Foster F. Diebold

Since his appointment as president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania on August 1, 1979, Foster F. Diebold has initiated a wide variety of policies and programs designed to complement his desire for an increased level of excellence and quality in higher education.

The Orange, New Jersey, native is a graduate of Monmouth College and also holds a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met coursework requirements for a doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently completing the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency of Edinboro University, President Diebold was president of the University of Alaska and the director of development and planning at Kean College in New Jersey. He has also served as an assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township (New Jersey) Public Schools.

Recognized for his extensive experience in the field of educational management, President Diebold's principal professional interests include ethics in higher education, budget development and fiscal control, legislative affairs, international education, personnel management and collective bargaining, and institutional advancement.

His scholarly achievements in the discipline of applied ethics in higher education deserves special mention. The model statement he authored for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted by that professional organization and published as policy for the chief executives of its nearly 400 member institutions nationwide. It has also been adopted by the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education Board of Governors as a guiding statement for presidents of those institutions.

A staunch advocate of a statewide system of public universities in Pennsylvania, President Diebold supported the enabling legislation for the State System of Higher Education (Act 188 of 1982) and saw the State System come to existence in 1983 as a member of the transition team. He currently serves on the System's Executive Council of Presidents and on the boards of the Pennsylvania Academy for the Profession of Teaching, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the University Center at Harrisburg.

For his leadership and scholarly achievement on an international scale and for his many contributions to advancements of higher education and enrichment of an emerging culture in Pakistan, President Diebold was decorated with prestigious gold medals from three Pakistani universities. The awards for educational eminence were presented during visits to the Edinboro campus by official Pakistani delegations. Active in the community, he serves on the Board of Directors of the Erie Conference on Community Development, the United Way of Erie County, the Board of Corporators of both St. Vincent Health Center and Hamot Medical Center, and on the Executive Committee of the French Creek Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He is also a member of the Marine Bank Advisory Board, the Advisory Board of the McMannis Educational Trust Fund, and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Corporation Scholarship Review Committee.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JAMES McDONALD

Athletic Director James McDonald

Buffalo Bills annual scrimmage, which has been a yearly mid-summer highlight.

The personable athletic director also introduced Edinboro's Hall of Fame program which has evolved into an annual year-ending event to honor present and past athletes.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 University records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1956 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo.

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame. He served four years on the NAIA's All-American selection committee and was chosen by the NAIA to coach an All-American team of NBA-bound cagers who won the Gold Medal in Israel's Hapoel Games.

In addition to his classroom and basketball coaching duties, McDonald was Edinboro's golf coach for 17 years. His teams won over 40 tournaments and finished as high as third place at the NCAA Division II National Tournament.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball director for four years and also held a four-year post as a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike and Matthew.

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

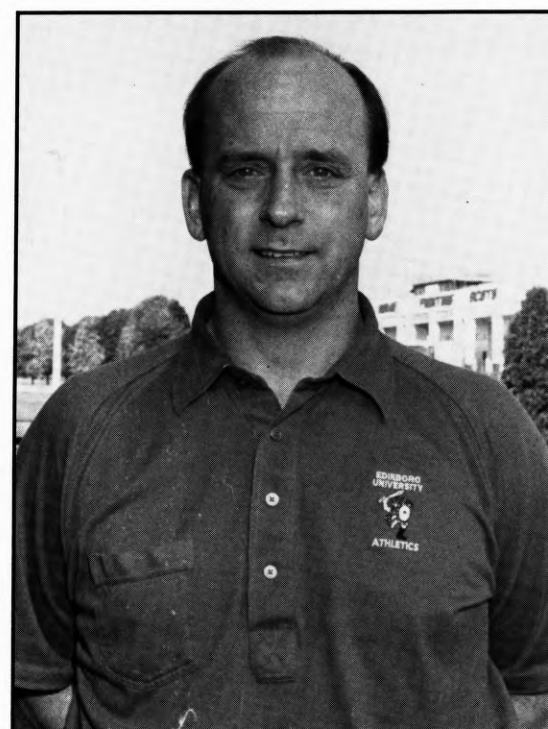

Through his efforts more than four million dollars has been raised during the past ten years. The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who compete in the Scots sixteen intercollegiate sports.

