FRESHMAN IN REVOLT LED BY BURNOZZI

What A Leader?

The Upper Classmen have made an attempt to establish Freshman Rules here and have, up to this time, been successful. The Tribunal has been successful in inflicting penalties and they have been backed by the school authorities.

One member of the class has shown himself poor stuff. He refused to obey the rules, he refused to take penalties. An invitation was sent him to attend a party on the Athletic field. He refused to appear. The coach practically backed him and now Freshmen have thrown off the customs.

They follow Burnozzi! What a king. Backing of the revolters by the coach overthrows an advantageous structure. What can we do to build up our organization? Must we buck the Dean of Men?

No, Upper Classmen. Look with pity on the Freshman because they follow such peculiar leaders. Freshmen get out of the rut!

SYMPATHY STRIKE

All the girls throw off customs! They follow the fellows like sheep after their leader. Let's be original. Beauty is not found in copying.

NORMAL HOLDS WYOMING SEMINARY

Score 16-0

Playing a great game Normal held the big Wyoming Seminary team to 16-0, last Saturday. The snow which fell on Friday made the field muddy and the going was hard for both teams. Hundreds of Normal students and Alumni were at Kingston to see the game. Every person came away well pleased with the showing B. S. N. S. made against a team that has not been scored upon this year. The wearers of the Maroon and Gold put up a better fight than any team that has played at Kingston this fall. They won praise from both friend and foe.

Wyoming scored a touchdown in the first and second quarter and a field goal in the last quarter of the game. But at all times Wyoming had to work hard for their points. B. S. N. S. showed the same fight that they displayed on local ground when they were in danger of being scored on. The penalties which were meted out were all off side penalties. Bloomsburg was set back for 5 yards 3 times and Wyoming twice.

Walsh and Cooper played a great game for Bloomsburg while the Wyoming backs were constantly in the limelight. But all the credit does not belong to the backfield men for those on the line played a wonderful game.

There were but three men who left the game for injuries and none of these were serious. The game was fast from the beginning to the end and there were many thrills for each group of rooters.

Wyoming scored 10 first downs against 5 for Normal. Three of Wyoming's first downs were made in their drive for their first touchdown.

SENIORS AND CUSTOMS

A Discussion

Should the Senior girls show a better spirit toward the Junior customs than the Juniors? On the whole they should for the Seniors are older members of the school and have had more experience in the school. The present Seniors did not have the fun of observing customs, and, while the Seniors are the ones who are inflicting the customs, they should go about it in such a way as to get as much fun as possible from them. One thing the Seniors may do to help create the desired atmosphere of friendliness is to reply cheerfully to the Junior's "Hello".

But, the Seniors feel that the Juniors should be "good sports" when it comes to serving at the table and remembering "Senior Preference." If the Seniors go half way and the Juniors meet them, there is no reason why a spirit of good feeling should not prevail between the classes.

—B. S. N. S.—

STUDENTS GOOD CITIZENS

Quite a few of our students went home Tuesday to fulfill their duties as citizens of the United States. They voted. M'Kelsky came back a Judge of Election and many others have done their bit.

Let us all look for every chance to do our duty.

HOCKEY CAPTAINS ARE ELECTED

Some Real Competition Promised

Many games played during the week.

Last week the Senior and Junior girls enjoyed a little competition when they ventured out to play their respective game of hockey and soccer.

Before the games were started the hockey teams selected their names. Some of them are: Goal-getters, Kitty McHugh, Capt.; Knockouts, Peg Killian, Capt.; Mu Phi, Helen Dickinson, Capt.; Pirates, Jessica Trimble, Capt.; K. K. K., Evelyn Harris, Capt.; Classy Collegiates, Dorothy Hammond, Capt.; Lightin' Leven, Mildred Hausch, Capt., U-N-I-C-Y, Hawkins, Capt.

On Monday morning the Knockouts played against the Mu Phi and were defeated 2-0. The Mu Phi are now scheduled to play against the Goal-getters and both teams are confident of winning.

