NORMAL FIVE PLAY AT HOME

Meet Dickinson Seminary

Our team plays Dickinson Seminary on our floor tomorrow. A few weeks ago Dickinson beat us to the tune of 35-27 on their floor. Our team was under the weather. Snowed under! Dickinson will bring here what they think is a pretty good team. They probably expect another victory.

It isn't always fun to disappoint people, but it would be a great pleasure to disappoint that crowd. We will too, of the boys play like they did against Wyoming—that means fight. When we were at Dickinson, we were in the midst of a slump but, man alive, we've emerged and the men are playing real basketball. We have seen the last of our losing streak.

During practices the team gets a hard work-out. When there is scrimmage the scrubs give them a run for their money. Make 'em fight every night and soon they get used to it. Jenkins informs us that he has great hopes of coming thru the season without another defeat. We're back of you Jenks.

The team is developing a faster passing game with more easy handling of the ball. All preparations make things look bad for the next victims.

We still have Lock Haven, Indiana and Mansfield on our schedule. Two of these games, Lock Haven and Indiana, are away. Mansfield, our last game is at home and promises thrills. They beat us on their floor, 28-15. The Indiana game ought to be a fast and furious, nip and tuck, clean game. Let's hope for the best. We have beaten both Indiana and Lock Haven on our own floor.

The line up Saturday will probably be similar to the line up of the other game. It follows:

B. S. N. S.	Dickinson
Jenkins	R. F. Griffiths
Garrity	L. F. McKay
Austin	C. Hayes
Sack	R. G. Good
Walsh	L. G. Nye

The scrubs also have a game on Saturday. Oh boy—it ought to be a good one. Eat 'em up scrubs!

ECHO FROM KATHRYN

MEISLE'S RECITAL

Kathryn Meisle found it a joy to sing "The Star Spangled Banner" with her audience last Friday. She spoke enthusiastically of the marked appreciation of the audience and of the excellent acoustic effects of the auditorium. Her audience showed its appreciation in hearty applause and expressions of gratitude and praise.

MORE STUDY TABLES

More new study tables arrived a few days ago. There were almost enough of them to supply all rooms on third floor. Consequently, there is now rejoicing on both third and on fourth floors. All the girls are voicing their appreciation.

It is worthy of note that the School has purchased one hundred and fifty-five new desks during the last twelve months.

WYOMING BEATS NORMAL BY SUPERMAN EFFORT

Bloomsburg Rooters Show Oldtime Spirit

Saturday night Bloomsburg Normal was beaten on her home floor by a flashy Wyoming Seminary team. During a part of the game the score was tie and the Bloomsburg five fought like devils turned loose. The basket actually beckoned to the Wyoming men but to the Normal men it turned a cold shoulder. It would have been a great game to win but it was no disgrace to lose and the team lost fighting. The game was a credit to the members of the team as not once this year has Wyoming met such determined opposition.

It is a pleasure to notice the return of Bloomsburg Normal's old school spirit. When ever our men pulled off a clever pass or made a basket, the whole mob of spectators cheered lustily. And mob there was, too. For the first time this year the gymnasium was crowded to overflowing—hanging room only. It is up to the student body to continue that spirit because it is a great stimulant to the players.

We have to hand it to Wyoming; they sure have some team. They are fast, accurate, daring, quick to take advantage of a break. That quality is what brought them quite a few of their scores. Their star forward, Hrisko, is a star indeed. He made five field goals and was responsible thru his passing for many others. He is a hard man to play. Bloomsburg's old time friend, Donchess, also played. Wyoming had about fifty rooters along to back up their team. They were a pretty snappy bunch but our gang showed them a few tricks. When they sang their Alma Mater, which they sang well, we paid them the courtesy of rising with them. Some of them returned the compliment, others—.

Captain Jenkins was in his element Saturday night. Twisting, turning, passing, shooting, fighting, leading his men; he sure showed some great stuff. He certainly makes a star player and fine captain. Garrity claimed last week that he had lost his fight. But he certainly got it back for that game. He was into everything and got his share of the scoring. And Sack, he knows his groceries. He showed Alper a great tune! He was about the only one who was in form in shooting fouls. It was a loss when Garrity and Sack went out on personals.

This was the first time Swinehart started a game but he was a great man to play. He is a great defensive man; he broke up many a Wyoming play and spoiled many a Wyoming score. He was a good man to have in the game. When Walsh got in the game he showed some good stuff. He works well with the forwards on offense. Austin gets a lot of razzing but half of it isn't his by rights. In the second half he played a great game. In the whole game, his man, Donchess, made only one field goal.

