Edinboro . . . Desire Plus

NAIA TOURNAMENT LEFTOVERS . . . If ever a basketball team was loaded with desire . . . it was the Fighting Scots of Edinboro State in the NAIA District 18 Playoffs.

The Scots, a decided underdog against both Indiana University and California State, wasn't about to pay attention to any odds that were "supposed to be."

The Red and White out-hustled, out-fought both the Big Indians Monday night and the Vulcans Tuesday evening.

And, except for the fact that the Scots would be going to the NAIA tournament, the Scots would be glad to witness this.

HAD THE SCOTS won the NAIA bid, it would have gone to the statement of: "Any team supposed to be in the NAIA bid . . ."

In fact — the teams entered.

WHILE ALL THE special praise junior from Crystal Lake Dickinson was in an outstanding job in all phases of the game.

Edinboro State remained in the top 10 of the NAIA Division I basketball poll Wednesday.

Edinboro State received 67 points in the poll, which was a high mark for the team.

RAY OVERHOLT—another little (5-11) guard — can also hit from out front. He did a good job as Riley's replacement against California.

THE SCOTS ACTUALLY played their best ball against Indiana — having only 14 turnovers in that one. They had 17 against California.

By comparison — Indiana committed 11 turnovers and California showed nine.

By another comparison — Gannon averages about 25 per game.

ATTENDANCE AT BOTH games left something to be desired. Not from an Edinboro viewpoint, however.

The fans of the Fighting Scots filled their side of the Westminster and Geneva College gyms each night.

However, rooting support for the Big Indians and for the Vulcans was sadly lacking.

SPEAKING OF FAN support . . . the Edinboro rooters really outdid themselves.

They roared continually — as fans should do in a playoff — and cheered their team's every move.

Top seeded Indiana University of Pennsylvania will head up this year's edition of the NAIA District 18 playoffs. Accepting bids along with the Big Indians were California State, Westminster and Edinboro.

Edinboro (11-7) will trade baskets with Indiana (19-2) at Westminster Field House, while California will take on Beaver Falls. The winners will then meet the following night in the Falls, with the victor advancing to the National NAIA Playoffs in Kansas City.

The National tourney is slated March 9-14. Edinboro has a 19-2, beat Gardner-Webb 67-65 and Texas Alcorn State beat Arkansas 67-65 and Texas Southern 15-0.

Edinboro State College eyes Coach McDonald, in his eighth year at the helm, has guided the Scots to 99 victories against 50 losses. McDonald has never had a losing year as Edinboro mentor.

The Wolverines, under coach Cliff Wettig, will counter with two seniors and three juniors. Operating at the guard posts for Grove City will be a pair of 5-10 juniors, Tom Montgomery

McDONALD SEEKS 100th; SCOTS PLAY GROVERS

Edinboro State continued atop the Chase while Florida Southern leaped from 12th to sixth. Both teams are unbeaten, Alcorn State 18-0 and Florida Southern 15-0.

Meet Gustavus-Adolphus

Scots Face First NAIA Test Today

BY JACK POLANCY NEWS Sports Editor

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The days of waiting are over. Edinboro State gets a chance to show what it can do in the NAIA national basketball tournament when the Fighting Scots meet Gustavus Adolphus Tuesday morning at 11:15 a.m. (12:15 p.m. Erie time) at the arena.

The affair is a first-round game of the 39th NAIA event with the action taking place in the 16,000 seat Crosby Kemper Memorial Arena.

The winner will advance to second round play Wednesday morning against Lake Superior State of Michigan.

Lake Superior shocked third-seeded Alcorn State University 88-79 Monday evening.

RAY OVERHOLT—another little (5-11) guard — can also hit from out front. He did a good job as Riley's replacement against California.

THE SCOTS ACTUALLY played their best ball against Indiana — having only 14 turnovers in that one. They had 17 against California.

ATTENDANCE AT BOTH games left something to be desired. Not from an Edinboro viewpoint, however.

