Edinboro State's Nationally Famed "Band of Scots"

Meet the Scots...

Fighting Scot Offense Appears "Green" . . .

While most people around the country are whooping it up for either the donkey or the elephant this fall, Fighting Scot fans are more concerned as to whether or not it will be the year of the "Boro." Thirty lettermen return from a club that went 8-3 a year ago, captured the Pennsylvania Conference Western Division title and fell just five points short of claiming the Pennsylvania Conference crown.

"We don't know the character of our offense yet," commented Scot Coach Bill McDonald, who enters his eight year after posting an impressive 42-20-5 slate in his past seven campaigns. "We have a lot of work to do because we have an unproven passing attack. It would be just too tough to match Jude Basile's performances, and, consequently, we'll have to make up for it on the ground. The problem here, of course, is that our fullback, Rich Holmes, is gone and he'll certainly be hard to replace."

Yet opponents are quick to cast second glances with the return of All-American Honorable Mention tailback Dave Green, a 5-10, 200-lb. junior, who lugged the pigskin for 1,239 yards and was the team's leading scorer with 62 points.

"There is no doubt that Dave is one of the top running backs around," projected the Scot coach, "while we have some real capable people in Jeff Delbene (5-10, 197, So.) and Bryan Libert (6-2, 195, Jr.), who'll battle for the other spot."

As a freshman sensation, Delbene averaged eight yards per carry in his 29 tries with the football last fall.

Complementing the Scots' ground game is record-breaking pass catcher Howard Hackley (5-9, 172, Sr.) who has revised three Edinboro receiving marks. Still on hand to grab ESC aeriels are alternating tight ends Steve Larson (6-3, 220, Sr.) and Mark Mellone (6-4, 200, Jr.), with speedy Curtis Pettis (5-9, 160, So.) behind Hackley at the wide receiver slot.

"We've been trying to get both Mellone and Larson in the game at the same time," revealed McDonald, "and we intend to experiment by moving Mellone to a flanker spot because he is a great stalk blocker. Of course, we expect another great year from Hackley."

Ready to step in to the vacated quarterback slot is 6-3, 180-lb. senior signal-caller Dan McHenry who saw relief in every game last season.

"Dan has been waiting in the wings for three years and has been extremely patient," stated McDonald. "He's just got to step in and do it for us. Mike Hill played a lot of jayvee ball for us last year and has a lot to offer."

Defense Stubborn with Seven Starters

Paving the way up front are veteran linemen Doug Goodman (C, 6-2, 225, Sr.), Lou Provenzano (G, 6-1, 230, Sr.) and Greg Hampy (T, 6-2, 235, Jr.).

"Our offensive line appears to be one of our major trouble spots," reflected McDonald, "because we have only three veterans returning here. Goodman and Provenzano should both have great years and be the leaders up front."

Also returning to open holes for Scot running backs are tackle Lee Barthelmes (6-5, 235, Jr.) and guard Dave Gallagher (5-10, 195, So.). Standing by are promising guards Bob Kunkle, a 6-0, 219-lb. sophomore, and Tim Lynch, a 6-1, 220-lb. junior.

McDonald beamed optimistically for the first time when he predicted, "If no one gets hurt, we should be extremely sound on defense. A major key here is the number of capable replacements we find, particularly along the defensive line."

McDonald's optimism is well-founded with the return of three All-American Honorable Mention winners in the likes of 6-4, 250-lb. junior middle guard Ron Gooden, along with senior defensive backs George Miller and Jim Terry.

Joining Gooden in the trenches are senior tackles Jeff Shaw (6-3, 230) and Rick McMahan (6-2, 225).

"These three are all solid veterans," related the head mentor, "but other than that, we're desperately looking for help." McDonald could find back-up strength from 6-6, 240-lb. tackle Bill Buesink and 5-10, 205-lb. sophomore middle guard Chad Deliere.

