OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED STUDENTS DURING SPRING TERM

The spring term will open Monday, April 1, and will continue thirteen weeks. All students 17 or more years of age who expect to teach will receive FREE TUITION. To students under 17 the tuition is $1.50 per week. In spite of the enormous increase in the cost of living we have found it possible to continue the rate of $4.50 per week for boarding, furnished room, heat, light, and laundry. The only additional expense is the registration fee of five dollars and the cost of books. These may be rented or purchased. Thus the entire expense for a student 17 or more years of age is five dollars registration fee, fifty-eight dollars and fifty cents for 13 weeks board, room, laundry, etc. The expense for books will range from three to six dollars—thus the entire expense for the spring term will not equal $70.

Teaching now makes a special appeal to young people. The demand has never been so great for teachers as it now is. The salaries that are now assured make it worth while for young men and women to prepare themselves for teaching. It is recognized that teaching is not only a good profession in itself but is one that fits the man or woman for almost any other profession or calling. The preparation required for teaching is exactly what is needed for the successful business man, the professional man, the housekeeper and the woman who goes into professional or business life. The thorough mastery of the common school branches, the training received in teaching others and the contact with all types of men and women constitute a preparation that is of the greatest possible value in after life.

The Shippensburg Normal School will offer splendid opportunities to all classes of young people who wish to begin the work of teaching or to prepare themselves for advanced work. We offer special inducements to the following classes of students: 1. Students who have completed the public school course and wish to prepare for teaching. Such students are advised to consult the county superintendent under whom they will be examined as to the course to be taken at Normal. Special classes will be organized and all the common school branches will be thoroughly reviewed. The Principal will have charge of the work of these classes. Miss Harris and Mrs. Herr will give special instruction in methods of teaching and will demonstrate how subjects should be taught. This work will be of the greatest possible value to prospective teachers. No examination will be required for admission to these classes.

2. Special classes will be organized for those who wish to complete all or a part of the course before teaching. In addition to the common school branches these classes will have the opportunity of studying physical geography and English history. This course will be specially valuable to those who are not yet 18 years of age, as it will enable them to begin the Normal School course and complete a considerable part of it before beginning the work of teaching. A great many of our young people make a serious mistake by returning to public school work after they have completed the public school course. In this way valuable time is lost.

3. Teachers who wish to secure a better provisional certificate will find just the opportunities they desire during the spring term. Such teachers may drop all branches in which they have received a mark of two or better from the county superintendent. Where work in algebra has not gone beyond quadratics the student will be required to take the work in order to receive credit at the school. Students are also urged to take the course in reading offered at the school in order that they may teach it more effectively. The type of method work offered in course No. 1 will also be given students in this course.

4. Teachers who have attended Normal for at least one spring term are urged to take course No. 4. This course will take advanced work in the freshman year. In some cases work in the sophomore year will be given. By an arrangement with the county superintendents students taking this work will receive special credit for their work even though they are compelled to sacrifice some time that they might wish to devote to the common school branches. By taking this course students will receive credit for the freshman or sophomore year's work and will thus be enabled to clear off work needed for entrance to the junior year. This course should appeal to all ambitious students who are anxious to complete the Normal School course.

5. Teachers who have completed the freshman year's work will be given the opportunity to take up part of the sophomore work.

6. Teachers who have completed part of the sophomore year's work are urged to continue this work so as to qualify for the junior class.

7. A course will be offered to teachers who wish to take the examination for professional certificate. As the salary for the professional certificate has been materially advanced, superintendents are naturally concerned in raising the standard. As a result of our consultation with county superintendents, we shall offer a course specially suited to those who wish to take the examination for professional certificate. This course will cover the work of the spring term and will be continued in the summer term of six weeks. Teachers who expect to take this course are urged to communicate as soon as possible with the principal in regard to the work that they desire.

8. Teachers who expect to be examined for a permanent certificate are urged to write to the principal in regard to the opportunities open to them during the spring term.

9. Graduates of second and third class high schools will find courses open to them on the completion of their work. Such students are urged to come to the school on the completion of their high school courses and to take up work in which they may be deficient in order to secure advanced classification.

The principal will be very glad to answer any question that any one may desire to ask in regard to the nature of the courses offered, their scope, etc. Don't hesitate to write. We shall try to give you a satisfactory answer to any question you may wish to ask.

SUMMARY OF THE SPRING TERM COURSES

All persons interested in the work of the spring term are urged to read the article entitled "Opportunities offered to Students During the Spring Term," in this number of THE HERALD. In order that the work may be clearly understood by all we offer the following summary of the work that will be given:

Spring term opens Monday, April 1 and continues 13 weeks. Students 17 or more years of age will receive free tuition. To students under 17 the tuition is $1.50 per week until they are 17.

$4.50 per week pays for boarding, furnished room, heat, light and laundry. The only additional expenses are the registration fee of five dollars and the cost of books. The entire expense for the spring term will be between $65 and $70. This is payable in two installments.

The following courses are offered:

Course 1. To those who have completed the public school course and wish to teach next year. A thorough review of the common school branches and the methods of teaching them. Demonstration work will be given by Miss Harris and Mrs. Herr. The Principal will have charge of this course.

Course 2. To graduates of the public schools who wish to complete all or part of the course before teaching. In addition to the public school branches this course offers instruction in Latin, physical geography and English history. This course is recommended to all students not yet 18 years of age.

Course 3. Open to teachers who have taught and wish to secure a better provisional certificate. Students taking this course may drop all branches in which they have received a mark of two or better from the county superintendent. Students may also begin the study of Latin, take physical geography and English history if they so desire.

Course 4. This course is designed for teachers who have previously attended Normal School. All branches that have been satisfactorily completed will be dropped and advanced work in the freshman class including Latin will be taken. In this way it will be possible to complete the work of the freshman year. County superintendents will give credit to students taking advanced work in this course.

Course 5. This course is for those who have completed the freshman year's work and wish to take up part of the sophomore work. The work of the sophomore year is so divided as to enable an ambitious student to finish a considerable part of it during the spring term. It includes Caesar, geometry, rhetoric, general methods, and one of the sophomore sciences.

Course 6. This course is open to teachers who have completed part of the sophomore year's work. It articulates with course 5 and continues the work of that course.

Course 7. This course is for those teachers who expect to take examination for a professional certificate. It covers the branches required for that certificate and reviews thoroughly any branch or branches in which the student may be deficient. Students taking this course are urged to communicate with the principal as early as possible and to indicate what branches they wish to take so that arrangements may be made for them.

Course 8. Teachers who expect to take the examination for permanent certificates will be given the opportunity of entering the classes covering the work that they need. We have had a number of inquiries as to work of this kind and we shall offer this course to meet what is apparently a general demand. All who expect to take this course are urged to communicate with the principal at an early date.

Course 9. This is a mixed course open to students who have completed the work in second and third grade high schools. Valuable time may often be gained by entering school as soon as the course in such schools is completed.

Students writing to the principal in regard to work are urged to refer to the numbers here given when speaking of the course that they desire to take.

MEETINGS OF THE COUNTY ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

In spite of war and the stresses of other matters the county Alumni Associations held successful meetings. We have not received reports from all of these associations. Consequently our list is incomplete and we must depend upon the secretaries of the associations not represented in this article to make a later report.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY

The Cumberland Valley Branch of the Shippensburg Alumni Association convened in the Carlisle Opera House, Monday evening, December third, nineteen seventeen and rendered the following program:

The opening number was an appropriate selection by the C. V. S. N. S. male quartette. Miss Leila McCulloch gave two short poems from Robert W. Services' "Rhymes of a Red Cross Man." The first voiced "The Despair of The War;" the second, "The Hope of The War." The Ladies quartette of the Frankford Township High School delighted the audience with two songs.

Hon. Filmore Maust gave "Reminiscences of Forty-years Ago." A glowing tribute was paid to the members of the faculty of that day; only one of that illustrious body remains in active service there today, and of Dr. Eldon, it was truly said, he stands before us as the highest example of clean living, high ideals, and true manhood.

The audience was pleasingly entertained by Miss Mary Thompson's piano solo. Miss Adams the vocal teacher at C. V. S. N. S. held her audience with her charming manner and sweet voice in two selections.

"The Ramble in the Land of Scott' by Dr. Ezra Lehman was indeed a treat to all. His realistic description of the land and the people of Burns and Scott could not help but create in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to hear him, an intense desire for travel and the study of literature.

The scene from "The Twig of Thorn"—an Irish Play was outlined by Miss Trego and presented by a cast from C. V. S. N. S. The scene was beautiful as well as entertaining. The graceful dancing of the little fairy was very fascinating.