The fans of the Fighting Scots filled their side of the Westminster and Geneva College gyms each night.

However, rooting support for the Big Indians and for the Vulcans was sadly lacking.

The Boro is seeded 14th in the NAIA tourney, bringing a 23-4 card into the contest.

WQLN-FM will air the Edinboro-Gustavus Adolphus game today with Gary Christensen and Paul Newman handling the mike.

Gustavus Adolphus, the District 13 champion, is 19-10 for the season. The Golden Gusties are unseeded.

The team from St. Peter, Minnesota will be making its fifth appearance in this tournament. However, the last time a Gustavus Adolphus uniform appeared in front of a Kansas City NAIA crowd was 15 long years ago. The Gusties best tourney showing was a third round contest — that coming 20 years ago in 1956.

Gustavus Adolphus almost didn't get to Kansas City this year. The charges of coach Meyer Skoog were only 12-10 before embarking on a seven-game win streak, including two D-13 playoff games, to reach the 19-10 mark.

The Golden Gusties have three performers averaging in double figures.

Top gun is 6-7 enior Jim Ellingson — hitting 17.3 points and 9mpetoue game.

Ellingson is followed by 5-10 senior Jim Chalin (14.5) and 6-3 senior Dan Houck (11.2).

Joining this trio as starters are 6-7 junior Tom Carlson (9.3) and 6-3 junior Demis Houck (6.3).

Top reserves are 6-10 soph Dan Grunst (4.7), 6-5 soph Duane Thompson (3.7), 6-1 freshman Al Sawyer (3.7) and 6-4 soph Bob Wiesner (1.6).

The Boro, ranked 16th nationally in the NAIA ratings, is making its fourth KayCee start. The best the Scots have done in the past was last year when the reached the second round.

Coach Guy Conti is expected to start the same fivesome that answered the call the last couple weeks of the regular season.

That means Tim Smiley — who averages 17.9 points-per-game — heads the cast.

6-5 Dennis Hampton (11.5), 6-3 Don Childs (11.3), 6-7 Gary Stanton (9.9) and 6-7 Ron Beckett (um0).

c Hampton is the top board man, grabbing 10.7 missed shots each game. Stanton is averaging 7.7 bounds and Beckett 4.9.

Bench strength will come from 6-3 Alonzo Craig (10.8), 6-2 Bill Lentz (2.8), 6-8 Tom Criag (3.1) and 6-2 Bob Dillard (2.2).

The Boro is scoring at a 78.5 points-per-game pace, Gustavus Adolphus at 74.3. Defensively the Scots hold their opposition to 71.0 points-per-outing, the Golden Gusties with a 71.6 mark.

Edinboro is shooting at a 44.3 percent from the floor and 69.5 percent from the free throw line. Adolphus is 46.5 and 69.0 respectively.

Foster F. Diebold

Since his appointment as president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania on August 1, 1979, Foster F. Diebold has initiated a wide variety of policies and programs designed to complement his desire for an increased level of excellence and quality in higher education.

Noted for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold previously served as president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. His principal fields of professional interest include ethical issues in higher education, higher education management, budget development and fiscal control, legislative affairs, personnel management and collective bargaining, and international education.

A native of Orange, New Jersey, President Diebold served as president of the University of Alaska from 1977 to 1979. Prior to that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and special assistant to the president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of the Division of College Development and Planning at Kean College in New Jersey; and from 1965 to 1969, he was assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township Public Schools in New Jersey.

