

NORMAL RECEIVED DECISIVE DEFEAT

The most crushing defeat ever administered a Bloomsburg eleven in three years was that on Saturday.

The first half of the game was played in a driving snow storm with the gridiron covered with mud. In the second half the storm ceased and Bloomsburg took a decided brace with the result that each team scored a touch down.

The breaks of the game that are always present on a wet field made their appearance at the outset and in the first half decidedly favored the home eleven. In the last half fate about equally divided her support between the two contesting elevens.

Bloomsburg was saved from a shut out when Walsh, visiting quarterback, in the closing minutes of the game ran a kick-off back 80 yards through the entire Shippensburg team for a touchdown.

Over 100 yards in penalties were dealt out during the game with Shippensburg being penalized 90 yards and Bloomsburg being set back 35 yards.

Coach Bentz has developed one of the best elevens ever turned out at Shippensburg. The line is strong both in defense and on offense and the backs are fast and hard to stop. The winning of the Bloomsburg game allows them to play Slippery Rock Normal on Thanksgiving Day for the Championship of the normal schools of the State. In the first game of the season, Shippensburg lost to Mercersburg Academy, 13-0, but since then remains undefeated.

As reported by Schuyler in "Morning Press."

GLEE CLUBS WILL MAKE DEBUT.

To Present Program Thursday Evening.

Each of the three glee clubs will make its debut tomorrow evening in the auditorium as a special feature of Education Week. This promises to be very interesting so do not fail to come.

Prof. Carter has arranged the following program for the evening:

- Senior Girls' Glee Club.
- Deep River—Burleigh.
- Thy Beaming Eyes—Mac Dowell.
- The Big Brown Bear—Mana Succa.
- Junior Girls' Glee Club.
- The Sweet Little Girl and the Quaint Squeeges—Warner.
- Lullaby, from "Ermine"—Jakobowski.
- The Alphabet—Mozart-Pax.
- Men's Glee Club.
- We Meet Again To-night.
- Forsaken—Koschat.
- Mary's Wise Man—Burnham.

PLAY TO BE PRESENTED.

Y. W. Girls to Give Short Thanksgiving Skit.

Tonight at the Y. W. meeting a number of girls will present a short Thanksgiving play, under the direction of Miss Johnston. Edith Morris, a Junior, will have charge of the devotions. This promises to be a good meeting so don't miss it!

HUBERMAN RECITAL.

Bronislaw Huberman, the violinist delighted the large audience assembled in the auditorium on Friday evening, November 14, 1924.

His recital was distinguished by the presentation of Mendelssohn's "Concerto" Op. 64. Mr. Huberman's portrayal of this difficult work lifted the entire recital to a plane of musical enjoyment.

He also gave Bach's "Adagio e Fuge in G. Minor." In this rendition he was unaccompanied.

His Beethoven's "Romance, in G. Op. 40" and "Albumblatt" by Wagner-Wilhelmj were very well received.

Mr. Huberman concluded his program by playing his own arrangement of Chopin's Waltz, "Op. 64, No. 2" and two Spanish Dances, "Romanza Andaluza" and "Jota Navarra" both compositions by Saraste.

FASHIONS AND FADS.

The ten cent store is rapidly making money on rings. They're now being worn on all four fingers. All we need now is one for our thumb.

Students' clothes run a close second to money. They pass through so many hands and are found on so many different people.

No, there isn't going to be an overflow of women teachers. Watch the girls with the new frat pins.

In connection with this, take note of the mixed campus strollers. Take particular note of "Ye Auld Pals."

Knitted cotton socks are rapidly taking the place of silk hosiery among the men students of our reknowned normal. They are made in all the latest shades. Very fashionable.

WOMEN DAY STUDENTS TO HAVE GET TOGETHER PARTY.

The young women boarding in the town will have a Get Together party in the Recreation room, Wednesday night, November 19. There are thirty-seven of these students, and this occasion will afford them the opportunity to get acquainted with each other. The committee hopes to secure one hundred per cent attendance.

IT'S LIFE.

If your plans go wrong—
As they sometimes will—
And the hours seem long
As you climb the hill;
Remember, my friend,
'Tis a part you play
And you'll find in the end
A brighter day.
It's Life.

NORTH HALL NOTES.

