1983 FOOTBALL GUIDE

QUALITY LEADERSHIP GUIDES THE UNIVERSITY

Edinboro President - Foster F. Diebold

In just four short years since his appointment in 1979 as Edinboro's 14th president, Foster F. Diebold has directed the University to its most significant change in the institution's 125-year history - university status. Under Diebold's leadership Edinboro has undergone dramatic internal and external alterations to provide northwestern Pennsylvanians with a dynamic, multi-faceted educational force.

Noted for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold had previously served as President of the University of Alaska statewide system.

His innovative efforts at Edinboro have taken many shapes. Most recently, he initiated a total reorganization of the University's various academic schools and administrative offices with a watchful eye upon fiscal responsibility and increased institutional responsiveness. In keeping with his policy of making maximum use of existing campus resources in higher education, he has imaginatively met the ever-changing needs brought about by new and emerging student interests and societal expectations.

Unique cooperative programs with area business and industry are also the result of President Diebold's revitalization of Edinboro University. Among his favorite projects is the University Honors Program, which draws upon the contributions of university staff for its scholarship funds, and which recognizes the academic distinction of excellent students by offering specialized interdisciplinary coursework and advanced research work.

President Diebold's principal fields of professional interest include higher education management, governance, and planning; budget development and fiscal control; legislative liaison; and personnel management/collective bargaining. While at Rutgers University in 1963, he received a Wall Street Journal fellowship.

A native of Orange, New Jersey, he served as President of the University of Alaska from 1977-1979. Prior to that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and Special Assistant to the President of the University of Alaska's statewide system. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of the Division of College Development at Kean College, New Jersey (formerly Newark State College), and from 1965 to 1969, he was Assistant Superintendent of Neptune Township Public Schools in New Jersey.