The Classy Collegiates played against the K. K. K. and won 2-0. The goals were made by Maher and Drummond. The Classy Collegiates then played against the Pirates, but were beaten 1-0. The goal for the Pirates was made by Charlie Lesser.

The U-N-I-C-Y's played against the Lightin' Leven team but were defeated by the score of 6-2. Mildred Hausch was high scorer for the winners.

The Junior's intend to elect their respective Captains the coming week. As it is, the center forward on each team is acting captain. There are four teams in each section, numbered 1, 2, 3, 4. The 1 and 2 play together and 3 and 4. The winners then play to decide the championship of the section. Next week there will be games among the winners of the different sections and then the championship of the Junior class can be announced.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday there is hockey practice on the hockey field at 4:20. On Tuesday at 4:20 there is soccer practice for the Juniors. Not many girls are reporting for practice. It should be the aim of all to go up and learn to play either game. Don't go down town or stay up in your room after 4:10. Go up on the field and get into a game, and create a little spirit for those who are trying hard. There are about twenty-four girls out doing extra hockey practice and it will not be long until there will be a fine game between these enthusiasts.

—B. S. N. S.— FOOTBALL IS GAINED

Some of the Seniors have suggested that they stop playing football on account of the league between the Dean of Men and the Freshmen.

Don't be as small as they are. Fight on the gridiron for the honor of the school. Keep your differences off the gridiron.

Captain Rowlands deems it best to stick to the team. Let's all back Jack, fellows.

DR. WEST AT FRIDAY CHAPEL

"The Age We Live In"

On Friday, October 30, Dr. West, of Bucknell, gave a very interesting lecture on "The Age We Live In."

He said in part: Our age has inherited the civilization of the past as no other age has. The literature and art of the old civilizations is common to a great many of us. He who lives today must know everything from the Reformation on.

This is also a material world. The idea is to get all you can. Brains are a form with which you gather in a knowledge from without, and have for instant use when needed.

This is a moving world. Everything is changing. There is a certain type of individual who wishes to keep things as they are. They have a feeling that the past could make no mistakes. Any change in religion or government is leading to destruction as the past was infallible. You must decide if the past made no mistakes. This line of endeavor is going on all the time.

Then the opposite side. They believe that everything of yesterday was a mistake. There was no truth in it and it was deficient in everything. All was a series of blunders until this age arrived. This action is going on at the same time.

Then a third class which is not easily named. They may be called centerists. They are not ready to worship the past and not ready to receive the new platform.

These different types are like a man driving an automobile. The one man releases the action with a hand on the brake. One lets it go full speed ahead and the other merely adjusts. Are you going to be a set of brakes or an engine that insists upon going on or the intelligence at the wheel?

—B. S. N. S.—

LOCK HAVEN PLAYS HERE SATURDAY

A New Team

Lock Haven Normal's football team will be the drawing card at Mt. Olympus tomorrow, when they meet B. S. N. S. Lock Haven has not had a football team for some years but reports from the West Branch Town say that this year's team is a hard fighting one. The team is not however on a level with some of the teams that we have played this fall, for this reason everyone is expecting the home team to win.

The team can fight hard without you, but a large crowd on the sidelines, cheering them on helps a great deal, so everybody turn out and give the team your support.

—B. S. N. S.—

NOTICE

The Maroon and Gold wishes to be of service to you. Are you in doubt about something? Ask us. Do you disagree with some of our statements? Say so. Have you an idea or some news? Tell us.

We will be glad to hear from you at any time. Write us. But, don't crab—be cheerful and constructive.

EDITORIAL

We have been here, at Bloomsburg, for two months. We have made this our home, our field of activities. Have we the right attitude toward our surroundings?

Each one of us is one in seven hundred. When we came here we became a part of a community—a social unit. We take on relations to our fellow students which were new to us. It was necessary for us to adapt ourselves to our surroundings before we could really live happily here.