The members of the B. D. C. Club had their pictures taken on the front porch of North Hall Thursday noon.

At the meeting of the B. D. C. Boshel and Dugan were appointed to visit Dr. Reimer on the question of wall lights and drinking fountains for North Hall.

LAST HOME GAME THIS SATURDAY

Normal's biggest and last home game of the year will be played on Mount Olympus, Saturday, November 22. The Maroon and Gold will have as their opponents, their arch rivals from Dickinson Seminary.

Dickinson will come here with a team reputed to be one of the best ever turned out from that institution. Normal, although not having a bright season to date, is practicing hard every night with the hope of being on edge for Dickinson.

Normal's line-up does not look very radiant. Full back-Haupt last week sustained a broken collar bone which will keep him out the rest of the season. Captain Fitzpatrick is still on the sidelines due to his bad shoulder but his shoulder is rapidly rounding into shape and he will, in all probability, be able to play Saturday.

Many minor bruises were received by the boys in their game with C. V. S. N. S., but they are not serious enough to keep any of the Normalites from playing.

RECEPTION OF THE NOTABLES.

A reception of notable characters was held in the B. S. N. S. dining hall last night. The hall was indeed very tastefully decorated with bars of black and white crepe paper adorning the windows.

The evening was fairly enjoyable to all those who were not present. Bed time stories were read, following which a baritone solo, "Lard," was rendered. Robison Crusoe held his audience spell-bound with a violin solo entitled "What do you do on Friday?" and Babe Ruth very condescendingly danced an Irish Jig. Patrick Henry gave an oration that will go down in History, namely, "What's Wrong With His Picture?" King Arthur also entertained the mob. His fencing feats were mose enjoyable.

The guests of honor were the kind of a girl that men never forget and Charlie, my boy.

Henry Ford was present and wore his usula tin uniform. The latest joke cracked by him was his new Ford Coach. Every one agreed with Henry that they had a rattling good time, and the party adjourned to Bush's in the famous "One Hoss Shay," otherwise known as "Lizzie."

BUY! BUY! BUY!

A few weeks ago the B. D. C. bought a great number of megaphones which they intended to sell in order to raise money for the party they so long have promised the girls. Now all these megaphones have not been disposed of and not all the students have them to use at the games. If you want the good time, girls, buy the megaphones. They cost only fifteen cents and they will help out a lot.

Buy One! Buy All!
Let's get rid of the Megaphones!
of the poor, insignificant Junior Glee Club,—Let's hope so!

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS.

We are glad to welcome Miss Schottenfels and Miss Ward to Bloomsburg Normal School.

Miss Gertrude Schottenfels teaches Juvenile Literature and Junior English. She is fully prepared to do this since she has received her bachelor's and Master's degree in English and Rhetoric at the University of Chicago. As head of the English Department at Boise High School and State Normal Summer School at Boise, Idaho, and the Indianapolis Normal and Teacher's College at Cheney, Washington, she was a very capable teacher. Miss Schottenfels has come to us from State Teachers College, Maryville, Mo. We know she will like it here and we hope to do all for her that we possibly can to make her stay at Bloomsburg enjoyable.

Of course every one knows Miss Ward. Needless to say she is the dietitian. It is by her that our menus are made. She is the one who orders that we have sweet potatoes, ham and soup on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; pie on Thursday; brown bread, mashed potatoes, ice cream for Sunday dinner; and a host of other good things—not to mention the fish on Friday.

Miss Ward is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and obtained her B. S. degree from that institution. She has come directly to us from Lake Forest College in Illinois, where she taught for two years. Miss Ward, we welcome you and may your teaching course at B. S. N. S. be one that will never be forgotten.

BOYS DINE AT REILLYS.

Discuss Problems of School.

The boys of the B. S. N. S. held their first entertainment at Reillys' Ice Cream Parlor to discuss the affairs of the school. The question of most importance was that of couples sitting together in the library and it was decided that it should be allowed. Music and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The program consisted of the following:

- (a) Piano solo by Electric Piano.
- (b) Selection on "Little Old Red Shawl"—Entire Club.
- (c) Ukelele Selections—Anskis and Cooper.
- (d) Vocal Solo, "Aint You Ashamed"—Art Jenkins.