QUARTETTES MAKE DEBUT AT DANVILLE

At Evangelical Church

The following program was given at the Evangelical Church in Danville last evening by the double quartettes:

1. Soldiers Chorus (Faust) . . . Gounod
Double Male Quartette
  2. Violets Fate . . . . . Abt
The Fairies . . . . . Mattei
Hours of Dreaming . . . . . Schubert
Double Mixed Quartette
  3. Solo . . . . . Selected
Ellen Whitehouse
  4. Who is Sylvia . . . . . Schubert
O Sole Mio . . . . . Capua
Nut Brown Maiden . . . . . College Song

On to the Front (Carmen) . . . . . Bizet
Double Mixed Quartette
- This evening the male quartette and soloists will entertain the Craftsman Club at the local Masonic Temple.

Arrangements have been made for the quartettes appearance in North Berwick the early part of March.

Mr. Edison D. Harris, soloist, who has been one of the original quartette group since its first appearance two years ago, has gone to Easton, Pennsylvania, where he has accepted a teaching position. Mr. Harris was also a member of the double male quartette. His work in the quartettes and his solos made him one of the leaders of the group. The quartette extend to Mr. Harris every good wish for success. May he bring much joy to Easton with the gift he possesses. His address is 450 Berwick street, Easton, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Michael Yozviak, tenor, who has been associated with other school activities, has now joined the ranks of the quartettes, both mixed and male. Mr. Yozviak made his first public appearance with the Mixed Quartette at Espy on the evening of February 11th, when a second concert was given in that town for the benefit of the school library. Soloists for this program were Miss Mary Bomboy, Mr. Theodore Keen and Mr. Armond Keller.

SCHOOL PARTY

There will be no school party on February 22nd. It has been postponed until March 13th. On that day we will have a St. Patrick's Day party with decorations and everything. Alexander's Orchestra will furnish the music. It looks good.

INITIATIVE

This school is our school. The administration may be good, the faculty may be excellent but the student body is the heart and soul of it.

Our school is as we make it. Many projects are brought up before us which we should grasp and carry thru. Have we the initiative to make the wheels go around.

The Chapel period has been turned over to us and we have taken hold of the job. Hinges are running smoothly and we get satisfaction from it. We have elicited compliments from the Principal about our work. We are making it a success.

But somethings we are letting slip. The school is badly in need of a cheer leader; many Saturdays we want for entertainment, why not a student vaudeville show? Let us show our calibre in the pinches. Let us show the world that Bloomsburg Normal is inhabited by ingenious students.

When we get the chance to do a thing let's jump. When the President of your class asks for volunteers, offer. When you are given a job—do it.

PURE ATHLETICS

According to reports a memorandum was recently issued to the effect that no new entrant should represent the School on any of its athletic teams during his first semester here if the school authorities could not persuade themselves that the student had not entered to add strength to the particular team. This is highly commendable. If the home folks cannot be persuaded, it would be difficult to persuade the outside world. Such a ruling will certainly tend to check the coming of ringers, athletic tramps and one-semester athletes. It will keep athletics pure and make them more inviting to all students.

PROF. ALBERT HONORED

It has been reported that Professor C. H. Albert announced to his classes during last summer session that he would probably not see them again next summer, that this was his last year.

His classes showed their devotion to him by collecting a fund and after consulting Mrs. Albert, they bought him a beautiful gold watch. On the presentation Prof. Albert was very much touched and expressed his deep feelings in a few words of sincere thanks.

We always rejoice when a dear friend of ours is shown appreciation and the winter session of 1925-26 joins in the hearty applause accorded the work of a worthy and learned man. It is with deep regret that we learn of his announcement of his leaving and sincerely hope that he may retract.

KAY MONROE LEADS

On last Monday, Kay Monroe lead Senior Chapel. She did very well. When she spoke the students were absolutely still. It is a great thing to lead the exercises ourselves.

Bill Jones and Jeanette Russell lead the music, Jones with the baton and Jeanette at the piano. They worked well together. Jones led the music to perfection.

Pat Hilbert, exchange editor of the Maroon and Gold, spoke of other school papers and showed them. It was very interesting.

On Wednesday, Louis Alimenti lead the devotions and played a few selections on the new Orthophonic Victrola. He appeared perfectly at ease on the platform. We have a new find as far as leading singing is concerned. Her name is Florence Rees and her performance was excellent. Doctor Riemer remarked that the song leaders were beginning to be past masters at the art and its accomplishments in so many promised well for the districts into which our graduates will go. Our state will be a singing state indeed if other schools follow Bloomsburg.

