#7 Edinboro Opens PSAC West Slate, Hosts Clarion University

The Game

The #7 ranked Fighting Scots of Edinboro University, coming off an open week, play host to Clarion University. The '92 Homecoming game is sponsored by Troyer Farms, Inc. It marks the Boro's third home contest in four starts this season.

The Records

Edinboro remains behind IUP in the Division II and Northeast Regional rankings and boasts a 3-0 record while Clarion is winless in three tries in '92.

The Scots have run off consecutive wins over Buffalo (35-13), Northwood (37-13) and Southern Connecticut (41-0) but face their toughest test in Clarion.

Golden Eagle opponents for '92 are a combined 13-1, whereas Edinboro's are just 2-9. Clarion has dropped straight decisions to defending I-AA national champion Youngstown State (48-7), Division II's 13th ranked New Haven (48-47) and the NAIA 4th ranked squad Westminster (21-11).

Under fifth-year head coach Tom Hollman, Edinboro is tough at home with 21 wins in 24 games (21-2-1) at Sox Harrison Stadium.

The Series

The Scots are on the short end dating back to 1926, as the Golden Eagles hold a 32-29-2 edge. Edinboro has won five of the last six meetings including a tough 17-9 decision in Clarion a year ago. The last time the Golden Eagles took the Scots in Edinboro was 1984, 35-24.

The Coaches

Hollman owns 32 wins against 14 losses and one tie (.688) directing the Scot fortunes including an 18-5-1 mark in western division play. The Boro has earned two trips to the national playoffs (1989 and 1990) under Hollman including a crowning as PSAC co-champions in '89. His nine-year collegiate mark of 56-25-2 (.691) includes four years at Wooster College (Ohio).

Clarion is led by veteran Gene Sobolewski who owns a 49-42 record in his 10th year as head coach. Respected across the PSAC, Sobolewski enters his 22nd year overall at Clarion. Named head coach in 1983, he has helped Clarion to a .647 winning percentage since his arrival as an assistant in 1971.

The Offenses

Through week #3, the Scots ranked 7th in scoring offense, tallying 37.7 points

Inside the Numbers (Three-Game Averages)

	Edinboro	Clarion
Scoring	37.7 PPG	11.7 PPG
Total Offense	440.7 YPG	367.0 YPG
Rushing Offense	276.3 YPG	174.0 YPG
Passing Offense	164.4 YPG	193.0 YPG
Scoring Defense	8.7 PPG	39.0 PPG
Total Defense	160.7 YPG	443.7 YPG
Rushing Defense	83.7 YPG	243.0 YPG
Passing Defense	77.0 YPG	200.7 YPG

per game. The ground attack is 10th best in Division II due to PSAC leader Larry Jackson (54 att., 414 yds., 7 TDs) and backup Derrick Russell (35, 166, 2 TDs). QB Jody Dickerson (16, 51, 1) is also a threat while the Scots feature a trio of fullbacks in Tom Tedder (10, 36, 2 TDs), Chris Snyder (4, 35) and Wade Westfield (6, 23).

The passing attack is solid with Dickerson connecting on 28-of-53 passes for 430 yards, 2 touchdowns, and 2 interceptions. Wrentie Martin leads the receiving corps with 18 catches for 330 yards and 1 score. Dave Ashton (5, 68, 1 TD), Paul Stone (3, 32) and Brian Heebsh (2, 32) are also threats. Tackles Mike Kegarise and Tony Tighe, guards Bill Sparenberg and Scott Nickel and center Gordy Hitchcock clear the way for the Scots to average 440.7 yards per game, 7th best in Division II.

Clarion can score behind the efforts of veteran QB Tim Myers (41, 85, 472, 5 TDs, 3 INTs) and RB Damien Henry (53 att., 283, 2 TDs). FB Jay Tonini (32, 149) gives Clarion good balance.

Myers' top targets include tight end Tim Brown (19, 164) and speedster Marlon Worthy (11, 214, 3 TDs). The Golden Eagles can score, netting 47 points against New Haven while also getting over 300 yards of total offense in the loss at Youngstown.

The Defenses

Through the first three games, the Scots ranked 3rd nationally in total defense (160.7 ypg). All-American Jason Perkins leads the team with 35 tackles including 25 unassisted. He has also added 3 sacks, 2 tackles for loss, 2 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and a blocked extra point in '92.

