THRU THE VALLEY

OF HUMILITY

On Friday, November 6th, a number of Junior girls were summoned to appear in the Recreation room at 9:30 in gym costumes.

The purpose of this meeting was to give the Seniors an opportunity to penalize the Juniors who had disobeyed the customs. As a result the Juniors showed what fine acrobats, singers, mathematicians etc this illustrious class of '27 has.

The Japanese Bazaar sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the gymnasium, Saturday, Dec. 5th. This is a wonderful opportunity to buy Christmas gifts for the folks at home. Articles will be on sale, including trinkets, kimono, card cases, slippers and other things too numerous to mention. Articles from time to time will appear in this paper.

General Butler, Philadelphia Director of Public Safety, is undecided whether to go back to the Marines, January 1st or not. President Coolidge stated that if he remained he must relinquish his commission and a comfortable life pension which he will rate in two years.

NORMAL WINS

DECISIVE VICTORY

Beats Lock Haven

B. S. N. S. scored a decisive victory over C. S. N. S. at Mt. Olympus last Saturday. The score was 23-0. Normal's points came from three touchdowns and a field goal.

Lock Haven came to Bloomsburg confident of a victory but they went home without it. Lock Haven put up a plucky fight in spite of the fact that the Maroon and Gold outweighed them. Bitner and Hazen, ends, played a fine defensive game and their school should be proud of them.

The home team was in the best of condition on Saturday. The men held or broke through the line at their own pleasure. Sorber again stood out as Normal's ground gainer, but Cooper and Girton played a wonderful game.

Two of our touchdowns came as a result of forward passes. The Maroon and Gold players gained much ground with it as they had been stressing the passing game for the last week.

About 1000 students and town-people saw the game. Many students made a quick trip to the dorms and when they appeared again they had on their slickers as the rain came down quite hard.

Lock Haven's quarterback kicked off. Bradshaw caught the ball and ran it back to his thirty yard line where he was downed. McGrath then made 7 yards. Sorber carried the ball for a first down on the next play. Normal worked the ball past mid-field and then tried the aerial

STROUDSBURG

Promise Of Hard
Game

The wearers of the Maroon and Gold will journey to Stroudsburg for the game Saturday. This promises to be a good game and a lot of students expect to go and cheer for the team.

Stroudsburg has had a very successful year and this game winds up the season for them. They have only played one other Pennsylvania Normal team. That was Lock Haven whom they beat 45-0.

Bloomsburg is confident of a victory. They are out to avenge last year's defeat which was suffered on Mt. Olympus. The team is in excellent condition and grows stronger with each practice. Normal should be in tip top form when they play on Saturday.

Stroudsburg's scores for the year are as follows:

Stroudsburg—0

ART CLUB PLAYS

WIN WIDE RENOWN

Break State Attendance
Record

On December 12, 1924 at 3:30 P. M. in the auditorium, the curtains parted. The eyes of 1,300 children were focused on the lighted stage. From the fiery tail of a comet descended Mother Goose and the initial production of "Three Bears", the largest attended Junior High School Art Club play, wrote its first word of unending fame.

School children of every type and grade were there. The one room rural schools as well as the modern city systems had their representatives. A previous snow storm failed to stem the advance of the happy horde. They were bent upon one goal and until that had been accomplished no barrier was too big and no discouraging element too great.

Hours before the close of the afternoon performance automobiles and sleds began to flood the campus and surrounding streets. The parking places on Normal Hill were soon filled and many were compelled to seek space elsewhere.

Hundreds of patrons from surrounding communities returned to their homes without gaining admission.

Immediately after the close of the matinee the cast of youthful entertainers enjoyed a delightful dinner in the school dining room.

When they returned to the auditorium at seven o'clock they were surprised to see half of the seats already occupied.

The Normal School Orchestra arrived at 7:30 and furnished the audience with a well rendered concert until the parting of the curtain at 8:15 P. M.