RESOLUTIONS FOR TEACHERS

The following resolutions are quoted here with the hope that we all may profit therefrom:

I will be professional.
I will be a member of local, state and national organizations.
I will study the programs of professional organizations.
I will maintain the standards of the teaching profession.
I will encourage strong young men and women to enter the profession.
I will maintain broad civic and social interests, that my professional work may have a rich background.
I will seek to make childhood happy.

I will be loyal to my associates.
I will manage my work and not be managed by it.

I will keep in mind the real objectives of education and the improvement of the race.

NEW TOWN ORDINANCE

The Chief of Police of Bloomsburg has issued an ordinance announcing that no person is allowed to stand on the inside of the sidewalk on Main street. Offenders are liable to arrest and fine.

CONCERT ENJOYED

Kathryn Meisle's Voice Most Beautiful

On Friday, Kathryn Meisle, gave us one of the most enjoyable programs this year. Her beautiful voice, coupled with a charming personality won the audience from the start. Also, she has a great deal of dramatic power, and did full justice to every number. Her encores, too, were greatly enjoyed. It is not too much to say that Miss Meisle is the greatest artist we have had here this season. Her program was as follows:

1. Leid, Op. 3. No. 4. Brahms
Liebesbotschaft Schubert
Immer leiser wird mein Schlummer Brahms
Lachen und Weinen Schubert
Der Erlkoenig Schubert
2. As Fair is She as Noonday Light. Rachmaninoff
Snowflakes Gretchaninoff
Homeland Mine Gretchaninoff
3. Fides' Aria "Ah, mon Fils" from Le Prophete Meyerheer
4. The Sea Edward McDowell
The Night Wind Roland Farley
Les Filles de Cadix Leo Delibes
5. The Cry of Rachael Mary Turner Salter.
Song o' the Lass Samuel Richard Gaines.
Bold Unbiddable Boy Chas. Villiers Stanford.
Turn ye to me Old Highland melody
Awakening Walter H. Golde
Encores: Southern Coon Song,
The April Fool, At Parting, The Bow Legged Boy and The National Anthem.

SLEIGH RIDE

On Wednesday evening the members of the orchestra enjoyed a sleigh ride and chicken and waffle dinner.

BLANK SPACES IN

MAROON AND GOLD

It is a pity that there was so much blank space in the last edition of the Maroon and Gold. The editor would like to apologize. It was not due to lack of news. There is always plenty going on here. The difficulty was a want of contribution. The members of the staff contributed practically nothing, and there was little from the student body as a whole. In this way no paper can succeed. All papers need the co-operation of their readers and the members of their staffs. Let us have yours.

INTERESTING TALK

On Tuesday the Juniors enjoyed a very interesting lecture in Chapel. Mrs. Mariette Powers Benton, Traveling Secretary of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom of which Jane Addams is the International President, spoke. Mrs. Benton has just returned from a summer abroad, where she traveled with the Sherwood Eddy Party thru many European countries, hearing between sixty and seventy lectures addressed especially to the party, by many important European speakers. Her speech was well worth while and gave the students something to think about.

NEW CLASSROOM CHAIRS

Three dozen classroom chairs with tablets arrived a few days ago. They were placed in Room E., where there was the greatest need of them. The chairs add greatly to the looks of the room.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Brief Mention Of People You Know

Frances Davenport, class of '25, visited her Alma Mater over the week end and witnessed the Wyoming Seminary game.

Leland Bennett, class of '25, who is now a student at Bucknell, visited us over the week end.

Kathryn Jury, who is teaching at Bethlehem, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Jury of Market street.

Miss Kathryn Brace spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brace of Light Street Road. Kay is teaching in Bethlehem.

Miss Lillian Edmunds spent the week end in Nanticoke.

Stanley Suckas, '23, of Lee Park, Hanover township, died of complications on Monday night.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

The local Kiwanis Club held a banquet in our Dining Hall last Thursday evening. The members had invited their wives, for it was ladies' night. Mr. Teel, at one time a teacher here, acted as toastmaster. There was some excellent singing, which was furnished by the Harrisburg Quartet. Many favorable comments of the dinner were heard on all sides. The guests spoke highly of the food and the way it was served.

Mr. John Davis dropped in on his way to Nanticoke on Friday evening. On account of a bad cold it seemed unwise for him to continue his journey until the following morning. Mr. Keller acted as his host.