A graduate of Monmouth College, President Diebold holds a bachelor of science in education and a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met course requirements for his doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently enrolled in the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

As chairman of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities' Committee on Governance, President

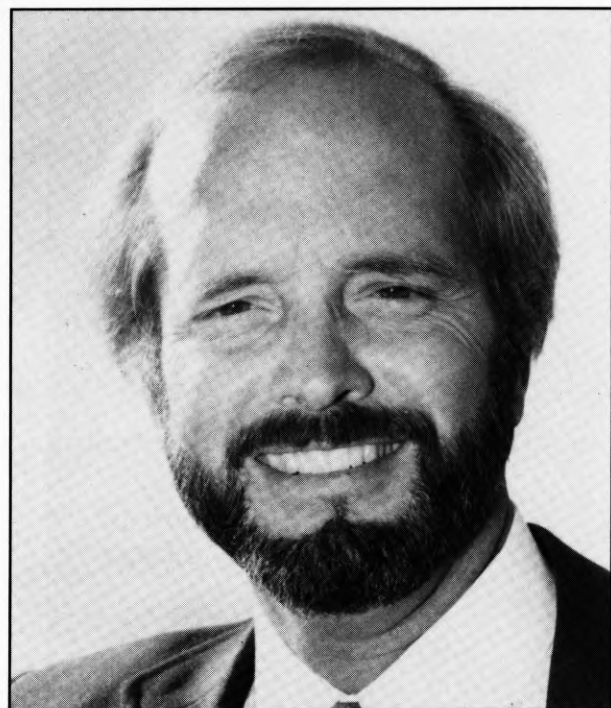

Diebold has emerged as a national and international figure in the world of higher education. His special fields of interest are ethics in education and international programs. As chairman of the National Committee on Governance, he presented a statement of ethics to the American Association of State Colleges and Universities in November 1988. The statement, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted at the annual meeting of AASCU and has been published and circulated as a policy statement by that organization. It should be noted that this code of ethics is the first ever to be officially adopted by a professional organization and directed to the performance of college and university presidents.

President Diebold also serves as chairperson of the Advancement Committee of the Chancellor's Executive Council (State System of Higher Education). He is a member of the Western Pennsylvania Education Council and the International Association of University Presidents.

Active in the community, the President, among other activities, serves on the Board of Directors of the United Way of Erie County, the Board of Corporators of the St. Vincent Foundation for Health and Human Services, and the Advisory Board of the McMannis Educational Trust Fund. President Diebold is also a member of the Hamot Medical Center Board of Corporators, the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Corporation Scholarship Review Committee, and the Marine Bank Advisory Board.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JAMES McDONALD

Athletic Director James McDonald

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

Through his efforts more than 3 million dollars has been raised during the past seven years. The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who compete in the Scots fifteen intercollegiate sports.

"EUP has outstanding coaches and facilities. With these ingredients, there is no reason we could not be competitive in the PSAC and Division II."

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities.

Fifty-two camps were sponsored by the Fighting Scots Booster Club this past summer on the University's campus. Sox Harrison Stadium is the site of the Cleveland Browns vs. the Buffalo Bills annual scrimmage, which has been a yearly mid-summer highlight.

The personable athletic director also introduced Edinboro's Hall of Fame program which has evolved into an annual year-ending event to honor present and past athletes.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 University records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1956 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo.

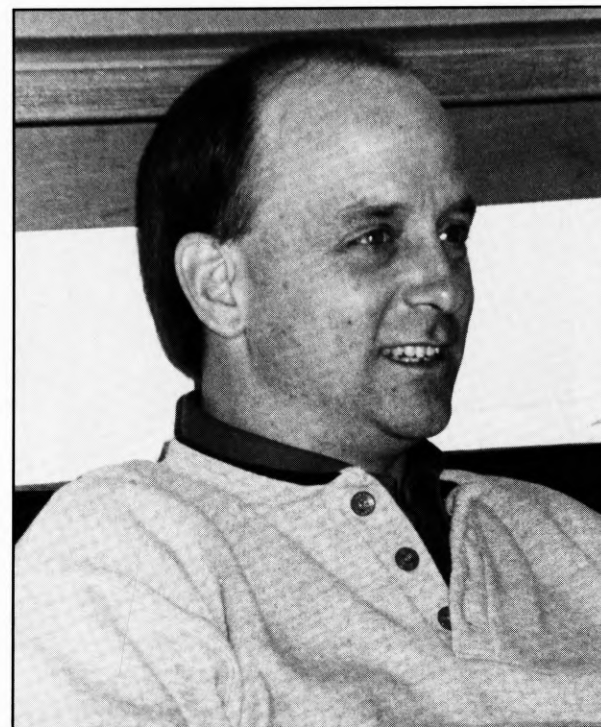

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame. He served four years on the NAIA's All-American selection committee and was chosen by the NAIA to coach an All-American team of NBA-bound cagers who won the Gold Medal in Israel's Hapoel Games.