Let us treat this school as our home. Develop a school spirit that succeeds all past varieties. Take an active interest in school activities and performances. They are here for you, use them. Treat school property as something of your own—carefully, thoughtfully.

Among other things we find here excellently prepared advisors—the faculty. At the B. D. C. reception to the faculty the fact was brought out by the teachers that the most desirable thing for a professor is to become a companion, honest-to-goodness companion to their students. Work with them. They will appreciate this.

All these things and more go to develop the proper attitude. Let us be good citizens and our motto be "Service".

MAKE THE Y. W. YOURS

Do you want the "Y" meetings for your very own, using the discussion group method instead of having speakers at our student meetings? Will you make the Wednesday meetings really yours? Last week a number of topics were suggested for discussion and will be voted on at a coming meeting. These discussion groups will be of vital interest to everyone.—Green Stone.

DRAMATIC CLUB GIVES PLAY

Coached By Miss Kelly

At the regular meeting of the Dramatic Club last Thursday evening, the play "Fourteen" was very successfully given. The play deals with Mrs. Pringle, a society matron, who is eager to wed her daughter to a wealthy man. The table was laid for fourteen guests, the most important being Mr. Farnsworth. Because of a storm many of the guests were unable to come. In order to keep fourteen as the number for the table, hurried calls were made to friends. Mr. Farnsworth, being unable to attend, owing to a business engagement, sent the Prince of Wales in his place. This pleased Mrs. Pringle more than if Mr. Farnsworth had come, for now her daughter should marry a prince.

The cast was: Mrs. Pringle, Oee Williams; Elaine, the daughter, Mildred Kelly; Sally the maid, Helen Spare. The play was coached by Mildred Kelly.

BACK TO NATURE AND THE SUN

A certain French surgeon, named Rollier, in 1903 started something in the Swiss Alps. America, with its surprisingly efficient adaptation, was not slow to fall in line.

Pennsylvania, as a consequence, possesses two of the largest Camps in the United States for the modern application of heliotherapy. These are situated respectively at Cresson and Mont Alto.

Hundreds of tuberculous or pre-disposed children, of both sexes, ranging in age from six to fourteen, clothed only in trunks and brown skins, during the milder months have been set upon their feet physically in a spectacular manner—thanks to the direct rays of the sun, sufficient rest and proper food.

Vacation time is over but the golden November days with their crystal clear atmosphere and exhilarating tang invite us to share the joys and abounding health they have to offer.

Heliotherapy in the Camps is fine for children. Rational heliotherapy in the form, of autumn sunshine, fresh air and exercise is fine for the grown-ups. Woo the sun and the brisk breezes more and hug the radiator less!

—B. S. N. S.—

NUTRITION AND GROWTH

An experienced examiner once said, "If you measure a child, you have made a friend of him for life," besides, you have interested him in his body and paved the way for interest in its preservation and healthy use and especially in providing physical energy. Standard height and weight for age, it is true, cannot be taken as infallible indication of poor nutrition, but when a child is 10 per cent or more under weight for his height and particularly if a meager advance or no advance at all in growth and weight is shown when periodically weighed and measured, there is grave reason to believe that such a child is not properly nourished.

Teachers and school nurses must disabuse their minds of the idea that poorly nourished children are to be found only in the poorer families of a community. Investigations have proven that there are as many undernourished children in the families of the well-to-do people as there are in the poorer families. Malnutrition is not due primarily to lack of food but in a very large proportion of cases is due to improper dietary habits, over-activity and the resultant factor of overfatigue. Any plan or program calculated to improve the growth and physical advancement of children who fail to show a regular and normal gain in weight must first be directed toward ascertaining the usual dietary habits of each individual child together with his or her physical activities in and out of school. Underweight must be kept in mind, but of equal importance are appearance of alertness or languor, of vigor or weakness, a clean or muddy eye, red or pale lips, a healthy or unhealthy skin. Poor posture is generally to be taken as a sign of fatigue or general weakness, due to improper food habits or some other condition of bad hygiene.