"EUP has outstanding coaches and facilities. With these ingredients, there is no reason we could not be competitive in the PSAC and Division II."

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities.

Fifty-six camps were sponsored by the Fighting Scots Booster Club this past summer on the University's campus. Sox Harrison Stadium is the site of the Cleveland Browns vs. the

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH GREG WALCAVICH

Greg Walcavich

On April 10, 1989, Gregory L. Walcavich became Edinboro University's tenth men's head basketball coach.

Walcavich, 39 years old, came from West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buchannon, West Virginia. A graduate of Bladensburg High School in Maryland, he received a journalism degree from Rutgers University in 1973.

In his first season as the Scots head coach, Walcavich guided them to one of the best seasons in school history. On three occasions the Fighting Scots were ranked in the nation's top 20, posting an impressive 22-5 record. Despite playing in the rugged PSAC, the Boro was overlooked for the NCAA II tournament.

Walcavich began his coaching career as an assistant at Birmingham Southern in Alabama, where he stayed for four seasons. In 1977, he obtained his first head coaching position at Alexander City (Alabama) Junior College. After one year, Walcavich returned to Birmingham Southern as the school's head coach.

During his five years at BSC, an NAIA affiliate, Walcavich posted an impressive 114-44 record. His teams were ranked in the top 20 four times in five seasons, as high as number two in 1979 and twice appeared in the NAIA national tournament in Kansas City, Missouri.

For his efforts at Birmingham Southern, Walcavich was named District "Coach of the Year" three times. His success was recognized nationally in 1981 as he was selected as an assistant coach for the United States Olympic Festival in Syracuse, New York.

In 1983, he moved on to the Division I ranks, as an assistant coach at Rice University. There, he was a part of some of the biggest wins in Rice basketball history including victories over Arkansas, Notre Dame, and Houston. After staying at Rice for four years, Walcavich joined the Bobcats of West Virginia Wesleyan in 1987.

Taking over a squad which returned only four players and a schedule that showed just 11 games, he quickly turned the program around and posted an 18-10 slate in his first year. During his initial season, Walcavich led his Bobcats to championships in the Lock Haven tournament and also in the annual Walker Brothers' tourney here in Edinboro. Wesleyan downed the Fighting Scots 103-90 in the championship game. His squad then edged the Plaid 90-84 in a non-conference tilt later in the year.

In his last season at West Virginia Wesleyan, Walcavich led the Bobcats to 22 wins against just nine losses with a squad of all underclassmen.

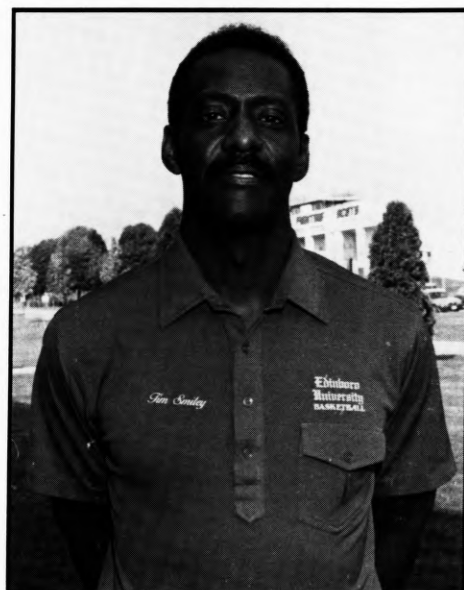

Overall, his eight-year head coaching mark is 172-73. His winning percentage of .710 ranks in the top 15 among active NAIA men's basketball coaches.