The closing number was given by the male quartette.

The association then adjourned to the Y. M. C. A. building where the banquet tables were tastefully decorated in the school colors, red and blue. The Ladies Auxillary of the Y. M. C. A. prepared and served the banquet. Assistant County Superintendent N. G. Rice presided as toast master on this occasion.

Mrs. James Carothers responded to the toast, "The Alumni of the 19th Century," and was followed by Mrs. Elmer Wagner, with "Reminiscences of Thirty-years ago;" "The Alumni of the Twentieth Century," by Mr. Frank Coffey; and "Normal Athletics," Mr. Dale Crunkleton.

Dr. Ezra Lehman and Superintendent Green congratulated the association on the success of this program. (Space forbids justice being given to the appropriate responses of this occasion.) The singing of our "Alma Mater" by the association brought this meeting to a close. One hundred and thirty plates were served.

At a business meeting December fifth the following officers were nominated for 1918 and the secretary was authorized to cast the ballot: President, Mr. Frank Hare; Vice Presidents, Mr. Frank Coffey, Mr. Roy Burkhart; Recording Secretary, Miss Ethel Wolf; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Yeager; Treasurer, Mr. Charles Kell.

JANE H. McCULLOUGH, Secretary.

DAUPHIN COUNTY

Dauphin county as usual set the pace for the other associations. Dr. S. Z. Shope was president and he was assisted by a live committee. So well was the work done that about 120 Alumni and their wives and husbands assembled in the Shimmel Building, at 17th and Catherine streets, on the evening of November 15. The gathering was very informal. Dr. Shope introduced Dr. Frederick Poole, the noted Asiatic traveler and Chinese scholar, who gave a most interesting account of ancient and modern China. He then gave an excellent impersonation of the various characters in the first act of "The Yellow Jacket" presenting each character in appropriate costume. At the close of the literary part of the program refreshments were served. Dr. Shope expressed his gratification at the large number who were present and made the suggestion that the organization be made a permanent one and that meetings be held in different parts of Dauphin county at intervals during the year. His suggestion was adopted.

Though Dr. Shope insisted in passing on the presidency of the association to some one else, the association insisted on his retaining the office and refused unanimously to accept his declination. Mrs. Howard Omwake was re-elected secretary and four vice presidents from different parts of the county were elected. Dr. and Mrs. Lehman and Miss Horton were present from the faculty. Dr. Lehman conveyed greetings from the school to the association and congratulated them on their school spirit and the success that was attending the Dauphin County Association.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY

Huntingdon county does not have as many representatives as some of the other counties, but they are not lacking in their devotion to the old school.

On Tuesday evening, October 30, the following persons were present at a meeting at the home of Superintendent Rife: Mr. and Mrs. Creamer, Mrs. Fluke, Mr. and Mrs. Ricker, Prof. Jacob Hollinger, Mrs. Westbrook, Miss Margaret Coder, Miss Anna Bell, Mr. P. Earl Herting, Mr. J. Warren Maclay, Miss Ethel Montague, Mr. Harry Howe, Miss Bess Bair, Mr. J. F. Slaybaugh, Miss Mary Cutshall, Mr. J. L. Enyeart, Miss E. Marie Steele, Mr. C. E. Helman, Supt. and Mrs. Rife, and Master John Rife. Supt. Rife presided and read a letter of greeting from the Principal. The meeting adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we pledge our loyal support to the Shippensburg State Normal School and to its Principal, whom we heartily congratulate on his very successful administration."

The question of having a banquet next year was discussed. The meeting closed with remarks by Mr. Walter I. Ricker. The officers elected for next year are, President, Supt. W. M. Rife; Vice President, Harry A. Howe; Secretary, Mary Cutshall.

JUNIATA COUNTY

The Juniata County Alumni held a meeting on November 14, and elected the following officers for next year: President, G. C. Lyter, Port Royal; Secretary, Sara A. Berry, Mifflin; and Anna Haldeman representative of the Juniata County Association on the Executive Committee of the General Alumni Association. The following persons were present: Mrs. Nelle E. Brindle, Anna Haldeman, Jane Haldeman, Myrle Frankhouse, Sara Berry, G. C. Lyter, Esther Rhine, Margaret Woodsides, Grace Swarner, Irma Shover, Marie Moyer and Lloyd Groninger. Prof. H. L. Burkholder was present as a representative of the faculty. The meeting was informal and afforded all the members a chance of getting acquainted with each other and talking over old times at Normal.

FRANKLIN COUNTY

Franklin county held its Alumni meeting on Wednesday evening, November 21. Prof. R. G. Mowery presided. A quartette from Normal consisting of Messrs. Horton, Surface, Thrush and Watson, sang several selections and was encored by the audience. Miss Adams of the department of vocal music was also forced to respond to an encore. Dr. Lehman was called upon to address the association. He conveyed greetings of the school to the association and explained the plan of the school in offering extension and correspondence courses. The following officers were then elected: President, A. C. Garland, Lehmaster; Secretary, A. Flo. Geyer, Chambersburg. We do not have the list of the other officers at this writing. The association adjourned after singing the "Alma Mater."

YORK COUNTY

York county comes near the end of the alphabet but for genuine all-round loyalty and enthusiasm it stands near the very top. Dr. Lehman made a flying visit to the York institute where he spoke on Tuesday forenoon, November 27. It was necessary for him to return to Shippensburg on the early afternoon train. When the Alumni found this out they hastily called a meeting in one of the recitations rooms of the high school and filled it to overflowing with graduates and former students. Assistant Supt. Albright presided, and after speaking of the prosperity that had attended the school called on Dr. Lehman to address the association. He expressed his appreciation of the loyalty of the York County Alumni and explained the work that the school purposed doing in its extension and correspondence courses. Much interest was manifested in this feature of his talk and many questions were asked about the work. Miss Margaret Overholtzer told of her visit to Normal last June as the representative of the York Association and expressed her gratification at her reception there and with the work that was being done. Several other short addresses were made.

PRINCIPAL'S LETTER TO THE ALUMNI

Fellow Members of the Alumni:

I have been greatly pleased that it was possible for me to meet so many of you personally this fall. I am especially gratified at the interest that you have shown in the old school and I am very grateful to you for all that you are doing in these strenuous times to induce young men and women to come to us to prepare for their life's work. The Alumni meetings have been unusually well attended in most counties. The banner meetings were held in Dauphin, York and Cumberland, but Huntingdon, Juniata, and Franklin report a good attendance at the Alumni gatherings.

When the war with its attendant problems, Red Cross work, and Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. activities, are calling for the spare time of the teacher and his best efforts, it can hardly be expected that much interest and time can be given to other matters. It is very gratifying, however, to note that the extension work at Normal is receiving the endorsement not only of our own Alumni but of educators in general. Probably the correspondence courses are attracting more attention from our Alumni than any other feature of our work.

These courses offer splendid opportunity for advancement. Many of our graduates have lamented that they were too remote from colleges and universities to take advantage of the courses there offered. The correspondence work at Normal will give all such teachers an opportunity to prepare themselves for more advanced work. The ambitious teacher will not fail to make use of the opportunity thus afforded. Through the correspondence courses it will be possible to take advanced work in Latin, German, mathematics, history, special methods, rural sociology, cooking, drawing, and probably other branches. At a time when the demand for teachers is unprecedented and many opportunities are opening to both men and women in high school work, the ambitious teacher will not fail to profit by these courses.

I appeal especially to all of you to use your influence in having young people come to us for the spring term and for next fall. Now is the time to use your personal influence in persuading them to come. The demand for teachers is greater than it has been at any time during the past thirty years and from present appearances, the demand is likely to continue for years to come. Many of our young people are being induced to take short cuts in business schools. When the war is ended, these young men and women will realize too late that they are poorly prepared for life's work. A good education is necessary for success in any calling. Teaching makes a special appeal to an ambitious young man or woman who is anxious to be of real service to the nation. We shall be glad to have you put us in touch with all young people from your neighborhood who may think of teaching.

I am very much gratified with the response to the letter I wrote to the members of the Alumni last October. Many replies were received and all breathed the spirit of loyalty to, and interest in, the old school.

As noted elsewhere our new board of trustees have organized and the school work will be continued under their direction. We believe that a still larger field of usefulness lies before the school under the new management. With best wishes, I am,

Fraternally yours

EZRA LEHMAN, '89.

HISTORY BY MRS. H. WYLIE STEWART

A very interesting and instructive book entitled "History of the Cumberland Valley," written and compiled by Mrs. Harriet Wylie Stewart, head of the department of History in the Cumberland Valley State Normal School, is off the press and the first installment, handsomely bound in green covers, is now in the hands of the author.