Michael Sims (20, 4 def., 1 rec.) and Michael Edwards (15) make up a solid linebacking corps. Up front, ends Anthony Ross (19, 4 sacks, 4 for loss) and Devas Simmons (15, 4 for loss, 3 forced fumbles, 2 rec.) have been a force while tackles Russell Cray (20, 2 for loss) and Rob Harmer (11, 2 for loss) make up the front four.

The secondary has been quiet, but anchors a squad that ranks 9th nationally in pass defense efficiency. All-American cornerback Georj Lewis (6, 1 forced fumble) starts his 38th straight game while Mario Houston (8, 1 for loss) is at the other "DB" spot. Free safety Mike Barnes (14) has the Scots lone interception while strong safety Steve Russell (6) rounds out the starting 11.

Clarion has surrendered plenty of points, but to great offensive squads. All-American linebacker Damon Mazoff leads the club with 44 stops, including 18 against Westminster. LB Frank Andrews (36, 2 sacks) is also very active.

Tackle Jason Reinhart (32) leads the team in sacks with 4 and anchors the interior while DB Sean Spencer (39) has also turned in a solid year. Overall, DB Brad Kline may be having the finest year for the Golden Eagles. In three games, Kline has been credited with 36 stops, 1 interception, 2 recoveries and 2 fumbles caused.

Special Teams/Kicking Game

Edinboro has an offensive weapon in PK Scott Rupert who has connected on 14-of-15 extra points and 3-of-7 field goals. His long three-pointer is 30 yards. Gary Lhotsky (10, 38.7 ypp, L55) handles the punt duties.

Clarion counters with kicker Paul Cramer (3-5 fg, 4-5 PATs) and punter Tim Myers (21, 37.2 ypp, L59).

The respective kickoff return teams are potent as Edinboro's Larry Jackson (3 ret., 32.0 ypr) and Clarion's Marlon Worthy (9, 17.2 ypr) can break the big play. Worthy also handles the punt returns (7, 9.7 ypr) while the Scots will counter with Michael Barnes (6, 18) or Dave Ashton (2-9).

President Foster F. Diebold

Foster F. Diebold

Now in his thirteenth year as president of Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, Foster F. Diebold is the fourteenth chief executive officer of the institution of higher learning that has come to acclaim in the last decade as one of Pennsylvania's and the nation's finest. He has brought a vigorous educational and moral leadership, a strengthening of the spirit of community, a clear sense of direction and purpose, and a dimension of multicultural pluralism and diversity.

Much has been accomplished during President Diebold's tenure. The University has returned to financial health. Significant facilities and grounds improvements have been achieved, with several of the historic structures on campus restored to their original splendor. Academic programs have been emphasized and improved, with more than 100 degree offerings now available. Enrollment gains have been unprecedented in both numbers and academic quality. International linkages have been established with institutions in several other countries, and Edinboro University's disabled student services program continues to garner acclaim as one of the finest among all colleges and universities in the United States. Widely recognized as a leader in education both here and abroad, President Diebold has positioned Edinboro University to meet the challenges of the 1990s, as well as those that will face public higher education in the 21st century.

The Orange, New Jersey, native is a graduate of Monmouth College and also holds a master of arts in educational administration from Seton Hall University. He has met coursework requirements for a doctorate in education at Rutgers University and is currently completing the dissertation requirement for the Ph.D. program in higher education at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to his presidency of Edinboro University, President Diebold was president of the University of Alaska from 1977 to 1979. Before that, he was executive secretary to the Board of Regents and special assistant to the president of the University of Alaska Statewide System. From 1969 to 1976, he was director of Development and Planning at Kean College in New Jersey and a member of the graduate faculty at that institution; and from 1965 to 1969, he was assistant superintendent of the Neptune Township (New Jersey) Public Schools.

Recognized for his extensive experience in the field of education management, President Diebold's scholarly achievements in the discipline of applied ethics in higher education deserve special mention. The model statement he authored for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, "Ethical Practices for College Presidents," was unanimously adopted by that professional organization and published as policy for the chief executives of its nearly 400 member institutions nationwide. It is the first formally adopted ethical practices and policy statement for higher education presidents.

For his leadership on an international scale and for his many contributions to the advancement of higher education and enrichment of an emerging culture in Pakistan, President Diebold was decorated with prestigious gold medals from three Pakistani universities. The awards for educational eminence were presented during visits to the Edinboro campus by official Pakistani delegations.