The proper kind of food is more essential than quantity but with it must always be considered sufficient hours of rest to compensate for the natural activities of childhood.

OBITER STAFF FOR 1926

The Obiter Staff is exceptionally active. This is necessary, due to the fact that no editor was elected last school year. Previously the Obiter had a project of all second year students, but, at the first meeting of the Senior class, it was agreed that the Obiter should be a Senior class project. Accordingly, Edison Harris was elected Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager and he has appointed the other members of the staff from the Senior class. The staff is determined to make this issue the best that has ever been published. Several new features are to be introduced which will necessitate an increase in the price of the Obiter. The Art Editor is planning some new features in that department which will make our Yearbook more attractive. The final committees are to be appointed by the chairmen of the various committees. Each chairman will have absolute control of his assigned department. The associate editor has selected his committee which will have the individual write-ups. He will announce the committee soon and give the necessary information concerning the write-ups. The staff has not yet awarded the contract for publishing the Obiter but are busy interviewing agents and considering offers. The chairmen and the committees named are:

Advertising manager—John Timko.
Art Editor—Gilbert Cooper.
Associate Editor—James Coursen.
Associate Editor—Margaret Evans.
Humor Editor—John Kanyuck.
Secretary—Katherine McHugh.
Sports Editor—Arthur Jenkins.

MU PHI SIGMA

The girls of the Mu Phi Sigma held their first social event Saturday evening, October 24, 1925. The girls were chaperoned by Miss Nell Maupin, the newly elected faculty adviser. They enjoyed a chicken and waffle dinner at the Chat-A-While tea room after which the girls returned to school and had a card party in Room R. The room was prettily decorated in red and white. Prizes for cards were awarded to Myrtle Trembly and Margaret Emmitt. Those who enjoyed the dinner and party were: Misses Nell Maupin, Alice Yoder, Margaret Emmitt, Nellie Sweppenheiser, Millicent Vanzant, Helen Stackhouse, Blanche Herring, Helen Kellam, Myrtle Trembly, Ethel Fowler, Grace Harlos, Inez Wintersteen, Helen Dickinson, Mary Erickson, Mary Erickson, Mary Bomboy and Laura Stevens.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Not much enthusiasm has been displayed in the girl's tennis tournament by the looks of the schedule near the gymnasium. It will not be long before the courts will be "snowed under" so it is the hope of the Athletic Leaders and the Physical Directors that this tournament be played off as soon as possible.

At the beginning of the year the courts were usually filled and the girls were all interested but now that interest has been worn off. The boys have their tournament played off and the victor has been heralded, so, let's go, girls and get this tournament out of the way this week.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon before the Ways and Means Committee recommended a tax cut of $250,000,000 to $300,000,000. His views as he outlined them, are to reduce surtax one half, giving a 20 per cent tax, to reduce all normal taxes one per cent, to repeal the estate and gift taxes and to retain virtually all of the miscellaneous or "nuisance" taxes except those on automobile trucks, accessories, tires and art. Mellon is opposed to the repeal of the tax on tickets to theatres and other places of amusement. He is opposed to a tax reduction on incomes under $5000 stating that every citizen should have a stake in his country and the government needs the revenue.

Monday evening, October 26, the B. D. C. entertained the male members of the Faculty and all fellows of the school at North Hall. The orchestra furnished music and Bennie Lewis acted as toastmaster.

Joe Dugan, president, made the speech of welcome. William Jones played a violin solo and William Baum and Carl Blose entertained with readings. Also, Theodore Davis played a saxophone solo.

Dr. Reimer spoke of the commendable conduct of the fellows and Prof. Sutliff thanked the boys for their co-operation and spirit.

Prof. Hartline was asked to discuss the question, "Are the Students Getting Enough for Their Money".

Other members of the faculty who spoke were: Prof. E. N. Rhoades, Prof. Rorem, Prof. John Fisher, N. T. Englehart, Coach Jackson, Prof. E. H. Nelson and Prof. C. H. Albert.

After the program refreshments, the most important part of the evening, were served.