The biggest problem facing the Scots defensively has been the end slots where changes and heavy recruiting have produced some interesting results. Scheduled at one of the terminals is experienced lineman Bryan Smith, a 6-3, 230-lb. sophomore, while converted linebacker Kevin Erickson, a 6-1, 215-lb. senior, has the number-one spot on the other side. The only other available vet who has logged playing time is Tom Lang, a 6-0, 200-lb. junior.

Both of last year's starting linebackers are on hand to haunt opposing running backs. Back in the fold are Greg Sullivan, a 6-1, 195-lb. junior, who shared a team-leading 139 stops, and last fall's third-leading tackler, 6-1, 225-lb. sophomore, Jim Krentz, who plays all over the field. The first reliever for the linebacking duo is junior Andy Mangola (5-11, 198) who lettered at a middle guard.

Experience abounds in the Scots' star-studded secondary where Kevin Campbell (5-11, 185, Jr.), Brad Crawshaw (6-0, 185, Sr.) and Mike Jennings (5-11, 175, Jr.) join All-American defensive backs Miller and Terry. Adding depth here is quick-learning sophomore Bruno Capogreco (6-3, 195).

Probably the most interesting statistic on the 1976 Edinboro State edition is that it rates as the tallest and largest in the Scots' history. As a team, the ESC gridders average 6'1½" tall and 200 pounds per man.

Winning Ways — A McDonald Trademark

Head Coach - Bill McDonald

Bill McDonald carries an impressive 42-20-5 record into the 1976 season after seven years of leading the Fighting Scots' gridiron program. Under his direction, ESC gridders posted identical 9-1 slates in both 1970 and 1971 while piling up a winning streak of 21 straight regular season games. His 42-20-5 mark puts him at the top of the winning percentage list among Edinboro State football coaches with a 73 per cent reading.

After an initial 4-4-1 season in 1969, his Fighting Scots became the greatest in ESC history when they went 8-0 in regular season play, captured the Lambert Bowl, won the Pennsylvania Conference championship and earned a berth in the NAIA national playoffs. His 1971 team followed up with an undefeated regular season (9-0) and a second straight PC Western Division title. Over 60 individual and team records have been established during his first seven years at the reigns.

Upon completion of 1970's successful venture, numerous post-season laurels were bestowed upon the Scot's mentor. The Football Writers Association of New York named McDonald Coach of the Year in the East while the NAIA Area VIII and District 18 coaches as well as the Pennsylvania Collegiate Press Association also rewarded him with Coach of the Year honors.

Prior to his assignment at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant football coach at Indiana Univ. of Pa. for three years and head coach at Hopewell High School from 1958-1965.