In addition to his classroom and basketball coaching duties, McDonald was Edinboro's golf coach for 17 years. His teams won over 40 tournaments and finished as high as third place at the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball director for four years and also held a four-year post as a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike and Matthew.

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH GREG WALCAVICH

Greg Walcavich

On April 10, 1989, Gregory L. Walcavich became Edinboro University's tenth men's head basketball coach.

Walcavich, 38 years old, came from West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buchannon, West Virginia, where he was the head coach for the past two years. A graduate of Bladensburg High School in Maryland, he received a journalism degree from Rutgers University in 1973.

Walcavich began his coaching career as an assistant at Birmingham Southern in Alabama, where he stayed for four seasons. In 1977, he obtained his first head coaching position at Alexander City (Alabama) Junior College. After one year, Walcavich returned to Birmingham Southern as the school's head coach.

During his five years at BSC, an NAIA affiliate, Walcavich posted an impressive 114-44 record. His teams were ranked in the top 20 four times in five seasons, as high as number two in 1979 and twice appeared in the NAIA national tournament in Kansas City, Missouri.

For his efforts at Birmingham Southern, Walcavich was named District "Coach of the Year" three times. His success was recognized nationally in 1981 as he was selected as an assistant coach for the United States Olympic Festival in Syracuse, New York.

In 1983, he moved on to the Division I ranks, as an assistant coach at Rice University. There, he was a part of some of the biggest wins in Rice basketball history including victories over Arkansas, Notre Dame, and Houston. After staying at Rice for four years, Walcavich joined the Bobcats of West Virginia Wesleyan in 1987.

Taking over a squad which returned only four players and a schedule that showed just 11 games, he quickly turned the program around and posted an 18-10 slate in his first year. During his initial season, Walcavich led his Bobcats to championships in the Lock Haven tournament and also in the annual Walker Brothers' tourney here in Edinboro. Wesleyan downed the Fighting Scots 103-90 in the championship game. His squad then edged the Plaid 90-84 in a non-conference tilt later in the year.

This past season, Walcavich led the Bobcats to 22 wins against just nine losses with a squad of all underclassmen.

Overall, his seven-year head coaching mark is 154-63. His winning percentage of .710 ranks in the top 15 among active NAIA men's basketball coaches.

A chronological look at the coaching career of Walcavich:

- 1973-77 Assistant coach at Birmingham Southern College (AL)
- 1977-78 Head coach at Alexander City Junior College (AL)
- 1978-83 Head coach at Birmingham Southern College (AL) (Posted a 114-44 record in five seasons)
- 1983-87 Assistant coach at Rice University (TX)
- 1987-89 Head coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College (WV) (Posted a 40-19 record in two seasons)
- 1989 Named head coach at Edinboro University

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tim Smiley

Tim Smiley, a former Fighting Scot All-American cager, enters his sixth season as Edinboro's assistant basketball coach. The Fort Wayne, Indiana, native has accepted the responsibility of recruiting coordinator.

As recruiting coordinator, Smiley is responsible for recruiting athletes who will succeed in the environment here at the Boro, both academically and athletically. He is also in charge of defense and the team's overall defensive philosophy.

Smiley finished as the top scoring guard in Edinboro's history as a player and led the Scots to their best record ever when they posted a 24-5 slate in 1975-76 and a berth in the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Missouri.

