LOCKER ROOM DEFEATED IGNOMINIOUSLY

Faculty Tramps Them Under Before Crowd.

Yea Faculty! Yah-h Locker Room! Where are your much vaunted players that challenge promiscuously and boast so loudly of easy victory. It were best you stayed under until you get a new team.

The Faculty sure is coming out strong. At present they have the best combination in the school. They stand undefeated. Who's next? The varsity? They had better look to their laurels.

The Morning Press said on Tuesday morning, "Day students at the Normal School were unusually quiet yesterday, and not without reason."

"These had been shouting with glee for several days previously, but yesterday's atmosphere was one of nothing but glooms, gloom and more gloom and there was intense quiet."

"Remus" Fowler representing the Locker Room rose in Chapel last Friday and, in sonorous tones, quivering with excitement, challenged the Faculty to a baseball game to be held on Monday afternoon before a crowd of students. The Faculty team was out, the crowd was out, but where was the Locker Room team? It were best they had not appeared because the Faculty won 10-0. White washed them!

This time Prof. George N. Hall pitched and boy he did pitch. His opponents hardly got a hit and the outfield had absolutely nothing to do. So alert was his infield that no day student got past second base.

Mr. Englehart caught for Prof. Hall and nothing got past him. He has a mighty arm also which is designed to catch base runners. He gave no opportunity for running on the last strike. He held them all.

The infield combination is fast and airtight. With a man like Jackson on first how can a man be safe on an error. None were. He also hit every time he batted. Mr. Reams was good at second before but now he plays like a professional. No errors this trip. Mr. Nelson at shortstop played a wonder of a game. He caught flies, scooped up grounders and played a regular heady baseball game.

But the wonder of the team was the man who held down the hot ones, Professor D. S. Hartline. So formidable was he that no grounders dared come his way lest the ball be consumed in the speed in his throws. No man tried to steal his base because he had it surrounded with amothae. We feel that he is as important as Prof. Shortess who won the other game.

Banghart, a south paw, pitched for the day students, as well as Hagenbuch and Paul Best. They pitched well but look to whom they pitched—a team of pinch hitters.

Smith at third was a won! He used a pretty good glove. Clemens was not fast enough to play second base, third base and short stop so that he didn't get much of either. Bittenbender, however, made a good first baseman. He caught what came.

The line-up:

REORGANIZED TEAM READY FOR SUSQUE- HANNA GAME

Should Win Third Game
For Variety

Tomorrow the Bloomsburg nine will meet a team which is probably superior to any they have met so far. But, since we have lost twice the third game should prove a charm. The school is hoping for victory.

A few changes have been made in the infield. Yarashefski has been moved to second base and McGrath no longer a pitcher is now playing third. He looks pretty good and he should show more head work as he has had more experience than his predecessor.

Playing real baseball, the scrubs defeated the varsity on Wednesday by one run. Score 2-1. Stoker pitched for the scrubs and Roan for the varsity. Next week they should play with the varsity suits at stake.

The scrubs are a heavy hitting outfit and could probably throw a scare into the Giants. With an improvement in hitting and in fielding the team should go big on Saturday. Let's have a crowd out to see the game.

Those who play will probably be:

- Kane, ss.
- Bradshaw, c.
- Austin, 1b.
- Yarashefski, 2b.
- Garrity, l. f.
- Rushin, r. f.
- Keen, c. f.
- McGrath, 3b.
- Roan, p.

BUCKNELL FROSH .. HERE SATURDAY

Dual Track Meet Should Afford Plenty Of Thrills

The Bloomsburg Normal Track team is rounding into shape for its first meet. They have several scheduled. This first one starts tomorrow at 2 P. M. and the opponents are the Bucknell Frosh.

The Bucknell Frosh has a fast bunch and may upset some of our men on the track. But we have many tricks in our bag.

Captain Kanyuck, of our team, is trained for the hurdles and the jumps. He looks good in practice and his record makes him look better. It causes sorrow to the school to hear that Billy Walsh is out with injuries. He was being counted on for victory in the dashes.

We have Davies, Robinson, Jones, Fitzpatrick, Jenkins and a few others to offer as contenders for world records.