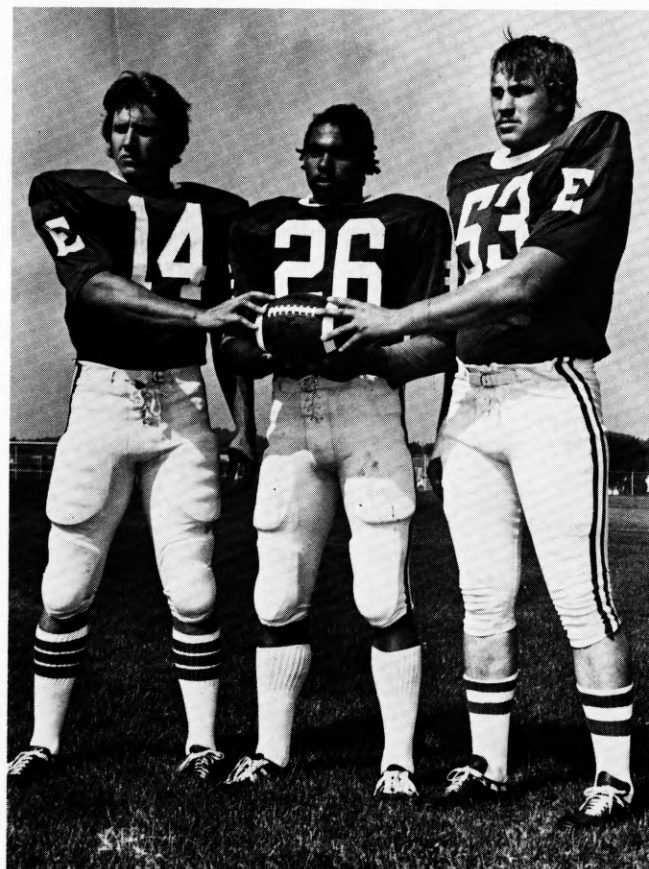

While he directed Indiana University's offense, the Big Indians registered 24 regular season victories against only three defeats. In his final season at Indiana, the Tribe finished unbeaten in nine outings and proved to be the greatest offensive unit in the school's history with a 40 points-per-game average.

The Wall, Pa., native guided Hopewell High School to a 46-25-1 slate during his seven-year tenure as head coach. His 1960 ball club defeated Braddock High 7-6 and broke their WPIAL 58-game winning streak while his 1963 team captured the Midwest Class A Championship.

The Fighting Scots' grid pilot served as an assistant coach at Braddock High School through two undefeated seasons and also at Latrobe High.

McDonald holds both a B.S. degree in education and a M.Ed. from the Univ. of Cincinnati where he played linebacker under Sid Gillman and his assistant coach Paul Dietzel. This team was the original "Chinese Bandits," a defensive unit which later became famous at Louisiana State University.

After graduation from Cincinnati in 1952, the Scots' mentor continued his education in post graduate work at Penn State, Pitt and Indiana (Pa.) Universities. Bill and his wife, Joanne, along with their three children - Amy, Jody and Dave - reside in Edinboro.

New Faces Direct the Fighting Scot Forces

JIM BOWEN — Linebackers

Jim Bowen begins his 10th year with the Edinboro State football program by switching his talents to the defensive side of the ledger. The veteran mentor has primarily worked with the Scots' offensive attack, but this year the experienced coach will help fill a gap by directing the linebackers. Bowen served as backfield coach tutoring such greats as Joe Sanford, Jim Romaniszyn, Bob Mengerink and Al Raines. Jim was head football coach at Fairview High School for 10 years and compiled an outstanding record of 76 wins and 12 losses. His grid teams captured four league championships while riding 25 and 19 game winning streaks. The knowledgeable Scot coach graduated from Slippery Rock State in 1957 and earned his master's degree from Buffalo University. Jim and his wife, Joyce, along with their 7 children, two of which are twin girls, reside in Girard.

TOM HERMAN — Offensive Coordinator

Tom Herman returns to his alma mater for the second year to coordinate the offensive unit and primarily to tutor the offensive line. Originally a standout football player at Lincoln High School in Ellwood City, Tom continued his grid career at Edinboro State for four years where he started as a center during his junior campaign and then was a regular defensive end in his senior season. Tom earned his master's degree in health and physical education at Marshall University where he served as an assistant offensive line coach. He spent last fall sharpening Edinboro State's defensive linemen.

BARNEY RUTKOWSKI — Offensive Backs

Barney Rutkowski begins his second year on the Fighting Scot staff coaching offensive backs and coordinating the junior varsity offense. Barney came to Edinboro last year after spending six seasons as head football coach at St. John Kanty Prep and had also served one year as assistant coach at Wesleyville High School. He is a graduate of Wesleyville High where he earned all-county honors performing at both quarterback and linebacker. Following two years of active service in the Navy, Barney attended Findlay College, Findlay, Ohio, where he was a member of both the football and wrestling squads. He then moved to Kanty Prep in a teaching position for nine years, six of which involved head coach in football and nine consecutive seasons as head basketball coach. Presently, he is working toward his certification in health and physical education at Edinboro. Barney and his wife, Carol, reside in Erie along with their four children, Russell 15, Raymond 14, Beth Ann 12, and Mary Carol 10.