Most recently, President Diebold was honored by the Government of Pakistan with the presentation of the degree of Doctor of Laws (honoris causa) presented at the Government House in the City of Karachi. The ceremony was attended by the presidents of the various universities holding linkage agreements together with Edinboro University and many high-ranking officials of the Government of Pakistan.

A staunch advocate of a statewide system of public universities in Pennsylvania, President Diebold supported the enabling legislation for the State System of Higher Education (Act 188 of 1982) and saw the State System come to existence in 1983 as a member of the transition team. He currently serves on the System's Executive Council of Presidents and on the boards of the Pennsylvania Academy for the Profession of Teaching, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the University Center at Harrisburg.

Active in community affairs, he serves on the Board of Directors of the Erie Conference on Community Development and the United Way of Erie County, the Board of Corporators of both St. Vincent Health Center and Hamot Medical Center, and on the Executive Committee of the French Creek Council, Boy Scouts of America. He is also a member of the Marine Bank Advisory Board, the Advisory Board of the McMannis Educational Trust Fund, and the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Corporation Scholarship Review Committee.

Athletic Director James K. McDonald

Edinboro University's athletic program was placed under the talented and aggressive leadership of Jim McDonald in July of 1981. Increased emphasis on fund raising to provide a sound scholarship foundation has become his top priority while numerous changes and innovations have also keyed the Scots' athletic program under his direction.

Through his efforts more than $4 million has been raised during the past eleven years. The funds generated by the energetic athletic director's efforts will be used to assist Edinboro's men and women athletes who compete in the Scots sixteen intercollegiate sports.

In addition to maintaining Edinboro's respected winning tradition in intercollegiate athletics, the former health and physical education professor has vastly expanded the University's summer activities.

Sixty camps were sponsored by the Fighting Scots Booster Club this past summer on the University's campus. Sox Harrison Stadium was the site for the Buffalo Bills-Pittsburgh Steelers first scrimmage, an event the veteran athletic director hopes to bring back to the area each year.

The personable athletic director also introduced Edinboro's Hall of Fame program which has evolved into an annual year-ending event to honor present and past athletes.

McDonald has been at Edinboro since 1962 and for 12 years served as the Fighting Scot basketball coach (1962-1975) and never experienced a losing season while his teams compiled an impressive 181 wins against only 89 losses. During that span, his cagers won four Western Division Pennsylvania Conference crowns, the PC state championship and two District 18 titles that netted trips to the NAIA National Tournament. His teams set 27 University records and made 19 post-season appearances while four of his players were named All-Americans.

Prior to accepting his position at Edinboro, McDonald served as assistant basketball coach in Erie, Pa. He is a 1956 graduate of Bridgeport High School in his home town of Bridgeport, West Virginia.

In 1960 he received a degree in chemistry and physical education from West Virginia Wesleyan College and he also holds a master's degree in health from the University of Buffalo.

As an undergraduate, he set nine school records at Wesleyan and was twice voted both AP and UPI basketball All-American. In 1960, he was the second leading scorer in the United States, averaging slightly over 33 points a game, and led his team to the national basketball tournament in Kansas City, Missouri. He was named to the NAIA's All-Tournament Team in 1959 and 1960.

In 1966, McDonald was selected Area Eight Coach of the Year by the eastern seaboard coaches and that same year was honored as one of the top ten finalists in the Coach of the Year national poll. McDonald's honors also include selection to the West Virginia All-Time College Basketball Team and membership in the West Virginia Sports Hall of Fame.

As a resident of Edinboro, McDonald has a record of extensive community involvement. He was Little League Baseball director for four years and also held a four-year post as a member of the General McLane School Board. He and his wife, Mary Lou, have three sons - Mark, Mike and Matthew.

Scots Look to Rebound; Eye Trip to the NCAA IIs

It's hard to say that a 7-4 season was disappointing. But when expectations were to advance to the NCAA II playoffs for the third consecutive year, the 1991 won-lost mark was not what the Scots had envisioned.

Anticipating that the 1992 pre-season polls will have Edinboro back in the national picture, Football Gazette will rank the Scots number eight. It appears the pressure will be on once again. Expectations yes, but the Fighting Scots' recent success has created them.

The Hollman Era of 1988-92 has Edinboro posting a 29-14-1 slate, including 18 of 24 wins in the rugged Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Western Division. Two trips to the national playoffs, co-championship of the PSAC, forty school records, two Division II Player of the Year finalists and 17 All-Americans are among the accomplishments. All in the last four years.