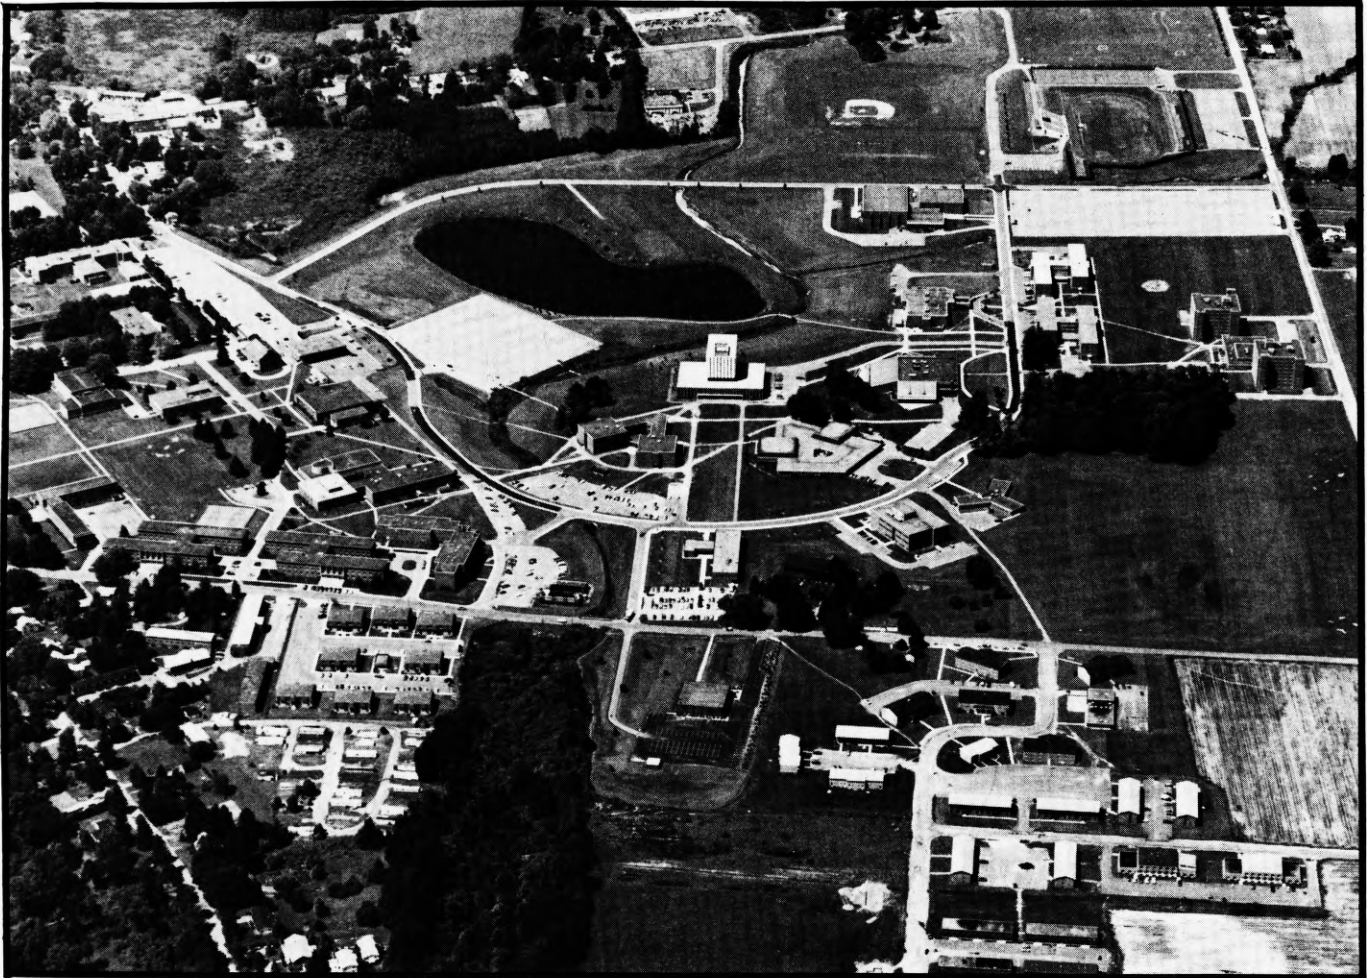

President Diebold's community service includes membership on the Board of Corporators, Hamot Medical Center in Erie, and on Marine Bank's Local Advisory Board. Recently he was a panel participant at the First Global Conference on the Future in Toronto. He also serves as a member of the William J. McMannis and A. Haskell McMannis Educational Trust Fund Advisory Board, and Chairman of the Government, Education, and Social Agencies Division of the Erie County United Way Campaign.

Edinboro's president holds an associate degree in psychology from Monmouth Community College, West Long Branch, New Jersey; a bachelor of science degree in education from Monmouth College; a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University; and he has met course requirements for his doctorate in education at Rutgers University.

President Diebold currently serves as Chairman of the Committee on Administration and Finance in the University System of Pennsylvania and is a member of the Commission of Presidents Executive Committee. He holds memberships on the American Association of State Colleges and Universities Committee on State Relations, and the Government Relations Committee of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities. He is also a charter member of the World Future Society.

The President and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, seven-year-old Jessica, and two-year-old Stacey.

EDINBORO...THE BIRTH OF A UNIVERSITY

After 125 years of service to the tri-state area, Edinboro experienced its most significant change in history on July 1, 1983, when the College became Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. Founded as a private academy in 1857, Edinboro University has continued its surge to the forefront as one of the leading educational institutions in western Pennsylvania. Situated on a sprawling 585-acre campus in the scenic resort community of Edinboro, the University is within 100 miles of the educational and cultural centers of Buffalo, Cleveland, and Pittsburgh. It is just 15 miles south of Erie, the third largest city in Pennsylvania, and easily accessible from all directions by interstates 79, 80 and 90.

Edinboro has the distinction of being the second normal school established in Pennsylvania and the 12th in the United States. It has grown to more than forty buildings including the 350,000-volume Baron-Forness Library, a modern seven-story structure which serves as a focal point for the spacious campus. More than 5,800 students representing almost every county in the Commonwealth, as well as numerous states and foreign countries attend Edinboro. Its tradition of educational service and research is matched by a distinguished faculty, more than two-thirds of whom have earned doctoral degrees.

The University now offers more than 100 undergraduate, graduate, and associate degree programs, a diversity unmatched by any other college or university in northwestern Pennsylvania. While seeking to meet the educational needs of its region from both a professional and cultural standpoint, Edinboro now makes contributions in the fields of education, government, environmental improvement, urban and rural problems, crime prevention, and service to business and industry. Recent program developments include those in the high-demand areas of allied health, business administration, communication, computer technology, nursing, and various pre-professional offerings such as law, dentistry, medicine, pharmacy and veterinary science. Numerous student internships provide additional examples of the University's efforts to create a close working relationship with the people it serves while, at the same time, offering students intellectual and career opportunities.