KEN WALKER — Defensive Ends

Ken Walker comes to the Fighting Scot camp to mold the Scots' defensive ends after serving as head football coach at Union City Area High School for the past four seasons. During that span, the Bears captured two league championships and were most impressive last fall when they lost their first ball game and won their next eight in a row. Ken was a four-sport letterman at Edinboro's General McLane High School and then chose to continue his career at Edinboro State where he played split end and defensive back for the Fighting Scots. Upon receiving his degree in elementary education in 1970, he accepted an assistant football coaching position at Cambridge Springs High and then moved to a similar position at Union City in 1971 prior to his head coaching assignment. The new Scot mentor lives in Edinboro with his wife, Jan, and their four-year old son, Matt.

DENNY CREEHAN — Def. Coordinator

Denny Creehan, a captain on Edinboro State's 1970 Lambert Bowl championship team, has joined the Scot staff as a defensive coordinator. Denny was accorded first team all-east honors by the ECAC and first team all-state Associated Press while performing as the Scots' strong safety. A graduate of Bethel Park High School in Pittsburgh, Denny has also earned an M.S. degree from Duquesne University and his M. Ed. from Pitt, in addition to his B.S. degree at Edinboro State. The Castle Shannon, Pa., native served as defensive coordinator at Keystone Oaks High in Pittsburgh for three years before joining the Pitt staff in 1974. After a year with the Panthers under Coach Johnny Majors, Denny served as offensive coordinator at Carnegie Mellon University for a single season. Denny recently moved to Edinboro, bringing with him his wife, Linda, and their one-year old son, Kevin.

JOHN PAUL CHAKOT — Defensive Line

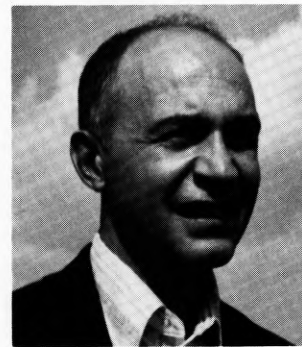

John Paul Chakot is another of our four past ESC standouts who returns to the "Home of the Fighting Scots" via a graduate assistantship on the Edinboro coaching staff. Chakot, who starred at Edinboro as an offensive tackle until graduation in 1973, will direct the defensive line charges. J. P. earned first team All-Pennsylvania Conference and Associated Press honors in his senior year, as well as a first team berth on the NAIA All-District squad. He also served as one of the Scots' grid captains for the 1972 team. The Blairsville High product was line coach at Peters Township High for two years and worked in the same capacity at Southmoreland Senior High for a pair of seasons, 1974 through 1975.

JIM PAUL — Receivers

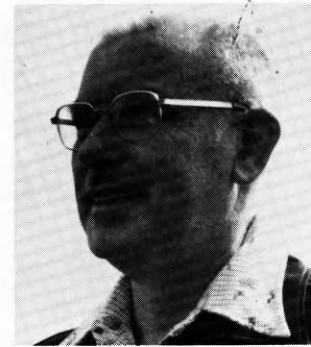

Newcomer Jim Paul brings a vast amount of knowledge to the Scots' receiving corps after his valuable experiences in both the collegiate and pro ranks. Paul, a native of Lancaster, Pa., where he graduated from Lancaster Catholic High, earned All-American honors as a receiver at Garden City College in Kansas. He then enrolled at Adams State College in Alamosa, Colorado, and garnered similar All-American honors while the Indians were listed 7th and 11th in the country. After graduation in 1969, Paul was drafted in the 15th round by the Denver Broncos where he played tight end and wide receiver for a year before moving to the Atlanta Falcons in 1970. He decided to return to Pennsylvania in 1971 as an offensive coach for Central Cambria High and a year later was first assistant coach at Johnstown High School. In 1973, Jim was named head football coach at Erie's McDowell High School where he served in that capacity until this past year before joining the Scot staff. Jim, his wife, Sue, and their children, Lisa 8 and Amy 6, live in Erie.

