

The Sixty-fifth Commencement

State Teachers College

Lock Haven, Pennsylvania

May 23th to May 26th, 1942

College Auditorium

God of Our Fathers

God of our fathers, whose almighty hand
Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies
Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past,
In this free land by Thee our lot is cast,
Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,
Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase,
Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way,
Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.

Alma Mater

Fair Lock Haven, Alma Mater,
All thy sons and daughters see
Joining hands in loving service
Turning back once more to thee.

We thy children, now before thee,
Gratefully our voices raise,
Sending forth in benediction
All our honor, love, and praise.

Alma Mater, may thy blessing
Still on all our labors be.
May we through our lives remember
All our loyalty to thee.

May we carry with us ever
Old Lock Haven's strength and pride.
Deep within each heart to linger,
And forever to abide.

The Unknown Teacher

I sing the praise of the unknown teacher. Great generals win campaigns, but it is the unknown soldier who wins the war. It is the unknown teacher who delivers and guides the young. He lives in obscurity and contends with hardship. For him no trumpets blare, no chariots wait, no golden decorations are decreed. He keeps the watch along the borders of darkness and makes the attack on the trenches of ignorance and folly. He awakens sleeping spirits. He quickens the indolent, encourages the eager, and steadies the unstable. He communicates his own joy in learning and shares with boys and girls the best treasures of his mind. He lights many candles which, in later years, will shine back to cheer him. This is his reward.

—HENRY VAN DYKE