News of the settlement of the strike was a joy to all the members of our School.

The Committee is already planning the Musical Artists Course for 1926-1927.

Mr. Keller is planning to have the film of Cinderella ready for the Conference of the Teachers of Northeastern Pennsylvania to be held on March 12 and 13 at Wilkes-Barre.

The curtains on the doors of the Teachers' Rest Room are not a thing of beauty. It is a pity that appreciation of the fitting and beautiful is not brought into play in matters of such prominence and importance.

The local schools had a half holiday on Lincoln's Birthday. We celebrated the day very fittingly with appropriate exercises. This was true of the Training School as well as of the Normal School.

The new lot of student teachers are already under way. The School never had so many. Nor did it ever have such facilities as this semester.

On Friday last a Y. M. C. A. representative was here to look into the possibilities of encouraging work of the organization here.

DRAMATICALLY SOCIAL

Last Thursday evening about 5:30 we saw two sleds of jolly Normal students start out for Lime Ridge. Of course we know why they went to Lime Ridge. Eats, of course. They arrived at Frymires about 6:30 where dinner waited for them. After dinner they danced until the signal for "Home" came.

There were about 23 members present. Did they have a good time? Well, just ask them.

SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Senior Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Skinner, are very busy getting ready for a concert to be given by them sometime in March. They will also give a program in chapel soon.

GEORGE SACK IN HOSPITAL

George Sack was admitted to the Bloomsburg Hospital on Tuesday. His condition was serious, approaching pneumonia. Everyone in the Men's dormitory went around with long faces. He is a popular boy. The Maroon and Gold extends its sympathies to him. Good luck to you, Sackie.

MISS CONWAY AT WILKES-BARRE

Miss Conway's conference on February 11th, at Wilkes-Barre, was a great success. Forty mothers and fathers had faced the inclement weather and sat in the meeting from eight to ten o'clock. It was all a sign of the interest of parents in the welfare of their children. Both fathers and mothers asked many questions concerning the aims and objectives of our School as far as the education of their sons and daughters is concerned. They wanted to know what was being done by the School and students, what was expected, and what they themselves might do to further the cause of educating the young people for the teaching profession.

FACULTY NOTES

There was a meeting of the Faculty on Tuesday. Miss Nellie Moore discussed the problem method of teaching as it applies to her work.

Dr. Riemer was at Harrisburg on Thursday for a conference with the budget officer.

Miss Nellie Moore was at Wilkes-Barre on Friday to make final arrangements for the Conference of March 12th and 13th. Miss Purcell of East Stroudsburg, co-operated with her.

KATHRYN MEISLE RE-ECHOED

The rendition of "Erlkoenig" of the "Cry of Rachael" and of "Turn Ye to Me" by Kathryn Meisle was very effective.

WYOMING BEATS NORMAL BY SUPERHUMAN EFFORT

Bloomsburg Rooters Show Old Time Spirit

There were about three outstanding shots in the game. One over hand side shot by Hrisko; a neat one hand shot by Walsh; and a shot by Jenkins. He shot it three quarters the length of the floor. It was a beauty.

This was the first time Wyoming beat us on our own floor for a long time. It went a little hard but we will get over it. That game was worth all it cost because of the formerly sleeping, but now awakened, school spirit. If it takes a Wyoming game to bring it out, we should have one every day. We do not show our school spirit very often—but when we do. Rowdydow. Let us keep the fight going and help the team finish the rest of the schedule with all victories.

The line up and summary of the game follows:

B. S. N. S.		Wyoming Sem.
Jenkins	R. F.	Hrisko
Garrity	L. F.	Alper
Austin	C.	Donchess
Sack	R. G.	Edwards
Swinehart	L. G.	Bodle

Substitutions: Walsh for Sack; Sack for Austin; Vanbuskirk for Garrity; Swinehart for Sack; Shervinco for Alper; Alper for Shervinco; Murphy for Edwards.

Field Goals: Jenkins 3; Garrity 3; Walsh, Sack, 1; Hrisko 5; Alper 3; Donchess, Bodle 1.

Foul Goals: B. S. N. S. 7 out of 22. Wyoming 7 out of 17.

Score: 27-21. Referee: Bryant. Scorer: Coursen. Timekeeper: Smith.

JUNIORS ACTIVE

The Junior Class is swinging into action in fine style. They are proud of their officers and their officers are doing good work. The class seems to have the spirit of co-operation and is practicing its beliefs.