So great was the demand for tickets and so many were the requests for the play's repetition that it was necessary to give five performances during the first semester. More than 6,250 tickets were sold.

This production may easily be considered the greatest art project of the school year and bids fair to pave the way for this year's Art Club production "Cinderella".

An advance article concerning this year's production will appear in the Maroon and Gold next week. Get your copy early.

QUARTETTE NEWS

Last Thursday evening the double mixed quartette entertained a very appreciative audience in Almedia. Miss Margaret Evans accompanied the quartette as reader and Miss Mason, our Librarian, gave a short talk on the value of the school library. The proceeds from this concert will be used to purchase books for a school library in Almedia.

The double male quartette was featured as an added attraction on the program with Harold Lloyd in "The Freshman" at the Columbia Theatre the first three evenings of this week. The boys appeared in selections appropriate for the occasion and were received with much applause and many compliments.

On Thursday evening the double male quartette contributed toward the social entertainment at the Father and Son Banquet at the local First Reformed Church.

FAMOUS SINGER

TO APPEAR HERE

Metropolitan Opera Company
Star

Cecil Arden, world famous opera and concert singer, is coming to the Bloomsburg State Normal School on Friday, November 20th. She will give a concert in the auditorium at 8:15 P. M.

Miss Arden is a graduate of Hunter College, New York. She studied music under A. Buzzi-Vecchia, America's foremost vocal teacher. She began vocal training in 1914. In January 1918 she made her debut. She sang in the Metropolitan's presentation of Mascagni's, then new opera, "Lodoletta" with Caruso and Farrar. She has since appeared in "L'Oracolo", "Tosca", "Manon", "Zaza", "Le Phropheete" and many others. Her repertoire includes the principal mezzo-soprano roles from such operas as "Samson and Delilah", "Carmen", "Aida" and "Il Trovatore".

Besides her operatic work, Miss Arden gives concerts in the United States and Canada. Unlike most singers, she is her own concert manager.

At present, Cecil Arden is in Southern California where she has been studying Mexican and Spanish folk songs.

Miss Arden is an "educated in America" musician. Instead of going to Europe to obtain her education, she finished it here and then went to Italy. At her request a recital was arranged at which Puccini, Giordano and Tosti were present. They complimented Miss Arden on her beautiful voice and artistic training.

FRESHMAN RULES

Mutual Agreement
Reached

Following the disagreement that occurred last week between the Freshmen and Upperclassmen, a meeting was held of the Freshmen Class, attended by Dr. Riemer. This meeting was featured by an open discussion in which all Freshmen were asked to advance their complaints. They did so, and each grievance was carefully considered.

The outcome of the meeting was the election of a committee of five Freshmen, elected to meet with the Tribunal and the Principal. This committee consisted of Joseph Bradshaw, Francis Garrity, Phillip Kiel, Hugh Van Aernam and Walter Rollins.

These parties met several times and after much discussion several of the Customs were revised.

One of the important decisions reached by the conference was the question of class representation on the Tribunal. A differentiation was made between the third-year men and the second-year men. Dr. Riemer said that the third-year men were more mature and should be sane in their judgments. It was accordingly decided that the Tribunal should consist of three third-year men, two second-year men and two freshmen.

It was next decided that there should be an annual tug-of-war between the Freshmen and Seniors. A-

The student manager of the football team is taking more of an active part in the management of the team than did the manager of past years. This is as it should be, for athletics at the School are now organized for the welfare of the students as regards health, managerial skill, self-control and devotion to ideals.

"EXCHANGE" PRESENTED TO DRAMATIC CLUB

The play "Exchange" was very successfully given before the Dramatic Club last Thursday evening. It was a story of discontented people. Each of the characters thought his miseries were the worst and came to the Judge to exchange them for something they believed was better than they had. By the end of the play each one was so very miserable he was ready to take back his old misery. Upon arriving at the Judge's office they were informed that he had gone to Europe and they would have to be satisfied with the miseries they had.