Edinboro has initiated the University Honors Program to provide challenging and enriched learning experiences for academically gifted students. Undergraduate students are encouraged to strive for academic excellence both in their major fields and in other disciplines. Honors students pursue studies that are greater in depth and scope than those required of other undergraduates.

Although the costs for attending Edinboro rank among the lowest in the Commonwealth, over $8,000,000 in financial aid is available annually to eligible students.

Students are admitted to the University in September, January, or at the beginning of each summer session and are considered for admission on the basis of their general scholarship, nature of secondary program, and SAT or ACT scores.

MAJOR MOVES MARK McDONALD MANAGEMENT

Athletic Director - Jim McDonald

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

Through his efforts, more than $160,000 was raised over the past year while an additional $250,000 is anticipated during the 1983-84 sports campaign. The funds derived through McDonald's endeavors will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who, with the recent addition of men's volleyball along with women's cross country and swimming, now compete in 17 intercollegiate sports.

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities. The summer camp program has grown from five offerings to include 11 interest areas.

In addition to the annual Buffalo Bills-Cleveland Browns scrimmage at Sox Harrison Stadium as well as the pre-season drills of the Pitt Panthers, Duquesne University and 12 area high schools make Edinboro their camp home. McDonald has constructed 12 new football fields to accommodate these needs and the Football Camp of Champions that attracts more than 350 young gridgers.

The personable athletic director also staged Edinboro's first Hall of Fame festivities that featured the induction of 18 charter members. These past athletes, coaches and individuals who have promoted the cause of Fighting Scot athletics were honored at a banquet where more than 500 attendees witnessed their inductions.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 ESC records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1965 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo. He has done doctoral work in sports science at West Virginia University.

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame. He served four years on the NAIA's All-American selection committee and was chosen by the NAIA to coach an All-American team of NBA-bound cagers who won the Gold Medal in Israel's Hapoel Games. His all-star coaching assignment brought additional recognition since Edinboro was named as the team's official training site.