Tom Hollman begins his fifth season with the Scots and boasts a 53-25-2 record in eight years on the Division II level. His winning percentage of .663 is among the nation's best in small-college football.

Edinboro returns 33 lettermen and 17 starters (including specialties) in 1992 and should once again battle for the PSAC West title. Home encounters include the University of Buffalo and Northwood (MI), as well as PSAC western division rivals Clarion (Homecoming), Slippery Rock and Shippensburg.

The Scots travel to Southern Connecticut, Lock Haven, California, IUP and Millersville with hopes of extending their season beyond November 14.

In 1991, Edinboro played five of their first seven games on the road, and ultimately it cost them a trip to the national playoffs. This season shows more of a balance, with the Plaid hosting three of the first four games at Sox Harrison Stadium. With a 19-2-1 home record under Hollman, look for the Scots to come out of the blocks quickly in '92.

A LOOK AT THE SCOTS

Skill Positions

PSAC West Rookie of the Year Jody Dickerson returns at quarterback with veteran Sean Seibert ready to step in if needed. Dickerson connected on 53 percent of his passes last year, covering 1,382 yards and eight scores, while rushing for another 240 yards and three touchdowns.

Seibert can still lay claim to Edinboro's lone NCAA II playoff win when he engineered a convincing 38-14 margin at Virginia Union in 1990.

A veteran crew of receivers returns, led by Wrentie Martin (39-607-3 TDs), Paul Stone (9-117) and tight end Brian Heebsh (13-162-2 TDs). Martin and Heebsh were PSAC West second team selections in '91 and all three bring a wealth of game experience to the offense.

The running back position is solid with Derrick Russell (68-403-3 TDs), Larry Jackson (29-188-2 TDs), Corey Hill and Vidal Farr. Someone will have to carry the bulk with the departure of All-American Lester Frye. Three-year starter Tom Tedder (41-173-1 TD) returns at full-back and could be the PSAC West's best at this spot. Tedder will get plenty of backup support from sophomore Chris Snyder.

Offensive Line

With the graduation of All-American Curtis Rose and All-PSAC pick Wally Spisak, the Scots must fill two rather large pairs of shoes. PSAC West second team choice Mike Kegarise has pro potential with his 6-7, 300 pound frame. Starters Scott Nickel, Tony Tighe and Gordy Hitchcock also return, as will Chad Wallick, Det Betti and Dave Nowacki. Quality depth is key, so Hollman will most likely call on a pair of top recruits to help anchor the offensive front.

Defensive Line

Gone is All-American tackle John Messura, so the interior will highlight some new faces. Experience does return in Otha Davidson (22 tackles) and Russell Cray (42) while LB Devas Simmons (36) is likely to convert to a down lineman spot. End Anthony Mariani (48 tackles, 8 for loss) also returns and had a solid '91 in his initial year. Messura's spot must be filled if the Scots are to improve on their 150-yard per game rushing yield of last year.

Linebackers

All-American and All-PSAC West choice Jason Perkins (135 tackles) returns to solidify a very good corps of linebackers. Perkins was sensational in '91, picking off two passes, recording nine tackles for losses and adding four sacks to his team high tackle mark. Perkins has been chosen as a 1992 pre-season first team All-American by the Sporting News. Returning sophomore Steve Russell will give help after recording 41 tackles in '91 and tying Perkins for the team lead in interceptions with two.

Veteran Steve Nagy and newcomer Mike Edwards both looked good in spring workouts and will make heavy contributions. Simmons can play both the down position and linebacker and should be an impact player in 1992.

Secondary

With the return of All-American Georj Lewis and PSAC West second team pick Mike Barnes, the Scots' defensive backfield returns plenty of experience. 1990 PSAC West Rookie of the Year Mario Houston will be at the other corner spot. Houston was in on 75 stops last year and led the team with 12 pass deflections.

Lewis was a third team choice by Football Gazette last year and has started 34 consecutive games at the corner. His 50 tackles also earned him a first-team spot on the PSAC West All-Star squad. Barnes, a free safety/linebacker with outstanding speed and toughness, was third on the squad in '91 with 83 tackles. Only linebackers Perkins and Joel Marratta (88) were in on more tackles than Barnes.

Backup quarterback Sean Seibert has the inside track at the vacant free safety spot, vacated by four-year starter Wade Smith. Mike White and a host of top caliber freshmen give Edinboro a great secondary in 1992.