The cast included: the Judge, Bill Swinehart; Rich Citizen, Charlotte Deeble; Vain Woman, Eleanor Evans Poor Man, John Kanyuck; the Imp and directress, Helen Pursel.

GRADUATE COURSE IN EXTENSION

A number of the members of the faculty of the Bloomsburg Normal School have secured Dr. Anderson, of State College, to conduct a class in The Philosophy of Education at the Normal School. He has already started this work. The first class was held last Thursday night. Some of the teachers of Bloomsburg, Danville, Berwick and Catawissa School Districts are taking the course. 36 teachers were present the first night.

NORMAL SCHOOL CONFERENCE

Preparations are now under way for the Normal School Conference to be held at Lock Haven on November 23rd and 25th inclusive. Several of our teachers are on the program. All of the members of the faculty are expected to attend. They will probably all go by automobile. Some will then go to their homes from Lock Haven and others will return to Bloomsburg for the Thanksgiving vacation.

The Dean of Instruction has just issued a call for the mid-semester reports. These reports will be in the hands of the students in about a week.

Mr. G. M. Hausknecht, our Business Manager, is moving his family and goods this week from Kutztown where he was Bursar before taking up his duties here. He is moving into the house occupied by Superintendent W. W. Evans. The latter has just built a new house which he will occupy from now on.

The institution has just invested in a new set of drums. This is an excellent acquisition for our orchestra. The orchestra is growing and making rapid progress under the guidance of Miss Harriet Moore.

At the game last Saturday several alumni were present. Among them were: Lee Bennett, Mike Beshel, "Bebe" Daniels, "Shack" Shaughnessy, Auber Horn, Mrs. Herbert Lugg, formerly Miss Zellma Thornton.

During the past week the electric bell system has been tested. There was some difficulty with some of the underground wires. This has been removed.

The new infirmary and the new quarters for the nurse are very attractive and are meeting the needs of both nurse and students in a very efficient way.

The grounds are still very attractive. "Pop" McHenry is keeping them clean from leaves and rubbish. The students are doing their share by co-operating.

The teacher's rest room is nearing completion. Rugs and furniture have already been placed in it. The new door is a pretty addition to the hall.

Thanksgiving vacation will begin on Saturday, November 21, at 12:00 o'clock and will close on Monday, November 30th. The vacation is longer this year than it was last year, to afford the Faculty an opportunity to attend the Normal School Conference during the three days preceding Thanksgiving. And the vacation is so arranged as to make it possible for all students to reach their homes and to return without encroaching upon school time.

BUCKNELL STUDENTS OF EDUCATION

On Monday afternoon, November 9, about thirty students from the Department of Education of Bucknell University, accompanied by Prof. Frank Davis, Director of Teacher Training, visited our Junior High School. They made the trip from Lewisburg to Bloomsburg in a beautiful Rolls-Royce bus and arrived here about 1:30. Dr. Reimer met them at the fountain and conducted them to Science Hall where they distributed themselves over the various rooms and classes of the Junior High School. The students all took careful notes, for the visit was in the form of a class project.

EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

School Work At Home

At the opening of the fall semester, the large enrollment necessitated the forming of more sections of the Junior class than was anticipated. In view of this the School planned to do no Extension work during the first semester. However, the demands became so insistent in Luzerne County that several classes were organized in Wilkes-Barre. Inasmuch as the School has always tried to assist the teachers in service to meet the requirements of higher certification, these classes were organized.

The fact that but twenty semester hours of extension work can now be used toward securing the Normal School Certificate, and that no person teaching his first year is allowed to take extension work, has materially reduced the number eligible for these classes. No students are accepted who are not graduates of an approved high school.

