The officers and members of the Student Council sincerely hope that this handbook will be of real service to each student and faculty member because it furnishes data concerning the customs and regulations of the college and is a chronological program source of all college activities and functions.

We wish to extend to our fellow students our best wishes for a successful and enjoyable college year — one that is filled with our very best effort toward greater scholastic achievements and plus a reasonable participation in the various college activities so that we may be fully prepared for later service in the teaching profession.

President's Greetings

The general public is aware to a greater degree than at any time in our history of the significance of education in promoting the welfare of our Commonwealth. New school buildings are being erected everywhere. School districts are being reorganized for sake of efficiency. The school bus, loaded with children, on our highways is a constant reminder of work of our schools. The public is more aware than ever of the importance of the teacher. Good teachers, not any teachers, are sought. You are here in a State Teachers College to prepare yourselves to meet the legal requirements for teaching. Far more important, you are here to become the teachers with the knowledge, the skills, and the purpose that the schools so urgently need. It is our hope that thru the cooperation of all students and faculty of Edinboro, this year will be outstanding in meeting our responsibilities in the education of Pennsylvania's children.

L. H. VAN HOUTEN,
President

HISTORY

Ninety-one years have gone by since Edinboro was first chartered as a State Normal School; ninety-one years of growth and service to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The beginnings of the college were laid in 1857 when a band of Scotch-Irish farmers grouped together and founded a private academy at Edinboro by popular subscription, but it was not until 1861 that it was chartered by the State as Pennsylvania's second Normal School.

A great forward stride was taken in 1914, when the Commonwealth purchased Edinboro Normal School and made it the property of the State. Twelve years later, realizing the need of the schools of Pennsylvania for better-educated teachers, the Commonwealth made Edinboro a Teachers College by organizing a four-year curriculum leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

Although designed primarily to serve the counties of Erie, Crawford, Mercer, Venango and Warren, Edinboro receives and welcomes students from every section of this state and from other states.

As a result of the recent building program at Edinboro there are five new buildings; gymnasium, training and demonstration school, power plant, spacious auditorium, and girls' dormitory. For these and the older buildings, the campus of thirty-eight acres makes an appropriate setting. Haven Hall, the women's dormitory, was built during the administration of John F. Bigler. Reeder Hall, the men's dormitory, was built in 1907 and named in honor of one of the early donors of the school. Academy Hall, known recently as Music Hall, is the oldest building on the campus, having been built about 1857. Normal Hall was built in 1875 and in 1891 was considerably enlarged. Today it contains the administration offices, the library, several class rooms, and the old auditorium. Recitation Hall, built early in the history of the school, provides class room space. The New Gymnasium, with its excellent athletic facilities, now overshadows the old gymnasium, which is outmoded. Loveland Hall is named for the late Mr. Frank Loveland of Corry, who for many years was a trustee of the College; this building was built in 1930 and houses the Art and Science departments. A temporary science building was erected by the Federal Works Agency in 1947.

We are rightly proud of our campus because of its attractiveness, its accommodations and its traditions. We hope this pride will continue to be shared by all incoming students.

CONTROL OF THE COLLEGE

The control of the College is vested in the Board of Trustees, composed of nine members with John K. Earp, as President, and Will P. Rose as Vice-President. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction is an ex-officio member.

INFIRMARY

The College Nurse lives in a suite adjoining the Infirmary which is located on the first floor of Haven Hall. Doctor Harold Ghering, the College Physician, is at the infirmary between 11:00 A. M. and 12:00 Noon.

While the Nurse can be found at the Infirmary at practically any time, students are asked to respect the following office hours:

7:45 A. M. to 9:00 A. M.

11:00 A. M. to 12:00 Noon

4:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M.

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY, students may call Doctor Ghering at the Clinic, Edinboro 2182 or at his home, Edinboro 2174.

ILLNESS IN ROOM

The illness of any student in his room must be reported immediately to the College Nurse. She or the physician will visit him and prescribe treatment. The student will be moved to the Infirmary if necessary.

Off-Campus and day students also have the services of the physician and nurse.

THE LIBRARY

The entering student at Edinboro State Teachers College soon discovers the educational and recreational facilities available in our College Library. Approximately thirty thousand volumes offer a wide range for reference and study. A generous fiction section and 193 magazines and periodicals give the student an opportunity to fill leisure hours with enjoyable reading.

Our library has the distinction of being one of the few in the state which employs open shelves for all books, thus allowing all students easy access to the volumes. Of course, this system must be carefully supervised and consequently certain rules must be observed.

