THE PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE

The Pennsylvania State Colleges Athletic Conference, organized in 1951, recently changed its name to the Pennsylvania Conference. Its membership originally consisted of the 14 state colleges: Bloomsburg, California, Cheyney, Clarion, East Stroudsburg, Edinboro, Indiana, Kutztown, Lock Haven, Mansfield, Millersville, Shippensburg, Slippery Rock, and West Chester. In 1966 Indiana no longer was eligible for conference laurels as it acquired university status. The conference is divided into a Western Division and an Eastern Division and conference champions of both leagues face each other at the end of the season to determine the PC championship. All 13 state colleges that compete in the PC belong to the E.C.A.C., while many are also NCAA and NAIA members.