The book contains one hundred and forty-six pages divided into ten chapters, and is illustrated by twenty-one photo engravures of historic scenes throughout the valley.

The subjects covered by the chapters are: Topography and Early Settlers.—Indian History.—Roads, Turnpikes, and Forts.—Early Industries.—The Revolutionary Period.—Early Towns.—Early Schools.—Civil War Period.—Noted Biographies.—Progress Since Civil War.

The book is the result of years of difficult research on the part of the author and is filled from cover to cover with historical facts of interest and importance to every man, woman and child in the Cumberland Valley. Mrs. Stewart's great interest in history and especially that of her native valley, prompted the writing of the book and she has planned to give others the benefit of her arduous research by placing these books on sale at a nominal price to cover cost of printing and binding. Every teacher in the Cumberland Valley should read this book and every school in Cumberland, Franklin, and Washington Counties should have a copy in its library.

Already there are such demands for this history that the bindery has been urged to rush to completion the first edition. It is the first authentic history of the entire valley.

Orders for copies at one dollar ($1.00) each may be sent to the author or left at this office.

THE NEW BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The new board of trustees recently announced by the State Board of Education consists of the following members: George H. Stewart, George S. McLean, John E. Boher, George W. Himes, Quinn T. Mickey, L. E. Smith, John G. Benedict, H. M. Roth, and J. Arthur Greist.

The six first named persons were members of the old board and are well known to the readers of THE HERALD. Mr. Stewart has been connected with the Normal School from its organization and has been president of the board for many years. He is associated with the most important business interests of the State. He is president of the Valley National Bank of Chambersburg, Vice President of the First National Bank of Shippensburg, a director of the Cumberland Valley Railroad and a member of the board of trustees of the Huntingdon Industrial Reformatory. He is also associated with a number of other organizations.

Mr. McLean has been secretary of the board of trustees for a number of years and is teller of the First National Bank of Shippensburg. Mr. Boher is a member of the firm of Boher & Phillips furniture manufacturers. Mr. Mickey is an attorney in Shippensburg, a former member of the legislature and an alumnus of the school. Mr. Himes is treasurer of the firm of Rummel, Himes & Co., and president of the People's National Bank of Shippensburg. Supt. L. E. Smith is a graduate of the school and superintendent of schools in Franklin county.

The new members of the board are also well and favorably known. J. G. Benedict is actively associated with the business interests of Waynesboro. He is treasurer of the Landis Tool Company and is an alumnus of the school. Supt. H. M. Roth was formerly of the faculty of the Normal School and has been superintendent of Adams county for the last 19 years. He is a graduate of the school, class of '89. J. Arthur Greist is president of the Adams County Fruit Growers' Association and is a very successful business man.

The new board held its first meeting December 17. Secretary J. George Becht, of the State Board of Education was present and administered the oath of office to the members. The following officers were elected: President, George H. Stewart; Vice President, L. E. Smith; Secretary, Geo. S. McLean.

OBITUARY

BOHER. Mrs. Sara Hogan Boher, wife of Mr. John E. Boher, died at her home in Shippensburg, December 20, after an illness of more than three years.

Mrs Boher will be remembered by hundreds of our Alumni and former students as Miss Sara R. Hogan, who taught at Normal from 1875 to 1882. She was a very successful teacher and endeared herself to all who came in contact with her. On March 8, 1883, she was married to Mr. John E. Boher, who has for many years been a member of our board of trustees. Mrs. Boher always retained her interest in the Normal School and did much to make the home life of the teachers at Normal pleasant and attractive. She was vitally interested in everything that pertained to the welfare of the community in which she lived. She was especially active in the Civic Club and Needlework Guild and was connected for many years with the Tuesday Club. In her death the community loses one of its noblest women and the school a devoted friend.

THE HERALD extends its sympathy to her husband and her children.

FITZ. Mrs. Lena A. Fitz Taylor, '93, died November 24, 1917. We have the following account of Mrs Fitz's death from a Waynesboro paper.

Mrs Lena Aura Fitz, wife of A. Stover Fitz, Fairview avenue, died at 6 o'clock Saturday morning, aged 43 years, 7 months and 9 days.

Mrs. Fitz had been ill since last Saturday evening with grip, which developed later into pneumonia, which caused her very sad and untimely death.

The deceased was born near Mowersville, Pa., April 15, 1874, the daughter of M. S. and Mary Taylor.

She was married July 3, 1896, to A. Stover Fitz and has lived in Waynesboro since her marriage.

Mrs. Fitz was a kind and loving mother and the people of the entire community extend their most heartfelt sympathy to the husband and members of the bereaved family.

She was an active member of the St. Paul Reformed church and with her family was a regular attendant at the services of her church and also took an interest in the various branches of church work.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Paul Reformed church, conducted by Rev. Joseph E. Guy. Interment in Green Hill cemetery.

FOOT BALL

In the eyes of a world that judges by results rather than by factors the 1917 foot ball season may seem very unsuccessful; but to us, who know the obstacles and handicaps that had to be overcome, the outcome of the season of 1917 is a source of pride. Aye, it is with much pride that we review the record made by our team.

The first game played at Bloomsburg Normal, although resulting in defeat is far from discreditable to us when we consider the relative experience of the two teams. The most regrettable feature of the game was the disabling of Captain Bolan so that he could not play again until the last game of the season. In the second game, that with the Alpha Club of Waynesboro, the real strength of our team was shown. Although the score records a tie, in actual playing our team won a decisive victory. The game with Mercersburg was perhaps the most closely contested game of the season. The teams were so evenly matched that the outcome of the game was always in doubt. Normal drew first blood; but failed to kick the goal, making the score 6-0 in favor of C. V. S. N. S. However, luck broke against us and just a few minutes before the close of the game Mercersburg scored a touchdown, defeating us by the score of 7-6. Normal should have won. Her gains were more consistent. Her defence was more impenetrable. Had it not been for that one unfortunate break this game would have gone down as a well earned victory. We cannot speak of it, however, without lauding the man of the hour. Sam Shearer bore the brunt of the game. His playing was of a type that won for him the praise and admiration of all who saw it. His clever open field running frequently made gains of from 15 to 20 yards. His line plunges were direct and showed the strength of a giant. His loss by draft the next week was probably the one most felt during the rest of the season.

The outcome of the game with the Indian Reserves was not unexpected. We were defeated 25 to 0. Our offence was demoralized by the loss of the keystone man but our defence was strong. The score 25 to 0 is really not a blot on our record when the strength of the Indian Resrves is fully appreciated. The last game, with Millersville, was surely a fitting climax to the season. We met our rivals and downed them to the count 32-0. The game is noteworthy, not so much on account of the score as on account of the character of the play. We started the game with practically the same lineup that started at Bloomsburg in the first game. The principle change was in the back field where Cap. Bolan was again pilot and Shearer's place was very ably and creditably filled by Charlie Taylor. Had a modern Rip Van Winkle seen the first game and then slept to waken just in time to see this, the last game, there would surely have been a surprise in store for him. The team of green men was now a team of veterans and every move in every play showed veteran skill. The playing of every individual player was of high class and the whole team deserved the praise and commendation that it received.

Thus then we played, fighting from beginning to end, coming through defeat to well earned victory. Can anything speak more eloquently of the spirit of the players than just this record of their playing?

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

The fall term of the year 1917 will long be remembered in the history of C. V. S. N. S. girls' athletics. Success in hockey endeavor brought lasting fame and credit to our Alma Mater.

Hockey was a new sport in Normal and it has proved to be a popular one. The hockey equipment was ordered early in the fall but did not arrive until the beginning of November. A call for candidates was issued promptly and the number of girls responding was more than encouraging. Enough candidates were on hand, throughout the entire season to permit having four full teams, one from each class. Each class elected a captain, as follows:—

Regular class practice was begun at once under the direction of Miss Conover, who coached the teams. Each class had particular evenings for practice and the teams were lined up regularly. A portion of the athletic field was lined off and goal posts erected for use in this game. There was practice not only in the evening from four to five o'clock, but also every morning from six-thirty to seven o'clock. A large number of girls responded to the call. It was cold and frosty so early in the morning, but this made the game all the more invigorating.