They are preparing a three act comedy called "Come out of the Kitchen". This, the annual Junior Play, will be given on Friday, February 26th, 1926. Those who know about it are eager for it and extensive advertising plans are being carried out.

The Business Committee, headed by "X" Matthews, is planning on making each Junior responsible for the sale of two tickets. These tickets will sell at thirty-five cents to students and a half dollar to all others. Their plans deserve to go over big because they are good plans for a good cause.

Always an interesting feature in dramatics is the scenery. This feature is, also, always a big problem, designed by a special committee. The Junior Class Stage Set Committee has completed the work on the scenery and cares not how soon the play may come.

SCRUB FIVE WIN IN FAST GAME

Defeat Wyoming Reserves

As a preliminary to the varsity game Saturday night, its hard working scrubs played a team known as the Wyoming Reserves. They played them once before and lost. This time the crowd saw a team full of fight and go, beat another team similarly charged. It was a great game and Bloomsburg won, score 24-20. It was a great pleasure to put its skids under a Wyoming Seminary aggregation.

It was a fast game throughout and during the game the floor was no place for spectators who wished to remain standing. A loose ball was the sign for a pile up and somebody would start to call signals dreaming again of football games. You can hardly blame anyone, tho.

The crowd liked this game pretty well. It was full of thrills. Hawkins for Bloomsburg, sure put up a great fight. He played every minute he was in. It was too bad he had to go out on personals. Riemer also went out by that route. That's the way it goes. St. Clair was high scorer for the home team with three field goals.

The Wyoming crew wasn't so bad. They were a snappy bunch and good shots. Young Palermo, last year of Wilkes-Barre, was their star. He was pretty slippery and hard to watch.

He caged four baskets. It was sort of funny when Wyoming put Brominski in. He was a ham, a menace to the health and happiness of our boys. Who ever told him he could play basket-ball. He got about three tackles.

This game got the crowd all set for the real game. And set they were—not quite yelled out. They got their second wind, tho, when our varsity appeared.

The line-up for the reserve teams:

B. S. N. S.	Wyoming
Riemer	R. F. Palermo
Yozviak	L. F. Habicht
McGath	C. Dougher
Yarasefski	R. G. Bohn
Hawkins	L. G. Gallagher

Substitutions—St. Clair for Yarasefski; Yarasefski for Riemer; Johns for St. Clair, Brominski for Gallagher. Score—B. S. N. S.—24; Wyoming—20.

LINCOLN PROGRAM IN CHAPEL

One of the most interesting programs given by the students in Chapel was given last week. The speeches were well given and the audience responded with close attention. This program was given under the direction of Miss Nell Maupin of the Social Studies Department. Those taking part were:

Julia Peticofski... "Early Life of Lincoln"

James Bittenbender... "Lincoln, the Lawyer."

Myrtle Trembly... "Lincoln the Man"

Hugo Riemer... "Lincoln, Politician, Diplomat"

The talks were well written and called to our attention the marked characteristics of Lincoln's life. He was a devout, God-fearing man, trusting in his Creator for guidance and strength. He was a shrewd politician and awake to all possibilities. He was a strong Union man and his one object during his administration was to keep the North and South as a whole. Today we thank God that he succeeded.

At his death, the United States, in fact the whole world, lost a man, a leader. His passing was felt all over this great globe and expressions of sympathy came from far and near to the bereaved Mrs. Lincoln.

He is a man that left the world better because he had been in it. He had the homely virtues and loved his fellow man. Even today we know him—not as President, Congressman Emancipator—but as "honest Abe." Thank God for him!

EXCHANGES

The Pine—Northern Arizona Teachers College, Flagstaff, Arizona—An interesting paper and with more school news you would have an excellent paper.

The Comet—West Pittston High School—A very excellent paper. You have a good exchange department.

On January 28th, the Green Stone celebrated its second anniversary. The staff members received keys and pins as rewards for their faithful work and co-operation.

Dr. O. T. Corson, commissioner of education in the state of Ohio, spoke at Slippery Rock Normal School on "The Humility of Lincoln" one evening recently. He also spoke at Lock Haven State Normal School during the month of December.

Economy can be carried so far that it results in a downright loss.

Poor, cheap leather and bad workmanship cannot produce good shoes, even though they look good and are advertised as such.

A raincoat that leaked the first time you wore it which you bought because it was cheap, was a costly investment, as you knew when you looked at your damaged and stained dress.

Milk is always white to the eye, but much of it has been skimmed and watered, so that your baby does not thrive upon it.
