Scots impressive in victorious debut

EDINBORO — Impressive!
That describes completely the debut of new head basketball coach Greg Walcavich and his Fighting Scots of Edinboro University.

The Plaidmen — a lightning-fast, high-flying, shot-blocking crew — crushed a talented Lincoln University outfit 87-67 in the second game of the Daniel Overheim Memorial Tournament Friday night.

A crowd of approximately 1500 kept McComb Fieldhouse buzzing as it watched as the Scots — with five performers in double figures — cruised to their season-opening triumph.

The Boro will now face East Stroudsburg (a 73-46 winner over Mercyhurst in the opener) for the tourney title 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Hurst takes on Lincoln in the 5:30 consolation opener.

Veteran Billy Wade paced the Fighting Scots with 26 points, nine rebounds and six blocked shots (the winners rejected a whopping 13 Lincoln efforts).

Flashy Jimmy Johnson and hard-working Aaron Brown each ended with 14 markers while Sterling Washington — who led the Boro in rebounding with 11 — had 12 counters and 6-6 freshman Lasana Crider 10 points.

Edinboro shot a solid 51 percent (35-of-68) from the floor and owned a 17-of-26 sin stripe figure.

The visitors from Lincoln, Pa., hit a woeful 32 percent (23-of-71) — mainly because of the Edinboro's defense — from the field and had a 15-of-27 free throw chart.

Shawn Day, a 6-2 freshman, paced the Lions with 19 points before fouling out late in the game.

Lincoln posted a 53-49 margin in rebounding with Brooks Williams hauling down eight.

"I thought we gave the ball too many times (22 turnover) then this was our first game that's to be expected. I think we will improve as the progresses.

"Tonight, however, we played a complete team win with everybody contributing," concluded the boss.

A dejected Bobby By explanation for his team showing.

"I don't know what night," sighed the Lincoln practice and in press the ball well. Tonight ble — especially in shooting (6-of-18 — a half).

"We'll just have Mercyhurst tomorrow better than tonight capable of doing so."

Who wouldn't like to be in first-year Edinboro basketball Coach Greg Walcavich's 21st season around this time of year?

An 8-0 record and 86.4 points per game have made life, not to mention the highlights, very nice for Walcavich. Yet, he remains cautiously optimistic.

"We're not really more talented than any of the other teams we've played," says the man who posted a 40-19 mark at West Virginia Wesleyan in 1987-88.

"We've done what we've had to do in order to win. For eight games, we've been good, largely because we've been at home."

EDINBORO — Make that four straight basketball wins for Edinboro University.

The Fighting Scots, up by just a hoop at halftime, rang up 56 points after intermission to zip past Fairmont State 91-79 at McComb Fieldhouse.

The final margin didn't reflect the Boro's superiority in the late going. The margin stood at 88-64 with 2:30 left before the Falcons closed fast, taking advantage of the Scots' in-

The seesaw first half saw the Falcons start quickly before the Scots rallied behind Jimmy Johnson and Billy Wade to earn a 35-33 edge at the break.

A 13-4 run shortly after halftime boosted the Boro in front for good. Consecutive three-pointers by Agee Batts and Tyrone Matthews hiked the bulge to 51-41 with 15 minutes left.

Dominating at both ends, the Scots built the lead to 68-52 on John Mohre's rebound and to 76-56 on Matthews' drive. Two freebies and a de sandwiched rk Murdoch 8-64 spread.

Edinboro shot 49 percent for the night (38-78). Fairmont at 51 percent (30-59). The Scots missed half of their 16 charity stabs, the Falcons dropping 14 of 20. The invaders owned the boards 44-41. Alfonso Davis with 10 caroms to knot Wade.

Overall Walcavich was happy with the win. "Fairmont is a very talented team with four starters back from last year. Randy Hess does a great job coaching and his team is very athletic. We're real excited about the victory."

Hess informed, "Edinboro has an excellent inside and outside game and they also have depth, which really hurt us tonight. We got a little tired, especially our inside people. They posed a heckuva matchup problem for us."

"Greg coached in our league and I know his teams will be well prepared and get after you. We just gave them too many things too easily in the second half and we didn't shoot the ball well."