Professor Rhodes is now conducting a course in Principles of Education each Tuesday evening with an enrollment of 32. On each Wednesday evening Miss Conway has a class of 27 in English Fundamentals. On Thursday evening a class of 36 women are taking a course in Physical Education under the instruction of Miss Drummond. Friday evening, Miss Johnston has a class of 44 taking a course in Oral Expression. These classes all meet in the Wilkes-Barre High School.

On Saturday afternoon Professor Nelson and Miss Kulp have work with the Sisters at 54 Park Avenue, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Nelson is giving a course in Health Education. Miss Kulp is instructing a class in Children's Literature. The enrollment in Mr. Nelson's class is 36. Miss Kulp has a class of 35.

PRINCIPALS CONFER

The annual conference of school superintendents and Normal School Principals was held at the State Capitol at Harrisburg on November 4th to 6th inclusive. At the first session were considered some outstanding educational problems under the guidance of the Superintendent and Deputy Superintendents of the Department. The general topic of the second session was the State's interest in its children. Here Governor Pinchot and the Department Heads of the Commonwealth spoke of the work each is doing for the welfare of children. At the final session the general topic concerned a working program for Pennsylvania. The closing address on Mutual Responsibility was given by Superintendent Haas.

RECEPTION COMING!

The reception to the women members of the faculty will be given on Monday evening by the B. D. C. at North Hall. A program, which promises to be interesting, is being arranged by William Jones. A fine time is promised all those who attend.

UKE CLUB COMING ALONG

A few of the members of the "Uke Club" entertained at the Methodist Church on Friday evening, Nov. 6th. This society is growing rapidly but there is still room for more. Come on girls! Do what you enjoy most and have a good time at it.

A REAL ATTRACTION

Children's Book Week

Do you know that Hans Brinker, Cap'n Silver, Pinocchio, Aladdin, Tom Sawyer, Robin Hood, King Arthur, Robinson Crusoe and many more interesting folk are visiting the school this week? They are appearing "in person" at the Top o' the Stairs on the trail to the Library. They are with us for this week only. For this is Children's Book Week, a very significant week indeed. A week in which friends of children everywhere are shouting "Hurrah for the children!" and "Hurrah for children's Books!"

Everybody is invited to take the trail to the Top o' the Stairs to see these famous people before they leave for other lands. There's Pinocchio crying because his nose has grown so long. There are dainty Japanese maidens tripping along under gay lanterns. There's a bold pirate, beware.

There's Aladdin rubbing his lamp to make the genie appear. There's that imp, Little Black Sambo. There is queer little Alice following the Rabbit to Wonderland. There's sturdy Hans Brinker, from Holland, skating with many a brave flourish. There's Huck Finn showing you how to whitewash a fence. And there, also, is a whole troop of Mother Goose folks: the three famous Jacks; Jack of the Corner, Jack of the Beanstalk, and Jack of the candlestick. The Pussy Cat who went to visit the Queen, the old Woman who lived in a shoe, Little Miss Muffet and, yes truly, the frightful spider, Simple Simon who fished in his mother's pail and many others, just as happy and just as eager to entertain you.

These delightful folk have brought their books with them. Pedagogically speaking (yes please, but only for a moment.) The books are arranged according to the grades where they will serve most happily.

Notice how often that word "happy" overtakes us when we talk of children's books. We cannot escape it because books, children and happiness belong together. A Child and a Book equals Joy. That's a real equation for a real teacher to solve (Mr. Pedagogy showing his head again, you see. Off the page he goes, this time permanently)

The "Top o' the Stairs" is not doing all the celebrating for Children's Book Week. In chapel on Friday, under the direction of classes in "Children's Literature" a play will be given, entitled "Our Friends from Bookland". These friends—but there, we must allow our friends to speak for themselves.

This exhibit should be looked forward to with interest by all students for, in it are copies of many of the great pictures that everyone should know.

The exhibit is conducted during one whole week. The students have the opportunity to visit the exhibit as often as they wish and study the pictures.