BLOOMSBURG DROPS GAME TO SHIPPENSBURG

Normal Players In A Hitting And Fielding Slump.

The Bloomsburg State Normal School is laboring under the effects of something. Of what we cannot say. The fact remains that every member of the student body prays earnestly every night for the removal of that evil influence and goes around an optimist in face of defeat. That, ladies and gentlemen, is the ideal spirit which might be called school spirit.

But enough of that. It may be interesting to some to know what happened Saturday. Our team, a few substitutes, the coach and management went to Shippensburg to try conclusions with the Cumberland Valley Normal School on the baseball diamond. These two schools have met at various times in various sports and the outcome has always been close. This time it was close but the long end of the score went the wrong way. The game ended with the score 5-2 in favor of Shippensburg. It was tough luck.

It begins to sound tougher when you understand that our men had the game in their hands and let it slip. Errors and inexperience were responsible for that which happened.

Roan pitched a good game allowing only three hits. Altho Smith for Shippensburg struck out 17 and Roan struck out 7. Roan pitched as good a game as Smith if not better. His support kept him in hot water most of the time thru errors.

Kane opened the game with a sizzling three bagger but was allowed to die on third by his team mates who struck out one, two, three.

The outfield worked pretty well, putting in everything that came their way and the infield worked better after Yarashefski had made three errors and was yanked. Rushin filled in on third and did very well. Yozviak at second is improving in his game.

Austin is playing his old time game at first base and he and Bradshaw remain bright spots in the gloomy aspect.

To secure a more air tight infield combination Coach Jackson will have to make quite a few changes. A few erasures and some new entries in the book might help a lot.

Altho our men outhit Shippensburg 4-3 our men are not keeping their eyes on the ball and hitting to the best of their abilities. Garrity, for instance, struck out four times straight and he is looked upon as one of our best. Kane had only one hit, Austin had none and Bradshaw only one. That is considered the strong end of the batting order.

The line up and summary follows:

THE RIVALS MAKES A BIG HIT

Dramatic Club Pleases
Crowd

Those attending the production of "The Rivals" given last Friday evening by an all star cast, members of the Dramatic Club, were more than compensated for their time and money. It would have been impossible for the notable George Jean Nathan, were he present, to make humorous or averse criticisms of either acting or play. Both were of a standard that really amazed those present.

The auditorium presented a picture much like that of the "New Amsterdam Theatre" on an opening night. The orchestra was present and their members were far better than we heard before. The scenery both in the "pit" and on the stage was attractive indeed.

Miss Johnston is deserving of special mention, not only for her time and work, but also for her excellent judgment in the selection of the cast. "The Rivals" is not an ordinary play. It requires faultless impersonations on the part of the characters and careful enunciation in order that the audience can appreciate the "dual role" played by Capt. Absolute.

The two "Jacks" Fortner and Rowlands gave the play an excellent start, they being the first to appear. The Misses Evans, Percival and Zimmerman actually lived their parts every moment they were seen or heard. Miss Baucher will some day play similar roles among professionals. Austin and Coolbaugh were faultless as father and son. The former made the best of his lines and had the audience in good humor for the arrival of our "Will Mahoney", Hugo Riemer. The writer really believes he could make an audience laugh if he were to appear in the murder scene from "Macbeth". Hugo dresses funny, acts funny and talks funny and his work is really artistic in these respects. Victor "Mutt" Auskis created a stir among the customers when he arrived. His smooth line was responsible for the predicaments Hugo found himself in. Bradshaw has a voice that even the talkative couples failed to drown out, while Keil was nervous prostrations personified.

All in all, it was an evening we shall long remember. The song everyone sang while making their exit was "I Know I Got More Than My Share"

BIG STEP IN PROMOTION OF MUSIC TAKEN AT NORMAL

May 5 Morning Press—No bigger step in the promotion of music has been taken at the Normal School in the past year than the organization of Junior Music Club, and the B. S. N. S. Music Club by Mrs. John K. Miller, head of the department of music at the Bloomsburg State Normal School.

These clubs were organized by Mrs. Miller in order that the students of the department might get a better background in music; that they might have a broader vision in the field of music and obtain experience in music work.