A series of class games was arranged to decide the championship of the school. The first game was scheduled for Thanksgiving Day. This was to be between the seniors and juniors, but on account of snow this game had to be postponed. The following Saturday, December 1, this game was played. Admission of five cents was charged and a large crowd assembled to see the game. The classes were in groups and proudly displayed their banners as they gave rousing yells for their players. The game was brilliant and both teams played well. The seniors played more consistently than their opponents, however, and their attack far surpassed the junior offense. The team work of the seniors was particularly good and the individual work of both teams was well worth watching. The juniors made one good goal but the senior offense was so strong that most of the game was played in junior territory. The seniors won the game with the final score of 6-1. The line-up was as follows:

Seniors	Goal	Juniors
A. Burk		M. Patterson
M. Bortner	Left Fullback	M. Ryder
R. Emmert	Right Fullback	E. Baker
S. Tack	Left Halfback	F. Edwards
R. Senseny	Center Halfback	R. Weise
H. Widney	Right Halfback	F. Ort
E. Eby	Left Forward	E. Owens
B. Henneberger	Right Forward	S. Shive, L. Mellon
S. Smith	Center Forward	M. Hosfeld
C. Hake	Right Wing	M. Murphy
H. Harling	Left Wing	R. Charlton

Senior substitutes—B. Heiges, R. Kline, O. Bussard.

Junior substitutes—L. Pattie, C. Lamberson.

Timekeeper and Scorer—Miss Harlow.

Referees—Miss Conover, Miss Trego.

Thursday, December 6, the freshman class played the sophomore class. This was also a very good game which resulted in the defeat of the sophomores by their underclassmen, the freshmen. The score was 3-1. The girls who played were: Freshmen—G. Wolf, O. Krall, A. McLean, E. Craig, L. Fogelsonger, A. Spessard, F. Filling, B. Kamerer, A. Kauffman, E. Sheaffer, M. Sleichter. Sophomores—L. Atticks, O. Brandt, M. Britton, A. Heeter, P. Hoffeditz, D. Hosfield, E. Weast, T. Zeigler, L. Millard, G. Meredith, A. Hoke.

The heavy fall of snow has prevented the completion of the games scheduled; so the senior and freshman classes are tied for first place. It is hoped that an earlier start can be made next year and that a larger number of games will be played.

Girls' Basket Ball is now in progress and there will be some very interesting games played in the near future. Normal girls are more active than ever before in athletics and will soon rival the boys in spirit. Such development marks a big step forward in C. V. S. N. S. athletics for girls, and it is now the earnest hope of every loyal student that this work will be continued.

Thanks to the efficient and competent work of the physical training instructor, Miss Conover, this progress has been made possible.

THE NORMAL LITERARY SOCIETY

Last year in the opinion of our critic teachers, Normal had reached its zenith, but they are glad to admit that this year we have even surpassed our previous results. Therefore many good reports have reached the office regarding Normal Society.

Our programs have been broader in that both the new and the old members are cheerfully performing their part in making each program a success. Our programs are appropriate to the season of the year and show patriotism. The Society has always had cause to be proud of its debates and this year it has not degenerated but rather progressed. More prominence is being given to debating by the girls. In all cases they have warranted a name worthy of mention.

The membership of the Glee Club has swelled by the addition of many male voices. We have made use of these voices not only in Glee Club selections but also in male choruses. The orchestra is doing splendid work and in every number rendered by it we are made to feel that it is characterized by its old spirit of enthusiasm.

Normal has been crippled to some extent by the loss of the members who have gone to the front, but despite this fact, the male membership is large. Sorry as we are to lose our boys, we are proud to have them serving their country. The Society has taken action upon buying a service flag for the school so that all will be remembered.

The doors of Normal have always been open and still remain so to visitors. We invite all members back to investigate matters for themselves, and proceed therefrom to tell far and wide the good work being done. RUTH C. SENSENY, '18., Secretary.

THE NORMAL SOCIETY GLEE CLUB

According to all records, the Glee Club of Normal Society has always merited great praise. This year, however, it has surpassed all previous efforts and the results have been correspondingly superior.

The first necessity for a good Glee Club is a large membership and good attendance. There was a comparatively large membership at the opening of the Fall term, when the roll showed only the names of former members, but it was greatly increased by the addition of many new members who joined the Normal Society. The final roll recorded thirty-five members. At the present time, however, we have but thirty-three, due to the departure of Mr. Monroe Gobrech and Mr. Roy Kriner, who were called to serve their country.

The Glee Club became an organization during the month of October and has shown decided progress under the valuable leadership of Miss Adams.

Having the volume and careful preparation in practice periods, we were enabled to attain marked success in practically every number rendered. One reason for this ascendancy is due to the male membership, which is large in comparison with the number of boys enrolled in the school.

New books have been selected and in a short time will be in use by the Glee Club. MILDRED E. CESSNA, Secretary.

THE PHILO LITERARY SOCIETY

At this, the end of the Fall Term, we pause to take a backward glance over the doings of old Philo. We find that the membership is constantly increasing, several seniors having lately added their names to our illustrious list.

Especially pleasing to us is the good attendance of our day-student members. All new members are taking a very active part in making the programs successful. This gives good promise for next year. Philo has always been noted for its musical talent. This is being well shown by the work of individuals, by the orchestra, and by the Glee Club.

Our beautiful new flag, ever floating from the rostrum of the chapel keeps us continually in remembrance of our members serving their country "at the front." One of the greatest sacrifices we were called upon by Uncle Sam to make was the giving up of our loyal class president, society worker and school athlete, Samuel Shearer, '18.

The essentially literary part of our programs has by no means been neglected for the more entertaining features, such as surprise features, minstrels, and plays. The importance of the position of critic is being more and more emphasized. It is now considered one of the vital offices of the society. General debate has also become a more prominent feature. Every member is doing his bit.

The Philomathean Literary Society wishes to all present workers, former members, and readers of THE HERALD, a very Happy New Year. VERONICA McFADDEN, 18., Secretary.

THE PHILO GLEE CLUB

The Philo Glee Club organized October 5, 1917. The following officers were elected:—President, Mr. Wilbur Thrush; Secretary, Miss Edna Spath; Librarians, Misses Romain and Esther Nell. The club is doing better work since its organization, as there are two regular rehearsals each week under the direction of Miss Adams. There are about thirty-eight enrolled and of this number very few are absent from rehearsals. There are not as many boys in the glee club as in former years but we are greatly encouraged by the help which the few who do come give us. The club learns one new song each week and sings at each meeting of the Philomathean Literary Society.

DOROTHY BRINDLE, '18.

C. V. S. N. S. ORCHESTRA

The orchestra under the leadership of Miss Adams is doing splendid work, and deserves much credit. Persons who have heard the orchestra for several years speak of the great improvement in the work, this year. The orchestra plays each morning in the chapel. This not only adds much to the singing but also gives splendid practice for the players.

The orchestra made its first public appearance at the Thanksgiving Play, giving two pieces—"Apple Blossoms," by K. A. Roberts, and "Kingdom of Flowers," by J. Ringleben, which were appreciated very much by the audience.

The time between Thanksgiving and Christmas was devoted to the practicing of Christmas music for the Carol Singing held Wednesday evening, December 19, in the Chapel.

Miss Adams has recently given the members instructions, how to organize and how to lead an orchestra. Each member of the orchestra will be given the opportunity of leading the orchestra practice during the year. ESSA R. SMALL, '18., Secretary.

THE PRESS CLUB

With the closing of the Fall term the Press Club looks back over a period of prosperity.

The monthly meetings have been of a most interesting type as we have had several speakers to address us and give talks pertaining to the newspaper world. Among the outside speakers were Mr. Scotlock of "The Shippensburg Chronicle," and Monroe Gobrecht, '18. Mr. Scoltock gave us an interesting talk on the "Relation of Advertising to Circulation of Newspapers."

Mr. Gobrecht was a member of the present senior class and a former member of the Press Club but is now in the service of Uncle Sam at Camp Meade. His talk was on the "Everyday Occurrences at Camp."

The meetings this term have been attended with a great deal of enthusiasm and if this spirit prevails throughout the school year it is certain that the standard will be raised even higher.

To the Alumni, faculty, and students of the school, the Press Club extends its most hearty wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

HELEN M. QUINN, '18.

TEACHERS' BIBLE TRAINING CLASS

A Teachers' Bible Training Class was organized several weeks ago under the direction of Mrs. J. K. Stewart.

The Standard Course of Teacher Training by Chas. A. Oliver is being used. The book is divided into five parts:—The Old Testament, The New Testament, Bible Institutions and the Sunday School, The Pupil, and The Teacher. Each part is divided into ten lessons. As each part is completed an examination is held on that part. On December thirteenth the class took the first examination on the Old Testament.

There are thirty-four girls enrolled in the class at the present time. Fourteen of the class are seniors, ten juniors, nine sophomores, and one freshman. After Christmas, the boys entered the class. This is the largest Bible Class in the history of the school and its members are very active. By the marks given in the examination, it is shown that great interest is being taken in this work by the class.

ESSA R. SMALL, '18., Secretary.