A chronological look at the coaching career of Walcavich:

- 1973-77 Assistant coach at Birmingham Southern College (AL)
- 1977-78 Head coach at Alexander City Junior College (AL)
- 1978-83 Head coach at Birmingham Southern College (AL) (Posted a 114-44 record in five seasons)
- 1983-87 Assistant coach at Rice University (TX)
- 1987-89 Head coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College (WV) (Posted a 40-19 record in two seasons)
- 1989 Named head coach at Edinboro University
- 1989-90 Leads Scots to 22-5 mark in first year
- 1990-91 Leads Scots back to PSAC playoffs

ASSISTANT COACH

Tim Smiley

Tim Smiley, a former Fighting Scot All-American, enters his eighth season as Edinboro's assistant basketball coach.

In April of 1989, Smiley became the eighth basketball player inducted into Edinboro University's Athletic Hall of Fame. He earned his induction due to accomplishments on and off the court.

Smiley's extensive career as an assistant basketball coach and athlete at Edinboro, has provided him with a solid background in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference. In the 12 years of service both as a player and a coach, Edinboro's teams have appeared in five post-season PSAC playoffs, three Pennsylvania State Championship games, two NAIA national tournament berths in Kansas City, Missouri, and one NCAA east regional appearance.

Coach Smiley's recruiting efforts are widely respected because of the high percentage of athletes who have successfully completed their bachelor's degrees. In addition, many of his recruits have been outstanding All-Conference selections and All-American candidates.

During his athletic career, Smiley finished as the top scoring guard in Edinboro basketball history with 1,574 points and led the Scots to some of their best seasons ever. In 1974-75 the Scots were 22-5, the following year, Smiley led the Boro to its best season ever and a 24-5 record. For his outstanding efforts, Smiley was named NAIA All-American and first team PSAC for two straight years.

After graduating in 1978 he returned to his home town of Fort Wayne, Indiana, where he taught elementary school and coached high school basketball from 1979-1983.

He then returned to Edinboro in 1983 and presently holds two degrees from Edinboro, a B.S. in elementary education and an M.A. in elementary administration.

He and his wife, Nadine, also a former Edinboro student have two daughters, Asia (10) and Jasmine (1 1/2). The Smiley family resides in Edinboro.

THE PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (Pennsylvania Conference) is the largest NCAA II conference in the nation and is composed of the 14 universities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education.

Championship competition is sponsored for 20 men's and women's sports in the Pennsylvania Conference with all 14 universities belonging to Division II of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) while some elect to compete in Division I sports. PSAC teams have won numerous honors in national competition over the years and have helped the PSAC become one of the most highly respected Division II conferences in the nation.

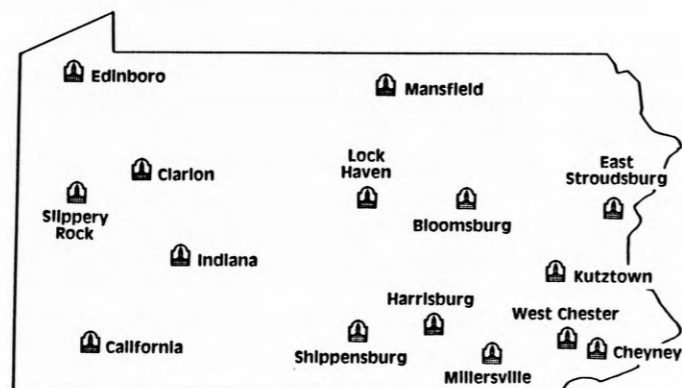

The Pennsylvania Conference is under the leadership of a board of directors, which consists of the 14 university presidents who govern through an executive committee. Current chairman of the board is Mansfield University President, Mr. Rodney C. Kelchner.

Dr. James H. McCormick is the chancellor of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (SSHE).

A list of member universities with their basketball affiliation includes: Eastern Division - Bloomsburg, Cheyney, East Stroudsburg, Kutztown, Mansfield, Millersville, and West Chester; Western Division - California, Clarion, Edinboro, Indiana, Lock Haven, Shippensburg, and Slippery Rock.