Tickets will be sold to the students and these are to be worn during the entire week and will admit the student to the exhibit at any time.

SENIORS ACTIVE

At a Senior class meeting held after chapel on Monday it was voted to retain the vice president, secretary and treasurer of our Junior year for our Senior year. These officers are: vice president, Edith Morris; secretary Arlene Sweet; and treasurer Joseph Kane.

The class decided to have a "poverty party" but no definite date was set.

The members of the class were notified that the state requires two pictures of each Senior for the Appointment Bureau. Mr. Phillips is making these pictures and they will be given directly to Mr. Rhodes. A charge of twenty cents will be made for each picture.

The Obitier editor has informed the members of the class that he will not accept any pictures taken after Wednesday. Each Senior should realize that this work must be done before Mr. Phillips' "Christmas Rush".

route. Forsht intercepted it but was tackled in his tracks.

Lock Haven punted to Bloom's 40 yard line: Normal carried the ball to the visitors 10 yard mark. Another pass was tried and downed on the fourth down. The ball went to Lock Haven. They punted to the 22 yard line. The quarter ended after the next play.

Normal started the second period with a bang. Sorber went over the line for the first touchdown in four plays. McGrath dropped back and put the ball squarely between the uprights for the extra point. The score was 7-0 in favor of Bloomsburg.

McGrath kicked off to Lock Haven. The West Branch boys could not make a first down so Normal took the ball in midfield.

A few more line bucks and we were again within scoring distance. A fine pass by Bradshaw to Metcalf was the means of scoring the second touchdown. McGrath again brushed off the top of his shoe and made the score 14-0 for B. S. N. S.

Normal kicked off to Lock Haven. Forsht punted to the 60 yard line where Girton caught the ball and gave the crowd a thrill. He carried the ball back for 20 yards leaving tacklers strung out behind him. He fumbled the ball which was recovered by Lock Haven. McGrath intercepted a forward and ran it to Lock Havens 36 yard line. The half ended 14-0 in favor of Bloomsburg.

The teams lined up for the kick-off. McGrath again kicked the ball which was returned 10 yards. Lock Haven gained 7 yards and then punted. Walsh caught the ball and by some pretty open field running he made 64 yards before he was tackled.

Girton made 7 yards. Walsh then made it first down. A pretty pass by Walsh to Cooper gave Normal another six points. McGrath's kick went wild. The score was 20-0.

Swinchart kicked off to Lock Haven's 10 yard line. McClosky was hurt but refused to leave the game. Forsht punted, Walsh ran it back 7 yards.

Sorber gained two yards and a pass was grounded. Lock Haven took the ball on downs and punted it to Bloomsburg's 33 yard line. The quarter ended with the ball on Lock Haven's 23 yard line.

Stoker gained 3 yards, Bradshaw made 2 more but Normal failed to make the necessary 10 yards. Lock Haven made 4 yards in 2 plays and punted. The punt was fumbled and Lock Haven recovered it. They made a first down but could gain no more so they again punted.

Bloom was penalized 5 yards for having the backfield in motion before the ball was passed. A pass by Bradshaw to Austin netted 13 yards. Another pass to Keen was completed but failed to gain. Girton then dropped back to the 30 yard line and made a pretty placement kick adding 3 points to the score.

The ball was on Lock Haven's 40 yard line when the game ended.

United States and Canada are negotiating to make effective provisions of a 1909 treaty which forbade the pollution of boundary waters to an extent dangerous to health or property. Surveys have been made by the War Department of the reports of water pollution and as a result hundreds of American cities may be forced to construct new sewage systems, thus protecting the Great Lakes and other navigable waters from sewage.

Economy can be carried so far that it results in a downright loss.

Poor, cheap leather and bad workmanship cannot produce good shoes, even though they look good and are advertised as such.

A raincoat that leaked the first time you wore it which you bought because it was cheap, was a costly investment, as you knew when you looked at your damaged and stained dress.