Y. M. C. A.

During the past four years there has never been manifested such activity in Y. M. C. A. work in this school as is now being shown. We believe this increase in activity is due to two causes: first, the type of questions discussed, and second the inspiration received from former members now in Army Training Camps.

The whole trend of the programs has been toward one aim—the discussion of questions vital to students in Normal School. The members of the organization show their interest in such questions by their readiness to lead the meetings and to express their opinions in the general discussion which follows the talk given by the leader.

We consider the attendance at these meetings little less than remarkable. We do not overestimate when we say we have at each meeting from 25 to 30 boys out of a possible forty. Several of the 40 are five day students and also nearly every week a few of our members visit their homes.

Among the interesting topics discussed have been, "What the Y. M. C. A. Means to Me," "Some Mistakes I Have Made in the Past Year," "Jealousy in School Life," and "The Report of the Delegates on the Blairstown Meeting."

Further credit rests also with members of our organization, who are now in the service of our nation. The letters and personal chats we have with them convince us that the Y. M. C. A. stands second to no organization in supplying pleasure and in strengthening courage and morality. The following is a quotation from a speech given by Monroe Gobrecht: "You cannot imagine the temptations that confront the man in khaki. You know it is natural for a man to find amusement or create amusement, regardless of whether it is good or bad. There is but one place for a man to spend his evenings in camp, that is the Y. M. C. A. hut, reading books and writing letters. I surely want to recommend the Y. M. C. A. to you as an organization worthy of your help. If you want to help the boys at the front, contribute to the Y. M. C. A. fund."

Another schoolmate in the service says, "I never saw a place that presents so many temptations as the army. The Y. M. C. A. is the only organization that can get in personal touch with the men. It provides us with amusement, reminds us of our homes and tells us there is a hereafter."

Knowing these facts, we members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School have determined to make the work mean more to us than ever before. We realize we are members of a family that will be recorded in history as the greatest benefactor in preserving morality since the beginning of history.

LESTER G. SACHS, '18.

Y. W. C. A.

The enthusiasm for the work of the Young Women's Christian Association is increasing as the plans for the winter's work are developed.

The Thanksgiving play and the bazaar have called for an expenditure of effort and money while the present plan of holding the Sunday evening meetings in the court of the dormitory has attracted the interest of a good proportion of the girls.

The two great events of the year from the financial standpoint are the Thanksgiving play and the bazaar, for it is from these two sources that we secure the money for sending delegates to the Eagles Mere Convention. The association expresses gratitude to the students and members of the faculty who worked for the presentation of the play. Fifty dollars was the share of the proceeds given to the Y. W. C. A.

On December eighth, the annual bazaar was held in the school parlors. Because of the sugar shortage it was necessary to omit the sale of homemade candy. In its place several new booths were introduced, offering hot cocoa, popcorn and nuts, a fishpond and Red Cross articles. As usual the largest receipts came from the fancy work, for the girls responded very generously to the request for fancy articles. We are grateful to the Alumnae and to the merchants of the town for donations. The amount realized from the bazaar was about eighty dollars.

The Sunday evening meetings held in the court seem to be less formal than those held in the Model School and the girls take a more active part in them. The singing is one of the special features. Besides the meetings held in the court there have been three joint meetings with the Y. M. C. A.

Through continued blessings the members of the association are looking forward to a prosperous New Year.

OLITIPA KEEBAUGH, '18., Secretary.

CHRISTMAS IN THE MODEL SCHOOL

Doubtless many of the alumni and friends of the Normal School are wondering how Christmas was celebrated this year in the Model School. The Christmas work in the Model School was marked by the same economy which had to be practiced everywhere. The seniors prepared their hand work as usual, but it was inexpensive and undoubtedly the more valuable for this fact. In the class rooms there were the usual black board drawings of Santa Claus, the reindeer, and the holly, some of which showed great skill and care. In the first grade room there was an excellent model of a Northland scene with Santa Claus' toy shop, and Santa Claus himself driving away with his pack on his back. Every room had a Christmas tree decorated with the hand work of the children; with paper ornaments and clay models in the lower grades, and with hand made gifts in the upper grades. The Christmas exercises consisted of carol singing under the direction of the seniors who have taught music, and the presentation of a Christmas play prepared by the ninth grade teachers. After the exercises the tree decorations were given to the children who had made them, so that no child went home without a gift for Mother or Father. The Jack Horner pie produced half a pound of candy for each child in the school.

But the Christmas in Model School was distinctly an unselfish season, for the war was not forgotten. During the fall the children of the higher grades knitted one sweater and nine scarfs for the soldiers, and made twenty-seven woolen hospital stockings. They also brought remnants of yarn from home for making a convalescent comfort for soldiers. This will doubtless be turned over to the Shippensburg branch of the Red Cross Association. When the call came for contributions to the Y. M. C. A. War Fund, the ninth grade voluntarily responded with a pledge of twenty dollars, which is to be accumulated by earning and saving. As there are only eighteen children in this grade, the gift will call for considerable self sacrifice.

The seniors this year have thrown themselves into Model School work with great enthusiasm and conscientiousness, and the results have been correspondingly satisfactory. The Model School supervisors express the highest commendation of the work.

SCHOOL NEWS

October 12.—Dr. Lehman left on Friday noon for Saxton, Bedford county, where he addressed an educational meeting on "The Public School as a Community Center." Five graduates of Normal are teaching in the Saxton schools.

October 19.—Prof. Stewart delivered an interesting and helpful address to the Civic Club on "Patriotism".

The Normal School was represented on the program of two local institutes on Saturday. Mrs. Stewart spoke at the Shippensburg institute in the forenoon and Mrs. Herr addressed the local institute at Upper Strasburg in the afternoon.

October 26.—Samuel W. Shearer, a member of the senior class received his call to report at Camp Meade on Friday. The students gave him a royal send-off and the boys presented him with a fine wrist watch as a token of their appreciation. Mr. Shearer will be very much missed at the Normal, as he was an all round athlete, president of his class and active in a number of school activities. The best wishes of the students and faculty go with him.)

October 26, 27.—Miss Linnie Hess, '90, of the Steelton schools, was a visitor at Normal on Thursday and Friday.

October 30.—The Faculty Club met Tuesday, and discussed two dramas of Clyde Fitch "Barbara Freitchie" and "Beau Brummel."

Twenty-eight students and teachers from the Normal went to hear Evan Williams in Chambersburg on Friday evening.

Tuesday morning at the chapel exercises Mr. A. R. Burkhart presented a silk flag and standard on behalf of the Philo Literary Society. Mr. Burkhart spoke eloquently of the significance of the flag and asked that it be accepted as a memorial to the boys of the school who have entered military service. Dr. Lehman accepted it on behalf of the school and thanked the society for its generosity and its public spirit in thus commemorating boys of both societies who have enrolled in the nation's armies.

October 31.—Rev. John D. Lindsay, of the Presbyterian Church, delivered a helpful address at the prayer meeting services in the chapel on Wednesday evening.

November 3.—The football game with the Mercersburg Reserves was an interesting and closely contested one. The boys from Mercersburg expected an easy victory as their team is one of the strongest they have had for years. At first it seemed as though their expectations would be realized, as during the first quarter they swept down the field and menaced Normal's goal. The Normal boys, however, came back in the second quarter and turned the tables. Shearer made a spectacular run to within two yards of the goal and in a few seconds the ball was over for a touchdown. Normal outplayed the Mercersburg team and, but for an unfortunate misplay, would have held their opponents scoreless. Through this misplay the Mercersburg team secured the ball near their opponent's goal and forced their way over the line. The goal was kicked making the score 7-6 in favor of Mercersburg. The game ended soon after with the Normal boys forcing the ball towards their opponent's goal.

November 4.—Dr. Lehman went to Harrisburg to attend the meeting of the Normal School principals on Monday. He opened the discussion of the question "Should the Normal Schools Organize a Course of Training for Prospective Teachers of Rural Schools?"

November 6, 8.—Dr. Lehman spoke before the Franklin and Adams county institutes during the week. He was at Chambersburg on Tuesday and in Gettysburg on Thursday.

November 7.—Dr. J. Geo. Becht, Secretary State Board of Education and Deputy Attorney General Keeler met representatives of the trustees of the Normal School in Carlisle on Wednesday, and signed the documents necessary to the transfer of the school to the State. A new board of trustees will be appointed within a week or ten days. All of the Normal Schools of the State except three are now owned by the State.

November 9.—Mr. A. R. Burkhart, of the junior class, was called to the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army on Friday. He reported to Des Moines, Iowa, where he will be under instruction for two or three months. The best wishes of the faculty and students go with him.