Second-half explosion keys Scots

Let's go guys Edinboro basketball

After trailing for most of the first half, the Fighting Scots (4-0) won Wednesday's 91-79 victory over Fairmont State was any indication some severe matchup problems for its opponents this season.

Fairmont stayed in the game by shooting 53 percent in the first half, but the Falcons were unable to keep up the pace down the stretch while Edinboro just got stronger.

"I think they (the Edinboro players) have a better grasp of what we're trying to do," said Edinboro coach Greg Walcavich. "If we don't steal it, they start their offense a little farther from the basket."

Fairmont committed 11 of its 19 turnovers in the second half while Edinboro had just one of its seven after the break. Meanwhile, the Fighting Scots' defense picked up players in double figures, led by Billy Wade with 29 points to mount a Bobby-Dee Everhart.

"They've got a great inside-out and they've got depth," said Fairmont coach Randy Hess. "Their depth was a major factor. We got a little tired tonight."

"As far as inside people, we can put it in, and in a quick game, we can play our 6-10 guy. They pose a heckuva matchup problem for us."

Wade made 12 of 20 from the field, 5 of 5 from the free-throw line and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Scots. Agee Batts added 14 points, five rebounds, five assists and five steals. Mark Murdoch had 11 points, and Tyrone Batts, Murdoch and Matthews combined to hit 7 of 9 from three-point range.

"They were backed off so far, I'm sure they felt like they had to stop. Billy and Aaron (Brown) really outstanding shooting team, do that."

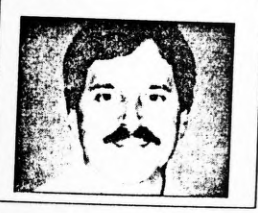

All the guys have done a great job of not getting hungry and feeling like 'It's my turn to shoot a three.' For three games, when they could get it inside, they threw it inside."

That same strategy was effective in the first half, but the Scots missed a lot of easy shots and many as five points in the early going before rallying to take a 35-33 halftime lead.

"We didn't look good the first half, but we didn't look good because we didn't shoot well," Walcavich said. "It wasn't from shot selection. We had a number of shots right at the goal that just didn't go in."

The Scots got a number of transition baskets in the second half to 49 for the game. And even though Fairmont shot

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JAMES McDONALD

Athletic Director James McDonald

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

Through his efforts more than 3.3 million dollars has been raised during the past nine years. The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who compete in the Scots fifteen intercollegiate sports.

"EUP has outstanding coaches and facilities. With these ingredients, there is no reason we could not be competitive in the PSAC and Division II."

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities.

Fifty-two camps were sponsored by the Fighting Scots Booster Club this past summer on the University's campus. Sox Harrison Stadium is the site of the Cleveland Browns vs. the Buffalo Bills annual scrimmage, which has been a yearly mid-summer highlight.

The personable athletic director also introduced Edinboro's Hall of Fame program which has evolved into an annual year-ending event to honor present and past athletes.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 University records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1956 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo.

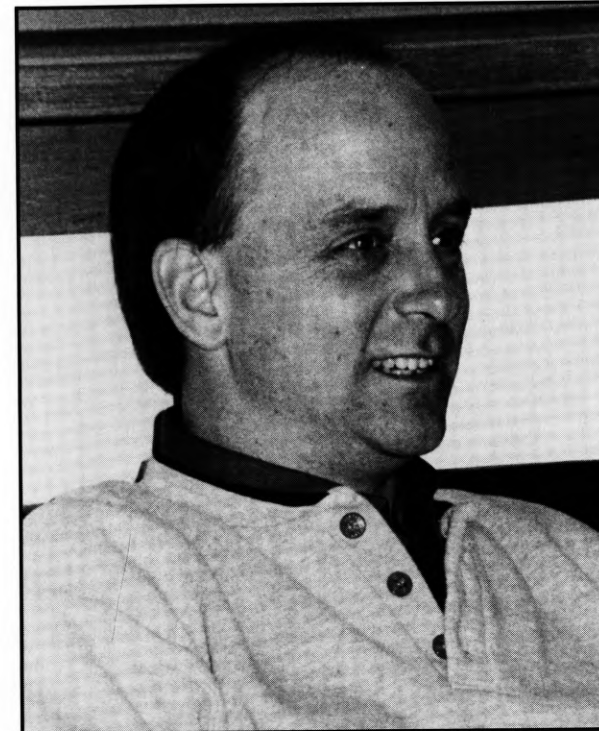

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame. He served four years on the NAIA's All-American selection committee and was chosen by the NAIA to coach an All-American team of NBA-bound cagers who won the Gold Medal in Israel's Hapoel Games.