A short business meeting followed the social hour at which was decided the meeting time. In the future the club will meet Wednesday evenings at eleven o'clock.

The following members were present:

WHAT A WONDERFUL PROFESSION

I wonder how many of us realize what a wonderful profession we have chosen as our life work? Probably it was for no reason of our own that we choose it—we may have done so to please our parents, or because we couldn't attend college and decided that normal school is the next place to be, or maybe we came here just for the sport of it.

No matter what the reason for our choice, however, the fact remains that, in being here, we are preparing ourselves to be members of the most influential group of people in our country. A quotation from one of Pres. Coolidge's speeches may help us to realize how important teachers are, good teachers with the right ideals. He says in part:

"It would be exceedingly difficult to overestimate the important parts teachers take in the development of the life of the nation. They exercise their art not on the materials of this world, which pass away, but upon the human soul, where it will remain through all eternity. It is the teacher that makes the school, that sets its standards, and determines its success or failure. It is not too much to say that the need of civilization is the need of teachers. The contribution which they make to human welfare is beyond estimation."

"The need of civilization is the need of teachers"—We shall soon help to fill that need. Are we going to do it successfully? And what kind of a contribution shall we make to human welfare, a good one or a bad one? That is for us to decide. If we are sincere, interested in our work, and eager to grow we shall be successful. So let us each take advantage of the opportunities afforded us here at school, as well as those that will present themselves later in our lives, and make up our minds to be as good a teacher as it is possible for us to be.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN.

- School without lessons.
- Joe Laubach a thin man.
- Chicken salad served Wednesday for dinner (instead of beef).
- Dormitories without insects.
- A date without a—fig.
- A radio without static.
- Chapped lips without a reason.
- Jimmy Jones without a smile.
- The girls in the dormitory allowed the privilege of going and coming when they please.
- Bebe Daniels without a girl.
- No Nature Study classes for Juniors.
- Jamie without Marion.
- Postum without a reason.
- Football boys without a scratch.
- The Newport girls on fourth floor quiet as mice and forgetting to sing their nightly dozen songs.
- Lee Bennett short.
- Gretchen Culver without a smile.

- "Liz" Marvin not studying music.
- Having dates in the library.
- Friday without fish.
- Going to the movies in the afternoon.
- Mrs. Holmes forgetting to give pink pills.
- Dancing every night but Wednesday until eight o'clock.
- Jessie and Mutt on the "Outs."

We wonder if the fruit stand in town is very busy selling pears and dates. We refer you to the librarian. Leona Shane does not believe in signs in the library.

The Chapel isn't always empty on Sunday afternoons. Ask "Chet."

The "Sheik" has a new supply of vaseline. "Flo" knows.

All the faculty members attend chapel some of the time, some of them attend all the time, but—all of the faculty members do not attend Chapel all of the time.

Charlotte expects to have a good time Thanksgiving.

"Stretch's" beauty has been marred by the absence of a front tooth.

"Kaz" attends church only when "Lena" is in town.

Stoker enjoys his daily letters. It is wonderful how Jerry makes out with one hand.

Some people like to drink ink. Ask Flossie for further information.

Lanshe would like to have his ring back.

JUNIOR CLASS NOTES.

At a recent meeting of the Junior Class the following officers were elected:

- President—Jerry Fitzpatrick.
- Vice-President—Edith Morris.
- Secretary—Arline Sweet.
- Treasurer—Joseph Kane.

Mr. Wilson was also elected to be faculty advisor.

The following committee chairmen were appointed:

Memorial Committee—Victor Anskis.

Jewell Committee—George Janell.

Motto Committee—Larry Coulbaugh.

The Class colors selected for the year are Maroon and Steel Gray and the class flower is the Red Rose.

Treasurer Joseph Kane is drafting a list of collectors for class dues.

Juniors, have your dues ready when the collectors call, which will probably be after the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mary Isaacs was appointed Class Historian.

FASHIONS.

If girls keep on using paint the way they do, they'll have to join the union. They sell their dressing tables for scaffolds. But—you can't blame them, as there's one born every minute, and they all must live.—Froth.

A style note advises the well-dressed man to wear snub-nosed, short vamps with his floppy trousers. Yeh, on the arm!—Froth.

CHAPEL NOTES.

Education Week Being Observed.