1. All books which have been definitely assigned to classes are placed on shelves directly behind the desk and are known as the Reserve Books. Such books may be withdrawn at 5:00 P. M., and returned at 7:00 P. M., or taken at 8:30 P. M. and returned before 9:00 A. M. the following morning. Failure to observe these rules will result in a fine of ten cents per hour.

2. Books not on reserve but in demand are termed "overnight books" and may leave the library at any time of day or overnight and must be returned before 9:00 A. M. the following day. Penalty for late return is ten cents per day.

3. All books except those on reserve may be withdrawn for two weeks; a fine of two cents a day will be charged for books kept overtime. Encyclopaedia volumes and dictionaries may not be withdrawn.

4. Magazines may be withdrawn from the Library subject to the same rules as Reserve Books.

5. No student will be issued grades or credits until all Library obligations have been settled.

6. No books may be removed from the Library except by proper charging at the desk by the Librarian in charge. Anyone taking books not properly charged from the Library will be subject to a fine of $5.00 for each book and suspension from all College activities until such fines are paid. Clipping and marking books is prohibited.

The Library is located on the second floor of Normal Hall and throughout the year will observe the following hours:

Monday through Friday

8:00 A. M. — 5:30 P. M.

7:00 P. M. — 9:00 P. M.

Saturday

8:00 A. M. — Noon

1:00 P. M. — 4:00 P. M.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

Grading System

Standings indicating the quality of work are:

"A" — grade given to students whose work is clearly of an exceptional nature.

"B" — grade given to students who do distinctly superior work.

"C" — grade representing work of good quality.

"D" — grade indicating unsatisfactory work.

"F" — grade indicating failure. Any course in which an "F" grade has been earned must be repeated.

"X" — not a grade, but a mark indicating that the student, for some justifiable cause, has not been able to complete the required work within the time limit.

The Dean's List

Twice a year, there is published The Dean's List, a list of students who have made a grade "B" or better in every course taken during the previous semester.

Classes

The following number of credits are necessary to become a member of each class:

Sophomore — 32

Junior — 64

Senior — 96

Graduate — 128 or degree

REGISTRATION

Students are reminded to register and pay fees on the assigned dates. All fees must be paid in advance. Permission must be obtained from the President of the College in advance to avoid penalty for late payment.

Dates of registration and payment of fees may be found in the Calendar.

ABSENCE AND TARDINESS

Students should be familiar with the method of securing excuses for absences from class. The burden of responsibility for absence and tardiness rests at all times upon the individual involved. He must take the initiative in planning for making up work after an absence. Please note that no un-excused absence is without penalty.

The following regulations governing excused and unexcused absences for all students have been approved by the faculty.

1. Excused absence forms may be secured from the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women for one of the following reasons:
 - a. Personal illness or emergency medical or dental appointments.
 - (1) A written statement from the college nurse, the college physician, or the family doctor or dentist.
 - b. Serious illness or death in the immediate family.
 - c. Marriage in the immediate family.
 - d. Absence from the campus for participation in athletic contests (or other college activities) when requested by the faculty sponsor and approved by the Dean of Instruction.

2. If the student does not secure his excuse from the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women and present it to the instructor within seven days after the absence, the absence shall be considered unexcused.
3. There is no cut system at Edinboro State Teachers College.
4. Unexcused absences are regarded as prima facie evidence of neglect and indifference on the part of the student and are so considered in assigning grades.
5. Three tardinesses shall be considered as equal to one unexcused absence.
6. It is the student's responsibility to contact his instructors to make up work missed because of an excused absence. If he does not make up this work, he will be penalized in his grade.
7. The student may not make up work because of an unexcused absence. He will be penalized in his grade for all unexcused absences. For example, in a three-credit course three unexcused absences will result in lowering the grade one letter; four unexcused absences will result in expulsion from class with failure.
8. Whenever a student has been absent from any course more than twenty per cent of its total class hours, the teacher in charge shall report the case to the Chairman of the Absence Committee.

No student whose absences from any course exceed twenty per cent of its total class hours shall receive credit for that course. In individual cases where obvious injustice would result from enforcement of this rule, the Absence Committee of the Faculty may waive it.

9. Reports of absences, both excused and unexcused, will be sent to parents at the end of each quarter.

ASSEMBLY

Each Wednesday morning, the entire student body meets in the auditorium for a period of worship and entertainment. The programs are varied and consist of lectures by prominent thinkers, musical recitals, plays, skits, movies, and important announcements. A committee of students meets with the faculty sponsors to plan the program.