In addition to his classroom and basketball coaching duties, McDonald was Edinboro's golf coach for 17 years. His teams won over 40 tournaments and finished as high as third place at the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball director for four years and also held a four-year post as a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike and Matthew.

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH GREG WALCAVICH

Greg Walcavich

On April 10, 1989, Gregory L. Walcavich became Edinboro University's tenth men's head basketball coach.

Walcavich, 38 years old, came from West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buchannon, West Virginia, where he was the head coach for the past two years. A graduate of Bladensburg High School in Maryland, he received a journalism degree from Rutgers University in 1973.

In his first season as the Scots head coach, Walcavich guided them to one of the best seasons in school history. On three occasions the Fighting Scots were ranked in the nations top 20, posting an impressive 22-5 record. Despite playing in the rugged PSAC, the Boro was overlooked for the NCAA II tournament.

Walcavich began his coaching career as an assistant at Birmingham Southern in Alabama, where he stayed for four seasons. In 1977, he obtained his first head coaching position at Alexander City (Alabama) Junior College. After one year, Walcavich returned to Birmingham Southern as the school's head coach.

During his five years at BSC, an NAIA affiliate, Walcavich posted an impressive 114-44 record. His teams were ranked in the top 20 four times in five seasons, as high as number two in 1979 and twice appeared in the NAIA national tournament in Kansas City, Missouri.

For his efforts at Birmingham Southern, Walcavich was named District "Coach of the Year" three times. His success was recognized nationally in 1981 as he was selected as an assistant coach for the United States Olympic Festival in Syracuse, New York.

In 1983, he moved on to the Division I ranks, as an assistant coach at Rice University. There, he was a part of some of the biggest wins in Rice basketball history including victories over Arkansas, Notre Dame, and Houston. After staying at Rice for four years, Walcavich joined the Bobcats of West Virginia Wesleyan in 1987.

Taking over a squad which returned only four players and a schedule that showed just 11 games, he quickly turned the program around and posted an 18-10 slate in his first year. During his initial season, Walcavich led his Bobcats to championships in the Lock Haven tournament and also in the annual Walker Brothers' tourney here in Edinboro. Wesleyan downed the Fighting Scots 103-90 in the championship game. His squad then edged the Plaid 90-84 in a non-conference tilt later in the year.

In his last season at West Virginia Wesleyan, Walcavich led the Bobcats to 22 wins against just nine losses with a squad of all underclassmen.

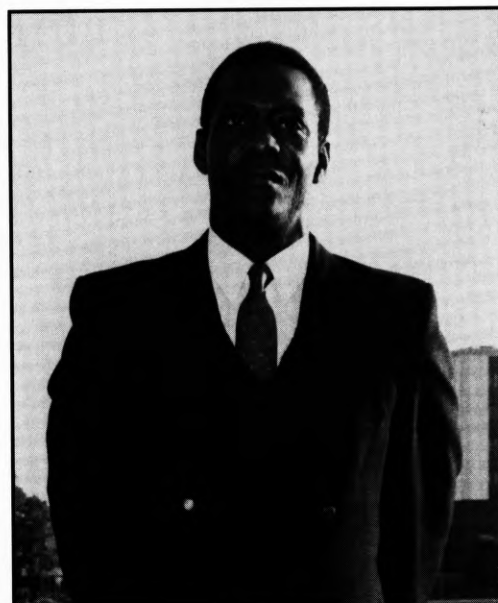

Overall, his seven-year head coaching mark is 154-63. His winning percentage of .710 ranks in the top 15 among active NAIA men's basketball coaches.