Practically all of the 150 students connected with the music school at the Bloomsburg State Normal School are members of one of the clubs. They meet twice a month and the meetings are always featured by interesting programs by the members.

Mrs. Miller in speaking of junior and juvenile music clubs said:

"There is nothing of greater importance in the musical development of America as a whole, and of the individual local community, than the spread of junior and juvenile music clubs. The junior club supplies the best possible material for the perpetuation and growth of the senior club and it adds a very decided element of interest."

CERTIFICATE APPLICATIONS SENT TO HARRISBURG

On Wednesday Dean Sutliff sent all the applications for teaching certificates to Harrisburg. There were two hundred and forty of them. That means that about that many Seniors will walk across the stage for their certificates on June 4th. In addition there will be some graduates who are now in the field and who will be here on Commencement Day.

QUARTETTES HAD BUSY YEAR

May 5, Morning Press—No organization in years has advertised the Bloomsburg Normal as has the mixed double quartette now in its second year under the direction of Miss Antoinette Perner and the management of Miss Pearl Mason.

This year the mixed double quartette has been augmented by a double male quartette which is also directed by Miss Perner and which is doing equally fine work.

The two organizations in joint concert have broadcast from the Scranton Times building and have been invited to broadcast a program from Hotel Sterling. The double mixed quartette broadcast programs from both stations last year.

It is highly probable that the two organizations will give a program at Philadelphia this summer in connection with the Sesqui-Centennial. This has not been definitely arranged but work on the engagement is now under way.

One of the most notable pieces of work that the organizations have accomplished has been the numerous concerts that have been given in all parts of the county for the benefit of school libraries. All of this work was done free of charge and the proceeds have been used to start or to build up many libraries that have been used steadily by hundreds of school children.

The quartette in addition to this work has given many enjoyed recitals before large audiences in many of the principal churches of neighboring towns. Always their programs have been well received and led to numerous invitations from other places.

But while this active program is being carried on out of the school the quartettes also find time to give a number of enjoyed recitals at the assembly exercises or at other school functions.

The members of the double mixed quartette are: Misses Mary Bomboy and Ellen Whitehouse, soprano; Misses Evelyn Bomboy and Dorothy Raup, alto; Michael Yozviak and George Janell, tenor; Theodore Keen and James Bittenbender, bass. In addition to those four young men Armond Keller and Arthur Jenkins, tenor and Benjamin Lewis and Herbert Raiston bass.

NORMAL SCHOOL MEN OFFICIATE AT TRACK MEET

A large number of the male population of this school spent the day on Mount Olympus on Wednesday as officials in the annual Columbia county Track meet. Many important jobs were assigned to them and none betrayed the trust.

The track meet as a whole was very interesting for spectators. Some very close races were staged and some exceptional performances in the field events were held. The pole vault went up to 9 feet 3 inches and the time for the hundred yard dash was ten and six tenths seconds.

In the afternoon Carl Davis, formerly of Espy, now of State College, ran an exhibition 880 yard run with Robinson of this school. Davis has a reputation as a half miler and a pretty race was expected. Altho Robinson has little experience he showed some real form and finished just about ten feet behind Davis. He ran a mighty good race.

PROGRAM OF JUNIOR HIGH WELL GIVEN

May 5, Morning Press—No musical program ever presented by children in Bloomsburg was better given or better received than that of the Junior High School of the Normal School which delighted an audience of 800 persons in the Normal auditorium on Tuesday with their Music Week program.

The program as a whole left nothing to be desired and reflected much credit upon the children and Miss Harriet M. Moore, the director.

The program was divided in three parts and each was equally well received. The spirit in which the children entered into their work and the harmony and precision of the renditions were nothing short of marvelous to many of the music lovers in the audience.

The first part of the program was given by children of the seventh grade in memory of Stephen Collins Foster, the father of American folk songs, whose 100 anniversary is celebrated this year.

The story was written by the children and was entitled "An Evening With Aunt Liza and Uncle Henry." The setting was an evening on a Southern plantation in 1860. The children were in costume representing the various periods and prologues led up to the different negro songs which they sang. The work was cleverly and well given and received with round after round of applause.