Specialties

A pair of starters return in punter Gary Lhotsky and place-kicker Scott Rupert. Lhotsky earned second team PSAC West honors a year ago with his 38.1 yards per punt. His average was second best in the division and fifth overall in the state. Lhotsky has averaged just under 37 ypp over his two-year career.

Rupert, just a sophomore, had a solid freshman year in '91, finishing second on the team with 36 points. He was true on 5-of-7 field goal tries and converted 21 extra point attempts. A great all-around athlete, Rupert led the Scot baseball team last spring with a .398 batting average.

Head Coach Tom Hollman

Tom Hollman

In January 1988, Edinboro University hired Tom Hollman, Athens, Ohio, as its eleventh head football coach in the school's history. Hollman came to Edinboro from Ohio University, where he was the defensive coordinator.

Hollman, beginning his fifth year, has the Scot program back in the national spotlight. At Edinboro, he has earned 29 wins against just 14 losses and one tie and owns an impressive 18-5-1 slate against the PSAC Western Division.

In 1989, he was named the top coach in the East Region by the National Football Coaches Association and also tabbed the top coach in the PSAC West. In 1990, he guided the Scots to their first-ever NCAA II playoff win as Edinboro routed Virginia Union and advanced to the national quarterfinals.

"Edinboro has been a great experience, and I like the direction of the program," Hollman said.

"As a coach, I have been fortunate to coach at many different levels, from high school to Division I. The Division II level here at Edinboro is very appealing to me in relation to my career goals. It is a great feeling to be a head coach at this level."

Hollman's educational background begins with a high school diploma from Memorial High School in St. Mary's, Ohio, followed by his undergraduate degree in education from Ohio Northern University in 1968. Three years later Hollman received his master of science degree in education from Xavier University in Cincinnati, Ohio.

While at Ohio Northern, Hollman was a three-year starter for the football team and a two-way performer as a defensive back and offensive end during his junior and senior years. He holds the school record with 13 career interceptions and earned All-American and All-District honors during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. Hollman also lettered in baseball for three years during his stay at Ohio Northern.

A chronological look at Hollman's coaching career begins in 1968 as an assistant coach at Sidney High School in Sidney, Ohio. From there, Hollman moved on to Greenville High School in Ohio where he became head coach from 1971-73. His Greenville squads posted an impressive, 26-2-2 mark during his three-year stay.

Hollman then moved on to Fremont Ross High School as head coach for the 1974 and 1975 seasons, where his squad recorded 15 wins against three setbacks and two ties. Fremont was the Buckeye Conference champ in '74, unbeaten at 9-0-1.

In '76, Hollman moved on to the collegiate ranks where he was the defensive coordinator for his alma mater at Ohio Northern University.

The following year, Hollman accepted the head coach position at Wooster College (OH) and guided his squad to the best four-year record in the school's history (24-11-1).

In 1981, Hollman took an assistant coaching spot with Ball State University which he held through the '84 campaign. Then, beginning in 1985 Hollman held the defensive coordinator position at Ohio University.

"It has been a very comfortable transition for me," Hollman added. "I have found the community to be supportive and the administration is giving me every opportunity to be successful here at Edinboro," he concluded.

Tom resides in Edinboro with his wife, Kandi, and four children, Mari, Jon, Tim and Denise.

"Edinboro has been a great experience, and I like the direction of the program."

The Hollman Era 1988-1992

"I still feel one of the most important things about football on the Division II level is to make it fun for the players involved . . . My initial goal for this team when I got here (Edinboro), and it still remains today, was to make football an enjoyable experience for this team and its coaching staff."

PEOPLE'S CHOICE

On an
Survey
Troyer Farms
Potato Chips
have been chosen as
and here's why . . .

Troyer Farms Potato Chips are made naturally. Our own specially grown, specially selected potatoes are cooked in pure vegetable oil to give Troyer Farms Potato Chips the light taste they're famous for. And no preservatives are added, so our chips come Farm Fresh . . . from Troyer Farms to you.

Assistant Coaches

Scott Browning – Secondary

Moving to the defensive side of the ball, from the offensive backfield, Scott brings a wealth of coaching experience in his seventh year at the 'Boro. Under his guidance the Scot defense has intercepted 63 passes the past four seasons. He has guided the fortunes of All-Americans Wade Smith and Georj Lewis, and PSAC Rookie of the Year Mario Houston.