Every student at Edinboro is required to attend. An assembly seating list will be prepared with seats assigned and attendance will be checked. The list of absentees shall be filed in the office of the Dean of Instruction. Each unexcused absence automatically lowers by one point the total accumulation of quality points which the student has earned toward graduation.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Student Council

The Student-Faculty Council considers and enacts much legislation in connection with campus problems. Probably its most important function is the budgeting of the Student-Activities Fund. The Council meets regularly and is always ready to listen to and discuss any new proposal for college progress. Council meetings are open to any of the student body who wish to attend.

Council members are elected by the student body and faculty and serve for two semesters. Membership in this group should be considered a very high honor.

CONSTITUTION

Revised 1948

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this organization shall be the Student-Faculty Co-operative Government of the Edinboro State Teachers College.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

While appreciating deeply the province and functions of the Trustees, College President, Dean of Instruction, the Dean of Women, Bursar and other officials and faculty committees and members organized chiefly for administering the business and instruction of the college, we, the students, the faculty, and the President of the College, feel that there still remains unoccupied a large promising field for co-operative service.

Accordingly, we do hereby declare that the purpose of the Co-operative Government is to take over increasingly the responsibility for organizing and directing purely student affairs, to cooperate with the proper college authorities in matters of student welfare, and to seek constantly to make the college a better agency for developing effective citizens and teachers.

From this group of nominations, with or without additional nominations that may be made from the floor, the class shall elect by ballot its two representatives on the Council.

Other groups shall elect their representatives by popular vote prior to October 1.

The president shall be elected in the following manner: As soon as possible after the opening of the second semester the president of the junior class shall appoint a nominating committee of three, who shall nominate at least two persons from the junior class as candidates for the office of president of the Council. In addition, any junior may be eligible for this office if a petition signed by twenty-five students, requesting that his name be placed on the ballot, be presented to the secretary of the Council at least forty-eight hours before election. 2. No clothing other than that specified must be put on or taken from the room.
3. If leaving for the night, students must notify the floor captain.

Regulations for the use of the Women's Day Students Rooms

All women who are not living in the dormitory may study or relax in the Day Student Room, located in the basement at the end of Normal Hall, whenever they do not have a class during the day. This room is open daily from 7:30 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. and Saturdays from 7:30 A. M. to 12:00 noon.

REGULATIONS FOR MEN STUDENTS

Men's regulations for Reeder Hall are controlled by the Reeder Hall House Council and the Dean of Men. The House Council is elected by the men students and consists of one representative of each class.

The main insistence is that behavior be in accordance with the accepted standards of good taste. All men are expected to cooperate in respect to the matter of all women's regulations. No man is permitted to be in Haven Hall Lobby until after 6:40 in the evening, at which time he is to be in the company of a woman student. All men are expected to enter and leave Haven Hall by the north entrance at mealtimes. Men must appear in jacket sweaters, sports jackets, or suit coats, all with collared shirts at each evening meal Monday through Friday. At the Saturday evening meal and Sunday noon meal shirts with ties must be worn with sport jackets or suit coats.

No intoxicating drinks may be brought into the dormitory. No men students are permitted the use of alcoholic beverages, anywhere, at any time, while they are matriculated at Edinboro State Teachers College. Any misconduct resulting from the use of alcoholic beverages in Edinboro or elsewhere is subject to disciplinary action.

All men who smoke will use metal ash trays. For safety reasons, use of any electrical appliances is not permitted in the dormitory or rooming houses.

All men maintaining a grade less than "C" in any subject will be expected to be in their rooms studying by 9:00 P. M., Monday through Friday.

REGULATIONS FOR OFF-CAMPUS MEN

Men living off-campus are not segregated in any way from those living on campus. They do, however, have a representative in the Student Council who helps advise and settle problems pertaining to the off-campus group. Rules applying to men living in the college dormitory apply to those outside the dormitory.

SCHEDULING SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

To avoid conflict it has been necessary to have one central office where all social events can be scheduled. This scheduling duty has been delegated to the Dean of Women. No social event in which men and women are involved may be scheduled until all the necessary requirements for chaperones, hours, etc., have been met and the approval of the Dean of Women has been given. Before advertising any evening activity, it is necessary to have the activity recorded on the Social Calendar in the office of the Director of Student Personnel.

The Dean of Women, acting in this scheduling capacity, represents the College Social Committee and under its instruction, seeks to maintain a well-balanced and satisfactory social program. Permission for scheduling an event may be denied when the general Social Calendar, or the Calendar for a particular organization seems overcrowded, or when the maintenance of high academic standards in the college would seem to discourage the activity in question.

A form, Student Social Functions and Trips, is to be obtained at the office of the Dean of Women, by any organization planning a major social event. The form is to be completed and approved by the organization advisor and returned to the Dean of Women's Office at least one week before the date of the activity. Failure to comply with this regulation may result in cancellation of the date.