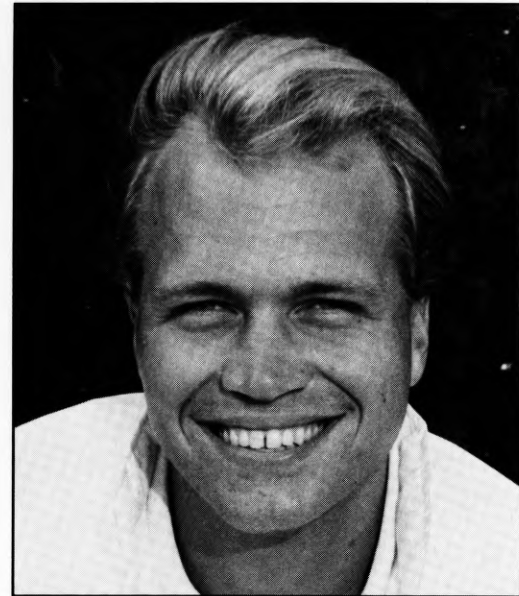

Currently, Smiley ranks second on the all-time scoring list (1,574 points) and single season scoring (508).

The 1978 Boro grad also paced the Fighting Scots to a NAIA tourney appearance in 1974-75, when the Plaid posted a 22-5 slate. For his efforts, Smiley was named NAIA All-American twice and selected to the Pennsylvania Conference first team, along with being tabbed to the Pittsburgh Press and Erie Morning News "Big Five" first team.

Prior to his return to Edinboro, Smiley taught fourth and fifth grade in Fort Wayne, from 1979-83. During this time, he was head coach of the ninth grade squad and also served as assistant track and field coach from 1981-83.

Smiley returned to Edinboro in 1983-84, initially serving as a graduate assistant coach and then receiving full-time status as assistant in 1984-85. Recently, Smiley earned his master's degree in elementary administration. Last April, he was inducted in Edinboro University's Athletic Hall of Fame for his past accomplishments on the basketball court.

He and his wife Nadine, a former EUP student, and their daughter Asia (8), reside in the Edinboro area.

Tim Brueggeman

Assistant coach Tim Brueggeman begins his first season with the Fighting Scot basketball squad. He will aid the basketball program in the areas of practice and game management, scouting, and recruiting.

Brueggeman's basketball background includes his All-Conference playing days at Geneva High School in Ohio, where he was a three-time starter and letterwinner. His senior season, he was named the team's most valuable player. He was recruited by numerous Division I colleges in the Ohio area but decided to pursue another sports love instead - tennis.

Brueggeman first attended Lakeland Community College, Ohio, where he achieved a top-ten ranking in singles competition on the junior college level. Upon graduation from Lakeland in '85, he went on to attend Louisville University where he captained the Cardinal tennis squad and was nationally ranked in flight two doubles competition.

He is also the men's and women's head tennis coach at Edinboro and recently completed his fall season with each squad. His women's team finished the year fifth in the PSAC with a 9-5 dual meet slate. The men's team, playing the majority of their slate in the upcoming spring, finished 2-4.

Brueggeman is currently a professional member of the United States Tennis Association. He resides in the Edinboro area with his wife, Tracy.

ATHLETIC STAFF

Dr. Kathleen Lipkovich

Todd V. Jay

Harold "Hal" Umbarger

George Roberts

DR. KATHLEEN LIPKOVICH Associate Athletic Director

Dr. Kathleen Lipkovich was named Edinboro's first associate athletic director at the outset of the 1981 school year to help administer both the men's and women's athletic program.

Originally from Youngstown, Ohio, Dr. Lipkovich has had teaching and coaching experience at West Virginia University, Central Connecticut State College, and Trinity College. The Ohio native, who graduated from Chaney High School, began her teaching and coaching career in 1972 with the Howland School District in Howland, Ohio, and then held a similar position from 1972 through 1975 at McDonald High School in McDonald, Ohio.