In basketball the top three teams in each division compete in a preliminary playoff with the team winners proceeding to the Pennsylvania Conference championship game at an eastern site. The eventual champion is awarded an automatic berth in the NCAA II East Regional Tournament.

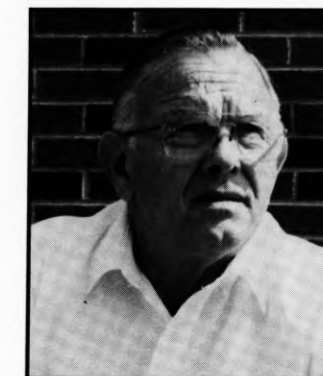

ATHLETIC STAFF

Dr. Kathleen Lipkovich

Todd V. Jay

Harold "Hal" Umbarger

George Roberts

DR. KATHLEEN LIPKOVICH Associate Athletic Director

Dr. Kathleen Lipkovich begins her twelfth year as Edinboro University's first full time associate athletic director for men's and women's intercollegiate sports. A professor in the Health and Physical Education Department, she serves on and chairs a variety of departmental, university, and Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference committees. She is currently serving a second term on the PSAC executive committee.

Dr. Lipkovich graduated from Youngstown State University with a bachelor of science in education. In 1975, she received her master of science in physical education from West Virginia University. She also received her doctorate in higher educational administration from West Virginia in 1977. In 1979, Kathleen was awarded a post-doctoral fellowship to Harvard University, Massachusetts, where she studied higher educational administration.

TODD V. JAY Sports Information and Promotions Director

Todd Jay begins his seventh year in charge of Sports Information and Promotions for the Athletic Department. A graduate of Clarion University of Pennsylvania, Todd received a bachelor of science in education in 1982 and a master of science in communications in May of 1985. The New Castle native served as assistant to the sports information director at Clarion.

Since joining the staff in 1985, he has promoted Edinboro University's intercollegiate sports programs, hosted a weekly cable television show and overseen the promotions of special sporting events held at the University. He was in charge of promoting the USA/USSR Olympic style wrestling match held in McComb in April 1989, and the NCAA women's basketball Eastern Regional Tournament in March of 1990.

He also coordinates and is the master of ceremonies for the annual Hall of Fame ceremonies held on campus each spring.

A three-year letterwinner in baseball at Clarion, Jay served as news-sports reporter for the New Castle News, while also serving as assistant basketball coach for Neshannock High School during his teaching stay in New Castle.

The voice of the Fighting Scots for home football games, Todd married the former Sarah Bishop in August of 1991.

HAROLD "HAL" UMBARGER Assistant to the Athletic Director

Harold "Hal" Umbarger joined Edinboro University's athletic staff eight years ago as assistant to the athletic director. He brings a wealth of talent and experience to the administrative level of the athletic program and plays a vital role in overseeing the academic progress of student athletes as well as coordinating the ongoing functions of the athletic director's office and the summer programs which involve the department. The West Newton, Pa., native is a 1954 Slippery Rock University graduate and also owns a master's degree from Penn State. After a three-year stint with the U.S. Army Security Agency in Europe, he coached basketball and baseball at Moshannon Valley (Pa.) High School before accepting a guidance position in the West York Area School District in 1961. He became a member of Edinboro's admissions office a year later and in 1967 was named director of admissions.

GEORGE ROBERTS Director of Sports Medicine

George M. Roberts of Titusville, Pa., is beginning his seventh year as director of sports medicine at Edinboro University.