The second part of the program was given by the Junior High School orchestra and the boys' and girls' choruses of the 8th and 9th grades. The orchestra although small in number, was very well trained and delighted with "On The Hike" by Fulton and "The Rose Queen" by Fulton.

The Boys' chorus sang "The Jolly Coppersmith" by Peters; "The Dove" by Yradier and "Sing Till The Clouds Roll By" by Volkstedt. The Girls' chorus sang "The Angel" by Rubenstein; "Hark, Hark The Lark" by Schubert; "Mistress Mary" Macirone and "Swedish Peasants' Wedding March" by Soderman.

Children of the 8th and 9th grades in the third part of the program gave the cantata "Rip Van Winkle" by Wilson. The enunciation and the spirit with which the children sang made the audience live over again the famous tale.

JUNIOR PROM

All arrangements for the Junior Prom which will be held in the gymnasium on May 8th, have been completed. Invitations have been extended to the members of the faculty the Seniors and Middlers. The committee hopes that their plans work out successfully and everybody has a good time. Music will be furnished by Jerry McHale's Collegians. During intermission a dancing exhibition will be given by the "colored gent" of McHale's orchestra.

The arrangement committee consists of the following:

ALUMNI NOTES

Viola Kline '24 and Maud Mensch '24 have secured positions in the state of Washington. Miss McPherson, at one time Director of Rural Education at our School, helped to secure the positions. She is now at Bellingham Normal School.

Carl Blose '24 is studying at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Helen Sutliff, '23 took part in an operetta given at Harrisburg on Monday evening. Mrs. Sutliff went to the capital to see her daughter perform.

Brief Mention Of People You Know

The orchestra rendered some delightful music at the play on Friday. Mr. Black is President of the Columbia County Historical Society.

Miss Conway and Mrs. Riemer drove to Lewisburg last Thursday. It was Miss Conway's off day.

Rev. Everit, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Lewisburg, called on Dr. Riemer last week.

Miss Esther Kester, at one time in charge of the Supply Room, was on the hill on Saturday.

On May 14th, Troop III of the local Boy Scouts, will give a play in the auditorium.

Freas Downing and Raymond Getz will teach in McKean County next year. That's a good county. It has progressive schools.

The tennis courts are used to the limit. It looks as though the School should build four or five additional ones.

There was a regular exodus of students for the last week-end. In the words of the students it was a "dead week-end."

Miss Harriet Moore keeps the choir of the Presbyterian Church up to a high standard. In this way she has been doing her bit in the betterment of the town.

Never was it more attractive around here than now. And yet the grounds and the surrounding scenery will be even more beautiful in a week or two.

Dr. Riemer and Mr. Englehart drove to Oak Heights, the Evangelical Home, near Lewisburg to examine a type of flooring for the kitchen and fire towers.

The new stack is above the roof. The rooms, dismantled on account of the work on the fire tower, have been replastered. The second fire has been begun.

Mr. Shortess and Mr. Nelson officiated at the Northumberland County Field and Track Meet on Saturday. They took with them as assistants Hugo Riemer and Piggy Swinehart.

A birthday party was given to Dr. C. Z. Robbins, of the town last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes, and Dr. and Mrs. Riemer, Mr. and Mrs. Sutliff were among the invited guests.

The Dramatic Club did itself and the School credit while presenting the "Rivals." There was a good audience present, and all seemed well pleased with the production.

With Englehart and Hall as battery, Jackson on first sack, Reams at second, Nelson as shortstop, Hartline or Hausknecht at third the Faculty has a wonderful infield. And they are all great hitters, infield and out.

Marion Decker went to Lewisburg last week to have an interview with the members of the School Board. While there she saw Miss Lizdas, who has been very successful during the past year.

Isabel Lee is to teach in New York State next year. The superintendent who offered her the position made some flattering remarks about our training department. In his judgment our students learn how to teach.

Last Thursday Heister White, local manufacturer, read a paper at Rotary meeting on the history of manufacturing in the town of Bloomsburg. In the near future the papers read by Rotarians will be placed in the Library accessible to anyone.