The 1972 Youngstown State graduate received her M.S. degree in 1975 from West Virginia University and was awarded a doctorate from that same institution in 1977 after majoring in educational administration prior to her arrival at Edinboro.

TODD V. JAY Sports Information and Promotions Director

Todd Jay begins his fifth year in charge of Sports Information and Promotions for the Athletic Department. A graduate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania, Todd received a bachelor of science in education in 1982 and a master of science in communications in May of 1985. The New Castle native served as assistant to the sports information director at Clarion.

Since joining the staff in 1985, he has promoted Edinboro University's 15 intercollegiate sports, hosted a weekly cable television show and oversees the promotion of special sporting events held at the University. He was in charge of promoting the USA/USSR Olympic style wrestling match held in McComb in April 1989.

He also coordinates and is the master of ceremonies for the annual Hall of Fame ceremonies held on campus each spring.

A three-year letterwinner in baseball at Clarion, Jay served as news-sports reporter for the New Castle News, while also serving as assistant basketball coach for Neshannock High School during his teaching stay in New Castle.

The voice of the Fighting Scots for home football games, Todd resides in Edinboro.

HAROLD "HAL" UMBARGER Assistant to the Athletic Director

Harold "Hal" Umbarger joined Edinboro University's athletic staff six years ago as assistant to the athletic director. He brings a wealth of talent and experience to the administrative level of the athletic program and plays a vital role in overseeing the academic progress of student athletes as well as coordinating the ongoing functions of the athletic director's office and the summer programs which involve the department. The West Newton, Pa., native is a 1954 Slippery Rock University graduate and also owns a master's degree from Penn State. After a three-year stint with the U.S. Army Security Agency in Europe, he coached basketball and baseball at Moshannon Valley (Pa.) High School before accepting a guidance position in the West York Area School District in 1961. He became a member of Edinboro's admissions office a year later and in 1967 was named director of admissions.

GEORGE ROBERTS Director of Sports Medicine

George M. Roberts of Titusville, Pa., is beginning his fifth year as director of sports medicine at Edinboro University.

A 1972 graduate of Titusville High School, Roberts received a bachelor of science from Edinboro in 1976. He completed the NATA (National Athletic Trainers Association) curriculum at West Chester University and earned a master of education degree from Slippery Rock University in 1980.

In his most recent position, the newest addition to the Fighting Scot athletic staff was employed as athletic trainer at Hamot Medical Center in Erie, Pa. He served as student trainer during his college career and from 1976 to 1984, Roberts was a teacher, trainer, and assistant football coach at Titusville H.S.

Since 1980, Roberts has spent much of his time as a trainer for the National Sports Festivals (III, IV, V and now VII), for the World University Games in Edmonton, Alberta, and for the United States Olympic Team during the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles.

Roberts is a member of the National Trainers Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society.

George and his wife, Penny, have a seven-year-old daughter, Kristin and a newborn son, Brian.

BORO CAGERS UNDER NEW LEADERSHIP

The Edinboro University Fighting Scot basketball team will have a new look during the 1989-90 season as the Plaid begins a new decade under the direction of first-year head coach Greg Walcavich. The newly appointed mentor makes no promises about the upcoming season but one - hard work.

"I will give no timetable when it comes to winning championships here at Edinboro but I can assure one thing, this squad is going to work hard for everything," Walcavich commented.

"Ultimately, we will be successful. How long it takes us to get back into the conference playoffs and win I cannot say. We are all very anxious to get started. When October 15 rolls around, we will be well prepared to start practice. Our goal is not to win all 26 games in a row but it is a goal to win one game - 26 times, that is how we are going to look at it. We will respect every team we play, no matter who it is, but we will fear no one," continued Walcavich.

"Realistically, we want to start with the PSAC championship. But in order to get there, we have plenty of work to do. We want to get back to being a winning team with a winning attitude first," he continued. "I respect all of the programs in the PSAC and I consider it a very good conference in all sports. To be a top success, a team must learn how to win on the road in this conference and then take care of business (wins) at home."