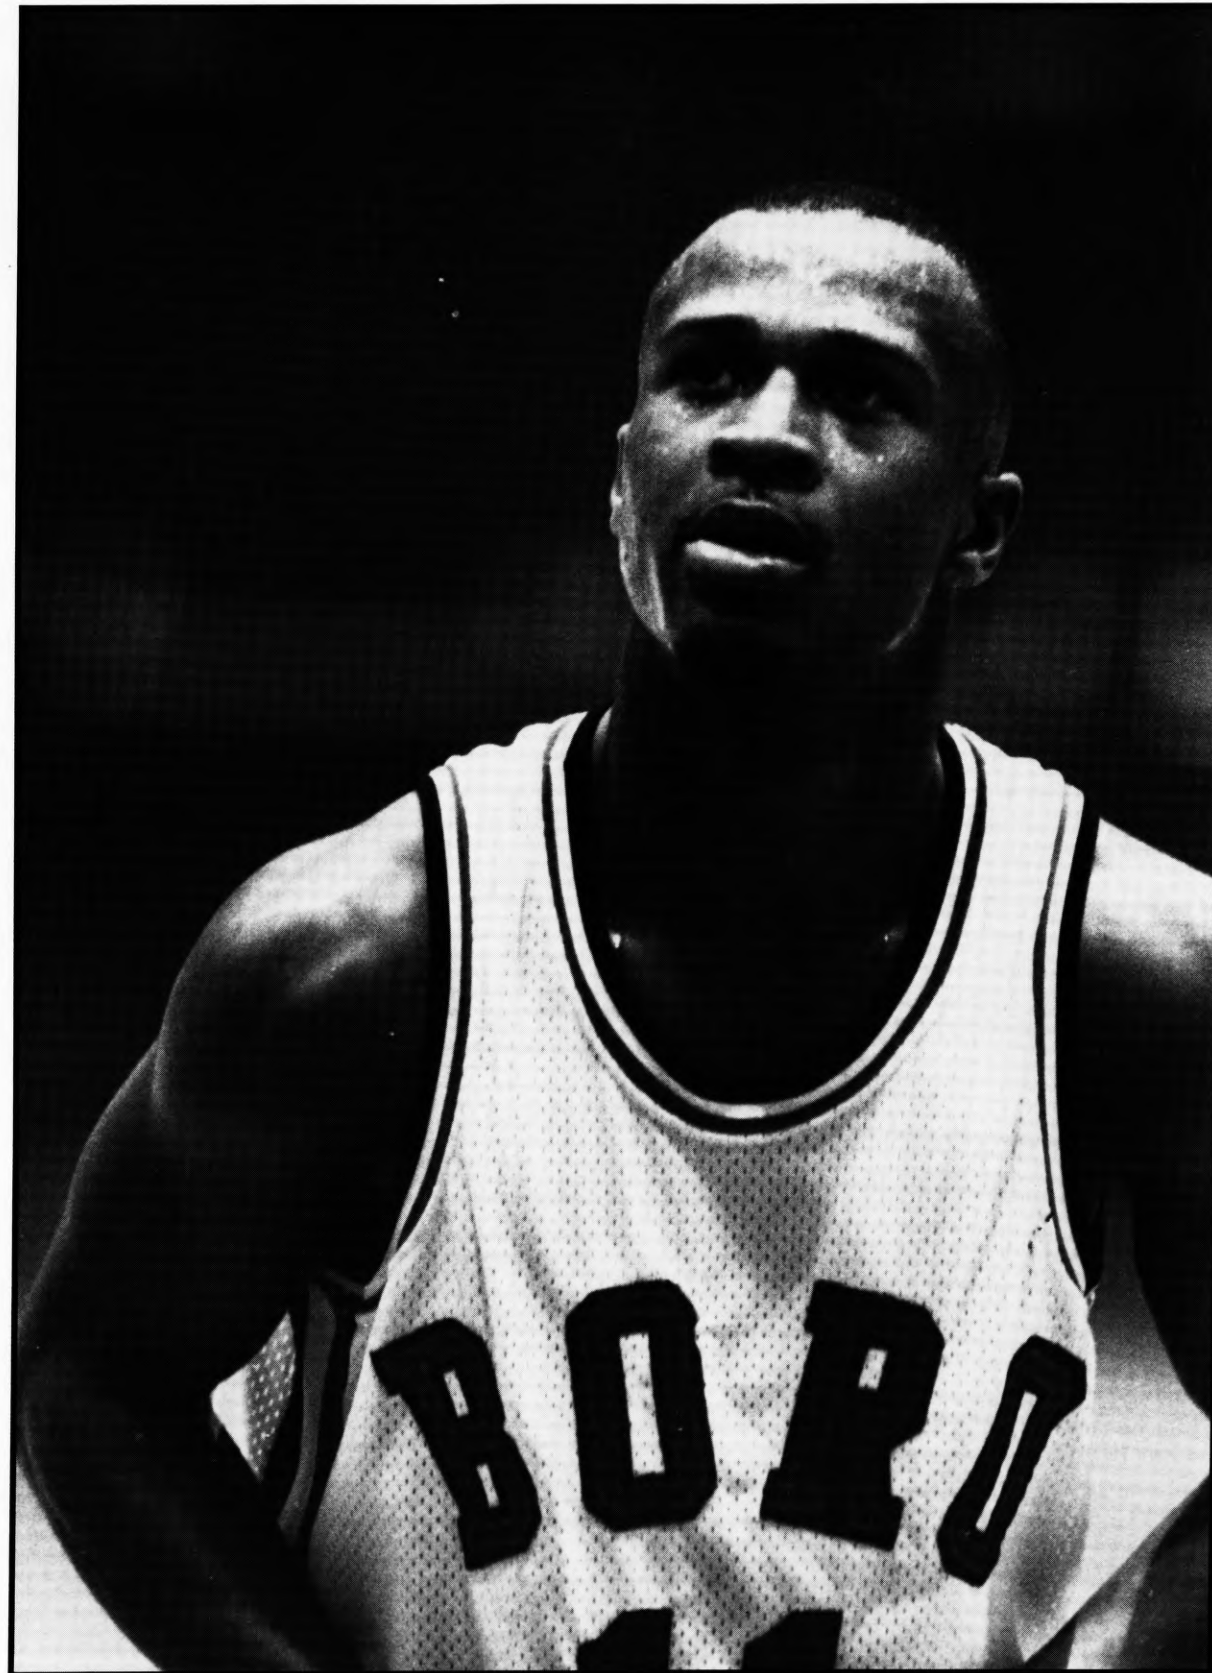

A 1972 graduate of Titusville High School, Roberts received a bachelor of science from Edinboro in 1976. He completed the NATA (National Athletic Trainers Association) curriculum at West Chester University and earned a master of education degree from Slippery Rock University in 1980.

In his most recent position, the newest addition to the Fighting Scot athletic staff was employed as athletic trainer at Hamot Medical Center in Erie, Pa. From 1976 to 1984, Roberts was a teacher, trainer, and assistant football coach at Titusville High School.

Since 1980, Roberts has spent much of his time as a trainer for the National Sports Festivals (III, IV, V and now VII), for the World University Games in Edmonton, Alberta, and for the United States Olympic Team during the 1984 Summer Olympics in Los Angeles. He was recently named to the 1992 Olympic medical staff in Barcelona, Spain.

Roberts is a member of the National Trainers Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society. He has also been named to the Curly Halmi Scholarship Board here at Edinboro University.

George and his wife, Penny, have a nine-year-old daughter, Kristin and a two-year-old son, Brian.

1991-92 PREVIEW AND PROFILES

When Edinboro University packed its bags for Christmas vacation a year ago, there were several questions left unanswered. Could a struggling team with three early season road losses compete in the PSAC? What the Scots did was more than merely compete.

The Fighting Scots showed that a team with early setbacks could pull together. "Our guys did a great job of coming together," said third year coach Greg Walcavich. "They never doubted each other. We came back in January and started all over."

Walcavich's club may not be so fortunate this year to be able to catch a second wind in January. This is due to a very strong first half schedule that features Bloomsburg (last year's top finisher in the PSAC East) along with two of the best teams in the West Virginia Conference (Salem-Teikyo and West Virginia Tech) in the Edinboro tournament. The road will not get any easier for Walcavich's club. "We have a rigorous schedule," commented Walcavich. "We could have an outstanding basketball team and not win 18 games. We may be competing for a league playoff spot with a lackluster record."