Assignment of rooms for meeting and activity purposes is administered through the Dean of Instruction's Office. Evening use of any room must be approved by the President of the College.

FRATERNITY AND CLUB INITIATIONS

No physical punishment shall be administered at any time.

Any public initiation program shall be submitted in writing for approval to the sponsor and either the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women at least one week before the initiation begins.

The initiation program shall include no activities on campus during class hours and no activities at any time which disturb the public in general.

The initiation program shall be conducted in such a manner that classroom work may proceed as usual. Any mode of dress or any actions which attract undue attention are undesirable.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR PROGRAM

A club or activity may be set up on petition of not fewer than fifteen students with the approval of the Committee on Student Activities.

All organizations will provide for regular meetings.

No meeting shall be held without at least one faculty advisor present.

Each club or activity is to choose its own Faculty Advisor subject to the consent of the faculty member concerned and the approval of the Committee on Student Activities and of the President of the College. The Faculty Advisor is not to be responsible for planning the program of the activity since his relationship is only advisory.

Each activity is to have a Secretary, whose duty it shall be to record and report its membership and program as follows:

A membership report to be turned over to the Chairman of the Committee on Student Activities early each semester.

Participation report of each individual member, of the office holders, attendance at meetings, and contribution to the program. This report is to go to the Dean of Instruction at the end of the semester.

A monthly report of the activities of the club to be given the Chairman of the Committee on Student Activities.

Blanks for all these reports may be secured from the office of the Dean of Instruction.

FRESHMAN CUSTOMS

In an effort to help orient the freshmen to college life at Edinboro, the Student Council has established freshman regulations. The rules will be in effect between Tuesday, September 9, and the evening of Homecoming Day, October 18.

By observing freshman customs in the proper spirit, each student can acquire the qualities which will make him a worthy member of his college: an attitude of friendliness towards all other college students, a respect for the standards of his school, and a familiarity with its special "trade marks" — its Alma Mater, its cheers, and its own songs. In addition, the new student will learn that he belongs to the freshman class in particular, to the college as a whole.

The following rules shall apply to all members of the freshman class except veterans.

1. The wearing of dinks is required. These should be purchased on Registration Day and are to be worn from that time until the conclusion of the Homecoming Day Activities on October 18. Dinks should not be worn in classrooms, in the College Dining Room, or on Sundays.

2. All freshmen shall wear a 10 x 10 inch card bearing their names and addresses in letters not less than two inches high. These shall be suspended by a string on the back of the wearer.

3. No high school awards, such as letters or sweaters, shall be worn.

4. All freshmen must be prepared to sing the "Alma Mater" one week after classes begin.

5. Freshmen will open doors for all faculty and upperclassmen.

6. Freshmen must carry a copy of the Student Handbook at all times and be prepared to answer any questions which upperclassmen may ask concerning customs or regulations as stated in it.

7. All freshmen will parade to the first home football game, and also the Homecoming game, and sit in a group.

8. Freshmen will gather suitable material for the Homecoming Bonfire to be held Friday night before Homecoming Day.

9. Enforcement of these regulations lies with the Student Council or whomever that body designates.

10. Infractions of these regulations by freshmen will be penalized by the Student Council's Tribunal.

11. All students are forbidden to impose any type of hazing upon freshmen. Any student or group violating this regulation will be penalized by the Tribunal.

12. Any additional regulations will be added only by the Student Council or its designated Tribunal.

TIPS TO FRESHMEN

1. Always be ready with a cheery, courteous greeting when you meet a faculty member, an upperclassman or a fellow classmate.

2. Develop good school spirit. Make your school the best school.

3. Be courteous and well behaved, observing the best rules of etiquette at all times.

4. Always present a well-groomed appearance.

5. Attend classes and assembly regularly.

6. Go to church on Sunday.

7. Try to get eight hours sleep every night.

8. Put your name on all your personal property.

The club meets two evenings a month. The meetings start at 7:00 P. M. and end promptly at 8:00 P. M. Programs for these meetings are arranged so that they are not too time-consuming for the students participating in the program.

Membership is open to the entire student body.

The purposes of the FTA are: to give students closer contact with the field of education; to cultivate leadership, personality, and character; to provide future teachers with information about opportunities in various fields of education; to develop greater unity among teachers and future teachers; and to foster interest among future teachers concerning the role of free public education in a democracy.

The FTA is open to all students and each member is automatically affiliated with both the PSEA and NEA and receives literature from both.

There are many committees (permanent) in the FTA and each member belongs to at least one of these — teaching, campus-tour-service, and contact service between the college and professional education in the field.