Scott came to Edinboro from Ohio State University, where he coached receivers and runningbacks including Keith Byers. Prior to his start at OSU, Browning coached at Worthington and Dayton-Fairview High Schools in Ohio, from 1979-81. Then, as a graduate assistant, he coached the defensive secondary at New Mexico State in 1982.

In 1983, he mentored the receivers at Idaho State University which advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Browning earned a master's degree in education administration from New Mexico State in 1983, and a BS in education from Ohio State in 1981. Earlier, before transferring to OSU, Scott attended Capital University where he played football for one season. Browning was a four-year letterman in four sports at Loudenville High School (OH) prior to his collegiate days. Scott is married to the former Lynn Hook and resides in Edinboro.

Dan Gierlak – Running Backs

Dan Gierlak enters his sixth season as a full-time coach with his responsibilities concerning the running backs. He is also the head women's softball coach for the Scots and led the squad to the PSAC playoffs in 1990.

Gierlak came to the 'Boro from Thiel College (Pa.) where he coached the defensive secondary for the 1984 season. Dan, a starter and three-year letterwinner for the Plaid in the secondary, moved on to the semi-pro ranks with the Chicago Cowboys. During his short stint with the Cowboys, Gierlak's squad gained national championship honors in 1984 and runner up nationally in the 1985 season. Gierlak brings both playing and coaching experience to the staff, giving the Scot players an added plus on the offensive side of the ball. As backfield coach, he has guided former Harlon Hill finalist Elbert Cole and Boro All-American Lester Frye.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, Dan graduated from Edinboro with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, the former Amy Adams and one-year-old daughter, Alexandria Alicia, reside in Edinboro.

Mark Niswonger – Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Mark Niswonger, a veteran of the coaching ranks for 19 years, begins his fifth year with the Plaid as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. Former understudy of head coach Tom Hollman at Greenville High School, Mark brings extensive experience both on and off the field to the Scot coaching staff. He has helped mold the Scot defense into one of the most respected squads in the country over the past four years.

His coaching stint began back while attending Findlay when he was the head scout for Arlington High School. His first job after college was as defensive coordinator for Bryan High School (OH) where the team earned a 9-1 record. The next two seasons, Niswonger was the defensive coordinator at West Carrollton High School (OH) where his squad posted an impressive 17-1-2 slate.

After West Carrollton, he then returned to graduate school at Ball State University where he helped coach the tight ends and offensive linemen.

From 1981-84, Niswonger was the head coach at Franklin City Schools and was named "coach of the year" in 1982 when his squad won its first league championship in 18 years. He then moved on to the collegiate ranks in 1984 at Manchester College as defensive coordinator and then back to his alma mater from 85-87 as their secondary coach.

Niswonger's education includes an undergraduate degree in physical education and political science from Findlay and a MA in physical education from Ball State. Mark and his wife Patty and one-year-old daughter, Megan Marie, reside in Edinboro.

Gene Smith - Defensive Line

Gene Smith will enter his fifth year directing the Scot defensive line. The Scots defensive line was ranked first in the PSAC and in the NCAA top ten nationally last season in rushing defense. He aided in the development of Scot All-Americans Jeff Jacobs and John Messura.

Smith also has past association with Coach Hollman as he was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line under Hollman at Ohio University. The following season with the Bobcats, Smith moved to the offensive side of the ball as tight end/tackle coach for OU. He also worked extensively with the weight training program as a strength coach. Gene is the coordinator of strength and conditioning for the Scot football squad.

As a player, he enjoyed an outstanding career at Heidelberg College. Smith captained Heidelberg his senior season. He obtained his B.S. degree in education during his undergraduate years and later completed his M.S. in athletic administration from Ohio University. Smith has also completed post-graduate hours.

Smith, originally from Monroeville, Ohio, resides in Edinboro.

Ed Stults - Offensive Line

Ed Stults enters his fourth year directing the Scot offensive line. In his initial year with Edinboro, Stults organized an offensive front that was one of the best in the country. He directed the fortunes of three All-Americans including Scot first-teamer Curtis Rose and numerous All-Conference players. Rose recently signed a free agent contract with the Miami Dolphins of the National Football League.

He brings over ten years of coaching experience to the Scot linemen. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Blufon College, in 1981 directing the linebackers. Later on in his coaching stint he turned his attention to the offensive line. He played linebacker at Blufon from 1976-79 and he graduated in 1980 with a BA in education.

After his coaching tenure at Blufon that spanned 1981-87, Stults took the offensive line duties at the University of Cincinnati in 1988.