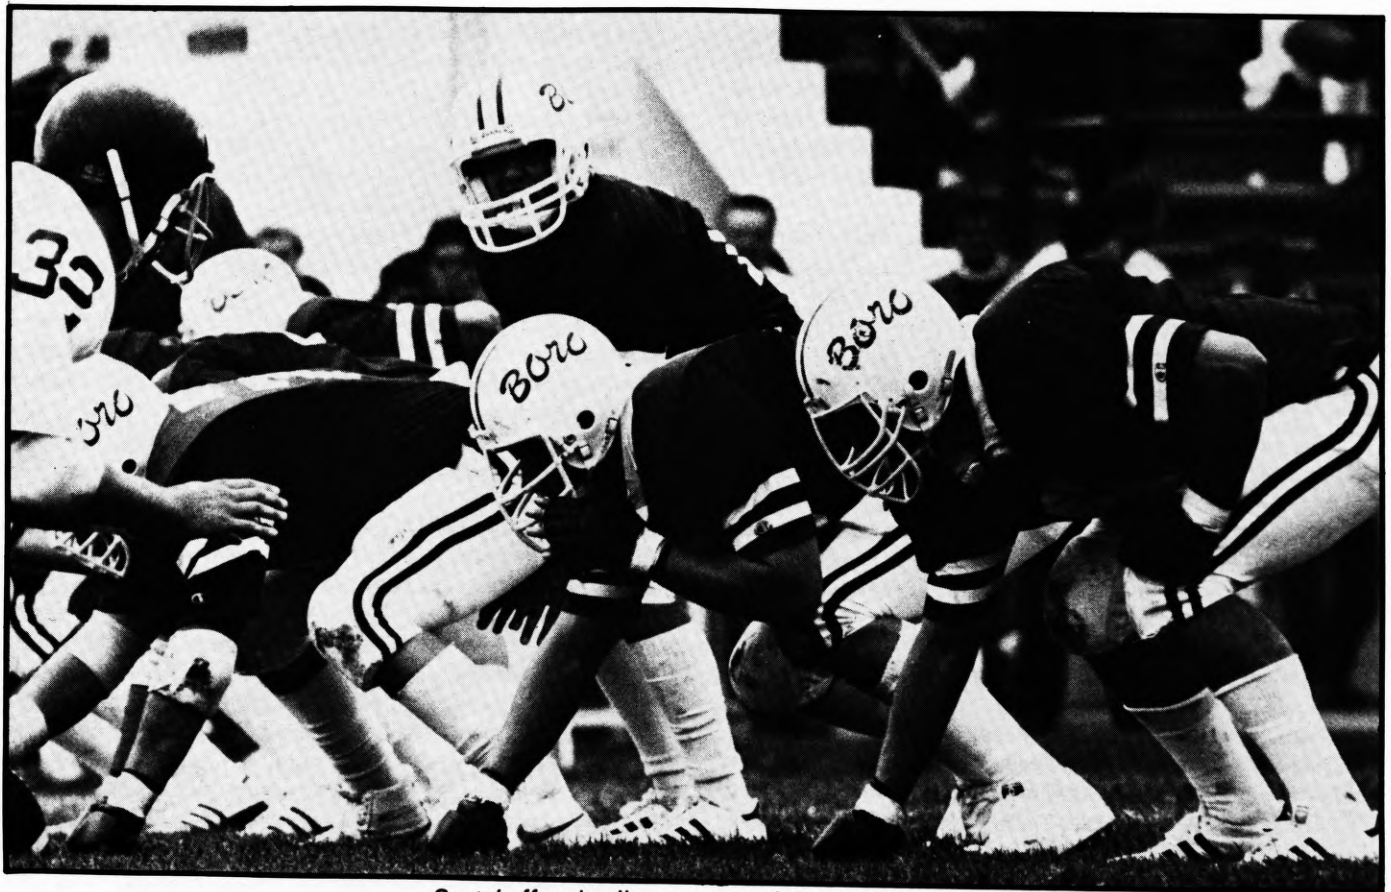

In addition to his classroom and basketball coaching duties, McDonald was Edinboro's golf coach for 17 years during which his teams won over 40 tournaments and finished as high as 3rd place at the NCAA Division II National Tournament. He was twice selected District Coach of the Year in golf.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball Director for four years and for the past three years, has been a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike, and Matthew.

MEET THE SCOTS

"WE SHOULD MOVE THE BALL WELL"

Scots' offensive line paves point getting way leading ground gainer Mitchell Kelly is missing, letter winners Damon Chambers (Willingboro, NJ), Ron Rankin, Harold Craine (Beaver, PA) and Bob Klenc (Pittsburgh) give the Scot backfield tested performers. Still to be reckoned with is transfer fullback Ray Rhodes (White Plains, NY) and soph halfback Scott Rittenhouse (Greensburg, PA), who both sparkled in the spring.

A very capable Scott Dodds (Beaver), the author of numerous junior varsity routs as a freshman, is the top reliever at quarterback. Freshman Mike Surin (Warren, OH) fills in behind him.

Moving into the front line of action in the offensive trenches will be tackles Rick Rosenberg (6-4, 250, Chesterland, OH) along with guards Dom Grande (6-0, 250, Pittsburgh) and Scott Weinhold (6-4, 240, Pittsburgh). Newcomers Frank Lucca (6-3, 230, Mentor, OH) and Anthony Piscitelli (6-0, 225, New Castle, PA) likewise loom as possible guard starters where Creehan fills his offense will have some depth. Buddy Carroll (6-2, 230, Alexandria, VA) has been switched to center after being a left side regular at tackle last fall. Rosenberg was a three-year starter at defensive tackle and his experience should make the transition to defense much easier.

When quizzed about summarizing his offensive forces, Creehan responded, "If the experience factor doesn't hurt our offensive line, I feel we'll be just as effective as we were last year."

Edinboro's major strength falls on the defensive side of the ledger where a unit of stubborn Scots return who limited opponents to just 10 points per outing. "I think we'll see a faster defensive team," claimed the Boro mentor.

"We might be less physical, but noticeably faster."

Forming a formidable front wall are senior ends Bob Beauregard (6-2, 225, Grand Island, NY) and Phil Giavasis (6-0, 214, Canton, OH) along with senior middle guard John O'Rorke (5-10, 220, Pittsburgh) who is sandwiched by junior tackles Don Espy (6-3, 235, Brookville, PA) and Rick Jordan (6-2, 225, Jamestown, NY). Not only does this group provide the Scots with what Creehan terms "the best pass rush since I've been here," but they are also backed up by a crop of defenders who are all pushing for starting assignment nods. Sean Henderson (6-0, 250, West Mifflin, PA) and pass rushing Matt Grebenc (5-7, 185, Wickliffe, OH) will vie for nose guard duty along with talented soph backups at every position.