Walcavich and his assistants Tim Smiley and Tim Brueggeman should have plenty of help in their quest to get the Scots back to the state playoffs with the return of four starters and four top reserves from last year's 14-12 squad.

Leading the list of returnees will be senior Billy Wade and sophomore Aaron Brown.

Wade, an All-PSAC West unanimous choice and All-East Region second teamer, returns for what should be a banner senior season. The 6-7 forward led the Scots in scoring (16.9 points per game), rebounding (10.5 rebounds per game), blocked shots (42), field goal percentage (59%) and minutes played (792) last season and will anchor the interior play for the Plaid. In 73 games with the Scots, Wade has scored 889 points to rank 16th all-time and has grabbed a total of 549 rebounds to place 13th in the Edinboro record books. He has connected on over 57% of his shots from the floor throughout his career and has blocked a total of 63 shots.

Joining Wade across the front will be the return of sophomore Aaron Brown, the PSAC West "Rookie of the Year" in 88-89. Last season, the 6-6 forward scored 13.8 ppg to rank second on the club and grabbed 6.7 rpg to also rank behind Wade. He connected on 48% of his shots from the floor and 73% from the charity stripe. Brown's 18 blocked shots and 731 minutes played was also second best on the squad.

Also returning to the starting five will be guard Adrian Batts and forward/guard Sterling Washington.

Batts, who started 23 games at the point guard spot, returns to run the offense for the Scots. The scrappy guard seemed to play his best in the big games and led the Plaid in assists with 118. He finished fourth on the squad with 196 points (7.5 ppg) and led the team with 42 steals last season. Batts also led the team in free throw percentage hitting on 84% of his free tosses and also added 11 three-point goals. His free throw percentage ranks as the fifth highest in Edinboro basketball history.

Washington, who came to the Scots out of the military academy at the holiday break last year, also returns to solidify the starting lineup. Considered one of the team's top defensive players, Washington proved to be a key factor in the team's push for the conference playoffs last season. He finished the year with 101 points and added 85 rebounds to rank third on the squad. Washington also finished third on the squad in blocked shots (14) and added 20 assists and 17 steals in just 17 games.

Also returning with plenty of game experience will be senior Jimmy Johnson and sophomores Shawn Mehok and John Preston.

Johnson, one of the PSAC's best long jumpers in track, may be the squad's best all-around athlete. In all, Johnson played in 19 games for the Scots last season and will likely see more action in Walcavich's up-tempo style. Improving his outside shooting, Johnson connected on 48% of his shots from the floor a year ago. In 250 minutes of play, Johnson added 16 assists and 7 steals and proved to be one of the squad's best defensive players.

Mehok, from nearby Girard High School, also returns to the squad and should be a solid contributor. As a freshman, Mehok scored 83 points (3.9 ppg) and added 30 assists to his credit to rank fourth on the squad in that department. He was second on the team with 13 three-point goals and played just 277 minutes in 21 games for the Plaid. A versatile player, Mehok can play both point and shooting guard spots for the Scots.

Preston, a 6-7 forward, could be the Scots' "hidden talent" on the inside this season. Playing in just 13 games last year, he showed great potential in the Scots' final four wins in 88-89. In all, Preston grabbed 29 rebounds and blocked 6 shots in only 102 minutes of action last year. Considered one of the most improved players on the team, Preston will give the Scots added depth on the inside.

Also expected to help the Scots this season will be a group of newcomers led by junior college transfer John Mohre. Also looking to dot the Scots' roster this winter will be Lasana Crider, Wesley Murdock, Tyrone Matthews and Damon Woods.

Mohre, a transfer from Lansing Community College in Michigan, could be the shooting guard the Plaid is looking for in 89-90. At 6-8, Mohre is likely to play on the perimeter due to his quality shooting touch. He carries plenty of numbers with him to the Boro, dating back to his days at DeWitt High School, Alma College, and at LCC in Michigan. He scored 16 ppg and averaged 8 rebounds an outing in high school and netted 11 ppg his first year of college at Alma.