HARRY MORRISON — Offensive Line

A 1968 Indiana University of Pennsylvania graduate with a degree in business, Harry Morrison will be offering his coaching points to the offensive line prospects. Morrison is originally from Greenville, Pa., where he played football and wrestled at Greenville High School. In 1969 he accepted a coaching position at Warren Western Reserve, one of Ohio's most highly respected scholastic football powers. Harry had charge of both the offensive and defensive backs for the Fighting Raiders, who posted 9-1 and 8-2 season slates before going unbeaten, 12-0, in 1972. Prior to this year's membership on the Edinboro State College football staff, Harry directed both the offensive and defensive line candidates at McDowell High School under Coach Jim Paul. He and his wife, Kathy, along with their four children, Don 9, Wendy 7, Ray 6, and Holly 5, reside in Erie.

Bob Klingler

Al Hall

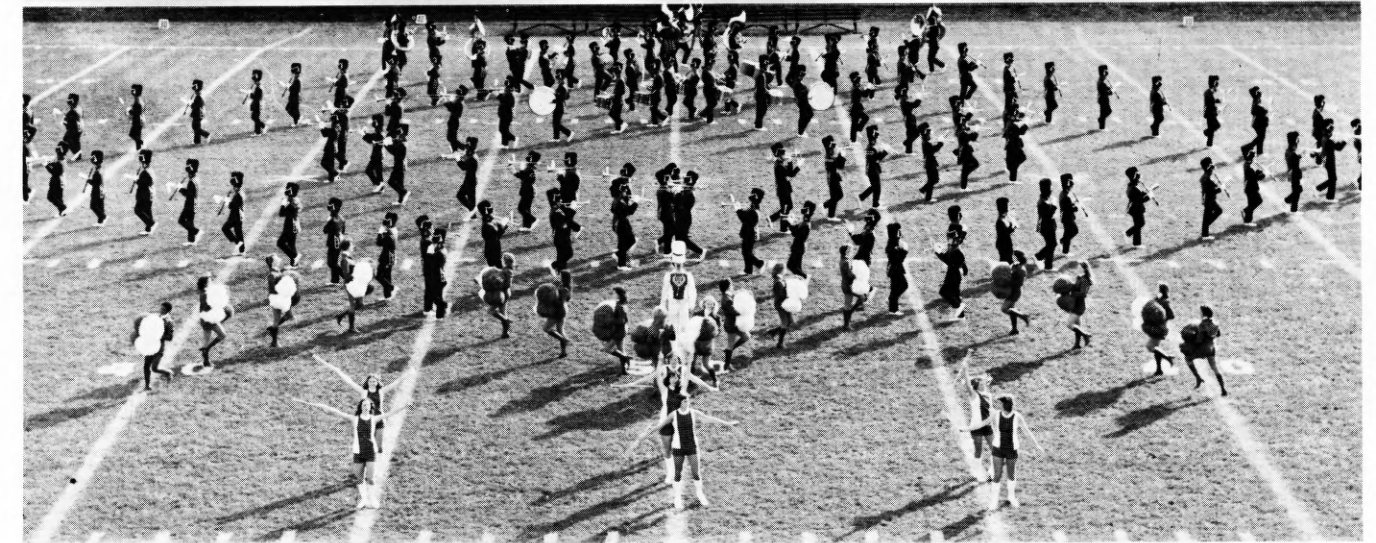

AL HALL — Athletic Director

Since Al Hall's appointment as Athletic Director in 1968, Edinboro State has enjoyed one of the most respected and most successful collegiate athletic programs in the East. Through his efforts, Edinboro State College has become a focal point for athletics in Northwestern Pennsylvania and has hosted numerous championship events. Under his leadership, ESC's sports program has vastly expanded and attained new memberships in the ECAC and NCAA while building a coaching staff that has compiled the College's best record in history. A graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, he served as Assistant Director of Athletics at Akron University for two years and piloted Akron's cross country teams to championship finishes for 12 seasons. Al, his wife, Pam, daughter, Beth, and their son, Dale, reside in Edinboro.