Stults is married to the former Pamela Lewis and resides in Edinboro.

Basketball, Wrestling Getting Ready – '92-93 Preview

Scot Cagers Could be PSAC West Favorites

When the PSAC men's basketball coaches vote in the pre-season for the western division favorite for 1992-93, look for the Fighting Scots to be selected near the top.

In three seasons directing the program, head coach Greg Walcavich has led the Scots to 60 wins in 84 games including a conference runner-up finish last season. A 20-9 slate in 1991-92 was good enough for a berth in the state championship game but once again, the Scots fell short of their ultimate goal – a trip to the NCAA II national championship tournament.

After beginning 1992-93 with a pre-season slate of games against NCAA Division I Alaska-Anchorage and Alaska-Fairbanks on the road, the Scots face a non-conference schedule which includes backyard rivals Gannon and Mercyhurst and PSAC Eastern Division perennial powers Cheyney and Millersville. Walcavich feels it will all benefit the Scots in the conference stretch run.

But the good news for the four-year coach is the return of his most experienced group since taking over in 1989-90. Leading the charge will be the team's leading scorer of a year ago, Adam Cheek. The 6-2 shooting guard netted an Edinboro single season record 594 points last year and averaged 20.5 points per game – all when he averaged just 27 minutes of play.

Adam Cheek

Other returnees include seniors Greg Fox, Sam Dickerson and Junior Simpson; juniors Lasana Crider, Ron Santiago and Exavier Zollicoffer and red-shirt freshman Keith Perry.

Fox earned the starting point guard spot a year ago at Christmas and the Scots proceeded to win over 85% of their games the rest of the way. He finished the year with 103 assists.

Dickerson and Simpson occupied the middle last season and averaged 3.0 and 7.0 ppg respectively. Both are solid rebounders while Simpson is the defensive force at center, leading the squad with 49 blocked shots a year ago.

Crider, who averaged just over three points per game, appears to be fully recovered from knee surgery and will press both centers for playing time. Santiago will spell Fox at the point while Zollicoffer will look to improve on his 6.5 ppg mark a year ago. A clutch performer, Zollicoffer drilled a game winning three point basket in the PSAC semi-finals against East Stroudsburg last season.

Leroy Bobo, a 6-4 forward from Jordan Community College in Michigan, will look to fill the void left by Aaron Brown. Bobo netted 17.6 points and 8.1 rebounds a year ago.

New Look Lady Scots for 1992-93

Replacing first-team Kodak All-American Tammy Walker, Edinboro's first ever, is literally impossible, so Lady Scot head coach Stan Swank does not want to talk about 'that' anymore. His sights are on a "new-look" squad with a mesh of some familiar faces and plenty of new.

The Lady Scots return six players from a team that finished 22-8 and qualified for the NCAA II national tournament. Edinboro has claimed one PSAC crown under Swank and twice has finished runner up.

Leading the list of returnees will be PSAC West 1st team choice Jeannine Jean Pierre. The senior from the Virgin Islands averaged 20 points per game last year, playing an average of over 35 minutes. Her 581 points were the third most in Lady Scot history.

Also returning to the fold will be guards Andrea Williams, Pam Artman and Shelby Hodge and forwards Terri Ayers and Cathlene Criss.

Williams proved her ability to score with 31 points in the season finale and finished the year with 320 points and 111 assists. Artman was also solid, dishing off 85 assists and scoring 5.3 points per game, while Hodge connected on nearly 30% of her three point tries last season.

Ayers will be the Lady Scots' inside force, coming off a year where she grabbed 247 rebounds. Just a junior, Ayers now stands as Edinboro's 15th all-time rebounder with 424. Criss played in 20 games last season and will look to improved playing time this season.

Swank boasts some top recruits for the upcoming season including Diana Holder, Lori Montgomery and Shauna Nevel, the most valuable player in the 5th Annual North Coast All-Star Classic in the Cleveland, Ohio, area last year.

Wrestlers Eye Division I Top 20

After finishing 25th at the NCAA Division I wrestling championships last season and in the top 30 the past two years, the 1992-93 Fighting Scots and head coach Bruce Baumgartner will eye the nation's elite and a ranking in the top 20 at season's end.

Under the watchful eye of the Olympic champion, the Scots have made a steady progression back to the nation's top 10 – a position they secured in their first three seasons of Division I wrestling from 1987-89. The Scots return a pair of All-Americans in 118-pounder Lew Rosselli and Tom Shifflet at 142.