"It was in making Education not only common to all, but in some cases compulsory on all, that the destiny of the Free Republic of America was practically settled."

American Education Week, which was originated and sponsored by the American Legion, has become one of the outstanding National Educational movements. It is the contribution which the American Legion wishes to make toward the advancement of education and the elevation of citizenship.

Education Week is being fittingly observed in the Normal School this week by giving the following interesting programs:

Monday—Constitution Day, under the direction of Mr. Brill.

1. Its Origin and Formation—Samuel Barrow.

2. Its Rank As a Specimen of Political Architecture—Inez Winterstein.

3. Its Relation to the Nation as a Whole—Evert Jamieson.

5. Its Vital Character—Delma Smith.

Tuesday—Patriotism Day.

This program was a very interesting Pageant given by the Junior High School, depicting the Public School in its present and past stages. The first part was the presentation of the actual work done in the Little Red School House, and the second part was devoted to the actual work done in the Junior High School.

Wednesday—School and Teachers' Day.

Thursday—Illiteracy Day—Miss Kulp.

1. Illiteracy in the United States—Genevieve Wilson.

2. Illiteracy a Menace to Our Nation—Pearl Poust.

3. War on Illiteracy Waged in the Mountains of Tennessee—Ida Mittleman.

4. Moonlight Schools of Kentucky—Katherine Cox.

5. The Twilight People—Ruth Owens.

Friday—Physical Education—Under the direction of Mr. Nelson.

1. Playgrounds—Frances Davenport.

2. Sane Athletics For All—Margaret Faye.

3. Physical Education As a Character Builder—Laura Deitrich.

4. Health In the Schoolroom—

PERSONALS.

Many of the students were under the impression that there would be nothing doing over the week-end because the team played away. Girls, don't be among the foolish ones and go home every time the team has an away game, we have our Saturday Night Dances just the same.

"Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home." The following students agreed with the author of that statement and spent the week-end at their homes: Sara Murray, Helen Pursel, Anne Bryant, Alice Morgan, Mary Curwood, Kenneth VanBuskirk, Anna Geary, Mildred Rentz, and Helen Barrett.

Dean Driscoll, Earl Farley, and Eddie Schuyler motored to Shippensburg to witness the glorious defeat of our gallant gridders.

They tell me that Lyle Mather was in Berwick over the week-end and that Dorothy Troy was down in Catawissa. Well girls we hope you enjoyed yourself.

Gertrude Hildebrand visited in Scranton last week-end.

The strains of "I Don't Want to Get Well" floated through the halls last week. We don't blame you Kitty for feeling so about it, we would feel the same if we were the recipient of such beautiful flowers.

Elizabeth Marvin.

Curious Dock: "Do nuts grow on trees, father?"

Father: "Yes, my daughter."

Dock: "Then what kind of a tree do doughnuts grow on?"

Joe Kleckner: "I never could see why they call a boat 'she'."

Jerry Fitzpatrick: "Evidently you never tried to steer one."

Marian Hart: "I would like to have a soap."

Druggist: "Scented or unscented?"

Marian: "Oh, I will take it along."

Prof. Shortess: "What is a vacuum?"

Derrick: "I have it in my head, but I can't just express it."

Roy Haring: "I'd like to find some girl willing to marry me."

Bill Welliver: "Oh—you want one ready maid."

Prof.: "Can you tell me what will happen to gold when it is left uncovered in air?"

Roy Troy: "It will be stolen."

Stude—(At the bank): "Give me a dollar's worth of cents." (Sense).

Banker: "You look as if you need it."

I looked upon a mountain,
I looked down on a plain,
I saw a lot of green stuff,
And it looked like waving grain.
I took another look,
And thought it must be grass,
But, goodness! To my horror,
It was the Junior Class!

The world is old, but likes to laugh,
New jokes are hard to find.
A whole new editorial staff,
Can't tickle every mind.
So everyone help and do his part,
And I surely know we'll have a good start.

Earl Brotherston Stars For Hillsdale.

Earl Brotherston, Bloomsburg's star kicker in football of last year is continuing his good work out there in Hillsdale, Michigan. Below is a clipping taken from one of the Dailies of Hillsdale:

"Kalamazoo, Nov. 8—Hillsdale College defeated Kalamazoo here today for the Blue and White's fifth straight win of the year, by the score of 21-7.