November 10.—Prof. J. K. Stewart addressed the Neville teachers' institute Saturday on "The Teacher's 4 8's."

November 11.—Prof. Frank Green, formerly principal of the York High School, now representing Allyn & Bacon, was a visitor at Normal on Monday. Prof. Green is a member of the class of '97.

November 12.—Miss Horton went to Chambersburg on Monday where she represented the Normal School Herald at the Chambersburg institute.

November 14.—A quartette consisting of Messrs. Horton, Surface, Watson and Thrush was present from the school at the Franklin County Alumni meeting on last Wednesday evening. The boys sang several times during the evening. Miss Adams also furnished part of the entertainment. Several other members of the faculty were present.

November 15.—Dr. and Mrs. Lehman and Miss Horton motored to Harrisburg Thursday evening to attend the Dauphin County Alumni Banquet held in the Shimmel Building. Dr. S. Z. Shope is president of this association, and through his efforts and those of the committee working with him about 125 persons were present. Dauphin County is not in our Normal School district but the alumni from that county set the pace for all other associations.

November 16.—A plate collection for the Y. M. C. A. War Fund was taken in chapel on Friday morning. $52.40 was contributed by the students. The faculty contributed $101.00.

November 17.—A moving picture entertainment was given Saturday evening in the chapel. Prof. LeVan, who has charge of this feature of the school work, presented a pleasing variety of films, both interesting and instructive.

November 17.—Those who were fortunate enough to witness the football game between the Millersville eleven and the team from Normal on the Eckles Field last Saturday saw one of the best games that has been played for several years in Shippensburg. Both teams entered the contest desiring to win. Each team was willing to lose all the other games of the season if it could win this one. Millersville won the toss and elected to defend the southern goal. Her team, however, failed to gain in four downs and the ball went to Normal. Our team surprised its opponents and delighted its friends by the way it marched down the field. In five minutes Taylor went over for the first touchdown. Attempted goal failed. Millersville played gamely but the Shippensburg boys rushed the ball down the field for another touchdown from which goal was kicked. Another touchdown was added in the second quarter and the first half closed with the score 19-0 in favor of Shippensburg.

Millersville came back strong in the second half, but Taylor and Bolan proved themselves invincible for Normal and by the end runs and line plunges forced the ball down the field for two more touchdowns from one of which Taylor kicked a goal, the game ending with the score 32-0 in favor of Shippensburg. Millersville really played a stronger game than the score indicates but they were out-classed in every department of the game. All the visitors were impressed with the splendid team work of the Normal boys. Too much credit cannot be given Coach Robert L. Myers, Jr., who developed a winning team under decidedly discouraging conditions.

November 21.—Mr. E. M. Huntsinger, of Hagins, Pa., was a visitor at Normal on Wednesday. The older graduates may remember Mr. Huntsinger as a student of the school in 1875. This was his first visit to the school since he left and he was naturally interested in the remarkable changes in and about the school.

Mr. Roy Kriner, a member of the senior class, was called to the colors and left for Columbus, Ohio. He has since been sent to Washington, D. C., and expected to leave for France about the middle of December.

November 22.—Mrs. Herr and Miss Snively attended the Chambersburg institute last Thursday.

November 23.—The Model School held its annual donation on Wednesday. The children brought various articles of food, clothing, etc., which will be distributed to the pupils of the Model School who are in want of food and clothing.

November 24.—Dr. Lehman was in Harrisburg on Saturday attending a meeting of Normal School principals and county and borough superintendents. This committee will consider the advisability of a revision of the course of study in Normal schools.

November 29.—The Thanksgiving Day Services at the Normal were of unusual interest. The chapel was appropriately decorated with flowers. After the singing of a hymn Dr. Lehman read the President's Thanksgiving Proclamation and a quartette sang Gounod's "Praise Ye the Father," which was followed by scripture reading and prayer. A chorus under the direction of Miss Adams then sang "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" after which Rev. Ross D. Murphy, of the Church of the Brethren, delivered a very earnest and instructive sermon. The offering, which was a liberal one, was turned over to the poor fund of the Model School.

The Thanksgiving dinner was probably the very best that Miss Eppley has ever provided. The Normal people have been "Hooverizing" with the rest of the country but on this occasion the ban was lifted and all feasted on a seven course dinner. Turkey of course formed the principal article of attack, but the preceding and following courses were both appetizing and satisfying.

The Thanksgiving play "The Twig of Thorn," was very successfully rendered in the evening. The fact that the play was of a different type from any before presented at the school gave added interest to it.

The two qualities inherent in all Irish character—practicality and mysticism—were represented in the play respectively by the hero and the poet. The contest between these two for the possession of the heroine represented the struggle always existing between the mysticism of the old legends and the practical needs of modern Ireland for the possession of what is best in Irish life. The hero—the practical—very properly won the heroine, but it was the poet—the romantic, the beauty, and the mysticism of the old legends, who quite as properly was required to save the heroine for her hero. The part of the poet was most sympathetically played by Mr. Charles Brophy, who embodied very picturesquely the romance and poetry so characteristic of the wandering Celtic singers. It was from Mr. Brophy's splendid interpretation of the poet that the rest of the play gathered its predominating mystical tone. Mr. Jo Hays made an excellent hero and successful rival for the love of Oonah, whose part was taken by Miss Romaine Nell. The wooing of this charming Irish colleen by her peasant lover was a delightful piece of acting. The two protesting old women, Miss Marguerite Fleschutz and Miss Mary Byerly played their rather difficult parts exceptionally well and Mr. Harper Wentz as Father Brian was an excellent Irish priest. The scene in which the fairy appeared was the most beautiful of the play. Miss Veronica McFadden, as the fairy, wove a magic spell over the hero and heroine, dancing exquisitely and pelting the mortals with prim-roses while an unseen harp played fairy music and a concealed voice sang a lovely Irish fairy song. Miss Xenia Miller as the harpist and Miss Edna Spath as the voice, were splendid fairy musicians. A group of lively Irish peasants including Misses Dorothy Brindle, Mildred Crook, Olive Garber, Lela Pettigrew, Helen Brown and Margaret Carothers, and Messrs. Charles Mower, Harvey Bolan, Robert Craig, Erwin Mitchell, Wilbur LeCron and Paul Knouse contributed materially to the success of the play by their folk songs and dances. The program was as follows:

“THE TWIG OF THORN”

An Irish Fairy Play in Two Acts by Marie Josephine Warren.

The Persons in the Play

Nessa Teig—The woman of the house.....Miss Marguerite Fleschutz
 Maurya—Her neighbor.....Miss Mary Byerly
 Conah—Nessa's granddaughter.....Miss Romaine Nell Aengus Arann—A young peasant.....Mr. Jo Hays
 Aileel—A wandering poet.....Mr. Charles Brophy
 Father Brian—The priest.....Mr. Harper Wentz
 A Faery Child.....Miss Veronica McFadden
 A Faery Voice.....Miss Edna Spath
 Neighbors—Finula, Dorothy Brindle; Kathleen, Mildred Crook; Sheila, Olive Garber; Sheamus, Charles Mower; Martin, Harvey Bolan, Tumaus, Robert Craig.

Other Neighbors—Lela Pettigrew, Helen Brown, Margaret Carothers, Erwin Mitchell, Wilbur LeCron and Paul Knouse.

The scene is laid in the cottage of Nessa Teig, in County Galway, near Kylebeg, in the year of the Great Famine.

Act I—Twilight on the last day of March.

Act II—The first day of winter of the same year. During this act the curtain is lowered for an instant, to indicate the lapse of a half-hour.

The director of the play, Miss Lillian G. Trego, deserves much credit for the success of the performance. The players showed the results of careful and painstaking coaching. Miss Marion Conover directed the dances that contributed so much to the play. The orchestra under the direction of Miss Adams pleased the audience and merited the applause given its selections. Misses Trego, Adams and Conover were called to the front and presented with flowers by the cast as a token of appreciation of their work. The lighting under the direction of Profs. Graham and LeVan contributed to the scenic effects of the changing scenes throughout the play. The costumes were particularly appropriate and were prepared by a committee of which Miss Irene Huber was chairman. The net proceeds of the play amounting to more than $100 were divided between the Y. M. and

Y. W. C. A. to be used for the Eagles Mere and Northfield Funds.

Unfortunately the weather was too unpleasant to permit the game of hockey to be played and a game of basket ball between the sophomore and junior class teams furnished plenty of amusement and excitement. The game was won by the juniors.

Among the guests present at the school for the Thanksgiving play and the week-end were Miss Macy and Mr. Fanning of last year's faculty. Both were welcomed heartily by students and faculty.