The Plaid finished the 1990-91 campaign at 18-10 overall and 8-4 in the PSAC with no less than six league games decided at the buzzer. "We won a number of close games (last year)," Walcavich noted. "Out of twelve league games, six were decided on the last shot. We hit four of them, we were four shots away from being 4-8 or 10-2."

Edinboro will have some big shoes to fill in the '91-92 season. The Scots will be without the services of 6-5 forward Sterling Washington, last year's leading scorer and rebounder (17.1 ppg, 8.5 rpg); 5-11 guard Mark Murdock (12.6 ppg) and 6-8 power forward John Mohre (6.9 ppg), all due to graduation. If those losses weren't tough enough for the Scots' mentor, things got worse with the news that Sean Gibson, this year's leading returning scorer at 14.4 ppg, will not return to school.

Derek Walton, a 5-9 senior guard will be the nucleus to build around in the backcourt for Walcavich. Walton averaged 12.6 points and 4.4 assists per game a year ago. "We will certainly look forward to a good year from Derek," commented Walcavich. "He did a real nice job for us last year."

The team leader for the 1991-92 campaign will be 6-5 senior forward Aaron Brown, the PSAC "Rookie of the Year" in 1988-89 who averaged 9.7 points per game last year. Brown will likely end his career on the top 15 all-time scorers list at Edinboro. He needs just 194 points to reach the milestone. "Aaron was here before me," noted Walcavich. "I anticipate him being one of the best players we'll have this year, he'll really do well."

Also returning from last year's squad are sophomore forward Torry Rollins, junior forward Sam Dickerson, junior guard Greg Fox, and sophomore guards Ron Santiago and Carlos Peterson.

Rollins played in 24 games for the Scots last year, averaged 5.3 points and 3.6 rebounds. He shot 49.6 percent from the floor while making 72 percent of his free throws.

Dickerson played in 23 games, averaging 4.3 points and 2.5 rebounds per game last year as a sophomore, including 8 rebounds in a win at Lock Haven.

Santiago only averaged 2.5 points per game but did play in 26 games last year as a freshman.

Fox played in 20 games last year and connected on 8 of his 18 field goal attempts.

Newcomers for the upcoming year will include forwards Keith Perry, Price Williams, Marc Pope and Exavier Zollicoffer.

Perry, a 6-4 forward, averaged 22.5 points, 12 rebounds and 2 blocks per game for Wilbur Trosch at West Mifflin High School. He scored over 1,200 points in his high school career.

Williams is a 6-4, 185 pound junior college transfer from Prince George's Community College in the Washington, D.C., area and was a junior college All-American on the nation's number four ranked JC squad.

Pope, a 6-6, 205 pound transfer from Cuyahoga Community College, averaged 10 points and 11 rebounds per game. He was a three-year letterman for Doc Daugherty at Euclid High School, averaging 15 points and 10 rebounds per outing.

Zollicoffer, a 6-3, 210 pound sophomore, played at Canton McKinley (OH) Senior High School where he led his team to a state championship with a 27-1 record.

Junior Simpson, a 6-9, 215 pound forward was a redshirt last year and should see action at the forward/center position. Simpson gives the Scots a solid defensive performer on the inside, something the squad has needed for years.

Adam Cheek, a 6-2 junior and Walter Reap, a 6-1 junior are the newcomers at the guard spot.

Cheek averaged 12.5 points and 5.2 rebounds per game at Ballard High School in Louisville, KY. He also dished out 2.5 assists and had 2.3 steals per game for the Bruins.

Reap is a transfer from Cuyahoga Community College where he received All-Conference honors in both years. He is from Atlanta, GA, and played under Coach Mark Osina at C. E. Ellison High School in Texas, where he averaged 20 points and 6 assists per game. He was named to the All-District and All-Central Texas teams as a senior.

The Scots will begin their annual tournament in McComb Fieldhouse on November 22. In this year's tournament the Plaid will battle Bloomsburg, West Virginia Tech and Salem-Teikyo for the title.