A chronological look at the coaching career of Walcavich:

- 1973-77 Assistant coach at Birmingham Southern College (AL)
- 1977-78 Head coach at Alexander City Junior College (AL)
- 1978-83 Head coach at Birmingham Southern College (AL) (Posted a 114-44 record in five seasons)
- 1983-87 Assistant coach at Rice University (TX)
- 1987-89 Head coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College (WV) (Posted a 40-19 record in two seasons)
- 1989 Named head coach at Edinboro University
- 1989-90 Leads Scots to 22-5 mark in first year

ASSISTANT COACHES

Tim Smiley

Tim Smiley, a former Fighting Scot All-American, enters his seventh season as Edinboro's assistant basketball coach.

In April of 1989, Smiley became the eighth basketball player inducted into Edinboro University's Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned his induction due to accomplishments on and off the court.

Smiley's extensive career as an assistant basketball coach and athlete at Edinboro, has provided him with a solid background in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference. In the 11 years of service both as a player and a coach, Edinboro's teams have appeared in five post-season PSAC playoffs, three Pennsylvania State Championship games, two NAIA national tournament berths in Kansas City, Missouri, and one NCAA east regional appearance.

Coach Smiley's recruiting efforts are widely respected because of the high percentage of athletes who have successfully completed their bachelor's degrees. In addition, many of his recruits have been outstanding All-Conference selections and All-American candidates.

During his athletic career, Smiley finished as the top scoring guard in Edinboro basketball history with 1,574 points and led the Scots to some of their best seasons ever. In 1974-75 the Scots were 22-5, the following year, Smiley led the Boro to its best season ever and a 24-5 record. For his outstanding efforts, Smiley was named NAIA All-American and first team PSAC for two straight years.

After graduating in 1978 he returned to his home town of Fort Wayne, Indiana, where he taught elementary school and coached high school basketball from 1979-1983.

He then returned to Edinboro in 1983 and presently holds two degrees from Edinboro, a B.S. in elementary education and an M.A. in elementary administration.

He and his wife, Nadine, also a former Edinboro student have two daughters, Asia (9 years) and Jasmine (4 months). The Smiley family resides in Edinboro.

Tim Brueggeman

Assistant coach Tim Brueggeman begins his first season with the Fighting Scot basketball squad. He will aid the basketball program in the areas of practice and game management, scouting, and recruiting.

Brueggeman's basketball background includes his All-Conference playing days at Geneva High School in Ohio, where he was a three-time starter and letterwinner. His senior season, he was named the team's most valuable player. He was recruited by numerous Division I colleges in the Ohio area but decided to pursue another sports love instead - tennis.

Brueggeman first attended Lakeland Community College, Ohio, where he achieved a top-ten ranking in singles competition on the junior college level. Upon graduation from Lakeland in '85, he went on to attend Louisville University where he captained the Cardinal tennis squad and was nationally ranked in flight two doubles competition.

He is also the men's and women's head tennis coach at Edinboro and recently completed his first year with the rebuilding Fighting Scots. The women's team finished fifth in the PSAC with an overall record of 14-12, while the men's team finished fourth in the conference with a 12-14 record.

Brueggeman is currently a professional member of the United States Tennis Association. He resides in the Edinboro area with his wife, Tracy.

1990-91 PREVIEW AND PROFILES

SCOTS LOOK TO NATIONAL LEVELS

The Edinboro University Fighting Scot basketball team, under Head Coach Greg Walcavich, won't be able to sneak up on anyone anymore. The Scots are no longer a secret, nor is the ability of their second-year coach.

But according to Walcavich (and he speaks like a true coach) the guys on the court make the difference.

"Too much credit goes to the coach when you win and too much blame when you lose," Walcavich comments. "The players were the difference last year. Their best attribute was their ability and desire to work hard and that is exactly what they did. This year's team will hopefully be no different. We lost some leadership in Billy Wade but we return four players who will get the job done," Walcavich continued.

One thing certain about the 1990-91 Edinboro basketball team, is that the squad is going to be tested — in and out of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference. After posting a 14-0 independent record last year and still not receiving a bid to the national playoffs, the Scots' strength of schedule was questioned by the national voters. That will not be the case this year.