There is a wonderful interest in baseball on the part of the girls. Among them are some excellent play-

POLITICIANS INVADE SCHOOL GROUNDS

"The eyes of the country are on the present Pennsylvania primary election." The main issues at stake is the race between Pepper, Pinchot, and Vare for the Republican Senatorial nomination. Everywhere in the state a great campaign is being carried on by each one of the three to seat himself in the Senate and clothe himself in the senatorial toga.

These three were well represented by members of our student body. These represented stirred up a real interest among the students. The issue is being recognized.

James Bittenbender stumped for Pinchot, and well did he perform. His scornful tongue and deep bass voice together with a good man to run for worked together to make a remarkable speech. No doubt he converted many to his way of thinking and also made enemies because of his views.

Vare spake through Leo McGrath of Old Forge. In his championing of the wets, McGrath no doubt made many thirsty. Some cheered him to the echo and some didn't. The wets have their supporters and McGrath must have added to their ranks.

Jenkins had the advantageous position, last. And he came out with such vim and pep that he must have shaken all contrary to his beliefs. He championed Pepper, showed his good qualities and announced himself as an example of Pepper's followers. His motto was "Pepper on Top."

A good follow up of this program would have been a straw vote.

The leading up stage of this program were well cared for. Clara Peffer advised all to stay awake as what was to come was good. Her manner woke many. Helen Kellam and Deborah Waters explained the primaries and went over the qualifications for candidates and put the gubernatorial candidate for nomination before us. There are five prominent ones. The Democrats seem to be seldom heard of in this state.

In all, the program was the best of its kind we have yet had. It had some excitement to it. Mr. Reams is to be congratulated.

MORNING PRESS AND MUSIC WEEK

The local newspaper is doing much for music during Music Week. There have appeared many well-written and interesting articles on music and musical organizations each day. Our School of Music has been featured. On three different days it occupied a quarter page. Mrs. J. K. Miller, its director, has also written articles.

MR REAMS CONDUCTS PRAYER MEETING

Mr. Reams took charge of prayer meeting in the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening. At times he teaches Rev. Harkers' Sunday School Class. Activities like these show to what extent the teachers of the School have become a part and parcel of Bloomsburg. This highly commendable.

COMING ATTRACTIONS ! !

One of the best vaudeville shows ever put on at B. S. N. S. will be given on Friday evening May 21st. Everyone is working to make this a success. Benefits derived from this show will be used to defray the expense for a memorial by the Senior Class. Watch the Maroon and Gold for further announcements.

The Comet—West Pittston High School—Local happenings were very good.

WHAT WE THINK OF OTHERS

The Opinator, Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa—Your paper is one of the very best weekly school publications that we have received. The cuts for your various departments are very good. Your literary department is well represented.

(From Phila. Lynn Santz, of East Broad street, about one o'clock this morning. Neither the school or hospital authorities would divulge the names of the students involved.

MOLLY BRACE GIVES TIP-TOP RECITAL

Tuesday noon Molly Brace well filled the Chapel program with a reading entitled "The Little God and Dicky." She certainly established a reputation and won everyone as an elocutionist.

The intended program was to be a play and on account of a little trouble it was decided to cancel that engagement. The reading was a last minute provision but probably better than any play could have been.

Muhlenberg Weekly—The track team of Muhlenberg placed fifth in the Penn Relays a week ago.

Perkiomen was defeated by the Frosh baseball team by the score 6 to 1 recently.

The Glee Club from Muhlenberg have returned from the Philadelphia-Wilmington tour, after three concerts, one of which was broadcast from station WIP, Gimbed Brothers, Philadelphia.

Green Stone—Mr. Henry Van Dusen spoke at the Y. W. recently on "Youth". Everyone who attended the conference at Eagles Mere during the summer appreciated the opportunity of hearing him again.

Slippery Rocket—A pleasing musical program was broadcast from station WCAE on Friday, April 16th by a number of Slippery Rock students. Special requests for repeating the performance have been made.

Arbor Day was observed at Slippery Rock by appropriate chapel exercises in the morning and planting of 2000 trees.

The Pine—There is persistent propaganda to the effect that the schools are costing too much—that they will bankrupt the nation if the expenditures increase. However the wealth of the nation is not always in tangible material but in the amount of energy put forth to better further education.

