

SYRACUSE

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI NEWS

WINTER 1980

hospital.

50 Arthur E. Wright is director of advertising for the Asbury Park (N.J.) Press, the third largest newspaper in the state. Almon J. Durkee elected to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects. The new senior vice president of Norlin Corp. is Gilbert A. Simpkins, a C.P.A., attorney, and Norlin's vice president for finance since 1974. Remington M. Ketcham is western division sales manager of Chiquita Brands Inc. Robert G. Carman, senior vice president of the National Bank and Trust Co., is at the bank's corporate headquarters in Norwich, responsible for financial planning and accounting. William E. Baer is vice president of Insilco Corp., in Meriden, Conn. Guy and Doris Monthan wrote a book on Indian art, Art and Indian Individualists. Sidney M. Smith is senior vice president of American Enka Co., a textile and fiber producing firm in North Carolina. Lee J. Lent of Franklin Lakes, N.J., is director of marketing services of the Shulton Co. Inc., Toiletries division of American Cyanamid. Bernard J. Gordich is president of Beyer-Barbar Inc., an actuarial and employee benefit consulting firm in Allentown, Pa. Robert S. Abels is president of the Boys' and Young Men's Apparel Manufacturers Association. W. Burr Bennett opened his own consulting firm, W. Burr Bennett Ltd. in Chicago, to serve all aspects of marketing and manufacturing concrete products. John L. Marsh, professor of English at Edinboro (Pa.) State College received a grant from the Public Committee for the Humanities in Pennsylvania for "The Rural Experience," a study of a late Victorian farm in western Pennsylvania.