"We added the likes of Millersville and Oakland University (MI)," Walcavich commented. "We play 22 Division II opponents out of 27 games and that is not a bad ratio. We will play a demanding schedule this year. It is obvious that the NCAA selection committee looks at your schedule when going through the bid process. Our goal is to win the PSAC and get the automatic bid. If that doesn't happen, then we have to put ourselves in a position to get the at-large vote," he added.

The Scots will also carry Walcavich's yearly goal of going unbeaten at home and splitting on the road to gain a PSAC West playoff spot. "I am excited because I will have a better grasp of the kids that are here. We know the six that return and the others we have recruited, so I am confident in their abilities," Walcavich added. "You can't look beyond the division, it proved its toughness last year."

"Let me stress that you win championships with what you return — not with what you add. No matter who (recruits) we brought in, our team will win because of the players coming back," added Walcavich.

The top guns he is referring to are seniors Sterling Washington, John Mohre, Mark Murdock, and junior Aaron Brown.

Also returning will be guard Greg Fox. He was a big part of the Scots' success last winter and will contribute again in 1990-91.

A pair of transfers, Derek Walton from Miami University (OH) and Sean Gibson of Boyce Community College in Pittsburgh are also going to be major factors for Walcavich and the Scots.

The remaining six that make up the current 14-man roster include red-shirts Lasana Crider and Carlos Peterson, transfers Sam Dickerson, John Hadyka, Junior Simpson, and freshman Ron Santiago.

Washington, one of the best players in the PSAC, will return to anchor the lineup. Versatile enough to play five positions, he was second to Wade in scoring (12.9 ppg), rebounding (7.5 rpg) and blocks (38) last year and led the Scots with 69 steals. He also netted nearly 51% of his field goal tries and improved his free throw percentage to .655 a year ago.

Mohre, set to play any of three spots, will be relied on for more scoring this year. A fine shooter, Mohre averaged 7.4 ppg a year ago and shot 45% from the floor. He also added 107 rebounds and blocked a dozen shots.

Murdock, a 2-guard, was second on the team in three-point goals (22) last year and returns for his senior year. He connected on 72% of his free throw attempts and added 76 assists, third most on the squad.

Brown, likely to play the 3 and 4 spot, returns for his third year of starting for the Plaid. Division "Rookie of the Year" as a freshman, Brown scored just under 10 ppg and was third for the Scots in blocks (32) and rebounds (165) last year.

Fox, a guard, saw limited action last year. He played 60 minutes and spelled guards Adrian Batts and Jimmy Johnson in crucial games. Fox was credited with 15 assists, or one out of every four minutes he played.

Walton, a point guard for Miami University (OH) last year, will likely fill the void left by Batts. A starter in 25 of 28 games for the Redskins, Walton averaged 6.6 ppg and 4.3 assists. His ability to shoot the three will be a big factor.

Gibson, heavily recruited out of Pittsburgh, is a former star at Langley High School and Robert Morris College. The all-time leading scorer at Langley, Gibson went on to be named ECAC "Rookie of the Year" at Robert Morris in 1987-88. He averaged 13 points per game for the Colonials that year and 22 ppg last year at Boyce Community College in Pittsburgh.

Crider, a red-shirt due to a knee injury, will hopefully recover to help the Scots. Injured in Edinboro's third game last year, he may be the missing link in the team's playoff quest. At 6-7, he could be a major factor along the baseline.

Peterson, a freshman guard, who sat out all last season, is also from Langley High. He shows great promise at the guard spot, coming off a high school career where he was a three-year letterman averaging 18 points, 12 rebounds and 3 assists.

Dickerson, a 6-6 sophomore, will help the Scot inside game. He transferred from Hibbing Junior College in Minnesota where he was one of the top players coming out of the JUCO system. He averaged 10.8 points, 7.5 rebounds and 2.5 blocks per game as a senior at Bedford High School in Ohio.