Rooms For Women

Women students will be housed in College Dormitories, or any private home that has been approved by the Housing Committee.

Boarding Facilities

All students will be expected to eat in the College Dining Room. However, other arrangements may be made if approved by the College President.

Bus Service

Edinboro is situated on the main bus line between Pittsburgh and Erie. During the day and evening the busses run approximately every two hours. Due to the fact that the schedules are constantly changing, we shall not attempt to print them. The schedule may be obtained by calling 2481.

Book Store

Books and other supplies are obtainable at Cooper's Stationery Store. It is advisable to order your books as soon as possible after they have been designated by your instructors. Each student is expected to own the text books required in his classes.

Mail Service

The College receives two mail deliveries each day. Dormitory mail will be delivered directly to the students' mail boxes there. The College offers no service for the purchasing of stamps; such matters should be handled by individual students at the local post office. Lock boxes at the Edinboro postoffice may be secured at the rate of $.60 a quarter.

General Fire Regulations

Fire drills are required by the laws of the Commonwealth. Signal for drills will not be announced and will be given always by some particular person designated for this duty. The first fire alarm is always a call to the persons to participate.

The following drill procedure should be observed:

1. When the alarm is given, close all windows to prevent draft.
2. Empty first floors and basements first.
3. Order: students to leave first, followed by faculty.
4. Keep to the right. Avoid running and rushing.

Responsibility for the observance of fire drills and other fire regulations falls to all persons — students, faculty, and employees. Custodians of the various buildings will see that instructions are given to meet the particular needs in each building.

Laundry Service

Students are permitted the use of tubs, ironing boards and electric irons in the basement of Haven Hall.

As a part of dormitory service students living in dormitories are permitted to have limited laundry privileges. Articles to be washed must be color-fast and tied securely in a laundry bag made especially for steam laundry. All bags and articles to be washed should be clearly marked with the name of the owner. Students are advised not to send fine pieces to the college laundry.

Women's laundry bags are to be at the foot of the basement stairs by nine o'clock on Wednesday mornings. These are to be called for on Wednesday after lunch.

Men's laundry bags are to be in the back entrance to Reeder Hall by nine o'clock on Monday morning. This service includes no more than twelve pieces, including two shirts. Laundry is to be called for Friday.

Laundry bags may be purchased at any of several stores in Edinboro.

All students living on campus are entitled to $.75 worth of laundry based on price list. For additional laundry the schedule of charge should be consulted. Payment will be made when laundry work is completed.

Telephone Service

Telephones on a private College branch (Edinboro 3301) are located in various places on the campus. Outside calls in Edinboro may only be made by students through station "78" and there it will be necessary to dial "O", before dialing the number listed in the directory.

Long distance calls may only be made over the pay telephones found in each Dormitory.

SONGS AND CHEERS

Alma Mater

(Aloha)

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater glorious,
Fresh wreaths we bring to bind thy brow;
Trials past thou has withstood victorious
Never fairer, never statelier than now.
O Edinboro, Edinboro,
We revere thee, love thee, serve thee ever,
While class speeds class
As swift years pass,
To thee our hearts are true.

Winds That Sweep the Campus

Winds that sweep the campus.
Winds that stir the tree,
Sweep around her towers
Standing calm and still
Through the winter's darkness,
Through the summer shine,
Bear her our blessings
Through glad good will.

Dear Home of College Days

(Old Refrain)

Dear home of college days so great and free,
Thy sons and daughters will be true to thee.
Thy love we'll cherish and thy fame declare,
Loyal to thee, and to thy name so fair.

Chorus

So raise your voices all, and honor give,
Her fame and glory may they ever live.
Through joy and sorrow as the years go by,
And with a constancy that cannot die.

Pep Song

Edinboro College, we will sing to you
We'll defend your standards
In whate'er we do.
"Hail, hail, the gang's all here."

Round thy colors bright
We'll stick together for the Crimson and white.

Hand Me Down My Bonnet

Hand me down my bonnet,
Hand me down my shawl,
Hand me down my calico dress,
I'm going to the Calico Ball.
First she gave me honey,
Then she gave me cake,
And then she gave me gingerbread
For kissing her at the gate.
O - - as we go marching,
And the band begin to play
You can hear the people shouting
"Edinboro College wins today".

Victory Song

On you old Red Raiders,
Beat those darned invaders
And march on to Victory.
Down the floor we'll thunder;
We'll put them asunder
And march on to Victory.
Dribble, dribble, dribble down the floor,
Onward, onward piling up the score,
Sun will shine tomorrow;
For we've won E. S. T.—C.