December 1.—The inter-class hockey tournament opened with a game between the seniors and juniors. Though the day was unpleasant a large crowd of students was present to cheer the respective teams. After a spirited contest the seniors won by a score of 6-1. The second game of the tournament was played between the sophomore and freshman teams on Thursday afternoon. This game was, if possible, more hotly contested than the first one and was won by the freshmen by a score of 3-1.

December 2.—The last social of the fall term was the faculty reception held in the school parlors and the gymnasium. There was a large attendance of the students, as well as a goodly number of alumni present.

December 3.—Fifteen or twenty students and members of the faculty went to Carlisle on Monday evening to attend the banquet given by the Cumberland County Alumni Association. The school was represented on the program, which was given in the opera house. Miss Adams sang and the boys' quartette rendered several selections. Several members of the Thanksgiving Day Play cast gave a scene from "The Twig of Thorn."

Miss Horton spent Monday at the Carlisle institute in the interest of the Normal School Herald.

The faculty was well represented on the program of the Cumberland County Institute. Misses Conover and Harris and Dr. Lehman delivered addresses.

December 6.—The Press Club meeting held on Thursday, was well attended. Mr. Monroe Gobrecht, formerly a member of the graduating class, but now stationed at Camp Meade, gave an interesting account of life in the great cantonment.

Dr. Lehman delivered three addresses at the institute at McConnellsburg.

The Normal Society has decided to purchase a service flag for the school and a committee consisting of Mr. Weldon Myers, Siddonsburg; Miss Clara Hoekersmith, Shippensburg; and Mr. Paul Knouse, of Biglerville, has been appointed to arrange for the purchase of the same. The action on the part of the literary society shows the interest of its members in the work being done for the nation by former students.

December 8.—The Y. W. C. A. Bazaar was held in the school parlors Saturday afternoon. A fine collection of various articles suitable for Christmas presents was on sale and a nice sum was realized.

The first basket ball game of the season was played in the Normal gymnasium. The Normal boys met the Alpha Club of Waynesboro. The longer training and greater age of the opposing team proved too much for the Normal boys as their opponents won 18-10. The Normal team, however, gave a fine exhibition of team work, especially in the second half of the game. It is likely that the Normal team will develop rapidly and show much strength before the close of the season.

December 10.—The newly appointed board of trustees met in the school parlor on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. J. Geo. Becht, Sec. of the State Board of Education, was present to advise with the members of the board. All the members were then sworn in and the following organization was effected: Pres.—Geo. H. Stewart, Shippensburg; Sec.—Geo. S. McLean, Shippensburg; Vice Pres.—L. E. Smith, Greencastle. Committees were appointed to draw up by-laws for the meetings of the board and to arrange for other matters of immediate importance. The next meeting of the board will be on Friday, January 11, 1918.

December 19.—Miss Adams prepared a new departure in the line of Christmas music which proved very pleasing. She arranged a carol service for Wednesday evening. The carols were sung by students stationed in different parts of the building. The program was as follows:

Orchestra	O, Little Town of Bethlehem
Chorus	Adeste Fideles
Chorus	Christmas Comes Again
Prayer	Professor LeVan
Chorus	It came Upon the Midnight Clear
King, Page and Chorus	Good King Wenceslas
Girls' Chorus	Under the Stars
Christmas Message	Rev. Frank S. Fry
Three Kings and Chorus	We Three Kings of Orient Are
Chorus	Silent Night
Chorus	Good Night and Christmas Prayer
Orchestra	Angels From the Realms of Glory

HONOR ROLL OF SERVICE

With this issue of THE HERALD we are publishing an "Honor Roll" of our graduates and students who have gone into service. We shall publish this list with any additions that we may learn, in every edition of THE HERALD until the end of the war.

1919. H. S. Alexander, A. R. Burkhart, Geo. J. Epley, Fred D. Lamberson, Harry F. McElhare, Harrison Tompkins.

WAR WORK

As stated elsewhere in THE HERALD, during the Y. M. C. A. campaign, the students of Normal contributed $52.00 and the faculty $101.00. During the Red Cross drive 27 of the faculty paid membership dues in the Red Cross. $100.00 was contributed to the local Red Cross by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., and the 9th grade of the Model School gave $15.00. The students and faculty together have knitted about twenty-five pairs of wristlets, twenty-five sweaters, thirty scarfs, and a number of hemlets, wash cloths, and other articles. They have also prepared five hundred surgical dressings.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Department of Extension

Division of Extension Teaching

Austin, Texas, Nov. 1, 1917.

Dr. Ezra Lehman,
Shippensburg, Pa.

Dear Dr. Lehman:

I have just received your circular of October 1917.

Since I am located in Texas, manifestly it is impossible for me to do any very active work for Old Normal. However, my heart is right, and whenever I am any place where a word for my Alma Mater will be of service to her, I certainly shall always say that word. I am particularly interested in the extension teaching work that you are about to organize in your section of Pennsylvania. You will perceive from the head of this letter that I am engaged in similar work for the University of Texas. I shall be glad indeed to hear what you are doing and to give the man who is in charge of extension activities at Shippensburg the benefit of anything that we may have learned here in Texas. We are just perfecting our plans for actual extra-mural class work in cities other than Austin. Our correspondence study project has been in operation for a number of years. Last year, we had 1565 students registered for the correspondence courses.

In passing, I might mention that I am now Head of the Division of Extension Teaching in the University of Texas. I shall be glad to have that change in my position noted in your annual catalog. I confess I have been somewhat negligent about keeping you all informed concerning my whereabouts. It isn't, however, that I have not thought of you many times during past years. I am looking forward to 1924 to the re-union of my class.

Please send me a copy of the October HERALD.

Sincerely yours,

R. G. BRESSLER,

Head of the Division.

'07. Miss Janet Cunningham and Miss Janet Marshal, '10., have taken examinations for government positions.

'07. Miss Dess Jones is teaching 6th grade in the schools of Vintondale, Cambria Co., Pa.

'07. Mr. James B. Jones is teaching history and arithmetic in the Junior High School at Kemmerer, Wyoming.

'08. Mr. Denny C. Noonan is a representative of D. C. Heath & Co., at Seattle, Wash.

'09. Miss Edna Senseney is teaching at Ft. Loudon.

'10. The following is part of a letter received from Miss Laura Daugherty, who is teaching in Artesia, Arizona, and we know you will all be glad to read it.

"I am very glad to learn of the growth of the old school and am looking forward to our class reunion of 1920 when I shall come east. I shall be anxious to see the improvements in the buildings. I have not received THE HERALD but am enclosing $1.00 for which please see that it is sent to me. I do not know who is editor or should send the money to him.

"When attending Valparaiso University in 1913 I learned about Arizona and then began trying to get a position in the state but did not succeed until 1916. In the meantime I taught in Iowa and spent summers in other states, having lived for some time in ten. Last year I taught the Artesia school and am now teaching a second term. I have 33 pupils, five in eighth grade, unusual for Arizona as few finish the grades, in rural schools. Last year I received $80 per month but am now getting $87.50; the usual increase gave me $7.50 and I did not ask it. Our school system is good; teachers as a rule are well trained; we have a larger percent of college graduates in our High schools than Michigan.

"Artesia is a new settlement at the eastern side of Mt. Graham, 10,526 feet high. Rain and snow fall on the mountain but do not reach us. Snow lies there until July thus keeping the temperature lower. We have not had a real rain since October 1916. Last Wednesday I took the pupils to a Circus at the county seat twelve miles north and the alkali dust almost choked us; we wish for rain. The is a sandy country, almost desert because nothing grows naturally but cactus, mesquites and Yucca. Irrigating is done from Artesian wells and tropical fruits, cotton-everything-can then be grown. The Gila is thirteen miles north of us and we are 100 miles from Mexico. An ostrich farm is not far from Safford, the county seat. This is an ideal climate, perpetual sunshine and mild winters.

"I like ^{to} teaching in Arizona but one must sacrifice much to live here. Life really is hard because houses are mere adobe with one room or frame through which rain and sand are blown, food is poorly prepared and no variety. Large families live in tents. At present I have a room in a seven roomed house and it is considered grand here. Our school house is abode and well equipped.

"I spent part of vacation in Tuscon; it is a remarkable city. The Spanish Mission of SanXavier founded 1692 thrills one. In the Papago reservation one sees grinding corn or rubbing it between stones; Indians carrying melons on their heads and other old customs. I suppose you have been in Tuscon and have seen the Mission. I made a study of both.