Hadyka, a transfer from Community College of Morris in New Jersey, will likely play the 2 and 3 spot for the Plaid. A fine all-around player, he scored over 1,000 points and grabbed over 1,000 rebounds in high school. He netted 18 points and 17 rebounds per game as a senior and is just 6 ft. 3 inches.

Simpson, a 6-9 junior forward, enters Edinboro from Kilgore Junior College in Texas. Named 1989-90 "Athlete of the Year" at Kilgore, Simpson should solidify the inside game for Walcavich. A native of Barberton, Ohio, Simpson averaged 10 points, 11 rebounds and 4 blocks a game in high school.

Santiago, a true freshman, will battle for the starting point guard spot this winter. Recruited out of Canada, he led his high school team to an impressive 34-7 mark including an unbeaten 17-0 slate and the conference title. He netted 16 ppg with most of those coming from the perimeter.

The Scots will begin the season with their annual tournament in McComb Fieldhouse on November 16. In this year's Daniel Overheim Memorial/Walker Brothers Tournament, the Scots will battle Kutztown, West Virginia State and Mt. Vernon for the title.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (Pennsylvania Conference) is the largest NCAA II conference in the nation and is composed of the 14 universities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education.

Championship competition is sponsored for 20 men's and women's sports in the Pennsylvania Conference with all 14 universities belonging to Division II of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) while some elect to compete in Division I sports. PSAC teams have won numerous honors in national competition over the years and have helped the PSAC become one of the most highly respected Division II conferences in the nation.

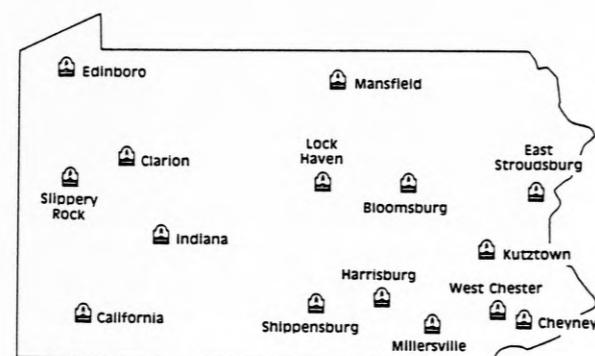

The Pennsylvania Conference is under the leadership of a board of directors, which consists of the 14 university presidents who govern through an executive committee. Current chairman of the board is Mansfield University President, Mr. Rodney C. Kelchner.

Dr. James H. McCormick is the chancellor of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE).

A list of member universities with their basketball affiliation includes: Eastern Division - Bloomsburg, Cheyney, East Stroudsburg, Kutztown, Mansfield, Millersville, and West Chester; Western Division - California, Clarion, Edinboro, Indiana, Lock Haven, Shippensburg, and Slippery Rock.

In basketball the top three teams in each division compete in a preliminary playoff with the team winners proceeding to the Pennsylvania Conference championship game at an eastern site. The eventual champion is awarded an automatic berth in the NCAA II East Regional Tournament.

XAVIER D. WILLIAMS

What Edinboro meant to me: Edinboro University can best be described in one word, PEOPLE. At the 'Boro, besides the quality education that I received, the most important commodity that I gained was the lifelong friendships of students, faculty and the administration. The friendship of peers happens at all universities, but the interest that the faculty and administration takes in the students is not paralleled at any institution. I owe much of my life's experiences and values to the many members of the administration that took the time to get to know me and allowed me to befriend them. Even today, I look to my mentors at Edinboro for advice, guidance or just someone to talk. When I look at the best times of my life, the people and experiences at Edinboro fill many of these memories, I just hope one day I can do something for Edinboro in return for what it has done for me.

Sincerely,

Xavier Williams

What Edinboro meant to me: Edinboro University gave me the opportunity to advance myself as a person, student, and athlete. Without the gift from God and the opportunity Edinboro gave me, I would never have been a success. Edinboro also gave me the opportunity to meet some of the most creative minds on earth. The professors here are willing to work with students on a one-on-one basis unlike other larger universities. I also thank everyone, mainly the townspeople and faculty members for all their support. My success is their success. The care and encouragement from all involved at Edinboro was endless. Thanks for everything.

Sincerely,

Billy Wade