Rosselli has emerged in the national spotlight as one of the favorites for the NCAA Division I national title. After placing 4th in the 1992 Olympic Trials, Rosselli has gained the experience to gear up for his title run in March. A 4th place finisher in 1990-91, Rosselli redshirted last season and enters the season with 96 career wins against just 23 losses and 4 ties.

Shifflet earned All-American honors last year as a freshman, finishing 7th at the Division I championships. He was voted PSAC and Eastern Wrestling League Rookie of the Year for his 32 wins against just 13 losses and 1 tie.

STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

James H. McCormick
Chancellor

Greetings:

On behalf on the Board of Governors for the State System of Higher Education and the Office of the Chancellor, I am pleased to welcome you to today's exciting athletic event.

The Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) is a nationally respected athletic association. Last season, over 40 teams were among the best in the country, competing in regional and national championship competitions in football, basketball, swimming, track and field, wrestling, field hockey, tennis, lacrosse, cross country, softball, and baseball. Many athletes earned All-American and top scholar recognition for their work in the classroom and in the athletic arena. The efforts of these women and men who represent their universities and the entire State System, in victory or defeat, are supported and applauded.

The outstanding university coaching staffs that provide leadership, instruction, and encouragement also are to be commended for their contributions to the PSAC. Nothing can replace the time and talent they give to their students and universities.

The Board of Governors, the university presidents, the campus communities, and I hope you will continue supporting our State System universities and their athletic programs during the 1992-93 academic year. Your attendance is appreciated.

Sincerely,

James H. McCormick

Fighting Scot Scholar-Athletes

The recent success of the Edinboro University football program has carried over into the classroom. No better examples than the accomplishments of senior quarterback/free safety Sean Seibert and All-American defensive back Georj Lewis.

Seibert will earn a political science degree this December in just seven semesters of attending Edinboro University. His 3.0+ cumulative grade point average and contributions to the Scot football program make Sean a true scholar-athlete. He has been recognized the past three years for his outstanding accomplishments by the University.

Lewis, who last year earned All-American honors at defensive back, has found the academic and athletic balance to complete his business administration degree in four years. His 3.0+ cumulative grade point is outstanding, considering he has started every game since his freshman year, a string of 34 consecutive, entering the 1992 season.

Pete Zapadka Wins PSAC Media Award

Pete Zapadka, former sports reporter at the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, is the winner of the fourth annual Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference Media Award.

He left his position in the sports department in May after nearly 11 years to accept a position as an executive producer with the Post-Gazette Radio Network.

The award is given by the sports information directors of the PSAC to a media member who has supported and promoted conference athletics.

Zapadka is the second Pittsburgh media person to receive the award. Ray Kienzl, sportswriter for the Pittsburgh Press, was the first recipient of the award in 1989.

Ross Nevel of the Lock Haven Express and former sports information director at Lock Haven University, was the 1990 honoree and Skip Hutter of the Patriot News in Harrisburg was the award winner last year.

Zapadka is being recognized for his dedication to excellence in sports reporting and for the many contributions he has made to the PSAC over the years. He is known for his honesty, integrity, diligence and hard work.

In addition to his outstanding efforts to get coverage in the paper for PSAC athletes from the greater Pittsburgh area, Zapadka has been a valuable friend and confidant to the sports information directors throughout the PSAC, not only those in the Western Division.

Through his job on the sports staff, he would regularly fight for listings including standings, schedules, results, etc. of PSAC schools in the Post-Gazette. He also was actively involved in the sports department of the P-G zone editions and used information on all sports, not only the traditional sports of major media interest.

A strong booster of coverage for all NCAA Division II and III schools plus NAIA institutions, Zapadka was an initial supporter of the idea of PSAC press conferences for football and basketball when those events were in the formative stages.

In addition to sports, Zapadka's hobby is astronomy and he has written feature articles for the Post-Gazette's Science page on that topic. He is the membership secretary for the Amateur Astronomy Association of Pittsburgh.

A native of Ellwood City, Pa. he earned a Journalism degree from Point Park College in Pittsburgh in 1975, and went to work full-time at the Post-Gazette in January of 1976. He moved to the sports department in August, 1981.

Zapadka and his wife, Lynne, live in Pittsburgh with their two daughters, Allison, 7, and Jessica, 3½. Lynne works as an account representative in retail advertising for the Pittsburgh Press.