Perhaps the best situation on the defense occurs at linebacker where five exceptional players are on hand to work the two posts. Hard hitting Jim Durkin (5-11, 225, Westchester, NY) and Bob O'Rorke (6-2, 295, Pittsburgh) will trade time on the left side with a trio of battle-tested letter winners ready to run down the opposition from the right linebacker slot. Fleet-footed Willie Chealey (5-11, 192, Orlando, FL) who appears fully recovered from a leg injury has the inside track, but Barry Skodak (6-1, 195, Greensburg, PA) and Randy James (6-2, 200, East Allegheny) are issuing strong challenges to man the position.

Durkin led the tackling assault last year with 105 hits while John O'Rorke followed with 100 stops and Beauregard was right in step with 98 thumps. Jordan, Bob O'Rorke, Chealey and Giavasis all registered over 80 tackles in the stingy Scot defense.

"OUR DEFENSE IS FASTER"

Back to patrol the secondary for the Plaid is free safety Dave Parker (Industry, PA) who tied a season record with his eight interceptions. Also on tap are the Rose brothers, Greg and Keith (Coraopolis, PA), owners of 87 stops and four aerial thefts between them. Mike Emge (Beaver Falls, PA) rounds out the returning quartet with Dan Gierlak (Buffalo, NY) and Ray Bracy (Youngstown, OH) rotating throughout the defensive backfield in relief roles.

The biggest question mark lies in the replacement for record breaking placekicker and Kodak All-America Rich Ruzskiewicz, the owner of three Edinboro field goal marks. Creehan feels instant help has been recruited but the Scots' ability to score three-pointers will become clearer as the season progresses.

COACHING VETS DIRECT SCOT GRIDDERS

TOM HERMAN - Ass't Head Coach, Def. Coordinator

Tom Herman will begin his ninth year of coaching at his alma mater where he has helped the Scot program on both the offensive and defensive side of the ledger since his return. In his first season with the Scots, he tutored the defensive line and followed that with three seasons as the offensive coordinator in addition to serving as offensive line coach. In 1979 he was named assistant head coach and defensive coordinator where he groomed the Scot linebacking corps. Originally a standout football player at Lincoln High School in Ellwood City, Tom continued his grid career at Edinboro State for four years where he started as a center during his junior campaign and then was a regular defensive end in his senior season. After graduation from Edinboro in 1972, he served as an assistant coach at Cambridge Springs High School in Cambridge Springs, Pa. Tom joined the Marshall University staff in 1974 as a graduate assistant offensive tackle and tight end coach. While at Marshall, the former Edinboro gridder earned his master's degree in health and physical education before returning to Edinboro in 1975 where he now resides with his recent bride Kathy.

JOHN D'OTTAVIO - Offensive Coordinator

Bringing a broad background of offensive coaching experience to the Scot camp is veteran mentor John D'Ottavio who last year returned to the Pennsylvania Conference where he started as a player at East Stroudsburg in 1966. The Roxbury, New Jersey native was a first team all-state quarterback at Roxbury High and captained the team in a 7-2 senior year. A knee injury in his second year at East Stroudsburg ended his playing career but launched him into a brilliant coaching future after graduation in 1970. He became an assistant coach at Randolph High (Dover, NJ) for three years where he went 5-1 as a frosh coach, 8-0 directing the jayvees and 7-2 as a varsity assistant. After taking the reigns at Morris Catholic in Denville, NJ his club turned around a 2-7 first season to finish 8-1 and win the league title a year later. He moved to the collegiate level as a graduate assistant backfield coach in 1976-77 at the powerful University of Delaware under the famed Tubby Raymond. During his two years with the Blue Hens they went 9-3-1 and 8-2 while winning a berth in the NCAA playoffs. The New Jersey product spent 1978 as the offensive coordinator on a 5-3 Tufts University squad before accepting a similar post at Gettysburg in 1979. In his three-year stint with the Bullets he was the architect of a wing-T attack that established 16 new offensive records while Gettysburg posted respective 5-5, 6-3-1 and 6-4 slates under his direction. The newly acquired Scot coach now resides in Edinboro.