"In a HERALD something was mentioned about desiring a collection from these states. I have always collected for pleasure and now could send some things to Normal if I knew what is desired. Will the school pay the express charges? Please advise me what is desired. I have the poisonous insects of this section, can gather flowers, have no chance to get stones now but shall later. I may spend next summer on the mountain or at the Normal, Flagstaff.

"All good wishes for the success of Normal.

I am yours respectfully

L. DAUGHERTY, 1910."

P.S.—Failed to mention that a teacher must be a community leader and plan social functions and there training at C. V. S. N. S. aids one for the social life there is not neglected. At first I had difficulty in planning a Hallowe'en Party but then remembered one at Normal. Everybody mentioned having the most fun ever.

Is Palmer Method of Writing taught there? I hope so as teachers must have a Palmer certificate in many states. Wish we had been required to have one before we were graduated. L. H. D.

'10. Miss Ethel Jones is teaching the primary school at Fannettsburg.

'10. Miss Helen Jones is teaching 5th grade at Conshocken.

'11. Miss Anna U. Wenger is principal of the Beaver Falls schools at Patterson Heights, Pa.

'11. Miss Edna Harman is teaching ancient and American history, agriculture, commercial geography and bookkeeping in the schools of East Bank, W. Va.

'11. Miss Flora H. Elliot is attending Pierce School in Philadelphia.

'11. Mr. William Skelly is now principal of Bloserville High School.

'11. Miss Gwendolyn Elder has given up teaching and is employed in a Harrisburg Bank.

'11. Mr. Harry McCleaf is not teaching this year but is foreman in one of the manufacturing plants at Pottstown, Pa.

'12. The following letter from Miss Kathleen Reed will be of interest to many of our readers:

23 East 34th Street,
Bayonne, N. J., Oct. 6, 1917.

Dr. Ezra Lehman,
Pres. State Normal School,
Shippensburg, Penn'a.

Dear Sir,

Some time ago I received your much appreciated letter for which I thank you. Five years have passed since I left the halls of Normal to begin my work in life.

With your permission I shall give a brief account of my experience in my work during those five years. The year of 1912-'13 I taught at "Monroe School," an ungraded, rural school near Jamesburg. The salary was $500. The year of 1913-'14 I was principal of Prospect Plains Grammar School, salary $550. The year of 1914-'15 I taught in the grammar department of the public schools of Hightstown, salary $575. The year of 1915-'16 I taught in Hightstown, salary $600.

During my three years in Hightstown I taught the fifth, sixth and seventh grades in all subjects. My last year there I taught three fifth grades of boys in Mechanical Drawing in addition to my grade.

I am now teaching the sixth grade A in the Philip G. Vroom School of Bayonne at a salary of $850. I am also teaching a class of seventh grade girls in the Lincoln evening school of this city. The evening schools began Octobe 1st. Including salary for evening school work my yearly salary will be $978.

I am delighted with my work here and am glad to be one of the 400 teachers of this city. The road to success is an uphill one. The state of New Jersey would not accept any of my Pennsylvania diplomas so I was required to take twenty-five examinations to earn a New Jersey State Permanent Elementary Certificate. I received this certificate July 1, 1916.

For three summers I attended the New Jersey State College Summer School at Rutgers College, New Brunswick. During my summers there I earned a certificate in each of the following subjects: Agriculture, Agricultural Arithmetic, Hygiene, Elocution, Manual Training, Domestic Science, Elementary Physics, Lab. Course in Physics and Advanced College Physics. In addition, I have completed three years of study of piano.

The doors of Columbia are now standing open for me and the next thing for improvement will be a series of courses at Columbia. You will now agree that these have been busy, profitable years for me and that the lessons I have learned at Normal have been a firm foundation upon which I am building my career.

Kindly remember me to all the members of the faculty, especially to the dean of 1912, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Stewart.

Sincerely,

An upholder of the Scarlet and Gray

KATHLEEN C. REED.

KEEP CLEAR OF THE BLIND ALLEYS

In one of the largest English cities one frequently sees a sign reading "Blind Alley" signifying that the passage way does not lead into any larger street, but ends abruptly.

At this time when the demand for help is so urgent in all occupations it would be well for all our young people to look out for the blind alleys,—the occupations that do not lead anywhere, that have no future before them. There are many places open to young people today at attractive wages that are nothing but blind alleys. They will end abruptly as soon as the war and the present unusual business conditions come to an end. Thousands of young men and women will suddenly find themselves out of work and they will be unprepared to take any positions other than those involving hard manual labor.

We sound this note of warning because so many young people are taking short cut courses in cheap business colleges led on by the promise of good positions in a few months. It is possible for them to secure these positions now, but they should understand that in a short time when conditions readjust themselves they will lose their places in favor of those who are properly equipped for the work. No young man or woman should think of entering business life until he has secured a good education. The bookkeeper, typewriter and stenographer whose English education is defective and who has nothing but a meager common school education, will find too late that he is unfitted to take his place in the hard work of the world. He will be forced into the great army of the unemployed and will become one of the restless dissatisfied mass always found in times of industrial depression.

Now is the time for young people to prepare themselves for the great work that lies ahead of them. The world will demand trained men and women after the present war. It will have splendid openings for those who are thus equipped but it will have little time for or patience with those unfitted to hold their own among the trained workers. Teachers have a great responsibility upon them at this time in advising their students against short cuts to business or professional life. Young people should not leave school without getting the very best education possible, as the need of it will be more marked in the next five years than it has ever been before. Boys and girls are too often in these days lured by attractive wages into mills and factories and are thus induced to sell their intellectual birth-right for a mess of pottage.

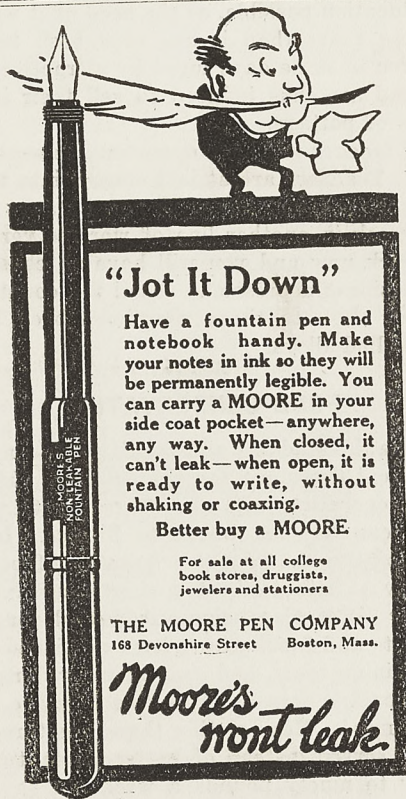

The trained teacher will have opportunities such as he has never enjoyed before. Teachers are at last coming into their own but the teacher who abandons his or her work now because he can get a few dollars more a week in another line of work is very foolish indeed. Stick to your work now and you will have no cause to regret your decision when business depressions assail the country and the blind alley occupations close to those who have been lured into them. Look out for the blind alleys.

FOOD CONSERVATION

Not only have the students and faculty at Normal been knitting, and folding surgical dressings for the soldiers, but they have also been heartily co-operating with the government in conserving the food stuffs that can be sent across to France. In order to save pork fat, Mr. Robinson has bought a quantity of beef tallow, which can be used very satisfactorily for shortening and for frying; a vegetable cooking oil is also being substituted for the usual meat fats. The students and faculty have been cautioned about the waste of butter in the dining room, and as a result we are using from five to six pounds a meal, whereas before this term we used from eight to ten pounds a meal. Besides this there are three meals a week when gravies are served instead of butter, so that it is safe to say that from eighty to ninety pounds a week are saved. The bread, which is a coarser graham bread made by the baker in compliance with government regulations, is cut into smaller pieces than heretofore, and for the second serving no more is cut than is definitely ordered, so that one fourth the ordinary amount is saved. Besides this saving we are having wheatless meals, nearly one a day, thus releasing a large amount of wheat for the fighters. Potatoes are being substituted for wheat to some extent, many of which are from the crop raised by the school last summer. We have been forced to cut down on the consumption of sugar, and have made a very generous decrease, as can be seen by the fact that in December 1916, seven hundred and seventy-one pounds were used, while only four hundred and sixty-six pounds were used in December 1917. In much of the cooking one-half brown sugar is used with the white sugar. Brown sugar is also used in making syrup for the tables. Two days a week are observed as meatless days, but no complaint has been heard from the students, for the menus are often very attractive.

The Present Demand is Enormous

THOUSANDS of young men and women are needed by the government for desirable clerical positions, and the young men called by the draft are vacating other thousands of positions that must be filled quickly in order to keep business moving and back the men up at the front.

A few months' intensive training will give you a big advantage over others who delay. Call or write for information. The call is urgent. Time is precious.