Crider, a 6-6 freshman, brings plenty of accolades to the Boro. He helped lead Chanel High School (Ohio) to a 20-5 slate a year ago and the conference title. He was tabbed second-team All-State for his 19 points and 12 rebound average as a senior.

Murdock, a freshman guard, comes to the squad from North Side High School in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, the same area which produced Scot assistant coach Tim Smiley. Murdock averaged 18 points, 8 assists and 4 steals in high school. A quality athlete, he also holds the North Side High School long jump mark with a leap of 23'9".

Matthews, a 6-1 guard, is from H.L. Bourgeois High School in Louisiana, the same high school that produced teammate Sterling Washington. He also comes to the Scots out of the military and will add depth to the point guard spot.

Woods, another freshman guard, comes from Kenmore East High in New York where he excelled in basketball and football. He netted 17 ppg and also dished out 7 assists per game, leading his high school squad to a 15-6 slate his senior year.

Overall, the guard position appears to be the most important to the head coach. "I truly believe that you win college games on the Division II level with guard-play. We must show quality depth at this position. They have to be your leaders at both ends of the floor and run the show. They must keep everything in order," Walcavich continued.

Concerning the Scots' schedule, the coach feels it is very competitive. "The conference not only has quality players but quality coaches as well. As a coaching staff, you must be prepared every night. Each opponent creates a different challenge every time out on the floor. As a team and staff, we must prepare ourselves for any team that comes along. Like I stated earlier, respect without fear of our opposition is very important," added the first-year coach.

Walcavich is well aware of the challenge ahead of him. "I love the challenge of coaching at this level. It is the craft part of coaching which I enjoy. Your team must understand one another at both ends of the floor. As the coach, I must make our team compatible. They have to play hard and together at both ends of the court."

"My chore is to mesh this talent into a winner. Expectations? Well let me say I do not think we are going to be disappointed at the end of the year. We will make progress with all intentions of being very competitive in a bid for the playoffs," Walcavich concluded.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (Pennsylvania Conference) is the largest NCAA II conference in the nation and is composed of the 14 universities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education.

Championship competition is sponsored for 20 men's and women's sports in the Pennsylvania Conference with all 14 universities belonging to Division II of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) while some elect to compete in Division I sports. PSAC teams have won numerous honors in national competition over the years and have helped the PSAC become one of the most highly respected Division II conferences in the nation.

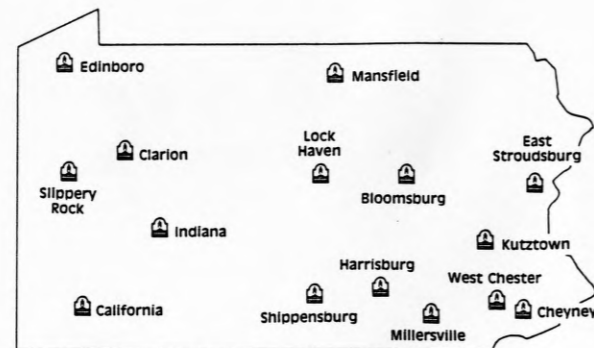

The Pennsylvania Conference is under the leadership of a board of directors, which consists of the 14 university presidents who govern through an executive committee. Current chairman of the board is Mansfield University President, Mr. Rodney C. Kelchner.

Dr. James H. McCormick is the chancellor of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE).

A list of member universities with their basketball affiliation includes: Eastern Division - Bloomsburg, Cheyney, East Stroudsburg, Kutztown, Mansfield, Millersville, and West Chester; Western Division - California, Clarion, Edinboro, Indiana, Lock Haven, Shippensburg, and Slippery Rock.

In basketball the top three teams in each division compete in a preliminary playoff with the team winners proceeding to the Pennsylvania Conference championship game at an eastern site. The eventual champion is awarded an automatic berth in the NCAA II East Regional Tournament.