MIKE BURKE - Defensive Line

Taking over the duties of keeping the Scots' front line of defense stingy once again is 1960 Ambridge High grad Mike Burke who is originally from Baden, Pa. Mike garnered varsity letters while playing both offensive and defensive tackle for the Bridgers before coming to Edinboro in 1962 where he started on the defensive line. He earned a varsity letter in his first season with the Scots, sat out two years and then returned to Edinboro where he received his B.S. in elementary education in 1967. Upon graduation Mike joined the Armed Forces where he spent two years in the Navy before taking a teaching position in Erie, Pa. The Edinboro grad returned to Edinboro for an M.Ed. in 1972 and for six years was a defensive coordinator and assistant varsity coach at Erie's Strong Vincent High School. Highlighting his tenure in Vincents' grid program was the Colonels highly successful 1977 season when they captured the city championship. Mike along with his wife, Lynne, and their two children, Dawnielle and Molly make their home in Erie.

COMMITTED, EXPERIENCED - STAFF ATTRIBUTES

MALEN LUKE - Defensive Backs

Entering his second year in the Edinboro coaching ranks is Malen Luke who will groom the Scots veteran secondary and also serve as special teams' coordinator. The Greenville, Ohio, native began his gridiron career carrying the football for Wellsboro (Pa.) High School where in 1971 he was named offensive back of the year in addition to being tabbed as the league's MVP. Malen continued his football exploits as a defensive back at Westminster College and was a two-year letter winner for the Titans despite being hampered by injuries during his freshman and senior seasons. After graduation in 1976 with a B.S. degree in mathematics, he was appointed assistant coach at Canfield (Ohio) High School. In his third season he was named offensive coordinator for a Canfield team that led the entire Buckeye state in scoring by totaling 423 points in ten games. Under his direction in 1980, Canfield scored at a 23 points-per-game clip while netting 301 yards per outing in total offense. Malen, who received a master's degree in guidance and student personnel at the University last year, resides in Edinboro with his wife, Hedy and one-year-old son, Brock.

JIM BOWEN - Kickers

Returning to the Scot staff after a two-year absence is Jim Bowen who enters his 14th season at Edinboro in the capacity of a kicking coach. Bowen has coached practically every phase of the game and helped shape outstanding collegiate careers for numerous Fighting Scot stars. He has tutored linebackers Jim Krentz and Greg Sullivan, the top two tacklers in Edinboro history, in addition to serving as backfield coach for such Boro greats as Joe Sanford, Jim Romaniszyn, Al Raines and Bob Mengerink. In 1975 he was offensive coordinator when the Scots finished 12th nationally in total offense. In his 10 years prior to joining the Scot staff, as Fairview High's head coach he amassed an amazing 76-12 football record. His teams captured four league championships. The knowledgeable Scot coach graduated from Slippery Rock in 1957 and earned his master's degree from Buffalo University. The Girard resident and his wife, Joyce, have seven children, two of whom are twin girls.

MIKE JENOSKI - Offensive Line

Lowell, Massachusetts' Mike Jenoski has joined the University's staff as a graduate assistant and serves as an offensive line coach. A graduate of Lowell High School, he earned three varsity letters while playing for the Red Raiders as an offensive tackle. Mike continued his gridiron career at the University of Maine where he garnered three more varsity letters before graduation with a physical education degree in 1983. While operating from an offensive tackle slot, Jenoski was a member of the Black Bears 1982 squad that went 7-4 and finished as Yankee Conference co-champions. Mike will be sharing his expertise with a Fighting Scot offensive line which is long on talent but short on experience.

JIM MACKIE - Defensive Ends

After a year of directing the defensive end stalwarts at Southern Illinois University, Chesterland, Ohio native Jim Mackie will groom the Fighting Scots terminal hopefuls. The Buckeye product is a 1977 graduate of West Geauga High School where he was an All-City and All-Conference offensive guard while also playing at a linebacker spot on the defensive side of the ledger. Mackie continued his gridiron career on the campus of Baldwin-Wallace College where he earned three varsity letters and added another pair in baseball. During his four-year stint with the Yellow Jackets, Baldwin-Wallace compiled a sparkling 38-4-1 slate, captured three conference titles and won the NCAA Division III national championship. His grid prowess earned him All-Ohio conference defensive end laurels as Jim was also named the Yellow Jackets' Most Valuable Defensive Lineman award. After receiving his health and physical education degree from BW in 1981, he spent two seasons coaching defensive ends at Southern Illinois University where he received his master's degree in physical education athletic administration. Currently residing in Edinboro with his recent bride, Jodie; Jim is pursuing a master's degree in student personnel services.

