5 p.p.g. Along with pulling down 107 rebounds, she was tied with Susan McKeegan for the team's lead in assists with 30. Terry McHale averaged just over seven p.p.g. and had 22 rebounds. Donna Santa Maria and Karen Yefko played an important part in relieving the starting Huskies. Santa Maria had 36 assists and scored 34 points. Yefko assisted in grabbing 41 rebounds.

New frosh faces will include: Trina Knittel, 5'10" from Plymouth-Whitemarsh H.S., ranked fifth in Suburban I League; Sue Curley, 5'10", Camp Hill, Trinity High grad; Deborah Chuhinka, 5'10½" standout from a strong Cumberland Valley team in Harrisburg; and Mary Ann Guffrovich, 5'5" guard from Nanticoke where she made Wilkes/Scranton All-Star team the last two seasons.

In addition to a number of state college opponents and area colleges, the Huskies will again meet the strong teams of LaSalle and Villanova, newcomer Lehigh, and participate in the She Gull Invitational tournament at Salisbury, Md.

HEAD COACH

Ms. Sue Hibbs became head women's basketball coach last year after serving as an assistant two years ago and as an interim coach three years ago. She served in the latter capacity when Coach Joanne McComb was on leave and coached the Huskies to an 11-2 season and a fourth place in the EIAW Invitational.

Ms. Hibbs has had a number of years of teaching, playing, and coaching a variety of sports. In the spring of 1977 she served as the college's first coach of women's softball.

A native of Kentucky, Hibbs earned her Bachelor of Science degree at Western Kentucky University and her master's degree from East Stroudsburg State. She is doing additional work at the Pennsylvania State University.

Her office phone is (717) 389-2410.