BOB KLINGLER — Team Trainer

Giving Fighting Scot athletes the tops in professional medical care and producing top-notch staffs of student trainers has been the trademark of trainer Bob Klingler who begins his tenth season at Edinboro State. The 1952 Lock Haven grad ventured to Hermann School of Physical Therapy in Houston, Texas and became a registered physical therapist in 1954. He later received his M.S. from Bucknell. Prior to accepting his ESC post, Klingler taught at Milton Hershey, a private boys' school in Hershey, Pa. Bob, his wife, Jill, and daughter, Julie, make their home in Washington Township.

Marching Scots Band Gains National Acclaim

PERFORM AT STEELERS—BROWNS GAME

The nationally renown Marching Scots Band under the direction of John Little and Ronald Byerly will continue to offer spectacular performances which serve as top-notch entertainment throughout the season.

Featured in the Marching Scots Band is a contingent of 151 strong which includes 128 instrumentalists, 16 tam o' shanters, 6 majorettes and one feature twirler. For the fourth straight year, the Band of Scots will be performing at Three Rivers Stadium where this year they provide the pre-game and half-time shows for the Pittsburgh Steelers/Cleveland Browns game on September 19. The Edinboro State band was featured on national television last year when it provided entertainment for the Steelers/Kansas City Chiefs game. This year, the Scots band will present "The Election of 1976" as their show at Three Rivers.

In addition to their appearance at the Steeler game, the Marching Scots Band will perform at all of Edinboro's home and two away football games. Productions for the 1976 season in addition to "The Election of 1976" are "The Big Band Sounds of 1976," "The Alumni of 1976," "The Television Scene of 1976," and "The Music of 1976."

Freshman Leigh Ann Potter from Monongahela, Pa., serves as the featured twirler for the Scot majorettes who are directed by Jeanne Schultz from Pittsburgh.

Drum major for the Marching Scots Band is Steve Barber, a senior from Johnstown, Pa.

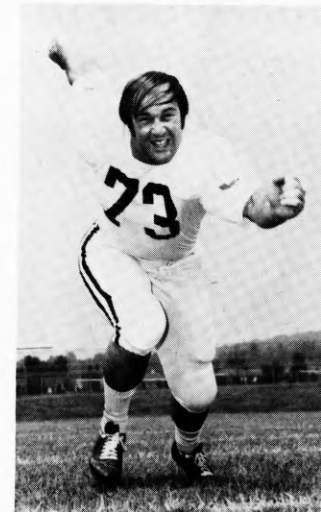

The Marching Scots will once again hold their annual Band Day Contest on the Edinboro State College campus, September 25, when eight visiting high schools will vie for top musical honors.

The Past

ALL-TIME SCORES 1926-1975

Edinboro's intercollegiate football history began in 1926 when Edinboro became a four-year degree granting institution and for the first time played a complete intercollegiate schedule against other four-year degree granting institutions.

Prior to the 1926 season, Edinboro was a state normal school and did not play a complete intercollegiate schedule. Therefore, any records prior to that season should not be considered as part of the intercollegiate football history of Edinboro State College.

Saturday at Sox Harrison Stadium

HOME OF THE FIGHTING SCOTS — SOX HARRISON STADIUM

Serving as home for ESC athletes and fans is Sox Harrison Stadium. The edifice was dedicated in the fall of 1965 in honor of "Sox" Harrison who served as head football and basketball coach at the College for 35 years. His 1931-32 cage record of 11 wins and 1 loss still stands as one of the best marks ever posted by an Edinboro basketball team. Sox still enjoys watching the Fighting Scots on Saturday afternoons as one of their most ardent fans.

Complete facilities are located beneath the grandstand area, which seats 3,000 people. Locker space for both the home and visiting teams, the coaching staff offices and locker room, the officials' dressing room, the training room, showers, the weight room and a laundry room are utilized within this space. Also included are restrooms, janitors' facilities, equipment rooms, a large concession stand and a glass enclosed press box.

In addition to the football field, the stadium also contains complete track facilities. A quarter-mile oval, a 220 straight-away and asphalt approaches for the field events highlight the home of the cinder sport.

Bleacher seats on the visitors side of the stadium bring the total seating capacity to 5,500.

A new scoreboard, one of the largest in the Conference, was added at the south end of the field last year.