SCOTT SALTER - Receivers

Providing the leadership for this year's veteran crop of receivers will be Newfane, New York's Scott Salter. The new staff member garnered letters in football, baseball and track at Newfane Central High School. His play for the Panthers' football team netted All-Niagara County offensive guard plaudits. The Newfane native went on to be a mainstay on the offensive line for the Golden Griffins of Canisius College where he was awarded varsity football letters in all four years as a guard. Scott received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Canisius this past spring and will be working towards his master's degree as a graduate assistant at the University. Another honeymoon couple, Scott and his wife, Cheryl, now live in Edinboro.

Creehan sends in sideline signals.

WORKING BEHIND THE SCENE...

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR DR. KATHLEEN LIPKOVICH

Dr. Kathleen Lipkovich was named Edinboro's first associate athletic director at the outset of the 1981 school year to help administer both the men's and women's athletic program. She also served as the women's basketball coach at the University for a two-year span, prior to devoting her full time attention administratively to Edinboro's rapidly expanding program.

Originally from Youngstown, Ohio, Dr. Lipkovich has had teaching and coaching experience at West Virginia University, Central Connecticut State College, and Trinity College. The Ohio native, who graduated from Chaney High School, began her teaching and coaching career in 1972 with the Howland Local School District in Howland, Ohio, and then held a similar position from 1972 through 1975 at McDonald High School in McDonald, Ohio.

The 1972 Youngstown State graduate received her M.S. degree in 1975 from West Virginia University and was awarded a doctorate from that same institution in 1977 after majoring in educational administration and physical education. She completed a post-doctoral fellowship at Harvard in educational administration prior to her arrival at Edinboro.

The University's associate athletic director received administrative experience during an internship with the West Virginia athletic department where she was involved in recruitment, scheduling, budgeting, athletic policies and eligibility. Her doctoral internship at WVU extended her administrative experiences in such areas as curriculum design, selection and retention, and departmental policies.

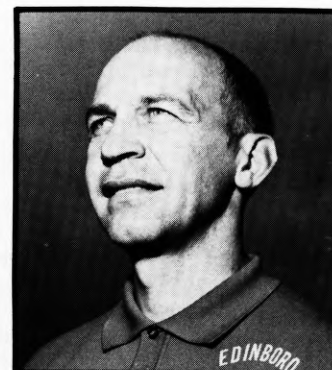

SPORTS INFORMATION AND PROMOTIONS DIRECTOR

PAUL NEWMAN

Paul Newman begins his 17th year of publicizing Edinboro University's athletic program and now assists in sports promotion endeavors for the Fighting Scots. During his tenure he has also served as Assistant to the President, Public Relations Director and Publications Officer for the University. An active participant in CoSIDA and past president of the NAIA Sports Information Directors' Association, Paul is a 1964 graduate of Edinboro where he earned both his B.S. and M.Ed. degrees in English. Prior to joining the Scots in 1967 he was a teacher of English for three years in Ashtabula, Ohio. A member of the United States Basketball and Football Writers Association of America, he has earned more than 20 All-American awards of excellence for his sports publications. Paul, his wife, Connie and their children, Paul, Jr., Michelle and Scott reside in Edinboro.

Paul Newman

Bob Klingler

TEAM TRAINER - BOB KLINGLER

Bob Klingler begins his 17th year of giving Fighting Scot athletes the tops in professional medical care. The 1952 Lock Haven grad ventured to Hermann School of Physical Therapy in Houston, Texas and became a registered physical therapist in 1954. He later received his M.S. from Bucknell. Prior to accepting his Edinboro post Klingler taught at Milton Hershey, a private boys' school in Hershey, Pa., where he served as the Spartans' head football mentor, head track coach and assistant basketball coach. His cinder and cage teams never experienced a losing season while his football eleven would consistently garner winning charts in the powerful Capitol Conference. "Doc" has provided the Edinboro athletic program with high quality student trainers who have gone on to distinguish themselves in the profession after graduation from college. Bob and his daughter, Julie, make their home in nearby Washington Township.

ALL-TIME SCORES 1926-1982

Edinboro's intercollegiate football history began in 1926 when Edinboro became a four-year degree granting institution and for the first time played a complete intercollegiate schedule against other four-year degree granting institutions.

Prior to the 1926 season, Edinboro was a state normal school and did not play a complete intercollegiate schedule. Therefore, any records prior to that season should not be considered as part of the intercollegiate football history of Edinboro University.