"Hillsdale's superior passing game was responsible for all three of her touchdowns. In the first quarter Borsch threw a long pass to Fairgrieve for a 50-yard gain, and a touchdown. The pair repeated the same feat in the second quarter.

"Another pass, Dorsch to Altman, in the second quarter, netted Hillsdale's third score. Brotherston drop-kicked all three goals."

George Janell spent the week-end in Plymouth as the guest of Kenneth VanBuskirk.

DORM DOINGS.

Evelyn Houpt was taken to her home in Frackville on Tuesday, suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. We sincerely hope that she will be able to return to us soon.

The girls on long hall, fourth floor, think that "Marty" Hoover deserves a medal for bravery in that she came out victorious in the mouse escapade in her room at three o'clock one morning.

Why does Billy Spangenberg prefer to spend her Thanksgiving vacation in Scranton rather than in New York? Postum!

Why does Anne Wagner delight in singing "Charles My Boy?"

If Pearl Sick drank well water would she be Pearl Well?

One day recently a squirrel looking for nuts chanced into a window on fourth floor annex. He found what he sought—nuts. Since then he has been trying to get into other rooms. I wonder if he is successful in his searches?

Wanted:—Special mail service between West Pittston and Bloomsburg. Peg Killian and Jene Wilson.

Cantelope Inn is slipping—No boxes from Buffalo have been received this week.

We wish the Eagles would do their cheering on the Athletic field instead of in the dorm.

Catherine Strine and Ethel Baker are still advertising Milton sausage.

Why does Emily Park advertise Carter's Ink? There's a reason.

Why don't Lyle Mather and Jessie Zimmerman go to the Library any more? Ask Miss Mason, she knows.

Blotters are coming down—from transoms, at least. If you don't believe it ask Miss Conway.

Wanted by fourth floor girls: Mouse proof waste baskets.

Jean Jones will be thankful for many things at Thanksgiving time; namely—well—just use your imagination.

Helen Pursell entertained the following at a birthday party recently: Marjorie Zehner, Kay Munro, Dot Troy, Jean Jones, and Peggy Griffith.

The most popular songs on fourth floor just now is:

"One more week of starvation,

And then we go to the station;

Back to civilization

The D. L. will carry us there."

To some people the D. L. & W. means the "Delay, Linger, and Wait," especially when there is a "Long" at the end of the line. Never mind, Kay, we understand.

Anna Kelly, of Exeter Borough, who graduated in '23, is now teaching in the Swoyerville schools. Her sister, Mary, of the class of '24, is now a teacher in the schools of Old Forge. Both enjoy very much being called "school marms."

Famous saying—"Where's my husband?"

Every Saturday evening third floor annex is entertained by the "vic" and Peggy Patrick, who has at last perfected the radio hop. Three cheers for our side! We win!

Elizabeth Stroh: "I can't find my sneaks."

Mary Curwood: "What's the matter?"

Elizabeth: "Got a cold in my head."

Studes are burning lots of midnight oil these days. Marks are going in, you know. Oh! these sad, sad tales!

The Eagles got rid of a lot of pep the other evening. They also made some throats sore—by irritating them. But it's all in a life time and "us girls must have our fun!" Let's have some more noise, ye basket ball champions!

Wanted—A short cut from the annex to the pressing room. The traffic at present is too congested, as the girls who study must also eat.

Famous saying after ten bells:—

"Proctor, will you get me a drink?"

Mildred Hausch: "I must have been very hungry during last night."

Ellen Whitehouse: "Why?"

Mildred: "Oh! I woke up just as I was biting into a red apple, which I later discovered to be the red ink bottle."

Wonder why everyone cleaned so well last Friday? Maybe they were ambitious.

Advance numbers of the Education Week program are being given nightly by Kit Seiger and Anne Bryant. All those who desire to attend must present for approval one joke from the Ladies' Home Journal.

JUNIOR GLEE CLUB NEWS.

At last the Junior Girls' Glee Club is to make its debut before the public. This event is to take place next Thursday evening in Chapel. It is expected that the club will put forth every effort to make the evening a success and show the Senior warblers that they aren't alone in the race for recognition. Perhaps after this the Seniors will sit up and take notice