OBITER STAFF OF 1927

The Obiter Staff for 1927 has been selected and they are already becoming acquainted with their work. The staff is as follows: George Matthews, Editor-in-chief and Business Manager; Ruth Smith, Secretary; Hugo Riemer and Blodwen Edwards, Associate Editors; James Bittenbender, Advertising Manager; Anna Wendel, Art Editor; Elizabeth Delaney, Humor Editor; William Swinehart, Sports Editor.

QUARTETTE NEWS

The double mixed quartette will sing in the Lutheran church in Light Street on Sunday evening. An appreciative audience is expected.

On May 16 the double mixed quartette and the Male Octette will broadcast from station WBRE, Wilkes-Barre. They are being heard at quite great distances and are becoming popular.

The picture of the quartettes was found in the Philadelphia Inquirer of May 3rd. They are receiving quite a lot of free advertising and much well deserved praise.

The school hopes to hear them again some time this year.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETS

The Board of Trustees of the Normal School met yesterday afternoon. Much business of importance was transacted. Among other matters it was decided to apply to the Council of Education for authority to grant degrees. This is the first step in turning this Normal School into a Teachers' College.

MISS MYERS SINGS AT MUSIC CLUB

Miss Winifred S. Myers teacher of Social Studies in our Junior High School, staged a very pretty program for the Bloomsburg Music Club on Monday evening. With her appeared the Berwick Mixed Quartette in which she sings soprano, and Mrs. Clayton Dodson accompanist. The main part of the program consisted of parts from Carmen and Faust. Miss Myers acted as chairman and did her part very well.

SACK AND ANSKIS SHOW REAL TALENT

Monday noon the Senior Chapel program committee took pleasure in presenting to those assembled Sack and Anskis accompanied in one number by the mysterious quartette. The mysterious ones were frightened by the applause and jumped out the window.

But Sackie and Mutt stayed and gave some great entertainment on the banjo uke and the mandolin. They played so well that they were called back time and again to do more but at last they refused and we had no more.

Jones read the Bible and Keen led the singing to Bittenbender's accompaniment. It was a good program.

TOWN HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA GIVES CONCERT

The orchestra of the local high school gave its third annual concert on Wednesday evening in the auditorium. The program was excellent. On it appeared selections from Gounod, Haydn, Schubert, Gluck, Haendel, Tchaikowsky, etc. The concert was an honor and credit to the orchestra and its director, W. Clair Hower.

CONFERENCE OF HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPALS

Professor Franklin W. Johnson, of Teachers College, New York, contributed greatly to the knowledge of secondary education on the part of the high school principals of this area at the conference last Saturday. In the morning he spoke of the tendencies and trends of high school education today. In the afternoon he discussed the development of character and what high school teachers can contribute to the development of moral habits and ideals on the part of pupils. His audience showed much interest. They entered freely into the discussion and asked many questions.

TENNIS

Tournaments are starting this week. Sign up as soon as possible. Don't miss the opportunity to play in the tournament or to learn. "There's a reason." If you don't know how to play, Miss Loose will teach you. Her first class will be today at 4:10. Watch the bulletin board for the announcement of the time of her next class.

If you play in the tournament it goes towards your letter. Better still, Mr. Nelson has already offered a loving cup to the winner of the tournament. Get busy all you stars and let us see you shine.

The tournament games are being played off promptly. It is a problem who will win but time will tell. A Senior and Junior captain have been selected who are watching all the games to find out who the best players are. The girls selected will form the team who will play against each other on Field Day. The Seniors are thinking they will win but the Juniors do not doubt but that they will. The credit of organizing and conducting this tournament belongs to Miss McCannon and Miss Loose. They are making girls athletics something of importance.

Don't Miss This—It's Great.

We've a letter from a friend advising us that he has in constant use a rug, woven from strips of Hemingway suits that he'd worn out after years of service. And the rug is giving as much wear as the suits did.

The temptation to say something jocular about our "rugged clothing" is almost too great to resist, but as a matter of fact, there's no joke about the long-wear qualities of our suits and topcoats.

There are no better fabrics than those we use; no higher standards of workmanship than ours.
